MAY FEEL LAW'S HEAVY HAND

Broken Seal On Invincible The Trouble.

A GRAVE OFFENCE AGAINST UNCLE SAM

Vessel Liable to Forfeiture and Captain to Imprisonment.

The American ship Invincible, Captain Mackenzie, is in serious trouble. How serious, no one as yet can tell. Whether the trouble is due purely to an accident or whether the law has been disregarded through carelessness or deliberation is a question which will in all probability be decided in the near future in the United States District Court.

Early yesterday morning, in some mysterious manner, the seal which had been placed on the main hatch of the Invincible by the customs house, was broken or cut by some person as yet unknown. The law deals heavily with an offense of this kind and it is considered a serious offense. For an unauthorized person to break or remove a Government seal is felony according to the United States law.

The Invincible arrived in this port from Newcastle on Friday, last, August 24. On Wednesday she obtained a permit to discharge her cargo of coal and moved to Sorenson's wharf and was ready to commence unloading yesterday morning.

When the customs officers boarded her in the stream, just after her arrival from Newcastle, they sealed all her hatches according to the usual requirements of the customs department. The hatches remained sealed up to the time that the seal on the main hatch was broken by some unauthorized person yesterday morning.

According to all accounts given aboard the Invincible yesterday to an Advertiser reporter, in explanation of the breaking of the seal, it appears that the breaking of the seal was either gross carelessness or else purely an accident. The captain and mates of the Invincible disclaim any responsibility in the affair and none of the crew seem to know anything whatever about it. They all agree that the seal on the main hatch must have been broken by the stevedores when they went aboard at about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. All connected with the ship are certain that all seals were intact up to the time the stevedores came aboard.

When the stevedores came aboard they, according to the men of the Invincible, immediately proceeded to open the main hatch preparatory to discharging coal. Captain Mackenzie was not on deck when the hatch was opened, the first mate came on deck, he says, just after the hatch had been opened. Nobody saw the seal broken, in fact nobody aboard the good ship Invincible knows anything about the matter beyond the fact that the seal had been broken.

When the custom's inspector went aboard just a little after 7 o'clock to break the seals he was naturally very much surprised to find that his duty had been anticipated, that some unauthorized person had already broken the seal on the main hatch and that the work of discharging coal was under way. The Invincible had a permit to discharge her cargo but still hadn't the least bit of right to break the government seal.

The customs officer immediately reported the matter, as he was in duty bound, to the customs office. The matter was investigated, and the case was at once referred to United States District Attorney Baird.

Whether the excuse that the breaking of the seal was a pure accident will lessen the penalty, which, according to the law, is due, is something yet to be decided.

According to section 3105 of the Revised Statutes of the United States the breaking of a Government seal under such or similar conditions is deemed felony, and is punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years, or a fine of $1,000.

According to section 3106, the vessel is liable to be forfeited. The section reads as follows:

"Each vessel, car, or other vehicle, crate, box, bag, basket, barrel, bundle, cask, trunk, package, parcel, or other thing, with the cargo, or contents thereof, from which the wire, seal, lead, lock, or other fastening or mark shall have been broken, cut, picked, opened, or removed by any such unauthorized person or persons, or to which such seal, or other thing purporting to be a seal, has been wrongfully attached, shall be forfeited."

This is an entirely different case from that of the Marion Chilcott; the Chilcott was fined for discharging part of her cargo before she had been properly entered at the custom house. The trouble of the Invincible is the breaking of a seal set upon the main hatch of the vessel by the customs department. Of course it is not supposed by anyone that the seal was deliberately broken by any of the officers of the Invincible, or with their knowledge or permission, but the general opinion of those acquainted with the case is that there is altogether too much indifference manifested by many ship captains coming to this port towards the laws of the United States customs department and its necessary rules and regulations. It is felt by the authorities that many captains don't realize that these Hawaiian Islands constitute a Territory of the United States, but have not yet got used to the change of affairs politically. The law, they say, must be enforced, or else all kinds of liberties will be taken.

Hawaii's Schools

The Western Journal of Education for August, edited by Herr Wagner, and dedicated to educational work, has the following paragraph of interest to educational workers in Hawaii:

"One of the most interesting documents that have come to this office is the report of the Minister of Public Instruction of Hawaii, sent by the Inspector General, Henry S. Townsend. Mr. Townsend will be remembered as one of the most prominent guests of the N. E. A. at Los Angeles, Cal. The report contains much valuable information about the schools of Hawaii. It also contains this tribute to Dr. Brown of the University of California, who assisted them in forming a course of study. 'Dr. E. E. Brown rendered the cause of education in Hawaii a service at this time, especially by fostering local leadership in educational thought and work. The following September the course of study went into the schools. Although progress along this line has been steady, and, perhaps, considering all circumstances, satisfactory, it has not been notably rapid.'"

Fifth District, Eighth Precinct.

At the club meeting in the Eighth Precinct, Fifth District, last night, held at the residence of W. C. Achi, the latter, C. F. Peterson, and Charles B. Dwight were chosen as delegates to the district convention.

The officers of the club are: W. C. Achi, president; C. F. Peterson, vice president; N. Fernandez, treasurer, and P. Silva, secretary. The president appointed W. Fernandez and Geo. S. Evans as tellers to the judges; the judges elected were C. B. Dwight, James Harbottle and R. M. Duncan. The following comprise the enrollment committee: W. L. Peterson, chairman; J. Harbottle, J. M. Keam, Chas. B. Dwight, R. M. Duncan, Geo. S. Evans and Ben. Haahao.

NO DUFF FOR THESE TARS

Foremast Men Of The Llewellyn Sue.

HAD TO WORK ON EMPTY STOMACHS

They Libel the British Ship for Wages Alleged Due.

If the statements of her sailors are to be believed, the state of affairs on board the British ship Carnedd Llewellyn, which recently arrived at this port from Hamburg, was not such as to make the passage one that would be pleasant to repeat.

Yesterday these sailors, eleven in number, headed by John Solters, A. B., began libel proceedings against the Carnedd Llewellyn and her master, Captain Griffiths, for wages alleged to be due them, as well as for damages for poor food furnished them during the passage.

In their complaint the sailors state that they sailed on the Carnedd Llewellyn on April 17th from Hamburg, sailing around the Horn and arriving at Honolulu on August 23d. At Hamburg, the sailors say, Captain Griffiths took on an insufficient supply of food, and what he did supply was of poor quality. Throughout the voyage they were provided with an insufficient quantity of food and were subjected to great hardship as a consequence.

Two months out from Hamburg, the complaint goes on to relate, two of the sailors—Charles Hendrickson and H. Van Driel—were taken sick as a result of the bad diet, and Captain Griffiths refused to give them the proper medicines and likewise refused to give them any medical attendance.

On arriving at this port the sailors went to the British Consul and told him their story, protesting against the treatment they had received. The Consul heard their complaint, they say, and fined Captain Griffiths for failing to properly provision the ship.

There is due the men, they say, wages aggregating the sum of $40. When they reached here the Captain refused to pay them any money whatever and consented to their leaving the ship, thereby discharging them.

They ask the attachment and sale of the ship for the payment of their wages and damages for the poor food they were given.

A short time after the complaint was filed United States Marshal Ray attached the vessel and put a keeper in charge of her. The writ of attachment was made returnable on September 6th.

W. R. Hoare, the British Consul at this port, said last evening that the sailors of the Carnedd Llewellyn came to him after their arrival in port and told him of the shortage in food. He ascertained, on inquiring into the matter, that their complaints were well founded. Captain Griffiths told him that they had come to him and that for about fourteen days out of Honolulu he had had to keep them on short rations.

"The English law provides," said Mr. Hoare, "that in such cases the captain of the vessel shall pay to each sailor four pence per day during the time of shortage. This sum I directed Captain Griffiths to pay the men when they were paid off. It is not true, however, that I fined the Captain, for this is not regarded in the light of a fine."

IN THE FEDERAL COURT.

A demurrer was argued yesterday morning in the United States District Court in the case of Eugene Avery vs. W. C. King, H. A. Higelow, representing King, and Davis and Gear, Avery. The demurrer contested the jurisdiction of the Court. Judge Estee took the matter under advisement until today.

A new libel has been begun by Christopher Collins against the Bark Empire for wages alleged to be due him since his discharge August 27.

Three new citizens were admitted by Judge Estee during the session of the court. They were: John Ouderkirk of Canada, Carl Kaiser of Germany and J. F. C. Abel of Germany.

THE DUNREGGAN LIBEL.

The libel against the Dunreggan dragged all day long yesterday before United States Commissioner Robinson, Captain Brokaw of the Pearless, being on the stand most of the day. He told of going out to the Dunreggan the day she went ashore and of how he bargained with Captain Dixon for the job of hauling the vessel off the reef. It is likely that the case will take up most of next week. At adjournment yesterday the continuance was taken until Tuesday next.

MRS. ANDRADE ANSWERS.

Mrs. Adelaida Andrade yesterday filed her answer to the libel for her divorce filed by her husband, John S. Andrade. She asserts that her alleged desertion was forced upon her by the treatment of her husband, and she states that he is not a proper person to have charge of her daughter. She asks the dissolution of the libel and the custody of the child.

JUDGMENT FOR RAWLINS.

Judgment was rendered yesterday by Judge Humphreys for the plaintiff in the case of T. W. Rawlins vs. Maraca K. Harbottle. The case involved the possession of land on Harbottle's lane.

