A BIG CHINESE MASS MEETING.

They Protest Against the Passing of Proposed Exclusion Laws.

STRONG SPEECHES MADE AGAINST SUCH ACTION.

Many Prominent Celestials Have Something to Say About the Government's Law—The Chinese Theatre Crowded With Enthusiastic People—The Speeches Made and the Resolutions Passed.

All roads are said to lead to Rome, but there was a branch line running to the Chinese Theater last evening. Long before 6 o'clock, the time set for the mass-meeting, the building was literally packed with a mass of Chinamen. Every available inch of space was in use, and the galleries were so full that it seemed as though they must give way beneath the crushing weight of humanity that crowded them.

On the stage, seats were arranged for the more prominent Chinese residents, and about forty of these were present. It is a small estimate to say that 3000 Celestials were there.

They were not satisfied with crowding the house to its utmost capacity. They stood on the outside, in all the pouring rain, and strained their ears to catch portions of the speeches. The crowd reached almost out to King street.

The theater was partially decorated for the occasion with Chinese flags. Four tables were arranged for the accommodation of the speakers and the press representatives.

Among those present were Commercial Agent Goo Kim, Vice-Commissioner Wong Kwai, and most of the prominent merchants of the city. The meeting was opened by Kam Chin, the editor of the Chinese newspaper. He asked that Lau Chung, of the Wing Wo Tai Company, be made chairman of the meeting. This was done, with loud cheers.

In opening, Lau Chung stated the object of the meeting and named Chang Kim as English secretary and Chang Den Sing as Chinese secretary. Chung then said that the meeting was called to discuss the license law proposed by the Councils, in an orderly way, and learn what the sentiments of the leading Chinese residents were on the subject. It was not intended as a meeting against the Government, or intended to injure the Government in any way. The secretary then read a Chinese version of the proposed law, and interspersed it with explanations of the more intricate parts. It was listened to by the big crowd with intense interest, but no demonstration was made at its close.

poor, high and low, strong and weak. The only thing for you to do is to take some intelligent action that will turn in our favor, the tide that is setting against us. (Cries of: Very good.) If this question should be submitted to the Supreme Court, on countrymen of my father, they would decide that it was wholly unconstitutional. If I could only speak in your tongue I would like it, but I learned my mother's language and not my father's, so you must excuse me. (Loud applause.)

N. Monwar, of Paul Neumann's law office, was next introduced. He said: My FRIENDS AND COUNTRYMEN:—The Chinese population of these islands has always been obedient to law. It is great in number, but never attempts to fight a wrong attempted against them in any other way except by peaceful means. When the Legislature of 1888 passed a most unjust measure directed immediately against us, we appealed to the Supreme Court and they protected us with one voice, although many of the people wanted to have that unjust law, the book-keeping law, enforced. We are now threatened again. I do not believe that men of as good character as are at the head of the present Government will allow so unjust a law to pass as this threatened law which is intended to prevent us from earning our bread by lawful means. If they do so, against our just expectations, we will have the courts, which will, without fear or favor, protect the people, whether Chinese or Hawaiian, whether rich or poor, treaty or no treaty. We do not wish to interfere with the Government at all. They will not pass a law of oppression.

Lee Chu spoke as follows: I am a carpenter by trade, and have been a reporter on the Chinese Times. The former speakers have said a good deal about this proposed law. It does not distinctly mention what businesses shall be licensed. But if it should pass and any license as a carpenter should expire, the Government would not have to renew it unless they wished to. Even if Mr. Along should come back here, the Government could refuse him a license. We are descended from great fathers. Why should we be treated differently from others? I say that if we do not do our best to overcome this law, we will show that we have no blood in us.

Several other prominent Chinese spoke, all in the same strain. They were all listened to with an intense interest, and the faces of those present showed that they were in great earnest.

After the speeches were over, the following resolution was adopted with a rousing cheer:

Whereas—There is now pending before the legislative body of the Provisional Government, an Act obliging Chinese residents of these islands to obtain a special license, not called for in the case of any other nationality, as a prerequisite to conducting business in this country; and

Whereas—Such legislation is directed against the Chinese as a class, in violation of Constitutional provisions, and of the principles of equity and justice supposed to inhere in all civilized governments; and would, if enacted into law, prove an irritating oppression to a numerous and law-abiding class of residents, who pay a large proportion of the taxes collected by the Government, and who are entitled to the protection of the laws, on terms of equality with other residents of these islands; now, therefore, be it

Resolved,—That we, the Chinese residents of Honolulu, in mass meeting assembled, on the evening of Wednesday, the 14th day of February, 1894, do solemnly protest against the injustice, degradation and insult threatened to be imposed upon us and our race by the legislation so, as aforesaid, pending and proposed to be enacted into law;

Resolved,—That we respectfully assert our right, under the principles of enlightened justice and the provisions of the Hawaiian Constitution, to dwell in Hawaii and be accorded the protection of the law, upon terms of equality with those of other nationalities here sojourning;

Resolved,—That the Chinese in Hawaii have been guilty of no act, or course of action which should in justice subject them to the humiliation of being singled out as objects of legislative caprice, oppression or hatred, such as the Act herein protested against will, if passed into law, embody and express;

Resolved,—That while we ask for nothing more than equality with other residents of equally good behavior, we shall be satisfied with, and shall support and respect nothing that accords to our race a lesser degree of consideration and justice than residents of other nationalities enjoy;

Resolved,—That the chairman of this meeting do appoint a committee of thirteen Chinese residents of this city, to present these resolutions to His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs, at their earliest opportunity, and to urge upon His Excellency the sentiments herein expressed.

