BECKLEY'S WRECK THEORY

KINAU'S PURSER ADDS MUCH INFORMATION.

Believes He Saw the Foundered Vessel Three Weeks Ago Bottom Side Up—Thought It a Raft.

George Beckley of the Kinau adds a number of interesting details to the information regarding the wreck on the Hawaii coast. He says that three weeks ago when the Claudine took the Kinau's route for one trip, that when they were passing Hakalau there was a very heavy swell on and their attention was attracted to the Helene, which was working under the wire at that point. "But just as they were getting away, he noticed off the port bow of the Claudine what he thought was a drifting lumber raft. He called Mate Weisborth's attention to it, and they both looked at it through glasses. With no thought of a wreck and possessed with the idea that it was a lumber raft they thought they saw ropes such as would be on a raft binding it together. However, they were going fast and the swell was heavy and they did not really get a good view of it. They did not stop for it because they were behind time and they supposed the Helene or the people on shore would see it and save it if it was worth salvage. At Hilo they made casual inquiries but did not learn of any lumber raft having broken away from there. Hearing nothing from the Helene the matter passed from their minds.

In the light of the discovery of the wreck near Kohala, Beckley thinks it quite probable that what he saw was not a raft, but a wrecked vessel bottom side up. His theory is that whatever vessel the wreck is, foundered somewhere to the eastward of Hilo, far enough to the north so that when she came near Hawaii she was far enough northward to be caught by the current running along the northern shore instead of the one running along the eastern shore, and that it was caught on the rocks near the Kohala coast where it was found.

On the last trip of the Kinau that vessel sailed within a hundred yards of the wreck and came to a stop. They could see it plainly, but were not able to make out anything more than that it was a very large wooden vessel, too large, Beckley thinks, for a schooner. The natives fishing near by told Beckley that it was a big merchantman, but they did not know the name of it. They had found some of the letters of the name, but Beckley could not learn from them what they were. Several large iron water tanks had drifted on shore, and the timbers that were broken and lodged in the rocks showed the wreck to be a large vessel. Wreckage is scattered all along the shore, as far as Hakalau.

Beckley's information and his theory harmonize with all previous information on the subject and reconcile some things particularly as to dates, which before seemed contradictory. The fact that some of the letters of the vessel's name have been found makes it very probable that Sheriff Ovenden, who has gone to the scene, will be able to learn the name of the vessel.

The idea prevails that the wreck is the schooner Emma Claudine. She is a vessel of 136 tons, while all descriptions of the wreck speak of her as a very large vessel. The Emma Claudine sailed from Mahukona in ballast, December 2nd, for Tacoma. The shipping guide of San Francisco, up to January 17th, had not reported her as arrived. Her captain is V. B. Neilson. Her last trip from Eureka to Honolulu was made in 29 days.

A SEATTLE-SYDNEY LINE

GARONNE IS THE PIONEER OF A NEW COMPANY.

Two New Steamships of American Registry to Ply Between Seattle and Australia, Touching at Honolulu.

According to the plans of the British-American line, the Garonne is only the pioneer of a through line between Seattle and Australia in competition with the Canadian-Australian line.

The Garonne is a British vessel and the capital behind the line is largely British. Frank Waterhouse is now in England arranging the finances for two new steamships to ply on this route. Though the capital interested is British, the steamships will be built in America, or at least have American registry, so as to be able to engage in the trade between Seattle and the islands, which will in all probability very soon be coastwise trade.

The Hilo Tribune in its last issue published a statement that the present is probably the last trip of the Garonne. This is emphatically denied at the office of Henry Waterhouse & Co., the agents, and the information concerning the two new vessels is given.

If the navigation laws of the United States are extended to the islands it will affect the Garonne only in the same way that it will the Occidental and Oriental ships, those of the new Japanese line and the ships of the Oceanic Steamship Company which fly the British flag.

There was quite a crowd at the dock to see the Garonne depart. The government band was there and played a number of popular airs.

The Garonne took nine bags of mail matter, but comparatively few letters.

Stearns will be the ushers. Rev. Alexander Mackintosh will be officiating clergyman. Wray Taylor will supply music. The bride will be given away by her father, C. B. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairer will sail by the Kinau at 11 o'clock for their future home in Hilo.

