GUMBS IS THE GRAFT CHARGER

DECLARED TO BE INSTIGATOR OF ACCUSATION OF WRONGFUL-LY ACCEPTING MONEY MADE AGAINST ABSENT DETECTIVE
LEAL—MAY BE CONNECTED WITH WRITING OF ANONYMOUS
LETTER—BROUGHT ACCUSER IN FROM AIEA.

Gumbs, Spanish negro and interpreter, is the instigator of the charges of graft against Chief of Detectives Joseph Leal who is now taking a vacation for his health on the mainland.

The statement that Gumbs, well known about local courts and the police station, is the instigator of the charge of graft against Leal is made by an official whose duty engages him or would engage him in any investigation of the charges of graft in the police department.

It is known that Gumbs, relative to the case wherein a Spaniard is said to have had something to do with passing Leal money, himself twice went to Aiea, down the railway line, to get the Spaniard to come in to town to start the ball rolling in the matter of allegations against the Chief of Detectives. The first time the Spaniard refused to come to town with Gumbs. On the second occasion Gumbs took down a railway ticket and brought the Spaniard to town with him.

Gumbs is said to be unfriendly to Leal and with the present Porto Rican interpreter in police court.

Gumbs was formerly interpreter in the local courts and police station. He has not held positions long, though there is nothing at present in the way of official information as to why Gumbs left his various positions.

Much has been said of a letter received by the authorities in which charges were made against Leal. This letter may be connected with Gumbs. It was signed "Carl W. Smith" evidently with the intention of trying to make the recipient think it was from the young lawyer on Hawaii, who happens, however, to be Carl S. and not Carl W. Smith.

The envelope carrying the precious document was directed to "The Board

POST MORTEM BOOZE BRINGS HORRID DEATH

YOUNG HAWAIIAN DRINKS AT BABY SISTER'S FUNERAL, QUARRELS
WITH FATHER, SAYS GOOD-BYE AND ARRANGES DEATH COUCH ON RAILWAY TRACK—SPECIAL TRAINS FOR SHERIFF AND THE CORONER'S JURY—NOT NECESSARILY A SUICIDE.

Kane Kaluna, Hawaiian, 22, having indulged in cheap wine at a post mortem luncheon following the funeral of his baby sister, engaged last night in an altercation with his aged father over a quarrel with his two small sisters, and, saying they would never again see him alive, left the house in Kalia and, spreading an oilskin coat on the railway track, lay thereon.

The 11:15 train did the rest.

An inquest will be held tonight, the twisted and mangled remains having been brought into the city last night on the train that killed him.

Kane had frequently quarrelled with his father and had many times declared that he would kill himself, sometimes seizing a knife and threatening to rip his abdomen.

Yesterday his baby sister's body was buried and, following the obsequies, there was quite a gathering at the Kaluna home, there being neighbors there to condole with the stricken family. Incidentally no one having eaten while the small body was awaiting interment, everybody afterward partook of food and some drink, the latter being chiefly what is termed dago-red.

The youth drank with the rest, but whether he was drunk or not seems to be somewhat questioned and it is even suggested that his leaving the house and lying on the railway track was more a matter of trying to scare the family than any intent to commit suicide for it is doubtful if Kane knew there were to be any more trains over the line that night. It is thought possible, that Kane fell asleep under the influence of the intoxicant. He appears to have carefully spread his oil coat on the track the head of the coat, as afterwards found, seeming to indicate that he used one rail as a pillow. Inasmuch as he had always followed a quarrel with his father by a threat to kill himself, the first conclusion would be that he had on this occasion fully intended to carry out his threat, and yet there is nothing to disprove the idea of his having expected people from the house to follow him and behold him doing a scare stunt on the track. A partially drunken man will fall to sleep very suddenly once in a reclining position, say the police, and, while it makes no difference whether the young man intended suicide or was trying to frighten the folks with whom he had been quarrelling, the possibility of his not hav-

Chinese Editor Said To Praise The Assassin

LO SUN, WHO SECURED RULING THAT AN EDITOR IS A TEACHER, IS AGAIN A SUBJECT OF INVESTIGATION—EDITORIAL IN HIS PA-PER WHICH IS SAID TO BE ANARCHISTIC—KOREANS ESCAPE PROSECUTION.

Editor Lo Sun, who runs the Chee Bow Shin, is again in trouble with the immigration authorities, this time over a publication appearing in the paper regarding the assassination of Prince Ito, which it is claimed is anarchistic. It is probable that deportation proceedings will be undertaken against him, on the ground that he is an anarchist. His editorial on the Ito assassination is said to have been worse than the Korean circular already published, which commended the assassin.

The investigation of the Korean case resulted in a decision that no proceedings could be undertaken. The author of the circular has been in the country more than three years, and under the law deportation proceedings in such a case cannot be maintained against a person who has been in the country three years.

Lo Sun, however, is a more recent arrival, and the matter of his editorial China.

utterances has been taken up by the authorities. Lo Sun was before the same authorities a little over a year ago, when deportation proceedings were begun against him on the ground that he had fraudulently obtained admission to the country. He came in as a teacher, and almost at once left his employment and became an editor. He won out on a ruling that an editor is a teacher.

He will now have to stand another deportation proceedings on the ground that he is an anarchist. His paper of last Wednesday, following the Ito assassination, contained an editorial which it stated to have lauded the assassin as a patriot and declared that to get what he deserved.

It is claimed that anyone who stands for this sort of doctrine is an anarchist, and on that showing Lo Sun, having been in the country less than three years, may be deported back to arrival, and the matter of his editorial China.

TWO STATES SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKES

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

SAN FRANCISCO, October 29.—Earthquake shocks were felt throughout the northern section of this state today, and in southern Oregon. Many cities and towns report the tremors and great excitement on the part of the people. As far known, however, the damage resulting from the shakes amounts to nothing of a serious nature.

GIANT PUGS WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

NEW YORK, October 29.—Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight world champion in the ring, have agreed to meet for a fight for world's championship, the event to occur before the club which will offer the best financial inducements to the two pugilists.

According to the agreement entered into in this city today the fight is to be for forty-five rounds, or more if required, straight Queensbury rules to prevail.

Five ounce gloves are stipulated and it is understood between the contracting parties that the fight must be pulled off before July 5, 1910.

It is further agreed that the man who knocks the other out, or who is declared winner, is to receive seventy-five per cent of the proceeds of the exhibition; the loser taking twenty-five per cent.

Fifty thousand dollars has been deposited as a forfeit, and the side bet amounts to five thousand dollars.

Bids from places wanting the fight must be received before December 1. Announcement will be made later as to who are to be referee and stakeholder.

GREEK TORPEDOES REVOLT AND FIRE

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

ATHENS, Greece, October 29.—Navy men, led by Lieutenant Tibaldoh, with eight torpedo-boat destroyers, have revolted. Shots have been exchanged between the torpedo-boats and the government batteries ashore.

BANK OF HAWAII AND FIRST NATIONAL POOLING ISSUES

The amalgamation of the Bank of Hawaii with the First National Bank is probably the next big financial move on the tapis in Honolulu.

