ARTICLE THREE OF THE CONSTITUTION

"All men may freely speak, write and publish their sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right, and no law shall be enacted to restrain the liberty of speech, or of the press."

[Article 3 of the Constitution.]
The resolution introduced into the House in regard to an item in the ADVERTISER would deserve to be dismissed simply with a smile and a jest, if it did not involve a very serious principle. Its subject matter was the merest trifle, something which did not deserve either legislative or editorial discussion. But the idea which lay at the foundation of the resolution is inconsistent with the rights guaranteed to all men by Article 3 of the Constitution, and if rigidly carried out would be subversive of the liberty of speech and of the press. It is because it bears that character that we take this opportunity to protest, in the interest of the whole people, against any abridgement of these liberties by legislative usurpation.

The question involved in the particular case giving rise to a discussion of the general principle is not at all whether the ADVERTISER's jest was either witty, suitable, or in good taste. For the purposes of this argument it may be conceded that it was wanting in all these qualities. But no greater, no more dangerous error could be made than by assuming that because a remark is open to objection in any or all of these particulars, it therefore becomes a proper subject for legislative action. The application of such an idea would destroy all freedom of speech. No two men can be relied on to agree as to what is or is not legitimate criticism. The tone and temper in which public affairs are discussed are matters which depend upon taste and temperament, and if the Legislature undertakes to punish summarily and without a trial every public criticism, the tone or sentiment of which does not happen to commend itself to a majority of its members, it will abuse its own prerogatives in order to trample upon the constitutional rights of citizens.

The power given by the Constitution to the Legislature to punish by imprisonment persons publishing false reports of its proceedings or insulting comments upon the same, was granted in order to enable that body, as an independent branch of the Government, to maintain its dignity without recourse to the Courts. It was not intended to invest the persons of legislators with a sacredness which the law does not attach to the highest officials of the Crown, and it certainly was not intended to enable the Legislature arbitrarily and without process to abridge or nullify rights guaranteed by the fundamental law to every citizen. Article 3 of the Constitution is part of a bill of rights, and is far more important than Article 51. The latter does not exist in all Constitutions, and may some day disappear from ours. The former is an indispensable part of every Constitution of freemen. The power of summary punishment granted by Article 51 is a dangerous power at best, and should be exercised with great self-restraint, and only in cases of extreme necessity. Legislatures are partisan bodies, and very apt to be controlled by the rooted prejudice of years, as by the heated passion of the moment. Neither passion nor prejudice is a safe guide, and it is bad policy to expose the fundamental rights of the citizen to the gusts which blow from either. In general, it is safe to say that legislators should be left for protection to the administration of the civil and criminal law of libel, which contains a definition of their rights, as it does of those of every private citizen, and which offers an ample remedy for every infringement upon them. We believe this view will commend itself to judicious and conservative men everywhere, as it certainly will to all ardent lovers of liberty. If it is not correct, then the freedom of speech and of the press, and with them every guarantee of the constitutional rights of the citizen, are at the mercy of the momentary will of a partisan legislative majority.

It is proper for legislators to remember that they are the servants and not the masters of the people. They are not the rulers, but the holders of delegated powers, for the use of which they are strictly accountable. It is in the interest of the people, and in execution of their will, that the newspaper turns the full light of publicity upon the acts of their representatives, and it is presumption, and nothing but presumption, in these to fancy themselves placed upon a pinnacle, above and beyond the reach of comment and criticism.

As for the ADVERTISER, it cannot accept, as it believes the public will not, an interpretation of the Constitution which justifies an unwise, inexpedient and unjust interference with the liberty of discussion and of the press. On the contrary, it will maintain those rights at all hazards, and lose no opportunity to raise its protest against every attempt to suppress or abridge privileges which are the safeguards of freedom throughout the world.

HOUSE NOTES.

Poetry circulated freely in the House yesterday, and the following inspired stanzas were caught as they went by the reporters' desk on the fly:

O, Bill, you are a terror,
For hours you now have talked,
To show there is no error
In your Gaming bill just balked;
'Tis fun to hear you talk, Bill,
When one has time to wait;
But now pray take a walk, Bill,
And finish this debate.

HIS SECOND OFFENSE.
How did that windy White bassoon,
Descant on gambling midgits,
And howling on till night from noon,
Put all the House in figgits.

BEAUMONT & FLETCHER.
The House was greatly moved by the remarks of Rep. White on the Pakapio bill yesterday. In fact, nothing before this session has had such a moving influence. At 4 o'clock the scant quorum of the early afternoon had "moved," and the Lahaina statesman talked to empty chairs until the House adjourned for want of a quorum.

Rep. White began ab ovo yesterday. He went back 4000 years and gave a history of pakapio.

A member said yesterday he learned to play pakapio when he was a deputy sheriff. That is believed to be the usual course.

During Rep. White's famous speech against time yesterday, Nobles Baldwin and Marsden commenced to fan their colleague to give him renewed wind. When last seen, Noble Marsden was in search of a bucket and a large sponge to rub Mr. White down.

