WHY THE Equitable Life

Assurance Society of the United States is the best company with which to Assure.

I.—Because of its Safety.
Its surplus is larger than that of any other assurance company.

II.—Because of its Promptness.
Of 1,043 death claims paid in 1885, nearly one-half were paid the very day proofs were received; while of the remaining, the majority were paid within the following three days. No other company can show such a record.

III.—Because of its Liberality and Reforms.

All policies are INCONTESTABLE after three years. All incontestable policies are payable immediately upon receipt of proofs of death. The Society's policy contract is clear and simple, and liberal in its conditions. Its Non-forfeiting Tontine (or Seal-Tontine) policy affords all the ultimate benefits of the full Tontine, and has during its earlier years the surrender value and other material advantages of ordinary life policies.

IV.—Profit.

No other company is paying on its policies, as large profits as are shown under the Equitable's matured Tontine policies with fifteen-year periods. Persons desiring assurance may obtain estimates of the probable results of similar policies, and of policies with twenty-year terms, which are expected to show even larger profits.

V.—Prospective Advantages.

The unexampled progress of the Equitable in the past is the best guarantee of the increasing future value of assurance with the Equitable.

IS IT WISE OR FOOLISH?

Has the legislation of this country regulating the sale and use of intoxicants been wise or foolish? Until three or four years ago it was unlawful to sell liquors of an intoxicating nature to native Hawaiians. The foreigner of any nationality was at liberty to buy and imbibe without restraint. The abrogation of the restrictive law, four years ago, and the enactment of a statute which made intoxicants as free to the man of native blood and birth as to the man from another country, were believed or said by some to be wise and enlightened measures, while others held that they were acts of folly that would prove injurious to, and destructive of, the Hawaiian people.

Certainly, the law, as it was, was partial. It bore the stigma of class legislation, and in a country where all are supposed to be "free and equal," legislation of that particular nature is not consistent with the supposition. According to this theory, then, what was done was right. As to the correctness of the theory, that is another question, and a question supportable by plain facts and strong arguments on the negative side.

But this is not the question now up for discussion. Was the legislation referred to wise or foolish? Its wisdom or its folly must be decided by its results. This is the only common-sense method of settling the matter satisfactorily to the practical mind. How has the free liquor law affected the Hawaiian? Has legalizing its use to him induced him to use it? or has he declined to avail himself of the freedom allowed? or, availing himself of the right to use intoxicants, does he maintain the character of a sober man, or has he acquired habits of intemperance? Putting it in a slightly different form, admitting that prohibition did not entirely prohibit and that Hawaiians procured and used intoxicating liquors under the old law, has the new law been productive of greater use and an increase of drunkenness.

Any man who has lived a few years in the country, has moved among the natives, and was familiar with their habits before the removal of restriction as well as since, will find no difficulty in answering these questions. If he be an honest and candid man he will confess that free liquor has been a curse to the native people, and is doing a sad work of demoralization and destruction among them.

It cannot be truthfully denied that a large proportion of the weekly earnings of the laboring classes that should be, and formerly was, expended on food, clothes, and other necessities and comforts of life, now goes to the liquor saloon. Many a poor wife and many an ill-clad child are robbed of proper support to satisfy the thirst for strong drink. Let anyone walk along Nuuanu street, between King and Hotel streets, and along Hotel street, from Nuuanu to Fort street, any time between the hours of 7 and 11 of a Saturday night, and he will see what becomes of a considerable portion of the week's hard earnings. Besides, he will see crowds of half-intoxicated brawlers, composed largely of young men, and hear blasphemy enough to shock the feelings of anyone who has one remaining vestige of sensibility.

Apologists of the free liquor law admit the increase of public drunkenness, but hold that there is a corresponding decrease of secret drinking and home carousing and debauchery. They are ignorant of what they talk about. The fact is, there has been as great, if not greater, growth of the secret evil. And this is worse than the other, because it embraces and debauches women and children.

Officials may sit in their offices, merchants in their counting-houses, and editors at their desks, and walk or drive between their places of duty and their places of residence, for years, without gaining the faintest idea of the sad results of the free liquor law among the Hawaiian people. But a few months', weeks', or even days' personal experience acquired by visitation of their homes and observation of their habits, will convince an honest truth-seeking man, that there is no exaggeration in the foregoing.

There was never yet an aboriginal race allowed free use of the white man's fire-water, which was not enslaved or ruined thereby, either wholly or in part, and there is every indication that future ages will not be able to point to the Hawaiian as an exception.