While none of the details have been formulated, it is safe to say that such a deal will go through, the Bank of Hawaii (as a regular bank) becoming a part of the First National, and continuing on merely as a savings and trust institution at its old stand.

This deal has been under way for a long while—so long, in fact, that no one seems to know just where it actually started. It originated in mere conversations between stockholders of the respective banks, and developed in the course of time into something real.

Not until yesterday, however, was there anything certain about it, and the matter was then made possible by the approval at Washington of the application of the First National Bank to increase its capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

Cecil Brown, president of the First National, immediately communicated this information to the officials of the Bank of Hawaii and also advised the plan for increase of capital. The importance of this announcement was well understood by the interested parties, and in a short time some of the facts had found their way upon the streets.

The present capitalization of the First National Bank is $500,000, and that of the Bank of Hawaii $600,000. By increasing the capital of the former to $1,000,000 the latter will be let in or absorbed.

NEW ATTORNEY IN HAWAII COUNTY

(Wireless to The Star.)

HILO, October 29.—At a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors held to select a new county attorney in view of the death of Williams, W. H. Beers was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Carl Smith was appointed deputy county attorney to prosecute all criminal cases at the Kailua term of court. Smith has accepted the appointment.

County Attorney Beers is also going to attend the Kailua term of court. Treasured Lalakea and Assistant Lyman have been subpoenaed to appear before the Grand jury.

The Kailua term may have a lot of graft cases, growing out of recent exposures of police officers, who have been grafting right and left by collecting various sums without authority, as "license" fees.

AT THE THEATERS

Cohen's experiment of giving to Honolulu a double vaudeville program at moving picture rates proved a big success last night—at least in so far as the house and the quality of the entertainment were concerned. As might have been expected, the Orpheum theater was jammed. The low price of seats proved simply irresistible, and it seemed that everybody wanted to jam into the place. Here were those who suspected that Mr. Cohen could not possibly put on the immense program advertised for the money. But they were mistaken. Every feature came up, and there was not a dull stunt in the entire series.

The Wise & Milton aggregation of minstrels, which had returned from the other islands with new cards up their sleeves, never appeared in better form, while the Armstrong-Verne combination, from the Royal Hawaiian Opera House, completed a program seldom witnessed here. The moving picture selections, which held the boards for half an hour where very good.

The great combined show will be repeated tonight, and the same low prices of 20, 10 and 5 cents will be charged for admission and seats.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Patrons of the Empire will have a chance this evening to see "Fighting Bob." As is easily suspected, Admiral Evans is referred to. "What Drink Did" is a sketch with a fine moral. Besides these features there will be a number of comedy films of a highly pleasing character.

BIG FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

Let everybody remember the big fire works display to be put on at Athletic park tomorrow night. This show will be in charge of an expert from Japan, who has arranged a series of the most attractive set pieces ever brought together in one place. In the east they charge $1 to $2 for pyrotechnic exhibitions of this class.

The program will start at 8 o'clock sharp tomorrow night. General admission has been fixed at 15 cents, while extra is charged for reserved or special accommodations.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

The above is the name of the feature film to be put on at the Park theater this evening. "Miss Faust" is another good selection. It is a burlesque and is full of laughs. Another funny stunt is put on by "Alphonse." The little girls will also appear in new songs.

LOVE FINDS A WAY.

The above film at the Art theater is filled with ludicrous situations from first to last. A wealthy old codger is touring the world with an only son. While in Spain the latter meets and falls in love with a bewitching senorita. The old man won't stand for the infatuation at all, so the young couple devise a scheme to gain his consent. After many funny experiences the young man's father is made to believe that his boys' "duelina" saves his life at imminent danger to her own, and papa finally gives his consent.

This film has a record of "a laugh a second," so don't fail to see it. The acting is good, especially that of the leading characters.

Brigandage plays an important part in this plot, which bit of coloring is unique in itself.

The balance of the program for Friday and Saturday is on a par with that usually seen at the Art and no one is a loser by the purchase of a seat for any of its performances.

A Million Dollars From Rockefeller To Fight Hookworm

(Associated Press, Morning Service.)

NEW YORK, October 29.—John D. Rockefeller has announced that he will give a million dollars to fight the hookworm which it is claimed is responsible for the miserable condition of many thousands of people in the South. Mr. Rockefeller provides in making his munificent donation that the conduct of the fight against the disease shall be in the hands of a competent commission of scientists.

The appalling condition of thousands of the so-called "poor whites" of the South, and of a large proportion of the negro population, also, has recently been discovered to be due, not to laziness and general shiftlessness, as was for a long time supposed, but to the presence in the human body of a parasite called the hookworm. Thorough scientific investigation has disclosed the fact that this parasite saps the blood and thereby the energy of its victim, producing dullness, listlessness and often death. Many of the victims of the hookworm, in the worst stages of the disease, become addicted to the dirt-eating habit, and are called throughout the South, "clay-eaters."

The extremely unsanitary conditions that prevail throughout many districts of the South are said to be largely responsible for the prevalence of the hookworm disease. Most of the negroes are the living homes of hookworm colonies, but are apparently little or not at all affected by the parasite, but are capable of spreading the disease among their less immune white neighbors.
In some districts there is hardly a person who is not afflicted with the hookworm disease, which in the end either kills its victim or renders the person afflicted incapable of earning a living. It is believed now that this disease is largely accountable for the slowness of certain of the southern States in catching up with the rest of the country as regards general prosperity.

DR. COOK CONFRONTED.

HAMILTON, Montana, October 29.—Explorer Cook, who claims to have discovered the North Pole, has been assured of the confidence of the Queen of England. Queen Alexandra believes that his story is true and that he really did make the wonderful sue-cessful dash for the pole which he says he made.

Cook was confronted at a public meeting yesterday by Barrill, his former guide on the expedition up Mt. McKinley. Barrill claims that Cook never reached the top of the mountain, but that he faked his account and also, with the assistance of a photographer, the pictures. The question of the veracity of the two men came to a vote and the audience voted its confidence in Barrill and the story he tells. Barrill is a Montana man.

THE ITO TRAGEDY.

SEOUL, Korea, October 29.—It is believed that the plot which culminated in the assassination of Prince Ito by the Korean, Incha Angan, at Harbin was hatched here. The palace of the Japanese resident-general at this place is being closely guarded for fear that compatriots of Ito's murderer will make an attempt on the life of Japan's chief representative here, the resident-general.

The Japanese warship Iwate sailed yesterday from Daiven, bearing the body of Ito to Japan. Evidences of deep mourning were exhibited by the people all along the line from Harbin to the sea coast.

CONGO REFORMS.

BRUSSELS, October 29.—The Belgian government has outlined its proposed Congo reforms. These include lower taxation of the inhabitants of the Congo district, and the establishment of schools for the native children.

The government was forced to take action by the recent exposure by an officer of the rubber company of the appalling conditions that exist in the Congo. The statement that during the past two years large numbers of the blacks have been murdered by agents of the company and several villages burned aroused the people to such an extent that the government could not ignore the matter.

