

DIPLOMATIC MISSION

AMERICAN INTERESTS SEND MINISTER TO COREA.

Anglo-Japanese Alliance Forward Step In Eastern Affairs—Americans Dominate Korea.

Dr. Horace N. Allen of Ohio, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister from the United States to Korea is, with his wife a passenger on the Nippon Maru en route to the Peninsula. Dr. Allen is making all possible speed to the scene of his diplomatic mission owing to the recent political developments in the Far East and the interest taken in them by the United States.

He has already seen nineteen years of service in Korea and is in other ways peculiarly suited for his task. Dr. Allen first went to Seoul in 1883 where during the revolution of the following year, he was instrumental in saving the life of the native Crown Prince. This timely act resulted in his appointment as court physician while he became an intimate of the crown, his advice being sought on other than medical affairs.

With Korea's first lexation Dr. Allen was sent to Washington, acting as representative of that country for a year so that his present appointment places him in the unusual position of having served as a representative in full authority before both the governments.

As first secretary of the United States Legation he returned to Korea in 1890, being appointed Consul General in 1891 and later minister resident. In 1901 the office was reduced to its present rank of minister plenipotentiary and Dr. Allen was reappointed.

To a familiarity with the leaders who are at present on the board in the diplomatic chess game that is now being carried on, Dr. Allen adds the usefulness gained by extensive travel in the East and knowledge of all the languages generally spoken there.

Dr. Allen is quite to the extent of the partnership of Uncle Sam in the Anglo-Japanese alliance which is endeavoring to dominate affairs in Korea. He says:

"That is a matter which I have been distinctly instructed to speak about. But I may tell you, I think that the interests of the United States have grown in Korea until they are now paramount. There can be no question about that. In financial matters we lead every other nation by a big margin. The mining industry is practically in the hands of Americans. H. K. Bostwick of San Francisco conducts the largest electric plant in Asia in Korea. He and his partner built the first steam railroad in the country—that from Seoul to Chemulpo. The rice trade is controlled by Americans. Mr. Dashiell, a California boy, is the biggest banker and broker in Chemulpo, and I could extend the list in almost every commercial line.

"As to whether the present coalition is aimed against Russia, I cannot speak. The most I can say is that the offensive and defensive alliance is a step far in advance of any forward movement in Far Eastern affairs for many a long year. Its consequences cannot be foretold."

Mrs. Allen is still suffering from the effects of a severe accident met with some weeks ago while sleighing in Toledo, Ohio, on account of which a trip to Korea by way of St. Petersburg and the trans-Siberian railroad was given up.

FOR THE FIELD DAY.

The Honolulu Athletic Club team arranged for the Field Day is practicing regularly despite the inclement weather. Training is carried on in the vacant lot next to the club rooms on Alakea street and the boys are making every effort to win a fair share of the laurels. The team will probably compete in every event.

Damon, the proprietor of that portion of the desert of Honolulu.

NIPPON MARU ARRIVES LAST NIGHT.

Has Large List of Through Passengers for the Orient—Brought Number of Passengers for Honolulu.

The Nippon Maru, Captain Greene, arrived last evening at 2:30 o'clock from San Francisco with 229 sacks of mail and 3 days later news. She has a big through list of passengers and brought 14 lay over passengers for Honolulu.

The vessel encountered rough weather from the time she left San Francisco until she made port. The wind was blowing at the rate of 40 miles an hour when the vessel went over the bar. She had south easterly and south westerly weather for several days but finally, the wind shifted to the north west and she had that sort of weather until her arrival. She waited outside the harbor last night until the America Maru passed out. The mail for the America Maru was transferred from the Nippon at the mouth of the harbor.

Among the lay over passengers for this port are Mrs. F. Beringer and Misses A. and E. Beringer. They have come to make a visit to Mrs. Beringer's son who is connected with the local customs service.

Louis Eppinger the manager of the Grand Hotel in Yokohama is returning home after an extended trip through Europe and America.

K. Ishiwata is the head of the Japanese Marine Bureau and has been making an extended tour of the world, visiting marine exchanges throughout Europe and America.

Mrs. E. L. Hunt is going to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Bostwick, the wife of the Korea contractor.

H. J. Heintz is the president of the famous pickle manufacturing company.

W. A. Mason is a wealthy banker of Chicago. He is accompanied by his wife. They are going to Yokohama for a visit.

Dr. H. N. Allen is the United States minister to Korea. He is returning to Seoul after an absence of some months.

Elliott Snow is a United States Naval constructor who is going to Hong Kong to relieve the present constructor at that place.

The Nippon will leave for the Orient at 5 p. m. today.

KINAU DID NOT SAIL

HILO BOAT DELAYED BY BAD WEATHER.

Could Not Land Freight and Passengers on Her Route in Prevailing Weather—Other Boats Waiting.

Island vessels, at practically every port are weather bound. For the first time in a year, steamers are held up in Honolulu on account of the storm. The Lehua did not depart yesterday afternoon on her regular Molokai run, owing to the bad weather. She was scheduled to sail this afternoon at 5 o'clock but as the storm was still in progress this morning General Manager Wright and Port Captain Clarke decided that it would be wiser to keep the Lehua and the other vessels of the Wilder fleet in port and wait the abatement of the storm. It would be unwise they thought to send either the Claudine or Kinau on the regular Maui and Hilo runs with such weather prevailing for very few of the ports could be made and it is doubtful if any ports could be made without great danger.

Once last winter the vessels were kept in port during heavy weather. The present storm is not so severe as that which prevailed last season and it is from an entirely different quarter but the ports could not be made so it is thought unnecessary to waste time and money in dispatching the vessels on useless trips. If the weather is calmer by tomorrow the Claudine and Kinau will depart at 9 a. m. and the Lehua at 5 p. m.

All of the Inter-Island steamers are weather bound at various Kaula ports and it is expected that they will be several days late in making port.

The island schooners are also weather bound at various Oahu, Kaula, Maui, and Hawaii ports and shipping will be considerably delayed in the Inter-Island trade.

The high wind and steady rain have made conditions very disagreeable about the water front today.

SHOULD ORDER SALE

KONA RECEIVER THINKS SALE THE ONLY COURSE.

Judge Humphreys Issues Another Order Authorizing Employment of Men To Care for Property.

Receiver Wundenberg, with Attorney T. L. Dillon, appeared before Judge Humphreys this morning asking for another order of the court in the Kona Sugar Company matter. It appeared from the statements of the receiver and lawyer that there was little chance of raising the money needed for the plantation, and the order secured this morning authorized the employment of assistance to protect and care for the property of the company. By the steamer today the authorization will go forward, and help will be employed to protect property from the threatened destructiveness of the angry laborers.