The committee of thirteen was composed of the following Chinese: C. Winam, Wong Wah Foy, Yim Quon, Chu Gem, Chang Kim, Ho Fon, Lau Chock, Chang Chiek, N. Monwar, Ng Chan, Chu Ming, T. Kat Poo, Lau Chong.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

The attention of Planters and Agents is called to the following letter from Mr. JOHN A. SCOTT, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Co., regarding the working of the National Cane Shredder, which he has just introduced into the Mill of that Company:

WAINAKI, HILO, HAWAII,

January 22d, 1894.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to yours of the 16th inst. regarding the National Cane shredder furnished by the Universal Mill Co. of New York, and erected by the Hilo Sugar Co. this past season,

I would beg to say, that it has now been in operation day and night during the past three weeks working on plant cane, and also hard rations, and it is giving me the greatest satisfaction. The more I see of its capabilities, the better pleased I am that I put it in, as I am satisfied that it will repay the original outlay in a short time, in saving of labor, higher extraction, etc.

It is shredding from 350 to 400 tons of cane every 22 hours with the greatest ease, and it could shred a much larger quantity if necessary. It delivers the shredded cane in an even uniform feed to the three roller mill, which receives it without the intervention of any labor, and as the cane is thoroughly shredded or disintegrated it relieves the mill of a great deal of strain, thus reducing the liability of broken shafts, gearing, etc. There is a saving of four (4) men daily on the mill, as only one man is required to regulate the amount of cane delivered by the carrier to the shredder. It has increased the extraction from 4 to 5 per cent.

The economical use of steam is generally a serious consideration in adding new machinery, as in most mills the boiler power is taxed to its highest limit, as it was in this mill, and any increased demand necessitated an additional boiler. But I find that the shredder and the three roll mill engines combined use no more steam than the three roll mill engine did when working on whole cane, while doing better work and more of it, and owing to the uniform feed on the mill, the engine demands very little attention.

The Megass from the shredded cane makes superior fuel, and the firemen have less difficulty in maintaining a uniform pressure of steam than formerly. I will be pleased to have a call from parties interested, as it is necessary to see the machine at work to fully appreciate its capabilities.

I remain, very truly yours,
(Sig.) JOHN A. SCOTT,
Manager Hilo Sugar Co.

Plans for erection of these shredders may be seen at the office of the Agents, where prices and other particulars may also be obtained.

American Ships Fired on in Rio Janeiro Harbor.

BUT THE FOLLY OF IT IS SHOWN.

The Examiner Obtains Another Interview With the Noted Bandit Chris Evans—Lottie Collins on the Rampage—Hetty Green in Retirement.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 30.—By a timely shot fired on an insurgent tug by order of Rear-Admiral Benham, of the United States navy, Admiral Da Gama and the Brazilian insurgents have been brought to realize that they cannot with impunity fire on American merchant vessels.

One day recently the American ships Amy, Good News and Julia Rollins gave notice that they were going to the Soudre pier. Admiral Da Gama learned of this, and notified Admiral Benham that if these vessels attempted such a move he would fire on them. Admiral Benham at once replied that the vessels would go to the pier mentioned, under the protection of the American cruisers if necessary. The insurgent's ships were made ready the next morning, and hovered around the American merchantmen, ready to prevent their moving. The Detroit was also prepared for action. As the Detroit steamed in among the rebel ships, one of the latter fired on the Good News. The Detroit at once sent a shot across the bows of the insurgent. The latter replied, and the Detroit sent a shell into her stern post. Then the insurgent ship signaled that she would stop firing. What the final result will be is not known.

Lottie Collins, of "Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay" fame, was not received well on her recent visit to San Francisco. She was gazed by the audience, and made a most insulting speech to them, advising all who did "not like her style," to leave the house. A number did so.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Meat Markets Are Reported To Be Using Unlawful Veal.

President Smith occupied the chair at the Board of Health meeting yesterday. Members Ena, Lansing and Waterhouse, and Dr. Meyers and Superintendent R. W. Meyers, of the Leper Settlement, were present.

Mr. Jones, the inspector of meat at the slaughter house, reported that he had heard that the Central and City Markets were using veal that had not been inspected according to law. The secretary was instructed to notify the owners of those markets that if they continued the practice, they would make themselves liable to law, and would be proceeded against.