TAFT'S FAST TRIP.

VICKSBURG, Mississippi, October 29.—President Taft arrived here late last night from Helena on his four-day trip down the river. The steamer Baton Rouge today, and tomorrow in which he is traveling left most of

THUMBS UP BROUGHT DRINKS

TOPTKA, Kan., October 9.—A sign language used between the traveling men who visit southern Kansas towns and the porters of hotels has got a number of prominent men into embarrassing situations. The ordinary citizens who makes a trip into that region is liable inadvertently to use some of the signs in the presence of a bellhop or hotel porter, and may be surprised by the result.

This new sign language was established to overcome the difficulty of getting a drink in prohibition territory. It worked so well in Oklahoma towns that its originators tried it in Kansas. Only a few lessons were needed to train the southern Kansas hotel porters.

The language is simple. If a traveling man from Oklahoma holds up one finger in the presence of a hotel porter it means that he wants a pint of whiskey delivered in his room. If two fingers are elevated a quart is desired; if one thumb is pointed upward it calls for half a dozen bottles of beer, and two thumbs in this position is a signal for a dozen bottles.

This last signal is what caused embarrassment to Frank J. Ryan, a member of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners, on a recent trip to Coffeyville. After supper Mr. Ryan was sitting in the hotel lobby talking with a friend. He lit a cigar, crossed his legs and locked the fingers of his hands over one knee, his two thumbs paralleling each other and pointing upward.

The porter, who was closely watching the movement of Ryan's thumbs, knew the language and was prompt to act. Ryan thought the porter impertinent in disturbing his conversation with his friend by asking, "Is you from Oklahoma, boss?" but merely nodded his head and dismissed the incident for the time.

"Well I was tired from the day's travel and went to my room to rest," Ryan told his associates on the board. "Just before bedtime I was reading a newspaper when there was a soft knock on my door I opened it and there stood a little runt of a colored fellow with a big tray which held a dozen bottles of beer."

"What's this for?" I remanded. "For you, boss; I was done sent up the river fleet in the rear. The President will stop at Natchez and Baton Rouge today, and tomorrow will arrive at New Orleans."

heah wif it."

"Who sent you? I never said I wanted anything to drink. Get out of here!" I yelled at him.

"He backed out the door with his bottles, scared gray."

"The porter sent me wif 'em," he said.

"Send me the porter," I answered back.

"The porter came in haste; he was scared too."

"What did you send that liquor to my room for?" I demanded. "I am a missionary and would no more touch liquor than poison. I've a mind to choke you."

"Fo' God, boss, don't do dat, f'r didn't you hold up bof fums? The Oklahoma gentlemen ally holds up bof fums when dey wants a dozen bottles of beer."

"Then the porter," Mr. Ryan went on, "told me all about the different signs and how much and what kind of liquor refreshments they all meant. I saw it was on me, so I turned out the light and went to bed."

HEART TROUBLES

Don't sleep with your troubles. If you have palpitation, short breath, pain in chest, side and shoulders, choking sensations, fainting spells, difficulty in sleeping on left side, and you feel anxious about it, don't sleep until you have procured a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and you can rest assured you have a never-failing remedy for your afflictions. If first bottle fails to benefit, money back.

ALIENS AND LAND TITLES.

There is one respect in which the proposed land law which is offered as a part of the amendments to the Organic Act, to be considered in the coming extra session of the legislature, should be changed. It is that relating to acquisition of lands here by aliens. A circular being distributed by local Democrats contains T. J. Ryan's address to the recent Congressional visitors, on the land question, and quotes the following federal law on the subject:

Be it enacted, etc., That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons not citizens of the United States, or who have not lawfully declared their intention to become citizens, or for any corporation not created by or under the laws of the United States or of some State or Territory of the United States, to hereafter acquire, hold or own real estate so hereafter acquired, or any interest therein, in any of the Territories of the United States or in the District of Columbia, except such as may be acquired by inheritance or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts heretofore created: Provided, That the prohibition of this section shall not apply to cases in which the right to hold or dispose of lands in the United States is secured by existing treaties to the citizens or subjects of foreign countries, which rights, so far as they may exist by force of any such treaty, shall continue to exist so long as any such treaties are in force, and no longer.

Section 2. That no corporation or association more than twenty per centum of the stock of which is or may be owned by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, association or associations, not citizens of the United States, shall hereafter acquire or hold or own any real estate hereafter acquired in any of the Territories of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

Section 3. That no corporation other than those organized for the construction or operation of railways, canals, or turnpikes, shall acquire, hold or own more than five thousand acres of land in any of the Territories of the United States; and no railroad, canal or turnpike corporation shall hereafter acquire, hold or own lands in any Territory, other than as may be necessary for the proper operation of its railroad, canal, or turnpike, except such lands as may have been granted to it by Act of Congress. But the prohibition of this section shall not effect the title to any lands now lawfully held by any such corporation.

Section 4. That all property acquired, held, or owned in violation to the provisions of this Act shall be forfeited to the United States, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to enforce every such forfeiture by bill in equity or other proper process. And in any suit or proceeding commenced to enforce the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the court to determine the very right of the matter, without regard to matters of form, joinder or parties, multifariousness, or other matters not affecting the substantial rights either of the United States or of the parties concerned in any such proceedings arising out of the matters in this Act mentioned.

The fact is that this law was amended and practically nullified, by an act of 1897 which declared that any aliens which are bona fide residents of the United States may acquire titles to lands. This, as is easily seen, kills the whole act. As regards its application here, Governor Frear in his proposed law offers a provision that homesteaders be not permitted to transfer their lands to aliens, after getting title. This would be ineffective: Any holder of a land patent could sell to another citizen, who in turn could sell to an alien if he chose. The conditions in Hawaii call for a re-enactment, as far as these islands are concerned, of the original alien land law of '88, providing that no alien can acquire title to land in the Territory of Hawaii.

The lesson of the present period of local government should show itself in a better class of nominations in the next conventions. There is no reason why this community should continue to be represented by dubs.

THE JURY SYSTEM AND THE LAW.

Mori should, and we have no doubt he will, get the full limit of the law, notwithstanding the ridiculous jury recommendation to the mercy of the court. It is well known that as far as eleven members of the jury are concerned, the recommendation was only agreed to in order to get a verdict. The case itself never presented any doubts. Only the almost incredible burden of our criminal system of criminal trials prevented Mori's being given punishment twenty-four hours after his crime was committed. Never has there been the slightest doubt of his guilt. In a hair-splitting effort to reduce the degree of his crime as defined in the statutes, he took the stand and told himself how he did it. He actually told the jury he simply got mad and murderously attacked a fellowman, and then, backed by a considerable knowledge of the preposterous processes of American law, he sat and waited while the jury disagreed over his unmistakable case. Such an incident naturally calls to mind Taft's recent remark that the administration of criminal law in the United States is a disgrace to the country.

