Supreme Court Overthrows Liability Law

Marcellino Charged
By Magoon
With False Report

ACCUSED ATTORNEY SAYS MASTER IS BIASED

J. Alfred Magoon, who is charged by John Marcellino, to whom as Master was referred Magoon's accounts as trustee of the Blaisdell estate, with gross irregularities and virtually with looting the estate, filed exceptions this morning to the Master's report. Magoon hands out to Marcellino quite as hot a roast as Marcellino did to him. He accuses the Master of unfairness, bad faith, disregard of his duty, lying and bias and prejudice. He shows the estate to have made splendid earnings. The exceptions state in part:

That the report is unfair in that it criticizes this Trustee where there should be no criticism; and fails utterly to give him any credit for his untiring efforts in protecting and guarding the property, rights and interests of the three Blaisdell minors during the twelve years and over that he has had charge of the trust estate. That the Master should have called attention to the fact that during said time the accounts filed in court show that there has been collected and accounted for $37,028.61 in interest on the principal fund of $26,232.80 turned over to this Trustee, which income collected exceeds said entire principal fund by $10,795.81. Arbitration For All Labor Trouble

The recent trouble between the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company and its engineers has resulted in the permanent establishment of the principle of arbitration in settling all future difficulties that may arise.

"The whole thing is settled," said W. O. Smith this morning, "and I am happy to say that besides establishing the principle of arbitration the company can bespeak the uniform courtesy shown by the officers of the engineers' organization in dealing with the company."

The basis of settlement is that both the first and assistant engineers get a raise of $10 per month. The original demand was for an advance of $25 per month for the chiefs and assistants. The company came back with a proposition of $10 advance for the chiefs and $5 for the assistants. The general raise of $10 per month was the final figure adopted.

The agreement has been made in writing and formally signed, sealed and delivered by the company and the engineers, that hereafter should any differences arise they will be submitted to arbitration.

JURY SECURED FOR
ROSENBERG TRIALJunkman Faces Serious Charge In Federal Court

Jacob Rosenberg, the junk man, was this morning put upon his trial for receiving property stolen from the United States. No great progress was made on account of the fact that some of the essential witnesses were not in court and could not be secured until this afternoon, so a recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock.

However, a jury was secured, and with much less trouble than had been anticipated. Of the first twelve men placed in the jury box only two were excused. Both were peremptorily challenged by the defense. The jury as finally empaneled consists of the following: John E. Snyder, Chas. H. Atherton, John Cassidy, Wm. F. Heilbron, E. A. McInerney, J. H. Schnack, S. A. Walker, Wm. H. King, Wm. Lishman, Wm. Chalmers, J. J. MacDonald, W. J. Dyer.

There are four indictments against Rosenberg, but United States District Attorney Breckons stated in court this morning that if a conviction is secured on the first count, the others will not be tried. The prosecution believes that it has a strong case and that a conviction will result. The four boys who, it is claimed, sold their plunder to Rosenberg, have all pleaded guilty and will be used as witnesses for the Government.

MAY NOT AMEND

The question reserved from the Circuit Court, in the matter of the Wai-lua Agricultural Company, Ltd., vs. the Oahu Railway & Land Company, as to whether or not the plaintiff was entitled to amend its complaint, was this morning answered by the Supreme Court in the negative, the Court holding that its previous opinion ordering a new trial does not carry with it the right of the plaintiff to amend the complaint. The original action in a suit against the defendant for $15,178.95 for the use of certain lands at Wai-lua.

CHINA NOT SIGHTED

The big Pacific Mail liner China, which was due this morning from San Francisco, has not been sighted as yet at the signal station. If she comes in late this afternoon she will probably not sail for the Orient until tomorrow morning. She originally intended to stay at this port only a few hours.

The matter of the injunction against the Rapid Transit, prohibiting it from changing its Little street line time table, is being argued before the Supreme Court today. E. C. Peters is appearing for the plaintiffs and D. L. Withington for the respondent.

ALAMEDA CARRIES
RECORD SHIPMENTTen Thousand Bunches Of Bananas Are Consigned

When the Oceanic steamship Alameda sails at 10 o'clock next Wednesday morning, she will carry one of the largest banana shipments that has gone out of this port in many a day. On account of the quarantine restrictions for the past few weeks, the shippers here have been forced to hold up all their fruit until it has accumulated to enormous proportions.

