Aloha,

It has been a privilege to serve the people of Hawai'i in the U.S. Senate, and it would be an honor to continue to represent you for the coming six years.

We certainly face challenges ahead, from matters of national security – not just military concerns, but economic, energy and climate policy – to those issues that impact our families and children, protecting and supporting our people, and our way of life.

But as we have proven many times before, there is nothing we cannot accomplish, working together for the common good.

My wife Irene and I thank you for your generous support and your aloha over the course of this campaign. I ask humbly for your vote on November 2nd.
