MAUI OFFICERS ORGANIZE

D. H. Kahaulelio, County Clerk-elect of Maui County, arrived in Honolulu by the Maui yesterday morning. He says that the Supervisors-elect of Maui County had a caucus last week at which it was decided to select T. B. Lyons as chairman of the board. All the Supervisors have qualified, and have given bonds in the sum of $10,000 each with individuals as security. The bonds were all approved by Judge Kalua.

The Supervisors fixed the bonds required of other county officers-elect as follows: Sheriff, $10,000; Assessor, $50,000; Treasurer, $65,000; County Clerk and Recorder, $15,000; Surveyor, $10,000; District Attorney, $10,000.

County Clerk Kahaulelio has given bond with Enoch Johnson of Honolulu and Judge Kalua of Maui as his sureties.

The Supervisors have rented offices for all the county officials in a building owned by A. N. Kepoikai, treasurer of the Territory. The rental for all the needed offices is $75 a month.

A general caucus of all the county officials of Maui is to be held next Thursday.

FLEET MAY BE HERE A MONTH

Evidently the officers of the American Asiatic fleet expect to remain some time in Honolulu. Mail advices by the S. S. Nippon Maru today announce that there will be an exodus of officers' wives and families from Yokohama to Honolulu. The families of the officers of the fleet are coming to Honolulu by the S. S. Siberia which is due here December 21. From the statements of the letter, the indications are that there will be an unusually large number of arrivals for Honolulu. The presence of the officer's families will add to the success of the stay of the fleet in port.

It is evident that the officers figure on the Panama troubles being of considerable duration. The fact that the families of the officers are coming to Honolulu for the visit of the fleet in this port, shows that the belief of the men of the fleet is that they have been ordered to Honolulu in connection with the Panama troubles. It is not likely that the families would take the trouble or go to the expense of coming to Honolulu if the fleet were to return soon to the Asiatic station. It is not unlikely that the fleet will remain in port at least a month.

WHAT IS A COUGH?
A spasmodic effort to expel the mucus from the bronchial tubes. A cold causes a more abundant secretion of mucus, and when the lungs and bronchial tubes are inflamed, they are extremely sensitive to the irritation. Unless care is taken, the cold may result in pneumonia, which is swift and deadly. If the cold is a lingering one, the more leisurely but equally fatal consumption may set in. Do not neglect a cold or cough. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all dealers. Benson Smith & Co., general agents.

INSANITY OF JONES

"Meningitis or brain fever is a disease from which very few recover and those who do rarely have a sound mind afterwards," said Dr. W. H. Mays, testifying this afternoon as an insanity expert in the Jones murder trial. Evidence had been introduced previously to show that Jones had brain fever when he was five years of age.

Dunne asked what might be the effect, at the age of 43, upon a man who had brain fever when five years of age.

"It leaves the brain membranes weakened, usually all through life," said the doctor. "Such persons are specially susceptible to alcoholic poison." Dr. Mays was the first expert to be called, and he gave much very strong evidence for the defense. He said that there were many forms of insanity, with many varying symptoms, but that some of the general symptoms were common to all. "It is a very common mistake for persons to suppose that all insane people are violent. Only a small fraction are and these invariably soon quiet down. Many insane persons are able to distinguish between right and wrong. Before doing a wrong act they will make preparations which show their knowledge that it is wrong, but they appear to be impelled to do it nevertheless.

"The will is generally first affected," continued the doctor in answer to questions. "The symptoms of insanity are in the first place delusions. These are very common at the beginning. Then there is a change of habits, manners and character, loss of sleep and appetite, extreme irritability, readiness to passionate anger. Pains in the head are common, a staring appearance of the eyes and changes of facial expression."

Alcohol was a great cause of insanity, said the doctor. Excessive indulgence for a long period of time was recognized as a cause; the length of the period depending upon the strength of constitution. "Excessive use of alcohol will destroy the will power and the intellect generally."

A brain which had once suffered meningitis would be more liable to the effects of alcohol than a normal brain, said the expert, being very susceptible to inflammation of the kind alcohol brings about.

Grief was another recognized cause of insanity, the doctor said. His testimony went in against numerous objections from Deputy Attorney General Peters and the doctor was cross-examined at some length by Andrews. It is said that the prosecution will call other experts and there is likely to be a lively contest of medical experts before the case closes.