THEY FAVOR HILO FOR CONVENTION

There was a meeting of the Republicans of the First Precinct of the Fourth Representative District (Punahou and Waikiki) last night at the Government warehouse. The only chair was monopolized by the chairman and the rest of the members, including the secretary, sat on empty wine and whiskey crates.

The chairman, Cecil Brown, was absent and Prof. H. S. Townsend was elected temporary chairman. George Manson was secretary, and not only had he disappeared but the previous records of the club also. J. D. McVeigh was made secretary pro tem.

The club then took up the "model" constitution recommended by Republican headquarters for precinct clubs, and, after amending it to suit local conditions and ideas, adopted it.

Under this constitution candidates for officers of the club for the ensuing year are to be elected at the Saturday primary, and after ordering 200 copies printed in English at the expense of the club, and Mr. J. H. Boyd's offering to have a number translated into Hawaiian at his own expense, the following were placed in nomination for the club officers:

For president of the club, Mr. H. S. Townsend (Mr. Boyd declining to stand); for secretary, E. S. Boyd (Messrs. Towse and McVeigh declining to run); for treasurer, T. R. Mossman; for judges of election, Messrs. Henry Davis, Pikel and Edmund Shorey (Mr. A. A. Montano declining to run on account of ill health); for delegates to the district committee, Messrs. W. C. Weedon, William Kikel, J. D. McVeigh and J. H. Boyd, of which number three are to be chosen at the primary Saturday. The three candidates for permanent judges of primary election were then made judges pro tem for the ensuing primary. Tickets are to be printed on the Australian ballot style, with blank lines for other candidates who may be put up later.

J. D. Avery introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved that it is the sense of this club that the proposition of holding the next Republican Territorial Convention at Hilo is a good one."

Mr. Davis asked if there was any ulterior motive back of the scheme. Mr. Boyd as a member of the Territorial Central Committee made quite an address, stating that Hilo had an idea that Honolulu was attempting to run things and that the Central Committee wanted to get that idea out of their heads. He said he did not doubt that hundreds of Hawaiian and other voters who were now on the political fence could be brought into the Republican ranks by such a move. The island of Hawaii, he feared, was liable to go independent unless strong efforts were made. He thought it better to placate them if possible and perhaps nominate some of their men on the Republican ticket for the sake of having the Legislature safely Republican rather than to hold aloof from them and allow them to elect a Legislature with an independent majority which would not be satisfactory to Honolulu or the islands in general. He suggested that after the convention the delegates who could, take a tour around Hawaii and then around Maui and tell the people there why they should be Republicans and explain truly the Republican principles, and the convention going to Hilo would be pretty sure to carry Hilo at the next election.

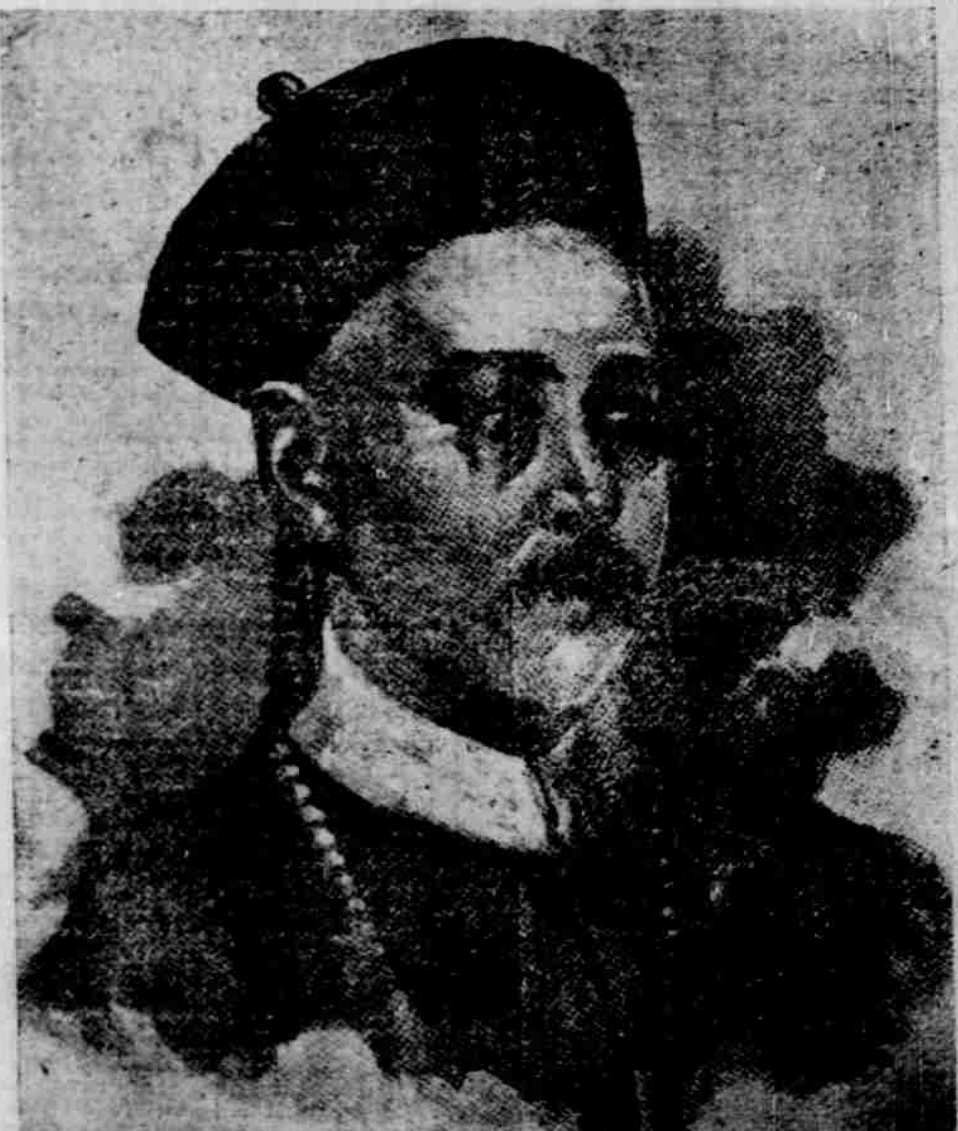

The resolution passed.

An enrollment committee consisting of Messrs. Weedon, Pikel, Helm, Mossman and Townsend was then appointed to restore the old lists and get new converts, which closed the business of the meeting.

TWO OF THE LEADING FIGURES IN THE PRESENT CRISIS IN CHINA

Li Hung Chang, the greatest living Chinaman, according to Chinese ideas, is an ideal son. When his mother, 83 years of age, died in 1882, Li resigned all office, and asked permission of the Government to be allowed to retire for three years, according to custom, to mourn for her. However, Li's services were required at that time, and the request was refused. At other times Li has been in disgrace. He was supposed to favor foreigners, which he never at any time did, and was consequently stripped of his "yellow jacket and peacock's feather." That was after his tour in Europe, but he soon got them back. He is very wealthy.

Prince Tuan, the would-be usurper of China, is interesting to us just now, principally because he is the greatest hater of foreigners in the Flower Land. He is an accomplished villain, and at the deposition of Kwang Hsu, the rightful Emperor, he managed, with the help of the Dowager Empress, to have his son proclaimed heir apparent. Later he intrigued for more power, and doing things too slow, he attempted to depose the Dowager Empress, have his son made Emperor, and live happy ever afterwards as the rich father of his Imperial Majesty, "The Son of Heaven." Prince Tuan is the one who set the Chinese in motion against the Legations at Peking.

THERE were several good workouts at the track yesterday. Dan McCarty, who traveled close to 2:35; Charlie, Mongoose, W. W. Woods, Fred Eros, Walter W., and Three Minutes being the star performers. The track is rapidly getting into nice shape and will be about right next Monday.

Decker's Real Estate, formerly Bones, is doing nice work on the road; his owner will drive him in the 3:00 class affair on Labor Day.

Seth Nichols will probably be seen in the saddle next week. He is expected to ride Antidote.

A pony race will be included in the Labor Day program for the benefit of quite a number of scrub horses whose owners have for some time past been steadily preparing them for such an event.

A 75-yards footrace, open to members of the Honolulu Driving Association, will be run at the track next Monday afternoon. "Old Pal" Gorman (you know him), who won the last event of this kind is expected to toe the scratch; also Will Wright and Charlie Bellina, who ran second and third on that occasion.

The following extracts are culled from the Breeder and Sportsman of August 18th:

Joe McDuffie, who has been riding and training horses in the Hawaiian Islands for the past two years, arrived from Honolulu this week. He says that the meetings held at Honolulu and Hilo this year were the most successful ever held at the Islands, and that the California horses got more than their share of the money. Joe rode Dixie Land to victory in all but one of the hurdle races.

Among the other California winners were Venus, formerly owned by Dow Williams; Billy McCloskey, with three wins to his credit; Watossa, Uncle True, Zinfandel, Weller and Aggravation, the latter being a Brutus mare presented to Helen Wilder, the well-known president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Honolulu, by Charlie Boots. Everett by St. Saviour and Naples, which showed marked improvement in their races at Honolulu and Hilo, have been shipped back to this city. They are in charge of Trainer Bob Burns.

Mr. Francis Gay of the Hawaiian Islands purchased last week from Mr. John Parrott, proprietor of the Baywood Stud, a very handsome mare by the German coach stallion Socrates, and will ship her to the Island Jockey Club, finding that the disturbances in North China will stop the supply of Chinese griffins for the spring races, have decided to import Australian ponies, which have been offered to the club at $250 each under the following conditions: "All ponies to be broken to saddle, four to six years old, minimum height, 13 hands 2 inches; maximum, 14 hands 2 inches; none but geldings to be sent."