Letters from Mr. Meyers, of the Settlement, were read. They referred principally to the matter of enforcing the law about vaccination.

Letters were also received from Drs. Mouritz, Oliver and Goto, of Molokai.

A communication from a native at the Settlement, who has had the awa license for some years past, was received. He wanted to know whether it was true that the Board had ordered the Superintendent to restrict the use of the drug. He will be notified that no awa will be permitted to be brought into the Settlement, but that it can be raised there.

The following were commissioned as special agents of the Board: S. M. Kekoa, South Kohala, Hawaii; William Scott, Wailuku, Maui; H. Hocking, Makawao, Maui; J. K. Josepa, Hana, Maui; Frank Pahia, Koolaukoko and Koolauloa, Oahu; A. Kauhii, Ewa, Oahu; H. K. Kahale, Lihue, Kauai; and E. Olmstead, Waimea, Kauai.

A commission was given Dr. Meyers to temporarily act as Port Physician and agent of the Board during the illness of Dr. Andrews.

After a few minor matters were discussed, the Board adjourned.

H. N. CASTLE : : : EDITOR

THURSDAY, : FEBRUARY 15, 1894.

COL. MACARTHUR, of the Troy Budget, has given evidence before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. He declares with much truth that an ordinary newspaper man would have made a more thorough and accurate investigation than did Mr. Blount.

THE election of Judge Robertson as Captain of Co. B. when he was not even a member of the Company seems to have been a somewhat singular, if not an irregular performance. We understand that C. L. Carter, as a member of the Company, intends to test the legality of the Company's action in the Courts.

THE exchange of shots which took place in the harbor of Rio between American and Brazilian war vessels, makes quite an exciting episode. Admiral Benham is evidently an American of the right sort, and it is a gratifying thing to Americans to see their country in a position to protect the rights of countrymen abroad by the display of an adequate force. The principle of international law involved is not a complex one. The insurgents in Brazil have not the rights of belligerents, and cannot, therefore, interfere with the movements of foreign trading vessels. The action of Admiral Benham was simply taken to protect American shipping in the pursuance of their ordinary rights.

THE TALE OF SAM PARKER.

The great confidence which Sam Parker has expressed in the restoration of the ex-queen is now explained. His own eloquent mouth has opened and told the tale of her wrongs to the American people.

Mr. Parker has published in the San Francisco Examiner a statement, which is reproduced in this morning's issue of the ADVERTISER. This statement is moderate in tone, and contains a great many things that are true, with some that are new. The paper is signed by the ex-premier, but its authorship has not been ascertained. It will not set the river on fire. Without any intention to flatter Mr. Parker we say in all sincerity that he could have done better himself.

A LESSON IN PRACTICAL POLITICS.

The author of the paper read before the Social Science Society, several weeks ago, on "Political Machinery," could have, if he had waited until Tuesday evening, presented a capital object lesson in the working of this "machine" at the meeting of the Annexation Club for the nomination of candidates for the Advisory Council. The machine was cleaned up, oiled and tried before the meeting began. It worked admirably, from the mechanical standpoint. The "bosses" run it out of the sheds of the American League, and brought it into the hall of the Annexation Club. The button was pushed, the machine worked rapidly, thoroughly and quickly. The work was done, and the machine removed, before the members of the Annexation Club were really aware that any business was to be transacted. A select crowd of the American League surrounded the table of the chairman; "cut and dried" resolutions were constantly passed; no nominations were allowed beyond that of D. B. Smith; the chairman, Mr. Hatch, was promptly overruled in a decision which was in the interests of fair play; the chosen orator was pulled out of the crowd, and he gave the usual thanks for being permitted to live to see such a display of patriotism, and the "conservative men" who were the first at the front in 1887, and were the very first to take their lives in their hands in January, 1893, were ridiculed for not being radical enough, and then the show ended. No wonder an enthusiastic member of the league remarked to a by-stander, "that's the way to root out the damned missionaries." Rather less than four hundred members of the club were present. Mr. Marsden complains of imported insect pests. The pests are not altogether confined to the insect world. We are more than thankful that our people have had the opportunity to see the running of an American political machine. It is not a first-class machine; even the late Kalakaua could have given them some points. But first-class machines require first-class engineers. First-class engineers usually think some ways ahead.

THE HONOLULU ROAD BOARD.

A Cynic Has a Kick on the Subject.

MR. EDITOR: If any one besides Mr. Emmeluth thinks the present Honolulu Road Board is competent or should continue in office one day longer than the law requires, let him go to the end of Judd street and see the result of a month's work by this very incompetent board. The portion of Judd street beyond Liliha is so little traveled that the grass had grown over the greater part of the road-bed; then came this board and with plow and harrow put it into very much the condition of a cane-field ready for planting. Extensive blasting furnished material for somebody's stone wall, while a private fence which has for several years obstructed the roadway was left untouched although in many places extending a foot into the cleared road-bed. Now while all this useless work was making the road very nasty, the upper part of Liliha street close at hand, was left in a very bad and, at night, very dangerous condition. However the roads tell the story plainly if the public will consult them.

