SPEAKER BECKLEY ABOUT TO CUT LOOSE FROM THE HOME RULE PARTY LIKE OTHERS—WILL JOIN EITHER THE REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRATIC ORGAN-IZATION, BUT REFUSES TO SAY WHICH.

"In a month," said Speaker Beckley of the House of Representa-tives this morning, "I shall be a man without a party. That is when the Home Rulers hold their contention on Maui and my term as the Home Rule representative in the legislature will have expired by limitation. The Home Rulers have read me out of their party, so I shall be a man without a party.

"I know which party I intend to join, however," Beckley said, "and know what I shall do when I am free to act. In the meantime all seems to be quiet politically on Maui."

Beckley has been said to be contemplating joining the Republican party, but he declined to say what party he intended to join. He is apparently out of the Home Rule ranks, and will join either the Repub lican or Democratic parties. The Democrats are making deals with the Home Rulers on Maui, and it is thought that the speaker may join with

Beckley claims to have received unfair treatment at the hands of the Republicans. He is at outs with the organization on Maui, and declares that the organization worked against him and tried to do him up. The the lost island, between Honolulu removal of Moses K. # Galbraith's Last Session

The Supreme Court adjourned yesterday afternoon to June 4, having heard argument in all matters partially submitted to the court as ing heard argument in all matters now composed. The court has a nu mber of cases in its hands for decision and will devote its time up to June 4 in deciding the cases so that when the court meets on that day there will be no cases undecided that have been heard. June 5 is regarded as probably the date on which the commission of Justice Galbraith expires, hence the hearing of yesterday, in the matter of the Queen's Hospital, is probably the last one he will take part in here.

THE YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT WHICH WAS DELAYED FROM A PECULIAR CAUSE

MISS ELSIE WHEELEN.

The engagement of Miss Elsie Wheelen of Philadelphia to Robert Goelet of New York has been announced. The announcement, which concerns two of the families most conspicuous socially in the two cities, has been looked for since last fall. The wedding will take place in June at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheelen, Clovelly, near Devon, Pa.

It is understood that two considerations have delayed the formal notice to society that the marriage has been arranged. One is that Goelet s preparing for the bar, and the other was the case of Eleanor Anderson, who was courted by a young man under the name of J. Ogden Goelet Jr. James Abeel, a young married man, arrested in Canada on charge of forgery, is accused of being the impersonator of Goelet.

A sheriff's jury in New York has taken testimony upon which to determine how much of $75,000 demanded by Eleanor L. Anderson from James N. Abeel he can afford to and ought to pay for engaging to marry her under the name of J. Ogden Goelet.

Testimony was given to show that Abeel had a contingent interest in a large estate left by his grandmother and a prospective interest in the estate of his father, who is wealthy. The jury assessed the defendant fornia, Commercial Banking Co. of Sydney, Ltd., London.

THE DEMOCRATIC HOPES.

Mr. Bryan does not approve of Judge Parker, or his platform, while the Parker men say that the Albany platform is not the Democratic platform, and that the latter will be formulated at St. Louis. They then point out that Mr. Bryan has already formulated two platforms from both of which he led the Democracy to defeat, and that it is as ill for Mr. Bryan to talk of platforms as it is to make allusion to the gallows when conversing with a man whose father was hanged,

In the East they do not like Bryan any more than Bryan likes Farker, and there are rumors that Bryan will bolt the party if Judge Parker is nominated. There is even a talk among the political papers that Bryan expects the nomination will come to him. He still has presidential aspirations, but it is not likely that they will be satisfied. That Bryan is a power in the middle west is true, but he is no power in New York and the East, and without New York Bryan could not be nominated. A man who has been twice defeated cannot hope for nomination. Besides Bryan has made no campaign. His idea seems to be that the nomination may come to him through a sort of divine right. There is no divine right in the United States.

