Japanese to Have a Mass Meeting to Express Their Sentiments---The Democrats Will Make Pinkham an Issue---Eleven Doctors Stand by Pinkham's Iwilei Policy and His Course of Deception---Want Him Reappointed---Republican Machine to the Rescue.

What the Japanese, as a rule, think of the reappointment of Pinkham will be known and known without any shadow of doubt after they have had a chance to speak at a mass meeting called for Saturday night.

Governor Frear has asked a large number of persons concerning their approval or disapproval of the reappointment and among those asked have been a number of prominent Japanese, the question to these having usually taken the form of an inquiry as to how the Japanese regard Pinkham. And the Jupanese intend to let the Governor know without any qualifying of their

They have called the mass meeting of their countrymen expressly to protest against the reappointment of the man whom they feel has gone far out of his road to insult their representative and through their representative, all the Japanese of the Territory. The meeting will be held probably at the Japanese theater on Asia street. Many of the leading Japanese of the city will be present as speakers, and while many of the Japanese feel a delicacy about advising the Turnitorial Executive concerning any of his business, they feel that in the present instance, their opinions having been asked, they will be justified in memorializing him on this subject and asking him not to name Pinkham as the next president of the Board with which the Japanese have so many dealings.

Festing a reappointment of L. E. Pinkham as a Territorial official and a splar representative, either Consul General Saito or his successor, into a clash with the Territorial Executive, Mr. Saito has forwarded all the correspondence between him and Pinkham to the Japanese Ambassador at Washington in order to let the Japanese representative at the National Capital know what kind of a man the Hawaiian Japanese representative has to deal with,

Mr Saito does not ask that this correspondence be immediately brought to the attention of President Ecosevelt, but desires to have it ready in Washington to lay before the President should the occasion arise. He feels that the unwarranted actions and words of Pinkham in the past will be repeated in the return especially should be be reappointed and be able to regard his reappoint. To protect himself and to protect any other who may be appointed to succeed him, he feels justified in placing these letters where they can be produced and placed before the President without delay in the event of anything arising between the Consulate and the local authorities which might require an official explanation at Washington.

The correspondence, with an accompanying letter of explanation to Ambaseder Takahira, has already gone forward.

A STORY OF DUPLICITY.

He has explained his rebuked; and there is not a responsible man in these islands who can say that plan to the Legislature, to the Governor, to the Medical Society and has embraced it in his annual report. The crux of it as given on page 32 of his Report bribed by gain; and not a good man who will deny that it has been of vital for the Twelve Months Ending June 30, 1907, is the matter of certification, a public service at all times, scheme to which he committed himself thoroughly, but all knowledge of the Of course, as Bismarck said, "Where an omelet has to be made some eggs practical application of which, at Iwilei, Mr. Pizkham lately denied at a must be broken." He tiser subscribed large sums to start a morning journal of their own. They said the charge was the result of "morbid imagination" and declared that if bought a plant, hired a capable staff and had at their back what they called a proof could be brought that any physician had "certified, etc.," except in powerful business and political sentiment. As a result of the first month of accordance with the law, steps would be taken for the revocation of his license, competition this paper lost three subscribers and gained eight. The only At once the committee of the Civic Pederation and of the Ministerial Union damage done the Advertiser was to work some slight demoralization of rates; took issue and it was shown that certificates of the kind charged—the kind and when the new daily went to pieces, as it did in a year, it had scored a recommended by Pinkham in his report-signed by ligensed physicians, were mouthly deficit of $1500 while the Advertiser had thrived by its enmity. The being pasted on the windows of unlawful houses at Iwilei and that recognized politicians and certain rich malefactors and predatory lawyers and "business" inspectors of the Board of Health had been compelling the women there to men had sustained the new venture; but THE PEOPLE sustained the Advershow such certificates on demand. It is most to do and that was to failly deny his responsibility and he proceeded along this to buy subscribers with valuable gifts or beg them for a little space in charity, line with an ease born of practice. Facing his own colleague, Dr. Wayson, who the popular support of this journal mounts steadily up, urged by no other in accused him of bearing false witness, and the agent of the Ministerial Union ducement than a natural desire among men to take a paper that has no other who did likewise. Mr. Pinkham declared three times that he did not know motive than the public welfare and can be trusted equally against blandishthe inspectors had been doing the things at Iwilei they had been charged with, ments or threats. Once under the sting of rebuke he said: "And I tell you, for the third time, and it would be the same on the forty-third time, that I did not know that M. I. Silva was doing what he has told you he was doing. It is news to me."

