She Asked Awkward Questions.

Miss Taylor Dismissed from Office for Criticising Army Atrocities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Miss Rebecca J. Taylor was recently dismissed from a subordinate position in the War Department because she publicly expressed opinions favorable to the Filipinos. It was alleged by Secretary Root that she had given out information which came to her only in an official capacity. At the date of the letter which follows, Miss Taylor was a civilian. Nevertheless she finds inspiration for a remarkably able argument in favor of the Filipinos, and for a compilation of testimony which is extraordinary valuable in that it gives exact reference citations for every startling piece of evidence quoted.

This letter is also remarkable for the skill with which Miss Taylor exposes the bad logic of President Roosevelt. She makes no moan because the wrath of the administration has fallen upon her. She returns to the conflict as a civilian. It seems she may cut some figure in the coming.

It will be remembered that President Cleveland was defeated in his second national campaign largely through the sympathy aroused for a certain Mary Gallagher. This woman was poor and illiterate. President Cleveland in one of his crochets took away her pension. She took the stump against him, and was one of his most enthusiastic enemies. She swayed many votes.

Miss Taylor is not illiterate. She will never lack bread. She certainly more vigorous and comely in her mode of public address than the President himself. No apology, therefore, is necessary to introduce Miss Taylor.

The speech criticised by Miss Taylor was delivered at a banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution, held in this city. Miss Taylor singled out President Roosevelt's statement that he "drank to the health of the soldiers and sailors of the present day, who, during the last three years, have done splendid work in the inconceivably dangerous and harassing warfare of the Eastern tropics," and wrote:

"If the work done was 'splendid,' the workers may not be classed as 'wrongdoers' subject to punishment. But, should such become a political necessity a Chaffee-Smith-Bell-Hughes Waller-Funston scapegoat will not appease the sense of justice of the American people. They will demand the political lives of those in authority, who place the seal of approval upon the diabolical work these human bloodhounds have accomplished.

"Is it a 'splendid work' to hold up a people and rob them of country and nationality at the point of the bayonet? Is it a 'splendid work' to turn the cannon upon allies because they decline to yield their inalienable rights? Is it a 'splendid work' to sweep thousands from the earth because they take up arms in defense of home and liberty? Is it a 'splendid work' to apply the torch to the homes of earth while helpless women and babes and tottering age flee before the flames that blot out those hallowed spots? Is it a 'splendid work' to make God's fair isles a howl-

THAT TRIP TO MOLOKAI.

Their Excellencies the medicos of the Board of Health have gone on their annual visit to the Leper Settlement at Kalaupapa, Molokai.

They left, last evening, not eleven thousand strong, but Dr. Sloggett, said they had been strong enough to keep away the little but much feared INDEPENDENT, and our bigger brother The Star.

There is no use talking, Doctors Sloggett, Pratt, Moore and Cooper are out of their element; their qualities, scientific attainments and executive abilities are lost in these far away Pacific Islands; their places are in Russia,—aye in Siberia. They would be admirably fitted in a land where the knout reigns supreme, and people are thrown into prison without trial.

They have gone to Molokai, and by and by, the world will hear of their visit. The great medical authorities of the United States, France and Germany are anxiously awaiting for reports of the condition of the Lepers and deep treatises on Leprosy signed by such names of Drs. Sloggett, Cooper, Moore or Pratt. Their reputation is made and they have claims to immortality.

And to think that THE INDEPENDENT and The Star, have dared criticize the acts of these great men. To think that a small paper like THE INDEPENDENT has compelled our local autocrats to "fire" ex-Superintendent Reynolds, one of their creatures, and withdraw the order requesting the Bishop of Papeete to remove Father Wendelin, from the Settlement. The audacity of the Star turning into ridicule men like Drs. Sloggett, Cooper and Pratt! The "nerve" our contemporary had when it dared look up the records of the Board of Health, and present as evidence against denials made by Doctors Cooper and Moore motions signed by Doctors Cooper and Moore a few months ago!

The doctors are even. They have intentionally forgotten that such newspapers as THE INDEPENDENT and The Star existed in Honolulu and only invited to go with them to Molokai, representatives of the Advertiser and the Bulletin. THE INDEPENDENT has more friends and acquaintances at the Settlement than all the other newspapers put together, but THE INDEPENDENT cannot go. It would be too dangerous, probably, to let a representative of this paper have a few moments conversation with the Rev. Father Wendelin or Ambrose Hutchinson.

Ah! if everything could be told! If the Rev. Father Wendelin could be induced to speak if the dramas enacted within the confines of that hell on earth, were published to the world! But, have patience. Although absent, THE INDEPENDENT is there and in a few days our readers will be made cognizant of the doings of the Board of Health during that executive trip to the Leper Settlement on Molokai.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Cardinals' hats are now coming to the United States in blocks of three, according to veracious Rome correspondents. The date of their arrival is discreetly withheld, however.

The Republican party has no occasion to worry its head over the proper candidate for Delegate if Prince Cupid will consent to run.—Bulletin.

