FRIDAY, DEC. 23, 1887.

MISCHIEVOUS MISREPRESENTA-TION.

We have been requested to state that there is no truth in the report circulated around town, and printed in the "Hawaiian Gazette," to the affect that the King is about to promulgate a new Constitution, and that the Household Guards and other military companies are being put in readiness with a view to approaching hostilities.

The King is not preparing a new Constitution. He is satisfied with the Constitution as it is. This we have been requested to state, and it should allay popular apprehension

A CONFUSION OF IDEAS.

The Government organ to-day says that "matters of detail in making or executing the laws sink into comparative insignificance," with the "possession of the great privilege of free, popular selfgovernment." Here is a confusion of ideas truly. The objects to be attained by free, popular self-government are precisely those things which the "Gazette" contends are immaterial.

This same confusion of ideas runs through the entire editorial article of the "Gazette." It must be evident to intelligent readers that the writers in that journal do not begin to comprehend the vital principle embodied in the terms used by it namely, "free, popular self-government," "independent legislation" and "responsible administration." It is this defect in apprehension which leads that paper to commit so many vagaries when dealing with constitutional questions.

For example, it labors under the delusion that the New Constitution confers upon the country "the inestimable boon of responsible government." It does nothing of the kind. It creates a Cabinet, responsible to neither King nor Legislature, if the contention of Ministers be adopted as correct. This is not what the people intended, whatever may have been in the minds of Ministers when they presented that very unique instrument, the Constitution of July 7th, to the King for his approval.

At the very best, the Constitution makes Ministers responsible to the King; it does not make them responsible to the Legislature or the people. The King appoints and removes his Ministers. That is the plain reading of the Constitution in this regard; but Ministers are fighting to free themselves from responsibility to the King, as has been already shown by the BULLETIN, and are seeking to be responsible only to their own consciousness of duty. It is this irresponsibility of Ministers for which the "Gazette" contends | From Monday, 19th, to Saturday, 24th for, the possession of which it declares "should be guarded by every means within control," and beside which 16 lw the "making and executing of laws sink into comparative insignificance." The people of this country think otherwise.

CONCERT AT KAUMAKAPILI CHURCH.

The concert to be given at Kaumakapili church to-morrow evening promises to be a great success. The programme has been published, and is a full and attractive one. The money derivable from this concert will be applied to a most worthy object, namely, the education of Hawaiian girls in the English tongue. As already stated in the BULLETIN, there are several pupils at Kawaiahao school and two day pupils at Miss Corney's school, maintained by the Liliuokalani Educational Society. The intention of Princess Liliuokalani and the lady members of this society, is to raise a fund the interest of which will be devoted to educational work. The subscriptions have been sufficient heretofore for the outgoings, and there is a reserve fund in the hands of Mr. Alex. Cartwright, senior, to the credit of the society, which may be regarded as a nucleus, to be added to from time to time by money derived from concerts or other entertainment, and by donations and subscriptions. The cost of maintaining, clothing and educating a girl at Kawaiahao school is about $100 per annum. It is evident, therefore, that if the Liliuokalani Society is to become an effective educational force in the community funds must be more freely contributed than hitherto. The Hawaiian ladies who have the matter in hand have done commendably well, but interest is apt to slacken as the novelty of such a movement wears off. The concert at Kaumakapili church to-morrow evening should quicken interest in this work, and leave a considerable sum in the hands of the treasurer.

THERE will be no band concert at Emma Square Saturday afternoon, as the band will play on board the U. S. S. Vandalia during the barge race. On Monday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock, the Hawaiian Band will give a Christmas concert at Emma Square.

ONE of the many places in town which attract purchasers of holiday goods, is Mr. J. T. Waterhouse's Fort street store. All day long, children and adults go in streams to the upstairs department, and they must be hard to please if they do not find something there to satisfy.

THE MADRAS CASE.

In the Supreme Court in banco today, the decision of the lower Court was reversed and a new trial ordered, and the plainliff to pay all costs.

THANKS.

The ladies of St. Andrew's Cathedral desire to return their thanks to the ladies and gentlemen o' Honolulu, to the officers of the men-ofwar, to the members of the press, and to Mr. Berger and his band, for their valuable assistance at their late fair, which did so much to make it a success. The net proceeds were over $2,000.

THE PIONEER.

Mr. F. Horn's Pioneer Steam bakery and candy factory continues to the front in candies, cakes and ornamented with silver and gold other good things. A BULLETIN reporter, on paying a visit to the Pioneer this noon, was granted the privilege of looking into the cake room. The cake room is about 25 feet long by about 15 wide. It was lined with tables, which were heavily laden with freshly made cake, jellyrolls. pound and raisin cakes, and other kinds, to the amount of $300 worth. Peeping under a cover of paper, the reporter saw about two dozen handsome Christmas cakes, which Mr. Horn had just made and was ornanfenting with sugar roses, leaves and artistic borders. The front department or store of the Pioneer Bakery, is stocked with an one side with inviting edibles of a enormous variety of choice candies, in jars and glass cases. Elegant cakes, bon-bons, fancy Christmas boxes full of sweetness, jellies, sugar baskets, chocolate, cocoanut and French creams, and innumerable other delicacies are invitingly placed about. Mr. Horn, who has cause to be proud of his establishment, invites public inspection.

