OBJECTIONS CONSIDERED.

After vainly waiting seven months for the Government to give its friends at least a fair footing with its enemies in the public service, the Annexation party is advised against "precipitate" removals. The Advertiser, letting "I dare not" wait upon "I would," becomes sponsor for delay and hesitation. It admits that the principle underlying the demand for a change is perfectly correct, but it pleads that the time is not "opportune," that the policy urged, "in view of past and present conditions, is not expedient," and that the reward of friends at the expense of enemies would make a "clashing of interests" dangerous to "the present harmony of the Annexation movement." It is intimated further that the desires of the Annexation Club are not in accord with the proposals of the STAR.

We find a similar sentiment in the Royalist organ, the Bulletin. That journal is also opposed to removals. "The Government may well decide," it says, "to keep the hungry herd represented by the STAR away from the feeding trough a while longer."

If, as our morning contemporary says, and as we believe, the principle which demands an exchange of foes for friends in the national departments is correct, then the question of time is not concerned. "For justice, good, my lord, all places temples and all seasons summer." To do the right thing is a duty as incumbent upon those who come late as those who enter early. There is no time more opportune for making the body politic secure, for strengthening the public safeguards and for suppressing latent ills and dangers than the first time that comes to hand; and if one opportunity has been neglected it is no argument for a further delay and a final procrastination. If the principle is correct let us go ahead and apply it.

The STAR does not divine the meaning of the Delphic oracles of the morning paper about "past and present conditions." What are they but conditions to satisfy enemies and dishearten friends?—which pay public money to men who use it against the cause of Annexation and withhold it from those who are defenders of the cause and Government? Should such conditions be perpetuated? If so, why?

Neither do we understand the talk about danger of a "clash of interests." Have not the interests of monarchy been clashing with those of Annexation for seven months or more? Would the removal from power of those who are clashing for the Royalists be a hindrance to Annexation progress? Would it not be a help?

As to any reasonable method of putting Royalists out and loyal citizens in, being dangerous to the harmony of the Annexation movement, we regard that as the council of fear and political unwisdom. As the case stands with thousands of dollars paid monthly to the friends and advocates of the ex-Queen, harmony between the Annexation party and the Government it has ordained is far from perfect. In fact, the talk on the streets about the official policy is neither agreeable nor reassuring. It does not, to be sure, indicate any weakening of defensive lines; but it shows that the bonds of sympathy and confidence are not so strong as they ought to be, nor so strong as they once were and could again be made. Going into historical parallels it is significant that every President of the United States who inspired any serious effort to institute the kind of civil service reform which rewards opposition and punishes support, ran his party upon a lee shore and was retired from office. Rutherford B. Hayes was an example. Grover Cleveland met defeat in 1888 partly because he had alienated so many friends by keeping Republicans in power; and had he not recanted in time he would be a private citizen today instead of the Lord High Executioner of Republican diplomats and postmasters. Standing by one's friends is not a maxim of discord. But trying to affiliate with one's foes at the expense of a loyal and worthy following invariably leads to mischief, and always will while human nature remains as it is.

Touching the point that the Annexation Club is not in accord with the STAR upon the expediency of pressing this momentous issue, we are quite ready to put that question to a test. Let a meeting be called and a resolution offered asking the Government to exclude from office under it those who are not loyal to its principles. That would settle any doubts in the Advertiser's mind as to the immediate popularity of a measure which, as that paper finds itself admitting, has a principle beneath it "that meets the endorsement of a large majority of the Annexationists."

THE WHY AND WHEREFORE.

It is quite true that Royalists who hold office are able to get friends of theirs, in the Annexation party, to ask the Government to have them retained. Your careful merchant with a good Royalist customer is quite willing to do a trifling favor of that sort. It costs him nothing, and a refusal might affect his trade. The same is true of the loyal patient of a Royalist doctor, the banker who has Royalist names on his "paper," the fellow-stockholder of a Royalist in a sugar company, the oath-bound friend of some Royalist member of a lodge. All these people find it to their interest to ask the Government to maintain the status quo in spite of its being a part—and an offensive part at that—of the status quo ante.

To heed counsel of this kind and neglect the wishes of the great Annexation party, the members of which have no Royalist axes to grind, is to commit an error in politics that cannot but have unfortunate results.