MAUI JOBS

Among the appointments already decided on for subordinate positions in Maui county are said to be the following: Deputy Sheriffs, Molokai, J. N. Uahini; Hana, E. M. Hanuna; Lahaina, C. B. Cockett; Wailuku, William Saffrey; Makawao, Adam Forsythe.

Deputy Assessors, Molokai, Solomon Fuller; Lahaina, William Kaluakini; Hana, William L. Hardy; Wailuku, N. Omstead; Makawao, Sam Kaiapa.

David Martin is to be book-keeper for the County Treasurer. George Kaumakao is to be copyist of deeds in the office of the County Clerk. All of these are Hawaiians or part-Hawaiians except Hardy and Omstead. Five of them were professed Republicans up to or until just after the election.

VOLCANOES AND WEATHER

The meteorological summary for the month of November is out, with a review of the volcanic and seismic disturbances of the month, as follows:
The month closed with continued volcanic activity, that of Mauna Loa's summit eruption, Mokuaweweoe, was reported at the end of the month as being about the same as when first visited in October. The crater of Halemauau in Kilauea, was discovered in eruption at 2:30 a. m. of the 25th, and activity has since continued. The lava lake at the end of the month was reported as being 300 by 125 feet in size and not more than 650 feet from the crater's summit. This crater is 1.95 miles wide and 2.33 miles long, containing an area of 4.14 square miles or 2650 acres. Mokuaweweoe's dimensions were given in the October summary.

There have been no earthquakes reported to this office, but a newspaper report gives one in the Kona and Kau districts on the 12th, followed by increased activity of Mokuaweweoe, and the steamer Mauna Loa reports a disturbance of the sea while the vessel was at anchor off Punahoa, Hawaii on the 13th. The sea suddenly became churned up and disturbed to such an extent as to capsize one of the ship's boats lying along side, throwing its occupants into the water, where, though they were natives, they maintained themselves with difficulty, and the ship itself was swung around from its former position. This disturbance is reported as last ten minutes. Later in the day a huge black cloud was seen to belch from the summit crater, followed by the usual column of white smoke and steam. High seas in the channels and heavy surf along the windward coasts have been the rule. Tidal waves were reported from Pelekuna, Molokai; Kahului and Honokohau, Maui on the 29th. At the latter place one wave rose to a height of 30 feet, as measured by the mark left by the sea on the wall, doing considerable damage. From Kohala, Hawaii, comes a report of heavy seas lasting some hours which swept clean over the top of a forty foot crane at the landing and carried enormous track along the northern part of Oahu was washed away by high seas, and the tide gauge in the harbor of Honolulu recorded evidence of an unusual agitation whether the cause of these latter disturbances was local volcanic activity, or the result of seismic disturbances at, or around the Aleutian Island, a theory advanced by one authority (the above mentioned places, with the exception of Honolulu harbor, all having a northern exposure, and this latter fact would, to a certain extent to eliminate the local theory), or unusually heavy weather in the North Pacific, is problematical with the weight of evidence in favor of seismic origin.

Thunder at Honolulu on the 15th during the heavy showers of a fete afternoon of that date. This was the only rain to speak of for this district during the month, 1.50 inches falling at the Weather Bureau between one and five p. m. of a total of 2.26 inches for the month. Bright afterglows on several occasions, and a 44 degree lunar halo on the evening of the 26th.

The rainfall throughout the group, with the exception of the northern and eastern exposures of the Island of Hawaii, was considerably below the November normal, due to the unusual absence of southerly wind for this period the small precipitation at southerly exposures being especially marked. The barometer average for the past five months has been slightly above the normal, a condition likely to be followed by a winter of moderate rainfall.

CALL FOR NEW BIDS

MARINE HOSPITAL SERVICE WILL NOT ACCEPT BIDS FOR LIGHTING QUARANTINE ISLAND OWING TO A SLIP BY WHICH THE SPECIFICATIONS DID NOT COVER THE WHOLE WORK.

There will have to be new bids called for lighting Quarantine Island. The original bids were opened December 10, but it was found that these bids were not satisfactory, so new ones are to be solicited by the Marine Hospital Service.