DR. J. S. MCGREW.

Hale and hearty on his sixtyfourth birthday, Dr. J. S. McGrew received the congratulations of numerons friends and acquaintances at his Beretania street residence today. There is no man in the city who has a more numerous circle of friends and admirers to wish him the enjoyment of many long and happy years, the only cause for regret being that his birthday this year will not be brightened by the glad faces of wife and children, who are absent in Europe. The BULLE-TIN joins his host of friends in wishing Dr. J. S. McGrew many bappy returns of the day.

MR. J. LEVEY TALKS TO-NIGHT. The stentorian voice of Mr. L. J. Levey, auctioneer, will be heard at his salesroom, at the corner of Fort and Queen streets, this evening. Neither politics nor polemics will be the subject of talk, but something better suited to the "peace on earth and good will towards men" Christmas season, interesting to ladies, gentlemen, and children. In few and short words, articles adapted for presents at this season will be introduced to the notice of the audience, and passed over to the possession of those bidding the highest figure. Tops, dolls, majolica ware, jewelry, and an endless variety of other things will be offered without reserve. Here is your chance. The

Mr. Jas. F. Morgan will deliver an interesting address this evening, to which the public generally are The address will be in Mr. Morgan's salesroom, Queen street, and the admission will be free. Arrangements will be made to accommodate the ladies with seats: gentlemen will have to stand. One part of the address will be devoted to a fine selection of Japanese goods, appropriate for Christmas presents. Another part will treat of a variety of genuine and not imitation jewelry. Without pretending to anticipate the entire speech, it is safe to predict that the close of each paragraph will be "Going, going, gone!" and the highest bidder takes the article. Mr. Morgan has been heard many times before, and to-night there will be a chance to hear him once more, and secure bargains. The hammer will be raised at 7 o'clock.

A PALACE OF SWEETS.

The Elite Ice Cream Saloon is truly a palace of sweets. Christmas cakes handsomely frosted and leaves, surrounding red and white roses, and "A Merry Christmas" in sugar letters, are prominent. Then on a table are loaves of bread filled with candies, which are discovered by spring arrangement; basket of candles and imitations fruits, the former to be eaten, the latter for ornamentation; apples stuffed with sweet meats, slippers and shoes, toy fiddles and mandalines; fancy boxes of delicious crystalized fruits, bon-bons popcorn balls, cornucopial, and a most tempting variety of other things suitable for Christmas presents. The windows are finely fixed up, sweet nature, and the other with a multitude of Hawaiian and South Sea Island curios of unique description. The Elite ice cream and the mince pies made there every day, speak for themselves. To-morrow evening the Quintette club will be at this palace of sweets and will sing and play their favorite songs and chimes from 7 to 10 o'clock.

PERMANENT INVESTMENTS.

EDITOR BULLETIN: - The "Gazette" of the 22nd instant gave as a proof of public confidence in the Reform Government the fact that several planters had paid their taxes in advance; and further stated, as another proof, that "leading capitalists have largely increased their investments in plantations and other reproductive property."

The tax advances being simply a loan to the Treasury count for nothing; but if it were true that capital is being extensively invested in permanent improvements which would otherwise be untouched, it would count for something. The fact, however, appears to be that nothing in the shape of permanent investment has been undertaken since the new regime began that would not have been undertaken in any event. The new buildings in the city come within this category, the latest, that on the Brewer block, being essential to render the property renumerative, and an intention to build was announced long before the revolu-

The development of plantation interests does not depend upon a change of government, and cannot be set down to that account. But what must be taken into account is the withdrawal of capital from this Kingdom and its investment on the Coast. This outward movement of capital has been greatly accelerated since June 30th, and it has now assumed serious proportions. Thickand-thin backers of that movement are sending away their money for investment. Does that look like confidence? Let the writer in the "Gazette" try to borrow money on the best kind of security and he will speedily find out what capital thinks of the stability of the existing order of things.

It is admitted by all, and the newspapers have been a unit on the subject, that the Wilder railroad project and the Dillingham land colonization scheme are of paramount importance, and will do more to develope the resources of the country and add to its future wealth than any enterprises that have ever before been brought forward. This being the case they should not lack the backing of local capital, more especially if the "Gazette" be correctly informed. But they do lack this backing. Neither enterprise worth speaking of in any island of the group, and must go to London seeking. In other words, Hawaiian capital does not now look for permanent investment in Hawaiian enterprises. What cannot be withdrawn remains here; what can be withdrawn is being quietly sent out of the country for investment elsewhere. This is the truth of the matter, and an unpleasant truth it is.