The order of the court made this morning is as follows:

"It appearing to my satisfaction by the record herein and by representations made to me by the Receiver that it is impossible for said Receiver to negotiate funds with which to operate the plantation of the Kona Sugar Company, Limited, and to harvest the crop thereupon growing, it is hereby ordered that said Receiver do employ such agents as may be sufficient to care for and protect the live stock and other personal property in and upon and about said plantation, and except for the employment of such servants, the Receiver is not required to incur any personal financial responsibility in and about the conduct of said plantation."

"Done at Chambers this fourth day of March, A. D. 1902.

"A. S. HUMPHREYS, First Judge."

No new proposition has come up yet to change the situation as regards Kona. "The receiver has made his report," said Fred Wundenberg, "and has made recommendations according to his best judgment, and now it is up to the others to make a move. I see nothing to be done but to sell out, but McChesney wanted delay and now it remains to be seen what they can do. Unless something can be done, the delay is only piling up expenses for nothing."

"I do not think there will be any serious trouble at Kona. There are men there to look after the situation. We hope to send something definite by the Kinau this trip, and that is what is wanted at Kona, but there is nothing definite to send now."

MEETS FREIGHT CUT

Now that the Globe Navigation Company intends to operate direct to San Francisco from this port, and return in addition, it is probable that the managers of the company have decided to meet the last cut of the American-Hawaiian company.

General Freight Agent Bebee announces that on March 1 the Globe company had put into effect a rate of $2.50 a ton on all commodities originating in San Francisco or Puget Sound ports or east thereof to Honolulu or other Hawaiian ports which the vessels of the line touch. Exception is made however in the case of very heavy individual pieces of machinery and lugs which can be arranged for by special agreement with the agent.

MAUNA LOA WAS HELD

The Mauna Loa did not get away today for Lahaina, Maui, Kona and Kauai ports. Instead of sailing on her regular run at noon today she will be held until tomorrow. She is posted to sail then at 10 a. m. but it is more than likely that she will not get away until about noon. The Mikahala did not sail at 5 p. m. today on the Kaula run at 5 p. m. today, having been postponed until 5 p. m. tomorrow. The Wataiale scheduled to sail at 5 p. m. today, will not leave until the same hour tomorrow for Eleale and Hanalei.

PEARL HARBOR CASE.

E.C. MACFARLANE DEAD

UNIVERSAL EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET.

Died of Pneumonia in Chicago After a Week's Illness—Was Born in Honolulu—Business Career.

CHICAGO, February 18.—Edward Creamer Macfarlane died on his wedding tour at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the Auditorium hotel, leaving a young wife of a week a widow at 22 years of age. The body will be taken to San Francisco tomorrow, and thence sent to the Hawaiian Islands to be buried.

Mrs. Macfarlane is inconsolable. Macfarlane had been a bachelor and was 49 years old. They were on their way to Europe to spend their honeymoon. They reached Chicago last Monday, and Macfarlane was taken sick that afternoon. He died of pneumonia. E. W. Macfarlane a brother is expected here Monday from San Francisco to take charge of the body and escort the widow home.

Mrs. Macfarlane goes back to a home crowded with wedding presents, which have not even been acknowledged.

E. C. Macfarlane belonged to a family which has been well known in Hawaii for more than half a century. His father Henry Macfarlane died in 1869 but his mother Mrs. Eliza Macfarlane is still living and resides at Queen Emma Villa, Waikiki road, which was also E. C. Macfarlane's residence.

When a young man Mr. Macfarlane went to San Francisco and with Frank J. Ballinger owned and conducted "The Wasp" of that city the pioneer illustrated paper of the Pacific coast. During this management and ownership The Wasp made a reputation as a live, virile publication which was known all over the United States.

Disposing of his interest in this venture after twelve years residence in San Francisco, Mr. Macfarlane returned to Honolulu and engaged in business here. At the time of his death he was vice-president and manager of E. C. Macfarlane & Company, was interested with his brother in the Hawaiian Hotel Annex at Waikiki and in the Volcano House. Besides these interests he had many others of a financial nature which pointed to him naturally as one of the men fitly called on to be one of the original members of the Honolulu and Bond Exchange. He was for many years a leading member of the Chamber of Commerce, and had served on many of its most important committees.

He served in the legislature during the monarchy and was one of the Delegates to the Constitutional Convention at the election in November 1900.

He went to San Francisco in January to marry Miss Florence Ballinger, daughter of Mrs. Robert Watson of 3123 Twenty-third street, and sister of Frank J. Ballinger his former business partner and friend. They were married February 6, 1901, and were on their wedding trip which was to have included the principal eastern cities. At Omaha Mr. Macfarlane was suffering from a severe cold which grew worse, and by the time they reached Chicago he was suffering from high fever and severe pains in the left pleuro cavity.

He grew worse and no operation was decided on to remove the pus rapidly accumulating. For a time the operation seemed to have given relief, but he grew worse and died February 18.

E. W. Macfarlane, his brother who was in San Francisco started for Chicago as soon as it was known that the illness was serious. He escorted the widow and all that was mortal of his brother to San Francisco. The remains will be brought to Honolulu by the Alameda Islander on March 8, and will be buried in the family plot in Nuuanu cemetery. Mrs. Macfarlane will accompany the remains of her husband.

The Macfarlanes are descendants of the Macfarlane clan of the Scotch highland. E. C. Macfarlane's mother is of English birth. His father and mother were married in Auckland and came to Hawaii in 1846 where all the children were born except Henry R. Macfarlane, the eldest who was born at sea on the voyage hither. The other brothers are Col. George W. E. W., and Clarence W., all of whom reside in Honolulu.

Henry Macfarlane came over the Paoli from Ahimau in the storm to receive the sad news and last night Clarence Macfarlane was informed of the death of his brother. J. O. Carter carried the news to Waikiki to the relatives living there although the loss was carefully kept from Mrs. Eliza Macfarlane, the mother of the family, until this morning. The daily paper was not left at the Waikiki residence this morning, the news broken by George, Henry and Clarence Macfarlane who with Mrs. George Macfarlane assumed that office.

The deceased had lived with his mother for many years being until his marriage the only unwedded son. He was thus naturally even closer to his mother than the other sons and the news was a terrible shock to the old lady, now 77 years old, although broken as tenderly and gently as possible. Doctors were at hand and ministered powerful aid under the influence of which she is now resting.

J. O. Carter was the only one allowed to see Mrs. Macfarlane this morning. Mrs. Henry Lewis was also sent for, being very intimate with the bereaved lady. Colonel Macfarlane gave his brother's age as 53 this morning, adding that the whole family were terribly broken up over the news despite the fact that with the exception of his mother, their highest hopes had been but faint ones.