The first set of bids called for lighting Quarantine Island and various houses. Through an oversight, however, one house was left out entirely, so when the estimates were given to the bidders, this item was not in the specifications. Dr. Cofer has also decided that it would be preferable to have a separate line run to the island so that no one else would be on the same line. This will also be a new requirement in the second set of bids. The bids will be asked for in a few days.

WRAY TAYLOR IN NEW YORK

HE IS SEEN BY BISHOP RESTARICK AND TELLS AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF MENTAL ABERRATION—DOES NOT KNOW WHAT HE DID, BUT WOKE TO FIND HIMSELF IN ENGLAND.

Wray Taylor has been heard from and with most remarkable story. Extraordinary as is his explanation, accounting for his innocence, there will be many in Hawaii to believe it, for most of those who knew the former agricultural commissioner have steadily refused to accept the theory that he embezzled eight hundred dollars of public money. According to Taylor's story he has no recollection of his doings from the time he was in San Francisco until he suddenly found himself in England.

Taylor was seen in New York, by Bishop Restarick of the Anglican Episcopal church of Hawaii. The bishop has been traveling in numerous Eastern cities, and was surprised while in New York to receive a call from Taylor. Taylor had returned from England. He told the bishop that he did not know how he had got to England, having no recollection of making the trip. His mind was a blank from a time when he remembered being in San Francisco. Taylor said that he had been a victim of one of the extraordinary mental lapses which have been well attested in some cases. It is said that his father and one of his brothers suffered a similar experience and died shortly afterwards.

Taylor was agricultural commissioner of Hawaii for many years, also organizer for the Anglican cathedral here and a well known citizen. He left on January 3 last, to go to San Francisco on business connected with his department, securing a leave of absence from Governor Dole in the regular way. After arriving at San Francisco he was heard from several times, and sent some seeds back here. He called upon State Commissioner Crow, of California, also upon Professor Koebel, who was in Alameda. The latter afterwards remarked that Taylor appeared to not strangely.

DOLE TAKES A NEW OATH

RECEIVES HIS REGULAR COMMISSION AND IS SWORN IN FOR SIX YEARS.

United States Judge Dole was sworn in again in the Federal Court this morning by Chief Justice Frear, the Judge's new commission having arrived. It is for a term of six years, beginning with November 23, 1903, the day on which President Roosevelt affixed his signature. It is in form the same as the temporary one, but is on parchment instead of ordinary paper.

The commission was read in open court by United States Marshal Hendry and then the oath was administered by the Chief Justice. Dole putting his signature to it as before. It is to be filed with the Department of Justice.

WAR?

The Colombians, now that General Reyes is President of the Republic, or despot of the military state, may take it into their heads to attack Panama. At least such is the view taken by some of the press correspondents. It may also be considered to be the view of the administration. The possibility of Reyes being elected must have been taken into consideration when the Asiatic squadron was ordered to Honolulu. Reyes has expressed himself pretty freely upon the situation and has put a good deal of the honor of the Hidalgo into his remarks. His comments have had a good deal of the die-in-the-last-ditch style of oratory which Trochu used to indulge in, when the Germans commenced to invest Paris. But Trochu kept out of the last ditch most assiduously and bravely survived the siege. The chances are that General Reyes will pocket a good deal of the honor of the Hidalgo, if he can only lay his hands on some of the millions that will accrue to the Republic of Panama.

There is no particular desire on the part of the American people to go to war with Colombia, but if Colombia interferes with one of our greatest and most necessary commercial projects, why she will have to take the consequences. The aggression, if aggression occurs, will come from Colombia, and if it comes we shall be quite prepared to meet it. We are in a far better position for campaigning than we were at the time of the Spanish war.

FORTUNATUS.

President Roosevelt, say many people, is a fortunate man, things seems to come his way. But can one call him fortunate only who succeeds. There must be some power inherent in the nature of the man, which makes him succeed. There are other men who are fortunate, but they are not successful. Fortune showers her greatest gifts upon them, and they lose their opportunities. To many comes the hour, but it is the Man who is required, and Roosevelt always proves himself that man.