As near as can be judged at the present, according to Captain Clark of the Oceanic Company, there will be ten thousand bunches of bananas in the hold of the Alameda when she sails. This comes very near the record for banana shipments, if it does not top them all. Besides bananas, there are 5000 cases of pineapples, 6000 bags of sugar, 2000 bags of rice, 1000 bags of coffee, and other general freight. Every available bit of cargo space on the Alameda will be utilized.

News of the plague in San Francisco was brought down by the Alameda to Dr. Ramus, of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service. There were, at the time the boat left, 136 cases and there had been 73 deaths. This shows that the plague there is slightly on the increase.

DAVIS DENIES

ADVERTISER'S

STATEMENT

George A. Davis denies emphatically that he said in Judge Dole's court last Saturday that a poor man cannot obtain justice in the Territorial Supreme Court. This morning he appeared in the Federal Court and addressed the Judge, saying that he wished to deny that he had ever made any such statement as that appearing in the Advertiser.

"I do not care what the newspapers say," declared Davis. "They cannot dictate the policy or away the decisions of the courts. I have the greatest respect for the members of the Supreme Court of this Territory. The report of my statement was garbled and untrue. What I did say was that the law does not make any provision for a poor man to get his case before the Supreme Court. I went before that court myself on behalf of a poor client, and I had to pay the expenses of the appeal out of my own pocket."

"No newspaper comment will deter me in the performance of my duty."

The Court received the statement without comment.

TO GIVE $15,000 BOND

The motion of the defendants in the big damage suit brought by Lowrie against Baldwin and the Castles, that the plaintiff be required to put up a bond of $15,000 to ensure the costs of court, was presented to Judge Robinson this morning by W. A. Kinney. A. G. M. Robertson, representing Lowrie, stated to the Court that if his client were given sixty days in which to do so, he would put up the bond asked. It was so ordered.

LAUKEA ADDRESSES
POLICE OFFICERSEnjoins Them To Refrain From Criticizing
Department

County Sheriff Laukea held the annual inspection of the police yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in the District Court room, after which he addressed the force in Hawaiian. He complimented the men very highly on their work and asked them to strictly attend to their own business. In the course of his address, Laukea told them to set aside politics and obey the orders of their superiors.

The following is a part of the address: "Set aside politics and give your thought and strength toward the proper performance of your duties. Execute orders. Hold your tongues and do not criticize the department. Let the outsiders do that and not you who are enjoying the good you obtained from the head of the department. These are my last instructions to you, the officers and members of the Police Department at the commencement of the year 1908."

The Sheriff then read the following statistics: Total criminal arrests during year 1907, 4379; total criminal arrests during the year 1906, 3479; excess, 891. Total convicted during 1907, 3388; total convicted during 1906, 2298; excess, 1090. Fines collected from criminal prosecutions during the year 1907 were $23,785.10, while that of 1906 totaled $16,082.60, which makes a difference of $7702.50.

COURT CALENDER
JUDGE ORDERS
TO BE PRINTED

A. G. M. Robertson this morning made a request of Judge De Bolt in open court that a calendar be printed for the next term of court. This motion was heartily seconded by W. A. Kinney and John Cathcart, both of whom stated that the calendar was badly needed, and that to try to let along without it would be false economy. In the end the Judge granted the request. De Bolt some time ago announced that no calendar for the next term of court would be printed, but that the attorneys and others interested would have to get along with typewritten calendars made from time to time. Great dissatisfaction was expressed at that time, which resulted in the motion made this morning.

worry along with inferior lighting, when ELECTRIC lighting is the CHEAPEST, as well as the BEST?

It is cheapest because it has no smoke, soot, or smudge to blacken the walls and ruin your curtains and draperies, like the open flame.

It's best because it is the most natural of artificial lights. It is evenly diffused and steady, because it is not affected by night winds, and everyone knows that it is the most convenient.

MAUI NEW YEAR CAME IN WITH ANCIENT HORRIBLES

(Special to The Bulletin)

Walluku, Maui, Jan. 4. — Hundreds of people turned out on New Year's Day to see the Antiques and Horribles and the merry cries of children were heard all along the route. The procession started from Walluku Fire Engine Co. No. 1 headed by Col. Carl Braun as marshal of the day. He wore the uniform of one of the Kaiser's bodyguards and won the admiration of the public. Assistant Engineers J. F. Welch and E. H. Rogers had one of the hose carts drawn by a team of white horses. The engine itself shone brilliantly in its decorations of variegated hues.