The House took no recess yesterday. It sat from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. Some of the members complain that rats get into their desks and gnaw bills which are not too dry. The Sergeant-at-Arms bought a half-dozen traps and yesterday caught his first rat. The Sergeant thinks he will need a trap for each desk. In that case members will have to step around with care.

The member from Lahaina says he thinks he can tire out the House. Well, "what man has done man can do."

Rep. White talked yesterday from noon until — while the members solaced themselves on bread and cheese. A certain Noble expressed also a desire for some "light wine and beer."

Rep. White talked and stuffed himself with bread and cheese at the same time. It is astonishing that where so much that was good went in so little that was good came out.

There was always a Chinaman on hand in the House yesterday, sometimes one and sometimes another, watching, no doubt, to see whether the hon. member from Lahaina was doing his duty.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., L'd.

Tuesday, July 5, 1892.

A between-season announcement is difficult to arrange even in the Hardware trade; it's too soon to ask your attention to Christmas novelties and too late to attempt to persuade you to buy a pair of skates. Our list of wares, however, comprise articles seasonable and servicable twelve months in the year: it is very little difference what your tastes or needs are, you are reasonably sure of being suited in our store—we're through stock taking and some things you have not seen are now enjoying the little sunlight that comes into the show rooms.

We were through with breaking Plows for this season and had decided to devote all of this space to some other kind of literature but more inquiries came to us from parties on the other islands in the group and a illustrations of alleged breaking Plows were appearing in this paper we deemed it advisable to take another turn at it and let the people see a picture of the only real breaking Plow in the Kingdom—hence our three column ad on another page. Read it, examine the illustration and before you know it you will agree with the others in pronouncing the Henry Breaker far and away ahead of anything of the kind you ever saw.

Among the prettiest of the new goods to arrive last week were the Silver Tea Sets, Ice Pitchers and recent ideas in Butter Dishes—not an old pattern in the lot. The Tea Sets will probably suit your fancy if you want to be really swell at table, the Butter Dishes with their plate glass butter holders covering an etching exquisite will be next in order your wants closely followed by the neatest silver water pitcher we have ever had.

For three months we have been trying to get a particular sort of rat trap—a kind that would catch an unlimited number of rats at one setting and to arrange that it would not, to any great extent, interfere with the comfort of the rats, something roomy and convenient. We found what we wanted in the invention of a Frenchman. (It was a Frenchman who invented the Aermotor). We received the traps at the store at three o'clock Friday afternoon and sold six of them before we closed the store for the day—and it wasn't a very busy day either. If you like a catch-e-alive trap ours is what you want.

A wedding last week was a drain on our cut glass stock but we have enough left to furnish gifts for a half dozen more couples—if you have not examined the stock there's no better time than now.

THE 4TH ON MAUI.

Successful Race Meeting at Kahului.

Large Attendance—Fine Weather—Arrangements Perfect—Honolulu Sends a Delegation.

The Glorious Fourth was celebrated on the Island of Maui by the Sixth Annual Meeting of the Maui Racing Association at Spreckels' Park, Kahului. It is wonderful how this Association has grown, for this meeting under notice was much more interesting than the one at Kapiolani Park on June 11. The entries comprised some of the best horses in this Kingdom, and the result was a most excellent day's racing. The Wilder Steamship Company showed commendable enterprise when it planned an excursion to this race meeting at Kahului, on the fine steamer Claudine. The result was that nearly one hundred passengers left on her, including twelve members of the Royal Hawaiian Band.

Leaving Honolulu on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, the good steamer, in command of the genial Captain Davis, arrived at Kahului at daylight on the 4th. It was a pleasant trip, though quite a number of the passengers were seasick. But what does that matter; it may be the means of saving doctors' bills. Mr. Arthur Wilder acted as purser during the trip and the passengers have reason to thank him very much for his kind attention.

The Claudine anchored alongside the brig Consuelo, and the two vessels were dressed with bunting. Going ashore, Mr. G. P. Wilder, the superintendent, was in attendance to see to the landing of the passengers. At this early hour all Kahului was astir and people were arriving in large numbers every few minutes from the surrounding districts. A large number of the Honolulu people repaired to the home of Mr. Chas. H. Broad, whose hospitality throughout the day was characteristic of a man with a large heart. He made all feel quite at home and then told them to call again. Many thanks Charlie for your hospitality, was heard on all sides on departure.

Now we come across the handsome U. S. Consul, Mr. A. F. Hopke, who grasps your hand and bids you welcome. And before you can move another step Mr. L. M. Vetlesen, the secretary, greets you. It does one good to get among the Kahului people; they are so cordial in their greetings of welcome and so hospitable. A large party were entertained at Consul Hopke's residence during the day, including many ladies. American flags were flying in every direction and business was entirely suspended. A detachment of the Royal Hawaiian Band played several selections before going to the Park. The weather was very fine, but there was a breeze blowing which at times was a little uncomfortable. The races were announced to commence at 10 o'clock, but long before that hour the grand stand was crowded and several hundred people were scattered around the track. It was to be regretted that the Hon. R. D. Walbridge, the president of the Association, was not present, but important business prevented his leaving Honolulu. The officers for the day were as follows: Judges, Hugh Center, W. A. McKay and H. H. Plummer; Starters, D. L. Meyer and E. Biven; Clerk of the Course, Dr. Geo. Herbert; Timekeepers, A. F. Hopke and E. Hoffmann; Patrol Judge, Ed. Krueger; Saddling Paddock, L. von Tempel.