AS TO MR. MCCHESNEY.

His Nominator Says He Was Aware Of His Action.

MR. EDITOR:—I noticed in tonight's Star an article stating that Mr. McChesney informed that paper that his name was used at the mass meeting unauthorized by him. Mr. McChesney was present (which can be proven very easily), during the whole proceedings and did not make any objection to the use of his name as a candidate of the Annexation Club.

Now, as a matter of fact, Mr. McChesney knew all about it, and went so far as to have some of his Portuguese friends there to "pull" for him at the drill shed that evening. I met him afterward and he informed me that his men had voted for Smith by mistake, and were quite disgusted by their actions. (This also can be proven.)

By publishing the above you will greatly oblige.

UNFIT TO RULE.

A Newspaper Man's Opinion of Ex-Queen Liliuokalani.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—C. L. MacArthur, editor of the Troy (N. Y.) Budget, was before the Senate Hawaiian Investigation Committee today. He went to Honolulu in March for the purpose of investigating the situation. He told the committee he went there prepossessed in favor of the queen, but came away entirely convinced that the revolution was justified and that the queen was unfit to rule the Islands. MacArthur was on the Islands at the time Blount was there and stopped at the same hotel with him. He declared Blount's report was a perversion of facts as he had gathered them, and also pronounced absurd the story of the Stevens conspiracy. MacArthur criticized Blount's method of getting information and declared that the most ordinary newspaper man would have gone into the subject far more thoroughly.

THE ADVERTISER is the leading paper of the Hawaiian Islands. It has a larger circulation and prints more live news than any other island paper. Price 50 cents per month, in advance. Ring up telephone No. 88

That popular work, "THE TOURISTS' GUIDE THROUGH THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS," is meeting with a steady sale both at home and abroad. Tourists and others visiting these islands should be in possession of a copy of it. It is a perfect mine of information relating to the scenes and attractions to be met with here. Copies in wrappers can be had at the publication office, 46 Merchant street, and at the News Dealers. Price 60 cents.

February 12, 1894.

While the rainy weather is not pleasant for the pedestrian, it teaches us to appreciate the sunshine when it is here. In addition to this it creates a demand for the best steel mat made—the Hartmann, of which we have a stock of assorted sizes. These Mats are better than the foot scraper and will last longer. For Kauai mud, of the early red variety, there is nothing to equal it. Maui mud can be handled with the same ease and dexterity by the use of the Hartmann Mat.

Two articles we handle for plantation use are growing more popular every day: the Colorado brands of lubricating oils and the locked wire fence. The oils after a trial lasting more than a year have proven better than any other oil imported to these Islands. We have it in use on nearly all the plantations and we are adding new customers to it almost every week. Dynamo, Engine, Machine, Castor, Cylinder, Car Box and Red Seal Valve, make up the list that covers every branch of machinery for which oil is used. Cylinder oil may be used six times before it begins to separate; this cannot be done with any other grade of oil.

The Locked Fence is a good deal like certain varieties of cheese, it speaks for itself. Wherever a rod of this fence has been built we have had orders from other parties in the same neighborhood. Strength and economy are the two points which commend it to the public.

If you can get a better article for less money than you would pay for an inferior one, why not buy the best, and save money?

THE LATEST NEWS FROM HILO.

Concert Given By the Misses Albu Largely Attended.

TEN INCHES OF RAIN IN TEN DAYS.

Great Shipping Activity In Hilo Bay—Social Matters Are On the Boom—Teachers' Union Meeting—Scarlet Fever Has Died Out in the District.

HILO, Feb. 12.—Our moist friend, Pluvius, is rather overdoing the benevolent act when his "beautiful rain" has just given us two or three glimpses of the sun since the new year was ushered in. For the first ten days in February the record is ten inches. The waterfront has felt the full force of the storm. One of Matson's lighters, filled with freight for the Hilo Sugar Company, had a very dangerous time in getting safely in the Waialua river, where she was tied up three days ere she could get back to the Lurline. A whale boat accompanying the scow was not so fortunate. After being overturned by the breakers she struck the scow with such force several times as to put her beyond the field of usefulness in this world. Fortunately, the men in the boat were good swimmers, so no serious results are to be recorded.

The entire Hilo freight ex Lurline was landed at Waialua, where, in the roughest of weather, a good and safe landing can be made.

Hilo Bay recently presented a scene of more activity than it has for some time. Wilder Steamship Company's steamer Hawaii towing the Crockett out to sea; the Harvester coming bowling in with a fair wind; and the Klaua Hou and brig Lurline safely anchored; lighters and towboat in the background.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

On Feb. 7th, after a stay of two months, the barkentine Crockett, Lund, commander, set sail for 'Frisco with a cargo of 23,334 bags of sugar, manufactured by Halaakau, Wainaku and Waialua sugar companies.

The steamer Hawaii is loading sugar on brig Lurline.