Judge Parker worries the other candidates for the Democratic nomination by his silence. Nothing can be got out of him, one way or the other. Reporters try him, editors try him, politicians try him, but he can not be induced to commit himself upon any question. When his judicial duties are over, he attends to his farm, so the newspapers say, and those which are infimical to him poke a good deal of fun at this farming. It is the o'lly source of attack against a man who won't speak. But the sphynx-like attitude can be overdone, and this may trouble Judge Parker's chances vet.

Hearst's boom, which at one time was decidedly worth consideration, is decidedly on the wane. The Hearst papers have been fighting all candidates for nomination and their supporters have been virulent. They have gone for Judge Parker, Mayor McClellan, Hill, Gorman, Olny and Judge Gray. In spite of this activity in the Hearst newspapers, it is a significant fact that the Hearst campaign headquarters in New York have been closed. It is no use making a fight without such a rallying ground, and the closing shows what Hearst thinks of his

There is yet another possibility for nomination if a deadlock occurs in the St. Louis convention, and that is Williams of Mississippi. He is the leader of the Democratic minority in the House. His political career has been singularly successful. He represents a sparsely settled constituency, not over rich. He has stepped to the front almost at once and has stood in advance of the men from more wealthy and more powerful commonwealths in his party.

These are a few of the Democratic possibilities, and there are yet others who have hopes and aspirations. With such a divergence of opinions, so many strings to pull, so much bitter feeling between sections, it looks as if the Democratic National Convention will be a somewhat lively affair. There will be much swapping of votes, and as things stand now there will have to be many votes taken. At the present moment Judge Parker is decidedly the strongest candidate for the Demoeratic nomination. The next few months will show what stuff he is made of, if nominated, for as soon as the nomination is made, the judge is supposed to break silence and come into the glare of the political footlights.

When one looks over the badly disorganized Democratic party, and then at the serried ranks of the Republicans, one quickly realizes, in what direction the victory will go. There is no doubt as to who will be the storm water which now goes to nominated by the Republican National Convention. Roosevelt, and waste. Roosevelt only is the man. There can be no doubt as to who will be the Of course there are no means of donext president, and again it is Roosevelt. The country believes in him. Ing this now, but it is think of in the future. and the country will vote for him. His success in every direction has ways apt to want to do things in a been undoubted. Both in internal and external policy he has shown his hurry, without proper consideration. personal ability, and has advanced the interests of the United States, He is intensely patriotic, he is strong and he believes in sturdy downright Americanism,

ST. LOUIS.

The St. Louis Exposition when it opened on April 30, was by no means complete. It is stated that far less than fifty per cent of the exhibits are installed. Some of the exposition buildings were not finished when the last mail left the coast, and half a dozen of the state buildings are incomplete. Of 12,000 carloads of exhibits which were expected, only 4,000 had arrived on the opening day,

This is the history of almost all exhibitions. At the last Paris exhibition, the opening day presented a very incomplete set of buildings. According to accounts St. Louis is much farther forward than Paris was. There is so much to do, so much to unpack, such long distances looked for Tuesday or Wednesday of to send exhibits, that it seems next to impossible to be ready at a given next week. This is the Prince's second

A visitor on the first week after the opening says that St. Louis is easily the greatest of all previous World's fair. Within its fences there are 1,240 acres. The World's Fair at Chicago occupied 633 acres; the Pan-American at Buffalo occupied 300; and the Paris Exposition occupied 336 acres. Chicago had 82 acres under roof; St. Louis will have it had been carried out there would 128. The total expense of creating the fair is estimated at $33,227,985, of which the city of St. Louis appropriated $5,000,000; St. Louis citizens, $5,000,000; Congress, $5,000,000; and the Federal government, have been a good advertisement. $1,488,000, for specific exhibits. All the States, except Vermont and Delaware, have made appropriations. They aggregate $6,067.986. Foreign governments have appropriated $6,000,000. All the great nations of the world are represented at the fair by exhibition places, with the exception of Russia. Japan has spent $1,000,000. # WATER.