You bet! And what is more Republican politicians need not throw any campaign money away, either.

If Mr. A. H. R. Vieira desires to discuss the "Primo joints" question with THE INDEPENDENT, he is welcome to it. But, honestly we think that the Rev. Editor ought to be the last one to speak about joints. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Treasurer Wright's suggestion that the Primo licenses be raised into full licenses in certain sections of the city, is one that will have the endorsement of all good citizens. High license would prove in every sense, morally and otherwise, advantageous to a community laboring under the disadvantages of a depleted treasury. The more and the higher the better.

The Evening Bulletin endorses Prince Jonah Kalaniana'ole as Hawaii's next Delegate to Congress. The Prince is a good man. A representative Hawaiian a man of sterling qualities and fearless independence, a scion of Hawaii's monarchs, he would be a Delegate of whom the Territory would have a right to be proud. Provided, of course, that a compromise between liberal minded politicians can be made on his name.

The Senatorial Commission will be interested to know that according to a morning paper their minds are already made up before they arrive.—Bulletin.

THE INDEPENDENT endorses the opinion of the morning paper. With General Harwell and Representative Haywood at Washington and L. A. Thurston and W. A. Kinney, on their way there, it is evident that the Commission ought to be well posted as to "who is who," and "which is which," in the islands before they arrive.

This Territory will never have a good Board of Health until doctors are left to practice medicine and solid reliable business men are appointed to the Board. We want men and not children in our Health Department mahope!

After having been a Home Ruler and then a Democrat, John E. Bush now announces himself as a Republican. Incidentally such an announcement shows how much we were correct in our remarks made about Mr. Bush some two months ago. It is within the range of possibilities that before long we shall have to record the announcement that John E. Bush has joined the Populist or perhaps the Know Nothing forces. Perhaps! Who knows?

In a poem published in the New York Sun "A man from Ol' Missouri," thus emphasizes a fact relating to the South African war: "An' I tell you that the story Your gran'children will be studyin' in school Will say that Kruger still 'ud hold Pretory If it wasn't for the ol' Missouri mule."

What will the grandchildren think of the story, more especially after studyin' some earlier stories in the history of their own country including the Declaration of Independence?

One of the momentous spiritual questions debated at a recent ministerial association in the Eastern States was the expediency of clerical whiskers. Some of the brethren maintained that it was politics in the present overstocked condition of the pulpit profession for candidates for "calls" to preserve as youthful an appearance as possible, since physical pulchritude is an important factor in determining aspirant's eligibility to the more desirable and higher salaried places in the profession. The bearded elders of the assemblage made a brave but convincing argument in favor of the value of ministerial whiskers as a professional asset. One fancies the venerable spiritual guides of the early Christians, with whom these preachers modestly seek to be identified taking counsel among themselves on the grave matter of facial embellishment. And yet there are ministers at loss to account for declining religious enthusiasm among their people.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases. Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

Women in Business

Business men often express the opinion that there is one thing which will prevent women from completely filling man's place in the business world—they can't be depended upon because they are sick too often. It is true that many women are compelled to look forward to times when they are unable to attend to social or business duties. Their appearance plainly indicates their condition and they are reluctant to be seen, even by their friends. Read what a business woman says to such sufferers:

Mrs. C. W. Mansfield, 57 Farrar Street, Detroit, Mich., says: "A complication of female ailments kept me awake nights and wore me out. I could get no relief from medicine and hope was slipping away from me. A young lady in my employ gave me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I took them and was able to rest at night for the first time in months. I bought more and they cured me as they also cured several other people to my knowledge. I think that if you should ask any of the druggists of Detroit, who are the best buyers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills they would say the young women. These pills certainly build up the nervous system and many a young woman owes her life to them."

"As a business woman I am pleased to recommend them as they did more for me than any physician and I can give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People credit for my general good health to-day."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are for sale by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N.Y. Our new book, PLAIN TALKS TO WOMEN, sent free to any address on request.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

We well know that there are several kinds of arguments that can be used to sway conventions and assemblies, and arguments that a decent man can listen to, but we do not approve, and in fact condemn the foul ungentlemanly language that was used on the outside of Foster Hall last evening. Why the Police Department who were represented in uniform did not take the offender in and confine her to the tanks is more than we can say, but the fact that she was a woman and the wife of a high dignitary perhaps mitigated the offense.

When honest and well meaning men are assailed not only in their private and public character, but in matters pertaining to their appearance as well, we think it is time to draw a line and draw it sharp.

A WITNESS.

Honolulu, July 12.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Exciting Times at Foster Hall and Young Hawaiians Still Hold Out.

It would be hard to predict just at this time what will be the next development in the political situation be. The split in the Home Rule ranks seems to be permanent and the young Hawaiians with Prince Cupid as their leader talk of organizing a new political party.

A meeting was held, last night, at Foster Hall by the progressive element of the Home Rule party, and although Robert Wilcox was in a room adjoining, speeches denouncing the Delegate and Senator Kalaokalani were enthusiastically applauded.