A DIALOGUE BETWEEN A KAMAAINA AND A HACK-DRIVER.

RELATED BY A "DAILY BULLETIN" REPRESENTATIVE.

Yesterday, one of our ubiquitous reporters met a genuine old Kamaaina, who had just returned from a spin East and back again. After a hearty shake of the hand and an earnest and feeling exchange of alohas, Mr. K. (as we will term the Kamaaina for the present) said he was "mighty glad to get to his island home again." To use his own words, as nearly as can be remembered, no note book being used on the occasion, Mr. K. spoke to the following effect, interjecting here and there, a few forcible, but expressive, adjectives which the writer deems proper to omit—says he, "The States is a way-up place to go to, 'specially if one has a few friends of the right sort. My home is in Idaho—a fine country for those who can stand the cold, but I found it altogether too rarified to suit my taste precisely. The old folks were surprised, and so were the young ones, when I spoke of going home. I couldn't stand it any longer. I was getting all frozen up. I was becoming lank and wiry, like a full-fledged Yankee. My mother, God bless her, says, 'Why, you are at home now; what do you mean by saying you are going home?' I looked at my dear mother and said: 'Idaho, or anywhere in the neighborhood of the Rockies is unfit any longer to be my home. In my younger days, as you well know, mother, I went westward. I chose my own lot in life, so to speak, and went still further westward. I at last reached the Sandwich Islands. Upon landing at Honolulu, I was so impressed with the people, both native and Anglo-Saxon, that I determined to remain amongst them for a while. I did so and have now become a Kamaaina, which translated means an old resident.'"

At this point of the reporter's interview, the speaker was interrupted by a hack-driver belonging to the United Carriage Company, (for we were still at E. O. Hall's corner). Here ensued the dialogue, between K. and the hack-driver, whom we will designate H.

H.—How are you, Mr. K., glad to see you back again in Honolulu? why, it must be about 6 years since you sailed in the bark Kalakaua for the Coast, never to return again.

K.—Right you are, old boy. In '80, I took a trip in the old Kalakaua with skysail-yard junks, (by the way I hear he is going a whaling this year), and after 30 days of purgatory listening to the old sea dog's yarns, we entered the Golden Gate. What followed, I will relate to you by-and-by. I want just now to take a ride out to see an old friend. Where's your hack?

R.—Right here sir, please step inside.

K.—Why that ain't a hack, that's a carriage too high toed altogether; why where in the world did you raise the coin to get such a handsome turnout as that?

R.—Mr. K.—I have saved money but I am a poor man to-day, if you can understand the paradox. After I left General Conly's employ, for whom I drove about 14 months, (you remember that span of California horses) I made an application for a license to drive a hack. Before it was granted I had to obtain references from three gentlemen of standing in this city, certifying as to my capability of driving a hack. In this matter I had no difficulty being well-known about town as driver for the General. I saved more money. I don't drink. I saved enough to buy a horse and carriage. I became my own boss, and to-day, I own three carriages, the other two being equal to this one. Before stepping in Mr. K.—take a look at the vehicle and the horse. The whole turnout cost me $810—as also did the other two, making a total outlay of $2,430. I paid $500 for each carriage—$750 for three horses, $45 for each set of harness, $5 for each whip, and $5 for each carriage rug. In addition, I have three more horses in the stable to change when necessary. I do not grumble at my apparent success, but I and others have just reason to complain of the unfair competition we have to contend against. Licenses to drive, are, it would appear, granted to any one, and it is in that connection that we hack-men sometimes feel aggrieved. I am proud to tell you Mr. K.—that I never had a runaway nor an accident of any serious nature whilst driving myself. I am bashful and cannot tell you everything, but one thing I can say, I am more frequently "rung up" for, than any member of the company.

K.—Good boy R.—Let's jump in and finish the yarn as we jog along.

The reporter bid his friend good day and here ended the dialogue as far as he was concerned.

THE BURGOMASTER'S REMEDY.

A gourmand who was attracted to the "Beaver" by Nolte's advertisement in the DAILY BULLETIN, ordered a dozen right away. He smacked his lips over the bivalves and was about to order a third dozen, when he was seized with a slight pain in the lower regions. He flew to the counter for relief. Sir Henry J. Nolte was there, and ready to prescribe or administer an antidote. He turned to the shelf behind, inserted his digits in a newly imported box and drew forth a "Pride of Pacific" cigar. It was ignited at the proper end, and inhaled by the suffering oyster fiend and relief was immediately effected. With a feeling of gratitude he (the gourmand) asked Mein Herr for a full box of his regalias so as not to be without a specific remedy on a future occasion.

