Some More Facts About The Bow Wong Wui

L. Yaknam Lamsai of Wing Wo Tai & Co., received a letter from a friend in China by the last steamer from the Orient, telling of the action taken against the members of his family by the Chinese government.

Mr. Lamsai's people made their home in Tong Gar, a little village a short distance from Canton. Having received information that Mr. Lamsai was a Bow Wong, the government sent eighty troops from Canton to Tong Gar to make his people prisoners. All they found was his grandmother, aged 85, his father and grandfather having left for another place a short time before. The old lady was arrested and thrown into prison, no respect being shown for her years in the treatment she received. After the arrest, the soldiers looted the home and carried away everything of value.

Mr. Lamsai does not believe his father and mother will be caught. He has sent in a petition to the government asking that his old grandmother be released but it is improbable that this will have any effect.

The government sent soldiers in search of the family of C. K. Ai of this city, another Bow Wong, but they found that all the members had gone to Macao some little time before. This makes the arrest of Mr. Ai's family impossible.

Several Bow Wongs of the city were seen yesterday after the talk with Mr. Lamsai. Asked if the Chinese Consul, Yang Wei Pin, stood in any danger on account of this action in sending information to the Chinese government, all with the exception of one remained silent. This one said: "I should not wish to be in the Consul's boots if any more arrests of relatives of the Hawaiian Bow Wongs in China are made. There are some men in the society who would not hesitate to retaliate."

Accurate information regarding the strength of the Bow Wongs has been secured by the members of the society here. It seems that sixty per cent of the Chinese in China and ninety per cent in foreign countries, are in favor of reform. Should the Bow Wongs decide to rise against the government at any moment, they could do so with telling effect. As it is, they prefer to gain their objects by peaceful measures if possible. If it so turns out that force will be necessary, force will be used.

NEW HOTEL AT WAIALUA

Building to Be Started in the Near Future.

Charles David to Be Manager—Lease of Fine Lands Secured—Matter of Liquor License.

A new hotel will soon be started at Waiailua. The promoters do not care to have their names mentioned just yet. It is sufficient to say, however, that the backers of the scheme are men of money who see a great future in the hotel business down the road. Work on the proposition has been going on quietly for several weeks and now, the men who are pushing it, have secured the lands they wanted, so that the coast is now clear.

The new hotel is to be a two-story affair near the present hotel of Charles David, directly opposite the Waiailua depot. It will be arranged particularly for the comfort of the guests from the city and will command a fine view of the surrounding country. It is understood that the capitalization will be placed at $10,000 and that the shares will be $10 each.

A lease of land all about the present hotel of Charles David has been secured so that cottagers may be put up at a future date, if found necessary.

David, who will be the manager, already has a liquor license, so that matter is settled. He and the other promoters have decided to put the saloon far away from the hotel proper so that, in case of any rowdiness, the guests will be in no way disturbed thereby. The promoters think they have an excellent scheme and will hasten the building of the new hotel.

STOLE DR. WOOD'S PEACHES.

Manuel Gomes, Jr., appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of larceny in the second degree and, after a severe lecture by Judge Wilcox, was sent home with a warning. The father was also told that a sound spanking might do his offspring some good.

It seems that for several days past a gang of Portuguese boys have been stealing fruit from the home of Dr. Wood on the slopes of Punchbowl. The rascals were chased out several times but they would return. Yesterday, Mrs. Wood saw several of the boys divesting her peach trees of both ripe and green fruit and, summoning her servants, she made after them.

All the boys with the exception of Gomes, succeeded in getting away but he was so far up one tree that he could not make the time to either did. He was held, the police were telephoned and Master Manuel was locked up for a short time. Later on, his father bailed him out.

All Persons Can Help.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The Humane Educator asks the aid of all citizens in preventing cruelty to animals. The Hawaiian Society has a humane officer who will promptly respond to any call. If teams are observed to be overworked or abused, lame horses made to work, a call by telephone to the police station will be promptly responded to by the Society's officer. Please send name, number of wagon or description of animal abused, also your own name, which will not be revealed without permission. The Hawaiian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals protects all persons who seek to help them in caring for those who cannot help themselves.

Kindly make note of the above in your valuable paper, and oblige.

Yours sincerely,
HELEN CRAFT.

Ran From a Policeman.

Jas. Corn was arrested last night on the charge of assault and battery on Otto Necond. It seems that Corn had been consulting John Harleycorn too often and come off the worst for the encounters. He struck Necond full in the face without any provocation whatever and upon being approached by a police officer, started on a run for the water front. Corn explained to the judge that he wanted to get away. There were, of course, smiles all over the court room.

