

RODMAN'S NEW JOB

Captain Hugh Rodman has a new position. He has been designated as Customs Inspector by the Treasury Department for Midway and adjacent islands with a salary of $1 per month. The idea in appointing Captain Rodman to this position is simply to give him authority to enforce the immigration, customs and quarantine regulations at Midway and other islands whenever he visits them in the U. S. Iroquois.

SUIT AGAINST KUHIO.

The Supreme Court on Monday will hear the matter of the temporary injunction restraining W. W. Dimond & Company from enforcing an execution against Prince Kuhio, on a judgment for $259.80. Kuhio's attorneys raised the point that he was entitled to a jury trial, which he did not have in the district court.

REMINDER OF LOPEZ

Sixto Lopez left a souvenir behind at the Alexander Young Hotel, where he stayed while in Honolulu. It was a stopped up mail chute, blocking all letters on their way to the U. S. mail box. Lopez had a wide envelope to mail and as it wouldn't go in the letter drop he doubled it up and shoved it in. Once in, it spread out and stopped, and no letters could drop past it. Assistant manager Smith found the mail chute stopped up, shortly after Lopez had gone to the Nippon Maru. He began a search for a thin weight, which would drop on Lopez' big letter and carry it to the mail box.

CARTER IS CONGRATULATED

LETTERS RECEIVED CONTAINING HIGHLY FAVORABLE COMMENTS ON HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Governor Carter has received a number of letters from Washington and elsewhere, acknowledging receipt of copies of his inaugural address, which were sent out in printed form according to custom. Senators Mitchell and Foster each writes in very complimentary vein. Mitchell's letter contains the following:

"My Dear Governor Carter: I write simply to extend my cordial congratulations over your elevation to the important office of Governor of Hawaii. I took great pleasure in joining in recommending your nomination and in trying for your confirmation."

"I am just now in receipt of a copy of your very interesting inaugural address which I have read with pleasure."

Senator A. G. Foster wrote as follows: "I have read with much interest your Inaugural Address, which has just reached me. I consider it a very able State paper and I want to congratulate you most heartily and sincerely upon the patriotic expressions which you have used and which certainly reflect great credit upon your sterling qualities and vigorous manhood."

An acknowledgment and good wishes were also received by the Governor from Stewart L. Woodford, one of the Wall street men with whom Governor Carter had negotiations while in New York on his bond mission.

ATKINSON IN OFFICE.

A. L. C. Atkinson received his commission as Secretary of the Territory yesterday. He was at once sworn in by Chief Justice Frenn, in time to go on the Iroquois trip to Lanai in his official capacity.

THE TWO CHARLEYS.

It is reported on good authority that Charles Wilson is no longer in favor of county government and favors a more centralized form. Charley Clark is understood to have recently formed the same views.

WORKING WAY AROUND WORLD.

Andrew Chrometz a Hungarian, is an original traveler aboard the S. S. Nippon Maru. He is walking around the world, except when he has to cross water then he takes a ship. He left home September 1, 1901. He is due at home in Turco Sect. Marton in 1906.

Letters from F. M. Hatch and United States Senator Mitchell, received by Governor Carter this morning, show that both had the utmost confidence in the passage of the bill to ratify Hawaii's county act, and indicate strongly that reports of opposition in Honolulu killed the bill's chances of passage in the last session. Both House and Senate committee favored it, and Mitchell states that he expected it to pass in December, while Hatch says definitely that reports of opposition in Honolulu stopped the bill. Honolulu's "town meeting" movement made Congress hesitate. Hatch's letter is as follows:

"In regard to the ratification of the County act I beg to say: As desired by you I laid the matter before our Delegate, Mr. Kalamianale, who promptly introduced a bill in Congress, being the bill drafted by Mr. Breckons. A similar bill was at the same time introduced in the Senate by Senator Foraker. The Senate committee has reported favorably on the bill and the matter may be brought up for action before the Senate at any time. The bill in the House was referred to the Committee on Territories. That committee has been giving the matter very careful attention. After several hearings the matter was referred to a sub-committee in order that the county act might be carefully scanned in order to see, if by chance it contained any matter contrary to the

A REMARKABLE KAUAI BANKRUPT

K. KAJITA'S LONG LIST OF DEBTORS WHO ARE NO GOOD—UNSECURED DEBTS.

With over seven thousand dollars owing to unsecured creditors and only $70 to secured, and with more than a thousand running accounts, two-thirds of which he says are no good, K. Kajita, a Japanese merchant of Kauai, presented a remarkable petition in bankruptcy to United States Judge Dole today. Kajita has been in business at Kapaa, running a store.

The alleged bankrupt furnishes a list of five hundred small accounts due him, which he says are good ones, aggregating $2,480.35, or an average of less than $5 each. The accounts due him which he says are not collectable at the same rate would number a thousand, as they aggregate $4,714.90.

Kajita's exact total of unsecured debts is $7,475.35. Of the $70 making up the secured debts, the greater part is taxes, for which the Territory has a lien. Kajita says he has personal property worth $2,085, in his store.

The accounts of Kajita will make a tremendous job for the trustee and referee in bankruptcy. With about fifteen hundred petty accounts to be collected, or found not collectable, nearly all of them against Chinese and Japs, there will be whole volumes of books to go through.

Most of those who trusted the Kauai Japanese business man are Japs and Chinese, but there are some white firms in the list. Murahami of Honolulu is the largest creditor, having $3,022.48 due him.

SAM WONG INJURED.