Let the Annexation club speak on this issue and mark out the difference between a commercial private sentiment and a patriotic national opinion.

ONE of the Vice-Presidents of the Annexation Club notifies the STAR that if the Club's views upon removals are correctly given by the Advertiser he will promptly resign his office. In his opinion the great body of the Annexation Club and party is tired of the seven months' delay. The Vice-President suggests that a public meeting be called to debate the question. That would settle any doubts, quickly enough, as to where the Annexation party stands.

On March last the Council passed, on motion of Mr. Emmeluth, the following resolution by a unanimous vote: Resolved: That it is the sense of this Council, whenever appointments are made in the civil or military service of this Government, its prominent supporters shall, if qualified, have the preference.

This rule has been broken in half a dozen appointments! It is time to have a change of policy.

When Hawaii becomes an American State and some of our present political leaders want to run for the Assembly, or Senate or for Congress, to whom will they appeal for nominations?—to the ex-Royalists whom they once kept in office, or the Annexationists whom they kept out?

THE doctrines of civil service reform, however they may apply to patriots who differ as to means of securing a common end, do not cover disloyal office-holders who would seize an opportunity to change the forms of Government by intrigue or force.

CLEGG, Stuppelbeen, Carter, and Tripp! They all went out, and singularly enough, their succession was provided for without the slightest break in the general harmony of the Annexation ranks. Now try Trouseau!

THE STAR takes pleasure in saying that W. Horace Wright of the Foreign Office is a member of the Annexation Club. His name should not have been included in the list of non-signers.

WHAT about the "expediency" of the Advertiser's successful campaign against Tripp? That occurred but a fortnight or two ago. Did the heavens fall?

AN interesting letter from Albert E. Nichols will be printed and discussed to-morrow.

Is the Advertiser trying to lay the ghost of the Hitchfield letter?

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Vinegar will remove lime from car-pets.

Fine shavings from soft pine wood make a pleasant pillow that may be utilized for comfort if you have a hammock.

To clean articles of papier mache, wash them with a little lukewarm water and soap, after which rub them vigorously with sweet oil.

Chemists say that it takes more than twice as much sugar to sweeten preserves, sauces, etc., if put in when they begin to cook, as it does to sweeten them after the fruit is cooked.

Whole cloves are now used to exterminate the merciless and industrious moth. It is said that they are more effective as a destroying agent than either tobacco, camphor or cedar shavings.

Books.—Besides a full line of Blank Books, the various sizes and bindings.—Time Books, Log Books, Agents' and Notaries' Records, Receipts, Note and other form books, Memo, and Pass Books, the variety of Miscellaneous Works, Teachers' and other Bibles, Children's books, Lined and other Toy Books, etc., etc., invites attention.

Special Import Orders for Books, Music, etc., made up Monthly.

News.—The News Department has careful attention for prompt forwarding of all periodicals. Subscriptions entered at any time and periodicals not regularly received will be ordered as desired.

All Subscriptions Payable in Advance.

A large stock of desirable and libraries on hand, and new Novels received by every mail. Artists' Drawing Materials, and a full supply of Winsor & Newton's oil colors, brushes, canvas, stretchers, etc., kept on hand or produced on short notice.

Albums in their several kinds, Work Books and Bibles, Toilet and Manicure sets, Vases, Card Receivers, Leather Goods, Parlor games and Toys in variety, Dolls and Doll sundries.

Base Balls, Bats, Masks and Gloves
For all aspiring enthusiasts in the profession; all grades.

Binding.—The Book Binding and Paper Ruling Department will fill all orders entrusted to it in the manufacture of special work, rebounding, plain and intricate ruling, map mounting, paper cutting and blocking, etc. Music bound with care.

Printing.—Printing orders of all kinds, executed in best class manner.
In all the above lines in which T. G. T. has been for over twenty years identified in this city, he invites correspondence, and guarantees prompt and careful attention to all orders entrusted to him.

In making up an order, see that it includes a subscription for yourself and for one or more relatives or friends abroad to "THE FRIEND," the oldest paper published in the Pacific, Rev. S. E. Bishop, Editor; published monthly, at $2 per annum, devoted to the religious and educational interests of these islands, as also a recorder of political and other current events. Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and recent events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless

Preparation

OF

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectively breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

WORLD'S FAIRS.