ACCOUNTS OF GAY ESTATE

The Ranch Shows Fair Profit Despite Drought and Lantana.

Mr. Pain Discharged for Trespassing on Streets—J. P. Dias Is Well Backed for Portuguese Interpreter.

Judge Humphreys has set Harrison vs. Magoon and others for trial on Tuesday next. Judge Stanley has rendered an oral decision in Republic vs. W. H. Pain, "unauthorized excavation on public road." The decision of the District Court is reversed and Mr. Pain discharged. Attorney General Dole for prosecution, Paul Neumann for defendant. The cause of action was the laying of rails for the Hawaiian Tramways Co. in King street a few months ago.

J. P. Dias has applied for the position of Portuguese interpreter to the courts of the Territory of Hawaii. His petition is endorsed by Sam F. Chillingworth, Frank Brown, J. M. Davidson, Lyle A. Dickey, J. T. De Bolt, W. L. Wilcox and Paul Neumann.

H. Focke and Cecil Brown, trustees of the estate of James Gay, deceased, have filed their fifth annual account. They received $12,468.91 and paid out $12,558.79, leaving a balance due them of $90.78. The trustees have also submitted their annual report, from which the following extracts are made:

"The trustees have entered into an agreement with the Waiailua Agricultural Co., Ltd., whereby some 800 acres of land (formerly used as pasture, and only good as such for some five or six months of the year) is to be placed in cane, and in lieu of rental 5 per cent of the sugar is to be delivered or, if sold, accounted for by that company. This arrangement will in all probability produce an income of from say $6000 to $8000 a year, depending on the price of sugar."

Statistics of the branch show it to have at present 215 head of cattle, 28 horses and 3 mules. The trustees say the long drought has decreased the area of grazing land fit for support of stock. A net balance of $4420.76 is shown in favor of the ranch.

"The heaviest item of expense for the year has been in the cutting and clearing of lantana, upon which has been expended $1457.82."

J. O. Carter, attorney in fact for Liliuokalani, petitions to have placed on record a deed of certain properties made by Anheia Kekauloahi to Liliuokalani on December 28, 1894, the grantor having died without having acknowledged the execution of the instrument. The witnesses to the deed were Charles T. Gulick, now deceased, and Sam. Nowlin. A hearing of the petition appointed for this morning did not take place.

Judge Stanley has appointed Henry Smith guardian of Naomi Miriam Lazarus, minor, under $1000 bond.

Kalohua Was Beaten.

Kalohua, charged with assault and battery on Ah Moon, was reprimanded and discharged by Judge Wilcox in the Police Court this forenoon.

On Wednesday night the native went into a Chinese gambling den and grabbed the money on the table of some of the Chinamen while a game was in progress. The Chinese grabbed what they could find about the room and beat the native into insensibility. In attempting to defend himself, he struck Ah Moon. Kalohua was sent to the hospital and only got out this morning. He explained to Judge Wilcox that he told a policeman about the game but that man, being unable to get away, he decided to arrest the Chinaman himself and grabbed the money as evidence.

Kane Assault Case.

The case of Kane, charged with assault on a Chinaman along the Tantalus road a couple of weeks ago, came up in the Police Court this forenoon but was continued until another date on account of the inability of the complaining witness to be present.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth said that, according to the statements of the physicians at the hospital, the Chinaman would be unable to get out of bed for a month, so serious are his wounds.

It was then suggested by Judge Wilcox that the two, with the attorney for the defense and the prisoner, go to the Queen's Hospital some afternoon next week to take the testimony of the Chinaman. In the meantime, Kane will have to remain a prisoner at the police station.

Petitions for Naturalization.

Petitions for naturalization have been filed by V. J. Fagerros, Demetrius George Camarinos, Edmund C. Shorey, Antonio C. de Souza, Samuel Johnson, John W. McDonald, Ludwig Hillebrand and Charles Oss.

NO SALARY FOR SERVICES

Auditor Austin Withholds Pay From Superintendent Atkinson.

Remodeling of Education Headquarters—Accommodation for Officers—Better Arrangements for Book Business.

Auditor H. C. Austin cannot see his way clear to authorizing the payment of salary to Alatau T. Atkinson, Superintendent of Public Instruction. It is a new office under the Territory, but succeeds that of Minister of Public Instruction under the Republic, which was held jointly with the portfolio of Minister of Foreign Affairs. The auditor rules it would appear, that the salary of that double ministerial position attached to the foreign affairs branch.

President McKinley's instructions as to the salaries of Territorial officials is that, until the Legislature provides otherwise, they shall be paid out of appropriations for corresponding offices under the Republic. The President declined to interfere further.