CANE FIELD AFIRE.

Flames Break Out on the Makee Plantation.

Purser Jacob, of the James Makee, reports that a fire broke out yesterday about noon in one of the canefields of the Makee plantation. At 2 o'clock, when the Makee left, it was still raging, though the whole plantation force was out fighting it. The field contains about one hundred acres. There has been a little rain in the past eleven months that conditions for the spread of fire are very critical. Rows of cane were being cut through the field and a trench and embankment being constructed to stop the fire. The manager of the plantation was of the opinion that the fire was started by some unfriendly laborer and not by accident.

FOUNDER'S DAY OBSERVANCE.

Tomorrow will be the birth anniversary of the late King Lunalilo, and is observed as Founder's Day at the Lunalilo Home. As usual there will be a luncheon at the home and the buildings will be thrown open to visitors. The band will play there from 1 to 3 in the afternoon.

HICKEY TRIAL WEDNESDAY

OPIUM CHARGE AGAINST WELL KNOWN HAWAIIAN.

Hundred Tins Found on His Premises at Punahou—Packed in Oil Cans—Will be a Defense.

Henry Hickey, half caste, employee of the Hawaiian Hardware Company, was before Judge Wilcox this morning on the charge of having opium in possession. James K. Kaula appeared as his attorney, and Charles Creighton was later engaged to assist the defense. On motion of Mr. Kaula the case went over to Wednesday morning.

Charles Chillingworth, deputy marshal, arrested Hickey Sunday morning. At the time the police officer had his hands full of tin cans of kerosene, which had been dug up on the premises of his prisoner at Punahou. Accused was straightway admitted to bail in the sum of $500.

For some time Chillingworth had suspected Hickey of dealing in opium. It was hard to understand how a man working for $15 a week could purchase heavily of lands and put up costly cottages. Following the matter up it was found that an unusual number of oil cans were hauled to Hickey's house at Punahou.

Saturday night Chillingworth took a long run and went to the place. He suspected that the stuff, if there, would be buried somewhere in the acre lot. With the rod the officer probed around in the grounds for six hours, and was rewarded by finding as many as ten soft places in the hard packed back of the house. Returning to town about 4 o'clock, he obtained a search warrant and took help with him to Punahou.

It was about daylight when the policemen reached the place. Hickey was in Manoa valley visiting friends. Going to the soft places he had discovered in the grounds, which were evidently of holes but recently filled up, the deputy marshal had his men dig. Out of the first was taken a kerosene can, containing one can of oil and another of opium. The ten holes were reopened. In another was found a case identical with the first. Eight holes were empty. The catch footed up exactly 100 tins.

The case was addressed to the Hawaiian Hardware Company. On each of the cans containing opium was the letter H, to distinguish it from the one carrying oil. As Hickey handled most of the freight for the concern it is easy to see how the "racket" may have been worked.

It is understood that Hickey has a defense. He may be able to prove that the contraband stuff was not his. Thus far he has not talked and will not be permitted to do so by his attorneys. The case has excited interest about the city. Hickey is well known and has many friends who deplore his predicament.

POET AND BLACKSMITH.

Saturday afternoon a local poet and a King street blacksmith had an altercation following which the man of verses was arrested for assault and battery. In the police court this morning sentence was suspended for two months.

LIQUOR DEALERS.

David Kaapa made a raid in the Kakaako neighborhood yesterday. Kino, Apl, Mahoe, Kahuahinu and Kamaliwahine were arrested. Three of them are women. In police court this morning all pleaded guilty. Sentence was suspended for thirteen months.

JOHN C. ORME.

Brother of a Noted Rough Rider is Working at Wailua.

John C. Orme, lately of Onomea, has accepted a position with the new Wailua plantation, and left by the early train this morning for his post.

The young man is a brother of Norman Orme, Company E, began riding when he was a boy, and was a Rough Rider, surviving a shot through the lungs, against the heart. It was at Las Guaymas. Orme was an orderly and carried a pistol. When the Rough Riders were attacked by the eastern cowboys he fell to the ground and began fighting tactics. Orme was lying on his stomach preparing to fire his pistol when a Mauser bullet went through his left forearm, the breast and lungs and stopped beneath the skin at the back.