The water question comes up every year no matter how much water falls upon the island. Certainly this year an unprecedented amount of water fell. We had rain for weeks, and the water poured in floods into the sea. We had too much water, now we have not enough,

The main secret of this continual deficit is that we have no proper means of storing water. The reservoirs up Nuuanu valley can be emptied in a very short time. We have increased our supply by pumping in ship building within the last few but we should have a larger storage capacity, for pumping is very years. From the Idaho to the Moncostly. A plea in abatement was filed in the case of F. J. Testa in Judge De Bolt's court this morning by T. McCants Stewart and C. A. Long. It is based on grounds which if sustained will invalidate all the grand jury adictments of the present term of court, it is claimed.

The defendant's attorneys contend that there are grand jurors on the panel who are disqualified to act by former convictions of crime, and that therefore the indictment is illegal. The plea in abatement is on this ground and on the further ground that not enough grand jurors voted an indictment. The plea is supported by the following affidavit by Testa:

F. J. Testa, being duly sworn, deposes and says, as follows, to wit:

this Court. fred H. Babbitt, Fred Turrill, Henry Hickey, Joseph Andrade, H. I Benson, James Nott Jr., John Edwards, Alex. Lyle, D. J. Styne, J. C. Axtell, E. P. McIntyre, John A. Baker, William Mutch, Guy Owens.

"Third. That certain of said persons are not qualified to serve as jurors, and were present at and participated in the proceedings of the grand jury when said alleged indictment was found, to the prejudice and injury of this defendant, namely:

John Edwards, who on the 23rd day of February, 1880, was arraigned in the Police Court of Honolulu on a charge of larceny, and on the 24th day of February, 1880, was convicted of said offense, and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at hard labor, and to pay a fine of $5 with costs taxed at $3.40, as more fully appears from a certified copy of said Court hereto annexed and made a part hereof, and marked Exhibit

"And said defendant further alleges, that on the 28th day of April 1881, said John Edwards in the District Court of Honolulu, plead guilty to a charge of larceny and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at hard labor, and fined $10 and costs taxed at $3, as more fully appears from a certified copy of the record of said Court, hereto annexed and made a part hereof, and marked Exhibit B.

"And deponent further alleges, that said John Edwards, on the 31st hay of December, 1903, was committed by the District Court of Honolulu to answer before this Court to a charge of assault and battery with a weapon, obviously and imminently dangerous to life, to wit: a loaded revolver, as more fully appears from the certified copy of the record hereto annexed and made a part hereof, and marked Exhibit C.

"Also Henry Hickey, who, on the 1st day of February, 1899, in the Police Court of Honolulu, plead guilty to the charge of having opium or a preparation thereof unlawfully in possession, and was sentenced therefor ,as more fully appears from a certified copy of the record of said Court, hereto annexed and made a part hereof, and marked Exhibit D.

Fourth. That deponent verily believes, and upon such belief solemnly suggests, that said alleged indictment was not found by the number required by law to find an indictment.

"Wherefore defendant submits his plea in abatement, hereto annex ed and made a part hereof, and prays that the same may be sustained and that said alleged indictment may be quashed, and he be discharged.

ROBBED OF HIS HOARDED GOLD.

Kimura, a Japanese living in Cottage Grove, was robbed of $70 in gold Saturday night. A Porto Rican is thought to have committed the theft.

The Porto Rican went to the house where the Jap was employed Saturday afternoon, and asked if he had change for $10. The Jap foolishly took the man to his quarters and there, opening the trunk, secured change. The Porto Rican evidently saw the amount of money in the trunk. During the early part of the evening while the Jap was abpent bathing, some one entered the Jap's quarters, broke open the trunk and stole the money. The police have been notified,

WANT REPRESENTATION.

At a meeting of the Democratic Central Committee yesterday afternoon it was decided to ask Governor Carter to give the Democrats representation on the board of registration.

Thirty Members Subpoenaed

The thirty members of the House of Representatives have all been subpoenaed to appear in court again, and they are once more gathered to be pleased, and enjoyed the pertogether in Honolulu, for the case of the Tgrritory against Solomon Meheula, which is to begin before Judge De Bolt tomorrow morning. Many of the Hawaii and Mani representatives came by the steamers of Saturday and Sunday and others by the Mauna Loa this morning.