While hoping for the best the news of the death was not unexpected by the brothers who had received a telegram from the last steamer stating that he had a fighting chance for his life and on that was pinned their hope for a favorable turn.

Colonel George W. Macfarlane asked Manager H. T. Lake of the Hawaiian hotel to go for the news when the steamer arrived saying that he had a premonition that bad news would be brought. On Mr. Lake's return Mr. Macfarlane requested him not to say anything as he knew what the news was without being told. Colonel Macfarlane broke down utterly at the confirmation of his forebodings and was this morning temporarily under the doctor's care.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT TO JAIL FOR LIBEL

CRIMP MCCARTHY'S CASE OF MAYHEM.

Bit His Wife in Many Places—Another Fine Point of Criminal Law Raised For Him.

Judge Gear and a jury began the trial of a revolting case of alleged mayhem this morning, the defendant being crimp McCarthy and the complaining witness his wife, "Katie." McCarthy had just got out of Oahu prison after serving a term for beating the woman, when the new quarrel arose and she was brutally bitten.

The woman took the stand and told her own story of the trouble. It appeared that there was a quarrel which ended in an assault upon her, as usual, but this time McCarthy was not satisfied with using his fists, but began to bite her. He bit her shoulder, bit both arms, her right ear and one of her hands. She had to go to the hospital for treatment after the assault. McCarthy is a big man, a good deal over six feet in height, while the woman is of only average height. She showed the scar to the jury, so that the heated war might be seen.

George A. Davis for the defense moved that all the evidence be stricken out, on the ground that the charge of mayhem had not been sustained. The woman's ear had not been bitten off, he said and therefore the offense, as described in the statute, had not been committed. Doubtless cited a Supreme court decision, while Davis gave some Eastern cases. "I don't care what the Supreme court says," he ended. "The woman's ear is there, on her head, and the Supreme court can't rule it off, and the offense isn't mayhem."

Davis contended that the crimp ought to have been charged with assault and battery. The court finally ruled against the defendant and ordered the trial to proceed.

The jurors are: C. Kimball, D. Hasko, W. E. Gares, W. F. Jones, Fred Gaudie, William Mahone, D. B. Renard, D. M. Ross, E. Blake, M. R. Houghtaling, J. L. Rockwell, W. R. Castle, Jr.

WILL SAIL FOR HAWAII MARCH TWENTIETH.

Will Accept on Behalf of the Protestant Episcopal Church the Transferee of the Anglican Church.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 25.—The Chronicle says: Right Rev. William Ford Nichols, Bishop of the diocese of California, leaves about March 20 for the Hawaiian Islands on an important mission—the transfer of the Episcopal interests there from the jurisdiction of the Church of England to the Episcopal Church in America. Since the meeting of Bishops in this city last October it has been known that it was only a question of a short time when arrangements for this transfer would be concluded. There has been an extended correspondence between all interested, and now everything has been arranged to the satisfaction of the English Bishop, who was most reluctant to withdraw from the jurisdiction over which he has presided for almost an ordinary lifetime.

The transfer will be made immediately after the arrival of Bishop Nichols, and will be attended with great ceremony. Outside of the religious significance of the change, Bishop Nichols will thoroughly investigate the temporal conditions of the church and its membership and determine what qualifications will be necessary for the man ultimately to be placed in charge.

Confusion over the status of the Episcopal church in the Hawaiian Islands came with annexation. It was thought by the heads of the church in America that the English Bishop would withdraw in favor of those who had the geographical right to jurisdiction. They held that it would be inconsistent for England to send a Bishop to the United States as for its representative to remain on the newly acquired American territory. The English Bishop comforted himself on the basis that possession was nine points of every one, however, and would not be coaxed nor driven from his position.

The question of the church in the islands was one of the vexed ones which confronted the Bishops at the San Francisco meeting. To the surprise of every one, however, the solution was not so difficult after all. The English Bishop had some good advisers, and gave up the controversy.

WONG SUEY KING GETS THIRTY DAYS.

The Circuit Court Much More Severe Than Was Judge Wilcox—Ineffectual Plea for Mercy.

Wong Suey King, the Chinese newspaper manager, was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment at hard labor or by Judge Gear this morning, for libelling Poon Kwai Loung, secretary of the Chinese consul and agent employed by the latter to look after claims before the Chinatown fire commission. King was only fined $100 by Judge Wilcox in the lower court, but Gear thought a money fine insufficient.

Attorney McClanahan asked for a money fine, stating that the verdict of the jury, giving the offense as libel in the second degree, was practically a recommendation to the mercy of the court. He said that there had been no word raised against the defendant's character and that King had believed the objectionable article to be true when he published it.

Lorrin Andrews, on the other hand, thought King ought to go to jail. "He has added to the libel by attempting to prove that the article was true," said Andrews. "There has been no expression of sorrow or regret, but the defendant has claimed that the article was true, and openly accepted full responsibility for it. He is surrounded by rich Chinese, as has been shown, and it will be nothing for these men of wealth to pay a fine for him. It will have a salutary effect on this man and others of his kind. If he is given a lesson that will show that newspapers cannot libel people in this community with impunity."

Judge Gear stated that the jury had indicated its view by making the offense libel in the second degree, and that he had been influenced by McClanahan's plea, but he didn't think that a fine would meet the case. He sentenced King to 30 days' hard labor in Oahu prison and to pay the costs.

An exception was noted and Gear fixed the bond at $1,000 on appeal, lowering it to $500, when McClanahan objected. Gear thought $1,000 not too much. "I would rather pay a thousand than go to jail for 30 days," he said. "I don't know whether the defendant would or not."

H. C. Woolmington Formerly a Merchant in Honolulu.

SPOKANE, (Wash.), February 18.—H. C. Woolmington, a traveling salesman for the Spool Cotton Company of San Francisco, was found dead in a room of the Merchants Hotel, Gardfield, Idaho this morning. SOUTH AFRICA'S WEALTH.

John Hays Hammond, the American mining engineer who was concerned in the Jameson raid, reviewing the checkered history of South Africa, and sketching its topographical features and forecasting its agricultural possibilities, remarks that industrially the country would never be prominent.

"Nature's largesse in South Africa," says he, "lies not on the surface, but under the earth." He expressed the opinion that the gold mines would not last more than thirty years. "South Africa's greatest importance," he declared, "is in the diamond fields of Kimberly, and her gold and diamond operations exceed the productions of the rest of the world. It is possible to carry the mining operations 10,000 feet into the earth."

SCRAP IN THE SENATE

TILLMAN AND McLAURIN AT FIRSTCUFFS.

Sergeant at Arms Unable to Separate Them—In Consent of the Senate, Roosevelt Withdraws Invitation.