Mr. Hanney of the new Walluku laundry had a wagon with a wash-tub and he himself representing an American washerwoman, was hard at work washing. Clem and Willie Crowell represented an old delapidated Chinese wash-house carried on a wagon drawn by mules. "Clem" in his new role as a "Chinese washer" gentleman made quite a hit. In fact his impersonation of a heathen Chinese ironing clothes and sprinkling water from the mouth was immense. The U. S. mail wagon, the Devil, and many other town characters were well represented.

The Antiques and Horribles after their return from their invasion of the quarters of the Maui Wine Co. were drawn up by the marshal in battle formation in front of the grand stand at Wells Park and there the judges—Messrs. W. A. McKay, D. H. Case and Chas. Wilcox—awarded the prizes.

Best representative float awarded to Clem Crowell. Best decorated float won by the fire company. U. S. mail wagon was adjudged most comical. Aug. Enos, representing the Devil, won prizes offered by the Maui Soda and Ice Works. Antone do Rego was awarded the prize as the best-sustained character; L. H. Silva as the most original, and J. Garcia and J. Brown won first prize as the most original couple from Dixie Land. G. H. Cummings and Jas. Cornwell and Mr. Enos took the prize as second best representative float. They impersonated young Hawaiians sounding pol.

In the afternoon the Morning Stars won the baseball game from the All-Maui, the score being 13 to 2. There was a big audience present to witness the game.

LESSOR'S INTEREST IS NOT EXEMPT

The Tax Appeal Court is reversed and the Tax Assessor upheld in his assessments by an opinion handed down this morning by the Supreme Court in one of the "pineapple cases"—that of the Oahu Railway & Land Co., the Dowsett Co., Ltd., and John H. Estate, Ltd.

The question involved was whether or not a lessor's interest in land in actual use by the lessee for the production of pineapples is exempt from taxation under Section 1223 of the Revised Laws, excepting from taxation pineapple land, even though the lessee has covenanted to pay all the taxes and the rental reserved is a sliding one.

In the case of the Tax Assessor vs. Woon, which was recently decided by the Supreme Court, it was held that the lessor's interest is not exempt from taxation. The new facts in the present case the Court holds to be immaterial and do not affect the merits of the question. The decision, therefore, is merely confirmatory of the former opinion.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE HOLDS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

The Farmers' Institute held its annual meeting last Saturday afternoon and evening. During the first session the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. T. Pope, president; F. G. Krauss, vice president; Wm. Weinrich Jr., secretary and treasurer; and R. S. Homer, P. L. Horne and Jared G. Smith, directors. The report of the treasurer showed that the finances of the institution were not in the best of shape, due mainly to the fact that many members had not paid their dues, and ways and means were discussed to remedy this defect.

During the evening session papers were read—one by Dean W. T. Pope on "The Agricultural College," and the other by Jared G. Smith, on "The Relation of the Farmers' Institute to Education."

Mr. Pope ran over the various courses of education which would be pursued in the college and told of the work which he expected to do. He stated that the first examinations would be held about the end of the present month and that the work in the preparatory course would be commenced about February 1. The college course is expected to begin with the opening of the September term.

Jared G. Smith's paper was along the same general lines, showing the relation which the Farmers' Institute had to the college and to the Experiment Station. He said that it was more nearly affiliated with the college than with the station and that the Institute should be the means of translating the work of the college to the farmers. It held an important place in the work that was being started and also stated that it was greatly due to its efforts that the Agricultural College had become a reality.

CHINESE PREPARE FOR NEW YEAR

The Chinese New Year falls on February 1, 1908. The local Chinese are preparing for that great Konohi day, which will be celebrated in great shape. The merchants are eagerly waiting for the arrival of steamers with their Konohi supplies from the Orient. The lantern-makers are busy making and repairing lanterns to be used on that night. As is customary with the Chinese ladies, they are sewing new dresses for their children and embroidered silk shirts for their husbands and friends.

For the first time in Honolulu, the members of the Chinese Aloha Club are arranging for a grand concert and dance to be given at the K. of P. hall on the eve of Chinese New Year.

At the Boys' Field on February 1st, the Chinese Athletic Club will hold its annual meet for the first time.

NEW YEAR'S BANQUET HELD BY JAPANESE

The local Japanese merchants ended their New Year celebration by feasting at the Mochizuki Club last Saturday night. There were about 150 people present, the only women in evidence being the geisha girls. A large tent, brilliantly illuminated with various colored electric lights, was spread over the guests, who sat around five long tables. In the absence of the band the geisha girls sang and played on their samisens. Fireworks were discharged by Shimoda, an expert and maker of fireworks. After the feasting several humorous speeches were made by Fred K. Makino. His catchy method of speech delighted his hearers exceedingly. "Aloha Oe" was sung by Yasumori, a Hawaiian-born Japanese, and he was loudly applauded. Rev. G. Motokawa, Dr. Uemura, Yamashiro and many others entertained their fellow-guests with songs appropriate for the occasion.