The track was in very good condition, the Association having spared no pains to make it so. There were fourteen races on the programme. The Hon. W. H. Cornwell was the hero of the day, for his horses carried off one half of the events. The excitement was intense when Amarino galloped home an easy winner from Senator Stanford for the Kahului Purse—one mile dash. Senator Stanford wasn't in it at all, and the time, 1:49½ on a half-mile track, shows how fast the race was run. Amarino's victory was most popular, and the little Major was warmly congratulated on all sides. During the afternoon this wonderful luck was accounted for by the presence on one side of the track of the Major's kahuna, attired in a costume of bright red. Judge Kepoikai was the first one to make the discovery. The judges are to be congratulated for their impartial decisions. One race had to be run over again, and one heat of a trotting race was given to the second horse.

During an intermission a splendid champagne lunch was given by Mr. A. F. Hopke, at his residence. He was ably assisted in doing the honors of host by Mr. Vetlesen. The Hon. Paul Neumann (the genial Paul) during the lunch proposed the health of the host in well-chosen words. He was very witty in his reference to the bachelor way of living of the host and his neighbor, and made timely suggestions to them for the future.

The races were over about 5 o'clock, and it did not take long for the big crowd to disperse. Those bound for Honolulu went on board the Claudine, but the vessel did not get away until 9 o'clock. Just previous to her sailing there was a fine display of fireworks let off from the bridge of the steamer. The Maui Racing Association must be congratulated on the great success of the meeting. There was no hitch at all during the day, the judges were sound in their decisions and everyone went away perfectly satisfied.

A detachment of the Royal Hawaiian Band played during the day, and there was also singing at intervals by the Quintette Club in the grand stand.

The following is the result of the races:

1st RACE—SPRECKELSVILLE PURSE, $60.00.
Running Race, 1 mile dash; free for all Hawaiian bred horses.

W. H. Cornwell's b. c. Amarino, 3 yrs., 109 lbs., 1
C. H. Broad's b. g. Ivanhoe, Jr., aged, 115 lbs., 2

R. Ballentyne's Queen L. was withdrawn. Amarino got the best of a good start. At the quarter pole Ivanhoe crept up a little, but Amarino, well ridden by Slocum, had all ways the best of it, and won easily at the finish by a neck. Frank Jones rode Ivanhoe, Jr. Time, 59 sec.

2nd RACE—WAIKAPU PURSE, $80.00.
Running Race, 1 mile dash; free to all.

There were only two entries for this race, W. H. Cornwell's Lord Brock and Lahaina Stables' Joe Stacy. The latter did not put in an appearance, and Lord Brock was ridden over the course. The Judges stated that by the rules of the Association the owner of Lord Brock was entitled to his entrance fee and one half the entrance fee of the second horse.

3rd RACE—LAHAINA PURSE, $100.00.
Trotting and Pacing Race, 1 mile heats best 2 in 3, to harness. For all horses without a record of 3:20 or better.

Lahaina Stables' b. h. Lahaina Chief, 4 yrs., 115 lbs., 1
J. V. Kerr's bl. m. Lady Venture, 4 yrs., 115 lbs., 2
Wm. Goodness' roan g. Rex, 4 yrs., 115 lbs., 3

Much amusement was caused in the first heat by the way Messrs. Kerr and Goodness handled their animals, and the crowd cheered them over and over again. Lahaina Chief had no trouble whatever in winning both heats.

Between the heats of the above race there was a match race, half-mile dash, between D. Center's Little Dave and Sam Sing's Hong Kong. The latter, ridden by Frank Jones, took the lead at starting, but Little Dave, ridden by Slocum, soon began to make up lost ground, and before two hundred yards was gone had the lead, maintaining it to the end, and winning by a length and a half. Time, 57 sec.

4th RACE—WAILUKU PURSE, $100.00.
Running Race, 1 mile and repeat; free to all Hawaiian bred horses.

W. H. Cornwell's g. g. Billy C., 6 yrs., 115 lbs., 1
C. H. Broad's b. g. Ivanhoe, Jr., aged, 115 lbs., 2
R. Ballentyne's bl. m. Queen L., 4 yrs., 113 lbs., 3

In the first heat Billy C. got away first, Ivanhoe, Jr., second, Queen L. last. This position was maintained to the end, Billy C. winning by two lengths.

Billy C. took the lead in the second heat, and won at the finish by a length and a half; Ivanhoe, Jr., second; Queen L. third. Slocum rode Billy C. very cleverly in both heats.

5th RACE—KAHULUI PURSE, $125.00.
Running Race, 1 mile dash; free to all.