Mr. Atkinson is making no fuss about the matter, but, on being met by a Bulletin reporter at the Education office, he answered a casual reference to the matter. He went no further, however, than to turn up the law relating to the former double office, and show that the folios of the statute were headed alternately, "Minister of Foreign Affairs" and "Minister of Public Instruction." It seemed to him that his office corresponded, agreeably to the President's ruling, to practically all of Minister Cooper's office which survived the transfer of sovereignty on August 12, 1898. Hawaii has had no foreign relations since then.

Mr. Atkinson is not worrying over the matter. He is confident that the Legislature will pay him suitably for services rendered, if the ruling of the auditor is not altered in the meantime.

Under Mr. Atkinson's supervision the Education headquarters have been remodeled in keeping with the vigorous administration of the department which the new era demands.

Opening from the main corridors of the Judiciary building one side, and from the secretary's office on the Queen street side, is the Superintendent's office. This being a large apartment will also be the board room for the meetings of the Commissioners.

In the secretary's office is a private room segregated with half partitions where the secretary may have quiet for intricate work and privacy for official consultations.

The old book room at the end of the back veranda will be furnished for the use of the inspector and the normal instructor when they have work to do at headquarters.

Two small rooms off the secretary's office have been prepared as the book repository. They have increased shelf room and permit of a great improvement in order, system and convenience. They are also secluded, instead of having the stock exposed to pilfering as before. Not to say that there has ever been any pilfering, but for such there undoubtedly was opportunity.

Mr. Towne of Minnesota.

Mr. Towne is the vainest politician in the country. His bump of self-esteem is as large as a lemon. Nor is he without reason for his conceit. The people of his district made a hero of him half a dozen years ago, and two successive defeats have not seriously impaired his popularity. He can still attract most elected Congressmen. He can still carry Duluth by a thousand votes.

"Charlie Towne," as he is affectionately called throughout his bailiwick, is a cultured, whole-souled, generous gentleman; a born politician, hence a "good mixer;" a good orator and writer, though rather ponderous; fond of logic and figures, and devoid of humor; a better expounder of the silver question, many people think, than his friend Bryan; a man that makes friends and holds them fast; and, oddly enough, the thinnest skinned politician in this or any other country.

Towne's skin is so thin that the dullest shaft of criticism pierces it. He is one of the kind of men that stop their newspaper when it dares to smile at their vagaries. Towne's exchange list is limited because he has stopped nearly all the papers that he subscribed for. Next to the silver question, his pet mania is that Mark Hanna is trying to establish a monarchy in this country. Only trepanning could remove this idea.—Chicago Journal.

OLAA LAND SETTLEMENT

Decision As to Rights to Take Up Land Reached Monday.

Turns on Attorney General View—Large Amount of Property Available—Tis Valuable to Holders and Territory.

Something definite will probably be done at the Governor's council on Monday regarding the opening of Olaa lands to settlement. It was expected that the Attorney General would yesterday have rendered the opinion requested of him, as to the right of aliens to take up public lands in the Territory. He, however, asked for more time.

Commissioner J. F. Brown said today that, apart from the pending question, the lands would be offered to settlement in the manner prescribed by the Hawaiian land law. The sales would be by auction as heretofore, and conditions of settlement be prescribed.

The purchasers could raise sugar cane for adjacent mills, or any other product they desired.

Mr. Brown, in answer to a question, said there were 15,000 or 20,000 acres of land in Olaa available for settlement. The opening up of so much new land for agriculture therefore means a great deal for the island of Hawaii and indeed the whole Territory.

All Co. F Men.

The statement in a morning paper that Co. F team to shoot with the police this afternoon was the pick of 400 marksmen is taken by Co. F to indicate cold feet among their opponents. The men who make up Capt. Johnson's team have been members of Co. F. N. G. H. all the way from three months to seven years. It is possible these men are the picked marksmen of the Guard but they are nevertheless regular members of Co. F and were not enlisted for the particular purpose of shooting with the police. The members of the team are: S. Johnson, J. W. W. A. Neeley, J. Ferreira, G. Gere, P. Burnett, W. Storey, W. Peterson, C. Rhodes, J. Gouvea, J. Silva, A. Fitzsimmons.

THE NATURALIZATION LIST

Seventeen New American Citizens Made This Morning.

All Government Cases Must Have "Territory" Instead of "Republic" in Titles—Mr. Magoon a Substitute Justice.