A meeting of the directors of the Honolulu Driving Association will be held this evening at the Hawaiian Hotel at 7:30 o'clock. Business both urgent and important will be transacted.

"Sonny" Cunha, the well-known Yale athlete, who recently arrived in Honolulu, is eligible to start in the fat man's race on Labor Day. The minimum limit is 200 pounds and Mr. Cunha tips the beam at 250 pounds.

whom Mr. Campbell brought with him, and their hands were willing. Such work was played with the men, and the crowd bars swung merrily upon the rough board walls of the shacks and sent many a pang of dismay to the hearts of the evicted ones. All were allowed to take away their effects. The Chinese trait of enterprise was apparent as soon as the shacks were down, for they rushed in and carried away the planks as fast as detached.

It is possible a few of those evicted yesterday will carry on the construction of a squatter's camp in some other part of the city. If a vacant piece of ground on the outskirts produces a favorable impression upon them, sooner or later their shanties will appear like mushrooms.

The creation is being produced under his personal supervision and will be the swiftest thing of the season. It will be made of dotted white and blue linen with a baby yoke. The front and back of the waist will be shirred, while the yoke will be filled in with a gamp of real lace. The belt is to be made plain. The bottom of the waist will have the coat tail effect with large pearl or brass buttons at the back. It will be finished for wear Sunday evening.

Commissioners Also Agree on an Equalization for Property Owners.

A. V. Gear, W. G. Ashley and J. L.
Kaulukou, commissioners duly appointed and commissioned by the Superintendent of Public Works to assess the amount of damages in the extension of Mililani street from Queen to Halekauwila streets, have presented their report.

One of the most important questions to be brought up for consideration before the Commissioners by the attorneys for the various estates affected by the extension, was whether the Government property should not be equally assessed pro rata for the amount of betterments conferred upon the property by said extension. The question was also raised by the Trustees of the Bishop Estate whether or not they should be assessed by the Government for whatever land they had involved in the matter.

In the first instance it was finally decided that the Government should be exempt from assessments for betterments upon its property so affected, inasmuch as the Government had to stand one-half the general expense of putting the streets through.

With reference to the Bishop Estate
the Commissioners had an argument presented to them that there was an existing agreement between the Government and the Estate which exempted it from assessments. The Commissioners rendered an adverse decision in the premises. All property owners, the Bishop Estate included, who have property abutting on or adjacent to the proposed street extension, are to be assessed pro rata if the street is to be constructed. This relieves of much of the expense those property owners through whose land the street will run and who will have increased frontages where hitherto none existed, and those whose property lies near or in rear of such property.

The three property holders who receive damages for the value of property taken in the street extension, and the values fixed thereon are as follows:
J. D. Cooke, $4,500; S. K. Ka-ne, guardian of Robinson minors, $10,700; Wm.
and Hattie Kapela, $1,300, a total of $17,100. The total expense for opening the street is set at $21,275, of which one-half ($10,637.50) is to be borne by the estates assessed, and the other half by the Government.

Following is the report of the Commissioners:

In Re the Extension of Mililani From Queen to Halekauwila Streets.

The undersigned Commissioners duly appointed and commissioned by the Superintendent of Public Works of the Territory of Hawaii to assess the amount of damages to be sustained by such claimants as have failed to agree with the Government in the compromise of their claims, and to assess benefits or betterments in the above entitled matter pursuant to chapter 23 of the Laws of 1892, do hereby make this report as Decision "B"
of their award of assessment of benefits or betterments.

The following shows the total amount of cost or expense to be borne by estates assessed:

entitled case are as follows:

SORROW IN THE HOME;
BEEF TAKES A JUMP.

TOMORROW comes grief for the housewife.
Beef jumps up three cents a pound. The flat of the Metropolitan Meat Company has gone forth.
Beginning Saturday and until a kind providence shall ordain otherwise, steaks, roasts and all the flesh of the cow genus are to cost consumers three cents a pound more than they did today. The following brief but pointed circular was dispatched by the meat company to its customers yesterday:

We beg to inform you that in consequence of the advance in the price and of the high rate of duty imposed under the United States tariff upon beef imported from Australia, whence our chief supply for this market is at present drawn, we are unable to continue supplying our customers at the present prices, and that commencing September 1st an increase of three cents per pound over present rates will be charged for beef and veal.

METROPOLITAN MEAT CO., LTD., G. J. WALLER, Manager.
Manager Waller of the meat company holds out hopes that things will take a turn for the better in the near future.

"At present," he said yesterday, "we get our supply of beef from Australia and since the last shipment we have had to pay the duty of two cents a pound imposed by the United States Government. Expecting that we would get a shipment of beef from San Francisco by the Sonoma, one of the new Oceanic boats, we did not put up the price at once. We were informed that this shipment would leave September 5, and we had determined to stand the increased cost of the Australia product ourselves. We found, however, that the Sonoma would not sail until the 1st of November. We were compelled to cable to Australia for another shipment and were replied to that beef had advanced a cent a pound.
This, with the duty, made three cents above the former cost to us, and, reluctant as we were, we had to increase our price the same amount. We think that within a few weeks the price will go down to the normal. Some might ask, what about Island beef? By our contract with the Island graziers we must pay them the same as imported beef brings."

Politics are boiling at Waialua and Curtis Iaukea is working that end of the Island in the interest of the Republican party with laudable results. The following communication from the Colonel is evidence of his efforts as a stump speaker in his district:

"We had a rousing meeting of our precinct club, there being some fifty or sixty members present. The following permanent officers were appointed: C.
P. Iaukea, chairman and treasurer; A.
O. Mahaulu, vice-chairman; Benj. Naukana, secretary. The judges are P.
Mahaulu, Ioane Kalakawaha and Benj. Naukana. The enrollment committee consists of Andrew Cox, J. H.
Barenaba, J. Ahina, Alfred Kalli and
B. Naukana. Executive committee: C.
P. Iaukea, W. W. Goodale, P. Mahaulu, Ioane Kalakawaha, J. Kapu Kalamui,
Henry Wharton, A. S. Mahaulu, Andrew
Cox, W. S. Wond, J. A. Awai, B. Naukana, Oscar Cox, Alfred Kalli, Chas.
Kukea and J. H. Barenaba. Subscriptions to the club funds were taken up and the sum of $55 realized.

The following candidates as delegates to the district convention were nominated at last Sunday's meeting:
C. P. Iaukea, W. W. Goodale, A. S. Mahauhu, B. Naukana, Andrew Cox and Alfred Kalli.

"Upon the whole the meeting was most successful. The men who are at the head of the movement are the most prominent in the district. It argues well for the success of the Republican party so far as this precinct is concerned. I hope all of the other precincts will show as good results.
"Success to the Republican party must be our war cry."

Wilson, being an American, chatted with the Governor on various topics concerning the Islands, and upon leav-

Commercial Advertiser

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1900.

No primary is Republican unless its votes are cast by Republicans.

One's party is only worth supporting when it seeks to confer good government.

As Bryan says, the American flag was hauled down in Mexico but he forgot to add that this concession was not made while the Mexican flag was flying. The cactus standard had to come down first.

Republicans who do not care to be ruled, in a party sense, by the tax-eaters, should remember that the delegates elected tomorrow will name the men who are to select the new Republican Territorial Committee.

It has been boastfully said that every delegate chosen at the primaries by the machine will be pledged to the City and County government scheme. Taxpayers who are not eager to burden themselves with the support of a throng of hungry job-chasers should remember this at the polls.

If the machine men override the Republican majority in the next primaries as they did in the last ones by running in the Wilcox anti-Republican following, they may as well be given the chance to pay every dollar of the campaign expenses out of their own pockets. Conservative Republicans whose rights have been thrown down can hardly be expected to foot the bills.

Few if any city charters in the United States are successful. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred they have disappointed the expectation of economy and reform. The reason is that they are controlled either all the time or part of the time by men who are in politics for what they can make out of it. Such men and such men only are the inspiration of the City and County movement here.

John Wise says that President Cleveland would have restored the Queen but for a Republican Congress. As a matter of fact the death blow to the Queen's cause was given by Albert S. Willis, the Democratic Minister who reported to Cleveland that the deposed ruler would insist, in case of her return to power, upon beheading nine or ten annexationists. When Cleveland heard this he dropped the idea of restoration and turned over the settlement to the wider discretion of Congress. It has always been suspected that the President, viewing the storm his Hawaiian venture had raised, told Willis to find him a means of escape, whereupon that astute Democrat made up the decapitation story. Be this as it may the facts remain that a Democratic envoy killed the restoration scheme, that Cleveland sent no flowers to the funeral and that Morgan and other Democratic leaders had a war dance on the grave.

THE PRIMARIES.

Every Republican citizen who values good government will attend the primaries which are to be held at the usual places on Saturday between three and nine o'clock p. m.

The importance of taking part is very great. The men to be chosen will be members of the District Committees and these Committees will meet in District Convention to nominate Senators and Representatives. They will thus decide whether or not the Republican party shall be committed to a tax-raising scheme of City and County Government. Furthermore they will determine, through their delegates to the Territorial Convention, who shall be Republican nominee for Congress and who shall be the managing directors of the Republican campaign during the next four years.