W. H. Cornwell's b. c. Amarino, 3 yrs., 105 lbs., 1
H. Focke's g. h. Senator Stanford, 5 yrs., 124 lbs., 2
R. Ballentyne's bl. m. Queen L., 4 yrs., 113 lbs., 3

Senator Stanford carried 44 lbs. overweight. The race was looked upon as a certainty for the Senator. They got away to a good start, Amarino taking the lead. Before half a mile had been run, Stanford began to draw up to Amarino, but it was of no avail, as Amarino sailed away from the grey, and won the race in the easiest possible manner. There was great excitement among the spectators during the progress of the race. Time, 1:49½.

6th RACE—HANA PURSE, $125.00.
Trotting and Pacing Race, 1 mile heats, best 2 in 3, to harness. Free to all horses with no better record than 3:00.

There were three entries for this race, Waikapu Maid and Minnie owned by W. H. Cornwell, and Bell Ringer. The latter was withdrawn, and there was no race.

7th RACE—KULA PURSE, $50.00.
Running Race, 1 mile dash; for Ponies 14 hands and under, to carry 100 lbs. and upwards.

D. Center's Little Dave, aged, 100 lbs., 1
W. L. Mossman's Whistling Coon, aged, 100 lbs., 2
C. H. Broad's Flash, 4 yrs., 100 lbs., 3

Flash got the best of a good start, but bolting, let up Little Dave, who, ridden by Slocum, won at the finish quite easily. Flash nearly fell at the quarter mile pole. Time, 59 sec.

8th RACE—MANA CUP, Value $150.00 or its equivalent in coin.
Running Race, 1 mile dash; free to all Hawaiian bred horses.

H. Focke's g. h. Senator Stanford, 5 yrs., 125 lbs., 1

R. Ballentyne's g. m. Yum Yum, 5 yrs., 115 lbs., 2
W. H. Cornwell's g. g. Billy C., 6 yrs., 117 lbs., 3

Senator Stanford carried five pounds overweight. This race had to be run twice before being decided. The first time Yum Yum came in first by two lengths, but as it was apparent to the Judges there had been some foul riding they ordered the race to be run over again. This was done later in the afternoon. At the fall of the flag Yum Yum took the lead, Stanford last. Before going two hundred yards Stanford had moved into second place and improving his position gradually caught Yum Yum on the home stretch, winning the race by half length. Jim Crow rode Stanford. Time, 2:23.

9th RACE—WAIHEE PURSE, $150.00.
Trotting and Pacing Race, 1 mile heats, best 3 in 5. All horses with a record of 2:30 or better to go to road cart and carry 185 lbs.

W. H. Cornwell's g. g. Johnny Hayward, 2 1 1 2 1
P. Ballentyne's br. g. Billy, 1 1 2 1 2
Lahaina Stables' b. g. Blizz, 3 2 3 3 3

Time—2:44; 2:42; 2:42; 2:48; 2:44.
First Heat—Billy took the lead at word go, and held it throughout, though very closely pressed by Hayward at the finish.

Second Heat—Billy again took the lead, but after completing half a mile ran rather wide, letting up Hayward who won the heat easily.

Third Heat—Hayward was the first away and never being headed, won by two lengths.

Fourth Heat—Hayward passed the wire first by fifteen lengths, but the heat was given to Billy on a foul.

Fifth Heat—Billy got away first but after half a mile had been trotted, Hayward passed him and coming along on fine style, won the heat and the race. Johnny Hayward was driven by Decker, Billy by D. Davis and Blizz by Gordon.

Joe was the first away. Black Diamond last. On coming up the stretch the first time the latter improved his position and soon after tried hard to pass Joe, but could not, and Joe won the race by a length and a half. Elector was a long way behind. Dr. Herbert carried thirty-eight pounds overweight, if he had not, the result might have been different. Time, 1:58½. The gold medal is a handsome one, and was won by Mr. Ballentyne after his victory.

11th RACE—QUEEN LILILOKA LANCUP, Purse $150.00.

It took some little time to get the four animals started. They finally got away to a fair start. Lord Brock assuming the lead, J. A. C. second and Stanford last. At the quarter pole Yum Yum took second place and Stanford passed J. A. C. Stanford then made a great effort to catch Lord Brock, but the latter kept moving and won a capital contested race by two lengths. This was the second time that Major Cornwell's horses had beaten Senator Stanford. Time, 2:20. Lord Brock pulled so during the race that Slocum his jockey was quite exhausted at the finish.

STAND BY PABST BEER.

Workingmen Say it is Purely a

Union Product.

No Reason Why it Should be Boycotted.

The Federated Trades Council Declares that the K. of L. Boycott is the Result of Rivalry Between the

Pabst and Anheuser-Busch Co's—

The Pabst Company Much More

Favorable to Labor than the St.

Louis Brewers.

The Federated Trades Council at its meeting last night listened to a report from a delegation from the local Journeymen's Brewers union, and then passed by a unanimous vote the following resolutions:

"Whereas, The Executive board of the Knights of Labor, in session at Pittsburg, Pa., May 14, 1892, placed a boycott upon the Pabst beer of Milwaukee in favor of the Anheuser-Busch beer of St. Louis, alleging that the Pabst beer is a non-union product,

"Whereas, the situation relative to the employment of labor by the two breweries is as follows: The Pabst Brewing company's beer is an exclusively made union product. All its ingredients are prepared by union labor, while the malt used by the Anheuser-Busch company, as alleged, is bought largely at malt houses located in small towns, where non-union labor is employed at a greatly reduced figure. Within the year unions in every branch of labor employed by the Pabst Brewing company have been formed, and such labor is now working under a scale perfectly satisfactory to them and which continues in force one year from its adoption.