The members are wanted to give testimony regarding the purchase of copies of the civil and penal code of Hawaii, for use in the House. The indictment of Meheula is for gross cheat and is based on the payment to him of $450, and is alleged in the indictment, for 30 copies of the civil code for members. It is claimed that none of the members make the audience laugh, which received such copies from Meheula, and each member will be asked to they do. In a general way there is testify in the matter. There will also be other witnesses for the Territory, making a total of over 35 witnesses under subpoena.

The present trip of the members is far from a pleasant one to most of them, as they will probably have to stand expenses themselves. So far no provision has been made to pay their fares and other expenses.

Flying Fish Knocked Out The Ice Plant of Kolb and Bernard to get Dill to

A large flying fish played havoc in the engine room of the steamer agement, are ridiculous beyond Mauna, Loa last night. The fish put the ice machine out of commission conception from a realistic point of and had the vessel not been within a few hours run of Honolulu, the passengers might have had to go without refrigerated stuff.

The flying fish came aboard the steamer through one of the port one who knew the subject well, and holes. The fish flew through the open machinery of the engine and ran there is so much said that is both head on against the stop cock on the refrigerating apparatus. The stop cock was knocked off and the refrigerating apparatus had to suspend not to laugh and enjoy it. The operations. The flying fish was killed in the collision. The fish measoperations. A new system of letter filing has been inaugurated in the offices of Governor Carter and Secretary Atkinson, with the aid of a cabinet supplied by the federal government. All the correspondence of the offices is now filed in the cabinet, under a departmental index, which is a very convenient one. It makes possible a very ready reference to correspondence of all sorts.

Secretary Atkinson is having all the correspondence of the two offices since the establishment of the Territory filed in the new cabinet.

At the meeting of the Democratic Territorial Committee yesterday afternoon, the rules regarding precinct club organization were amended providing that Democrats should join the club of the precinct in which they reside instead of that in which they are registered, if there is any from Hawaii supporting him as long difference. This change was made so as not to compel Democrats who may have been voters on some of the other islands at the last election, but who have moved to Honolulu, or from one district to another, to go to the old precinct to join a club.

Reports were received of the organization of a number of clubs on his support will have to be secured by Oahu and of all the precincts in Puna and South Hilo and in Kohala. The Democratic Club in Senator Palmer Woods' precinct was reported to be larger than the Republican Club in the same precinct.

Col. Curtis Iaukea reported that he was meeting with success in organizing clubs on Hawaii. He will remain there a week or two longer. Applications from some of the Oahu precinct clubs for funds to pay hall rent and other expenses, were all disallowed, the committee holding that each club must pay its own expenses, and that the central committee could not undertake to pay the expenses of any precinct.

Fred Turrill chairman of the Demo ratic Territorial Central Committee has come out for William Randolph learst. 'I believe," said Chairman Turrill this afternoon "that Hearst is the strongest man that is now under consideration for the presidential nomination by the Democratic Party. He s the only man who has the slightest chance of election. I do not regard Parker as more than a stalking horse and do not think that Parker will even be nominated.

"I am strongly impressed with the advisability of nominating Hearst this year, and I hope to see our delegation as there is the slightest chance for him to receive the nomination.

"Whether nominated or not, Hearst will have to be reckoned with by the essful candidate. The influence of the party. He will therefore, be in ( position to dictate his terms with the successful man who may have been cominated over him, and it is safe to my, that those who supported him will not be left in the situation that orlinarily might result where a delegaion had supported a losing candidate.

in the Democratic Club that in a month Judge Parker would be out of the race as a candidate for the nomination for President.

Tammany is sending emissaries to nearly every state in the Union to thwart the Parker boom if possible. Their tool at this time is Mayor George B. McClellan, although it is admitted confidently that he may not be nominated even if Parker is beaten, but McClellan is a good tool, and his name will be used with a Tammany argument, specious on its face, to belittle the Parker sentiment in all sections. This argument is that while in the Republican party in New York representation in the State conventions is based on the party vote in the Assembly districts, which give almost as large majority for the Democratic ticket. Republican majority at every election of more than 5000, is allotted the same representation virtually as one of the strong East Side Tammany districts, which give almost as large majority for the Democratic ticket.