MORAL—"Enough is as good as a feast." The fact is Mr. Nolte has cigars from 5 cts. up to 25 cts. each. For Xmas presents there is nothing more suitable for a lady to present to a gentleman. Her ladyship will then probably have an opportunity of inhaling by means of her olfactory organ, the delicious aroma of a genuine favorite.

HAMAKUA ITEMS.

The steamer Waialeale takes the first load of sugar (some 2,000 bags) of this new season's grinding, from Honokaa, to-day.

The weather for the last week has been very bad along the coast. Several days the steamer could not work.

As usual, the Tax Books are behind time. The Hamakua folks were prepared to pay their taxes before the 15th inst to save the 10 per cent additional, but no Tax Collector could be found. The reason assigned for not being on hand was that the books were gone astray.

Some of the stores here, Mills especially, are making quite a fancy display of Xmas goods.

Honokaa, Dec. 16th.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

S. S. Alameda leaves at 5 p m. today for San Francisco.

The obliging purser of the Ala-ameda has our thanks for news favors.

"Joe" did not return per S. S.
Australia. Whatever can be the matter?

Don't forget the Gleaners' Pink Festival at Fort Street Church, this evening.

Mr. Tom. Wall was expected by the Alameda this morning, but he did not come.

All the Honolulu gunners will go duck shooting to their favorite haunts on Christmas.

Mr. C. J. Fisher's Holiday Goods will be open to-morrow and a grand display may be expected.

COMMODORE Ashbury and Mr.
Noble, the temperance lecturer, are through passengers by the Alameda.

PURSER White, of the steamer Waiialeale, reports rough weather to windward. The steamer Lehua was at Oahu yesterday, and the Kilauea Hou at Paauhau.

MESSRS. Lewis & Co., grocers, received along with other ice-house goods, by the Australia, a very large salmon, measuring over four feet in length.

Mr. George Stratemeyer, having nicely bronzed the pillars of the "Criterion," some curious person whittled the posts to see if they were really brass.

The tax office will re-open on Monday morning next, when the venerable Capt. Luce will be fully prepared to conduct the second act in the art of tax collecting.

The commissions of the officers of all the volunteer military companies will be recalled and new commissions will be given under the new military Act.

MESSRS. Harry Whitney and Guy Wodehouse, who have been sporting on Molokai for the past week or so, will probably come home by the Mo-kolii to-morrow.

MAJORS Rosa, Parker, Cornwell, and Hayley, were decorated by His Majesty yesterday; but the nature of the decorations will not be revealed until announced "By Authority."

The cellar that was underneath the old Sailors' Home is being filled in with stones and earth, and the spot where the building formerly stood leveled. Prisoners are doing the work.

MESSRS. Hollister & Co., Fort street, have been sending around to their patrons and the general public, a unique calendar for 1887, published by Lorrillard, the tobacco man, called the "Climax."

Mr. Babcock, C. Pardee, E. W.
Tucker wife and 2 children, A. Fage and wife, Miss G. Humphrey, R. P.
Cornwell, D. P. Smith and G. D.
Browne, leave by the Alameda this evening.

Mr. D. P. Smith having sold the electric light apparatus at the Palace, he will leave by the Alameda to-day or by the Australia next week, for the Eastern States, to get 200 incandescent lights for the interior of the Palace.

On searching through the archives of the government offices this morning, another Brown was found in the Survey Department. The name given to him by his godfather and godmother was "John." This makes five of the same name. Next!

Wm. More, while driving a dray down Fort street this noon tried to take a splinter of the hitching post in front of Frank Gertz's store, but by a miscalculation, carried away the whole post.

MESSRS. E. P. Adams & Co. will, this evening, continue their sale of to-day, commencing at 7 p m. Another case of silver plated ware was opened this afternoon, of that well known superior American manufacture.

Two Chinamen lunched at Nolte's to-day, and seemed to enjoy his Hamburg beefsteak. They handled the knife and fork with for more dexterity than a foreigner handles the chop-sticks. They did not put the knives in their mouths.

ONE of the masterpieces of the season, in window decorations, was executed this forenoon, by Mr. Geo. B.
Pearcock, in the Hotel street window of Mr. C. J. Fisher's store. The show is decidedly worth going to see, and will doubtless be fully appreciated by the public.