"Whereas, the Pabst Brewing company, which is represented both in the union and Knights of Labor, operates under the jurisdiction of the International Brewers' association. The labor employed by the Pabst Brewing company, in settling its scale for the present year, secured all requests sought by it and no dissatisfaction exists relative to it among any of said employees,

"Whereas, There appearing no reason why organized labor in any form should complain at the Pabst Brewing company's method of dealing with its employees or with the rights of organized labor, the Pabst Brewing company being only one of the brewing concerns of this and other cities in which the same scale is in use, all working under the same jurisdiction of the International Brewers' union;

"Resolved, That by selecting the Pabst Brewing company for a boycott under the above circumstances, the Executive board of the Knights of Labor has perpetrated not only a manifest injustice on the Pabst Brewing company, which employs only union labor throughout, but upon the cause of organized labor which can offer no valid reason for the placing of said boycott.

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this council, that it is the duty of all organized labor to give the same protection to employers of such labor in the distribution and sale of their product that is demanded by such labor of employers in the recognition and employment of such organized labor.

"Resolved, That inasmuch as we know the charge that Pabst beer is a non-union made product to be utterly false and without foundation, and believe that the boycott placed at Pittsburg has been incited and instigated by and through the agents of the Anheuser-Busch company because of the rivalry existing between it and the Pabst company, we hereby appeal in the interest of fairness to the Pabst company as well as in the interest of organized labor which cannot prosper under the employment of such diverse and unfair methods, to the International Brewers' union, to demand that the Executive committee of the Knights of Labor lift immediately said boycott, and that widespread public announcement be made of the same when done.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the officers of the American Federation of Labor at once with the request that they adopt the same or other resolutions to the same effect."

ARRIVALS:

Many of the arrivals by each

"Australia" go to the Hawaiian

Hotel, still a great many put up at

E. O. Hall & Sons for a short time.

Our arrivals by the last "Australia" were from several parts of the world. A large excursion party came to us from Sheffield, England, by way of Panama and San Francisco; they were the Pocket Knife branch of the Knife family, $525 worth in Sheffield, not a very big sum you may say, still enough to get a few dozen each of thirty-three different styles, and if you want to see some choice Knives drop in and look them over, they are right near the Fort Street entrance. People that happened in the day we were opening them up evidently thought they were good, as we sold 39 to different ones during the afternoon. The above family wishing to be in Sharp Company on their long trip, started, and came all the way in the same Compartment with over a gross of assorted Razors. All we have to say about these are that they are the three famous makes, "Rodgers," "Bengal," and Wade & Butcher. Every "little Shaver" knows these makes, and uses them. But you want to know what other arrivals we had by the last Australia, so let us run down the list together; besides Knives and Razors from England, we had Brass Cup Hooks, Hall's Rice Sickles, Eley's Cartridges, Imray's Charts, Clark's & French Horse Clippers, 65 dozen assorted Stubs Saw Files, 32 dozen assorted Stubs Jewelers' Files, Mattress Needles, 100 boxes Shoe Thread, 100 lb. Emery Powder, assorted, Stubs Plyers.

Now from Boston (by rail) via San Francisco we had, 64 assorted Bailey's Patent Planes, and some 48 in. Cotton Duck. A big lot of rail goods started from Boston the same time as above but in the race overland these two items must have beaten the balance to San Francisco as nothing more on this invoice came along by the Australia.

We have an idea the Planes (which we were short of) and the Duck (which we were all out of) knew they were badly needed and took a "Vestibule Train," and hurried through. The balance of this invoice, which will come along by the "Mariposa," have among the items No. 1 and 2 Ship Pumps, Metaline & Roller, Bushed Sheaves, Disston's Files, Saw Screws and Saws, Binacle Lamps, Galvanized Rowlocks, Carpenters' Hammers, Top Maules, Fodder Cutters, Knives, White Shellac, Coopers' Vices, Horse and Barbers Clippers, Bronze Powder, "Thoms Navigator," Hand Levels, and Pedometers, Whip Sockets, Grommets, Steel Letters and Figures, 1-1/2-3-16in., Pruning Shears, Tailors' Squares, Copper and tinned Wire, on spools etc., in all a 9-page invoice of assorted Hardware.

Last of all comes our list of arrivals from San Francisco: Leather, 39 rolls of Sole, Harness, Saddle, Splits, Buff and Lace; 45-70 405-500 grain Frankfort Arsenal Bullets, Turkey and Ostich Feather Dusters, Cotton Hose, Block Tin, Tin, Phoenix Horse Shoes, Mill and House Brooms, Horse Collars and Collar Pads, Paper Bags, Rifles, Revolvers, Belting, Carriage and Machine Bolts, Log and Wood Screws, Brass Stencil Combination, 1 to 2 in., Fence Wire Pullers, 24 and 24 in. Clinch Nails, Blue Stone.