Consul General Saito and Banker Y. Akai, under whose management the feast was so successfully arranged, were complimented for their efforts. Dr. Katsunuma was the toastmaster and performed his duty beyond reproach. The luau commenced early and ended early, at about 9 o'clock. Manager T. Mochizuki was assisted in caring for the guests by a large number of waiters and waitresses.

customed to make a short cut to Mathe Government would discover that

SUGAR TRUST WITHOUT HAVEMEYER.

The effect of the death of H. O.
Havemeyer on the future of the American Sugar Company, better known as the Sugar Trust, has been a source of much speculation and is naturally of no small import to Hawaii.

Havemeyer was a strong personality. He was the commander of the Sugar Trust. Directors met and sanctioned what he had done. By many Havemeyer was put down as the keenest business man in New York.

Now the question arises whether there is another in the ranks of the Trust to take the place of this leader, or, in the future, the Trust will be governed in fact by a board of directors. The general opinion seems to be that there is no person to exert the elder Havemeyer's power. His son is on the board of directors and may develop. The man who has been advanced to the Presidency goes there because he is as good as anyone else on the directorate.

In this connection the financial writer of the New York World indulges in significant comment on the fact that American Sugar stock was generally sold on account of the loss to the company of Havemeyer's leadership. Competition is expected to be more aggressive. Ability of the directorate to meet it as Havemeyer did is in doubt. The writer says further: "Mr. Havemeyer seemed to be able to use convincing arguments with Congress when any legislation was suggested that might have any bearing upon the earnings of the Trust. His master hand will also be missed in the stock market management of the Sugar securities. The suggestion is made that hereafter the Washington branches of some of the Stock Exchange houses may prove less profitable. The present management is said to be strongly opposed to Wall Street influences in the management of the corporation and to consider the speculative possibility of the stock to be of secondary importance."

should have called attention to the fact that the allowance being paid to said children at the time this trustee took charge of said trust of about $70 per month, was increased from time to time by this trustee until since September, 1906, he has been paying $120 month.

That he should have called atten-that this trustee has had charge of said trust, he has taken fifty-five of which have been paid in full without one dollar lost to the estate and

That the Master disregarded his duty to this trustee in the premises in that he has not, in his report, referred to the difference in conditions between this time and the date on which the investments were taken by this trustee for the estate, and the great depreciation in the value of real estate and which was referred to by the Master to whom was referred this trustee's eighth annual account.

That said Master has made absolutely inconsistent and contradictory reports upon the same state of facts in that the investments which he now condemns he reported favorably upon after full and exhaustive examination, March 20, 1907.

That said Master has now unfairly reflected upon this trustee in im-puting to him consumable conduct in the matter of taking securities in his own name and transferring the same to the trust estate; while in the report of the same matter above referred to on the same state of facts as are now before the court, he says:

"I have inspected the documents purporting to be the securities and find that they are all first mortgages except the bonds and stocks. The mortgages are all made to J. Alfred Magdon, and he has assigned the same to himself as trustee of the estate, although the assignments are not recorded." That the act of said Master in now imputing improper motives to this trustee is wholly unwarranted and utterly at variance with the previous report of said Master.

That the criticism of the Master in the matter of the taking of said investments in the name of this trustee, is not only unfair but founded upon an utter and inexcusable ignorance in a Master, as there was absolutely no need of any assignment of any of the mortgages inasmuch as the transfer of the notes secured by the mortgages is all that was necessary, the accounts showing fully when these notes were transferred.

That as indicating the bias and prejudice of said Master and his cen-surable failure to familiarize himself with the affairs of this estate, said Master recommends that this trustee be obliged to take over the H. M. Kahulu mortgages, which mort-

That as to the Carly, Ladd and Crabbe mortgages, said Master does not say that the properties securing them were not amply sufficient for the loans at the time they were taken.

That the only matters that can now be considered are the investments taken since and not included in this trustee's ninth annual account. That as to all prior investments, the approval of this trustee's account is res judicata in the absence of a clear showing of fraud and imposition upon this court.