The Ormes are residents of Arizona, though natives of Maryland. All their lives they have been cowboys, which peculiarly fitted the Rough Rider for the Cuban campaign. The Honolulu brother came to Hawaii about a year ago.

"Business kept me at Onomea," said John C. this morning, "or I, too, would most certainly have been with Roosevelt in Cuba."

ALWAYS THE BEST.

On every steamer Camarinos receives fresh goods from the Coast. His facilities at the Coast for securing the best on the market cannot be excelled. As for Hawaiian fruits and vegetables, he is fortunate in having a plantation of his own. When you cannot get what you wish in fruits and vegetables at Camarinos, King street, it is safe to conclude that it cannot be found in the city.

WAILUA STOCK MATTERS

PLAINTIFFS IN BIG CASE FILE NEW BILLS.

Petitions are Now Presented Separately to Meet Objections of Circuit Judge Perry.

In place of an appeal the plaintiffs in the Wailua sugar stock cases have decided to put in separate bills, to meet the objection of Circuit Judge Perry, as pointed out in his decision of last week. The object of this is to hurry the matter through the court, the result of an appeal from the first decision undoubtedly being to delay a settlement for several months.

Conforming with this conclusion three papers were served on the Wailua Agricultural Company, H. F. Dillingham and other persons named in the suit this morning. The first is signed by J. A. McCandless, the second by McCandless Brothers, and the third by J. A. Hopper. The bills are practically the same as the original. Injunctions were granted affecting the amount of stock claimed and bonds are approved.

H. Hackfeld & Co. have filed in the circuit court a petition to have A. F. Medeiros, a former partner in the firm of Medeiros & Decker, declared a bankrupt. It is claimed that respondent was indebted to petitioners in a sum more than $250 prior to October, 1898, in which month a dissolution of the firm of Medeiros & Decker was made. A bill submitted with the petition gives the exact indebtedness as $697.58.

Charles S. Desky has begun a suit against P. H. Burnett for the recovery of $223.61, alleged to be due as a balance on a house erected for respondent at Kewalo in 1897.

The annual accounts of Raymond Reyes, guardian of Henry and Mary Ann Machado and David Callahan, minors, were this morning approved by Judge Stanley.

H. M. Von Holt was this morning discharged by Judge Perry from further responsibility as administrator of the estate of the late Valdemar Knudsen, and was ordered to turn over the property remaining in his hands to Annet S. Knudsen, widow and devisee, under the will of deceased, residing at Wailua, Hawaii.

Settlement of judgment in the matter of J. Hopp & Co. vs. S. K. Kaula, was today filed. The total claim was $82.80.

CUSTOM HOUSE STATISTICS.

Notwithstanding the immense increase of business in the work of the custom house during the past year Collector McStocker is the first bureau chief to complete the statistical work of his department for the year.

The figures will be extremely interesting as showing the growth of the commerce of the islands.

DON'T WANT THE HISTORY

AN ANONYMOUS WRITER SPOILS ISLAND CHRONICLE.

Board of Education Rejects 250 Copies of Alexander's Book on Account of Impertinent Addition.

There are at the office of the board of education 250 copies of Alexander's Brief History that will never be used in the schools nor will they be sold to the public in this country. They have been officially repudiated by Professor Alexander, whose name appears as the writer of the book, and by the commissioners of education who ordered them, and are now held subject to the orders of the American Book Company which sent them out.

The cause of the trouble is this: In the back of the book is Chapter 37, purporting to be the history of the Islands from the time of the overthrow in 1855 down to the present. It is supposed to have been written by either Hinman or Allen, of the American Book Company, although no name of the contributor is given. The addition is strongly partisan, and, besides, it bristles with misstatements of the real occurrences of the past six years. Here are some of the gems from the chapter: "Immediately after the legislature was prorogued, January 14, 1893, the queen and the natives declared in favor of a new constitution."

"But the cabinet refused to sign the document, and it met such determined opposition from the whites that the queen postponed the attempt to promulgate it, declaring that she would abide by the existing constitution of 1887."

"Under the republic Mr. Dole was continued in office as president, and the constitution was so framed as to keep the power in the hands of the Reform party."