You now see we had our share of the arrivals by last Australia. Many of our arrivals started in, soon after putting up at our place, to see the islands, a number having gone to Hawaii and Maui, and the 59 members of the Knife family are skipping all over town, in the pockets of their owners.

Come in and see some of our Goods and take some with you, if you wish.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Thirtieth Day.

TUESDAY, July 5.

The House met at 10 o'clock, a quorum being present. After prayer by the Chaplain, minutes of the twenty-ninth day were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

Rep. Wilder presented a petition from E. Coit Kobron that the sum of $200 be inserted in the Appropriation bill for sand taken from his premises. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

Rep. Kamao presented a petition from Honolulu, praying that all light cases of leprosy at Molokai be returned to Kalihiki for treatment by Dr. Lowell. Referred to Sanitary Committee.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Kalua read by title a bill, of which he gave notice some time ago, entitled an Act relating to property of deceased persons. Ordered to be printed.

Rep. Kamao presented a petition from Honolulu, praying that the sum of $2500 be inserted in the Appropriation bill for the purpose of building a school-house near the home-lands at Hanalei, Hawaii. Referred to Education Committee.

Rep. Koahou, under suspension of rules, presented a petition from Central Hilo with 12 names, praying that the duty on rice be removed. Referred to Rice Committee.

Noble Baldwin presented two petitions from Kula, Maui, praying that the terms of homestead be extended to three years. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

Rep. Koahou presented a petition from Hilo with 66 names, praying that the Hawaiian language be made the official language.

Noble Baldwin moved that the hon. Noble bring in a bill. Laid on the table to be considered with bill.

Noble Baldwin, under suspension of rules, presented a report of the Finance Committee on petition No. 56, presented to the Legislature by C. B. Brewer & Co., agents of the Onomea Sugar Company, they beg leave to report that the committee had given it careful consideration.

The petition alleges that 6700 bags of sugar ($87,500 lbs.) had been longly taxed by the assessors of the kingdom, and prays that an item of $338 be inserted in the Appropriation bill to be refunded to the Onomea Sugar Company. The committee recommend passage of the item. (Signed: H. B. Baldwin, J. A. Akina, K. M. Kōhau, E. C. Macfarlane and L. A. Thurston.) Report adopted.

Noble Baldwin also reported on petition No. 179. The petition is from J. H. Paty, President of the Kawailoa Ranch Company, and alleges that he had inadvertently returned for taxation two parcels of leased land at Waiwala from the Emerson estate. The petitioner for and on account of the Kawailoa Ranch Company, prays for the recovery of $120, which he claims had been overpaid to the Government for taxes. The committee recommend passage of the item. (Signed by all members of the committee.) The report was adopted.

Rep. Smith, chairman of the Molokai Committee, presented preliminary report of their visit to Molokai; a full report will be presented at an early date. The committee's thanks are due to the I. L. S. N. Co. for use of the steamer Waiwalele to Kalaupapa.

Rep. Kamao moved that the preliminary report be accepted and laid on the table, and the Secretary be instructed to present the thanks of the House to the I. L. S. N. Company. Carried.

On motion of Rep. Kamao, the House proceeded, at 10:30 A.M., to the ORDER OF THE DAY.

Third reading of Bill No. 32, relating to liens and sheltering, pasturing and feeding of animals.

Noble Macfarlane moved it be the order of the day for Thursday, as the introducer (Noble Neumann) was absent. Passed.

Second reading of Bill 55, authorizing the Minister of the Interior to license gambling of all kinds. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Second reading of Bill 56, an Act to abolish the office of Tax Assessor-in-Chief and to provide for the discharge of the duties now performed by said Tax Assessor-in-Chief. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Second reading of Bill 50, an Act to license gaming at pakapao, and to amend and supplement Chapter 41 of the Laws of 1885.

Noble Neumann moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, for he deemed it the duty of the House to kill it right then and there. The introducer, Rep. White, could not state one reason why the bill should pass.

Rep. Bush thought the bill was a fraud, and advised the House to turn their faces against anything which tends to lower and degrade the Government and the House. Bills of this nature are doing much to kill the nation.

Rep. White, the introducer of the bill, held that the motion to indefinitely postpone it was out of order. If a special order were set for the bill he would undertake to give good reasons for its passage. The idea of the bill was to place this vice under some control. Some people very high in station patronize the game. They don't go to these places themselves, but they send someone to buy tickets for them. The bill is undoubtedly crude, but it should be sent to a committee to put it into proper shape. It was commonly reported that the police were completely under the control of the people running these games. As the law was carried out at present the small flies were caught while the big ones were strong enough to push through the web. The poor men were arrested and the others let go. He moved the bill be considered in the Committee of the Whole in one week from Thursday.

Noble Neumann hoped that whatever was done, that would not be done. He had not impugned the member's motives in any way. The game was not legitimate nor decently honest. It was simply systematized robbery. The House had no right to legalize it and it was an insult to the House to ask it to consider it in the Committee of the Whole. It was an indecent bill, and the only proper course was to indefinitely postpone it.