WASHINGTON, February 22.—Washington's birthday was signalled in the United States Senate by a riot fight. The two Senators from South Carolina were the active participants in the fray. Tillman in the course of a speech upon the Philippine tariff bill made serious reflections upon the honor of his colleague, McLaurin. In brief, he charged that his vote in support of the tariff bill was based upon a bribe cast through the exercise of improper influences.

McLaurin was not in the chamber at the time, being engaged in committee work, but he was sent for, and appeared just as Tillman concluded his speech. He rose as usual, McLaurin rose to address the Senate, speaking to a question of personal privilege. He reviewed Tillman's charges briefly, and then denounced the statement made by his colleague as a "willful malicious and deliberate lie."

Several words were fallen from his lips when Tillman, sitting a few seats from him, with Teller of Colorado between them, sprang at him. McLaurin, who had half turned toward Tillman met him half way, and in an instant these two Senators were engaged in a rough-and-tumble fight. McLaurin received a heavy blow on the forehead, while Tillman got a punch on the nose which brought blood.

Assistant Sergeant at Arms Layton sprang over desks to reach and separate the combatants and himself received several blows. He got between them finally and by main strength wrenched them apart. Senators Warren of Wyoming and Scott of West Virginia, two of the most powerful men in the Senate, leaped to his assistance and, pinning the arms of the belligerent Senators, forced them into their seats. Intense excitement prevailed in the Senate and galleries, which were thronged with people, who had been attracted by the spirited debate. Everybody was on his feet. Not a word, however, was spoken. Senators stood about in a dazed manner for the moment quite helpless and pale to the lips. Finally order was restored partially, and in the midst of intense excitement the Senate went into secret session.

For two hours it discussed the event behind closed doors. When the doors were opened it was made known that both of the South Carolina Senators by unanimous vote had been declared to be in contempt of the Senate. They were permitted by a vote of the Senate to make apologies to the Senate. The statements were listened to by both the Senators and the people in the galleries with breathless interest. Senator Tillman left the Capitol when adjournment was taken for recess and did not return for the night session. Senator McLaurin was in the chamber about 2 o'clock, but left early. Neither Senator made any statement.

The status of Senators Tillman and McLaurin is that they are still in contempt of the Senate and only by a vote of the Senate can either be recognized either to speak or to vote on any question whatever.

On account of the occurrence President Roosevelt had a friend send Senator Tillman and request that he withdraw his acceptance of the invitation to dine at the White House, on the occasion of the banquet to Prince Henry. Tillman refused to do so and the President sent a note withdrawing the invitation. Tillman had been invited as the ranking minority member of the Naval Affairs Committee and in his stead Senator Martin of Va., was present.

CUBA TO HAVE RECIPROCITY

WASHINGTON, February 22.—The Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, who have been considering the questions of concessions to Cuba at several meetings during the week, finally reached an agreement this afternoon which is considered a victory for those who have favored tariff concessions to that island. The action taken was the adoption of a resolution authorizing the President to negotiate a reciprocity treaty with the Cuban republic when established embracing equivalent concessions, the tariff on Cuban products to be cut down 50 per cent and Cuba to enact our immigration laws.

By the terms of the resolution, the proposition agreed on by the Republican members of the committee will be submitted to a Republican caucus to be held next Tuesday.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Republican Territorial Central committee held a short meeting last night and discussed the situation. It was the regular monthly meeting. There was no special business and the evening was devoted to discussion of the party machinery. The executive committee met later.

MISS STONE IS FREE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 23.—Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary who was captured in the district of Salonica, September 20th last has been released. She arrived at Strumitsa at 3 o'clock this morning unharmed, and will proceed to Salonica as soon as she is able to travel. It is expected she will come here from Salonica, by sea.

ROOSEVELT FOR SAMPSON.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The President issued a statement today in which he declined to take any action upon the appeal of Admiral Schley from the findings of the court martial. The President thinks the court did justice, and says that after careful inquiry he must hold that Sampson was in command of the fleet.

A PRINTER GREATLY SURPRISED.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville (N. C., U. S. A.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet cold and several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and before using two thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since."

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1922.

E. C. MACFARLANE.

The death of E. C. Macfarlane will leave a real blank in our commercial and political communities. In each Mr. Macfarlane was prominent and had a peculiarly happy position. Born and brought up on the islands while still a young man he went to San Francisco in the days of the stock boom. He was engaged in large operations, and this gave him a broad breadth and power over such transactions which few men possessed here. Then there was his experience as an editor and proprietor of the Wasp with Harry Dunn. The Wasp has never been the same since that day.

With ripened experience, a full knowledge of men, a trained business mind, Mr. Macfarlane returned to his island home, and prospered in business, showing his ability in the management of commercial enterprises. His opinion was listened to and accepted by older and more experienced men, for Mr. Macfarlane had the keen incisive intellect of his family.

As a politician Mr. Macfarlane was ever a powermaker. He might and on occasion, when in the Legislature, did his hard, but his tendency was ever to smooth down troubled waters. This he showed amply by his career previous to annexation. Had his advice been taken by the Home Rule party, there would have been no such serious losses of the last session as there was. In the death of E. C. Macfarlane the Hawaiians suffer the loss of a true friend. The Home Rulers tried to make a conspiracy of him, but he was too firmly a man to be used in such a way.

Turn to Mr. Macfarlane's private life and it was bright, cheery and inspiring. He was a devoted son, a sterling friend, and generous to the unfortunate and afflicted. Out of the brothers who have so long been prominent amongst us "Ned" has been the first to go. He has been out of his prime. And what makes his death the more sad is that he had only just been married. To his aged mother, his brothers and his widowed bride The Star extends heartfelt sympathy. "Ned" Macfarlane's death is a loss to the community.

A NEW POSSESSION.

So the Danish West Indies will shortly become an integral portion of the United States, and the policy inaugurated by Grant's administration in 1867 has finally been partially carried out. No doubt in time the full extent of the policy will be consummated, and the great bay of Samana together with the whole of Hayti come into the power of the United States.

A short time ago The Star published an historical sketch of the Danish Islands, and it is not necessary to repeat it. Like all the West India Islands the three islands of the Danish allegiance have had a somewhat chequered career, especially during the eighteenth century, when the fleets of England, France and Spain were forever blazing away at one another's strongholds. One need not go back to the pirate and buccaner times of a century previous. The West Indies was the region of romance in the eighteenth and early part of the nineteenth century, and some of Marryat's most brilliant and amusing scenes are pointed as occurring there.