The Supreme Court this morning admitted the following named as citizens of the United States: Henry Gustav Froese, Frank F. Fernandes, F. S. McPherson, F. W. K. Kelle, Temple Bourke, Charles Pedersen, Willie G. A. Siebert, John Buckley, John Brown, Theodore A. Simpson, Henry Klemme, Charles Crozier, Charles J. Campbell, William John White, Ernst L. Berndt, B. F. Beardmore, Geo. F. Benton—17. Chief Justice Frear and Justice Galbraith presided the place of Justice Perry not being filled, for the naturalization proceedings. J. Alfred Magoon, attorney, was called as substitute justice for the hearing of an appeal case afterward.

The Marshall libel case was argued and submitted yesterday. W. O. Smith appeared for the Republic of Hawaii, and J. T. De Bolt for the defendant appellant. This case turns on the questions of whether the Constitution's sway over Hawaii began with annexation, and if so were the refusal of a jury trial in the District Court, the placing of defendant on trial in the Circuit Court without indictment by a grand jury, and his conviction by less than twelve jurors, constitutional.

At noon the Court was hearing the appeal of Lo Kam from conviction of being found unlawfully on the premises of another at night. Andrews for prosecution; Chillingworth for defendant.

The Supreme Court has ruled that all Government cases on the calendar shall have the word "Territory" substituted for "Republic" in their titles.

ANTEDATES CIVILIZATION.

Before civilized man had heard of dreamed of it, Kickapoo Indian Oil was healing the wounds, relieving and curing the aches and pains of the Red Man. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of our es has become voluminous. No other medicine has made such cures; because Kickapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Insist on getting the genuine Kickapoo Indian Oil. Hobron Drug Co., agents for Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

Somebody's Pipe Dream but Not Capt. Macfarlane's

Captain Clarence Macfarlane has read with deep interest the various announcements in official newspapers that Commodore T. W. Hobron was to sail the yacht La Paloma in a race to Waianae today. Macfarlane has sometimes been filled with alarm for fear that he might be under the influence of a Molah, and thereby misled into the idea that he owned the La Paloma and had authority to sail her or not to sail her as suited his individual fancy or pleasure. To convince himself that he was not dreaming Macfarlane went on board the yacht to see if he could find Hobron in possession. He then got copies of all the articles about the intended race and submitted them to a kahuna to find out if there was anything in it. Failing to get any satisfaction Clarence dressed in his best suit of clothes, mounted the poop deck of the Paloma. With one foot resting on the rudder post, the other impaled on the bowsprit, his right hand resting on his stomach, the left pointing toward Lahaina and his eagle eye scanning the horizon, Captain Macfarlane gave formal notice that while he carried the right, title and ownership of the La Paloma in his inside pocket, no races would be sailed without his knowing it.

Macfarlane doesn't know about any race to Waianae. He hasn't heard anything about it except what he has read. In fact Captain and Mrs. Macfarlane will entertain a party of friends at their Pearl City home tomorrow forenoon. The party will sail down in the yacht La Paloma with Macfarlane at the wheel and return in a launch during the afternoon or evening.

In order that there might not be any misunderstanding in the future, Clarence stated this morning, "If anybody wants to race against the La Paloma I am ready for them. If anybody wants to run the yacht for me, they can take notice that I usually hire my owa men."

Vivas Had a Proviso.

J. M. Vivas was approached some days ago by a government representative to know if he would serve on the Board of Registration. Mr. Vivas consented to accept the position provided the Board met down town in the old post office building which is soon to be vacated by its tenants. This central location Mr. Vivas believed would be more acceptable to business men and people of the city generally. The representative concurred with Mr. Vivas but the latter never heard anything more of the appointment. This doesn't worry Mr. Vivas as he was not chasing the job, but he still holds to the belief, and has many supporters in it, that the Honolulu Hale will be the best place for the Board to hold its sessions in this city.

White Teeth!

are generally perfect and sound, and at all events are a much prettier feature of the mouth than dirty and discolored teeth.

Then again when kept clean and white are less liable to decay which rather is due to thoughtlessness in teeth care.

All teeth preparations, in a general way are good—we have them all—some better than others.

Alsen Portland Cement

Is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical. "ALSEN" has NO EQUAL in COLOR, FINENESS and SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. IT WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL (measuring about 100 lbs.) MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially REDUCES its cost as compared with other cements; it is therefore an ECONOMIC cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

CAPACITY AND SALES.—The output of the "ALSEN" factories is, at the present time, larger than that of any manufacturer of Portland Cement in Europe.
The yearly sales of Alsen's Portland Cement in the United States is greater than that of any other brand. The following test made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows:
TENSILE STRENGTH PER SQUARE INCH. One day, 185 pounds; Seven Days, 600 pounds; Thirty Days, 800 pounds. For Sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface. FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

BY DIOGENES.