Rep. White asked which was worse, a law giving a woman the right to go around and prostitute herself, or a law like this.

Noble Neumann said that was a totally different matter. If a woman was driven by necessity to that course he did not propose to interfere with her. But this bill was to legalize systematized robbery. There were lotteries all over the world, and he had played in them, but he had never heard of any attempt to legalize swindling games like che fa and pakapao. The carrying on of these games was fruitful in fees, but when respectable people were deluded into playing and then swindled out of the very substantial winnings it was time not to lend countenance to any such thing. A native had been cheated out of a prize of $30 or $40, won on the worst possible game, because the keeper of the game alleged that he had written a U instead of a W. He drank himself, but admitted that the licensed sale of liquor was bad. It was a matter of degree. Some people could use it in moderation. He had indulged in lotteries, but not in prostitution. Probably the member from Lahaina could enlighten him on that subject. The member seemed to argue that because a thing was bad it should be licensed. He could not see the logic of that position. It would follow that larceny should be licensed. Even if it were true that high officials were bribed—which he did not believe—that was no justification for a bill like this. And he would ask the member from Lahaina—a gentleman known for his learning and understanding—whether he really thought that the Chinese had grown too strong for the laws? For such a bill there was but one amendment—to choke it to death the moment you see it. There was no use in referring it to the Judiciary Committee, for that committee would unanimously recommend indefinite postponement.

Minister Widemann wished the President would make the member from Lahaina sit down. He had let him speak once, and now he thought he owned the floor. The entering wedge in establishing things like these, was to get the Government to derive a revenue from them. The spirit of the age was against these things. A great fight had gone on in Louisiana against just such another evil as this, and his hopes had been the favored sending the bill to committee. The bill was not an insult to the House. He would move the previous question. (Calls of kokua.) Carried.

The President ruled that the motion to indefinitely postpone was in order. Rep. White appealed from the decision of the Chair. The decision of the Chair was sustained.

Noble Baldwin also reported on petition No. 179. The petition is from J. H. Paty, President of the Kawailoa Ranch Company, and alleges that he had inadvertently returned for taxation two parcels of leased land at Waiwala from the Emerson estate. OYSTERS AND SEEDS

Are valuable for what's in 'em. Good and bad oysters look alike in the shell. Good and bad seeds often have the same appearance. Any one can tell a worthless oyster on opening it. The value of a seed must be determined by its growth. This makes its quality worth considering. You want seeds that will grow, and you want the product to be of value. There is but one guarantee—the reliability of the firm from which you buy.

THE BISHOP MUSEUM

Rare Collection of Hawaiian Relics — 5000 Polynesian Curios.

(Concluded.)

Some of the kapa and mats in the museum possess a history, which renders them doubly interesting as relics, transmitted as heirlooms through several generations. Among the mats is one of most exquisite and delicate texture, measuring 14 by 30 feet in size. Probably one hundred dollars would not purchase it, were it for sale. Some of the more noted of these were kept for state occasions, when the owner wished to display them, as modern housewives display their daintiest linens and wares.

THE BEAUTIFUL FEATHER KAHILIS.

But the richest objects in the room are the kahilis and feather robes, the former numbering over one hundred, including Queen Emma's superb collection. They possess great interest as relics of the olden time, some of them having been handed down from generation to generation. To those who have never seen one, the kahili may be described as a feathered staff from 12 to 20 feet in length, made of brilliant-colored feathers tied on to branches around the staff, so as to form a cylinder from 12 to 20 inches in diameter and from 4 to 8 feet long. These feathers were formerly plucked from the wings of rare birds of the most brilliant hues—red, yellow, scarlet and green intermixed, it makes one of the most gorgeous, brilliant displays imaginable, and where several hundreds of these rich plumes are borne aloft, as has been done on the occasion of state funerals, they make a sight that can never be forgotten. They are considered as insignias of royalty, the handles being ornamented with ivory rings and, in a few instances, with bones of kings. The display of these brilliant feathered staffs in the museum is a fine one, about 116 in number, and will give the visitor some idea of how grand a procession might appear where hundreds of them are borne aloft.

A HAWAIIAN WARRIOR'S HELMET.

While looking at these kahilis a most unique and brilliant feather helmet will be noticed, resting on a short staff, the only one in the museum. It was once the property of King Kaunaloa, of Kauai, and probably was the last worn by a Hawaiian king. Several of these feather helmets were given to Cook, Vancouver, Byron and other early voyagers, and one or two are still to be found in the museums of Berlin and London, but, being very perishable, they will soon disappear, never to be reproduced. It has been suggested that if a statue of a native chief were prepared and clothed in one of the ancient feather robes now in the Museum, standing with a spear in his right hand, and this feather helmet on his head, it would convey a realistic idea of how the warriors of the olden time appeared when clad for war or state occasions. Such a statue could, doubtless, be made by Mr. Hinchinson, the artist, and stained the natural complexion of the race. He might take, perhaps, as a model the chief Kaiana, who is pictured on page 126 of Alexander's History. It would show to visitors the use of the helmet, how it was worn, and serve to illustrate the imposing appearance of the ancient Hawaiian chiefs, besides adding much to the interest and value of the Museum as a true delineator of the grandeur and martial display of the great prehistoric warriors of Hawaii.