FRANK COOLEY WILL PLAY AT OPERA HOUSE

Frank Cooley and his company will open their new season tomorrow night at the Hawaiian Opera House. "I have my company here prepared for a long season," said Mr. Cooley this morning. "We are all of us comfortably settled here, we like the town and the people, and we do not propose to let the mere fact of the Orpheum manager's 'getting mad' at us terminate our season as long as there is a place here where we can present our productions. At the Hawaiian we can give much better presentations of our plays. In order to have more time for their preparation, we will show only three nights, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and Saturday afternoon. Two plays will be given each week, as heretofore. The season will continue for at least three weeks."

The play tomorrow and Thursday nights will be "A Daughter of Dixie," a four-act dramatization of Henry Blossom's novel, "Checkers." It is a beautiful story and in addition to the unique character of "Drift," the flangy race track tout, has a wealth of those southern characters which are among the richest on the stage.

Prices at the Hawaiian will be the same as at the Orpheum, 75 and 50 cents for reserved seats, and 25 cents for the gallery. Tickets are on sale at the box office.

Seats are on sale at Wall, Nichols & Co.'s from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and at the Opera House from 5 to 9:30 p. m.

CLERK'S SURETIES ARE NOT LIABLE

The Territory will have to stand the loss of the money embezzled by E. Vivian Richardson when he was a clerk in the bureau of public works, unless the money can be collected from Richardson himself. This is the meaning of an opinion rendered this morning by the Supreme Court in which the exceptions of the sureties are sustained and the judgment of the lower court being joint, a new trial is ordered.

The Territory brought suit against Richardson and those who were sureties on his bond—D. Kawanakoa, John F. Colburn, Cecil Brown and Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd., as administrators of the estate of W.
H. Cornwell, for the amount of Richardson's defalcations, and got judgment in the Circuit Court. The defendants went to the Supreme Court on a bill of exceptions, which are sustained.

The Court says that there is no statute creating the office of clerk in the bureau of water works nor defining his duties, the appointment being made in pursuance of an appropriation for "salary of clerk." "There is nothing in the designation of 'clerk' to warrant the inference that he was to act as assistant to the Superintendent of Water Works in collecting water rates."

The point of law involved is stated in the syllabus, as follows: Sureties on the official bond of a clerk in the bureau of water works, whose duties are nowhere defined by law, are not liable for his failure to account for moneys payable by law to the superintendent of water works.

BELIEVE RODRIGUES THE JAIL-BREAKER PASSED WAHIAWA

Chief Detectives Taylor states that it has been reported to him that a Porto Rican answering to the description of Juan Rodrigues, who broke from Oahu Prison together with Francisco Lopez a short time ago, was seen passing through Wahiau in the direction of Waihalu last Tuesday night. Lopez was not seen. Still he may have been with Rodrigues, if he was really the man who was seen.

It was generally reported by the friends of the two men after their escape that Lopez would be likely to go to Waihalu to revenge himself on his mother, who he believed had betrayed him to the authorities on a former occasion, when he was a fugitive from justice. Taylor has made inquiries at Waihalu, however, and has learned that the woman has gone to Kau.

TWO WOMEN UNHAPPY

Rose Costa Martello wants a divorce from her husband, Antone Mar-tines Martello, whom she charges with using her cruelly. She says that he has assaulted, struck and beaten her, hit her in the face with his fist, beat her head against the wall and kicked her, even using a stick to strike her. On top of all this he has deserted her. The libel was issued first October 20, 1904, and was returned May 24, 1905. It has just been again returned unserved, the officers being unable to find the libellee.

Similar charges are made by Rita Takumoto against her husband, Denkichi Takumoto, against whom she filed suit for divorce this morning.

Prize-fight promoters caught in a raid on the San Francisco Auto Club were held to answer a felony charge under $2000 bonds.

prepared by Deputy Insurance Comby Insurance Commissioner A. J.

Campbell. This report shows the total business transacted during the year ended Dec. 31, 1906, by all insurance companies authorized to do business. The report is thus a year behind.There are no comments in the report, which consists entirely of figures. These, however, contain some interesting statistics.The total amount of fire insurance written during the year by the 52 companies doing business in this line was $21,928,280.95. Premiums on the same amounted to $389,913.- 91, and losses paid totaled $166,249.- 64. The largest amount of insurance ness in the life insurance line, the cent; Hathaway, 40 per cent; City Mill, 38 1/2 per cent, and Pierce Manufacturing Company, 32 per cent. The total dividends of the eighteen corporations here are $2,578,250 on a capital stock of $18,770,000, or an average of 13.73 per cent. Last year the average rate was 8.92 per cent, in 1905 6.6, and in 1904 5.2.When in 1906 the New Bedford that sum.Hawaiian

BUTTERFLY PARTY.