Six paintings by Petzold, of San Francisco, taken from photographs by Mr. Williams, are on view at Williams' art gallery. The views, which are colored vastly different from similar paintings by local artists, embrace scene at Onomua, Kawai-hau, Waikiki and Kapena Falls, and are fac-similes of the photographs.

Our old friend Captain Jenks, the boon companion of Colonel Norris, has resigned from the bark Elsinore and will shortly sail from San Francisco for Honolulu in command of the bark Hunter. He may be looked for in March next, and he will then transfer the whale bark Hunter to Captain Cogan, who will proceed northwards in search of oil and bone.

A MONETARY ITEM.

The Hon. W. C. Parke and his associate assignee, Lam Chong, request that all persons indebted to the estate of Lam Chock, a bankrupt, will pay the same to them immediately.

SANTA CLAUS IN REALITY.

To-morrow will be a grand gala day at Sach's store, toys, dolls, and panel pictures will be given away; during the day, customers will be presented with a fine panel picture, and during the evening the toys and dolls will be given away.

BAND CONCERT.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will play at Emma Square to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 4:30 o'clock. The following is the programme:—
Overture—Joan of Arc.....Verdi Waltz—My Friend.....Gasser Selection—Welsh Melodies.....Hure Ballad—Morning.....Beethoven

THE "DAILY BULLETIN" HANSARD.

The only full and complete report of the Legislative Proceedings of the Session 1886, is the DAILY BUL-LETIN Hansard. It is the work of an accomplished stenographer who has been highly complimented for the success of his undertakings. A few copies left, which are to be had at J. H. Soper's News Agency, Merchant street, or at the DAILY BULLETIN Office, Queen street.
Price $3.00 each.

CYNBERGDRINKENSTEIN!

To-morrow at 11 a m., the mellifluous voice of Mr. James will again be heard at the auction room of Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co., selling by public outcry, an assortment of liquors, including everything from gin to champagne. It will be a "credit sale" on the usual terms.
Samples will be opened for the benefit of connoisseurs. Being an importation of that old established firm, H. Hackfeld & Co., the quality can be depended upon.

A SATURDAY TREAT.

"The better the day, the better the deed," Mr. Lewis J. Levey has received a commission to dispose of a lot of dry goods, furniture, a fully equipped express, a buggy, &c., and he has fixed upon to-morrow at 10 a m. as the day on which to do the deed. The vender will be pleased to see a large assemblage of the public at his reception and Salesroom on Queen street.
Being a man of strict integrity, Mr.
Levey's terms will, on this occasion, be Cash.

DAILY BULLETIN SUMMARY.

No. 3 NEW SERIES.

The third number of the new series of our Bi-monthly SUMMARY, is now out. It contains 40 columns of purely local and original matter relating to the Islands, and more particularly to Honolulu. For a full and complete record of political, commercial and general news it is unsurpassed.

To residents on the other Islands it is a valuable paper, and also a desirable journal to send to one's friends abroad. The outgoing mail is due here on the 17th instant from Australia, and will leave for San Francisco the same day. The SUM-MARY can be had at the DAILY BULLETIN office and at J. H. Soper's News Agency. Price 10 cents per copy.

"CHRIS."

Following is a letter which appears in the "Association Log Book" of the Oakland Y. M. C. A. S.
L. Luke 19:8,4 in the story of Zaccheus, the publican, might afford

"Chris" a rich text on which to base an improved and revised edition of the exhortation to young men contained in the letter here re-printed.
OAKLAND, CAL., NOV. 30, 1886.
CAPT. I. BRAY, Gen'l Sec'y Y. M.
C. A. OAKLAND, CAL.

My DEAR SIR:—I am so overjoyed from the effects of walking in the new path of life that I wish to make it known to all young men who are as lonely with Satan and as heavily laden in sin and vice as I was a short time ago.

The difference is more great than the contrast between sunshine and darkness.

Young men go on, tread in the dark road, while on your way, just drop Satan for a few minutes and call up into the rooms of the Y. M.
C. A. and see the difference between the dark and dismal road of Satan and that of grandeur, splendor of sunshine of our dear Saviour.
You are all invited and cordially so.

By allowing space in your December number of your BULLETIN for the above testimony, you will greatly oblige, Yours Truly, C. K. MILLER.

Y. M. C. A.

The monthly meeting of the Y.
M. C. A. was held last evening, the President, Mr. Bowen, in the chair.
On the recommendation of the Board of Directors one voting and three associate members were enrolled.