The fourth was in Paris in 1867. It covered 37 acres and continued 217 days. The exhibitors numbered 50,236 and the visitors 10,200,000. The cost was $4,000,000. The receipts were $2,100,000.

In 1855 the second world's fair was held at Paris. It continued 200 days and covered 24 1/2 acres. There were 21,779 exhibitors and 5,162,330 visitors. The cost was $1,700,000, the receipts $1,280,000.

The third exposition was held in London in 1861. It continued 171 days and covered 23 1/2 acres of ground. There were 28,653 exhibitors and 6,211,102 visitors. It cost $2,300,000, and the receipts were $2,040,000.

The fifth great world's fair was in Vienna in 1873. The buildings covered 40 acres and were occupied by 42,000 exhibitors. There were 7,254,687 admissions during 186 days. The cost was $11,000,000. The receipts were $1,030,000.

The Philadelphia exposition of 1876 was the sixth great display. The buildings covered sixty acres. There were 60,000 exhibitors and 9,910,996 admissions. The cost is stated at $8,500,000. The receipts are said to have been $3,800,000.

The seventh international fair was in Paris in 1878. The buildings covered sixty acres, and the exhibitors numbered 32,000. There were 13,000,000 admissions during 194 days. The official report makes no mention of cost or expenses.

The first great international exposition was held in London in 1851. It lasted 144 days. The buildings and grounds covered twenty-one acres. There were 17,000 exhibitors and 6,039,195 visitors. The receipts were $2,520,000 and the expenses $1,460,000.

The eighth fair was at Paris in 1889. The buildings covered seventy-five acres and were occupied by 60,000 exhibitors. The exposition remained open 183 days, and was attended by the astounding number of 32,354,111. The cost was $11,000,000. The receipts were $8,380,000. — Chicago Tribune.

THE TURF'S GREAT PACERS.

Vitello, 2:11 1/2, is the champion pacer of the Empire State.

Among the mares, Yolo Maid, 2:12, stands very high as a pacer.

The veteran Johnston is being campaigned again this year.

Guy, 2:06 3/4, is one of the swiftest "sidewheelers" out this season.

Direct, 2:05 1/2, is a California horse. He will not be campaigned this year.

Saladin recently defeated Champion Mascot, 2:04, in the fast time of 2:05 3/4.

Turf prophets believe the pacer will be the first two-minute harness horse.

Roy Wilkes, 2:07 1/2, will without doubt decrease his mark before the campaign is over.

There is only half a second between Hal Pointer, 2:04 1/2, and the championship of the world.

Jay-Eye-See, 2:06 1/4, is fifteen years old and never paced until last season. His trotting record is 2:10.

Flying Jib, 2:06 3/4, is looked upon as a probable champion this year. At the beginning of last season he had no record.

The 5-year-old gray stallion Manager, 2:09 3/4, will undoubtedly prove one of the most formidable championship candidates this year.

Mascot, Flying Jib and Guy paced the five fastest heats on record last year. Mascot took the first in 2:04. Flying Jib the second in 2:05 3/4, and Guy the remainder in 2:06 3/4, 2:08 1/2 and 2:08 3/4.

SINGULAR AVERSIONS.

Marshal d'Albert fled at the sight of pigs.

Pascal always thought he saw a yawning abyss on his left hand.

Vladislas, king of Poland became excited every time he saw an apple.

Louis XIV could not bear the sight of the church steeple of St. Denis.

Bayle went into fits when he heard the noise of water rushing out of a tap.

Scaliger could not look at a bunch of watercress without being seized with a shivering fit.

Tycho Brae the famous astronomer, changed color and felt his limbs give way under him when meeting a hare.

Julius Caesar was remarkably afraid of thunder. It is said that he wore a laurel wreath to protect himself from the lightning.

Hobbes, the freethinker, could not be left without a light in the night for a single moment lest he should go off in a delirium.

Henry III, the son of Catharina of Medicis, had such a horror of cats that he could not remain in the same room with one of these animals.

The Chevalier d'Alcantara became sick at the sound of the word lana (wool), and yet he did not object to wearing woolen clothes.

La Mothe le Vayer could not bear the sound of any kind of instrument, however harmonious, but the noise of thunder and the howling of the wind sent him into ecstasies.