And yet Mr. Pinkham regularly receives reports from his inspectors. Dr. Pratt, who has been busy at I wilei, is one of his executive arms. His friends he "did not know" that the money the Board was disbursing was going to the Democrats bester, they say, than to make a campaign against the Repubrecompense the services of men who were extrying out the very policy he had. tried to impress upon the Legislature. ### AS A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

The number of business considerations which the friends of Mr. Pinkham as many and even more important than those which they advanced,

It was painful from the point of view of their best interests and those of their stockholders to note the attitude of some of the planters. They are men are: " Eas Mr. Piakham connived at the violation of Pederal law in the purwho depend upon Japanese field labor for their very sustenance, yet they want suance of his public work! Has be so conducted his office as to alienate the the Governor to keep in office a man who has wounded the price and incurred representative here of a foreign state with which it is most desirable for the the ill will of the Japanese population more and oftener than any other man United States to cultivate good feeling! Is he disturbing economic conditions! in Hawaii. The Japanese Consul General has complained of him to the Gov-ernor, the Japanese press all over the islands has sounded his dispraise, the jubile against. These are the petent questions and the rest, touching matters Japanese inherers regard him as their enemy. The most redimentary business of executive efficiency, are only powerful unless no other man can be found for sense would oppose his reappointment; yet, on the estensible ground that he has the presidency of the Board of Health who can do the best work that Mr. "kept the port open"-a thing which only the Federal officials can do-these Pinkham does and at the same time avoid the errors of policy which be is planters want to fling him in the face of the labor they depend on. What sort forever committing, of business prescience is thatf

Secondly, nothing in the line of political events could be more disastrous to the business interests of this group than a Legislature bostile to the segregation laws; yet the last Legislature threatened to even up its Wallach grievance against Mr. Finkham by an act of this character. To forestall it Mr. Pinkham made promises. He would let Wallach go to the Settlement; he would give him three dollars a day whether he wanted them or not; he would let Wallach choose patients to practice upon. Having these official assurances to rely on, the ACT. native legislators, who had not only threatened segregation but who had decided to hold up the Board of Health appropriation, relented and sat down to wait. They waited until the time-limit upon the introduction of hills had been reached and until after the appropriation bill had passed, trusting in the good faith of the president of the Board. But they were doomed to chagrin and disappointment. The Board met and went through the farce of repudiating the Pinkham pledge-did it in his presence and without a word of protest from him-and the Legislature adjourned with threats of vengeance upon the lips of every Hawaiian member. Many of these members will serve in the next Legislature and the new native element, in this case, may be expected to sympathine with the old and, if Pinkham is proposed for confirmation, to renew their attack, not only upon him, but upon the segregation policy of which he stands sponsor. Is that a situation to be coveted by the business interests of Honolulu! Would not the success of such a measure harm every business concern here? What sort of business acumen is it to take such risks merely to gatisfy an individual preference!

Perhaps it is not necessary to go further to show the business inconsistency of Mr. Pinkham's friends. We may not need to dwell upon the indorsement in its bearings on the enormous cost of everything that Pinkham does; on the waste and prodigality he shows in office; on the number of times the port has been quarantized during his administration; on the large amount of time he has given to outside matters; on his confession that he has so slight a hold upon the business of the Board that he can not tell what is being done under his very nose by his own subordinates. These things, however, are of a kind to be weighed when a business estimate is being put upon Mr. Pinkham. However, let them go. The two greater considerations are enough to show how little the business men who met the other day went by business precepts and how many things of commercial import they avoided when they We do not think in view of the lamentable business showing Pinkham has made I wilei, hands down. indersed him.

THE INTERNATIONAL SIDE.

The Consul General of Japan has forwarded to his Embassador at Washington all the papers in the two cases wherein Mr. Pinkham, in his capacity of a Territorial official, has affronted the dignity of a friendly power.

Governor Front having asked expressions from various Japanese on the subject of Pinkham's reappointment, the Japanese residents of Honolulu of its first page, is the Chicago Evening Post. We quote its opening paragraphs: will hold a mass-meeting Saturday night.