Speaking of the uprising in 1895, this terse contribution to history is affirmed:

"In the chief battle twelve insurgents were killed and several hundred captured. Hundreds more were arrested afterwards."

A closing chapter gives the brief historical facts concerning the passage of the annexation treaty and the sending of the special commission to Honolulu.

The effort of President Cleveland to restore the queen in December, 1893, is given, but in a few words: "President Cleveland recommended the restoration of the queen," says the book. "Recommended" is the word that will attract attention here.

The write up is fortunately brief. At the same time it has the ear marks of a Cleveland partisan, as well as a novice in Hawaiian historical fact. Professor Alexander is now engaged upon an addition to the school history of the islands which will shortly reach the publishers. It will form Chapter 37 of the history as it has heretofore stood.

SCORED A HUGE SUCCESSJULES WALTERS COMPANY ALL PROMISED FOR IT.Pleased an Immense Orpheum Audience Saturday Night—Some Leading Features of the Play.The Jules Walters Company scored an immense success at the Orpheum on Saturday night. There were all of 1,200 people present. About 200 had to stand and a number could not get into the building at all. Every seat in the house was occupied and the two boxes were filled.The play presented was the comedy drama "How Hopper" was Sidetracked, with Walters and Miss Louise Llewellyn as the principals. Though light in some respects the piece has strong features. There are several climaxes that draw and thrill, and the comic features are genuine.Mr. Walters was the heavy man in the play. The work of James Fulton, Charles McClure, Frank Hartwell, John Connors and all of the ladies was strong and pleasing.The first scene is laid on the Yukon in the Klondike, where Hopper is first met with. The next is in New England, "down by the sounding sea," and the third the home of Isaac Murch. The last scene is in the Keating mansion.
This leads up to the strong concluding climax.There was some good singing and specialties between the acts. At the end of the second act Jules Walters and Miss Llewellyn introduced a very laughable comedy with singing, and Miss Jefferson gave a novel specialty after the third act.The same program will be put on tonight and tomorrow night. Wednesday night there will be a change. The next play will be the four act war drama "Through the Lines." In future the curtain will rise at 8:15.Smoking and whistling in the Orpheum have been tabooed by the management. It has also been requested that ladies remove their hats in the house. These are new rules.Thomas J. King explains that the advance in admission prices at the Orpheum has been made necessary because this is a superior and an expensive company. It cost $3,000 to land the combination in Honolulu. Salaries foot up $900 a week. It is estimated that the season of four weeks will cost the local management $5,000, which is a big and risky undertaking. Mr. King feels, however, that the public will appreciate the great improvement in the class of entertainments given.TONS OF COFFEE.John M. Horner will ship forty tons

ENGINEER JAMES DELANEY.A Honolulu Man on the U. S. S. Iroquois.James Delaney, formerly a prison luna, well known about town, was around Saturday afternoon shaking hands with friends. He is an engineer on the Iroquois and wears the uniform of Uncle Sam's "navee."When the war broke out Delaney went to San Francisco to enlist on some vessel bound for the front. In this he was disappointed, however, as there were a few hundred thousand other men. Being an engineer he signed for one year on the Iroquois, the nearest thing in sight to his hopes. The Honolulu man will likely spend the remainder of his term here.HOUSE WARMING.The new paragon of the Hilo Foreign church was warmed on Tuesday evening, the regular monthly social being held there upon the invitation of Rev. and Mrs. Cruzan. The house was prettily decorated, and the verandas illuminated with a number of Japanese lanterns. Guests were received by the pastor and wife in the parlor and at 5:00 light refreshments were served.
There was no musical program. The rooms on the first floor as well as the verandas were filled with friends of the hosts.—Hawaii Herald.KODAKS*AND*CAMERAS

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 1899.

Speculation about the wreck off the Hamakua coast is not very profitable. During the week something definite may be learned. The Mauna Loa might bring telephonic information tomorrow, but it is a bare chance, for Sheriff Ovenden started for the scene of the disaster on Saturday and might not be back till late on Sunday. He would then hardly catch the Mauna Loa by telephone, at Punaluu, though of course he would have a good chance at Kailua.