Then there came a lull. After the battle of Waterloo and the sapping of the power of France, there was no part for fleets to play in the West Indies. They vegetated on, great markets began to open, and most of the islands went to seed. Tariffs and exactions ruined their trade, and the islands went backwards. That islands of such fertility and importance should lie so near the coast of the United States aroused the attention of Grant and his cabinet, but the matter was turned down in the Senate. Then the tide of history went on, till the Spanish war broke out. With that came the annexation of Porto Rico, and the purchase of the Danish West Indies has followed naturally. The United States needs the bay of St. Thomas. It could never allow a hostile power to occupy it. It is far better to obtain it by peaceful means, than to obtain it by forcible means in case of a protracted war.

How the planters upon St. Croix (Santa Cruz) and its companion small island will fare, is problematical. They have, it is understood, been in a certain measure subsidized by the Danish Government, but private enterprise sinks before public utility, and with a fertile soil and good government, there will be much chance of superior progress.

There will be serious question about the governing of the islands. The white population is small, and the negro and semi-negro population is very large. Presumably the St. Thomas negro is about the very worst specimen of his race. He is plausible, shifty, underhand and knows more evil than a New Orleans roustabout. He speaks half a dozen European languages with equal volubility and inaccuracy. On Santa Cruz there was a rising of the negroes some few years ago, and plantations were burned and some whites were killed. If the Danish West Indies are properly ruled they will come out all right, but if the philanthropists, the faddists and the brinkers get hold of them, they will all go wrong. By this time the powers at Washington ought to appreciate this fact.

Having acquired the Danish West Indies, there should another step be taken, and that is the acquisition of Hayti. Hayti is nominally a Republic, but it is really a despotism. During its career, president after president has proclaimed himself Emperor, and has put on the theatrical and farcical attributes of imperialism. Its whole history since the French and Spanish withdrew from the island has been nothing but a tale of murder and massacre. St. Domingo, which occupies the east of the island is a well governed paradise compared with Hayti.

That such a spot could exist within a few miles of the American coast seems incredible. If any one wants to learn what Hayti really is let him read Sir Spencer St. John's "Black Republic." It describes the degraded, profligate and cruelly savage condition of the place. The most loathsome forms of Queson sorcery have been preserved, and are at times indulged in by every class in the community. It is the plague spot of the West Indies, and its very soil reeks with blood.

With American influence at St. Thomas and Santa Cruz there will soon come a desire to exploit Hayti. There are rich forests and there is fertile soil with abundant water. Communication between St. Thomas and several of the Haytian ports will be frequent, and eventually will come complications, murders of American citizens, broken faith on contracts, and finally Hayti's cup will be full and she will round out our outer line of defense in the West Indies. If we have the Danish West Indies, Hayti will follow as surely as the needle points to the pole.

Any one playing to the gallery should be very careful as to relations with Consul Yang Wei Pin, for that means supporting the anti-exclusion party, and some of our gallery players have been indulging in diatribes against the Chinese, entirely without cause, with a view of winning the labor suffrage. The more a bander-log climbs etc., as Kipling would say.

There is no doubt that the deer on Motokai have done an immense amount of harm to the forests of that island. In the course of nine years it is estimated that about one-third to a half has been injured, but relentless war is now being carried on against the animals, and they have been thinned down considerably. If care is continued there is little doubt but that the forests can recover, for the forest lands have been injured, not destroyed.

The bane of the Anglo-Saxon is drink and the bane of the Chinese is gambling. Most of the crimes committed by Chinese arise from gambling. The alleged murder on Kauai has its origin in the practice. A Chinese won too much money and has been apparently eased of it and his life as well. Revenge for injury is another mainspring of homicide among the Chinese. Outside of these two causes, there is very little crime among them.

The debasement of tea is a growing industry. Twenty-five years ago, the tea-drinking habit was confined largely to Holland, Russia, and England; but the beverage is now popular in almost every continental country. This new condition increases the demand, and the adulterators thus have the opportunity to ply their nefarious trade with success. Take a handful of ordinary tea, place it in lukewarm water, and when the leaves are thoroughly saturated, open and spread.

The spavined mule power is out against electricity very fiercely. The frog is puffing itself up and imagining it is a bull. By and bye the frog will blow up. It must be noted that there is no allusion here to a serpent and an elephant. At the present time it is not certain whether such an allusion is libelous or not. But the bull and the frog fable is decidedly a very gentle fable. Rapid Transit will succeed, as progress ever will succeed, no matter what wretched material may be put in its path.

The Laura Schooner, which is in harbor at the present moment, and is said to bear an evil reputation reminds one of the Helloties in Kipling's story of "Between the Devil and the Deep Sea." Some vessels get a bad reputation and seem unable to shake it off even when they change their names. The Laura with her few cases of salmon, and her desire to change her white crew for a crew of Hawaiians with a view of yachting in the South Seas puts up an interesting but somewhat thin story, and it is no wonder that the customs officers are suspicious.

The south east portion of Spain has been turbulent for years. It is the manufacturing center of the Peninsula, and also the center of the socialistic thought. During the Spanish-American war there was a great deal of trouble in and around Barcelona. There seems to have been a general strike just now which has led to clashes between the military and the strikers. It is very difficult to foresee what the end of the worn out Latin countries is going to be. A nation can go on doddering, like an old man between ninety and a hundred, for an almost indefinite time. Yet there must be a regeneration of such countries as Spain, Italy and Turkey. They are overwhelmed with debt, their proletariat is desperately poor, they are overburdened with military forces, which sap the vitality of the nations. The official class is venal, and the wealth is in a few hands. Yet they may get along for a century more always going deeper in the mire.

BIBERY ATTEMPTED

SOME ONE TRIED TO INFLUENCE JUDGE WILCOX.

Court Refused to Try Cases Against Castanhas for Illegal Distilling, Because of Improper Propositions.

There was a sensation caused in the District Court this morning when Judge Wilcox refused to hear the case against Manuel H. Castanha and F. Castanha, charged with illegal distilling. The court declared that improper advances had been made to it, and for that reason, he would have absolutely nothing to do with the case.

The two Castanhas are the Portuguese whose place was raided last week by Detective Kaupa and posse and a quantity of alcohol and distilling apparatus found. The defendants were in court this morning accompanied by J. M. Vivas, their attorney.

As soon as the case had been called Judge Wilcox said, "Owing to improper propositions having been made in this case to me, I decline to hear this case. You can make arrangements with Judge Eberly to try it. I have reason to believe that a promissory note was written in a certain attorney's office in connection with this case."

Vivas sprang to his feet and vigorously protested his innocence of any part in the implied attempt to influence the court. "I know nothing about anything of the sort," declared Vivas. "I know of no improper propositions having been made to the court and I ask your honor to make public the name of the person who is responsible for such a thing."

"I did not mention your name in any way in connection with this affair Mr. Vivas," replied the court. "I simply said that there had been efforts made to influence this court in behalf of the defendants and for that reason I declined to have anything to do with the case."

