Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But established for the benefit of all.

THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1889.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

The Advertiser is excited over a brief item in this paper, of a boy that smashed in the end of a car with a stone. If our contemporary doubts the incident the expenditure of ten cents on the cars will take its reporter to and from the damaged car. It will probably cost ten or fifteen dollars to repair the damage, but even that is not what gives the matter its chief importance. We are about to have a steam railway line opened in addition to the tramways. Throwing stones at trains and cars is an occasional pastime of hoodlums and toughs in other countries. Only four or five weeks ago Prof. Hirst of the University of California was struck with a stone thrown into a railway car, and at last accounts he was likely to lose the sight of one eye from the injury. Our authorities cannot be too severe upon any person detected in this dangerous and mad amusement. In the case reported by us the stone smashed in the end of the car, making a deep indentation on a surface of six by four inches. It would have fractured any skull or broke any bone that it might have struck. We, however, forgive the witless jibe of the Advertiser, as the paragraph it gets out of the affair is almost the only item of news in this morning's issue. That paper seems to belong to that section of the stone-throwing fraternity which resides in crystal palaces.

NATIVES AND RICE.

A letter on Hawaiian affairs in the New York Tribune, by Mr. G. D. Gilman of Boston, a former resident of the islands, is copied by the Advertiser with comments. It is very fair on the whole; but it is not so where it institutes an unfavorable comparison between Chinese and natives, with respect to what the former have done in rice cultivation here. The same thing is often heard in Honolulu, however, and ought to be answered. In the first place, it is unreasonable to expect that the natives should have been able to overtake the Chinese in such a peculiarly Chinese industry as rice production. Then there was no particular necessity of the Hawaiians to grow rice for food; they had other products needing less toil to bring to fruition, which fully satisfied them in the matter of sustenance. There is nothing so lucrative in the returns from rice growing as to be particularly alluring to natives or anybody but Orientals born to the industry. It is not impossible to prove, even, that many Chinese rice farmers have yielded no profit to successive associations of owners and workers. The natives have done and are doing much better for themselves in leasing their lands to the Chinese for rice growing instead of wading into the unwholesome work themselves. If they are to be blamed let it be for the improvidence many of them have displayed in sacrificing their ownership of the land for the gratification of temporary desires. Those that hold on to land suitable for rice can make more out of rents for it than the rice they could themselves raise. Moreover, there is more talk about the great things done by the Chinese in rice cultivation than seems to be warranted by the degree of importance attained by that product in our trade returns. Much land has been reclaimed from unproductive swamps, it is true; but the same land would in the course of time, with the certain development of the country's resources, be reclaimed for cultivation anyway—if not of rice, of something more profitable. As it is now, should the rice market drop below a paying point—and it often has very weak spells—this land to be made available for anything more profitable would have to be reclaimed over again, as a rice plantation is more swampy when in bloom than it was in waste primeval.

HUMBLED AND SUCH LIKE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Mr. Macfie in his letter on the Chinese question in the P. C. A. makes the following statement: "They (the Chinese) smoke opium and they gamble, which is certainly very shocking and much to be regretted, but nevertheless is there not perhaps a little spice of humbug about virtuous indignation on this score?" Many even among the anti-Chinese believe with Mr. Macfie that such pleas do flavor of humbug and therefore rest their objection to the Chinese exclusively on economic grounds, which is the real cause of opposition to this race. Many also believe, however, that there is not only a little spice of the humbug but a great deal of it in the virtuous indignation of the planter against anti-Chinese legislation on the score of "injustice" to the Chinaman. The history of the sugar men as a class here at the islands demonstrates that they have cared nothing or precious little for the Chinaman except for what they could get out of him. Most of our citizens remember that when Messrs. J. O. Carter and H. M. Whitney took up the cry of injustice to the Chinaman in the P. C. A. in the reign of Kamehameha V., it was the sugar crowd that positively "hounded" Carter with abuse out of the Advertiser and did that which is criminal in a laboring man to do, namely, combined to boycott the paper in question until Mr. Whitney had positively to sell out.

The harbor of Honolulu was then made use of as a wayport for ships loaded with coolies going from Macao to Peru. This traffic in human beings became historically "infamous," and the British Government finally stopped it with a strong hand, but the name of J. O. Carter meanwhile had become quite as infamous to the Queen street fraternity for the prominent part he took in stamping out the trade in question. The writs of habeas corpus sued out by him in our Courts tell the story of what was actually done, but no one not an actual observer can know how utterly alone he stood in the midst of overwhelming opposition and abuse from sugar men at that time.