Therefore, reason the Tammany emissaries who have been sent out to corral the Parker movement, a minority of the Democratic voters in New York dictated to the majority in the last State Convention what should be done with instructions for Judge Parker's nomination. This argument, when strength on the last State Convention when strength and the last State Convention when strength argument, when strength is the last State Convention. argument, when strongly put, it is believed, will appeal to many Demecrats in the West and South, and will impress them with the idea that Judge Parker, after all, is not the choice of the majority of the party's voters in New York.

McClellan is to be used, therefore, as the choice of the strong Democratic constituency in New York city to create the situation which is needed to accomplish Parker's undoing.

George B. McClellan is the present Mayor of New York and son of the civil war general of the same name. Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal has declared for him, and William Jennings Bryan, it is said, will not oppose him. These two men represent differ ent wings of the Democratic party on the financial question. The Penn sylvania Democrats are booming McClellan and have issued an address favoring him. The development of the McClellan boom is awaited with great deal of interest. Mayor McClellan appears upon the left of the picture herewith, Henry Watterson above and William J. Bryan below

ACCOUNT OF THE WAR UP TO DATE WITH MANY ILLUSTRATIONS—MAJOR JIKEMURA WRITES OF THE CAUSE OF WAR AND JAPAN'S CHANCES.

A Tokio publisher has begun to issue an illustrated history of the war, in form and style much like the larger and better class American monthly magazines. The first issue, dated April, contains accounts of the fighting up to the time of its publication, and numerous illustrations. The following introductory remarks by Major Wasuke Jikemura, retired, are interesting:

"Russia is a power of such magnitude that her military and naval resources have always inspired her neighbors with respect, if not with anxiety, and when a few years ago this question of Manchuria came into prominence and Russia began ostentatiously increasing her fleets and armies in the Far East, there was but one conclusion to be drawn, which was that it was her deliberate intention, in spite of all professions to the contrary, to compel Japan to renounce all pretentions to a voice in the ultimate fate of Manchuria and Korea, and to acquiesce in her own illegal designs upon both those countries. The independence of Korea and the integrity of China are matters of life and death for Japan, to be maintained by her at the cost, if need be, of a great national sacrifice.

put 500,000 well trained soldiers in the field to meet her gigantic foe, and when danger calls, every Japanese is a soldier. Love of Emperor and country unites us all as one man and the chivalrous conditions of of St. Louis in the state of Missouri, by-gone ages have left indelible traces on the national character. We July 6, *904. prefer death to dishonor, are always ready to die for our fatherland, and do not know when we are beaten,

"Russia is, in truth, a great foe of humanity, and antagonistic of all true civilization; and as such is the enemy not of Japan only, but of the the several precincts of this Territory. whole world. In the eyes of our people we are fighting for great principles, and this war represents a conflict between justice, simple and precincts, organized under the author unadorned, and injustice decked out in sham jewels such as the Czar's lity of the Democratic Territorial Cen-Peace Conference at The Hague.

"The principal object of this book is to put before the reader in a clear and intelligible manner the successive stages of the operations of war; but we also hope to demonstrate, as our Record proceeds, how just and honorable are the principles for which Japan is fighting against Russian perfidy and faithlessness.

A fine picture, in colors, of the Emperor of Japan, with a history of his life and that of his family, constitute the opening chapter of the book. There are also pictures of the Empress, the Crown Prince and Princess, and of the leading statesmen and army and navy officers on both sides in the conflict. That the Tokio publisher should have been able in such a short time to issue so large and up-to-date a work, with such leaborate art features, many of them in colors, shows that he has a first-class modern establishment. The text is all in English and the publication will circulate throughout the English-speaking world, giving authentic news of events as they transpire. The history of Russia's start in Manchuria, of Russo-Japanese diplomatic relations and of the negotiations leading up to the war, are given with detail, including all for each of the other Islands to whom he official correspondence between Baron Komura and the Russian inquiries may be address Government, and the first engagements of the war are graphically described.