"Yes you honor, but if the identity of the person is not made public, it casts a shadow on me as the attorney in this case. I know of nothing improper having been attempted in the behalf of the defendants and I court an investigation."

"It is not always to the best interests of justice," replied Judge Wilcox, "that the names of those suspected in affairs of this character, should be made public. The grand jury is in session and the matter can be investigated by that body."

This closed the incident, the case being moved on until arrangements will have been made with Judge Eberly to try the defendants. Vivas declared after the court that he thought some one was trying to injure his clients. He protested his innocence of anything wrong and seemed very anxious that the matter should be probed to the bottom.

Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth stated that the police department knew nothing of the proceedings, other than what had been made public in the regular court proceedings. Judge Wilcox declined to make any statement. It is probable that the attention of the grand jury will be called to the case and the matter be investigated by them.

From the statements of Judge Wilcox in court, an attempt appears to have been made by some person to influence the court in behalf of the two Portuguese defendants, but the exact nature of the attempt will not be made public for the present.

KOREA'S TRIAL RUN.
SAN FRANCISCO, February 25.—It has been announced that, owing to an unavoidable delay, the new Pacific Mail steamer Korea, Captain Seabury, at Newport News, Va., will not be given her trial trip at sea until about March 15, instead of the first of the month. Soon after the trial the Korea will sail for this port to take her place on the Oriental route.

THE CURTIS MAKES PORT.
SAN FRANCISCO, February 23.—The ship George Curtis, twenty-one days from Honolulu, was at anchor off the bar last evening.

CHINESE WANT HIM.
Cunning plays the last of his engagements at the Orpheum tonight. A large delegation of leading Chinese have called on him, offering a guarantee to stay over a steamer and give a series of performances at the Chinese theatre. This he now has under consideration and as the guarantee is large, may accept it. In event of his doing this the theatre-going public will have more opportunity of seeing the marvelous entertainment given at the Orpheum as he will not give his whole time at the Chinese theatre. The inclemency of the weather kept quite a number away last night yet the attendance was quite large and the audience exceedingly appreciative.

GRAND SONG RECITAL.
Madame Geneva Johnstone Bishop will give a grand song recital at the Opera House next Monday evening, under the direction of W. D. Adams. She will be assisted by Miss Carrie Castle, pianist, J. H. Amme, violinist, and Mrs. W. L. Whitney, accompanist.

CHANGES INAUGURATION DAY.
Senator Hoar from the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, has reported favorably the amendment to the constitution introduced by himself changing the day for the inauguration of the President of the United States from March 4 to the last Thursday in April. The resolution provides that the change shall take effect in 1935 and extends the term of President Roosevelt from March 4 to that date. The resolution also provides that hereafter the terms of Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall begin the last Thursday of April instead of March 4, as at present.

WREATH AND CROWN.
The new English stamps just issued and which represent the king crowned with a wreath, will undergo a change immediately after the coronation, when the wreath will be replaced by a crown. It was considered inappropriate to represent the king with a crown on his head before the actual coronation had taken place.

MRS. IRWIN ENTERTAINS.
SAN FRANCISCO, February 12.—Mrs. William G. Irwin was hostess yesterday at an informal luncheon at her palatial residence on the corner of Washington and Laguna streets. The table was prettily decorated with yellow lilies and the service was superb. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Hermann Delbert. The other guests were: Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels, Mrs. James W. Keeney, Mrs. Horace Blanchard Chase, Mrs. Walter L. Dean, Mrs. Mountford S. Wilson, Mrs. William S. Travis, and Mrs. Joseph B. Crockett.

GLADYS RAN DOWN IN SATURDAY'S GALE.

Early Start to be Made in Next Saturday's Race.

The Gladys, with a triple reef in her mainsail and a mere rag of a storm jib was taken to Pearl Harbor and back on Saturday by Commodore Hobson and a crew of local yachtsmen. The yacht was moored for the night at Macfarlane's and came back Sunday afternoon through the gale "like a scared cat."

Around Kure Island the water was feather white, lashed by the wind and it would have been dangerous weather for the smaller craft. The crew all enjoyed the exhilaration of the storm. L. A. Thurston and C. T. Wilder were among the crew.

The temporary club house is now completed, the land finished, the partition removed in the interior and the walls covered with art burlap. The flag pole has been finished off with a circle of cement and stood the gale well supported by its halbrade. Many big albatrosses were blown down in Earl Harbor gardens by the fury of the gale.

Yachtsmen are hoping that the gale will blow itself out before Saturday, when the Port Captain's cup will be raced for. In the present weather the racing committee would in all probability refuse to allow the twenty-footers to risk the course. The new built Mahini and Wikikiwi would stand a good chance of capturing in this weather. The proposed course to Diamond Head and the most urgent of the yachtsmen would feel that they had them aboard.

No time has yet been announced for the Saturday afternoon race, but the distance being fifteen miles at least an early gun will be fired, probably about two thirty. The official handicaps for the distance will be issued on or before Saturday by the regatta committee. The scratch boats will probably be the Columbia and Princess as the Vi-ke and Skio will be given an allowance commensurate with the fact that they are competing out of their class and are cabin boats as against open craft.

The Merchants' Association with which Edward Macfarlane was prominently identified will, at a special meeting to be held on Thursday, adopt resolutions suitable to the occasion and the loss which the association has sustained. Secretary J. G. Spencer of the Chamber of Commerce explained this morning that while all the members of the club felt the sincerest regrets for the death and sympathy with the bereaved, no resolutions could be regularly adopted as the deceased was a firm representative only of the chamber, the true member being Henry Macfarlane, his partner, being closely allied with numerous other interests that claim all his attention. Among business circles it is conceded as a difficult matter to fill the position left vacant.

The Honolulu Stock Exchange in accordance with the regular custom on the death of a member closed this morning and issued the following notice instead of their daily bulletin.

HONOLULU STOCK AND BOND EXCHANGE.

The insurance money which is due the estate through the following regulation of the exchange will be forthcoming, the deceased having been a member of the exchange, being at that time unmarried. The filled in blanks are in the hands of the secretary in a sealed envelope, so that it is not yet known to whom the amount is willed.

Within ninety days after the death of a member of the Exchange the Finance Committee shall pay from the Donation Fund to such person or persons as may have been designated in writing by such deceased member, upon the printed form provided by the Exchange for that purpose, and filed with the Secretary, $2,500 United States Gold coin. In case there be no such written disposition made, then to the widow of such deceased member the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2,500 U. S. Gold coin). In case there be no widow, then to the child or children of such member, then to such child or children share and share alike. If there be neither widow, child or children surviving such deceased member entitled to receive such money nor any disposition made of the same as herein provided, then there shall be no payment or provision made under this Article.