The show case that has this helmet and feather cloak encloses also a rare and valuable collection of old Hawaiian relics and curiosities—almost priceless in value, which can probably never be replaced. On this account great care is taken to preserve them in their original condition, as nearly as possible.

Here may be also seen, sketched on a strip of paper some ten yards in length, a panoramic view of the funeral procession of Kamehameha III., which took place in 1854. It seems to be a faithful representation of one of the most magnificent funeral displays ever seen in Honolulu, and was executed by Paul Emmert.

ANCIENT HAWAIIAN IMPLEMENTS.

Leaving the Kahili room, and crossing the hall, visitors enter the implement room, where will be found a great variety of implements formerly, and in some cases, still made and used by Hawaiians, many of which exhibit their rare skill and ingenuity in handicraft. Here may be also seen scores of small and large bowls and dishes made of the koa, kou and other woods used as food containers; also calabashes of ancient and modern make in endless variety, stone lamps, stone looking glasses, a large collection of personal ornaments some of them very old, stone adzes and other tools used in making canoes, necklaces, bracelets and ankle ornaments, vegetable products, woods, spears and war clubs, stones used in games, ancient idols, etc., etc. One case is filled entirely with the implements used in manufacturing and coloring kapa cloths. This is a very complete collection and illustrates every part of this really skillful handicraft. Besides the Hawaiian exhibits, there are in this room articles from New Zealand, Fiji, Samoa, and other parts of Polynesia. It is, however, intended eventually to keep these in a separate room.

THE ART GALLERY.

Returning to the hall, visitors ascend the beautiful staircase, the sides of which are covered with implements of war, such as spears, war clubs, etc., and enter the art gallery, where are preserved portraits and relics of royalty and other celebrities of the ancient times. Here may be seen original portraits of Kamehameha I., II., III.

and IV., Queen Emma, Ruth, Capt. Vancouver and others. Among the pictures is a sketch of Waimea, Kauai, drawn by the artist of Capt. Cook's expedition of 1778, copied, by permission, from the original in the British Museum. As this collection of portraits and pictures is being added to year by year, as opportunities offer for securing these, it will in time become a very valuable and unique repository of historical Hawaii. It was no doubt the intention of the founder of this institution to have it serve this purpose, and to attract hither many rare Hawaiian curiosities which have been sent to foreign countries, particularly to the United States, where they remain in private hands, liable to be scattered on the death of their possessor, or irretrievably lost by fire.

FINEST COLLECTION OF HAWAIIAN RELICS IN EXISTENCE.

The solid character of this museum building, erected without regard to cost and solely for this object, to become a safe and permanent repository for Hawaiian relics, which are becoming more scarce every year, renders it the natural, as it is the best place in this or any other country to preserve them. It is believed to possess now the richest and rarest collection of Hawaiian relics, which will be increased each year till its fame will attract hither visitors from every part of the world, to see and study Polynesian antiquities, which can nowhere else be found in equal number and perfection.

PROPOSED CATALOGUE.

This Museum is under the able supervision of Prof. Brigham, who is engaged in collecting and arranging new specimens, and in classifying them for a catalogue, which will eventually be published. There are already over 5000 specimens in the museum, not counting duplicates, and as all of these have to be numbered, and many have a history connected with them, the work is a laborious though very interesting one. For this work he seems to be admirably fitted, and visitors will find him, on the stated days for exhibition, ready to show them through the institution. H. M. WHITNEY.

IN ORDER

To be a true follower of Hahnemann and obtain the best results in using Homoeopathic Remedies, several things must be considered.

In the first place, the Medicine must be fresh. While a few months will not impair the medicinal properties of Homoeopathic Remedies yet it is evident that with age it value as a medicine will have depreciated.

Secondly—Homoeopathic Remedies must have proper care. Being very sensitive to light and atmospheric changes, they must be protected from strong lights and damp air.

That they should be kept separate from odors of strong and powerful drugs, must not be ignored.

When these precautions have been complied with, Homoeopathic Remedies will have a fair chance in combating diseases.

We have recently added to our stock, not only a complete line of Boericke & Runyon's Homeo. Remedies, but a full line of Humphreys' Specifics, both domestic and veterinary.

In Boericke & Runyon's line we have the different remedies of the Materia Medica, and many of their specialties, such as Schuessler's Tissue Remedies, in single bottles or cases.

Homoeopathic Cough and Croup Syrup, commonly called B. & S. Syrup.

Homoeopathic Preventive for Seasickness.

Quillaya Pellets for cold in the head.

Homoeopathic Santonine, a vermifuge.

Homoeopathic Arnica Porous Plasters.

Homoeopathic Tincture Calendula for cuts and bruises.

In Humphreys' line we have the Domestic Remedies which sell at 25c. a bottle and the Veterinary Remedies which sell at 60c. a bottle.

We have a large number of Homoeopathic Guide Books, which can be had for the asking.