A butterfly party is a novelty and the idea can be carried out in a very attractive manner by one who is clever in arranging home entertainments. In the first place a house can be decorated inside with flowers and immense butterflies made of flowered paper napkins. All dainty dishes can be decorated with small butterflies made of paper, while place cards are cut to imitate large butterflies. The lives will look dainty if served in paper ramekins with tissue-paper butterflies pinned on the side. One should find many clever ways in which to make a success of this form of entertainment.

The Jealous Wife

(Original)

"Lucy, if you don't part company with your absurd jealousy you will in time have to part company with me.
No man will stand such an annoyance."

"And if you don't part company with the women to whom you are so devoted you will have to part company with me."

"When are you especially suspicious of at present?"

"I'm suspicious of no one. I know that you are attentive to—Margaret Gray."

"What, my old friend Margaret?"

"You mean your old flame Margaret."

"Lucy, you are a fool!" And the husband stalked out of the room and the house.

One morning a telegram came to the house addressed to Mr. Bradford Bowen. The messenger on learning that Mr. Bowen was not at home declined to leave the message, and the maid went to Mrs. Bowen to ask when Mr.
Bowen would return. Mrs. Bowen went to the door to speak to the messenger herself and found him old-time in clinging to his instructions. She asked him to permit her to look at the address on the message, and he held it up before her. Snatching it from him, she tore off the envelope and read:

Take 4 o'clock train for Hastings tomorrow afternoon. Disguise. M. G.

The dreaded blow had fallen. Her husband was about to desert her for Margaret Gray. The stricken wife did not for a moment realize that she had brought it upon herself. She crumpled the telegram convulsively and, rushing upstairs to her bedroom, locked the door and gave way to weeping and wailing. By the time her husband usually came home to dinner she had grown comparatively calm. She would not reveal her discovery. She would announce that she had tired of living with a man in whom she had no confidence and that she would on the morrow go to live with her mother. But when dinner had been placed on the table the erring husband did not appear—7, 8, 9, 10 o'clock came, but not Mr. Bowen. The deserted wife sat up till 2 in the morning waiting, then went to bed, but not to sleep. There was one ray of hope in the matter.
She knew of the appointment for the next day and would be on the train.
How he would tremble at her fury!
And how the shamefaced husky who had led him away from his lawful wife would cover before her just indignation.

But during the morning she began to realize how desperate was the situation. She remembered her husband's warning and thought that perhaps, after all, she might have driven him to what he was about to do. She changed her plan. She would go on the train, but to implore him to return with her.

She would promise to do better in future. But the telegram said, "Disguise." Would she know him or the woman he was to elope with? At any rate she must do her best.

At 4 o'clock she was on the train.
Beginning at the first car, she walked through to the last, peering at every one she passed. In the last car every seat was occupied but one, and that was beside a gentleman who moved aside for her, and she sank into it, with a sigh. The train pulled out of the station, and the man beside her, turning, said:

"You seem worried about something.
Are you looking for some one on the train?"

Mrs. Bowen at first declared that she was not, but after awhile admitted she was. Then when the man asked if he could not aid her she said hopelessly:
"The one I seek is disguised."

"In that case I can do nothing for you. Shall I telegraph ahead for the police?"

"Oh, no! For heaven's sake, don't!"

Before reaching Hastings the sympathetic gentleman had gained her confidence and permission to go with her to Brown's, the principal restaurant and hotel in the place, where the eloping couple would doubtless put up. He also went through the train for her, looking at suspicious persons, and when he returned he said that the old German and his frau sitting opposite looked as if made up. When they left the train they followed this couple, who went directly to Brown's.

"You must have something to sus-tain you," said Mrs. Bowen's friend, and without her knowledge or consent ordered supper in a private room. As soon as it was announced he led her there. Scarcely knowing what she did, she sat down at the table, but refused to eat, burying her face in her hands and weeping bitterly. Suddenly the door was thrown open, and there stood her husband and Margaret Gray.

"Lucy," said her husband reproachfully, "what does this mean? You here with a stranger taking supper in a private room?"

"I got the telegram. This gentleman has been very kind. Oh, how could you?"

Meanwhile the gentleman who had been so kind arose and, going to Margaret Gray, gave her a loving kiss.

"What does it all mean?" exclaimed the mystified wife.