F. W. Macfarlane, who will bring the body from the States will not it is thought be able to catch the Sonoma but will arrive by the next boat, the Peru, which leaves on the fifth. Advice from the States say that Mrs. Edward Macfarlane is so prostrated by her sudden and illimitable loss that it is possible that she will be unable to accompany F. W. Macfarlane, although her presence will be ultimately necessary in the settlement of the estate, which is a considerable one.

SUIT IN EJECTMENT.
The Kapalani Estate has brought suit for ejectment and damages against J. G. Faria. Damages to the extent of $1,000 and possession of the property on Beretania street now held by Faria, are asked.

THIEF WAS POWERFUL.
The liquor store of Gomes and McTigue on King street near Smith, was entered last night and robbed of 5 gallons of whiskey and a quantity of the gin. The thief was evidently a powerful man, for he caught hold of the rings in the front of the iron doors and pulled the doors open, bending a half inch iron bar in doing so.

HULO WHARF DAMAGED.
Superintendent of Public Works Boyd has received word from Captain Fitzgerald, harbor master of Hilo, that five piles of the Hilo wharf have been carried away and that the wharf is otherwise damaged and in need of repair and new piles. Boyd will send a wharf builder on the Kinau.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

PASSES THE SENATE BY VOTE OF 46 TO 26.

Seventy-five Per Cent of the Dingy Tariff on Goods From the Philippines—Other Provisions.

WASHINGTON, February 24.—After eight hours of tumultuous debate today the Senate, shortly before 1 o'clock this evening, passed the Philippine tariff bill by a vote of 46 to 26, a strictly party vote. Tillman and McLaughlin, the two Senators from South Carolina, who on Saturday last were declared by the Senate to be in contempt because of the fight in the chamber, were not permitted by voice or by vote to participate in the proceedings.

The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. The President pro tempore, Frye, held that the two Senators could not vote, and he was sustained by a majority of the Senate. During the debate on the Philippine bill McClellan and Wellington of Maryland became involved in a controversy, during the course of which the latter declared that if McClellan should make his statements outside of the Senate chamber he would brand them as a malicious falsehood. He was called to order promptly and resumed his seat amid considerable excitement.

Many amendments were offered to the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, an amendment restricting the operation of the addition laws enacted by the Tamm Commission, was passed. The amendment of Foraker, fixing the rate of duties levied upon products coming into the United States from the Philippines at 50 per cent of the Dingy rates, instead of 75 per cent as fixed in the bill, was lost, but it received a large Republican vote. Had the Democrats voted for it as a party it would have carried, but many Democrats voted against it.

As passed, the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippine archipelago from the United States shall be required to pay the Philippine duties and taxes levied upon like articles imported into the archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the Philippines shall pay a duty of 75 per cent of the rates fixed by the Dingy laws, less any export taxes paid upon the articles sent from the Philippine archipelago as required by the Philippine Commission. All articles now imported free into the United States shall be hereafter exempt from import duty imposed in the Philippines.

The bill exempts the commerce passing between the United States and the Philippines from the operation of the navigation laws of the United States until July 1, 1934, and authorizes the Philippine Commission to issue licenses to export goods collected in lightering or exclusive harbor business, provided such cargo is built in the United States or Philippines, or owned by the citizens of the United States or by inhabitants of the Philippines. The duties and taxes collected in pursuance of this act shall be paid into the Treasury of the Philippine Islands and used for their benefit.

All articles manufactured in bonded warehouses of imported materials, or of materials subject to the internal revenue tax when shipped from the United States to the Philippines shall be exempt from the internal revenue and all taxes paid upon such articles shipped to the Philippine Islands since November 15, 1901, shall be refunded.

GEN. A. S. HARTWELL.
He Expects to Return in a Few Weeks.

Gen. A. S. Hartwell writes that he expects within a few weeks to be back in his Honolulu law offices. He says he would have liked to have returned last season for a season, but his throat warned him that Boston's winter climate would have none of him. So he went to Washington, the resort of those who do not like cold weather and do not care for Florida and California. He took a house there for the winter, and has been enjoying the life there, though he has seen little of Congress, going only once to the Capitol.

In his letter Gen. Hartwell speaks of a number of island people visiting or temporarily residing on the mainland, and have been to Washington for longer or shorter stays.

THINK OF THESE THINGS.

If we cannot eat we starve; if we refuse to eat we starve; if we are prevented from eating we starve. Everybody who does not die of violence finally starves to death. "In nearly all diseases," says an eminent English physician, "starvation is the final cause of death." It is not the food on the table, but the food you eat and digest, that nourishes you. In all wasting complaints the supply does not equal the loss. The appetite and digestion weaken or fail and the body fades away. The true remedy must be one which at the same time invigorates the digestive powers and acts, in and of itself, as a food. It must build up the body faster than it is destroyed and also stop the tendency to wasting by curing the disease. Modern science has placed such a remedy within our reach; and the wasting diseases, which have so long been the terror of the human race, yield at once to the healing power of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

It is palatable on honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by a new from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Ext's of Malt and Wild Cherry. The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionery or cream. You don't have to force it down the children. You don't turn away from it yourself. So far as this preparation is concerned, medicine time is as welcome as meal time. The action of this effective remedy is prompt and its effects permanent; taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of all digestive disorders. Perverts and cures Coughs, Anemia, Bowel Complaints, Rheumatism, Throat and Lung Trouble, and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Effective from the first dose. "Never disappoints." Sold by all chemists.

All Run Down

No Appetite. Weak. Discouraged.
Warm climates always debilitate the nervous system. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate, and you go about disheartened and depressed. All this may be quickly changed with proper treatment.
Mrs. C. Kennedy, of 29 Erskine St.,

her photograph and this letter:

"I had lost my appetite, was very weak, and was discouraged. I then tried

THE SPECIAL ELECTION

REPUBLICANS LEAVE RESPONSIBIL-ILITY TO COMMITTEE.

Nothing Definitely Decided—Unwilling-ness to Offend Either Wing of Party.
Business Men Apathetic.

A committee of three was appointed at the Fourth District Republican committee meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of finally ascertaining the will of local Republicans as to the nominating of a party candidate for the special election. The committee will decide as to the advisability of contest-ing the election with the Home Rules or keeping silent and will report to the district committee on the call of their chairman.

Secretary's district meeting was adjourning last Friday (March 1) when being A. V. Gear, chairman; E. Wolff, J. D. McVeigh, Enoch Johnson, C. Wilcox, C. B. Wilson, Kehokai, J. H. Fisher, Andrew Brown, J. H. Boyd, Lorrin
Andrews, Clarence Crabbe, Dr. G. W.
Burgess and secretary W. H. Conely.
The filing of vacancies in the list of committee members was the first matter taken up. The Fourth District vacancy was held over until Friday owing to a request of the Federation of Labor for a respite until after a meeting of the Federation. J. H. Fisher was appointed unanimously for the seventh district against his protest.