The jury is not at fault so much as the law, in most of these cases.
Given a lawyer who can intelligently raise an issue, and it is pretty likely that among twelve men there will be one or more impressed by some technicality or other. In the present case it is said that the recalcitrant juror was impressed by the prospect of a good dinner to be obtained by holding court out over night. That doesn't affect the fact, however, that in this case as in almost any other conceivable, if it be fought on the technical lines allowed, there is room for long argument and jury disagreement over matters which everyone taking part in the legal contest knows all the time are not open to any practical question at all.

RENEWING THE CANNON FIGHT.

Speaker Cannon has just gone through two political contests which threatened his position very seriously. In the last campaign the temperance forces attacked him in his own district with a vigor that brought some results. Cannon was elected, but with a reduction in majority. His election to the 60th Congress was by 22,804 votes against 12,777 for his opponent; in the last campaign his opponent jumped to 21,795, and Cannon to 29,170. Then came his contest for re-election as Speaker of the House, and the vote that elected him was far below the Republican majority. It was immediately followed by Fowler's bitter attack upon him and the Parsons rumpus, both of which will come up when Congress meets. In fact Cannon has promised to bring up the Fowler charges himself, for the purpose of answering Fowler from the floor.

A United Press Association cable to The Star yesterday stated that Republicans of Chicago were asking the Speaker to step down and out, in the interests of harmony in the Republican party. Such a movement in the largest city in his own state, and the second largest in the country, is not to be regarded lightly. Cannon, old as he is, is too much of a fighter to be disposed to heed such a notice. But this particular pitcher has been to the well pretty often.

PEARY'S WONDERFUL ESKIMOS.

After some weeks of preparation, Peary has issued the formal statement of his proofs that Cook did not reach the Pole. It appears to be based upon questioning by Peary and party of the two Eskimos who went with Cook. Either Cook is in the right, is playing in most astounding good luck or he is abnormally far sighted,—for it had been discounted by his statement weeks ago that he had told his Eskimos to lie to Peary and by a Danish minister's statement that Peary was the terror of the north and no Eskimo would dare to say anything to him except what he desired to hear. Peary's statement appears in one way to have a strange inherent weakness. He says:

"One of the boys was called in, and, with a chart on the table before him, was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, pointing out with his finger on the map, but not making any marks upon it.

"As he went out the other boy came in and was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, also without making any marks, and indicated the same route and the same details as did the first boy.

"When he was through Panikpah, the father of I-took-ashoo, a very intelligent man, who was in the party of Eskimo that came back from Dr. Cook from the northern end of Nansen strait, who is familiar as a hunter with the Jones sound region, and who has been in Commander Peary's various expeditions for some fifteen years, came in and indicated
the same localities and details as the two boys."

These Eskimos are quite ignorant. Let a company of fairly educated men make a tour of many hundred miles, occupying more than a year. Then let them be shown a chart and asked to trace on it where they have been. How many, unassisted by notes or observations, will come anywhere near correctly showing their course? Peary seems to have had Cook's Eskimos testify to altogether too much.

Commercial News

BY L. D. TIMMNS

The largest stock sale of the week
was reported on 'Change this morning, although the sale itself was commenced yesterday. It was of Hawaiian Commercial and had to do with 1400 shares. The broker negotiating the sale was Mr. R. R. Reidford, manager of the Bishop Trust Company, and the purchasers were the Waterhouse Trust Company, 900 shares, and Halstead & Company, 500 shares.
The figure paid was $33.75.

It is understood that the selling owner of the stock is a local party, although it was persistently rumored that the stock had come from the mainland.

SOME SMALLER SALES.

The big sale of Hawaiian Commercial on the streets was followed by a sale of 10 shares on 'Change this morning at the same figure—$33.75. At the close of the session $33.75 was bid and $34 asked.

Between boards 50 shares Honokaa sold at $19.25. While this was no advance in price the circumstances were such that strength was indicated. The same figure was offered for more of the stock but none was to be had for less than $19.50.

Wailua showed more strength than
for some days, 50, 75 and 25 shares finding purchasers at $117.50. On the boards $117.25 was bid and $118 asked for the stock.

Another sale of interest was 10 shares Onomea at $50.75, $51.50 being asked.

Pineapple stock showed strength, 5
and 25 shares selling at $28.50, the bidding being at $28.

Twenty shares Waimanalo sold at $250, and the same was offered for more of the stock. Holders, however, were demanding $252.50.

Oahu was strong at $32.25, 100 shares
selling at that figure. For the stock $32.125 was bid and $32.25 asked.

A sale of 40 shares of brewery was made at $24.

PROMOTION ROUTINE.

Aside from listening to Assistant Secretary Cooper's report—which, however, was lengthy and interesting, the Promotion Committee really did little work yesterday afternoon. Correspondence was reported with Captain Rees, of the naval station, relative to having the Pacific fleet halt here next February for the floral parade, the commandant feeling that the program of Admiral Sebree probably could not be changed. The committee decided to invite the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association in laying the subject before the department at Washington.

The special committee appointed for the purpose, reported that no one had yet been selected to manage the floral parade.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN.

The wireless telegraph system is working all right again. (Manager Baleh states, in fact, that it is working better than before the trouble experienced with superfluous electricity in the air. For a week or more, however, the air was so full of electricity

that the system was always uncertain, and, towards the last, was put out of commission altogether for more than a day. The trouble departed almost as suddenly as it came on. Trouble with electric currents are unusual here.

VISIT POSTPONED.

Secretary H. P. Wood cabled this morning that the visit of the commercial delegates from California to the Orient had been postponed from February to September, 1910. A feature of the despatch was the statement that Hawaii was being included in the expedition, meaning that there will be delegates from here.

GENERAL.

R. R. Reidford, manager of the Bishop Trust Company, is at Oahu plantation today on business for his concern. He will return by a late train this afternoon.

A. R. Gurrel expects to open his new store on Fort street near Hotel during next week—probably in the last half.

POST MORTEM
BOOZE BRINGS
HORRID DEATH

ing intended suicide is recognized by those who were with him during the Kalihi funeral gathering.

Shortly before his quarrel with his father he had been playing a guitar and singing with a girl neighbor. Then he had some words with his small sisters and wanted to give them a cuffing or beating. When his father remonstrated, Kane said he would go out and would never again be seen alive.
He had said this innumerable times before, but, as usual, his father kept something of a watch, and preceded his son to the front lanai, there to see him when he should come out.

But the son went out a back door,
where another aged man was sitting.
"Good-bye," he said and went from the house, carrying his oilskin coat on his arm. The girl who had been singing with him also saw him go, but thought nothing of it.

The railway people sent for Sheriff Jarrett, taking him to the scene in a special train, and a special train was also provided by the railway this morning to take the coroner's jury to the scene of the death.

The wheels of the engine had not passed over the body of Kane. The cowcatcher, it seems, had caught his body and turned it over and over, breaking and twisting out of all human shape both legs and an arm. One side of the face was horribly lacerated
and there was a fracture of the skull.
The oil coat was left on the track apparently just as Kane had spread it out to make himself comfortable. It is not likely that he knew what hit him.