With these responsibilities upon the primary voter, he will be a bad Republican and a worse citizen if he does not come out and cast his vote for good government.

THE OWNERS RESPONSIBLE.

The Advertiser does not think it is necessary to print the names of the directors of the company which owns the filthy yellow journal. Their names are well enough known now and their neighbors are asking why, as men of family and as citizens of repute, they should permit their paper to publish matter so disgusting that a self-respecting scavenger would scorn to take it out of an ash-barrel.

The extinct Volcano was in a high class beside this muck-searching paper—this Pride of the Sewer, the stench of which is forced into the nostrils of the town. No scandal is too long buried to save it from the ghoulish disinterment which the managers of the paper conceive to be "live, hustling journalism;" no discovery is too prurient and demoralizing to protect an innocent public from its details; no insinuation is too coarse to be spread on the breakfast table of the unfortunate reader. We doubt if the slums of New York support a worse paper and many a better one has felt the heavy hand of the law which protects a community from indecent literature.

The remedy for the evil done by the yellow journal is in the hands of the respectable directors and owners. If the stream of filth flows on it is because they let it flow; they are the ones who pay the paper's deficits and overdrafts; without their contributions the sewer organ would have to stop; they cannot escape the stigma which every decent man and woman visits upon their property. The pressing question with the moral community is what do they intend to do? And it is one that their private reputations, their business future and as we believe, their manly instincts, will prompt them to answer in the right way.

HARMONY IN THE PARTY.

Unity of action, and harmony among all of its members, is essential if the Republican party is to be successful at the coming elections in Hawaii. That harmony does not now exist is a patent fact. Such being the case, it behooves all who desire the advancement of Republican principles to have their hearts to heart conference and understanding with the party in power. Differences exist, and how they may be healed.

It is unnecessary to enumerate the causes which have led up to the present status. They are well known. The fact is, however, that among the conservative, thinking Republicans of Honolulu—men who want neither office nor patronage—men who do their own thinking and who will not be stampeded by a party slogan—there is serious distrust of the intentions and bonafides of a number of the gentlemen now managing the local party machinery. They fear that an attempt is being made to fasten upon this community a political "machine" which will "work" the public service and patronage for selfish personal ends. This fear may be right, it may be wrong. We are stating the fact that it exists, and that extensively. Remove it before election and the party will possess its full strength. Fail to remove it and defeat will be probable if not certain.

How can it be removed? One chief cause of distrust is the strong fight made at the Territorial convention in favor of the so-called "open primaries." That is to say, instead of requiring all Republican voters in a precinct to register before the date of election, giving an opportunity to ascertain whether they are bona fide voters; resident in the district, the registry is held open until the very last minute, so that a man can be run in, registered and voted without any opportunity to check up or verify his status.

This opens the door to colonizing voters from other districts, and to the registering and voting of men who are either not Republicans or who are not voters at all, thereby swamping out the real Republican vote of the district.

Whether any one in Honolulu intends to make use of such methods or not remains to be seen. It is certain that the "open primary" is one of the "machine" methods in the States, and also, that against the protest of a majority of the last Republican Territorial convention it was adopted here, a vote against it being reconsidered and reversed in the interest of "harmony" owing to the violent opposition of the minority.

If the primary proceedings next Friday and Saturday nights are fairly conducted, and there is no attempt to colonize or to drown out the genuine Republican vote of the several precincts, this fear will be allayed, and, if good nominations are made for members of the Legislature, harmony will prevail and the party will make a strong showing.

On the other hand if the low type of ward political methods common to some cities of the Union is followed, the primaries may be carried, but it will so intensify the distrust above referred to that many of the strongest local Republicans will, in the interest of the party and honest government, openly oppose the party nominees.

Harmony and success can be achieved by following fair open methods and it can be secured in no other way.

QUALIFIED VOTERS.

Editor Advertiser: Are those who were voters under the Republic of Hawaii entitled to vote at the primaries about to be held at the elections next November, or are American citizens only eligible to vote? If the latter is the case, by what right are Hawaiian voters disfranchised without their consent?

ENQUIRER.

Only American citizens are entitled to vote at either the primaries or the regular election.

The primary elections to be held next Saturday are to be participated in only by American citizens who support the principles of the Republican party.

American citizens in Hawaii who are entitled to vote are (1) men, 21 years of age, born in the United States, or naturalized under United States law, who have lived in Hawaii one year, (2) Men, 21 years of age, born in Hawaii or regularly naturalized, either under the Kingdom or the Provisional Government. (No citizens were naturalized by the Republic.)

A further requisite is that voters shall be able to read and write either the English or Hawaiian language.

Men who were allowed to vote under the Constitution of 1887, or who received "special rights" privileges under the Republic, did not thereby become naturalized Hawaiians, because they did not forswear allegiance to their own countries.

Congress had the power to prescribe who should be voters, and saw fit not to continue these privileges, but by the Territorial Act limited the franchise to actual citizens.

This law will exclude the great majority of the English, Germans and Portuguese who have heretofore voted at Hawaiian elections; but any of them who have lived here for five years prior to June 14 last, can become naturalized before Judge Estee in about three and a half minutes for three and a half dollars.

HAWAII AND THE UNION.

The anti-Imperialists, in the platform adopted at Indianapolis, demand the independence of Hawaii and to that extent come into line with the Wilcox party here that wants to restore the Queen. Anti-Imperialism and the recreation of a monarchy are not convertible terms; but doubtless the anti-Imperialists, who could keep America within its Mainland limits, would not mind a trifle of inconsistency.

The independence of Hawaii, however, would have to be preceded by an amendment to the organic law of the United States embodying the principle of disunion—and anyone who thinks such an amendment will ever be adopted is fatuous indeed. Disunion is a dead issue—it was bombarded to death on twenty-eight hundred battlefields. Nothing but treason, in superior force, could breathe into it the breath of life. As reconstructed after the Civil War the United States is an "indissoluble union of indestructible States;" and Hawaii, as an inchoate State, temporarily vested with the Territorial form, is an everlasting part of it. Nothing save force of arms can ever disturb the existing relation of the States and Territories to the Federal Union.

Of course these are truisms and it is astonishing that they have to be taught any class of American citizens as well-informed as are the anti-Imperialists. Those agitators ought to know that the peaceable separation of Hawaii from the Union is as impossible as the peaceable separation of Arizona or New Mexico from the Union. These Islands are in to stay. To take them out, were that possible, would break the chain which binds the American Union into a nation and a great power.

THE ANTI-HAOLE MOVEMENT.

When the Advertiser discovered that the Independent party intended to run an anti-haole campaign, the organ from which that party takes its name remarked complacently: "There is more truth than poetry in the Advertiser's latest find." But now because Mr. Kaula, Bob Wilcox's companion on the stump says the same thing, the Independent arraigns him in the following terms:

If Mr. Kaula is correctly reported by the Hilo papers as saying that his party will vote for Hawaiians only at the coming election and that "no haole need apply," he has simply added another nail to his political coffin and proven once more what a double-distilled ass he is. Mr. Kaula, in the first place, has no party. His independence consists in bleeding the Democratic as well as the Republican party for coin to be used "politically" (for booze). Wilcox and Kaula are not to be blamed for the insane utterances of Kaula, and we will endorse them most heartily when they advise the Aloha Aloha people to throw Mr. Kaula out of the Hawaiians' political window and relegate him to the political cesspool where he belongs. He has done harm enough to the Hawaiians, and the time has come for the men and women who love these Islands to call a halt and choke him off for good and forever.

All this in spite of the fact that the proprietor of the Independent has been advocating Kaula's present policy for years. Why this sudden change? Is it because Joseph O. Carter and one or two other haoles who are understood to have backed the paper want Independent nominations, or has our esteemed contemporary made up its mind that there are not enough competent natives to fill the offices?

SCOUNDRELLY DRIVER.

Japanese Runs Down a Woman and Laughs as She Falls.

Kinoshita, a Japanese hackdriver, was in Police Court yesterday on a charge of running down and driving over a native woman named Mele Hipa. It appeared from the testimony that the case was an aggravated one, for it was shown that not only did Kinoshita knock the woman down but deliberately drove his carriage over the woman and started away with a broad grin of amusement on his face.

On the witness stand the woman told the story of the occurrence, saying that she was crossing the Iwilei road when the defendant came speeding toward her. She was knocked down by the horse and rolled under the carriage. The wheel struck her body and stopped, and then the horse leaped forward and the carriage passed directly over her body. Fortunately the carriage was a light one and none of the woman's bones were broken, although she was badly bruised. R. Devaushelle, the officer who arrested Kinoshita, witnessed the incident and saw Kinoshita driving away smiling in glee at what he had done. The officer gave chase and soon arrested him.

Kinoshita told contradictory stories on the stand, saying at first that the woman had her back to him, and then that she was coming toward him. He was fined $25 and paid the money at once and departed.

LABOR DAY PLEASURES

Good Prizes for Athletic Events.

ALL PLANS ARE MATURING

Contributions of Citizens to Fund
Reach Nearly Eighteen Hundred Dollars.

The Labor Day sports committee has decided to distribute $300 in prizes for the following events:

Half mile bicycle race, open; one-fourth mile bicycle race, open; one-fourth mile bicycle race, for boys under 14 years; sack race; fat man's race (over 200 pounds); 100 yards, open; 50 yards, apprentices, all trades; 50 yards, boys under 12; 50 yards, boys under 15; 50 yards, girls under 12; 50 yards, girls under 15; standing broad jump; running broad jump; running high jump; putting 16-pound shot; old man's race (over 60 years). Three prizes will be given for each event.