Another vessel is expected from the Coast in about two weeks.

Capt. P. Johnsen of the bark Harvester, from San Francisco, brought his vessel to a safe anchorage after a quick trip of twelve and one-half days. Part of the two thirds cargo with which she was filled was thirty-six mules in prime condition, consigned to Onomea Sugar Company, Hilo, and A. Lidgate of Hamakua.

Mr. Wallace of the Kinau had one of the small bones in his leg broken while in a friendly wrestling bout with Capt. Fitzgerald of the Hawaii on the 9th inst., but he is about as though nothing had happened.

The Papakou landing has been so rough this year that the steamers have been very unsuccessful in getting the Onomea Sugar Company's sugar. Warehouses, sugar room and all the available space being filled up, Mr. Goodale, the manager, was forced to order the mill shut down Saturday evening, the 10th inst., for want of storage room, there being 25,500 bags stored ready for shipment.

The bark Harvester brought one passenger, who worked his way down. The brig Lurline, Matson commander, left Sunday morning, the 11th inst., for 'Frisco, with a full cargo of sugar—10,175 bags—and one Portuguese passenger in the steerage.

SOCIAL GLEANINGS.

The gloom hanging over Hilo was dispelled Friday evening the 2d inst., by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson inviting a number of friends to their home to play progressive euchre. Notwithstanding a stormy night, with few exceptions all accepted of the invitation and were rewarded with a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Mrs. H. C. Austin after a stubborn contest carried off the first prize—a handsome book mark.

A "consolation prize"—a pack of cards with the motto "practice makes perfect," was presented to Mr. Curtis. The following names were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. V. H. Curtis, Mrs. J. Richardson, Mr. E. W. Barnard, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. La Blonde, Miss R. Daniels, Miss E. Alsip, Messrs. Chase, Matson, N. C. Wilfong and Dr. Nichols.

Mr. Young, Miss Alsip and the Misses Young have returned from the Volcano and report Madame Pele to be in a very angry mood. They descended into the pit, but dared not go near the lake on account of the numerous overflows.

Mr. Young and his daughters expected to take the steamer Hall and stop off at Mahukona to visit Kohala, but on account of the rough weather they abandoned the trip by the Hall, and go to Kohala from Hilo per steamer Kinau, leaving this morning, the 12th.

The pedagogic part of the community held a meeting at the Union School on February 5, and the following programme was carried out: Minutes of last meeting read by the secretary, Miss H. Coan; Miss Lyman, with class reading; Mr. L. E. Ray, lesson in Tonic Sol Fa; Miss Severance, paper on Pestalozzi; Mr. W. Ray, paper on School Management; Miss H. Hitchcock, class on Liquid Measure; answers to questions from question box.

Miss Lyman's class performed their task more than well and reflected much credit on their teacher.

This is the second meeting of the Hilo Teachers' Union, the third is to take place May 5.

Much benefit is derived by the teachers from this interchanging of ideas, and it meets with the hearty approval of the Board of Education. The Court House hall was comfortably filled the 10th inst. to hear the Misses Albu sing. Each number was enthusiastically applauded, and graciously acknowledged by the sisters with another song. Miss Grace Porter played the accompaniments for them on the piano in a very creditable manner.

Appropos of music—Prof. Yandley's Hilo friends are glad to hear that he has returned to the islands and hope ere long, that he will pay us a visit.

With our inch of rain a day, it has failed to dampen the ardor of Dr. Nichols over his coffee plantation. He goes out to Olua in the thick of it and returns as merry as a lark.

Mrs. Dr. La Blonde has deserted Olua. Her shingle is out on the once called "Coney House," much to the satisfaction of believers in homeopathic pills and practice.

Hilo is entirely free from scarlet fever. No new cases, and the old ones cured and at liberty. The week just closed has a total of three new cases in the country, one at Wainaku, one at Papakou and one at Pepeekeo—all Portuguese children between seven and ten years of age.

HAMAKUA NOTES.

HONOKAA, Feb. 8th.—The sea continues as rough as ever, this morning it appeared a little calmer and the Waialeale left her safe anchorage at Waipio and was at the Honokaa landing by 7:30 A. M. She sent a few boats ashore but after landing their cargo, one was dashed to pieces on the rocks while trying to get back to the steamer. When the catastrophe was apparent and nothing could be done to avert it, three of the five boatmen jumped into the foaming sea, while the remaining three men were dashed on the rocks but luckily escaped back to the ship with only a few slight injuries.

No freight was lost. The Waialeale did not again attempt to land, and left a little while after for Honolulu.

Hataishi an ex-contraband man of the Honokaa Sugar Co., was arrested last Monday for peddling without a license. He was released on $25 bail, but on Wednesday did not appear and consequently forfeited his bail.

The rain has come down as usual during the "slumbering night," but today it has rained all day, at 7 P. M. it is still raining and will continue so, probably to the end of the week. Our main street is a pool of water from one end to the other, and the oil clothing in the different stores nearly all sold.