TWO BIG HONOLULU
BANKS LIKELY TO JOIN IN ONE

The new or enlarged First National will occupy its present quarters at the corner of King and Fort streets.
There a banking business precisely as now will be carried on, the difference being the additional trade now held and controlled by the Bank of Hawaii.

The First American Savings &
Trust Company, now operated in conjunction with the First National Bank, will become the new Bank of Hawaii and will occupy the present bank premises at Merchant and Fort streets where it will carry on a savings and trust business.

It has been tentatively agreed that Cecil Brown will be the president of the combined banking institutions,
and in the same way Clarence H.
Cooke is slated for a vice presidency.
L. Tenney Peck second vice president and probably F. B. Damon cashier.

The capital of the new Bank of Hawaii, in its subers as a savings institution, will be $200,000. Of this amount $100,000 will be supplied by the present Bank of Hawaii and $100,000 by the First American Savings & Trust Company. The latter, while capitalized at $200,000, has only $100,000 of paidup capital, or the exact amount it will carry over to the new trust company.

Of the matter Cecil Brown said
this morning: "The plan of consolidating the First National Bank and the Bank of Hawaii has been discussed by heads of the two institutions for sometime, but the matter has never been formally acted upon by either side. Developments in the past few days have made such consolidation possible, and I feel certain that the deal will go through."

"The deal amounts to the absorption of the Bank of Hawaii by the First National, which is made possible by an authorization received yesterday to increase our capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The plan is to carry on the regular business of both banks at the present headquarters of the First National at Fort and King streets. The Bank of Hawaii would become a savings and trust institution." (From this point on Mr. Brown practically repeated the facts above quoted.)

P. C. Jones, of the Bank of Hawaii, confirmed the statements of Mr. Brown concerning the increase of stock and its objects, and said that he felt certain the consolidation would now go through. "The matter is so much in the air," said Mr. Jones,
"that few positive statements can be made. Thus far we have dealt with it in a general way and a whole multitude of details remain to be settled.
I suppose that now the first National is prepared to act there will be no difficulty in carrying out the plan."

Both the Bank of Hawaii and First National are comparatively new institutions. The former was started some ten years ago by the late Chas.
M. Cooke, P. C. Jones, John A. Mc-Candless and others, its birthplace being commonly regarded as the offices of the Hawaiian Trust & Investment Company on Fort street. It began regular banking business in the Judd building at Merchant and Fort, where its home now is.

The First National Bank and First American Savings & Trust Company
were promoted by Colonel George W.
Macfarlane, and established by Cecil Brown, Mark P. Robinson, the Campbell Estate, L. Tenney Peck and others.
Their first home was in the Campbell block on Fort street, in the premises now occupied by the Waterhouse Trust Company, moving to the McIntyre building at the corner of King and Fort streets a few years later.

TWO NEW HULAS

Mrs. Rivenburgh, The Star society
editor, has composed two new hulua
which will be on sale in all the music stores on Monday.

"Hannai," a sentimental song, bears
an artistic cover of an island sunset,
while "Lellehuan," in honor of the military camp in the hills is more on the catchy order of hula, and has a happy soldier boy on its cover. Both songs have promise of making a great hit and will be heard all over town in the near future.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

That the management of Haleiwa will give a grand full moon dance at the hotel next Saturday night is an announcement that will be received with pleasure by the hundreds who usually go there on occasions of this character.
There will be excellent music and the floors are in fine condition. The roads down are in such splendid condition that there should be a large number of auto parties go down for the night.
Parties taking the afternoon train will find Haleiwa a delightful place at which
to stop over Sunday.

TAFT PREACHES TO MANY KINDS OF CONGREGATION

"No church in this country, however humble it may be, that preaches the doctrine of true religion and true morality, will lack any earnest support to make it more influential whenever opportunity offers."—President Taft.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 3.—President Taft preached another sermon today. The scene had changed from the Mormon tabernacle at Salt Lake City to the corner-stone laying of the First Universalist Church in East Portland.

The President handled the silver trowel and worked hard to see that the stone was properly adjusted. His apparent earnestness in setting the stone called out applause.

Mr. Taft had a truly religious day, which began when he attended the morning services at the First Unitarian Church in Portland and listened to a sermon by the Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr. Following this service the President was the guest at a luncheon given by Senator Bourne at which he met State and city officials.

Early in the afternoon the President visited St. Mary's Catholic school and made a five minute address to the school children in which he declared that loyalty to the church meant fidelity to country.

CORNERSTONE OF CIVILIZATION.

The line of march followed by the Presidential party to East Portland was crowded and there was handclapping and cheering all along the way. After the President had been introduced at the cornerstone laying by the Rev. James Corby, pastor of the church, he said:

"I don't know that any one questions the propriety of my being here and officiating on such an occasion as this, or that an explanation of any sort is called for. But I want to say that I believed it to be the duty of the President of these United States to welcome and to suggest every instrument by which the morals and religion of the community may be elevated and maintained."

"Not long ago I officiated at the cornerstone laying of an orthodox Congregational church in Washington. Then I appeared in the pulpit of a Jewish tabernacle at Pittsburgh. But a few days ago I helped to lay the cornerstone of a Catholic institution at Helena, Mont."

"And now it is my great pleasure to assist here today in laying the cornerstone of this Universalist church, which, like my own, the Unitarian Church, is known as a liberal one."

"I am glad always to be present at such occasions as these, for I believe the cornerstones of modern civilization must continue to be religion and morality."

SEES SIGNS OF CHURCH UNITY.

The President told some of his experiences with the Catholic Church in the Philippines, and then said that on the occasion of his visit to Rome he ventured to say to the Pope that while in America the sentiment was strong for the separation of Church and State, there was nothing in the American Government or American people that opposed the Church or its highest development; that in no European country had the Catholic Church flourished as it had in America; that in this country the Catholic Church received from the Government and State officials only that treatment accorded to every other denomination.

He continued: "I added that this was not to be taken as an indication that every Government and State official was other than anxious to encourage the establishment and maintenance of churches, and that their influence might be broadened throughout the land."

"I think we have reached the time when the churches are growing together, when there is less bitterness of denominational dispute, and that no matter what creed we may follow, the churches are beginning to realize that they must stand shoulder to shoulder in the contest for righteousness; that we all stand for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