And lo, in these latter days, Queen street appears in the political arena, "his feet shod with the preparation of the gospel," the American flag tied around his loins, one hand transferred from his bread basket to his heart, the declaration of independence in the other, a coolie labor contract and its benefits in his breeches' pocket, and heavily bespangled all over with trite sentiments in behalf of justice, humanity, freedom and the like. No wonder people say, "What Jumbo is this?" No wonder that their surprise increases when it is discovered to be Queen street, in toggery to suit, out hunting eternal justice for the Chinaman.

A careful inspection, however, of the new political creed of these latter day saints will show, that their pursuit of eternal justice is not intended by them to interfere with a continuance of their pet system of dumping Asiatic male labor on a civilized community, nor does it necessitate immolating any of their own class upon the altars to secure justice to the Chinaman—the poorer whites and kanakas are intended for altar material. A la Abraham they say to a rather anxious and interested branch of the community, "The Lord will provide a sacrifice, my son." In fact the whole system presents to their eyes a vista of combined profit and moral exhilaration to be obtained out of the Chinaman which would floor the reluctance of almost any man.

Meanwhile, as it dawns upon the people just how much actual justice is intended by the sugar party to civilization and humanity, their sensations will probably be like those of the man who, stepping up to the village drunk to congratulate him upon donning the blue ribbon at last, is compelled by the combined odor of cloves and gin that greets him, to admit that the village has not lost its same old "six pence" yet. Queen street makes us "very tired."

MUTUAL TELEPHONE COMPANY.

An important special meeting of the Mutual Telephone Company was held at the company's building this forenoon. About 3,500 shares were represented.

The resolution to increase the capital stock of the company from $50,000 to $100,000, and issue 3,500 new shares of preferred stock at $10, was carried unanimously. The mortgage of $35,000 on the building and plant will be cancelled by the issue of this new stock. This will take the company completely out of debt, and henceforth the profits will be available for dividends.

Quite a number of Chinese were in the Supreme Court this morning to hear the Ho Fon conspiracy case.

A LADY amateur photographer was out at 6:30 o'clock this morning shooting the residence of Hon. Chas. R. Bishop on Emma street. The photographer looked captivately independent with her head under the cloth (not to hide her pretty face, however), and her admiring spectators numbered fifteen.

Mr. McCullum, park ranger, who was in town to-day, reports that he took a drive round the track the other day and found it in fair order. The lady fortunately escaped with no other damage than a great fright. This is the sixteenth runaway that Frank Ferreira has stopped, and he ought to have a medal.

OCTOBER TERM.

Trial of Ho Fon for Conspiracy—before His Honor the Chief Justice.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 16th.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Court resumed at 1:25.

James Kaubane sworn, stated—In July last I was in Honolulu. I knew the defendant, he is Ho Fon. Have known him four or five years. I pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy in connection with events of July 30th. I attended some of the meetings leading up to that evening. The first I attended was the one previous to the 29th at Princess Liliuokalani's residence. I saw Poepee, Markham, Boyd, Malulani, A. Smith, R. W. Wilcox and some others there, also Chinese. Ho Fon was there, Papu and Ahlo, also a stout-built Chinaman. I was sworn in the dining room at the same time as Kanoa. The oath was to keep secret what Wilcox communicated to us. It was for the purpose of a new constitution and overthrowing the Ministry. Ho Fon came between 10 and 11 o'clock, with Ahlo and Papu, saw them when they arrived, they went into the dining room. Wilcox was there. Ho Fon shook hands with me. Papu said to me it would be a good thing to get the new government. He said, we have sworn the same as you. Have never heard Ho Fon talk in Hawaiian. Was at the meeting on the 29th. Ho Fon was there, saw him talking with Markham in the doorway. I went down town that evening with Markham, and he told me we were going to Ho Fon's to get a case of gin. Markham went in, I did not. Did not get the gin. We got a hack and Markham said we were going to get some guns. We got them, they were wrapped up in burlaps. Got them from a Chinese store. Got guns and ammunition at three different places, two of which were Chinese stores. After getting these things we took them to Palama and left them there, then came down together in a hack. Markham got money from Papu and gave it to me to pay for the hack. Markham was talking with Ho Fon just before Papu handed me the money. I marched to the palace and was wounded in the bungalow. I saw Papu bring boxes of bread into the palace yard. We marched to the palace to get the new constitution and get the cannon out.