Rough Rider Roosevelt is a grand pace-maker

Expansion produces no worse malady than growing pains.

The absurdity of non-partisanship in municipal politics is that it cannot be potent without a non-partisan party.

In war there are no minor particulars allowed in the blunders of a major general.

Canadian children have not sent a message of sympathy to Aguinaldo.
Only a school official in Canada growling at the action of Philadelphia youngsters in sending an ambassador with their sympathy to Kruger, testily asked how it would look for the kids of his town to send their greetings to the Filipino rebel chief. A correspondent did the rest; and what started in a joke has led to a lot of fun. The biggest joke in the matter is the idea of anybody finding Aguinaldo at home this time of day.

It seems odd to find the finances of the Board of Health in an unhealthy condition. Plebotoomy seems to have been revived in their case with disastrous results.

Probably Mr. Testa—whom Judge Humphreys refused reporter's privileges in the courtroom in his shirt-sleeve—was afraid to enter the arena of lawsuits with a coat on his back.
There is something in scripture about a man's being liable to lose his coat as well as his cloak in such places.

The Hoboken horror might have been repeated, proportionally, in Honolulu the other day when fire started among bales of hay on a wharf. Elements alone lacking, which often might be present, were the getting a good start by the flames and the juxtaposition of other inflammable merchandise —such as nitre, spirits, oil, etc. Hundreds of thousands of dollars in value of shipping bulked close on three sides of that burning hay. There is no need to point out the obvious lesson—from the awful experience of New York harbor and the child warning incident here —to the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce.

Strangers in Honolulu must think the citizens like to spread 'hemselves, when they see the sidewalks thickly strewn with fruit peel.

A Roman chief captain bragged to the Apostle Paul about the great price he paid for naturalization. Probably he had no friends, like the Honolulu candidates for American naturalization, to tell him that the clerk should have charged him only $1.62½.

The beach is vigilantly guarded against infection from persons and baggage, as well as merchandise.
Plants are barred out for the parasites that may infect them or the soil about them. But can anybody tell whether it is true that ship's earth ballast from pestilential shores is used to fill up house lots in Honolulu?

CHINA VS. WORLD.
Says the Queen Dowager of China:
"I'm not going to resign—ah Till from this Empire I rout—ah
The foreign devils all out—ah"

To arms, troops Imperial and Boxer.
Back comes a loud roar from the World:

"Then see my war banners unfurled, If that scepter you don't drop, quick, You'll soon e'en not have a chopstick."
And thus in hoarse tones the World mocks her.

Trials of the Inspector

Having noticed a dozen complaints over the telephone, most of them from people trying to settle grudges against their neighbors, the chief of inspectors took up again the work of summarizing reports of the staff. The "spite" reports usually come by telephone when there is emphasized the injunction, "you need not say where this came from." It is noticed that the person possessing the alleged nuisance invariably knows just exactly who told. Some of the reports of this class come on anonymous notes. It may be remarked that all are considered part of the routine of the work and receive due attention. The chief looked up as a visitor entered and was greeted with: "Say you are the man I want to see, you know where I live.
Well, a lot of Japs moved into that big house down the lane a couple of weeks ago." (They had been given daily tasks by the district inspector during the whole of the fortnight.) "Glad to have you call" responded the office man, always pleased to hear from anybody. These tenement establishments all over town are a trial and Dr. Wood declares they must be kept clean. Is this one pretty bad?"

"Don't know, but there's an awful lot of Japs there."

"Do they bother you any?"

"Bother me? Not a bit. They're not troublesome at all, but there's an awful lot of them."

"Any of the neighbors complaining of any smell from the camp?"

"No, they seem to have enough outhouses and to keep them in condition, but there's an awful lot of them. It's my notion that a couple of them rented the house and then sent for their acquaintances from all over town to come and live there. I tell you there's an awful lot of them on the place and I thought you'd like to know it and go and have a look at them." The visitor was thanked and assured that the entire lot of Japs would be inspected.

Another leaf from the notebook: It is claimed by the leasee of the Tai Kee premises that in six months sanitary inspectors have caused him to expend more than $500 in improvement and correction of the place corner Penae-cola and Beretania street. This is about right. A few days ago a party of three Chinese literally sneaked into the Board of Health office, glided direct to the desk of the chief inspector and stood at attention while the spokesman said: "you know Tai Kee house.
He velly dirty now. Plenty wet under house. Plenty dirt all over. Long time be no clean, Chinaman more opium there. Velly bad place. More better this time you go fetch Tai Kee to Judge Wilcox and make him pay fine." The chief inspector and aide who was present had seen the visitors gambling with dice at Tai Kee's the day before and flatly asked if the trio members did not complain on account of having lost their money. They denied this and curiously enough it was learned later that another reason, but similar motive was behind the matter of the unusual spectacle of ordinary Pakes telling on countrymen. The offense of Tai Kee was that he had leased his entire place to Japanese and there would be no more entertainment for Chinese there. The premises are visited frequently as ever by the inspectors.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WM. MCKINLEY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

THEO. ROOSEVELT.