"It means, my dear," said Bowen, "that I have given you a lesson as to the folly of yielding to your insane jealousy. This is Mr. Charles Bosford, who has had the good fortune to win my old chum Madge. They have helped me out in this affair, and now if you are satisfied that your husband all right we're going to have a jolly supper to celebrate their engagement.
Charlie, push the button. We all need refreshment after our work. Walter, a quart of champagne."

A Fire-Proof Cement

Alabastine is not only the best inside coating in the world for churches, opera houses, club houses, office buildings and dwellings, but is used everywhere for factories, cotton mills, army posts, plantation buildings, hospitals, asylums, etc., largely on account of its fire-proof properties. Alabastine is perfectly fire proof in its nature, is a cement that can be mixed thick and used in filling cracks, and sets very hard over night. Is cheaper than and superior to paint.

THE SCHOOLS

Sanitarians say that the closely packed school room with the large surface of wall exposure demands careful attention; otherwise is a breeding ground for disease germs and a fruitful source of disease. They recommend Alabastine only. Write for particulars.

THE HOME

Here life is spent. The little ones are born and reared, and are entitled to all the safeguards that the intelligent housewife can surround them with.

Alabastine is not expensive, promotes health, renders home beautiful and is durable. Alabastine is not a kalsomine.

Examine package and refuse if not labeled Alabastine. DON'T forget that Alabastine being durable is worth many times its price as compared with other wall-coating materials, which are dear at any price, and remember there is Only One ALABASTINE.

ALABASTINE is a powder put up in 5-pound packages. We carry it in stock in White and in a large number of beautiful tints. Anyone can mix it with water and apply it, no skill required.

It can be used with splendid results right over old wall paper and the beautiful finish will surprise you.

Let us send you a color card of ALABASTINE.

LIGHT SIX TOURING CAR

Six Cylinders 35 H.P. Price $3500

F.O.B. Factory

FOUR-CYLINDER CAR can never have that delightful sensitiveness to the throttle which is a constant source of pleasure in a Six.

To most makers Sixes are a new proposition. The difficulties incident to the designing of a RELIABLE Six-cylinder car are not easily overcome. This is the reason why some makers are advocating the Four—they are unable to build a SATISFACTORY Six.

The famous Stevens-Duryea Unit Power Plant and three-point suspension makes possible a Six-cylinder car of faultless design. Stevens-Duryea Sixes are a known quantity—do not purchase an experiment simply because it is a Six.

NO WHITESOX FOR HONOLULU

The following letter was received by Jess Woods on the Alameda. It sounds the death-knell for any chances of the White Sox coming here. Read it:

Chicago, Dec. 16, '07.

Mr. J. L. Woods, Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of Dec. 24 at hand and in reply will say that I did contemplate taking my team to Honolulu for training purposes; also could have played some exhibition games between the members of my team and the team that represents your club if you have one, but I have made other arrangements now and it will be impossible for me to make the trip; I am awful sorry, as I have heard about the glorious climate you have and imagine it would give me a world of good to go there for a couple of weeks, but the trip is so long we would be on the water a couple of weeks.

Hoping we can do something a year from now and trusting that your baseball venture will turn out successfully, I am,

Yours truly,

CHAS. A. COMISKEY,

Manager.

DOUBLE-HEADER AT

ATKINSON PARK

Atkinson Park was the scene of two good games yesterday. The first, between the Police team and the Ocean View, ended in a victory for the latter by the close score of 4 to 1. The second game was between the Irons and the Laundry teams, and was won by the former by the score of 8 to 2. They were both good contests. A. Drier was the real bright particular star of the afternoon, getting two hits, eight assists, and striking out five men.

BAGGERLY WRITES

San Francisco, Dec. 26th.

Dear Jess:—Well I am back and down to hard graft once more. We had a very pleasant trip home and nobody except Mrs. Fisher was sick.

I am glad to get back though I had the best time of my life. When a fellow has been off his job about so long he usually wants to hike back, and that was my fix.

I mailed today the bunch of Bulletins you asked. I find that I sent my paper about 21,000 words. Pretty good showing for one who was hitting the high places.

When I stop to think about it, Honolulu is one fine resort, and I would like to make that trip again. If there is anything doing in the baseball line, and you need another press agent consider my application filed.