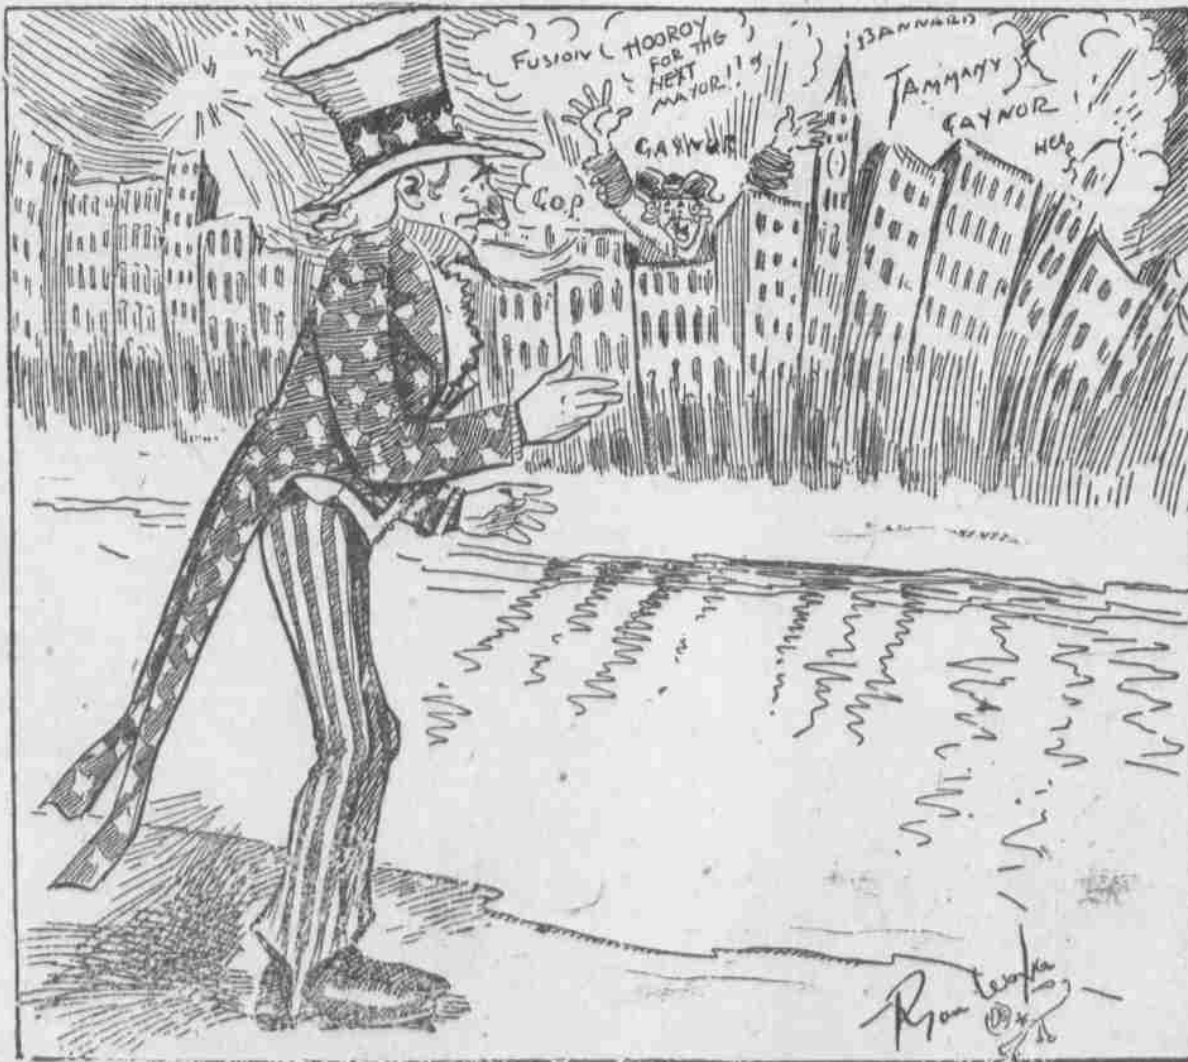

"I am an optimist. I believe we are much better today than we were 50 years ago, man by man. I believe we are more altruistic and more interested in our fellow-man than we have been at any time in the past 50 years. Of course you hear, from time to time, of instances of selfishness and greed, but the only reason these instances are given prominence is because we condemn them the more and believe that in calling attention to them they will be made more and more infrequent."

TALKS TO CATHOLIC CHILDREN.

Mr. Taft was presented to the boys and girls of St. Mary's Catholic School by Archbishop Christie. The President made his short address from the steps of the building. He said:

"Your Church teaches that loyalty to God is the same as fidelity to country and reverence for constituted authority, and so do all good churches."

"And we can be very certain that those who are loyal to their Church are certain to be loyal to their country; that those who are good Catholics are good citizens, just as those who are consistent members of other churches find in the doing of their duty to the churches everything that leads them on to the uplifting of humanity and the observation of all the obligations to the Government."

SPORTS

OAHU LEAGUE WINTER SERIES

Everything has been made lovely in the lately jarring directorate of the Oahu League. In consequence a winter season of classy ball will open at the Athletic Park on Sunday. At a meeting last night, with President E. W. Quinn in the chair, all rifts in the rule were patched and the patch securely glued.

Manuel Moses submitted a list of new players for the Boers to replace those who had dropped out, and the substitution was promptly ratified.

Then the Dragonlets came up with two men to take the place of a pair gone to China. En Sue is one and Raymond Hae the other. Of Sue no baseball fan in Honolulu needs information. Hae is a recent arrival from Japan, where he pitched for Yokohama against Waseda and other teams. He is a southpaw.

Sergeant Davis of the Marines was again authorized to hunt up a catcher.

Sunday's games will be Boers vs. Halfwets and Dragonlets vs. Nipponese.

Come one, come all. To root and bawl.

INAUGURATION OF NEW GYMNASIUM

Under the supervision of Superintendent J. A. Rath the gymnasium of the Palama Settlement was opened last night. There was a grand march of the young people of many nationalities. Music and refreshments were provided. A tremendous babel of joy prevailed. The gymnasium is well equipped and cost about $8000. On the ground floor there are a bowling alley, a swimming pool, a rowing machine, iron lockers etc. The second floor contains the gymnasium proper, well supplied with apparatus for athletic exercise, its floor marked off for basketball.

Following is the lineup of the Marines for the football match with the Townies on Sunday at the league grounds: "Little Eva Hoffman, center; Slim Reed, right guard; Baby Roots, left guard; Everyban Allman, right tackle; Big Swede Nelson, left tackle; Judge Clement, right end; Rat Makin, left end; Chuck Connor, quarter; Bat Battin, right half; Kid Rhoads, left half; and last, but not least, Old Horse Corey, fullback and captain. They will practice secret signals tonight and tomorrow night."

Mike Paton will be referee at tomorrow night's glove duel. Rellly bottled the council of war at Cullen's nomination of Dick Sullivan, and Cullen after much palaver accepted Rellly's choice, to wit, Paton. The boxing will be under Marquis of Queensberry rules. Preliminary bouts will be interesting.

Owing to uncertain weather the yachting package race to Kaena Point is postponed from tomorrow for one week.

TWO MEN CONFESS PERJURY

STARTLING ADMISSIONS ON WITNESS STAND—ONE A FORMER MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE.

Extraordinary developments in the form of perjured testimony came out this morning in the trial of the suit of Edward Campbell against H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., for $10,000 damages for personal injuries, which is taking place before Judge Whitney.

Daniel Damien, a former member of the Legislature, was called on behalf of the plaintiff. Frank Thompson in cross-examining him produced an affidavit made by Damien directly after the accident on board the Norwegian bark Aeolus seven years ago, in which Damien swore that Campbell admitted that the accident was his own fault, that he should have kept from under the rising trucks of coal, etc. He now stated that practically everything he deposed in the affidavit was false.