The wind has abated for the past two days.

The Inter-Island Steamship Company has our sympathy in the loss of their steamer C. R. Bishop. She plied between this and other Hamakua ports from 1882 to almost 1886, and with the exception of the Kinau was our only means of outside communication.

Our Kinau mail arrived this morning nearly three hours after time. No foreign mail was expected, and people were surprised to hear there was one.

Mr. M. V. Holmes left by the Lehua from Paauhau. He expected to leave Honolulu for San Francisco by the Alameda. He left for the Coast principally to visit his parents in California. While there he will pay a brief visit to the Midwinter Fair. After transacting some business, he will return to these Islands sometime next month.

Mr. Joseph Weston is in charge of his business during his absence.

Mrs. Kaniu Lumahelhi is in town for a short visit.

The Road Board paid off on the 5th inst.

HONOKAA, Feb. 12th.—The rain has ceased and high winds prevailed during the forenoon.

The sea is still more agitated, the great waves breaking over the rocks and sending clouds of spray over cliffs 300 or 400 feet high.

The Lehua arrived at Paauhau on Friday, but could not send a boat either to land the passengers or mail. She had to steam to Waipio and has remained there since. The Claudine did not come. The Waialeale is expected tomorrow. It is hoped she will be able to land her freight. The stores are all run short of many an article of food and personal comfort.

Mr. R. T. Rickard will leave this week for Kona overland via Kawaihae.

Two Japanese were arrested yesterday for working on Sunday. They were both released on depositing $10 bail each. Their cases will be tried today.

Rev. Father Paul Raulin celebrated two masses at St. Stephen's at Kukuihaele.

Waipio rice is quoted at $5 a hundredweight.

The Kinau mail leaves today at 9 P. M. for Kawaihae to board the Kinau at the above named port.

There is no important news, except the rather startling information that Paul of Paul vs. Wilson fame is an amateur pugilist. Does Paul intend to challenge Corbett or defeated English Mitchell?

It is probably not true that Gladstone has instructed the British ambassador at Washington to demand of the President that he shall relinquish the position he holds by virtue of a revolution against British authority, and recognize Victoria as the lawful queen of this country. But he might well do so should he follow the precedent set up by the President in the case of Queen Lil.—American paper.

There are two mountains in Lower California that are estimated to contain 10,000,000 tons of pure alum.

The Genial Sam Appears in a Lengthy Diatribe.

BUT WHO DID THE WRITING OF IT?

An Article Taken From the San Francisco Examiner, to Which Mr. Parker Signs Himself as Hawaii's Premier—The Situation From His Standpoint.

The following article appeared in the San Francisco Examiner, over the name of "Samuel Parker, Premier of Hawaii." It is accompanied by a double-column cut of the same Samuel Parker, the same Premier of Hawaii, with a facsimile signature of the same Samuel Parker, the same Premier of Hawaii affixed. It is a "sympathy game," and is treated as it should be by the paper it appears in its editorial columns.

I want Hawaii as it was. Hawaii was a country with a better government than any other on the earth. I say this advisedly, from my own experience and from the testimony of many others who, like myself, have seen the principle countries of the world.

By Hawaii as it was, I mean the country during the period of its constitutional monarchy—that is to say, from 1859 to 1893.

During these thirty-four years the entire development of the island kingdom occurred. The development was in all lines equally, and the result was so eminently satisfactory that desire for change was entirely without reason.

I find in this country a mistaken idea of the manner of government of Hawaii by her constitutional kings and queens. The impression is, briefly, that the government was corrupt, extravagant, fantastic, and some say even ridiculous.

On the other hand, those who have had the grateful experience of reception at the throne of Hawaii know that there were dignity, intelligence, conscientiousness and deep regard for the Constitution.

Under the monarchy the system of education was unexcelled in any place. The schools were of good character, the education was simple but sufficient in all respects; the pupils were intelligent and eager to learn.

The development in these thirty-four years in means of transportation was equal to the development in the matter of educational facilities. Any one who has traveled in that country will speak with appreciation of the excellence of the roads which, I may say parenthetically, are in very much better condition than the highways of San Francisco as they are now.

The officers of this constitutional monarchy were generally competent, and they had to be incorruptible. In a comparatively small community like the kingdom of Hawaii, the eyes of the people can be constantly directed upon even the smallest acts of those in authority. With this system of natural espionage, corruption is an impossibility, and, in fact, did not exist. The taxes were low.

The people of Hawaii, those who are usually called natives, have been misunderstood, slandered and traduced. The people of Hawaii are intelligent, sensible and reasonable. Ninety per cent. of the native population can read and write. These people are eminently more fitted by natural equipment and acquirement for self-government, or participation in governing, than the negroes of the Southern States of America. There is a climatic influence that prevents the push and enthusiasm characteristic of the Saxon race, but, on the other hand, there are the qualities of happiness, contentment and satisfaction with their lot, whatever it may be, that do not belong to those of greater ambition and less repose.