The treasurer, Mr. T. S. South-wick, reported $64.35, balance of cash on hand, with pledges and yearly dues well paid up, some of the pledges being paid, in advance to April next. Following is the

Mr. P. C. Jones, chairman of the temperance committee, reported the meetings in Fowler's yard to be well sustained, there having been an average attendance during the two months past, of nineteen adults, besides a considerable number of juveniles, the latter of whom had proved themselves valuable assistants in the singing exercises.

The entertainment committee, Mr.
W. A. Kinney, chairman, had finally decided on holding an entertainment on the evening of the 28th inst., to which all the members and their friends will be expected to contribute 50 cents each, admission fee.
General Secretary Fuller read a letter from the Rev. Mr. Peck, New Haven, Conn., introducing and recommending to the favorable reception of the members of the Association Dr. C. A. Dorman, a local preacher of the Methodist connection. The subject matter of the letter was referred to the Devotional Committee, with power to act in the premises as they deem advisable.

A proposal to hold a watch night service, on New Year's Eve, was referred to the committee on devotion. The reading room committee reported the number of visitors to be about as stated in former reports.

Mr. F. J. Lowrey, for the devotional committee, reported on the several meetings held under the auspices of the association, and that it is intended to hold a noon-day meeting of half an hour, commencing at 12:25, every Saturday, at the rooms.

The collection taken amounted to $10.50.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

The latest news from the New Hebrides is that the French show no intention of leaving the island. The roads and bridges they have constructed, present a permanent appearance.

Mr. Lalor, Speaker of the Victorian Assembly, has announced his intention of retiring into private life.

Reports from the Teetulpia gold fields, South Australia, continue favorable. Two loads of wash dirt yielded one pound weight of gold.
There are 5,000 diggers on the field.
One party netted £1,400 in a short time.

FRIDAY, DEC. 17, 1886.

FAST FRUIT TRAINS FROM CALIFORNIA
EASTWARDS.

A special committee appointed by the Sacramento Horticultural Convention waited upon General Manager A. N. Towne, for the purpose of securing reduced freight rates on Eastern shipments. The committee desired to secure the following terms: Passenger-train time to New York, Philadelphia and Boston, $400 a car; passenger-train time to Chicago, $300 a car; slow freight to Chicago, $200 a car; that ten cars hereafter comprise a $300 fruit train. The present rates charged by the company are: Passenger time to New York, $800; slow freight, $400; passenger time to Chicago, $600; slow freight, $300.
After a long discussion Mr. Towne intimated that the reduction asked for was out of the question, as it would be impossible to make terms with Eastern lines that would allow such a radical cut. He intimated, however, that he was willing to attach fruit cars to regular passenger trains as far as Chicago for $500 a car, or to carry freight for $250 a car. The whole matter was taken under advisement.—[Alta.

FOREIGN NEWS ITEMS.

Berlin, Dec. 2.—Herr Von Scholz, Imperial Finance Minister, has greatly irritated the members of the Berlin Stock Exchange by his explanation to the Reichstag of the failure of Government receipts from the Bourse to equal the estimates.
The Minister accounted for the deficiency by saying that stock-jobbers defrauded the revenue by making false returns of their transactions.
It is thought best to take concerted action to demand an apology from Herr Von Scholz.

London, Dec. 5th.—Letters marked "Per Umbria" were taken alongside the steamer at Liverpool yesterday, but were not accepted. They were sent to Queenstown via Holly Head, to be forwarded by the Alaska. The Cunard Company will probably be prosecuted. The letters filled three bags. The penalty for refusal to carry the mail is $20 per bag.

New York, Dec. 5.—The Herald says: Our Brussels correspondent has just met and interviewed the intrepid traveller Ludwig Wolff, who has returned from an exploration in the long unknown territories of the Congo. In the San Kouron region he came upon a tribe of dwarfs four feet in height called the Bakas, who live by hunting, and are described as wonderfully agile and good-tempered.

Dublin, Dec. 7.—The Ulster Loyalist Anti-Repeat Union has sent to the Marquis of Londonderry, Lord Lieutenant, a set of resolutions expressing dissatisfaction with the weakness of the Irish Executive in dealing with the defiant and shameless conspiracy to defraud one class of the Irish people and to demoralize another, and assuring the Government of the Union's cordial support in any attempt to crush the conspiracy.

