Courts in all cases involving the person or property of a subject of the Hawaiian Islands.

is the conclusive presumption trial. The defendant demurred to the indictment and submits that

ON THE first page is printed, by authority, a decision of the Supreme Court in banco, relative to the jurisdiction of that Court in a suit in which Young Quai was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, the trial of which indictment commenced in the Police Court, and was transferred to the Supreme Court, for reasons stated in the decision. The case possesses interest chiefly on account of the novelty of the demurrer raised by defendant's counsel.

THE attention of our readers is called to a communication from our Kohala correspondent containing a full account of the Chinese disturbances at Kohala. It is a tale of outrage and wrong which if true, must stir the indignation of every man to whom fair play and justice are more than words. If true, we say, for there are generally as many sides to a transaction as parties to it and here one must count, it would seem, the parties by the hundred. It is to be hoped that the facts will be thoroughly and impartially investigated at an early date, so that the guilty, if there are any such, may be punished and justice vindicated. At present, we purposely refrain from any comment.

THE CHINESE TROUBLE AT KOHALA.

[From our own Correspondent.]

Some of the late instalment of Chinese on the Hawai and Union Mill Plantations, being dissatisfied with the small amount remaining to them from their pay after deduction of Government deposit and proportion of passage money, claiming it was insufficient to support them, went to consult Mr. Asen, who had brought them out from China, to see if some modification could not be effected in the contract. On their way to see Mr. Asen they called at the Kohala Plantation and prevailed on some of their fellow passengers there to join them.

The course of events thereafter, as nearly as they could be ascertained from various sources, appears to have been about as follows:

Arriving at Mr. Asen's, about a hundred in number, they waited until he had returned from church and made known the purpose of their visit to him. There was no expression of anger nor any demonstration of a lawless nature. They willingly consented to wait until Monday and then meet at the court house for a general consultation, and some forty or more of them camped on the ground for the night.

On Monday morning a little disturbance was raised by a stone or two being cast into their midst by some native boys, but this was soon quelled by Mr. Asen's native employees and some policemen whom he had summoned for protection, two or three of the Chinese receiving bruises, not serious.

Proceeding to the court house, 300 of them more or less, waited in vain for Mr. Asen to appear until late in the afternoon, and were then advised by their employers to go quietly home and see what could be done the next day. Many of them had done so, but others held on until late. Being prevailed on at last, they were permitted by the deputy sheriff to leave the court yard in squads which turned off in different directions toward their plantations. Being well away on the Government road, one of these three squads apparently became uneasy at seeing themselves closely followed by the deputy and a large number of plantation natives who had been impressed as special police and armed with bullock whips, and one or two of the men stopped to pick up a stone. They immediately found themselves in the midst of a general onslaught, being ruthlessly over-ridden and welled with the bullock whips.

Bolting through the fences as fast as possible, they disappeared in the cane fields, but these valiant masters of the bullock whip were not satisfied. One quarter mile make of the road, a number of houses occupied by men who had taken the advice of their luna and stayed at home, where they were quietly enjoying themselves in various ways; among them was a sick man in his bed. The Whip Brigade made a break, by the shortest routes, for these houses, demolishing every window, strewn the premises inside and out with stones, seized every Chinaman they came across, and yanked forty or more by their queues to the leper cells, where they were summarily crowded in. Chinamen were seen with their tails twisted about the pommel of a saddle, dragged at a gallop. The sick man found himself dangling at the end of a horse, under the arm of a native, like a helpless slab of beef. All their clothing was appropriated by the mob.

Mr. Editor, this sounds like a terribly rough tale of events in heathen China, not in civilized Hawaii—save the name—but disinterested spectators are good witnesses, and your correspondent will venture to say that the foregoing statements will be fully substantiated on any honest investigation, and that, too, by white witnesses, and that the sentiment of this community will approve the most rigid investigation and visitation of justice upon this lawless mob.

A trial was held the following day, Tuesday, and the Court released some fifty battered Chinamen with good advice, and it is said by their friends that even now they have no complaint to make against the Government or the plantations, but want to find Mr. Asen and his two sub-agents, who have disappeared with all their belongings, his house being now under the protection of the police, but they will send home such reports as will prevent any further immigration of Chinese to this country. They insist that the interpreters on the ship at Mahukona interpreted falsely.

Had Mr. Asen kept his appointment with these men, much trouble might have been avoided, but his knowledge of Chinese character appears to have induced him to face three or four hundred dissatisfied countrymen, even under the protection of forty or fifty bullock whips.

Kohala, August 31.

AT REST.

The Prince Consort Borne to the Tomb.