The Board of Education has acted properly in repudiating 250 copies of the "Short History of the Hawaiian People," to which an unauthorized chapter had been added. It seems a very extraordinary proceeding to tamper with the text of a book published under the name of a man of such note as Professor Alexander, and never show him even the courtesy of submitting a proof to his revision. The great aim of Professor Alexander in getting up the "Short History of the Hawaiian People" was to produce a book as entirely free from prejudice as possible.

The Nicaragua canal bill came very nearly going through on the 18th. Amendment after amendment upon Senator Morgan's bill was voted down, but finally one from Senator Allison blocked the way. However, as things look now, it is likely that the bill will be successfully carried. As Commissioner S. A. Knapp said when he passed through here, it is very probable that the Nicaragua canal will be completed just in the nick of time for the Islands. It is a matter of the greatest moment to us on the Islands that the canal should be built, and when it is completed it will come as another boom in our national fortunes.

The papers are again talking about a disagreement between Sir Henry Irving and Ellen Terry. Some weeks ago Sir Henry denied it emphatically. Where two artists have been connected in their work for years, if they part they never singly do as good work as they did together. This was the case with the Gilbert and Sullivan combination. They have neither of them made singly such a success as they made when producing that wonderful series of comic operas at the Savoy theater. In the interests of dramatic art it is to be hoped the reports are not true.

CONGRESS AND TERRITORIES.

The question of expansion is bringing forward a mass of information up of the legal status of territories. The main subject of contention is, are or are not the territories directly subject to the legislative authority of the United States. Judge Morrow's decision was quoted in June by the San Francisco Argonaut, in that the judge alluded to "the now well established doctrine that the territories of the United States are entirely subject to the legislative authority of congress." This the American Law Review questioned, and among other citations quoted Justice Taney, who ruled "that Congress cannot govern the territories outside of the constitution or in disregard of those fundamental rights guaranteed by that instrument." These two quotations probably show the opposite extremes of the argument in the course of the debate now going on in Congress, but countless citations are being hunted up pro and con. When it comes to backing up an argument by citations so diametrically opposite the result may be assured. The greatest number of votes will prove which set are right, just as the god of battles sits on the side of those who have the largest battalions.

There are undoubtedly strong arguments in favor of the position taken by Judge Morrow and Senator Platt in his speech brought many of them out. Quoting Justice Bradley, in the Mormon Church case, the statement reads, "The power of Congress over the territories of the United States is general and plenary, arising from and incidental to the right to acquire the territory itself, and from the power given by the Constitution to make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States. It would be absurd to hold that the United States has power to acquire territory and no power to govern it when acquired."

Chief Justice Waite ruled in the case of the National Bank vs. County of Yankton, "Congress may not only abrogate laws of the territorial legislatures, but it may itself legislate directly for the local government. It may make a void act of the territorial legislature valid and a valid act void. In other words it has full and complete legislative authority over the people of the territories and all departments of the territorial government. It may do for the territories what the people, under the Constitution of the United States may do for the States."

The above seems to be a very comprehensive view of the powers of Congress in dealing with territories, and teaches us here exactly how we stand in relation to the United States at the present time. Whatever we do we do practically on sufferance, and upon the arbitrament of Congress depends what we shall be permitted to do. Mr. Justice Mathews, however, is even more explicit. In the case of Murphy vs. Ramsey, the justice said, "this question is no longer open to discussion. It has passed beyond the stage of controversy into final judgment." The full text of this portion is here appended.

"The people of the United States as sovereign owners of the national territories, have supreme power over them and their inhabitants. In the exercise of this sovereign dominion, they are represented by the government of the United States, to whom all powers of government over that subject have been delegated, subject only to such restrictions as are expressed in the Constitution, or are necessarily implied in its terms, or in the purposes and objects of the power itself; for it may well be admitted in respect to this, as to every power of society over its members, that it is not absolute and unlimited. But, in ordaining government for the territories and the people who inhabit them, all the discretion which belongs to legislative power is vested in Congress; and that extends, beyond all controversy, to determining by law, from time to time, the form of the local government in a particular territory, and the qualifications of those who shall administer it. It rests with Congress to say whether, in a given case, any of the people resident in the territory shall participate in the election of its officers or the making of its laws; and it may therefore take from them any right of suffrage it may previously have conferred, or at any time modify or abridge it as it may deem expedient. The right of the local self government, as known to our system as a constitutional franchise, belongs, under the Constitution, to the States and to the people thereof by whom that constitution was ordained, and to whom, by its terms, all power not conferred by it upon the government of the United States was expressly reserved. The personal and civil rights of the inhabitants of the territories are secured to them, as to other citizens, by the principles of the constitutional liberty, which restrain all the agencies of government, state and national. Their political rights are franchises which they hold as privileges in the legislative discretion of the Congress of the United States."