In early youth Roosevelt's health was not good. He went to ranch life in the West. He recovered his health, but he acquired more, he laid the foundation of a vigorous constitution, and he obtained a knowledge of the Western character which he has used to the greatest advantage ever since. His experience at the Legislature in Albany has made of infinite advantage to him in dealing with men in a straightforward manner. He saw then the danger of being too diplomatic, and learned that when he wanted to succeed he should go straight to the point. When his career as Police Commissioner of New York closed, he had every politician against him, yet later he became Governor of New York. When the same politicians thought they had him shelved as Vice President, circumstances of the most unforeseen kind gave him the presidential office.

In each case there seems to have been the element of chance, but in each case the opportunity has been seized and turned to definite advantage. The same may be said of his career in the Navy Department, of his experience with the Rough Riders in Cuba. Midas had the power of turning everything into gold at his touch, a most unhappy power.

Since he has been president he has had many questions which might have wrought his future undoing, but instead he has risen superior to them. The question of Trusts has been a crucial one, upon which the people were wildly excited and were eager to overthrow. On the other hand the Trusts were and are most powerful. The revival of the Sherman Act taught the lesson. The Trusts are curbed, yet not inimical, while the mass of the people are satisfied. The opportunity came in doubtful shape, it was seized and turned to definite advantage, as many another opportunity had been.

The Anthracite strike is another instance, men's passions were seething. The general public was suffering in comfort and in purse—comes forward the President with a solution and the strike is settled. The approval of the voters is gained, not lost. The enforcement of the Monroe Doctrine to Venezuela only brought popularity and success. The President in effect said to Germany and Great Britain: "Collect your debts gentlemen as best you can. You are at liberty to demolish Mr. Castro's fortifications, you can seize his ships, but—not a foot of land in pledge. This continent belongs to the people of the West, and no European power can acquire states or territories over here." And the people of the United States applauded and admired.

Lastly take the Miller case and the Postoffice scandals. The Miller case would have put a less able man in conflict with the labor unions. It did nothing of the kind. Roosevelt laid down his reasons carefully and clearly, and the labor unions instead of fighting his nomination, endorse it. The Postoffice scandals might have scared a weaker man on the eve of election. They have not scared President Roosevelt, who has gone boldly forward, and by his course has won votes, not lost them. It is but another opportunity seized and turned to definite advantage.

No one can say that this is luck. It is the power of watching for that Tide in the affairs of men Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted, all the voyage of their life Is bound in shallows, and in miseries.

And round the President's head the difficulties and crucial questions seem to thicken, only to find themselves riven like clouds before the flashing lightning. The failure of the Hay-Herran treaty at Bogota might have been a serious blow to the administration prestige, but hardly had that been turned down before the Republic of Panama came into existence, and through the exercise of promptitude and diplomatic skill an even more favorable treaty has been negotiated which will be ratified this week in all probability. This will secure the great waterway of which all have been dreaming for decades. This will add another feather to the well-plumed cap of Theodore Roosevelt, the man who makes opportunity his own.

GENERAL WOOD.

In the controversy over General Wood, it is often forgotten by the general public that Wood has done. This one of the magazines set forth. Both at Harvard and at the Medical school Wood distinguished himself. It was a good start as showing the qualities of the man. He joined the army and was sent to patch up those who were wounded by Indians. In his first campaign he won the Medal of Honor from Congress, being recommended for it by the late General Lawton, then a Colonel. Like the Victoria Cross it is the reward of personal bravery. During the campaign against Geronimo he twice had sole command of expeditions, because the other officers had broken down through the frightful hardships. This taught him the power of handling men and the responsibilities of independent command.

True he has been a medical man, a medical officer, but during his fifteen years in the army he has been far more than a mere medical officer. His success against Geronimo has been alluded to. During the Cuban campaign he, as Colonel of the Rough Riders, supplied the military skill for the regiment, until its organizer, Roosevelt, could take command. It was his foresight and ability to meet a military emergency which saved that regiment at Las Guasimas.

HOLLISTER DRUG CO. FORT STREET

No one has objected, say General Wood's friends, has objected very strenuously to General Funston's elevation, yet Funston had not anything like the experience that Wood had when he joined the Rough Riders. It is further pointed out that during the Civil War, McDowell came from the Adjutant-General's Department. Hancock from the Quartermaster's and Sheridan from the Subintendence. Out of thirty generals now on the active list only twenty-six were educated at West Point.