There are several poems in the book, all of a patriotic nature. The following is one translated from a Japanese Magazine, originally published in the Japanese language:

> Spring; but the blinding snow-drift flies, Driv'n by the wind, across our eyes, And the fierce billows touch the skies.

No, there he comes, the Russian sneak,

St. Andrew's Cross flies at his peak;

"What's you ship looming through the night? Our own Mikasa? That's all right; The enemy's well out of sight.

He's firing, too-I like his cheek! See! Our torpedo with a splash, Drives through the tumbling billows' wash; It strikes its aim-and then a crash!

And when it strikes the ship, a cry From lusty throats will rend the sky; Kaigun Banzai! Nippon Banzai! -:0:---

THE IRISH ARRIVAL.

A special reason for the celebration of the 17th by the sons of Erin in this commonwealth appears in the quick retort of a local wit to the question: "Are you wearing that green necktie to celebrate Evacuation question: "Are you wearing that green necktie to celebrate Evacuation one a week, for three successive day?" "Yes, Sir," he replied, "when the British got out of Boston, the weeks, in the Hawalian Star, a news-Irish came in and they have been ruling ever since."

Pictures of several of Honolulu's churches have appeared lately in the religious weeklies of the Pacific coast. The pictures are all good ones and are from photographs taken by A. B. Babbitt, who was down here some time ago for the third or fourth time in the past twenty or thirty years, an account of whom was published in the Star at the time. He has photographed very much of what is of interest in these islands. and his pictures have gone into the hands of the dealers in stereoscopic slides, and are used pretty much all over the world. The California Independent of April 28 contains a picture with a brief account of the Methodist church. The Pacific Christian of April 14 has a picture of the Christian church. The Pacific of May 5 has a picture of Central Union church as its cover picture. The issue of the same periodical for April 28 has on its cover a picture of Kawaiahao church, and in its text the following account of it by Rev. H. H. Parker, who has been its pastor for over forty years:

Kawaiahao church, weather-beaten outside, beautiful in its inner simplicity, stands guarded by stately palms, a prominent landmark in the heart of Honolulu.

The first native church of the city was organized in 1823 by Rev. H Bingham. At first services were held in grass houses, immense structures resembling wigwams and capable of holding three or four thousand people.

to stand the storms of ages. The large audience which filled the building at the dedication was a living witness of the interest shown by all classes. At the close of the solemn service the vast assembly rose, and with one voice dedicated the church "To Jehovah, our God forever and

Many stirring events have taken place within these walls-some historical and full of meaning to the people of Hawaii,

Up these aisles kings and queens have walked with royal tread to pledge their marriage vows.

To the sounds of bitter wailing high chiefs were carried through these massive doors to the silent tomb. The church was filled with most beautiful and costly Kahilis when the body of Emma, the noble queen of Kamehameha IV lay in state for a week.

Again the heavy posts were draped with somber crape when the young and beautiful Princess Kaiulani, taken suddenly from the people. lay in state surrounded by loving friends.

this church to share a common grief. When the whole country was plunged into deep mourning for President McKinley, sorrowing citizens met at Kawaiahao church at a memorial service for the martyred President.

At the time of the overthrow in 1893 the church tower was used by the soldiers opposed to the queen. The clanking of musketry broke the stillness of the old belfry.

But the building was destined to be used for a still stranger purpose. In 1900 after the bubonic plague brought death and destruction to the inhabitants of Chinatown, a fire broke out, leaving the remainder of the population homeless. These three or four thousand unfortunate beings found an asylum in this old church—the women and children in the building—the men in tents in the church yard. Several babies were born in the historic audience room during that week. The motley crowd of Hawaiians, Japanese, Chinese and other nationalities were sheltered and fed at public cost for one week until suitable camps could be prepared.

At the present time services of public worship are conducted in the Hawaiian language, and most of the Sunday-school classes are taught in English. The interior of the church has been remodeled.