There is much food for thought in the quotation given. They bear upon our own case and they bear upon other cases as well. According to this one method of dealing with the Hawaiian Islands, another with Porto Rico, another with Cuba, and yet another with the Philippines can be adopted. What is done in one territory need not necessarily be done in another. It is in the province of Congress to determine just as it chooses. The locus standi for this argument seems quite incontrovertible.

Nearly everyone has heard of the famous French Coffee Pots, and many persons are now using them. We have nothing to say against them, only that they are expensive.

Believing that our customers would appreciate an article that does equally as good work and one that can be sold at a much lower figure, we imported a large quantity of Telescope Coffee Pots.

These are made on the principle of the famous French cafetieres. Inside the coffee pots is an adjustable cylinder which can be raised or lowered and maintained in position at will. Having affixed your straining cloth and raised the cylinder to the point you require, insert the ground coffee into it and pour on your boiling water. Let it stand for five minutes or so, and the result will be a perfect cup of coffee, delightfully fresh, fragrant and stimulating, and rich in color. These we keep in several sizes, ranging from a pint to two quarts, and the price is extremely reasonable.

LEASES WILL BE GRANTED

WAIHAWA TO GO TO CALIFORNIA SETTLERS.

Cabinet Decides the Matter This Morning—Kahului Wharf—Bonds for New Sewerage System.

At the cabinet session this morning it was decided to call for tenders for bonds for putting in the new sewerage system, as provided by the last legislature. This will be done at once.

The matter of extending the wharf at Kahului, Maui, came up for discussion. It is proposed by the Interior Department to make the wharf there 450 long. It is now 210. No conclusion was arrived at, though it is practically settled that the improvement will be authorized.

A petition from the colony of Southern California agriculturists for leases of the lands known as Waihawa above Pearl City, was acted upon favorably. The settlers will be given the leases they desire with the right of purchase later.

Waihawa is on the high table land between Ewa and Wainana, opposite the Lihuehwa ranch on the Waihawa road. The whole tract has been surveyed, plotted and divided between the members of the colony, of whom fourteen are men. All are married except one. They are all experienced in fruit growing and agriculture and horticulture in all their branches.

The colony proposes establishing a reservation in the middle of the tract. It is proposed to experiment there in the cultivation of all fruits grown in California, and the settlers believe that all will flourish in this climate.

The cabinet thought most favorably of the project. President Dole and Attorney General Smith, who looked over the place last Thursday, recommended that the petition be granted. On motion the land department was authorized to act in the matter. Waihawa formerly belonged to the board of education, but was a year or two ago turned over to the government.

ANOTHER ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement of L. M. Whitehouse, the well known contractor, and member of the firm of Wilson & Whitehouse, to Miss Harrison, of Davenport, Ia., was announced today. Miss Harrison is now visiting Honolulu. The wedding will take place on the evening of St. Valentine's day, February 14th next.

THE PROS AND CONS OF CREMATION.

In regard to the objection raised against cremation by members of the medical and legal profession that poison cannot be detected in the ashes, Dr. Louis Windmuller says that this view is now generally abandoned, and considers that in suspicious cases intestines might be preserved before the rest of the corpse is consigned to the furnace, but that in any case fire will scarcely consume a mineral poison. Here the writer seems, the Lancet thinks, to underrate the heat of the furnace usually employed, under which many minerals would certainly be volatilized. If objections of this kind are, however, raised, they apply equally to earth burial; apparently to insure his safety a murderer has only to say that when mineral poison is found in the stomach of a disinterred body which has been embalmed, it cannot be considered a conclusive proof of crime, because the fluid injected into such bodies usually contains arsenic.