Prince Cupid received the endorsement of the bolters, who urged him to run in the race for Delegate and promised him their united support. The Prince announced in strong terms, amid thunderous applause, that he could never go back to the Home Rule Camp.

He said that he had lowered himself once by going to Kalaokalani and shaking his hand, thinking that there by Kalaokalani would keep faith with him. Kalaokalani had broken faith and never more would he go back to affiliate with such a man. To go and shake hands again with him and the Delegate would be to lower himself in his own estimation and that of his people. He would not be a dog.

Many other speeches were made and hardly for a moment did interest flag. A committee was appointed to study the political situation and determine what constitution and platform shall be adopted.

On Monday evening the committee of seven, consisting of John Wise, J. H. N. Kookoo, Ewaliko, (of Hilo), John Emmeluth, Carlos Long, M. L. Kakaia and C. Andrews, is to report back to the reformers with a draft of the new constitution and platform, its recommendation for Delegate to Congress, what political lines it shall follow, and its plans for future guidance of the new born party.

The meeting then broke up and all departed, leaving the Delegate almost alone. Some amusement was caused outside by Mrs. Wilcox shouting at each man who stepped upon the sidewalk and denouncing everybody in general. She called John Emmeluth a dirty stinker and accused him of having once tried to kill her Queen and her husband.

The Republican Territorial Committee will meet tonight and probably elect a chairman. The first business of the evening will be the disposition of the resignation of W. J. Coelho and the appointment of his successor. A number of consultations have been held today by Republican leaders, as to the nomination of a new chairman. Secretary Fisher, A. G. M. Robertson, A. L. C. Atkinson and probably John C. Lane are said to be in the race for the position.

The Democrats will have a mass meeting on Monday evening in Waverley Hall, to discuss ways and means and draw up plans for the next campaign. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance as all Democrats are invited to attend.

Wm. Heine has brought suit in the Circuit Court against Harry Klemme, Anna and Carl Klemme, defendants, and Elsie Gooss and Geo. P. Castle, garnishees, for $400 due on a note. Demand has been made for the amount but no part of it has been paid.

While two hundred people were out viewing the display of night-blooming cereus at Punahou last evening, men representing a local drug firm appeared and stripped the stems of every blossom. They said they had permission to take them for the manufacture of a perfume. Much indignation was felt and expressed.—Advertiser.

STANZAS

To J.

Nay;—ask not for myrth of air
I ne'er will sing of joy again;
Dejected—driven to despair—
As I for ever must remain;

Nor bid me tell of happier days,
When hope was young, and life
look'd sweet;
When all my light was pleasure's blaze

And joy was smiling at my feet
But let me sing of wounded peace—
A mind by passion's conflict torn—
Of lost content,—of ruined ease,
And hopes that died as soon as born,—

Of fancy's self destroying dreams,—
Of disappointment's fatal dart,—
These, and these only, are the themes
That suit a woe-worn broken heart.

That heart is sick with hope defer'd,—
Its dreams are false—its prospects vain—

And friendship's voice is never heard,
To calm my wilder'd feverish brain—
Despair within my bosom preys;—
You see not—but I feel the smart
Like Kilauea's wild internal blaze,
It silently consumes my heart.

Sometimes reflection's lurid beam—
Will dart like madness o'er my mind;
And, as a baleful meteor stream
To show the dreadful wreck behind.

And sometimes hope's delusive light
Will, for an instant o'er me rell,
And with its sunshine-ray make bright
Even the darkness of my soul.

But soon of joy I lose the trace—
That beam allow'd me but to see
The cavity the dreadful space—
That lies between my love and me—

LENDVOI

Then go! and follow pleasure's course;
And leave me to my tears and sighs,
And to the torture of remorse
That ever dying never dies.

ing wilderness? Is it a 'splendid work' to slay the wounded on the battlefield, to spare no prisoners of war, but to make them the target of a three days' shooting match?

"Is it a 'splendid work' to choose by lot an innocent person—a prisoner of war—and execute him for the crime of another? Is it a 'splendid work' to torture human beings until, racked with pain, writhing in agony, frenzied with anguish, they will power shattered, they admit anything charged, however false, to gain a moment's respite. Is it a 'splendid work' to exterminate a people by murdering non-combatants, all over ten years of age, leaving the remnant to the horrors of starvation?

"All these facts are in evidence.
They have been admitted by the official perpetrators. Is this the way 'strong men, not weaklings,' prove their strength? This is the strength, not of men, but of demons.

"Long will Theodore Roosevelt drink to the health of those who wrought the 'splendid work' of death ere the spirit of liberty shall be crushed from the souls of the infant heroes of the Philippines, but not till the land is left desolate, not while humanity lives in the American heart, not till the doctrine of the brotherhood of man dies in Christendom, not until God forgets his brown children, will the flag 'stay put' on the blood-soaked soil of the Philippines. Eternal shame on such ignoble warfare!"

Miss Taylor is about thirty years old. She refused to say a word about her case last week. She remarked, however, that she had been a student of the war in the Philippines ever since the first gun was fired.