ORDER OF THE PROCESSION

Scenes in the Palace and the Royal Mausoleum.

Sunday, the sixth of September, the day fixed for the burial of John O. Dominis, the Prince Consort, dawned fair and cloudless. The morning was warm, but as the hour of noon approached, the trade wind began to blow, tempering the heat of a day which otherwise would have been sultry. The preliminary service was held as announced at half past twelve in the Throne Room of the Palace, and as the time fixed drew near, the notables of the Kingdom—Princes, Judges, Members of the Privy Council, the representatives of friendly states—gathered to pay the last earthly honors to the deceased.

The coffin of the Prince Consort was placed in the centre of the Throne Room upon a raised foundation covered below by a cloth of blue satin and above by a rich yellow robe. Upon the latter rested the coffin itself, and over it was thrown a heavy mantle with broad alternate bands of red and yellow feathers. The coffin itself is a magnificent piece of work from the shops of C. E. Williams, made entirely of kon and koa, the body being of the latter, and the trimmings of the former wood. It contained more than two hundred pieces in all and the sides and ends were magnificent specimens of Hawaiian wood. The plate, a fine piece of artistic work, came from Huhah. It is a piece of solid silver about ten inches long in the shape of a lyre. At the top was the Hawaiian coat-of-arms raised and done in colors, surmounted by a crown. At the bottom was placed a Masonic emblem also in colors, and between these two decorations was engraved the inscription surmounted by a wreath of green gold.

At each of the four corners of the bear were placed emblems of earthly pride and honor—the emblem of the sword and hat of the Governor of Oahu, and those of one high in rank among the Knight Templars—at the foot Hawaiian and foreign orders and decorations. On each side of the princely bier stood five Hawaiians wearing on their shoulders the short feathered cloaks which constitute the emblem of their office, and waved their small kabilis with the strange slow motion peculiarly characteristic of royal obsequies in Hawaii. The four corners were occupied by Majors Boyd, Cornwell, Bertelmann and Holt, the personal staff of the Governor of Oahu, clothed in full uniforms and helmeted in nodding plumes. Outside of all were placed the tall kabilis enclosing a large square in the center of the room.

Each kabilis sprang from a mass of roses, and at the foot of the bier were beautiful flowers and wreaths, ferns and roses, red, yellow and white, and—crowning all the beauty by a beauty more perfect—a harp, all in marigolds, above it two white doves stretching their wings for flight. Parallel with three of the lines set apart for Her Majesty's Ministers, the Justices of the Supreme Court, Members of the Privy Council and Legislative Assembly, the Diplomatic and Consular Representatives of Foreign Countries and Heads of Government Bureaus. Specific places were reserved for each class of dignitaries, but the arrangements were not rigidly adhered to. Among those present were the Hon. A. F. Judd, Chief Justice and Chancellor of the Kingdom, Hon. R. F. Bickerton, Judge of the Supreme Court, Her Excellencies Sam'l Parker, Minister of Foreign Affairs, C. N. Spencer, Minister of the Interior, J. Mott-Smith, Minister of Finance, W. Austin Whiting, Attorney-General, His Excellency J. L. Stevens, U. S. Minister Plenipotentiary; Senhor A. de Souza Canavarro Charge d'Affaires and Consul-General of Portugal; Major J. H. Wodehouse, British Commissioner; Hon. G. M. G. Bosseront d'Anglade, Commissioner, and Mon. Vizzavona, Chancellor of the French Legation; Mr. Masaki, Diplomatic Agent and Consul for Japan; F. A. Schaefer, J. M. Hackfeld, H. F. Glade, H. Renjes, H. W. Severance, J. H. Paty, and others, being consular representatives of Italy, Belgium, Russia, Germany, Sweden, Mexico, Spain, the United States of America, the Netherlands and other countries.

Among the members of the Privy Council present were: Col. W. F. Allen, J. O. Carter, W. D. Alexander, J. T. Waterhouse, J. B. Atherton, S. M. Damon, A. N. Tripp, G. E. Beckley, J. Ena, A. Fernandez, W. G. Irwin, H. Kihichani, J. Richardson, Paul Isenberg, John A. Cummins, and others. Among the members of the Legislature were: Hon. J. S. Walker, W. E. Rice, J. M. Horner, E. C. Macfarlane, H. P. Baldwin, C. O. Berger, H. A. Widemann.

At 12:40 p. m. Her Majesty entered the Throne Room, accompanied by the two young Princes, Prince Kawanakoa and Prince Kahanakoa, and the Ladies of her Court. All rose while the Queen, clothed in deep mourning, proceeded to the head of the bier and took her place there, one of the princes on her left hand and the other on her right. The services began with choral singing by ten white-robed girls from Kawaihauo Seminary accompanied by Miss Patch at the piano. The selection was the well-known hymn "My faith looks up to thee."