The cleanest, brightest and really the best run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe, nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "There are figures for wiring my house, and I want to see at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came on my wife's head and I take no more risks." "This is the sentiment of quite a number in Honolulu," said the manager. "Just think it over and make up your mind. You want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want."

CONUNDRUM BANQUET GIVEN ON MAUI.

Unique Entertainment Given by the Makawao Ladies' Aid Society—Was a Great Success—The Music.

MAUI, January 28.—The Conundrum banquet, given by the Makawao Ladies' Aid Society last night in the new Pail hall, was a great success from all points of view. The clear moonlight night added much to the success of the event, as it was almost impossible for people to remain at home, with a little attraction to draw them.

Superintendent Berg of the railroad company, ran a free train from Kahului, stopping at Spreckelsville, and the turn out from those villages was large, which added to the Makawao contingent filled the hall to overflowing, and standing room was at a premium.

The platform at the end of the hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion, the back being banked high with greens, and potted palms, maiden hair ferns and bouquets of flowers set about at the most advantageous points. Down the hall two long tables were placed, upon which, and also upon the piano, were clusters of roses. Seats for over a hundred were ranged in rows on both sides of the tables.

Preceding the banquet a most delightful and pleasing musical program was rendered, in each number the participants being obliged to respond to an encore. The program was as follows:

Military March—Return of the Heroes.
Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, Miss Schweizer, Vocal Solo—Selected.
Miss Simpson.
Recitation—Wynken, Blynken and Nod.
Miss Kittle Johnson.
Violin Solo—Serenade.
Miss Watson.
Vocal Solo—Selected.
Miss Allen.
Piano Solo—Venetian Boat Song.
Mozart.

Mrs. W. O. Alken, Miss Schweizer. Mrs. W. O. Alken's first appearance in Makawao, and the audience showed a keen appreciation of her effort, as also they did of the other numbers on the program, the applause being general all over the house.

After the program followed the supper, during which the audience was entertained with band and a variety of other music from George Steber's gramophone. It was greatly enjoyed. The bill of fare was a conundrum indeed, some being obliged to go through the whole of it to get what they wanted. Some of the dishes on it were: New England Brains, What Asthma? People Are Intoxicated, Boston's Downthrow, Salmagundi, What a Boy Calls His Sweetheart, Unruly Member, A Wise Beverage, Etc.

Each person was entitled to three dishes, after which they were charged 5 cents each. A number of the district's young ladies acted as waitresses, and a lively time ensued as the dishes were brought on.

About $80 was cleared in all, and much credit is due to Mrs. W. E. Shaw who had the affair in charge.

PRICES TOO HIGH.

PAIA, January 28.—The auction of Government lands advertised for today did not result in any sales. The lands are situated at Kohakuloa. Some half dozen Hawaiians prepared to bid were present, but they all came to the conclusion that the prices asked were too high for the quality of the land, and no bids were made.

MAUI PERSONALS.

MAUI, January 28.—J. P. Cooke and G. P. Wilder came up to Kihel on the Helene, Wednesday, and have been looking over the new plantation.

William Thompson, of T. H. Davies & Co., is doing the Island this week, with a wagon load of samples.

Dr. Goote, the dentist, is at Kawanae Resort, Makawao, for a few weeks stay.

Cold weather has been the order here lately, a fall of snow occurring on Haleakala's summit during last night.

Bailey's Bike Bits

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO BICYCLISTS, BUYERS AND READERS.

The signs are that prices on well known makes of wheels will be cut, and cut deep. One very large maker has made a cut of 33-3 per cent, and at the same time advertises the fact that '99 wheels will be the same as '98, with 30 inch wheels as an extra line at $5.00 more.

With cheap bikes and good, the trade may be said to have only just begun in the matter of quantity of sales. One hundred wheels at $40.00 can be sold where one would sell at $100, or even $75. Always we have the cheapest bike in town. A good second hand bike for $15.00. Good for a track or to learn on. Good value any way, anywhere.

A special feature made of contracts to repair punctures and to clean your wheel for $1 per month.

UPON CABLE PROSPECTS

WAS MR. SCRYMSEY RUNNING A BLUFF?