The parade will start next Monday at 9 a. m. and will probably last until 11
a. m. The procession will disband at the Government building, where three orations will be delivered. The sports at Kaplanui Park will commence at 1 p. m.
and the day's celebration will conclude with a grand ball at the Drill-shed at 9 p. m.

W. C. Roe, who declined the honor of acting as grand marshal of the parade, will continue to act as chairman of the Labor Day general arrangements committee.
Contributions toward the celebration fund are still being received and should be given or forwarded to one of the members of the collection committee.

Floats will assemble at 8 o'clock next Monday morning at the Drillshed. Business firms or others who contemplate sending a float are requested to notify one of the committee of arrangements,
who will hereafter be on hand at Plumbers' Hall to give information or transact business relating to Monday's celebration.

A request has been made of the Labor Day people to furnish $25 for a prize to be given to the winner of next Saturday's yacht race to Lahaina; the request was not entertained.

George Ward will act as grand marshal of the parade. Messrs. George Campbell,
H. L. Wolfe, C. Howland and George R.
Stowe will officiate as aides.

The parade committee has expended up to date about $300. Charles R. Hevelin has obtained the park refreshments contract and Frank Godfrey will print the official program.

The literary exercises will be under the superintendence of Messrs. H. L. Wolfe, J. Dillon and Mr. Slattery. Fred. Howland will be floor manager of the ball, assisted by L. Jamieson.

Following will be found a list of con-

The above names do not complete the list of contributors, as several places of business have been overlooked by the collectors, who will call on them tomorrow. Several of the trades unions have also been heard from.

It has been decided to make the age limit in the old man's race fifty instead of sixty years.

Drivers are Pleased.

The value of the improvement to street space by cutting and rounding off the corner of the Capitol wall at the corner of King and Richards street, is apparent to drivers of all classes of vehicles. The short turn is obviated by the sweeping curve and there is less likelihood of accidents than formerly.
Most of the use of Richards street at its junction with King is vehicle traffic to and from the Judiciary building. The curved space meets all requirements and is generally looked upon by drivers
as a big improvement.

PRIMARIES.

Pursuant to a resolution passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Territorial Central Committee of the Republican Party in the Territory
of Hawaii, a call is now issued for Primary Election to be held in the various precincts on Saturday, September 1, 1900, for the purpose of electing delegates to a District Convention, the polls will be open from 3 p. m. to 9 p. m.

These are the Rules and Regulations
of the Republican Party in the Territory of Hawaii, governing Precinct Clubs:

ARTICLE I. PRECINCT CLUBS.

Section 1. The unit of organization shall be the precinct clubs.
Section 2. There shall be a precinct organization in every election precinct.
Section 3. Every person legally enrolled in the various precinct clubs, shall be a member of the precinct club
when permanently organized.
Section 4. The officers of each Precinct Club shall be a President, Secretary, three Judges of Election, and such other officers as the by-laws of said precinct may provide. No initiation fees or dues shall be charged the members of any precinct club. All officers shall serve for one year, or until their successors are elected. Any duly enrolled member of the club may be eligible to hold office.

Section 5. The duties of these officers shall be those usual to said officers and such as may be provided for in the by-laws of each Precinct Club. The three Judges of Election shall be sole judges at all primaries.

Section 6. No less than one-fifth of the members enrolled shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 7. The President and Secretary of each precinct club shall act as a revising board of the roll of the Precinct Club, and from time to time shall meet and revise said roll so that it shall consist of only such members as still reside in said precinct, but no member on the old roll shall be omitted
if he still resides in said precinct.

Section 8. Each precinct shall at the primaries elect, besides the officers aforesaid, delegates to the District Committee.

Section 9. Each precinct shall be entitled to elect one delegate to said district committee for each 25 votes cast in said precinct for the Republican ticket at the preceding election. Whenever after dividing said Republican vote by 25 there is a remainder of 15 or more than the precinct is entitled to an additional delegate, but each precinct

TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

The Territorial Convention for the adoption of a platform, the nomination of a delegate to Congress, and the election of a Territorial Central Committee will be held on Thursday and Friday, September 20 and 21, 1900.

After said convention and on or before the first day of October, 1900, the District Committees shall meet for the purpose of nominating Senators and Representatives from their respective districts. Yours very respectfully,

GEORGE W. SMITH,

Chairman Republican Territorial Central Committee.

E. R. HENDRY,
Secretary Republican Territorial
Central Committee.

shall be entitled to at least one delegate to said district committee, although the Republican vote as aforesaid in said precinct shall be below 25.
Section 10. Any person who is a duly enrolled member of a precinct club shall be eligible as a delegate to the district committee.

The above Rules and Regulations of
the Republican Party in the Territory
of Hawaii are also published in accordance with a Resolution passed at the same meeting referred to above.

The committee urge upon all the officers and members of all Precinct Clubs
the importance of prompt and Harmonious action in relation to the above call.

District Committee

Pursuant to a Resolution passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee of
the Territorial Central Committee of
the Republican Party in the Territory
of Hawaii a call is issued to the Delegates who shall be elected at the Primary to meet on September 6 or 7 for the purpose of electing delegates to a Territorial Convention.

These are the Rules and Regulations
of the Republican Party in the Territory of Hawaii, governing District Committees:

ARTICLE II. DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

Section 1. Each district committee shall consist of delegates from the precinct clubs in said district.

Section 2. Each district committee shall meet when notified to do so by the Territorial Committee, and shall elect the following officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers and standing committees as it may be entitled to.

Section 3. Any duly enrolled Republican shall be eligible as a delegate to the Territorial Committee from the district in which he resides.

Section 4. Each district committee shall be charged with the general care and supervision of the affairs of the party within its districts, subject to these rules and regulations. It shall take such measures as it deems necessary and expedient to secure the organization and maintenance or precinct clubs in every precinct, and secure the co-operation of all Republican voters with the party organization, and shall, under the control of the Territorial Committee, have charge of all campaigns in the district. It shall decide all disputes from the precinct organizations and contests within the district as to primary elections.

Section 5. District committees hold regular or special meetings and be provided in their by-laws, an at-least one-third of the members shall constitute a quorum.

The above Rules and Regulations of
the Republican Party in the Territory
of Hawaii, are also published in accordance with a resolution passed at the same meeting referred to above.
The committee urge upon all the officers and members of the District Committee the importance of prompt and harmonious action in relation to the above call.

GEORGE W. SMITH,

E. R. HENDRY,

Secretary.

Great Progress OF THE Fisher's Pianos

From a small beginning the Fisher Piano has grown to be not only one of the best known pianos made, but its sale has reached a point where it is nearly double that of any other piano. All this has been accomplished, practically speaking, within the past ten years. Not only this, but it has received the highest testimonials from many of the greatest vocalists and pianists that the world has ever produced. It is in daily use in leading schools and colleges everywhere, and has received highest rewards wherever publicly exhibited.—Chicago Indicator.

We sell the Fisher Pianos, also Decker Bros. and Weber Pianos, Story & Clark and Chicago Cottage Organs, and several other fine makes.

KONOHIKI TO BLAME

The Cause of the Fish
Famine.

ALLAN HERBERT'S IDEAS

Well-Known Authority Decries the Present System of Leasing Inland Sea.

With fish so expensive in Honolulu that poor people can afford to eat them but seldom, the problem of increasing the permanent supply and thereby decreasing the cost, is a serious one. Secretary of the Territory Cooper is at present hard at work on the organization of a society composed of Hawaiian citizens, the aim of which is to be the protection of the fish of the islands and the introduction of new species—all with Government aid.

No man knows better the deficiencies in the fish supply and the causes thereof than does Allan Herbert. In the early seventies he had an extensive fish hatchery at Waipahu, Ewa, and such old residents as Frank Brown and William Hunt will readily recall the experiments of those times.

Sitting under the trees upon his Kaili estate, Allan Herbert mused yesterday over the great things expected in the future of the fish of the island through Government protection and aid.

"I brought spawn of trout from Lake Tahoe," said he, "and catfish from Petaluma. Altogether I brought about 3,000 small fry and sixty yearlings. The catfish and carp did well. You can find them now in most of the creeks. Of course the carp are not as fine as in colder climates. I employed the late Alfred Bush for years in the propagation of the fish, he being also the book-keeper at the Hawaiian Hotel. After the Reciprocity treaty the water became so valuable that I had to take away the Waipahu hatcheries, and I started a carp hatchery in upper Kaili.

"On a three-acre taro patch I made a pond, and with strong promises of Government aid began again the industry. Unfortunately, the political life of the King's Ministers was short. When I got one well broken to the needs of fish protection he was dismissed and I had to start all over again with another one. It was hard work, with small promise of realization. In my absence from the islands for some months a freshet broke the dam at Kaili, and all my nice little fish went into the creek and the sea.