In convenience and comforts of life, the Hawaiian was accommodated in every way, as the people of other countries of civilization. Our telephone system was regarded as the best in the world; our street railways were well conducted, and in all matters directed by government officers, such as the postal system, finances of the treasury, the system and its operations were equal to those in the most enlightened country.

In legislation relating to the morality and temperance of the people, the government of Hawaii was much stricter than in European or North American countries, and to California the code would seem like the blue laws of Connecticut.

This was the government that I desire to see maintained, and this is the government that a small band of armed men, assisted by the United States forces, temporarily overturned for the purpose of their own aggrandizement.

In order to maintain their positions and to procure the sympathy of the people of this country, they have even slandered the dignified and high-minded woman who is the reigning queen of Hawaii, though for a time without her throne. Particular stress has been laid upon her answer to the request of the President of the United States that, in the event of her restoration, she should grant amnesty to those who had deposed her. The answer of the queen, as the course of the queen has been throughout her reign, was merely in accordance with the constitution of the country.

At the time of the revolt she yielded to the superior force of the United States. When she was asked to grant amnesty to those who had expelled her from the throne, she merely pointed to the constitution of her country, which provides that the concurrence of the privy council with the sovereign is necessary to grant pardon. When the United States, by its properly accredited representative, required that, in spite of that constitution, she should promise amnesty, she again yielded to the superior force of the United States.

These same armed men who have usurped the powers of government, point to all the development of Hawaii as though it were the result of their own actions. They enjoy the roads, the educational system, the street railways and the telephones, and placidly point them out to strangers as evidences of their good government of the country. They quote the laws relating to the morality and temperance of the people as an indication of the high civilization and enlightenment of their government.

The fact is that they have merely stepped upon what others have built, taking to themselves the credit for the institutions and the development that belongs solely to the constitutional monarchy which, in thirty-four years, accomplished more than any other government in this world for the progress of the country and the education of the people.

I want to return to this government. I am not satisfied with the usurpation of power by men who hold control merely by force of arms. The people of Hawaii were contented and satisfied with their government, and when given an opportunity to express their opinions they will decide by enormous, by overwhelming majority in favor of the form of government which has recently been overturned by violence.

The royalists of Hawaii, I might even say the people of Hawaii, because the great majority of the people are royalists, have been exceedingly patient during this season of trial. They have appealed their case to the United States, and they are quietly waiting for the decision.

If the decision is to permit the people of Hawaii to decide for themselves, I have no doubt of the restoration of the queen. I have no doubt of the vote if they should be the way for decision of the question, and I have no doubt of the prompt execution of the popular will. As yet there has been no occasion for the people of Hawaii to take action in their own country in defense of their rights. The peculiar conditions required the production of evidence to the United States Government, more than decisive action in our own country. The world need not think, however, that the Hawaiians are disregardful of their government and their throne; that they have taken no action for themselves because they are heedless of what may occur. When any time comes for them to declare their decision, they will be found ready for the declaration.

I am not unmindful of the apparent, the inevitable destiny of Hawaii. The time will certainly come when it will become associated with the United States by protective treaty. No foreign country other than the United States can have any voice in the control of Hawaii, or in the direction of its government. Hawaii must come to the United States. While appreciating this destiny of my country, I know that the time is not now for its fulfillment. The people are not ready for it; the laws of the two countries are in some respects so different that reconciliation of those of the smaller country to those of the large country would be impossible.

While I have no intention at this time to engage in an argument upon the political matters of Hawaii that have been so prominently before the people during the last few months, I desire to say that the labor question in itself is sufficient to prevent the annexation of our country to yours.

The contract system is in force, and seems to be necessary for the working of the sugar plantations. Many of these contracts have yet years to run before the date of their expiration. The average price paid to a laborer is $13 per month. Without these low wages, and without the contract system, low wages seem impossible; the great industry of Hawaii would suddenly cease. Since the time the legislation of the United States so amended the system of duties that the advantages that inured to Hawaii from the reciprocity treaty were lost, the planters of the country have, with great difficulty, made any profit from their business. They are enabled to maintain operations only by the cheap labor obtained by contract. If Hawaii were a part of the United States, separate laws could not be made for the Island State or Territory. Its labor system would be under the same laws as now obtain in the United States, by which the contract system is absolutely prohibited. The result would be that either our people would be lawless, or else the main industry of Hawaii would altogether cease, and a part of the United States territory would be in a bankrupt condition.

The time for the change is not now. Further development must occur; the laws of the lesser country must be brought to conform in principle with the laws of the greater country, the change must be gradual, and any change must be in accordance with the will of the Hawaiian people.

Now, the Hawaiian people are opposed to annexation. They are opposed to the handful of men who, controlling by force, are governing in a way much less satisfactory and much less efficient than the government they usurped.

The threat of these armed men to oppose any action of the United States by force of arms is a mere pretense. Such an event is beyond possibility. Their soldiers would not fire upon American marines.