As to Wood's administrative abilities it is claimed that he left Cuba an organized state, after it had been suffering from years of civil war and practical anarchy. Havana from being a pest hole has been made a healthy city, where yellow fever no longer threatens death to the population annually. But for Wood's management Santiago would have been mutinous in the days following the surrender.

Of course these are ex-parte statements to a certain extent, and the opponents of General Wood have charges to bring which may outweigh what can be said in his favor. But there are two sides to the question, and it is well for fair-minded people to consider both.

More trouble is looming up in the Orient. After declaring that there was no intention of coercing Korea, Russia now states that she is prepared to fill the peninsula of the Morning Calm with troops for its "protection." The kind of "protection" which Russia affords can be gathered from the manner in which Manchuria has been "protected."

The younger generation of British naval officers are to have a better chance. The old and toothless barnacles are to be carefully eliminated.

The duty has been taken off all sugar in India, which emanates from those countries that have joined in the agreements made at the Brussels conference, Germany, France and Austria Hungary, with smaller producers thereby abolished the bounty on beet sugar. Russia on the other hand withdrew from the conference. Russian sugar will be practically shut out of all spheres of British influence.

Nothing more has been heard of the alleged desertion of the British Sudanese troops to the Mad Mullah in Somaliland. Of course it is barely possible since the Sudanese are strict Mahometans, but they fought admirably against the Mahdists in their own country and showed no signs of unsteadiness when marching against their co-religionists. The report needs confirmation.

Chicago gets the Republican convention plum this year. A convention means an enormous influx of visitors, and Chicago is so central that vast masses of visitors will pour in from all directions.

The Territorial grand jury has now taken a hand in the voucher investigation. Whether it indicts any of the peccant members or not, the facts have been so thoroughly exposed by the Fed-

The awakening of China, the educating that mass of prejudiced population, is a superhuman task. Some great national upheaval might do, but nothing short of that. Meanwhile Dr. Sun and his fellow laborers are working manfully, and succeed in making impressions, especially in the South. The Chinese is not an uneducated man, but is steeped to the core in his own methods, his own superstitions and his inborn prejudices. These can not be brushed aside in a year, in a decade, in half a century or even in a century. Yet many thousands mayhap a million or more have mingled abroad and associated and been educated in Western methods. But what would be a million of western educated Chinese among a population of 400,000,000. It is a mere drop in the bucket.

The deposits of all banks in the United States have increased since 1895 from $4,900,000,000 to $9,525,000,000, almost double. Deposits of all banks in Texas for this same period have increased from $35,000,000 to over $80,000,000, about 128 per cent. In Iowa the increase was from $78,000,000 to $211,000,000, over 170 per cent; in Kansas from $33,000,000 to $84,000,000, over 154 per cent; in Nebraska from $35,000,000 to $82,000,000, or 134 per cent; in California from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000, or 100 per cent. In Oklahoma and Indian Territory, where in 1895 the total deposits were considerably under $2,000,000, there are over $27,000,000 on deposit. Aggregate deposits west of the Mississippi have increased $701,000,000 in 1895 to $1,700,000,000 in 1903, or 142 per cent. The three states of Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri have more bank deposits now than eleven of the states west of the Mississippi in 1890, and Washington, Oregon and California have $40,000,000 more deposits than all the other states west of the Mississippi in 1890.

"THE LITTLE MINISTER."

Barrie's Popular Story Set for Tomorrow Evening.

Everyone is familiar with the works of J. M. Barrie from a "Window in Thrums" to the "Little White Bird" and the production of the Little Minister tomorrow and Wednesday evenings.

Our rule is to treat all patrons alike—giving the small customer and the large the same courteous service. If you want a 50c safe deposit box, or a large or small insurance policy, or a surety bond, of any sort or size, we'll serve you gladly. Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, Ltd., corner Fort and Merchant Sts.

by the Neill Company is being looked forward to with much interest by Honolulu playgoers.

The play is being presented at the popular prices which the Neill Company has set for the rest of the season, in compliment to our naval visitors and should draw a crowded house.

Barrie as a dramatist is shown at his best. His delicate yet intense romance, his power of character creation and his dramatic imagination have combined to make a happy issue. The story tells of the strike of the Thurns weavers the partnership on their side of Lady Babbie, a wilful, wild, lovable girl, who wins the heart of the Little Minister, who embroiled in the strike.