Hawaii's cry for Statehood will have a hollow, heartless sound if the opponents of municipal corporations are successful in their retrogressive efforts.

When the emblems of peace, sweet political peace rest upon Hawaii's capitol building the public will be so far surprised as to be in danger of nervous prostration.

"If you don't like it, what are you going to do about it?" When this question is put in its political bearing the best answer is, Make the best of it and get in and drill—not grill.

The American who attempts to rise to the scarp heights that in his own estimation place him above giving consideration to party organizations usually finds himself sitting on the sharp stick of public disfavor, where there's only room for one.

In the palmy days of stock speculation activity in Kihel was the signal for a jump all along the line. The sales this morning might well cause the watchers of the stock thermometer to consider whether there is pending a slump all along the line.

United States Marshal Ray stands alone among Federal officers in Hawaii in suffering from attacks from office seekers. In the revenue and postal bureau positions have gone begging. Can it be that Hawaii's past has been such as to educate the young idea that to hold up the public is more glorious than to serve its behests.

There's nothing remarkably surprising in the announcement that Chinese officials are wreaking vengeance upon the families of the Bow Wongs. China would be the country the Bow Wongs hope to make it, if it were not that her officials can always be depended on to carry out the barbaric custom of murdering relatives of progressive patriot.

Governors of States and Territories do not usually make appointments of any kind with a view to asking appointees to resign upon the first criticism offered. If the partisan character of the Registration Board is not entirely satisfactory to the public, the responsibility of the appointees to so conduct their business as to be above possible reproach is all the more impressive. It is to be supposed that Governor Dole is convinced in his own mind that the men he has appointed will serve the Territory without partisan bias, thereby setting an example of the fair minded integrity of the Republican Party. This supposition is the charitable view for party managers to take.

The fact that American troops will be put on trial before the world in the China campaign is not keeping our citizens awake nights worrying over the showing our boys in blue will make.
Certain it is when the Yankees get into a fight they will not waste time keeping their neckties straight or their moustachios curled at the proper angle.
The American army exists for the exclusive object of winning battles when called upon to fight, and the record of line officers and rank and file is such that the chances are the regiments in China will be in the midst of the scrimmage while their European brethren are pondering over whether the advance should be made in open or close order, dress suits or pajamas.

Experience in the States and Territories has shown that no better indicator of the character of the people and the business progress of the section than the number and amount of business done by the post offices. Should the extension of the American postal system result in a decrease in the number of post offices it will be a sad commentary on Hawaii's much talked of progress. The people ought to be active in not only increasing their post offices, but should facilitate the distribution of mail matter still further by securing the free rural mail delivery system.
It doesn't cost any more for the country districts to be up-to-date, taking prompt advantage of all means offered for easy and rapid communication with all parts of the Islands.

NO TIME FOR WAR.

The party that cannot rise above, swallow up or overcome an unfortunate influence of a compact or faction has worn much. This proposition of raising a war when some mistake is made and forever dwelling upon the past is not good politics nor does it evidence sound judgment among staunch Republicans, either leaders or rank and file.
The camel's struggles to pass the eye of a needle are not less difficult than an attempt on the part of any official to satisfy everybody.

It is needless for the Bulletin to state that this paper was not consulted in the appointments made to the Board of Registration by Governor Dole. At the same time it is not the province of staunch Republicans to implant both feet upon the Governor's political neck every time he makes an appointment that does not appeal to the practical political judgment of the Party. If every move that is made is to be the signal for a general melee of divergent opinions and the dominant party become dominated by strife, it might just as well go out of the business of securing additions to the ranks and devote all the time available between now and November to a general war all along the line. This will create a diversion from the usual humdrum of political life and receive the unhesitating endorsement of every man who does not believe in Republican principles.

The Democrats do not approve of the Boards of Registration. There's no reason why they should, nothing in fact to suggest that they would approve unless the majority of the Board were of the Democratic faith. To raise objections is recognized as an inherent right of Democracy when it has not the reins of power within its grasp.