"Judge Wilcox told me some days ago that now and then a native brings him a fine carp from the Kaili stream, undoubtedly the son or daughter of my former charges. I always took an enthusiastic delight both in forestry and fishing, but indeed I have met with so little encouragement in the latter that I have become quite blue about success. "I suppose I spent $5,000 in money, besides time. But now to the point. What we want to do is to guard what we have and nature will do the rest. I believe fully that it is an excellent idea to bring in other species of fish from the Mainland and to propagate in hatcheries, but we must not forget that the main hope of the future is looking out for our present possessions. It is the konohiki that we must watch—the landlord—the man who claims the ownership of the inland seas. We find Chinese or Japanese fishing in the Kaili basin with seines probably 500 feet long and of a fineness that nothing can escape. We remonstrate with these villains and they say, 'see the konohiki.' These Chinese and Japanese say that they pay the konohiki thirty per cent of all their catch, and that the sellers of these fish in the market pay besides, ten per cent of all sales. These figures we have not as facts, but from the fishermen. These fishermen say that only they have a right to dip into the basin, and they refuse others the permission to take any fish from the basin. Take away these fishermen for one year—protect by law this basin for twelve months—and you will have millions of fish. There will be no scarcity. In 1872 when Kamehameha V gave a fishing party for Admiral Hillyard of an English flag ship, they fished in the Kaili basin, and there were millions of fish there. Today there are few. Make an enactment of the Legislature tabling this basin for one year, and you have the remedy. There is an abundance of fish food along the shore. The basin would fairly teem with fish if given a year's rest from the depredations of the Chinese and Japanese, who claim permission for their robberies from the konohiki."

The Advertiser reporter accompanied Mr. Herbert to Puhia, where the leper receiving camp is, and there saw numerous Chinese and Japanese engaged in fishing. With a big seine they dragged everything into shore, and when playing their labors near where the sewers discharge, the fineness of their net was attested to by the capture of lemon peels, banana skins, empty spoons and soldiers' buttons, all of which came in with the fish. Not content with a fine mesh of eighty fathoms or so, they needs must further insure the escape of no living thing by even a finer bag into which the fish are poured when the seine is brought ashore. It is the same all over this island.

The Advertiser reporter asked the fishermen for himself from whom they had the fish, and they said the "konohiki." It is understood that three or more prominent estates are the konohikis, and that they claim their rights to let the inland sea to fishermen from some old grants of the kings. "I have a little fish pond 50 x 100 feet at Kaili," said Mr. Herbert. "Last February I let the sea in and had a number of schools and primary classes of spats. Today these are from twelve to eighteen inches long, and make magnificent eating. Of course, I treat these fish well. I feed them with scraps from the kitchen, cornmeal and oatmeal, etc. Even here I suffer from the thieves. Japanese. They rob my ponds at night. They come along with a piece of mosquito net and with a couple of sticks, scoop up all the fish. They seem to think the fish are free like niggers with chickens. If we had a law enacted making it a criminal offense to rob fish ponds we could possibly stop this. Of course, I could shoot the thieves, but I am not of that disposition. One of the worst enemies to the fish is the idle Japanese, many of whom sleep all day in the almost free habitations provided at the Kaili detention camp by the Government, and who roam about at night, stealing whatever they can. I have caught them in my place at 2 o'clock in the morning. It is no charity on the Government's part to maintain this camp, and a very bad scheme. We certainly should have a public meeting to arouse sentiment in this matter. We should especially look for the users of giant powder—I can hear the reports of these dynamite fishermen nightly in my home—and we should take care of the Japanese and Chinese seine fishermen and the konohiki. Let us find out if the konohiki does receive thirty and ten per cent of this robbery of the people's waters. It is a matter we are all interested in and we must take strong measures to accomplish anything."

Today the bark Holliswood sails for San Francisco in ballast. From San Francisco she will probably go to Newcastle. The Holliswood only takes 120 tons of rock ballast on her voyage to the Coast. She can sail with as little ballast as almost any vessel afloat, in fact she can sail without any ballast at all if she sees fit, being constructed in such a way that she needs little or no stiffening. Captain E. M. Knight, his wife and his daughter, Mrs. Robinson, are sorry to sail away so soon. The J. B. Brown with young Captain and Mrs. Knight aboard does not sail for a week or ten days yet. The family will in all probability be reunited in Newcastle before very long, however, as the ship J. B. Brown sails from here in ballast for the Sound, thence to Newcastle again.

Miss McIntosh, the sister of young Captain Knight's wife, returns to Australia on the Aorangi on Saturday. She came up from Newcastle on the J. B. Brown with her sister and brother-in-law. It was her first voyage at sea and she enjoyed it exceedingly, experiencing no ill effects from the trip.

Captain Knight of the Holliswood expects to go out today without a pilot. He may take the Fearless to tow him out but believes that he can get along without a pilot.

The steamship American will leave New York for San Francisco and Portland en route to Honolulu about October 10th. The chartered steamship Hyades leaves New York for San Francisco on September 1st.

It has been found that the stern of the bark Albert is rotten at a point above the water line and it is likely to take some little time to make the necessary repairs. The Albert came off the marine railway on Wednesday and is at present loading sugar from the steamer Kilauea Hou.

Yesterday the American bark C. D. Bryant, Captain Colley, arrived in port from San Francisco and docked at the Pacific Mail wharf. She brings 1,600 tons of general merchandise consigned to H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd. The Bryant left San Francisco on the 13th instant and met nothing but fine weather all the way down. On deck she brought 50 head of horses and mules for Gus Schuman, a carriage for B. F. Dillingham and four new sprinkling carts for use in Honolulu.

Captain Colley brings with him this trip a splendid, big St. Bernard dog. Early this morning the Mauna Loa from Maui and Hawaii, and several steamers from Kauai will arrive.

Steamer Kauai from Kauai yesterday morning reports that the Fanny Adele was to have left Eleale for Honolulu yesterday.

The Nihaui is on the marine railway undergoing a thorough overhauling. The General Fairchild sailed yesterday afternoon for the Sound in ballast.

THE COAL TRADE.

NEWCASTLE, August 10.—Six further additions were made today to the immense fleet of deep-sea vessels now in port awaiting coal cargoes for foreign markets. The steamer Omba arrived from Sydney to load coal from various collieries for Singapore; the bark Lodore arrived from Sydney to load Wallsend coal for Cebu; the ship Kynance arrived from Sydney to load Wallsend coal for the West Coast; the ship Verajan arrived from Sydney to load Wallsend coal for the West Coast; the bark Golden Gate arrived from Brisbane to load Wallsend coal for Carrizal; and the steamer Romulus arrived from Adelaide to load Co-operative Company's coal for Java.

The four-masted bark Osborne cleared at the Customs house this afternoon for San Francisco with 4,717 tons of Wallsend coal; the steamer Umbala cleared for Calcutta with 3,500 tons of coal; and the four-masted bark Crocodile cleared for San Francisco with 3,800 tons of Co-operative Company's coal.

In the intercolonial trade, the bark Alfred Howley sailed today for Devonport with 575 tons of coal; the steamer Koonya sailed for Devonport, via Kermela, with 600 tons; and the steamer Rotokino left for Lyttelton with 2,050 tons.

The steamer St. Mary cleared at the Customs for Melbourne with 4,250 tons. With today's arrivals the number of deep-sea vessels now in port waiting to load coal cargoes for foreign markets has reached 100. This establishes a new record in the shipping history of the port. It is true that during the prolonged strike there were 107 vessels laid up in Port Hunter, but this number has never been approached in times of peace. The whole of the collieries of the district are working at high pressure, and vessels are being despatched as quickly as possible. Still week by week the arrivals continue to outnumber the departure of coal-laden vessels, and although every effort is being made to cope with the gigantic trade, the unprecedented demand for the mineral is likely to exceed the ability to supply for some time to come. The aggregate capacity of the 100 vessels now in port is roughly 250,000 tons.

TO RAISE A WRECK.

The novel experiment of raising a sunken vessel by means of air bags placed in the hold of the submerged craft is to be tested on the sunken schooner W. W. Ker, which went down eighteen miles off Atlantic City, several weeks ago, the result of a collision with one of the Old Dominion Line steamers. Despite the fact that the vessel lies fifty feet below the surface of the water, the wreckers believe she can be floated.

The steamer Iris, with a wrecking outfit and divers, arrived at the Delaware Breakwater yesterday for coal and stores, and will proceed to the scene at once. Bags are to be placed in the vessel's hold, after which air will be forced down through a tube to the bags, which it is believed will cause the vessel to gradually rise. Whether the submerged craft will come to the surface right side up or otherwise remains to be determined.—Philadelphia Record.

Government Warrants.

The money brokers who have been in the habit of casting Government warrants in advance of their payment, will lose the margins they have been making out of them. The practice of receiving assignments in advance of receipts of the warrants has been frowned upon by the Territorial Auditor. He will from now on recognize the assignments only when attached to the payroll and properly stamped. The Auditor states that the section covering assignments which involves protection to creditors, was intended to apply to those living at some distance, but was not intended to apply to money lenders who take in the warrants at a reduction from their face value.

With the Change in Tariff

Comes a sweeping reduction in the price of all goods of American manufacture.

We have cut on every piece of jewelry and silverware in the house, and you will be surprised at the great difference from former prices. No fear of comparisons here, where quality and pattern are considerations.

What do you think of full-sized solid silver teaspoons being reduced to $8.00 a dozen, with engraving thrown in, and all articles of silverware reduced in like proportion.

These are by no means catch prices, but regular prices which will prevail here from now on, on all the different lines of goods from the States.

While reducing all our American goods we have not changed the prices on any of our European potteries, glass and chinaware, and although the present cost is forty per cent more than formerly, while out present very large stock lasts we will sell at the old rates. This is a very large saving to you, and we recommend that you make your purchases from these lines now, before an advance becomes necessary.

BY AUTHORITY. WITNESSES TELL OF THE YARDMASTER'S MURDER

Samuel Barney On Trial For His Life.