By the Court—I thought myself but did not say anything that it was against the law to take possession of the palace yard. Cross-examined—I only attended two meetings. Think I went down three times on the night of the 29th. Markham and I went for the gin before I had been to Palama. Don't know whether Markham went to the Chinese newspaper office to get gin or the Anchor Saloon for a Chinese newspaper. I drink gin and know where to get it. I saw Papu and Ho Fon both nights, Ahlo was only there the first night. Alexander Smith sworn, stated—I have known the defendant by sight for a long time, not acquainted with him until the night of July 11th when he was at the Princess' residence, Palama. Wilcox was there and told me he had a secret society and wanted me to take the oath. I took it in the dining room. Saw Ho Fon there a little after 11 o'clock. Four or five Chinese came in and Markham said to me "here comes the committee of the Chinese firms." They went into the dining room and I saw them standing up talking with Wilcox. Saw Ho Fon there the night of the 29th. I was the officer on guard and let him into the house. The men who were sworn stood under crossed bayonets. We marched to the palace armed. Wilcox told me he expected help from the King and also about 500 Chinese.

Cross-examined—I did not expect any fight, would not have gone if I had known there was to be. Edward Hopkins sworn, stated—I am captain of police. I know Papu by sight. Have heard he had gone to China and again to Koolaula. Search had been made for him, but we cannot find him. Have known Ho Fon since early part of 1884. Have heard him speak English, Hawaiian and Chinese. I had charge of a prison gang, he was assistant under me. I told him to tell the native prisoners to do something and they understood him. He acted as a native interpreter for me.

Thomas Hiona sworn, stated—Was a policeman on July 30th, had to fall in line in the column that marched to the palace that morning. Wilcox was in charge of the column. At 3:03 the prosecution rested.

THE DEFENSE.

F. J. Testa sworn, stated—I reside in Honolulu. Have done so for ten years. My present occupation is a lawyer's clerk. Ceased with newspaper work in May last. Have known Ho Fon several years, he is a newspaper reporter. I know R. W. Wilcox. I know of one meeting being held at Princess Liliuokalani's residence. It was July 10th. I was invited by Wilcox to a social feed, and went there close on to 8 o'clock in the evening. I went to the back part of the house, and on to the dining room. Wilcox was there when I first arrived. I went in company. I sat in the dining room about half an hour, crackers and wine were brought out. The wine was drunk and the crackers eaten.

We conversed on different topics. Between nine and ten o'clock we got down to business. Ho Fon was there that evening, did not see him come. Saw him after they commenced to talk politics. Oaths were administered to different parties. Poepee I think was the pioneer. Don't know how many took the oath. I was still there when Ho Fon left. While I was there Ho Fon did not take any oath, nor did he take any part in the discussion. Cross-examined—Ho Fon talked to Wilcox and others, and shook hands. I was in the room at the time. They were talking about coming to the palace, was talking about it myself. It was common street talk about turning the Ministers out. Everyone was asked to take the oath. I did not take it, and cannot state the reason, it might criminate me. One reason was I did not approve of the methods to be employed. One thing I objected to was the employment of force.

Robert W. Wilcox sworn, stated—I know Markham and Boyd. I have known Ho Fon the defendant about two years. There was a meeting at Palama on July 10th. Ho Fon was there, he did not stay long, about a quarter or half an hour. I spoke to him. He said something to me about some land he wanted surveyed. He asked me the object of the meeting of people there. I told him only political. No oath was administered to Ho Fon that evening. I knew he was editor of the Chinese News. I did not request him to keep secret what he had heard there. There was another meeting on the 11th. He was there, and stayed about half an hour. Do not remember whether I spoke to him. Ho Fon did not take part in either of those meetings. Think I was in the dining room when Ho Fon came. The second night he came with other Chinese. He was there on the 29th, just came in and went out. I never commissioned Markham at any time to get gin from Ho Fon. Never sent Markham for any gin, he said something about the men having half a glass of gin. I never borrowed money of Ho Fon. Did not tell Boyd I had no money and did not go in to Ho Fon's to get some.

Cross-examined—Ho Fon frequently came in the evening to see me on some surveying business. When he came in the guards were not set. Cannot imagine what other object he came to see me for. Do not know the reason he came the second evening, guards were not posted outside when he came. He came before the political meeting, and I invited him to take some cakes and soda water. Do not know how he passed the guard the third evening (29th), or what he came for. I never accused Ho Fon or Poepee of being spies. I trusted Ho Fon, he was a straightforward man like Testa. I never told him anything about the movement. He did not look frightened. At the third meeting the men had arms and put on belts, etc., ready to remove. I was not alarmed at seeing Ho Fon there, I always had confidence in him.