But take the situation as it is. The appointments have been made and it is not likely the Governor will forthwith call for resignations the following day.
From the party standpoint the gentlemen favored should at least be given the opportunity to prove themselves.
None of them are thieves and robbers and should they display any of the dark and devious methods of corruption no party will be so quick to condemn and thrust from office as their own. Boards of Registration will not carry the elections, and the party managers have a broader and more important field of activity in getting their followers into line for the final test at the polls. Those convinced that the incubus of a political mistake has been loaded upon them should be thrice active in their effort to overcome it. Absolutely nothing is gained by clogging the wheels of progress with a row. A victory won in spite of predicted defeat is more glorious than a walk over.

See to it that your part is well done and it will not be difficult to place the responsibility for success or failure at the polls.

That Supt. Atkinson should find himself in a position that has no salary attached is one of the saddest incidents in Hawaiian history. That Mr. Atkinson should be appointed to a local office while drawing down a salary from a Federal position ought to be considered sufficient preferment to warrant his willingness to take out a part of his reward in the marked tribute paid his ability to land feet first with both hands in the official sugar bowl.

easy access to all points, as also scenic and marine views of exquisite grandeur at every turn.

Electric Railway.

Contracts have been let for material, and the work of construction, equipping and installation placed in the hands of a competent electrical engineer to be fully completed by June 1st. Having an independent power plant we are prepared to furnish electric power for lighting, heating and other purposes, to our home builders at most reasonable rates.

As Promised.

Our reservoirs are now completed and water mains laid so as to supply each lot. Permits for making water connections will be granted on application.

An inspection of the attractive homes now building, or the names of purchasers of lots, will convince anyone that PACIFIC HEIGHTS is the choicest and most select of all the residence sites of Honolulu.

Wheelbarrow Stories of the Business Center

Eugene Sullivan, the fish prince and Billie Savidge one of the local reality magnates played it mighty low down on a Pake in Fort street the other day.
The Chinaman was pushing his unicycle up grade with a rather heavy load of taro. He paused by the Campbell block and dropped into the Sing Chong offices for a few yards of chat with a friend. Sullivan and Savidge had observed the Pake from afar, had commented on the shrill squeal of the wheel, comparing it to the voices of well known singers, curb orators and public speakers. They agreed that never yet had Chinaman been captain and crew of a wheelbarrow without a squeak. The mean idea of trifling with the Oriental seized the pair of haoles at the same time and they rushed into Nolte's cafe and borrowed the oil can that keeps the cash register from running hot. In an instant the wheelbarrow was amply lubricated and the josh-ers and friends were waiting for the result. The Pake burden bearer emerged from the house of his friends and without spitting on his hands grabbed the shafts of the barrow and started the rig and load towards Merchant street.
When the wheel had made a couple of revolutions the Chinaman stopped and examined it. He evidently thought he had made an exchange with a countryman of Sullivan's or that the gearing was out in some way. Satisfied there had been neither accident or trade by mistake he tackled the job again. This time he moved five or six yards, but still missing the squeak halted and made another examination. Obviously, there was something quite wrong. He looked over the thing carefully, then sat upon it to think. Then he went back to the Sing Chong offices and sang the story of the lost chord and brought some Chinamen out and proved it. After the consultation the Pake carrier made a quick run to the establishment of a friend over in Nuuanu street, explained and swapped the silent barrow for one in good tune as a siren whistle. And Sullivan and Savidge and company had their laugh for the remainder of the day.

There is another Fort street wheel-barrow story. An old native man was getting home from the front with a big load of wood. His rig was a decrepit old affair held together with ropes and wires. It had seen too much service and just in front of Roth's tailor shop it collapsed like the wonderful one-horse shay. "Jock" Carter and two or three town boys saw the wreck from the McInerney corner and "Jim" Torbirt and a couple of friends saw it from a door of the Pacific Hardware store. The old native sorrowfully viewed the breakdown, then scurried around into Merchant to the Lewers & Cooke lumber yard to gather repair material. Carter, Torbirt and others, by common impulse, moved to give the aged Hawaiian the surprise of his life.
They "clipped in" and bought a fine, new wheelbarrow, transferred the load and carried the remains of the old affair into the area near Peacock & Co.'s.
When the old man came back and saw what had happened he was fairly overpowered. He wept just a little after his season of woe had passed, then he smiled gladly and gratefully uttered his profoundest alohas and hurried homeward.

JUSTICE FULLER'S DAUGHTER

Bar Harbor (Me.), June 29.—The marriage of Mrs. Lena Fuller Aubrey, daughter of Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court, and Dr. Samuel Marcus Moore of Evanston, Ill., was to have taken place tonight at the summer home of Justice Fuller at Sorrento, but when the arrangements were being made this afternoon it was found that there were two difficulties, one a legal limitation and the other the refusal of the clergyman selected to officiate.