THE ADVERTISER.

The Advertiser does not seek anybody's support at cost to its independence. It has certain policies looking to the greatest good to the greatest number, and, since its present ownership began it has steadily pursued them with success as the rule, with sincerity and with an eye single to the public welfare at all imes. Sometimes courts that had fallen into evil hands got in the way, but the grip of the hands was loosened, the courts were purified and the course of the paper was approved by good men. The most deeply-rooted of our feudal institutions have been shaken by forces which this paper has helped the Amerbean party in these islands to set in motion. ### THE DOCTORS' BOOMERANG.

Eleven doctors belonging to the Hawaiian Medical Society declared in favor d Pinkham last night largely on account of his Iwilei policy; one of them, Dr. daymond, saying without protest, that Pinkham was justified in deceiving the Board of Health as to his doings at Iwilei ON ACCOUNT OF THE EDMUNDS

In other words, to escape punishment for violating a United States law, President Pinkham was right in carrying out a policy of deception towards his olleagues and the Governor and bringing the administration of Hawaii into ad odor with the Federal authorities.

Such an indersement as that is a more powerful weapon against Pinkham than a resolution against him could possibly be.

The moral rottenness of it does not need to be explained. It can be detected the nostril. Moreover, in the light of the most modern medical opinion and scovery, as lately marshaled by Dr. Brinckerhoff, the conclusion of these octors about the value of the Pinkham methods of examination and certification is as unscientific as the ethical defense of their sponsor is abominable. .

KUHIO'S LETTER CAMPAIGN.

Judging by marked papers, which reach this office as well as by the faur which the Pearl Harbor bill has found in Congress, the special publicity paign undertaken by Delegate Kuhio has brought the results expected of it

One of the papers which were impressed by Kuhio's work, and which, on March 20, gave the Pearl Harbor proposition the prominence of the first column

WASHINGTON, March 20 .- Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanian cole, delegate in Congress from Hawaii, is determined in the fale of disappointment caused by the cutting of the appropriation for the fortification of Pearl Harbor, that if personal effort can prevent it there shall be no further discrimination against his home islands in the name of economy. The prince is making a country-wide campaign by letter for the bill to establish a naval mation at the Hawaiian harbor, for which adequate fortification has just been

The Committee on Naval Affairs has reported favorably the Bates bill to establish a naval station at Pearl Harbor. The bill is an individual measure, having no connection with any of the great service appropriations. Delegate Kalanianaole urges its passage from the standpoint of the national defense and of the naval control of the Pacific ocean, and in what he has written and has just sent out to quarters where the plea presumably will have the strongest effect he calls attention to the fact that both the President and the joint defense board of the army and navy are strongly in favor of the establishment of this Hawaiian naval base.

The Portland (Ore.) Journal also compliments the work of Delegate Kuhloand makes a leading editorial of the arguments he advances.

All this is good matter and if free advertising is so easy to get by the mere writing of letters, it might pay to keep Hawaiian subjects generally before

THE COMING CHANGES.

While it is hardly possible that Pearl Harbor improvement can be the neans of doubling the population of this city-for Honolulu must have between 50,000 and 60,000 inhabitants now-it is certain to so increase the wealth, importance and dignity of the place as to make real estate investments here most desirable and to encourage all lines of wholesale and retail business.

Workmen employed in the Navy yard, mechanics with families, will build up a considerable town somewhere on the eastern side of Pearl Harbor. To this town will go tradesmen, professional men, school teachers, merchants, etc., creating such a place as Vallejo, opposite Mare Island. Of these classes of people many will be newcomers; and owing to the development here and the actual and supposed chances to make money, Honolulu will also increase its resident population. The garrison of the forts will, of course, add life to the streets and business to the stores.

Such a large consuming population will encourage truck and fruit-farming in all the puland districts and in the valleys, and thus help settle the back country and add to the variety of island products. We take this to be so because a mechanic population demands a cheap service in vegetables and fruit and can not afford to pay for imported garden staples.

The effect of the change upon Hawaiian politics is going to be decisive, the voting balance of power being certain to shift. Usually, the employes of Navy vards support the administration in power; at least, such has been the quadrenaial charge by the party of the second part since memory runneth not to the contrary. Aside from this Hawaii will be pretty sure to get labor and trades-union politics, something it has hitherto avoided and feared. But when changes come they bring some things people do not want as well as many things that they do.