The Rev. Dr. Beckwith read selections from the 90th and other psalms, and also the last verses of the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians. Prayer was followed by a hymn sung by the Kawaihauo chorists—"Nearer my God to Thee, nearer to Thee"—and close upon the hymn came the benediction.

The withdrawal of the Queen and her attendants, was the signal for the dispersion of the assembly, and the pallbearers proceeded to their melancholy work, bearing the splendid coffin out of the door and down the steps of the Palace to the hearse—accompanied by a strain of mournful music. The Queen followed and was followed by the Princes, and after a brief delay, the royal train moved on, the minute guns sounded and the solemn procession wended its slow way along King street and up Nuuanu avenue to the Mausoleum. The following was the Order of Procession.

AT THE MAUSOLEUM.

The remains arrived at the Royal Mausoleum about half past two o'clock. Her Majesty the Queen, with the Princes Kawanakoa and Kahanakoa, entered the building attended by Major Robertson, the Chamberlain, and took their seats at the foot of the bier prepared to receive the coffin. They were followed by Her Majesty's Ministers, members of the Legislature, Privy Council and the staff officers. Behind the Queen stood Col. Baker and Capt. Liliuokalani, bearing the late Prince's jewels. The interior of the Mausoleum was fragrant with the perfume of choice flowers of all colors, some made into the most beautiful designs.

After the royal mourners were all seated, the remains were carried from the hearse to the bier in the Mausoleum, which was alongside the coffin of his late Majesty Kalakaua, in the centre of the building. On the coffin were placed the late Prince's sword, etc.

The Rev. Dr. Beckwith broke the mournful silence by offering up a prayer committing the body to its last resting place, and then pronouncing the benediction. This was followed by the singing of the hymn "Abide with me," beautifully rendered by the Kawaihauo Seminary chorists.

Then followed the imposing ceremonies of Masonic Lodge Le Progress. The members of the Lodge, with members from Hawaiian Lodge and visiting brethren, marched in slow procession into the Mausoleum to the strains of soft music from the organ presided at by Mr. Wray Taylor, organist of St. Andrew's Cathedral, who also played at other portions of the beautiful ceremony. After the members had taken their positions around the coffin, Bro. John Phillips, in distinct tones, commenced the service by reading "Once more, my brethren, have we assembled to perform the last sad and solemn duties to the dead. The mournful notes which betoken the departure of a spirit from its earthly tabernacle have again alarmed our outer door, and another has been taken to swell the numbers in that unknown land whither our fathers have gone before us." etc. This was followed by the invocations rehearsed by Bro. J. T. Downey, the members responding "So mote it be." Bro. Downey laid the white apron on the coffin, after which the brethren moved three times around it in procession, each depositing on it a sprig of evergreen as he passed the head. The great grand honors were given three times by the brethren saying, "The will of God is accomplished. So mote it be. Amen."

Bro. David Dayton continued the service as follows: "From time immemorial it has been the custom among the fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons, at the request of a brother, to accompany his remains to the place of interment, and here to deposit them with the usual formula of the craft," etc. The prayer commencing, "Almighty and eternal God in whom we live, and more, and have our being; and before whom all men must appear," was most impressively read by Bro. the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, the brethren, at the conclusion, responding, "So mote it be."

Brother Peck, advancing to the head of the coffin, said: "Soft and safe to you, my brother, be this earthly bed. Bright and glorious be thy rising from it," etc. Bro. the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh pronounced the benediction; then the brethren sang the funeral hymn:

Solemn strikes the funeral chime,
Notes of our departing time;
As we journey here below,
Through a pilgrimage of woe.

This concluded the service, which was of the most solemn and grand character throughout. The brethren retired from the Mausoleum immediately after the singing of the hymn. Three volleys were fired by the household troops. Her Majesty remained alone in the Mausoleum fifteen minutes after the Masonic service was over, and the doors of the building were closed on the dead a few minutes later. Headed by the band, the military and firemen marched back to town.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd.

MONDAY, Sept. 7.

The hot weather last week knocked every semblance of inspiration out of the advertisement writer's head, but business goes along just the same, no matter how the weather is.

And hot weather creates stronger desires than ever for ice cream. Make it at home then and save money. The time don't count to your servants, and thirteen minutes is not very long, anyhow, to freeze cream. That's what the White Mountain Freezer will do, and do it well, too.