The people of Hawaii are for the restoration of the monarchy—for the dignified, orderly government that was conducted by the constitutional monarchy. I am with the Hawaiians as long as I live.

The United States Government may refuse to grant to the Hawaiian people the justice they expect. It can do but one of two things. Either it will restore the queen to the throne or else leave the settlement of the politics of Hawaii to the people of Hawaii.

Which ever course the United States Government may pursue, I am certain that the outcome will be satisfactory. An oligarchy, supported by a few bayonets, cannot be maintained against the wishes of nine tenths of the people.

The friends of Punahou College are invited to visit the office of the Safe Deposit and Investment Company tomorrow afternoon to examine plans for a new school building.

Minister of Interior King will dispose of a lease of several small guano islands at noon today in front of the Executive Building. See particulars in the "By Authority" column.

The rain prevented the Hawaiian band playing at Thomas Square last evening, but Prof. Berger promises to play the same programme this evening if the Monowai is not in port. Otherwise he will play at the hotel.

The office cat has been quiescent for some time. The dose of Davies' Kailani Bitters almost killed her. But she has recovered, and last night appeared with a piece of poetry written in the style of a well-known nursery rhyme.

Mr. M. L. M. Plunkett says that the Misses Albu will not give any more concerts in Honolulu. This will be greatly regretted by music-lovers, who were in hopes that on their return from Hilo a farewell performance might take place.

Mr. W. R. Castle telephoned at 10 o'clock last night that the rainfall during the day at his place had been 2.76 inches, which makes a total of 5.71 inches for the first fourteen days of this month. Mr. C. J. Lyons reported that the rainfall at Punahou yesterday was two inches.

KILAUEA IN CONVULSIONS.

The Lake Has Spread Many Feet Above its Late Level.

Latest reports from Kilauea by the steamer Kinan, show that the fire lake has risen many feet above the level of the late point of observation, and is actively flooding the upper floor of Kilauea crater. The outpour of lava is profuse, and has already buried all the old surfaces within a quarter of a mile northward. The activity is intense. The later visitors were able to reach the edge of the lake, but were not permitted to visit it by night on account of the danger from overflows. It rained all the time, and the crater was filled with steam.

THE NEW CAPTAIN.

His Election Will Probably be Contested by C. L. Carter.

There was considerable talk yesterday, both in and out of Company B, in regard to the election of A. G. M. Robertson as captain. It is claimed by those favorable to Capt. Gunn, that, as Capt. Robertson is not and never has been a member of the organization, he should not have been elected to the captaincy. C. L. Carter, it is said, is going to contest the election in the Courts.

Sent to England.

San Francisco shipwrights and iron-workers were much disappointed when they found that the owners of the Minerva had decided to send that vessel to Esquimaux, instead of having the work done in San Francisco. The ship sailed January 31st on a voyage of 18,000 miles.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

The Government Electric Light Station Receives a Bolt.

About a quarter of 7 last evening, lightning struck a dynamo at the Electric Light Station in Nuuanu Valley, and was the cause of the sudden extinguishing of all the Government lights in town. The damage will be repaired today, and by tonight all will be running as usual.

When the accident occurred, Kalamia Sylvester was in charge of the station. He says that the lightning struck several times, and that each bolt was heavier than its predecessors. The last one that struck, and that did all the damage, lasted two seconds, and burned out the amperometer on the dynamo that runs the incandescent lights.

Sylvester was running the dynamo almost at full speed, 900 revolutions a minute, which is equivalent to 56½ volts. The moment the lightning struck, the engines were stopped and the lights went out. A little confusion ensued, but it did not last long. John Cassidy, the superintendent, was in town at the time and was telephoned for. He quickly arrived at the station.

The disabled dynamo will be repaired today, a new amperometer put in and it is expected that everything will be in running order this evening. The three remaining dynamos were running until midnight last night, and furnished lights for the streets.

A STEAMER TELEPHONED.

But the Pilot Didn't Think There Was Any There.

A telephone message from the U. S. S. Adams at 11 o'clock last night to the effect that a "big steamer had anchored off port," created quite a disturbance for a while. The pilot, port physician, and port surveyor were telephoned for and appeared at the pilot's office in their wet weather regalia, but Capt. Macauley could not catch sight of any vessel from his lookout tower, and would not go out on such a bad night until he was sure that a vessel was outside. He was of the opinion that some one was trying to play a joke on the watchman at the wharf. Up to the time of going to press no signs of any vessel had been discovered, but as the weather was very thick, it may have been there. How it escaped the eagle eye of Lookout Charlie, however, is a mystery.

GIN AND POI.

The Combination Causes a Shooting Scrape.

Lono and Levi, two natives in the employ of Castle & Cooke, had a little difficulty last evening that resulted in the latter's receiving a pistol ball through his jaw, and the former's being locked up in jail on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The trouble arose over a bottle of gin and a bowl of poi. The men began quarreling over the division, and being drunk, Lono took a shot at his whilom pal. The latter was taken to the hospital and his wound dressed, while Lono was put in jail.