Humor is abundant and the love making between the "Little Minister" (Neill) and "Babbie" (Miss Chapman) is delightful and the tale of true love by an ingenious stroke of the author runs to a happy ending.

JAPS FIGHT IN DEFENSE

The fight over the Japanese conspiracy cases was begun in the United States court this morning, with a motion to quash the indictment in which there are 50 defendants named, filed by Attorney E. M. Watson in behalf of five of the defendants. The hearing of the cases was postponed and the motion will be argued by Watson and J. J. Dunne. It affects all the conspiracy cases.

The grounds on which the defendants ask that the cases be thrown out of court are as follows:

"1. Because said indictment charges a conspiracy to commit no offense known to the law.

"2. Because said indictment, if charging a conspiracy to commit any offense known to the law, is bad for duplicity, in this: That in each and every count of said indictment a conspiracy to commit two separate and distinct offenses is charged.

"3. Because said indictment is too vague, general, insufficient and uncertain to afford said defendants proper notice to plead and prepare their defenses, and in this is violative of the Sixth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which provides that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the constitutional right to be informed of the nature and the cause of the accusation against him."

Manuel testified also that when he was talking Jones would often suddenly change the subject.

Manuel's memory didn't appear to be very first class. The result was numerous questions from which Attorney General Andrews regarded as leading and the attorneys did a good deal of arguing.

It is said that experts will next have the courtroom to themselves, affording the court and jury opportunity to hear their views as to Jones' mental condition. The trial may last all the week. Both sides are preparing voluminous instructions to the jury and these may have to be argued at length.

The cruiser division of Admiral Evans' fleet can not arrive here before Thursday at the earliest. The four cruisers accompanied by the collier Pompey arrived off Midway Saturday afternoon. The Pompey sent a boat ashore for mail. The fleet passed Midway about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

According to this showing the cruisers are making about 8 knots an hour which is very slow rate of speed. They are traveling less than 200 knots a day. They left Yokohama December 1 and took 12 days in which to make Midway which is about 2,300 miles from Yokohama. From Midway to this port, the distance is about 1145 miles. If the same rate of speed is maintained from Midway to this port, it is very probable that such will be the case, the fleet will not make its appearance before next Thursday or Friday.

The battleship division has not been reported at Midway. This division left Yokohama December 5 and if the same rate of speed is maintained that the cruisers have been following, the battleships will not arrive off Midway before Wednesday.

Preparations are being made at the Naval Station, however, to coal the cruisers immediately on their arrival in port. It is hoped that the fleet will take all of the coal at once in order to let the local Naval Station show how rapidly coaling can be accomplished. MORE ABOUT EDDIE JONES

The Jones case began this morning with the testimony of Officer Kane, who said on direct examination that when he went to the Postmaster house in response to the call for assistance, Jones lay in the hammock "paralyzed drunk." This was a few minutes before the shooting. On direct examination Kane said that the smell of liquor was the only thing that made him think Jones was paralyzed drunk, and he said that he could not swear as to whether Jones was really asleep or only shamming.

Kane described how he saw the dead body of Mrs. J. M. Jones and saw her partner with a wound in her head and then Manuel, messenger of the district United States court, was called, to continue the evidences of insanity. Manuel thought that Jones was out of his head. He described a "wild look" in Jones' eyes and various fits of anger he had observed. He said that Jones often ran to look at street cars, expecting to see his wife on them. Two days before the hearing of the Jones divorce suit Jones was in Manuel's office and acted in an excited manner. He wrote letters and tore them up. He sat in a chair and moved about, and ground his teeth, the witness said. "How did it affect you?" asked J. J. Dunne.

"I was kinder scared," said Manuel. Manuel testified also that when he was talking Jones would often suddenly change the subject.

Manuel's memory didn't appear to be very first class. The result was numerous questions from which Attorney General Andrews regarded as leading and the attorneys did a good deal of arguing.

It is said that experts will next have the courtroom to themselves, affording the court and jury opportunity to hear their views as to Jones' mental condition. The trial may last all the week. Both sides are preparing voluminous instructions to the jury and these may have to be argued at length.