Barefooted Bill still keeps on his travels and you have not yet bought a Safe—probably. After he gets into the house or store, walks off with everything but your family, you'll calculate to get one. Better do it now and save money. Don't postpone the matter, because someone says in the papers "We must have detectives." Suppose they get 'em, will they get the burglar? We think not. A detective from the Coast would not amount to shucks. Better not wait longer, buy a Safe now.

More Water Coolers arrived since we told you of them a few weeks ago. The last notice we inserted was a suggestion which lots of people acted upon. And they've been acting upon it ever since, so we had to buy more.

There will be more weddings shortly, and you may not have thought much about presents. What about the Brass Tables with onyx tops that we have. A beautiful ornament and useful, too, if you want to put a vase of flowers or a statuette on it.

We have other things just as useful and pretty, for such occasions. Come in and look around. There's always some one to wait upon you whether you purchase or not.

We said something about a lot of new lamps to arrive last week. They didn't come, but they'll be here this week, sure. We have plenty as it is, but this is a new lot. We can suit you in lamps if any one can.

Stoves, Ranges, Tinware and Agateware are things used every day. We have been careful in our selection of the stock we offer, and we believe we have the largest and best assortment of these goods in Honolulu. From the quantities sold, we believe the public thinks with us. There's scarcely a utensil made in Agateware that we have not on our shelves. It is cheaper, better and cleaner than anything manufactured for the same purposes.

If you've been buying any pictures lately you will want to hang them. Be careful in selecting the cord for the purpose. Get the best in the beginning and you will avoid broken frames. We have a wire cord made especially for a climate like this, and is guaranteed not to rust or break.

It's the same with everything else, you get good value in everything you buy.

OREGON KIDNEY TEA

Is the Most Wonderful Medical Discovery Modern Times.

CURES BACKACHE

—AND—

KIDNEY TROUBLE

It is strictly a vegetable production and will not injure the smallest nor the most delicate woman, but will cure pain in the back and kidneys, retention of urine, diabetes, inflammation of the bladder or kidneys, blood deposit in urine, leucorrhoea, painful or suppressed menstruation, nervous and all complaints arising from a diseased or debilitated state of the urinary organs of either sex.

Many mistake the pains arising from defective action of the kidneys, rheumatism, and in attempting to cure the latter by outward applications entirely to reach the seat of the disease. We do not offer the OREGON KIDNEY TEA as a specific for rheumatism, but are satisfied that many cases called rheumatism would yield to its remedial virtues.

The leaf is put up in air tight tin caddies which preserve intact its properties and the decoction is made by the person using it, thus securing solute purity.

There are thousands afflicted with diseases of the kidneys or urinary who suffer in silence rather than make known their troubles. Others seek by the use of various patent medicines, which, if they do not aggravate the case, at least do not lessen it. Even those who secure the advice of physicians often fail to get relief, owing to the very complicated and delicate nature of organs affected.

CHIN HEE VS. HO KAM YE.

APPEAL FROM DECISION OF JUDD, C. J.

BEFORE JUDD, C. J., BICKERTON AND DOLE, J. J. (M'CULLY, J., ABSENT.)A plea in abatement, on the ground of infancy, sustained.

OPINION OF THE COURT PER BICKERTON, J.

This is a bill in equity for relief
under the Act "to regulate the relief passage of water over the lands of those not benefited thereby." The defendant pleads in abatement on the grounds that the plaintiff, Chin Hee, is an infant of the age of four or five years. The Court sustained this plea of infancy, and the plaintiff appeals to this Court.

There is no question of law involved in this case; it is simply a question of fact to be found on the evidence, viz: Is Chin Hee, the plaintiff in this case, the infant son of Wai Lam? and was a certain lease made to the said infant, or was the said person Ah Yeong Ho, who presented himself to the Court as plaintiff, the person to whom the lease was made? The Chief Justice found the facts to be as follows:

"I am of the opinion on the evidence that the real plaintiff is Chin Hee, the son of Wai Lam, aged about four years.

"The Chinaman who personated 'Chin Hee,' and who signed the complaint in this case and swore to it before Mr. Carter, the notary, is known as Ah Ho, his full Chinese name being Ah Yeong Ho. The lease in question, which created the estate in Waimalu, Ewa, concerning which relief is asked by this complaint, was made to 'Chin Hee,' son of Wai Lam, the infant referred to.
This was testified to by Wai Lam himself in a certain road controversy last year, at Ewa, before the Commissioner of Private ways.

"This is a bold attempt by Ah Ho to impose upon the Court."

Upon a careful review of the evidence, which is conflicting in its nature, we are of the opinion that the findings of fact by the Court below is well sustained by the evidence.

The plea is sustained and the appeal dismissed.

R. Castle for defendant.