Reports were heard from the special committee appointed to canvass the city as to their sentiment on the nomination of a candidate. The reports agreed generally that the business men did not feel kindly towards the expense of a campaign nor would they encourage their clerks to enter into it. The natives and mechanics however seemed willing and anxious to vote.

Clarence Crabbe and others voiced the wish of allowing the Home Rules to nominate and elect a man without opposition when some unforeseen change might take place and make that extra vote available in the legislature.

J. H. Boyd stated that the Home Rules were merely waiting upon the action of the Republican party and Lorrin Andrews after discussing the general apathy of the party for special elections and the risk of offending any wing of the party finally put the motion for the appointment of the committee of three on the suggestion of Commissioner Boyd who seconded the motion.
The amendment to report to the district committee was made by Wilson and accepted by proposer and seconder. The chair named the committee, which was to include himself, calling on Lorrin Andrews and J. D. McVeigh.
On the recommendation of Commissioner Boyd it was determined to reiterate the plank adopted in last year's program regarding the franchise for every American citizen to check the rumors that had been spread among the natives that the Republican party intended to attempt to disfranchise the native voters.

on February 19.

"The Tokyo Chamber of Commerce begs to offer sincere congratulations to London Chamber of Commerce for conclusion of Anglo-Japanese alliance, and to express its wishes that under the guarantee of peace in Far East and cordial co-operation of the two empires the commerce and industry of both countries may enjoy ever increasing prosperity."

PEKING, February 19.—No reactionary movement by Russia on account of the Anglo-Japanese alliance has made itself discernible here yet. If Russia withdraws her hand in consequence of the alliance that will be very satisfactory; but the world she is now engaged in at Manchuria are very extensive and her army will surely deny at the idea of evacuation. Russia may therefore take some determined step in order to maintain her prestige. Meanwhile the attitude of China is very strong. The withdrawal of the foreign troops from Tien Tsin which was to take place by April, has been postponed and they leaders may watch the course of events. The Provisional Government will not be handed over to China until the time when the withdrawal will have been actually carried out.

BERLIN, February 18.—Speaking in the Reichstag, Baron von Richthofen, Foreign Minister, stated that a German legation is still required at Shanghai owing to the importance of this point of appel to Germany in the absence of a nearer base. The Government, while prosecuting Germany's position there, would as far as possible consider the financial resources of the empire.

OLDEST LAWSUIT.
The oldest lawsuit in Virginia, according to the Richmond Times, threatens seriously to be settled in a few days. It originated as early as 1767, and is known in Virginia history as the case of the Diamond Swamp land company against Anderson's personal representatives and others. The sum involved was about $50,000.

A GOOD THING.
There's one good thing when they feel dry.
That business men cannot pass by,
For far and wide it's same you hear,
They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer
On draught or in bottle at Criterion.

WAR TAX TO END SOON

THE HOUSE PASSES THE BILL UNANIMOUSLY.

An Almost Unprecedented Situation in Legislation—Rule That Cut Off Amendment.

WASHINGTON, February 17.—The unexpected happened in the House today, when the bill to repeal the war revenue taxes was passed unanimously without a word of debate. This action was the outcome of a challenge thrown down by Richardson of Tennessee, the minority leader, after the adoption by a strict party vote of a special order for the consideration of the bill, which permitted debate on it until 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but cut off all opportunity to offer amendments, except such as had been agreed to by the Ways and Means Committee.

The adoption of the rule had been preceded by a stormy debate, in the course of which the Democrats protested against the application of the "gag," which Hay of Virginia claimed was made to prevent a free expression not only by the Democrats, but by some Republicans, special attention being directed toward Babcock of Wisconsin, the father of the bill to amend the steel schedule of the present law. They also charged that such a method of procedure was minimizing the influence of the House and making it simply a machine to register the decrees of the few men in control.

When the rule was adopted by a vote of 153 to 129 Richardson, to emphasize the fact that debate on the bill could accomplish nothing and that deliberation on it would be fruitless, asked unanimous consent that the bill be placed upon its passage. Not an objection was voiced, and the vote was taken forthwith. Every vote, 278 in number, was cast in the affirmative.

HAWAIIAN FISHES.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, February 24.—Dr. Charles H. Gilbert, head of the department of zoology, is to leave San Francisco at the end of this week or the beginning of next on his long contemplated trip to Hawaii, where he will take charge of the United States Fish Commission work commenced last summer by President Jordan and Dr. O. P. Jenkins. His companions will be Professor C. C. Nutting, the head of the zoology department at the University of Iowa; John O. Snyder, instructor in zoology at Stanford; and Walter K. Fisher, a Stanford graduate with the class of 1901. The Fish Commission steamer Albatross is to be placed at the disposal of the party.

FELL DOWN A HATCH.

E. Swensen a sailor on the bark Kaulani, fell from the bridge into the hold of the vessel this morning, down the forward hatch a distance of 30 feet. He sustained a fracture of the hip it is thought and was otherwise injured. Captain Dabel the master of the vessel, had the man removed to the hospital.

NEW DREDGING COMPANY.

The Hawaiian Dredging Company has filed articles of incorporation with Treasurer Wright. The capital stock is $5,000, with authority for an increase to $250,000. John R. Parker is president George P. Dennison secretary and W. F. Dillingham treasurer. The three officers have 30 shares each and E. W. Atkinson and F. E. Thompson have 5 shares each. The $5,000 stock is divided into 100 shares.

THE BEST Family Cough Remedy

Every day we are asked by customers what Cough Remedy is best to take. Now, we want to tell you just that you want to buy. We also want to tell you what you will be satisfied with, so that you will buy it of us again.

It would be short-sighted and foolish for us to advise you to take one cough remedy in preference to others if that one had not proven itself to be trustworthy and satisfactory. Therefore, when we tell you that we consider the best family cough remedy, we do so advisedly. We know that it will stand the test.

SORETHROAT

is a thing that easily runs into Bronchitis and Tonsillitis, if it is not taken care of. It is due to inflammation of the mucous lining of the throat and larynx. If this inflammation is not checked, it can do three things. It can attack the tonsils, whereupon it is called "Tonsillitis." It can attack the bronchial tubes, whereupon it is called "Bronchitis." It can attack the tubes and "Asthma" or "Catarrhal Asthma" if outside the tubes. Or it can work down into the lungs and give you a consumption "scare" (which may turn out to be real consumption).

Putnam's Cherry Cough Comfort

draws out the inflammation in Sore-throat, Hoarseness and early stages of Tonsillitis and Bronchitis. It is quick, gentle, thorough and entirely natural.