A Talking Donkey.

The secret of teaching donkeys to talk is said to have been bought from a Tunisian chief by a French impresario for the sum of $850, and at least in one case it has proved a success. The wonderful animal in question, which has not yet appeared in public, though it will shortly do so, does not indeed carry on connected conversations, but can clearly articulate a large number of phrases in both the French and English languages.

ANNALS OF THE LAW.

1236—The common law of England, a collection of unwritten maxims and customs, was solemnly affirmed by the Parliament of Merton.

1285—Counsel who were guilty of deceit or collusion were punishable by fine and imprisonment.

1291—Barristers were first appointed by Edward I, but there is earlier mention of professional advocates.

1291—Special pleaders or barristers first appointed by Edward I as crown officers.

1292—The yearbooks, reports in Norman French of cases argued and decided in the English courts, began to be kept.

1352—High treason defined as an attempt against the life of the sovereign or the existence of the state. Two living witnesses required.

1352—Petty treason defined to be the murder of a husband by a wife, a master by a servant or an ecclesiastical superior by a subordinate.

1353—A change made in the English jury law. When one party was an alien, half the jury must consist in denizens, half of aliens.

1372—Lawyers forbidden to sit in Parliament as members.

1503—Murderers were allowed the benefit of clergy—that is, if a murderer could read he was entitled to the protection of the ecclesiastical courts.

1531—Boiling to death was made a capital punishment, seventeen persons having been poisoned by a cook in revenge for a sight.

1545—Murder was allowed to be compounded for in Wales by payment to the relatives.

1547—The statute ordering boiling to death as a punishment for poisoning was repealed.

1562—Forgery of deeds or giving forged deeds in evidence was made punishable by fine, by standing in the pillory, by having both ears cut off, the nostrils cut and seared so that they would not unite, the forfeiture of land and perpetual imprisonment.—St Louis Globe Democrat.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Good players of the harp are said to be the scarcest of all musical performers.

Out of 9654 bodies taken to the morgues of New York last year, but 107 remained unidentified.

In cholera plagues since 1848 the death rate has been uniform, about 40 per cent. of the cases terminating fatally.

Some members of London's smart set are attempting by force of example to revive the wearing of knee breeches as a fashion of evening dress.

Sixty thousand Italian women, led by the flower of the aristocracy of Rome, are petitioning the chamber against divorce. They consider it a religious offense.

The screw propeller of the steamship Umbria is twenty four and a half feet in diameter and weighs thirty-nine tons. Its four blades are made of manganese bronze, and the metal in them cost over $16,000.

The origin of "a feather in his cap" is thus explained. In Hungary in 1599 it was decreed that only he who had killed a Turk should wear a feather, and he was permitted to add a fresh feather to his cap for each Turk whom he had slain.

The intensity of confined sound is illustrated at Caubrook castle, Isle of Wight, where there is a well 200 feet deep and twelve feet in diameter, lined with smooth masonry. When a pin is dropped into it the sound of it striking the surface of the water 182 feet below can be distinctly heard.

Monuments for the Boundary.

There have recently been received at the Mexican border two carloads of Government freight, consisting of the new line monuments and other necessities for the work of definitely marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico. On the old monuments iron plates are to be affixed by means of bolts, on which is inscribed in raised letters: "Repaired by the boundary commission created by the treaties of 1882-1889. The destruction or displacement of this monument is a misdemeanor punishable by the United States or Mexico."

The new monuments are of iron, six feet high from base to top of square, and six feet six inches high from base to apex. The shafts are tapering, being about twelve inches square at the base and ten inches at the top of square, the crown tapering to a point. On one side of the shaft in raised letters is the following: "Boundary of the United States (under which an American eagle appears), treaty of 1853, re-established by treaties 1882-9. The destruction or displacement of this monument is a misdemeanor punishable by the United States or Mexico." These latter monuments will be bolted on the concrete base, two feet thick by three feet square and placed about two miles and four-tenths apart.—Dallas News.

Summer Sundays in England.

One of the problems of our social life, says an English society journal, is "what to do on Sunday during the summer, and this year it is decreed that the right thing is to betake ourselves to the river. Paddington station on Sunday morning is almost as fashionable as a ball given by one of the upper ten thousand, and in the delightful sunshine which we had all been enjoying, Father Thames, its locks and its banks have been bright with the gay coloring of the dresses which it is no longer considered bad taste to affect.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.