The marriage laws require five days to elapse between the filing of the marriage intention and the performance of the ceremony. Dr. Moore and Mrs. Aubrey filed their intention to marry with the Town Clerk in Eden Tuesday morning, and therefore cannot marry until tomorrow.
Besides this, Rev. W. C. Barber, though a personal friend of the family and though personally asked by Judge Fuller to do so, refused to marry the couple because Mrs.
Aubrey is divorced with a husband still living. Another clergyman has been secured and the marriage will take place tomorrow at Sorrento. Justice Fuller, Mrs.
Fuller and their daughter are at their summer home. Dr. and Mrs. Moore will start at one after the marriage for Evanston, where they will reside.

THE OLD GUARD

The salaried portion of the army of Hawaii established in 1893 was the best paid of record. The privates had $40 a month and rations and clothing allowance. The good money and the easy service in time naturally attracted a very superior quality of material.
With the recruiting bureau it was a matter of weeding out and then choose from the select. Men of fine equipment and men who had held excellent positions in the States readily enlisted upon failure to fix themselves in civil life. Subsequently, men who had been in the army were found in business houses and at government posts. Some of these soldiers of fortune had been militiamen at home. Others had been in various regular armies. The natives of all nations were represented. There was always sport with the inexperienced men. One evening a German, who had been a plantation overseer called out: "Post two, 9 o'clock, half past, no pikia here." The very best of all, though, was by a law student. He wanted to give formality and dignity to his first announcement and shouted out like a new court crier: "Know all men by these presents that it is 11 o'clock and be it further known that all is well.
Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye!"

SEATTLE BEER.
The ever popular Rainier beer is be-

Duty Expounds Benefits of Trade With Tahiti

Washington, June 28.—J. Lamb Doty, Consul of the United States at Tahiti, has reported to the State Department regarding an American steamship line between Tahiti and San Francisco as follows:

"During the extraordinary session of the General Council of this colony, which was convened yesterday for the purpose, a contract was awarded to the Oceanic Steamship Company of San Francisco for the establishment of a steamship line between Tahiti and San Francisco for the transportation of mails, passengers and freight. The essential features of the contract are as follows:

"For the annual sum of 156,000 francs ($20,000 in United States gold) to be paid by the Tahiti Government, and exemption from port charges, the Oceanic Steamship Company is to operate an American steamship of about 3000 gross tons register, performing eleven round trips per annum at an average speed of not less than 13½ knots. The contract is awarded for a period of five years from the first voyage, which is to be made not later than November 1, 1900, and earlier if possible.

"It is the purpose of this company to use a first-class passenger steamship and to make the service attractive in all particulars; and it is anticipated that this will become a favorite route of travel when the charm of the climate and scenery of Tahiti become known.

"The inauguration of this line will give great impetus to United States trade with Tahiti, and, in general, with other islands of Eastern Polynesia. The Pacific coast of the United States will be particularly benefited, as perishable goods—such as fruits, vegetables and meats—which now are received exclusively from New Zealand, will then come from San Francisco.

"For over thirty-four years a regular monthly sailing vessel service has been maintained between Tahiti and San Francisco. This direct means of communication developed a trade, insignificant at first, but amounting some ten years ago to over 50 per cent of the entire business of this colony. Since then the proportion of trade has remained about the same, notwithstanding the establishment of the steam line to New Zealand and the fact that sailing vessels are entirely inadequate as a means of transportation between this port and San Francisco.

"It may be predicted that if the Oceanic Steamship Company continues in this business for five years the trade between the United States and Tahiti will not only experience a great extension, but that the proportion of value will increase from 50 to 75 per cent.

"The Union Steamship Company (British) of New Zealand, which now operates a steamer between Tahiti and Auckland, has for some time past desired to extend its service through to San Francisco, and, indeed, at this moment it has a proposition before the local Government offering to perform the service for an annual subsidy of $50,000.

We Rested the Seventh Day
The Sabbath is the foundation of American liberty. The preservation of this nation, or of any nation, is dependent upon the religious observance of the Sabbath, set aside for rest and prayer and for the honoring of the Lord. We have departed, in a large measure, from the strictness of our fathers. But I believe that, in our own interest, we ought to return, in a large degree, to the quiet and thoughtful day they insisted upon. Rest is an absolute necessity of our nature, and in the interest of the workmen of this country we must preserve this institution in its purity. I sincerely hope the time will never come when in this land there shall be a general desire to mingle amusement and frivolity with the observance of the Lord's day.—John Sherman.