Constantinople, Dec. 7.—The Porte has advised the Bulgarian Regency to accept Prince Nicholas of Mingrolia as the successor to Prince Alexander. The reason given is that his election is "the only means to pacify Bulgaria." The Porte admits that the Regency must maintain order. "But," it adds, "so long as an opposing element exists which regards the country's interest from a different point of view the door is constantly open to eventualities."

Mendoza, Argentine Republic (via Gaveston), Dec. 7.—The quarantine against infected towns in the Argentine Republic has been raised by order of the Minister of the Interior.
Since Tuesday last there has been no quarantine in any part of the country and trains have been running between Rosario and Buenos Ayres as usual. It is feared the cholera will soon spread to Mendoza and San Juan. The Chilean authorities will send troops to guard the roads in the Cordilleras, and all communication between that country and the Argentine Republic will be completely stopped.

A new cure for consumption has been originated by a Teutonic doctor. He makes his patients pass the night in the open air of the Thuringian forest, well wrapped up, and sleeping in light hammocks so as to avoid all damp from the ground. A watchman keeps off any intruders who might disturb the night's rest, and hitherto the experiments have proven wonderfully successful.

"Grape cure" is practiced in France and Germany in the autumn, and is regarded as a cure for many diseases due to high feeding. The patient is given a pound of grapes to eat the first day. This amount is added to until the person can eat five or six pounds a day. The other food is gradually lessened, and the diet at last consists entirely of grapes. It cures obesity and many other complaints, and starts the person off on a new lease of life. Fruit is a necessity in a rational diet, and of immense value in dietetic medicine.

A new disinfecting compound for purifying the atmosphere of the sick room has just been presented to the Berlin Medical Society. Oils of rosemary, lavender and thyme in the proportion of 10, 2½ and 2½ parts respectively, are mixed with nitric acid in the proportion of 30 to 1½. The bottle should be shaken before using, and a sponge saturated with the compound and left to diffuse by evaporation. Simple as it is, the vapor of this compound is said to possess extraordinary properties in controlling the odors and effluvia of offensive and infectious disorders.

The electric motor is destined to play an important part in the history of railroads in this as well as other countries. Although not yet out of the experimental stage, electric street railways are rapidly gaining ground in public favor. Chicago, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Toronto and other cities already have electric street railways in successful and profitable operation.
About a dozen new roads are in process of construction and a score or two more are projected. Montgomery, Ala., will be the first city in the world to have a complete electric street railway system. In New York city it is expected that a new Daft electric motor will soon be making trial trips on the Ninth-avenue elevated road, and on a branch of the Third-avenue road a passenger car equipped with Sprague motors has been making experimental trips during a great part of the summer.

Steamer W. C. Hall

Leaves Honolulu at 10 o'clock A.M. on FRIDAY, December 17th.

The steamer passes along the entire coast of the leeward side of Hawaii, affording tourists a panorama of charming scenery, and will stop at Kealahou Bay, where sufficient time is allowed to visit the Monument of Captain Cook.

Tourists by this route reach Punaluu at 5 o'clock on the day after leaving Honolulu, being only one night on the vessel, making the entire passage in smooth water. At Punaluu there is the FINEST HOTEL ON HAWAII, and from there tourists will be conveyed by railroad to Pahala, thence by stage coach to Halfway House, where horses and guides will be in attendance to convey them to the Volcano.

Tourists will have two nights and one whole day at the Volcano House.

Let me have a mild

CIGAR

THE ABOVE REQUEST IS HEARD daily in cigar stores, saloons and other places where cigars are sold, for it is an undisputed fact that most smokers prefer a mild cigar and that those who have for a long time smoked strong cigars, principally imported Manillas, will, after having thoroughly injured the stomach and impaired the nervous system, surely want a mild cigar, if they could find the right kind.

How many thousands of smokers who suffer from loss of appetite, headache, nervous irritability, asthma, etc., and who have tried all possible remedies without success, might be cured if they knew that their sufferings were caused by the intemperate use of strong cigars, and that they should only smoke mild and properly prepared ones.

It is a fact that all mild cigars agree well with smokers, for in most cases there is a lack of care in the selection of the tobacco, and often the necessary experience for it is wanting, yet there is one brand which suits the most fastidious smoker, and that is

ENGELBRECHT'S

"Sampler" Health Cigar

Which is made from mild, aromatic and particularly selected and prepared tobacco, and combines all the qualities which may be expected from a health cigar. It causes no bad effect of any kind, is agreeable to the taste, burns evenly to the end and possesses a fine aroma. No smoker should fail to give

Engelbrecht's "Sampler" Cigar

A fair trial, and benefit himself at the same time.