JURY VIEW THE SCENE OF CRIME

Prosecution Presents Strong Testimony Against the Accused Man.

Judging from the first day's trial of the murder case against Samuel Barney, the case against him looks black and unless there are further developments more favorable to him it would appear that he will scarcely escape a verdict of guilty.

The most important development of the day was the appearance of a witness who was with John W. Lorbeer, the victim of the shooting on the rear of the car. He gave his name as W. A. Kapple and stated that he saw the shooting and heard what was said by the two men. He accused Barney of striking at Lorbeer, after the latter had pushed him from the car which he had attempted to mount and heard him say that now he would "fix him," using an opprobrious epithet to him. Then, said Kapple, Barney drew a revolver and fired. On the other hand a witness named Hoopli stated that Lorbeer first struck Barney, and that Lorbeer was following Barney and the latter was retreating when the shots were fired.

These two witnesses were the most important ones of the day, there being but one other placed upon the stand, Eugene Cabral, the young Portuguese engineer over whom the quarrel arose. His testimony related to a quarrel with Barney in the cab of a locomotive shortly before the shooting, and that Barney had afterwards struck him and that he had called upon Lorbeer for protection from him.

Most of the morning was taken up in sequestering the jury and it was not until half after eleven o'clock that twelve men were found who were competent to try the case. As finally sworn the jury was as follows: John Waterhouse, E. Oscar White, E. P. Sullivan, F. H. Armstrong, W. M. Templeton, H. W. Green, C. M. Lawelaw, M. K. Keohokale, G. W. Haydelson, Saml. W. Spencer, A. Fernandez and W. L. Grieve.

The total number of men excused was thirty-one, the defense proffering eleven, the prosecution, one being excused by consent and eighteen for cause.

From present appearances the trial will last the rest of this week and a good portion of next week, although it is possible that after the case is better started progress may be more rapid.

Throughout the trial the defendant sat close to his attorneys, eying the witnesses closely, but keeping his attention for the most part fixed upon the faces of the twelve men to whom his liberty and perhaps his life are entrusted. He is a little, red faced man, nearly bald, with a heavy mustache, and that blue appearance about the chin which indicates a heavy beard were it allowed to grow. His high cheek bones give him almost a cadaverous appearance, relieved only by the florid color that overpowers his forehead and cheeks and extends even to his neck.

The case seems to have attracted little public attention as yet for during the day there were scarcely a dozen people in attendance who did not have a direct interest in the crime or some of the participants.

INDICTMENT READ.

Deputy Attorney General Cathcart read the indictment and gave the statement of the case to the jury. He said that the prosecution would attempt to prove that on Sunday morning, August 12th, the defendant, Barney, had climbed into the cab of a locomotive at the Honolulu yards and had quarreled with the fireman; that subsequently he had struck the fireman. The latter fled the cab and ran down the tracks, where he saw John W. Lorbeer and cried out that Barney had struck him. Barney later walked down the tracks, Mr. Cathcart said, and there he met Lorbeer; they had some words and Lorbeer struck Barney; then Barney drew a revolver and shot Lorbeer twice. Mr. Cathcart stated that he expected to show that Barney had said prior to the time of the murder that would "fix John Lorbeer," and that he made this statement to more than one person.

Mr. Cathcart stated that it would facilitate the trial of the case and give the jury a better understanding of the evidence if they were taken to view the place where the occurrence took place, and as this was agreed to by Mr. Andrews, it was decided to take the jury to the spot immediately after the noon recess.

JURY SEPARATES.

Somewhat contrary to precedents in murder cases the jury was allowed to separate for the noon recess and will not be confined together during the progress of the trial. Counsel for both sides agreed readily to this, and Barney himself, on being asked by Judge Sullivan, said that he had no objections to permitting the jury to separate.

After the noon recess the judge, jury, Attorney General Dole, Deputy Attorney General Cathcart, Mr. Andrews and Mr. Thompson, Colonel Jones the stenographer, and the court officials, went to the railroad yards in hacks. Gaping crowds followed the party down to the tracks to the roundhouse, and here Mr. Cathcart indicated certain spots to the jury. Judge Sullivan was careful to enjoin upon the jury entire silence, and he directed Mr. Cathcart not to state anything which would connect the case with the crime simply to call the attention of the jury to certain localities without comment.

AT MURDER SCENE.

Mum as twelve o'clock the juryman prowled around the yards, looking into the roundhouse, teetering on the turntable, and getting their hands and their white clothes soiled with brushing against the soot-covered buildings. The defendant Barney was brought along with a silent officer at either hand, and he talked in whispers with Mr. Andrews and Mr. Thompson, his counsel, pointing out the various localities connected with the crime. Colonel Jones, notebook in hand, followed Mr. Cathcart, and took down every word he said, lest any trouble should arise should the case be appealed. Oil smeared laborers and workmen gathered in the windows of the shops and gazed at the jury, passing facetious remarks on their appearance, and whispering to one another as they pointed out Barney, their former comrade, with his two keepers, watchful lest any approach him save those in authority. Then the whole party walked back to the Judiciary building in hacks, and the case began in earnest.

THE FIRST WITNESS.

The first witness to be called was Gabriel Cabral. He stated that he was an engineer, but on the morning of the murder he was acting as a fireman on a switch engine in the yards. "Did you know the defendant?" asked Mr. Cathcart. "Only slightly." "Did you ever work with him?" "Never on the same train." "Did you see him on the morning of August 12?" "Yes." "Where?" "He came on the engine where I was working."

"What occurred then?" "He asked why I did not back down from the roundhouse. He referred to an incident a few days before, when I had backed down at a pretty good rate of speed." "We object to this line of examination," said Mr. Andrews, "as it is not part of the res gestae." "He came to me on the engine," went on Cabral, and he referred him to the engineer, and he said that he had talked to the engineer, and now he wanted to talk to me. I said that if he had seen the engineer he had no need to see me. I asked him to get off the engine. He said then, 'I'll fix you,' and he got off the engine. After a minute I got off the engine, and then he came up to me and said, 'you've got a — of a rail,' and he struck me on the side of the face. I started in to run forward and I saw John Lorbeer on the platform. I called out to Johnnie, 'Did you see that man strike me for nothing?' The train backed down and that brought Lorbeer between Barney and me. Very shortly after I heard the two shots.

REASON FOR QUARREL.

The reason for the quarrel in the cab was attempted to be brought out by Mr. Cathcart, but to this Mr. Andrews strenuously objected. There was a lengthy wrangle on the subject, but the result was the elimination of all testimony on that score.

"After hearing these shots what did you do?" went on Mr. Cathcart. "Thinking that they were directed at me," replied the courageous Mr. Cabral, "I ran and got on top of the engine, so's to get out of their way." "Then Mr. Andrews took a hand." "You didn't call Mr. Barney any names when he was on the engine?" he asked. "Didn't he turn to you when you asked him to get off the engine and say, 'If you talk like that I'll break your head?'"

"I believe he said something like that."

"You had had no previous trouble with him?" "Well, I started to tell you about that, but you wouldn't let me."

"Had you had any trouble with him prior to this day?" Mr. Andrews asked him directly.

"None."

"None whatever?"

"None."

BRACKENMAN KAPPEL.

William A. Kapple said he was a brakeman employed by the Oahu Railroad Company. He was with Lorbeer on the rear of a car in the yards on the fatal Sunday morning.

"Where was the car when you saw Barney first?" asked Mr. Cathcart.

"It was moving down the tracks near the turntable, when I saw him, and a young fellow came running across the tracks. He shouted to us, 'What did that fellow hit me for?'"

"What followed?"

"The yardmaster, Lorbeer, asked what he had hit the boy for, Barney said, 'None of your — business.' He came right over to the step, Lorbeer kind of pushed him; it wasn't what you'd call a punch, for Barney had started to climb up on the car. He didn't push him in the face. Barney stepped off and there were some blows exchanged. I stepped off to stop the train, because there was danger of their being pinched between the cars. Then I stepped back and saw Lorbeer about five feet away from Barney. He had his back toward Barney."

WHAT BARNEY SAID.

"Then what did you see?" "I seen Barney pull a revolver. He threw it up at Lorbeer and fired." "What did you do then?" "I thought it was pointed at me and made up my mind that I had business on the other side of the car."

"Did you hear anything said?" "Barney said just as he pulled the gun, 'You — of a — I'll fix you, now.' Lorbeer half turned around at that, and he got the shot right in his stomach. I saw him grab himself and he said 'I'm shot.' I didn't see anything more because I thought the gun was pointed at me, and I run."

Under cross-examination Kapple said that his home was at Eureka, Cal., and that he came to the Islands about six months ago, spending five months near Hilo, and then coming to Honolulu.

Mr. Andrews went carefully through the details of Barney's attempt to get on the platform, and Lorbeer's pushing away.

"What happened when Lorbeer jumped off the car?" he asked. "They was blows exchanged." "Now, who struck the first blow?" Mr. Andrews asked, shaking his pencil impressively at Kapple. "The defendant."

"You're sure of that?"

"Yes."

"Did Lorbeer strike Barney?"

"I didn't see him strike, but he had his hands up."

"Then by an exchange of blows, you mean the one blow Barney struck, and that is all?"

"Well, there may have been others, but I did not see them."

HAD NOT TALKED.

Going on to the shooting, Kapple went carefully into a description of the relative positions of Barney, Lorbeer and himself at the time of the shooting.

"Have you talked over this case with anyone since the shooting?" asked Mr. Andrews, taking a new tack.

"Not that I remember."