People Have Lived On Desolate Guano Islands, and Telegraph Operators May Have To Do the Same Thing.

Editor Star: I have no antipathy whatever to Mr. Scrymsey and heartily wish him success in his Pacific cable projects, at least, if his is the best company to carry them out, which seems quite probable. At the same time, the language he is reported to have used here the other day gives the impression of bluffing, and rather transparently at that.

The Bulletin reports Mr. Scrymsey as saying that "there is going to be a cable across the Pacific, but it will go by way of Alaska before it comes to Hawaii." He evidently means to give the impression that very liberal government subsidies will be needed to make the cable come this way. Alaska has the inside track, as to facility of construction and convenience of management. Now this may be so, or it may be merely talk.

Mr. Scrymsey went on to disparage such possible stations as Wake Island by saying: "Whatever islands this cable is landed on must be inhabited islands on which you can put men of families with some of the elements of civilization. Telegraph operators are gentlemen who cannot be confined upon desolate islands. The islands needed for cable stations ought to have more or less frequency of steam communication."

How has it been that gentlemen and their families have often been found to reside upon guano islets, far from civilized intercourse? And how then did the British government contemplate stationing telegraph operators on such a desolate rock as Necker Island? But if comfort and accessibility are essential in telegraph stations, how about those Aleutian Islands which Mr. Scrymsey expects to be used for the purpose? We are not accustomed to think of those cold, desolate, tempestuous islands as well adapted for comfortable human habitation.

Apparently the great cable projector is not unused to allowing considerable latitude to his talk when he has an object in view. One is apt to suspect that some allowance must be made for the difficulty he alleges as to getting a right to land a cable at all at Manila. One thing is evident, that Mr. Scrymsey sees a very good thing in the business of laying a cable across the Pacific and means to get the job, which is not a bad thing for Hawaii.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

NOTICE.

In the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit, Republic of Hawaii, in Admiralty.

W. J. Smith, et al., vs. The Steamship "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture.

To A. M. Brown, Esq., Marshal of the Republic of Hawaii.

Greeting: Whereas under a venditioni expositio issued of this Court, on the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1899, you were directed and commanded to sell at public auction on the 16th day of January, A. D. 1899, the steamship "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture, at the upset price of $23,465.62.

And whereas your return and report of your proceedings had under said venditioni expositio, shows that on the 16th day of January, A. D. 1899, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon of said day, you did offer said "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture, for sale at public auction at the upset price of $23,465.62.

And whereas said report shows that there were no bidders and no sale of said steamship "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture, at that time.

Now therefore, you the said Marshal, are further commanded and directed to sell said steamship "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture, at public auction, at the Station House, Kalakaua Hale, District of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, on the 21st day of February, A. D. 1899, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon of said day, without reserve, to the highest bidder for cash, after having first given ten days notice of such sale by advertising in the Pacific Commercial Advertiser and Hawaiian Star, newspapers published daily (except Sundays) in the District of Honolulu.

And further you are commanded before making sale of said vessel as aforesaid to advertise the sale thereof in the cities of San Francisco, California; Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Washington, and any other cities of the United States or near the Pacific Coast, as in your judgment seems to be proper, said advertisements to be so timed as to allow bidders from said cities of the United States to appear and bid at said auction as aforesaid.

And you are further ordered and commanded that immediately after the said sale as aforesaid, you have and pay the money arising from the same pursuant to this order, to Henry Smith, Clerk of the Judiciary Department of the Hawaiian Islands, with an account of your charges and expenses, and have you then and there this writ, with your return thereon.

Witness, the Honorable A. Perry, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit of the Republic of Hawaii, this 24th day of January, A. D. 1899.

(Sig.) A. PERRY,
First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit.

Attest:
(Seal.) P. D. KELLET, Clerk.

By virtue of the above writ to me issued on the 24th day of January, A. D. 1899, I will sell at Public Auction, at the Station House, Kalakaua Hale, in the District of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, to the highest bidder, at 12 o'clock noon of Tuesday, the 21st day of February, A. D. 1899, the steamship "City of Columbia," her boats, boilers, engines, tackle, apparel and furniture.