HAWAII-JAPAN YACHT RACE

Henry E. Walker, who went to Japan some weeks ago with a challenge from the Hawaii Yacht Club to the yachtmen of Japan for a yacht race in Hawaiian waters for a challenge cup, returned by the Nippon Maru yesterday. The challenge was declined, but Walker says that he has a verbal challenge from T. M. Luffin, an American merchant in Yokohama who offers a $2,500 cup for a race between Hawaiian-built and Japanese-built yachts to be sailed in Japanese waters, for yachts twenty-one feet or more on the waterline. Mr. Luffin wanted the limit put at thirty-eight feet on the water line, which would admit his own yacht, the
"Mary," a vessel that carries 1400 feet of canvas. Mr. Walker insisted, however, that this would be too large a vessel to ship to Japan by steamer,
and the yachtmen of Hawaii would hardly like to risk sailing her there under her own canvas. So the limit was reduced to twenty-one feet on the water line.

Walker expresses himself as being thoroughly satisfied that in such a contest there would be little difficulty in a Hawaiian-built boat, designed by himself, winning. He expresses contempt for the designing ability he saw displayed in Japan.

PHILADELPHIA, December 14.—

Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of Labor in an address here today predicated that the final settlement of the industrial and labor questions would come about only through a closer combination of labor and capital. He proposed that ultimately the present system of wages would give way to the profit sharing system, in which the laborer would have a personal financial interest in his employer's business. This he said is the only solution of the present problem.

complaint because of the English policy
of keeping officers on the active list
after they had outlived their usefulness.

If 75 cents is collected for one month the boy or girl will receive 37 1/2 cents; if $2.00 is collected for one quarter, we will hand over one dollar; if $8.00 is collected for one year, we will give the little business man or little business woman $4.00.

In addition to the generous commission the Star will award the sum of One Hundred Dollars in gold coin, divided into four prizes. The boy or girl who secures the largest number of new subscribers will be paid $50.00; prize for second highest number $25.00; third prize, $15.00; fourth prize, $10.00.

With energy, perseverance and tact, any bright school girl or boy may easily make some Christmas money and win a cash prize and the reward in each case will be worth the effort. At this season of the year it is an easy matter to gain subscribers for The Star.

WOULD EXPEL THE
MANCHU DYNASTYDR. SUN YET SEN, THE NOTED
CHINESE REVOLUTIONIST, AD-DRESSED A LARGE MEETING.

Dr. Sun Yet Sen addressed a large audience of Chinese yesterday afternoon at the Chinese Theatre at the corner of Hotel and Mauna Kea streets.
Dr. Sun was educated at Iolani College, Honolulu, but came into international prominence some years ago when he was kidnapped in London by the authority of the Chinese Minister to Great Britain and was detained in the Chinese legation awaiting an opportunity to be sent to China where he would doubtless have been beheaded for his revolutionary utterances. The British Government intervened and compelled his release.

In his address yesterday he declared that a revolution which would overthrow the Manchu dynasty now on the throne of China was the vital thing needed to start a reform in China that would make her a great republic, respected by other nations, and capable of securing respect and protection for her citizens in all other countries of the world. The Manchu had been so long on the throne, Dr. Sun declared, that the great mass of the people had forgotten that they were foreigners, as foreign as the Russians or the Japanese. They needed to be recalled to a realization of the foreign character of the Manchus.

The impotence of the Manchus, he declared, was shown by the fact that the allies at the time of the Boxer troubles, were able with only 20,000 men to march to the capital of the country and capture it—a country with a population of 400,000,000. The difficulty was not to dethrone the Manchus, but to arouse the Chinese to a realization of the necessity of expelling them.

strong wind is blowing Konaward,
which carries the smoke and steam
over the cliff. There can be no illumination above the crater unless there are clouds of some kind to give back a reflection.

According to Dana's work on volcanoes this same crater did a continuous performance in 1873-74 lasting eighteen months. On several occasions during this period the mountain was dark and the crater apparently not active. Upon one of these times of supposed inaction a party ascended and a description of what they saw is as follows: "For the most part the floor of the crater was an area of solid black lava but at one end (southwest) there was a fountain of yellow fire one hundred and fifty feet broad, which played in several but independent jets to a height of 50 to 300 feet. From the crater's edge the roar was like that of an ocean, rising and falling like the thunder music of windward Hawaii."