Damien's evidence took counsel for the plaintiff by surprise but Mr. Magoon questioned the next witness he called, another affidavit signer, on the truth of that which he swore to over his signature. The result was another admission of point blank perjury.

Tom Pedro was the second man to make the self-incriminating admission. Statement after statement of his affidavit was quoted to him by Mr. Thompson on cross examination, of which he now swore:

"That is a lie.
"That is false.
"Yes, it is made up out of whole cloth."

And so forth. Pedro said he did not formerly swear that he proposed to Mr. Klebahn after the accident that if given money he would secure evidence from "all the boys" that the breaking of the sling was an accident and the injury to Campbell his own fault.

To Mr. Magoon, on redirect examination, he denied that he thus solicited a bribe to frame up a defense. Mr. Thompson interrupted the proceedings at this stage to call the attention of the court to a curious performance he observed in the corridor. One of the witnesses, he had noticed, would come to the doorway and listen a while and then go up the main corridor to where other witnesses were waiting.

Clerk Marcellino at once went out and drove the eaves-dropper away with a warning of trouble if he resumed the tactics. This closed the incident.

The present is the third trial of this case, the first two trials having been abortive.
R. W. Condon and Esther Kaulana are on trial for keeping a disorderly house at Iwilei, having appealed from Honolulu District Court. A. M. Brown is prosecuting and J. Lightfoot defending. The jury consists of David Richards, W. K. Isaac, J. H. Cummings, J. K. Clarke, S. F. Nott, Geo. H. Greene, W. L. Austin, Sam Kamakau, Jas. Guild, W. E. Tirrell, John Bortfeld and T. C. McGuire.

of Supervisors," but the typewritten sheet within was directed to "The Grand Jury." City and County Clerk David Kalaokalani opened the envelope, as he had a right to do, but as soon as he observed that the letter itself was directed to the grand jury he conscientiously refrained from reading the text, believing it might contain something not intended for his knowledge; in order to return the missile to the writer, however, he glanced down at the name of the sender, also typewritten, and beheld the name "Carl W. Smith." Slipping the letter in a new envelope he directed it to "Carl W. Smith" and mailed it; the envelope bearing the print of the City Clerk's office. Later the postoffice returned the epistle to the City Clerk with a printed card announcing that there was no such person known to the department as "Carl W. Smith." Then the letter was read and it was seen that a certain charge, above referred to, was made against Leal. The letter was then held by the Clerk to be presented later to the Supervisors. Meanwhile the City and County Attorney's office was made aware of the allegation against Leal.

Added to the letter, which is clearly anonymous, is the statement that copies of the letter were being sent to the Grand Jury, the Supervisors, the City and County Attorney, and The Advertiser.

Beyond this letter, so far, there is no charge against Leal, and except Gumbs there appears no man to make any charge, so that, at present at least, the office of the City and County Attorney has nothing on which to proceed for an investigation, or to present to the grand jury, and it seems, according to the statement made this morning, unless something more definite is forthcoming, that the investigation will have to await the return of Leal from the mainland, when he may be brought before an inquisition and confronted by his accuser. In the meanwhile the authorities have investigated about all there is to investigate.

"There is nothing at present," said Attorney Milverton this morning, "upon which an indictment could be returned."

In regard to the insinuation that Sheriff Jarrett was approached by a bunch of gamblers for permission to run a game during certain festivities, concerning which a printed statement was made to the effect that information had been received from some person in the office of the City Attorney, it is declared in the office of the City Attorney that no one in that office ever gave such information or information that there was no knowledge in such office upon which such information could have been given; that no one in that office ever in any way intimated that Jarrett was approached or that he made any promise as a consequence of such alleged approach.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY SEVENTY YEARS OLD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley is 70 years old today. Many messages and congratulatory gifts poured in on the Admiral throughout the day, and he received them smiling, declaring that he felt well and strong as ever. He attributes his continued good health to his total abstinence from alcohol, which, he says, does not agree with him, and his general moderation.

"It is no different from a birthday 30 years ago," the Admiral said. "I do not feel as though my strength is impaired in the least. I feel just as able to work, and work hard, as I did then. My one hope is that I may not live long enough so that I shall be led around by my family in helpless and useless old age."

Added to his moderation in eating and drinking, the Admiral has always been active. When not at work he has taken daily exercise. He and Admiral Casey, another veteran of about the same age, take daily walks of four or five miles in length.

Because of his experience in the northern seas Admiral Schley is counted an authority in polar exploration. He has taken a position that both Cook and Peary reached the Pole. He stated today that there is not the slightest doubt in his mind that Cook was the first man there.

"The Cook-Peary controversy is somewhat similar to the Sampson-Schley controversy," was suggested. "It was no controversy so far as I was concerned," he replied quickly. "There was a parallel, however, between the two. But the American people have two great abiding principles and I know because I have lived and worked with them—they believe in just-mindedness and fair play."

"The man who does not have these two things gets knocked out every time. You have got to play fair to win the approval of the American people." Admiral Schley would not venture to predict the future of the American navy. He declared he could see no limits to the size or speed of battleships.

"I may not live to see it, but I confidently hope to see our battleships making thirty and even thirty-five knots an hour. We have smaller boats like the Dixie doing it now, and what is a law for the smaller ones is the law for the bigger ones. It is but a matter of adapting the law to the big ones."

"I have seen so many changes in locomotion in my life that nothing seems impossible to me."

"No one could have predicted the progress that was to be made in automobiles. Neither can any one now foresee what will be done with aeroplanes and flying machines in the future. I believe that the present machines are but tops compared with what will be developed in the future."

"The aviators have one thing yet to learn and discover before their machines can be of real practical value. They must discover that little trick of the bird which enables him to alight on a limb without trouble. So the airship must be so manageable that it can be brought right back to the starting spot without fuss or flurry. Then they will be of practical value."

"Before they can be of value in war they must be adapted to any kind of wind or weather. As they are now constructed, rival commanders would have to agree to have the battle on the next succeeding pleasant day."

BACKACHE.

Delicate women who are subject to nervous spells, backache, bearing-down, an interdicted pain, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and find them a pleasant sure relief. They cure by their soothing influence upon the nervous system. They do not affect the bowels in the slightest degree, and are perfectly harmless. 25 doses. 25c. Never sold in bulk.

SUGAR SHIPPERS GET THE BEST OF RAILROADS

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—San Francisco sugar shippers are jingling $31,000 and laughing merrily at the expense of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound railroad, whose error in fixing a rate has resulted in Butte receiving enough sugar to sweeten all Montana for six months to come.

The road, which is the Western extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, erroneously included among new rates to Montana and common points from Seattle a rate on sugar of 55 cents as against the regular rate of all lines of $1.13, applying it to San Francisco as well as Seattle.

San Francisco shippers were quick to discover the error and had shipped 125 carloads of sugar into Butte. They were rushing orders for more cars when the railroad company, suspicious of the heavy movement of sugar to Montana, suddenly realized its mistake and applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to cancel the new tariff.