"You didn't say to men in the yard that Barney ought to be hanged, and that you knew something that you were going to tell on the stand that would hang him?"

"I have not. I may have said I knew some damaging evidence, but that's about all."

"Best of all, a car washer at the railway yards, was at the yards the morning of the shooting."

"What did you see first in connection with this affair?"

"I saw Barney jumping on a Portuguese boy."

"What then?"

"The Portuguese boy went and told John Lorbeer, who was on a car backing down the track. Lorbeer jumped off and struck Barney."

"Hereat Mr. Andrews squirmed slightly in his chair with glee, for it was a favorable point for the defense."

"What happened then?"

"I saw Barney shoot Lorbeer, and then I went to the roundhouse for assistance. When I came out I saw Barney on the ground, and Lorbeer on top of him."

Hoopli clambered down from the stand, and on his hands and knees on the courtroom floor, illustrated the position of the two men.

"Did you hear anything said by either of them before the shooting?"

"I heard their voices, but I could not understand what was said."

He told of summoning Yates, and that the two of them disarmed Barney.

"Did Lorbeer jump off the car before he struck Barney?" asked Mr. Andrews in cross-examination.

"Yes," the witness replied. This was a direct contradiction of the testimony of Kapple. "He jumped off the car and then struck Barney. Then Barney shot him."

"When the shot was fired was Barney backing and Lorbeer following him?"

"Barney was retreating and Lorbeer following him." This again was contrary to Kapple's testimony.

"Was there any time while you were watching them that Barney assaulted Lorbeer?"

"I did not see any."

"Was there anyone on the rear end of the car with Lorbeer when the train was backing down?"

"There was another white man; I don't know his name."

"Did this man step off the car before or after the shooting?"

"I did not see him jump off."

"Did he remain on the platform?"

"I don't know. I did not see."

On redirect examination Mr. Cathcart endeavored to straighten out the witness as to the relative positions of Lorbeer and Barney when the first shot was fired, but he was excused, the case then went over until 10 o'clock this morning.

8. S. 32° 22' E. true 84.5 feet along Hotel street to initial point.

Area 5,850 square feet.

Second—The sum of $1,261.69.

The Hospital is entitled to the possession of the above property both real and personal on the death of M. S. Pereira of Honolulu.

The following are extracts from the will of deceased, which will was admitted to probate in the Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands on the 25th day of May, 1892:

"Fifteenth—I give and bequeath all the rest and residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, to my beloved friend Manoel Silveira Pereira to receive and enjoy the use and income of the same during his life time and at his death to go to the 'Hospital de la Misericordia' in Angra, Island of Terceira, Azores."

"Lastly—I hereby nominate and appoint Manoel Silveira Pereira of said Honolulu the executor of this, my last Will and Testament, without bonds, and with full power to sell or otherwise dispose of any part of or the whole of my estate as may to him seem best and hereby revoke all former wills by me made."

Part of the land is leased to Wong Chong Lung for a term of 18 years, from the 1st day of March, 1887, at the monthly rate of $40. The remainder is subject to a lease to Y. Anin for the term of 25 years, from the 21st day of June, 1886, at the rent of $50 a month.

Copies of the leases and of the agreements made by the deceased and the lessees and of the Will and a plan of the land can be examined at my office. Deeds at the expense of the purchaser, who shall also bear the costs of all stamp duties.

Upset price, Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00).

FOR UPLIFTING Japanese Young Men's Club.

Initiatory Meeting Held Last Night
With Speeches and Refreshments.

The Japanese Young men's Club held its initiatory meeting last evening in the hall of the Chinese Bow Wong Society, at the corner of Kukui street and College Walk. The interest in the launching of this organization was manifest in the large number of members and friends who were present. Mr. Y. Soga, editor of the Hawaii Shimpu, presided over the meeting and was assisted by the rest of the club committee, Messrs. Imanichi and Yamaguchi. In the hall were gathered probably 100 Japanese, mostly of the younger element, although a fair sprinkling of older persons, who are the guiding spirits of the organization, were present to assist in establishing the club under proper auspices. His Imperial Japanese Majesty's Consul, Mr. Miki Saito, is enrolled as a member of the club.

The hall was appropriately decorated in the Japanese national colors, red and white, with long strips of red and white hunting arranged along the walls and behind the speakers' platform. The decorations of the Bow Wong Association were entirely covered, giving the room the aspect of a Japanese club room alone.

Mr. Y. Soga opened the meeting and gave an address outlining the objects and results expected of the organization. He explained that it was for educational development and for the welfare of the Japanese in Hawaii, and that it was to entertain nothing which smacked of politics or secret society work. He explained that it was entirely for the uplifting of the young Japanese men and to give them influences which would act for the best results. The speaker was followed by Mr. Imanichi, manager of the Imanichi Specie Bank, and Mr. Yamaguchi, director of the Kinamoto Immigration Company, both of whom spoke in a similar vein, and urged upon the young men present and those with whom they came in contact to enter the club and assist in their mutual development.

Mr. A. K. Ozawa, interpreter of the immigration company, delivered a fine address in English, voicing the sentiments of the previous speakers, who delivered their addresses in Japanese.

"Fifteen years ago, perhaps, such an organization was not necessary," said he. "Today when we look over the field and see 60,000 Japanese people living among us, I think it has become time to organize. Let us look over the Eastern question, from which we may learn a lesson. Tonight we know in China there are armies of all nations and among them is one of ours. They are marching shoulder to shoulder. For what purpose? For the sake of civilization. It is not for hate of China but for the civilization of China. We are thousands of miles from our native land, and we should organize associations for our mutual uplifting. We hope this will be understood by the younger Japanese of the community. We want to elevate not entirely from a spiritual standpoint, but from the real and practical. The younger people must learn to be independent and not always lean upon the older ones. For this we must educate ourselves."

Three cheers were then given for Japan, for the allied armies in China, and for the Ministers who had been saved. Refreshments were served in a novel manner and the meeting was brought to a close.

SAID HE WAS A LOBSTER.

Plam Drunk Who Called Himself
Names to the Police.

There was lobster on the menu at the Police Court yesterday morning. Some repentant drunk who had been hauled in the night before had been able to say nothing, when asked his name for booking purposes, that he was a "lobster" for getting into such a condition. So far as he knew at the time he had no name, and all he could be got to say was "Lobster," and he was booked accordingly.

As a result in Police Court the spectators and Court were horrified to hear Officer Hanahan shout in stentorian tones for "Lobster! Lobster!" and as they waited for the roof or the Judge's wrath to fall upon his unlucky head for his temerity, they heard the Judge calmly say: "Bait forfeited," and they realized the whimsicality of it.

Such names are often given by drunks when arrested, for they usually have wit enough remaining when hauled into the station house to conceal their identity, and they often give some nonsensical string of syllables instead of their names. As a rule they are duly booked under whatever cognomen they give, hence the peculiar names that are sometimes shouted in the court to the merriment of the spectators.

CHICKEN AND PORK.

Chock Pau Loves a Fancy Diet and Goes to Jail.

"Meum and trum" have little meaning for Chock Pau. Nine times he has been up before the Police magistrates of Honolulu for the crime of larceny. Yesterday was the ninth appearance. His offence this time being the theft of two bags of rice, and he was sent up for the sentence limit, two years.

Chock's particular penchant is chicken lifting, although he has a predilection for pork on occasions and has gotten away with many a fat piglet belonging to some one else. Since 1886 his depredations have been going on. Half of these fourteen years he has spent in Oahu prison but on every occasion as soon as he was freed he went at it again only to land in the tolls once more speedily. In February last he was released from the Oahu jail after serving a two year's sentence and after six months at liberty he goes back again to be a charge upon the Territory for another two years.

At the Orpheum.

The new bill at the Orpheum last night caused a lot of applause by a well filled house. The opening piece, "Blackville Vaudeville Company," was full of witty work and comical songs. The "4-11-41" combination, well known to the colored population in the States, was done as it only could be, by Wise, Milton and Mills. Fred Gardner, the new comedian, late of Australia, showed himself to be a very clever one in his line.

ALSEN
PORTLAND
CEMENT

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of this celebrated cement, which is the STRONGEST AND MOST SERVICEABLE CEMENT known, and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand, gravel, or loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical ALSEN has no equal in color, fineness and sand carrying capacity. It weighs less per bushel, measuring about 10 per cent more cement to a barrel than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements. It is therefore an economical cement to use, and especially adapted for fine concrete work.

The following tests, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equalled by other cement. It is as follows: Tensile strength per square inch—One day, 384 pounds; seven days, 600 pounds; thirty days, 815 pounds.

For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface.

A few of the large contracts in which Alsen Cement was used: Cable R.
R., Baltimore, 35,000 barrels; Quebec Harbor Improvement, 2,000 barrels; Manhattan Pacific R. R. Bridges, 20,000 barrels.

AGENTS HAWAIIAN TERRITORY.

To Those in Quest
of a Rug....B. F. Ehlers & Company

FORT STREET

To intending purchasers of rugs we would state that just before the change in tariff we received a large and varied assortment of

JAPANESE
RUGS

By buying these rugs before the change, a saving of about fifty per cent was effected, which our customers are to profit by, as we do not intend, for the present, to increase the price of these rugs, but to sell them, while they last, at the old prices.

Under these conditions a buyer here, now, can buy these for much less than they are sold for on the Mainland.

We have made a display of these rugs in our large central show window, where their beautiful designs and harmonious colorings are sure to attract attention.