It is altogether probable that E. D.
Baldwin is correct, and that if one were at the mountain top tonight he would find it pumping red hot blood
the same as reported by the numerous parties who have made the trip since October 1.—Hilo Tribune.

in the rear of the league. The score was 11 to 6 and the game was a fast
one. The Mailes scored two touchdowns in the first eight minutes of playing, but after that the opponents held them fairly well, though only a fumble prevented one more touchdown.

THE NEILLS

The breezy manners of the western cattle ranch furnished the atmosphere and setting for the entertainment given by the Neills at the Opera House on Saturday evening. "The Cowboy and the Lady" was the title of the piece. It is a play by Clyde Fitch, who wrote
two or three of Sol Smith Russell's successes. The scene is laid in Colorado. "Edward North," a Harvard graduate of '86 goes out west for his health, as Roosevelt did for his at an earlier date. He goes to ranching and adapts himself thoroughly to the life, becoming the idol of the cowboys, over-
whom he has great influence. "Mr.
and Mrs. Weston," she a noble woman, and he a wretch, also come out to the ranching country. They both seek pleasure, "Mrs. Weston" in unconventional, but wholesome ways; her husband following the bent of an abandoned heart. As a frolic Mrs. Weston gives a dance in a mining camp dance hall, "chartered" for the occasion. Her guests are some of her women friends
from the east, and her cowboy acquaintances. Her husband is killed by a half breed Indian who has become jealous of his attentions to the proprietress of the dance hall with whom the half breed is in love. Circumstances point to "North" as the murderer. He is tried and found guilty, when a train of circumstances leads the half-breed
Indian to confess.

Neill played the part of "Edward North" and played it well. Edyth Chapman was "Mrs. Weston," admirable and fascinating. John W. Burton as "Joe" the cowboy, did some of the best acting of the evening. The play itself imposes limitations on any company that essays to present it. Yet the entertainment as a whole was a pleasing one.

One of the enjoyable features of the Neill engagement is the music that is played between the acts, as well as the incidental music. It is thoroughly enjoyable, being good music well played.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings
the company will play "The Little Minister," Thursday and Friday "Puddin'- head Wilson," and on Saturday night,
"Under the Red Robe."

At the request of the Merchants' Association, based on the suggestion of a correspondent published in The Star,
the Neill Company during the stay of Admiral Evans' fleet in port will give

THE ADA SAW A POACHER

GOVERNOR CARTER ISSUES A LETTER OF WARNING TO BIRD-HUNTERS.

The schooner Ada takes with her to French Frigate Shoal a letter of warning to Japanese fishers and others, including Captain Weisbarth of the Ada, that they must refrain from killing birds on these and other islands. The letter is a result of a communication sent to the Governor by Admiral Terry, as follows:

"I have received information today from the master of the schooner 'Ada' who has lately returned from a visit to the French Frigate Shoal reporting that he felt in with a Japanese schooner of about 100 tons, cruising in that vicinity, ostensibly as the Japanese master states, in search of sharks. It is believed that this shark fishing is a mere pretext, and that the real object of this vessel's presence is the destruction of birds on these islands for their feathers.

"In view of the correspondence in reference to this subject and the instructions from the several departments at Washington including the State, Interior and Navy Departments, to the effect that this is in violation of our laws, I would respectfully suggest that you write a letter addressed to the master of this Japanese schooner, warning him against any violations of law in regard to the destruction of birds on these islands to the westward. The master of the schooner 'Ada' offers to take such communication and is expecting to sail Monday. If the letter is sent to Captain Rodman at the Naval Station this afternoon, he will see that it is delivered to the master of the 'Ada.' Very respectfully,

"SILAS W. TERRY,
"Read Admiral, U. S. N., Commandant."

There have been numerous cases of bird-poaching on the various islands between here and French Frigate Shoals, principally by Japanese. Governor Carter addressed the following letter to Captain Weisbarth:

"In view of the correspondence in reference to the destruction of birds on the uninhabited islands under our jurisdiction, I beg to warn you that the Departments at Washington, including the State, Interior and Navy Departments, have taken the attitude that the destruction of birds for their feathers is in violation of our laws and ask you to be good enough to warn any others who may be tempted to land for this purpose that they do so at their peril. Very sincerely yours,
"GEORGE R. CARTER,
"Governor."