Again thanking you for past favors, I am,

Sincerely,

H. L. BAGGERLY.

NOTES ON BALL-PLAYERS TRIP

How did the players kill time coming home on the steamer? As they went down, playing poker, pitching quoits, getting up pools on the ship's run each day, buying raffle tickets, reading, fanning and holding impromptu flunks in the evenings. The poker room was the popular joint after the second day out. The players were too shaky on their feet to sit about the festive poker table the first two days. Going down Donahue had all the luck, and won all the money, but coming back Pat was the good thing and Jimmy Britt cleaned up.

Going down Britt was the green pen, and lost enough to buy a handsome Christmas gift. So while considerable money changed hands nobody quit a heavy loser. Nick Williams leads the league playing poker, but returning his hands were beaten with disgusting regularity. But Nick will get his when next season opens. The Helmsmiller brothers were not conspicuous about the green table, but they cut on the pools. Each won a pool. They were the only players to pull down one of these prizes. Occasionally Devereaux took a hand at the cards, but the "athletic games" engaged the major portion of his time. In pitching quoits Brick was in a class by himself. Hildebrand, his nearest rival, he could spot about three points in a game of ten, and then beat him. The Red Dog's control of the quoits was all that could be desired. By the by, Brick carried off other honors on the good ship Alameda. He was the champion swatter of the knife and fork league. Going and coming the Red Dog did not skip one meal. When the water was the roughest and the ship rolled the hardest Devereaux ate his biggest package, and when the dinner bell sounded Brick was invariably first in his seat. Mike Fisher batted second. He was tied with Brick going to Honolulu, but returning the portly manager "cut" a couple of meals and finished second. Pat Donahue led the jinks in the evenings. He has a rich voice and dances well besides. The players were startled one morning bright and early about five hundred miles from San Francisco by the announcement that a whale could be seen. The monster of the deep sank out of sight before the players could reach the deck. Brick asserted that he saw the big fellow from his bathroom window, but he had no affidavits. The officers of the ship declared that it was the largest whale they had seen on many a trip. A sight that did interest the players was a big school of porpoises diving in and out of the water. This school was seen the third day out from Honolulu. So after all time did not pass so slowly on the Alameda.

Jack Elias played in hard luck on his trip, though he had his share of the good times. When he arrived at Honolulu he sent his grip, containing a suit of clothes, all his laundry and toilet articles to the hotel, as did the rest of the players. Somewhere between the dock and the hotel Elias' matchel was lost, and the hotel people were never able to locate it. It cost Jack a pretty penny to replenish his wardrobe.

Bliss could hardly navigate when he caught the opening game, but his foot improved rapidly and before he left the islands he was showing his big league form. Bliss threw a lot of pepper into the games and was a big favorite with the fans.

Hildebrand was a thorn in the side of the Honolulu fans, for he was the first player to make a mad dash for the umpire. Up to the time Fisher's stickers arrived the players thought no more of jumping on the poor umpire than striking their mothers. It was taken for granted that Umpire Bower, who presided at most of the games, and who, by the way, gave general satisfaction, was always right. Hilde took issue with Bower the very first time he went to bat in the opening game, and the fans never forgave it and any time that the pudgy outfielder fanned it was the signal for an ovation. There was one red-headed girl, a school teacher, who attended every game, who clapped her hands and shouted with glee any time that a decision went against Hildebrand. Her actions became a joke with the players, and often the remark, "Hilde, your friend is at it again," was heard on the bench.

Catcher Charley Graham spent Christmas with his folks in San Francisco. He let loose a little baseball talk this morning which will interest the State League fans. He said, "We expect to have about the same team that we had last year. That is, I believe we will have all our best players with us again. We are counting Doyle, Brown and Enright and I am looking for a couple of men to strengthen the club. The club is strong as it is, but we can use a man or so."

Graham said it would be impossible to play Mike Fisher's stars as his team had disbanded, and the players had scattered. Before Fisher left Honolulu he wrote Graham about a game, but by some accident the letter was brought on the same steamer that the players came on.—Baggerly in the San Francisco Bulletin.

OAHU COLLEGE OPENS

WITH BIG ATTENDANCE

Oahu College opened this morning at 9 o'clock for the second term of the school year. The classes in the second term commence from where they left off in the first. Aside from a large number of students who have already registered, many more applied this morning for admittance to the college. President Griffiths and Principal Ellis have been in their respective offices all day today. Since the island boats arrived, many students returned from their holidays. There is no room in the boarding department and it became necessary, therefore, to provide rooms for them.

President and Mrs. Griffiths are now occupying their new house, which was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones. Mrs. Griffiths will receive the first Monday in February.

Railroads lay 5730 miles of new track in 1907, a record close to that of 1906, the banner year.