CURIOUS CULLINGS.

In Norway, persons who have not been vaccinated are not allowed to vote at any election.

There is said to be an oil well in Venango county, Pa., which spouts on Sunday and doesn't any other day.

Spanish Hebrews always pour out all the water contained in the vessels of a house wherein a person has died, fearing that the angel of death may have washed his sword in some of it.

In South Africa the Kaffir servants have formed a union to which the members have to give a "character" for their mistresses. No member is allowed to enter upon a situation unless the registered character of the mistress of the house is satisfactory.

On an American 25 cent piece there are 13 stars, 13 letters in the scroll held in the eagle's beak, 13 marginal feathers in each wing, 13 tail feathers, 13 parallel lines in the shield, 13 horizontal bars, 13 arrow heads and 13 letters in the word "quarter-dollar."

FIN, FEATHER AND FUR.

Pigeons were employed in the mail service in Bible times.

During the last year 1046 elk were killed in Norway and 1672 in Sweden, about the average number.

A rat of the mountain streams of central Peru enjoys the distinction of being the only rodent that utters discards a vegetable diet and lives wholly on fish.

The water spider, which spends most of its time under water, carries a bubble of air for breathing on the under side of its body, and when this air is exhausted it comes to the surface for more.

The pyhsalia, or galley, is a curiously shaped fish. It resembles a miniature Portuguese man-of-war in full sail. If fishes came in contact with one of these creatures, each tentacle, by a movement as rapid as a flash of light, seizes and benumbs them.

Wholesale Vaccination.

A few weeks ago the sultan of Turkey had his wives vaccinated. As no female doctor had yet found her way to the Bosphorus there was nothing for it but to admit a medical man to the apartments of the imperial ladies. The devotees of Mohammed need be under no apprehension. The laws of the prophet were not transgressed, nor were the odalisks exposed to the gaze of any other man except their august lord and master. A partition was erected in a room of the palace in which a hole was cut out. Through this hole 167 of the most beautiful arms in the world were thrust forth in succession. There were arms of snowy white and ebony black—in short, arms to suit all tastes—but the doctor, an Italian named Muracci, saw nothing beyond these arms.

The operation was effected in the presence of a crowd of eunuchs, including Manour Ali and Dsely Mar. The latter is a stalwart Abyssinian, who covered the head of the doctor with a black cloth at every change of the arms. Later advices from Constantinople inform us that twelve of the prettiest young ladies have suddenly died from blood poisoning consequent on the above operation.—New Free Press.

Heart Failure No Longer Accepted.

The registration and sanitary committee of the board of health has addressed the following notice to the physicians of the city:

"As the board of health is doing all in its power to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, you are requested not to place on any certificate 'heart failure' as the cause of death, but the disease of which the patient was suffering prior to heart failure. This term has never been placed on the list of diseases adopted by this board, it being looked upon as the result of some other illness from which the patient was suffering. Furthermore, it furnishes an opportunity to conceal contagious diseases, and thus permits the ignoring of the rules of this board by the family and the undertaker, either innocently or designedly.

"Hereafter a burial permit will not be issued on the certificate of death of 'heart failure' when unaccompanied with the disease from which the heart failure occurred."—Philadelphia Times.

Patchwork for Royalty.

An amusing episode occurred the other day in connection with the royal wedding. The Duke of York went with the Princess May to open a new town hall which has just been erected at Richmond. Just before the royal party drove up a very old woman laden with an enormous parcel pushed her way to the front and refused to pay any attention to the protests of either crowd or police. When threatened with "superior force," however, she admitted that her object was to present her wedding gift to the royal couple. On inquiry this proved to be a gigantic patchwork quilt of worsted stockings for the Duke of York. The old lady had made them and was determined to present them herself. It was, however, represented to her that this was an unsuitable occasion, and she retired with the intention of taking them to White Lodge.—London Letter.

An Opinion of the Fair.

A young Bostonian who is now doing the Columbian fair writes home the opinion that it is Greece and Rome and all the oriental splendor and the ancient glory brought down to our time, with all the modern improvements.