It is no joke sailing a yacht to California. The life of those aboard will be devoid of incident and the trip will have become monotonous long before the Farallones are raised or the lights of San Pedro becken cheerily through the gloom. There will be the watch on deck and the watch below, the sun's rise and set, a liner's smudge on the horizon, a plunging sailing vessel, the flying fish and the spouting whale, the quick, unheralded squall and vigilance unceasing from the time the fringe of palms along the shore fades from view until the Coast range looms up ahead. All the time, however, there will be the thought to cheer that the yacht is sailing for the honor of Hawaii and that the good wishes of the entire population are speeding with her by day

The Pinkham Indorsement

Editor Advertiser: Did the gentlemen who met in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce the other day and passed a resolution indorsing Mr. L. E. Pinkham really represent this community, or even the some. what restricted membership of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association? A member of the former body, and the only one to whom I have spoken, condemned the action of the meeting. A careful reading of the remarks made seems to indicate that the question was decided on the one issue of the administration of his office with perhaps a slap at the Advertiser as a side issue. I think it is true that in many respects Mr. Pinkham has done admirable work. Perhaps the gentlemen forget that it was the United States Quarantine officials and not the Territorial Board of Health which decided whether this port should be kept open or closed. But none of us forget, at least we ought not to forget, that the Board of Health, under Mr. Pinkhem's energetic direction to which he gave his time and best efforts day and night, has succeeded in several instances in abating and subduing very threatening sanitary conditions, and in general he has done well, we believe, in health matters. I think many of us know, too, that Mr. Pinkham has a pleasant personality and that he has a kind heart. He has been generous and kind to more than one poor person who has come in contact with the Board of Health.

But is it not pertinent to ask the gentlemen who composed that meeting, whether their whole duty to the community stopped with the one issue of the duties of the President of the Board of Health as related to the commerce of the port? They represent the employers of most of the labor in the Territory. Is it no concern of theirs that Mr. Pinkham used his position to anger and irritate the people to whom we all look to perform the labor on the plantations? We live among a very sensitive people; who, by the way, control by a vast majority the votes of the Territory. Is it no cencern of theirs that Mr. Pinkham made such a horrible mess of the Wallach matter, that it is doubtful whether the Senate next year will confirm his reappointment? Have they any right to take a step which is certain to be reserted by the Hawaiians, and which will most likely show itself, should their recemmendation be adopted, in the refusal of appropriations for the Board of Health-appropriations, gentlemen, which are absolutely necessary for the protection of the public health and to keep open our port! Here, again, was it wise to recommend a reappointment which is likely to array still another large class against this gentlemen? It is not necessary to lug in the Iwilei matter, but even there it is pertinent to call attention to the variation between his statements and facts. With the facts well known on the above matters, it is hardly necessary to touch upon other things, yet they exist, are well known and have a bearing c the question of this reappointment,

In view of all the facts; offsetting Mr. Pinkham's good work on the Board of Health against his very grave errors and mistakes in that position, it seems to me, as it must to many others, that the gentlemen might have laid the motion to recommend on the table.

While it may not be necessary to refer to it I want to add that Mr. Pinkham is wholly wrong to think that all who criticize or oppose him are his enemies. It is an evidence of littleness which he might well eliminate from his treatment of public questions.

Red, Rough Hands, Itching Burning Palms and Painful Finger Ends

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of CUTICURA SOAP. Dry, and anoint freely with CUTICURA, the great skin cure and purest of emollients. Wear, during the night, old, loose kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and air holes cut in the palms. For red, rough, chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with shapeless nails and painful finger ends, this treatment is simply wonderful.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Exclusively, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skir, apr cleansing the scale of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and scothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflantations, and chasings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of wash-a for alterative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to usesnry other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scale, and hair of infants and children. Cutterna Soar combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cutterna, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleanting ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odours. So other sectioned soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scale, hair, and hands. No ether foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in One Soar at One Pauch, the first skin and complexion soap, the mest toilet and mest baby soap in the world.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour, Consisting of Curicura Soar, to cleanse the skin of crusta and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, Curicura Olintment, to instantly allay liching and irritation and soothe and heal, and Curicura Resouvery, to cool and cleanse the blood.