The error cost the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound road and its holding company $250 a car or in all $31,000, and gave the local shippers a margin of from 42 to 47 3-8 cents on which to compete with Philadelphia sugar shippers in the Montana territory. The Western Sugar Refining Company are among the concerns that profited by the mistake.

W. C. T. U. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Mrs. J. M. Whitney, having served as president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union throughout its first quarter of a century, was yesterday reelected to preside over the organization for its twenty-sixth year. She was also presented by the members with $100 in gold, the fee for life membership in the National W. C. T. U. Reports were read by Mrs. Whitney and other charter members who were among the first and second sets of officers—Mrs. R. J. Greene, the first recording secretary; Mrs. E. W. Jordan, the first corresponding secretary, and Mrs. L. B. Coan, the second treasurer. Mrs. Greene gave a touching tribute to the memory of the late Miss Mary Green, the Union's missionary among the natives. Mrs. Coan's report showed that $8990 had been received and $8,933 expended by the society in the quarter century. Mrs. O. H. Gulick related the story of the disuse of alcoholic wine in communion services. Mrs. Rider of the Kakaako Mission spoke of temperance effort in that suburb. Mrs. Whitney, in acknowledging the gift above mentioned, reviewed the work of the Union. It was organized in 1884 by Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, on a mission around the world taking eight years. The Woman's Exchange here was started by the Union about fifteen years ago and had been the means of distributing more than $30,000 among needy women for work done in their homes. She could say modestly but with pride that while many local temperance societies had been started by famous lecturers visiting Honolulu—such as Noble, Booth, Murphy—the W. C. T. U. had survived them all. John Martin addressed the meeting about his recent travels, telling how much the temperance cause was being advanced by the W. C. T. U.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are Mrs. Whitney president, Mrs. Doremus Scudder first vice-president, Mrs. P. C. Jones second vice president, Mrs. E. W. Jordan corresponding secretary, Miss Florence Yarrow recording secretary. Superintendents are Mrs. P. W. Rider of the Loyal Temperance Legion, Misses Pinder and Yarrow of the Flower Mission, and Miss Whitman and Mrs. Edgar Wood of Temperance Instruction.

Two Great Press Associations Cable News to "The Star"

The Star, Retaining Membership In The Associated Press, Greatest Newsgathering Organization In The World, Has Also Joined The United Press, Its Great American Rival. ✿ The Star Now Gets Cable Service Every Day From Both ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿

Up to now Honolulu's newspapers have been served almost exclusively by the Associated Press. ✿ Splendid as that service has been, and still is, we believe that a supplemental and independent report from its rival association will be of great value. ✿ In harmony with the progress Honolulu is making as a community, The Star has improved its telegraph service by adding the service of the United Press Associations. ✿ In the reporting of great events, it will at times be of the deepest interest to compare the two reports of these great newsgathering organizations.

EXECUTION THAT CAUSED RIOTS ALL OVER EUROPE

PARIS, October 13.—The fate of the revolutionist Ferrer, who was executed at Barcelona today, has aroused since the beginning of his trial intense interest in France. The Paris papers today devote pages to the case.

The expressions in the morning papers, prepared for publication before the sentence of death had been carried out, indicate the feeling here. Even those sheets which are most moderate in tone expressed the hope that King Alfonso would intervene to prevent the consummation of the "political assassination" of "a revolutionary idealist," while the radical papers indulge in the most violent language, placing responsibility for Ferrer's condemnation upon the supremacy of the clerical reaction in Spain.

M. Jaures, the deputy who yesterday addressed a mass meeting of protest, had an interview in a morning paper in which he predicted that if Ferrer was shot "a conflagration would be started which would not be extinguished until 'Spanish political life has been purged of the clerical influences which are paralyzing the progress of the nation and shocking the conscience of Europe.'"

Ferrer's daughter, who has been working in a biscuit factory, is today prostrated by the news of his death. BARCELONA, October 13.—Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish educator and convicted revolutionist, was shot today.

The execution was done at the Fortress of Montjuich, where the prisoner had been confined since his condemnation by courtmartial. The doomed man faced the firing squad without flinching and fell dead at the first volley.

Ferrer, except for a momentary expression of emotion immediately preceding his death, retained his composure to the last. His attorney, M. Galeoran, who had defended the prisoner so loyally as to bring about his own arrest for improperly addressing the court, had secured permission for a brief talk with the revolutionist before the latter was led to the ditch where he was to die.

To his attorney Ferrer spoke feelingly of the work for which he had sacrificed his life and the future of his daughter, whose brave attempt to save his life touched the father more deeply, apparently, than any other incident of his trial and conviction. On Ferrer's arrest his family was left dependent upon this daughter, who at once secured employment in a biscuit factory. When it was known that her father had been sentenced to death the daughter made a personal appeal to King Alfonso, calling upon him in the name of his known generosity and chivalry to spare her father's life.

When these facts were related by Galeoran Ferrer broke down. It was a passing emotion, and presently the undaunted revolutionist was himself again.

Ferrer declined to receive the last sacraments and turned away from the two priests of the Order of Peace and Charity who had been sent by the prison authorities to offer him the final consolation of the church.

When the hour of his execution arrived he walked bravely through the prison yard to the ditch in the shadow of the encircling wall. Without a quiver he faced the twelve infantrymen, who, at the word of command, fired simultaneously.

When the report of the volley had died away Ferrer lay dead upon the ground.

Previous to the execution precautions had been taken to forestall a possible attempt at rescue by doubling the sentinels upon the walls of the fortress.

HOW ABOUT THIS?

Hawaiian women presented a suffrage petition to the junketing Congressmen. The dispatch says: "Up to date all the Congressmen have sidestepped the proposition." Our luxurious Congressmen, the expenses of whose picnic are borne in part by tax tribute from women, have practiced the side-step until they are adept. They are a brave, justice-loving bunch!—S. F. Star.

TOBACCO HEART.

Constant use of narcotics has a paralyzing effect upon the heart action. It is first noticeable through a dull, uneasy pain around the heart, accompanied with palpitation, shortness of breath, trembling, etc. You should stop the progress of the disease at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It strengthens and repairs the nerve tissues, and restores healthy heart action.

Captain Berger was heard from by the Korea's mail, sending "Aloha to all" upon an official post card of the Portola festival.

HAWAII SAID TO FAVOR WHITE LABOR

United States Senator W. F. Dillingham, Professor H. A. Mills, of Stanford University, and W. R. Wheeler, manager of the traffic bureau of the Merchants Exchange, have returned from Honolulu, where they investigated labor conditions. The following paragraph from their findings is interesting:

"Hawaiians have come to the conclusion that the future of the islands depends upon their Americanization and they are prepared to make personal sacrifices to this end. While they recognize the present value of Oriental labor, they are willing to accept smaller returns if people of races that can be assimilated and Americanized can be induced to perform the labor now exclusively in the hands of Chinese and Japanese."—S. F. Labor Clarion.

"This whole trip, from the time I struck Chicago until now, has been 'strewn' with beautiful, well-dressed, healthy children," said President Taft at Ogden. Sounds like an excerpt from the story of a railroad wreck.—Boston Globe.