S. E. Kaiue sworn, stated—I live in Honolulu. Was here in July last. Am studying law. I know R. W. Wilcox. I was at a meeting at Palama July 10th, went there early in the evening, saw Wilcox and Boyd in the house. Wilcox was away about midnight for half an hour. Cannot say whether I saw Ho Fon or not. I was there on the 11th and saw Ho Fon, and other Chinamen with him. Know them by sight, saw them talking to Wilcox in the diningroom, did not see him perform any ceremony, or administer any oath to the Chinese. I was at Palama on the 29th of July. Saw Ho Fon there, after 10 o'clock, he did not stay long. Did not see Ho Fon take part in the discussions.

Cross-examined—The first night I did not see Ho Fon, I had been drinking. He might have been there. Ho Fon arrived about 10 o'clock the second night. Tin Sang sworn, stated—I reside in Quon Hip Lung's store on Hotel street. Am a partner and manager. It is a brick building. I remember July 30th when Wilcox and others took possession of the palace. Was in my store that morning between the hours of 7 and 9. Some of my employees were there. Had very few customers. Later in the day there was excitement in town. I saw Ho Fon, saw him that morning. He came into my store for a short time, between 7 and 8 o'clock. He came in and said good morning, had a cup of tea, and went away. I was summing up my accounts. While Ho Fon was there did not notice anyone come in and speak with him. No hack drove up to my store and took goods away that morning. I should have known it if there had been. Ho Fon did not buy or order anything at my store that day.

At 4:55 the Court adjourned to 9:30 Thursday morning.

THURSDAY, Oct. 17th.

The Court opened at 9:30 a. m. Tin Sang, cross-examined by the Attorney-General—Have been managing Quon Hip Lung's store since last month. Was not manager on July 30th, was bookkeeper. Had a salesman in the store. He was near the door that morning when Ho Fon came. He gave Ho Fon the tea, his name is Ah Pio. I was making up my accounts when Ho Fon was in. I did not notice anyone who came into the store that morning between 6 and 9 o'clock. I saw Ho Fon and said good morning, and then resumed my work. We deal in provisions and wearing apparel, keep on sale salmon, crackers and Chinese provisions. Do not remember selling any that morning. I can remember that day very well on account of the rebellion. Anyone buying a large quantity of goods, the salesman would have to let me know. I cannot say that a hack might stop in front of the store without my knowing.

Chin Qui Sin sworn, stated—I live behind the jail, in a stable. Have lived there 7 or 8 years. Am a hack driver, was such on July 30th. I remember the morning of that day, was driving around the streets for hire. A Chinaman Ah Sin engaged me. He was dressed in a woolen coat and trousers. The coat was of mixed material. He engaged me on Hotel street between 7 and 8, and we went to Wing Wong Wo's store on King street. Arriving there Ah Sin went into the store. He bought two boxes of crackers and a barrel of salmon, and they were placed in my hack. We drove to the palace and after the provisions were removed we drove to Hop Hing's store on Hotel street. Ah Sin jumped from the hack, went in the store and bought two boxes of crackers. There was another box. We drove to the palace again. After that we returned to near Hop Hing's store, and Ah Sin disengaged me. Ah Sin gave me $2 for my trouble. I know Ho Fon, did not see him that morning. Hop Hing's store is next to Quon Hip Lung's on Hotel street.

Cross-examined—Have been driving a hack between four and five years. I have been arrested on a charge of perjury, but I was telling the truth at the time. I know Ah Sin who engaged my hack, do not know what he has another name, do not know his occupation. Have not seen him since the revolution. I do not know what was going on in the palace that day, saw a great many people there, the natives removed the things from my hack. By Mr. Neumann—I was arrested last night by Long John and a white police officer. They came to my stable between 6 and 7, they took me to the police station, did not show me any warrant. I was asked whether I took Ho Fon with provisions into the palace, and where was the man that engaged me that day, and where did I drive him to. I told the same story as I have told here in Court. He said I was accused of going to the store of Quon Hip Lung. Think it was Deputy Marshal Hopkins who examined me. I know Mr. Creighton. Do not know Mr. Peterson. When they came to the stable and jumped into my hack they said there was a warrant for me. They did not tell me the charge. After they had questioned me they let me go. I do not know what an indictment is.

By the Court—I own my hack. Yin Quon sworn, stated—Am a member of firm of Wing Wo Tai. Was in my store on July 30th, between 7 and 8. Do not know Papu, or the hackman who was just on the stand. On that morning I sold half a barrel of salmon to a Chinaman who came on foot, a hack came, the salmon was put in. Do not remember the driver. The salmon was paid for, $6.75 in silver.

Chan Min sworn, stated—I live in Hop Hin's store, it is a Chinese grocery store, we sell tinned goods. I am a member of the firm. Was in the store on morning of July 30th. I did not see Chin Qui Sin that morning. I sold salt fish, meat in tins, crackers, rice, that morning to different persons. Do not know Papu. One Chinaman came in that morning and bought two cases of crackers. It was a young Chinaman, do not know his name. He paid for the goods. One of my men removed the things from the store, think it was Ah Man. The bill was a little over $15. Cash was paid. Do not remember what time it was. I heard about Wilcox later on, and closed the store. I know Ho Fon, did not see him that day.

Lam Kan Chun sworn, stated—I live in Chinese News office. I am editor, and publisher. I know Ho Fon, he is one of my partners. He is a reporter. The paper is issued once a week, on Saturdays. I have with me issues of the paper of July 13th. (Paper with supplement produced and Mr. Li Cheung the interpreter read an item from the supplement which stated that on the night of July 10th certain natives held a meeting at the residence of the King's sister at Palama, for the coming election. It is good to prepare beforehand so that there will be no trouble hereafter.) The news was furnished by Ho Fon. He reported it. (The Attorney-General objected to the article in the paper going in as evidence, and after arguments the Court ruled it was not admissible.)

Ah Pio sworn, stated—I work in Quon Hip Lung's store. I know Tin Sang, he is manager. I was in the store on July 30th. Fighting was going on that day. I opened the store, and was there the whole morning, some sundry goods were sold. Cannot remember whether meat or boxes of crackers were sold. I know Ho Fon, he came in and I invited him to drink tea. Do not remember any goods being delivered to a hack that morning.

Cross-examined—I am a salesman in the store, there are three or four of us. Am in the store all day. Have no goods stored in the yard. Am testifying from memory. Lo Loo sworn, stated—I live at Wing On Wo's, am salesman. Remember the day of the firing, was in store. Between 7 and 9 that morning goods were sold. A barrel of salmon was sold. I removed it out of the store. I helped a man to put it into a hack, the driver was dressed in a working suit. Should not know him again. Do not know whether he was a Chinaman or foreigner.

Ah Man sworn, stated—I live at Hop Ling's store, am a salesman, was such on July 30th. Remember the shooting. Was in the store between 7 and 9 o'clock. Think there was a hack in front of the store, a Chinaman was driving. I put some crackers and beef into the hack. Do not remember how many packages there were. A Chinaman bought the goods. There was no other hack at the store that morning. Ho Fon was not there during the morning.

Cross-examined—Do not remember any hack coming to the store the day before or the day after or that week. I was only spoken to this morning about coming as a witness and had to throw memory back two months.

Ah Pang sworn, stated—I live at Hop Hon's store, have resided here two years. Remember the day of the shooting, was in the store all that morning. Do not know Papu. Was working in the storehouse in rear of the store, could not see the customers.

Ho Fon sworn, stated—I am the defendant in this case. Have lived here twelve years, am reporter for the Chinese News Co. Am 24 years of age. Have been reporter nearly four years, have shares in the paper. I find out all news and give it to the editor. I know R. W. Wilcox, have had business transactions with him such as surveying. Have known him about two years. Have known Markham about five years, also know B. N. Boyd. We went to school together at Fort street. I remember the revolution on the 30th, saw many natives in the palace yard and government building yard carrying arms. Was not in the palace that morning. I did not see them come down to the palace, did not hear how they were coming. I live in Dowsett's lane, Palama, it is near to Princess Liliuokalani's residence. I remember the meetings, first heard of them on July 10th. Knew nothing before that date. I heard something in town of the meeting on the 10th and seeing lights went there. Heard the natives say there was to be a meeting at Liliuokalani's residence. When I got there saw Boyd on the veranda, he took me in. Boyd asked Wilcox to open the door.

At 12 o'clock the Court took a recess to 1:30.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

The preliminary examination of John E. Bush on the charge of libel resulted yesterday in the defendant being committed by Police Justice Foster for trial to the Supreme Court. W. C. Achi, complainant, gave some spic evidence. He said he was the only half-white lawyer that had advised some of his clients to plead guilty in the insurrection cases, and his motive was to procure light sentences for them. Bush the defendant came to his office and accused him of receiving bribes for such advice. He brandished a roll of yellow paper in his face, saying it was the proof of Achi's guilt, and he told complainant he was a fool if he did not know that the King was in collusion with the rioters.

ON THE

New Free Tontine Policy

OF THE

Equitable Life Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the NEW YORK TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without conditions on the back.

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR.]

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods and has been the means to liberalize life insurance in a greater degree perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the KENTUCKY REGISTER, Richmond, Ky., June 28, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life insurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life insurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the BOSTON POST.]

This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life insurance.

[From the PACIFIC UNDERWRITER, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life insurance.