Sam Wong of W. W. Dimond and Company was injured last night after leaving the store by being knocked from the step of a street car. The car, carrying a buggy driven by A. Gantley, near Fort and Bethel streets, Wong was knocked unconscious, but his bruises are not thought to be serious.

BOOTH WINS.

The tax appeal court handed down nineteen decisions today. Among them is a decision sustaining C. W. Booth in his appeal from an assessment of $100,000 for his Pauoa springs. The court holds that Booth is not to be bound by his having set a valuation of $250,000 on his property, when he wanted to sell it to the legislature.

HONOLULU STOPPED IT

Letters from F. M. "I leave Washington today and have placed this matter in the hands of our Delegate. He has taken the matter up from the start with much earnestness and if he receives proper support from home should have no difficulty in obtaining passage of the bill. Respectfully yours,

"F. M. HATCH."

Senator Mitchell wrote as follows regarding the chances of the bill, on December 18:

"On yesterday I was authorized to report favorably the bill ratifying the act of the recent legislature in your Territory in providing for county municipalities, and I expect to get it through the Senate today or tomorrow, before we take a recess."

NEED GUARDIAN TO COLLECT $2

MINORS ON THE LIST OF SUMMONED JURORS—COMMISSIONERS MUST MAKE NEW LIST.

Judge Robinson will probably have to call upon the jury commissioners to make up another list of 250 names of jurors for service during the present year. So far the proportion of those who are unqualified has been so large that the present list is not likely to prove enough. Several minors have already been called into court. "They will have to have guardians appointed to collect their $2 for attending court," said Judge Robinson. "The Territory cannot recognize and pay minors."

The last of the 250 jurors of last year was called to the box before a jury was secured to try E. M. Jones, hence it is generally thought that the present list will be entirely exhausted. There is no provision in the present law for open venire, and the judges will probably have to ask the jury commissioners to make up another list.

There was a meeting of the board of health at 2 p. m. today.

NEW LINE TO HONOIPU

ALLEN AND ROBINSON'S SCHOONER WILL OPERATE TO THAT PLACE BEGINNING WITH TODAY

A line of schooners is to be operated between Honolulu and Honoipu for the benefit of Hind, Ralph and Company's interests. The new schedule was inaugurated this morning by the schooner Ka Mol. Owing to the withdrawal of the gasoline schooner Eclipse from Hawaii the Hind, Ralph interests found themselves without service to or from their landing at Honoipu. The Wilder S. S. Company in whose territory that port lies were unable to take in the port so the Hind, Ralph people looked around for some other carrier to handle their business.

Allen and Robinson's line of schooners were secured to handle the work. The firm have been operating schooners at regular schedule dates between Honolulu and Kohalaia. Arrangements have been made whereby those schooners will in future call at Honoipu and handle the business. Honoipu is the landing for Haul Mill and Plantation Company and considerable business is done at Honoipu every season.

Father Of Christian Endeavor In Honolulu

Rev. Francis E. Clark the father of the Christian Endeavor Society is in Honolulu today. He arrived this morning from San Francisco on the S. S. Sierra and is en route to London where he is going to attend the International Convention of Christian Endeavor Societies on May 20. He is accompanied by his daughter Miss M. W. Clark.

Rev. Clark has visited Honolulu on several previous occasions. The last time that he was here was four years ago. He was en route from New Zealand. The plague was in progress at that time so he was unable to enter this port. The present visit will be equally as brief although Rev. Clark is able to come ashore and meet the numerous members of the Endeavor Societies in Honolulu. Owing to the brief stay of the Sierra in this port, Rev. Clark will have but little time however in which to meet with the Endeavors of Honolulu. Arrangements have been made however whereby several receptions will be held and he will conduct a meeting during the afternoon.

The arrival of the Sierra about six hours earlier than she had been expected caused a change in the plans of the local Endeavors. The vessel had not been expected to arrive before the afternoon so it was thought that a reception could be held at Central Union church during the evening. The vessel came down from San Francisco in very unusually fast time however and was off the harbor at 8 o'clock. As soon as the vessel was reported by Diamond Head Charlie there was a rush on the part of the reception committee to get aboard "The Brothers" Young brothers gasoline boat and go out to meet the steamer. The following reception committee went out in the launch and met Rev. Clark, Rev. Scudder, Miss Yarow, Theodore Richards, Clifton Tracy.

A. C. Logan, A. V. Soares, Judge Lyle Dickey and H. C. Brown. At the Oceanic wharf a large crowd of Endeavors met the vessel. Many men, women and children appeared there wearing the yellow ribbon of the Christian Endeavor Society. As the Sierra came alongside the wharf the crowd of Endeavors sang the Christian Endeavor Hymn.

Many of the Endeavors went aboard the vessel and were presented to Rev. Clark on the upper deck of the steamer, where he held an impromptu reception. Plans for holding the receptions and meeting were hastily arranged by the committee and Rev. Clark. W. H. Babbitt who is a nephew of Rev. Clark met his uncle and cousin at the vessel and took them driving during the morning. Rev. and Miss Clark will be the guests of their relative during the morning and at luncheon.

In the afternoon Rev. Clark will meet the members of the Endeavor society and other friends. At 2:30 p. m. today there will be a reception at Central Union Church by Rev. Clark followed at 4 o'clock by an address and services by Rev. Clark. The Sierra is scheduled to sail at 6 o'clock this afternoon so there will be but little time for any receptions after the services. It is planned to go directly from the church to the steamer. All members of the Christian Endeavor Society will go to the steamer where a farewell reception will be held.

"I am on my way to London," said Rev. Clark this morning. "The international convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the world will meet there May 20 so I have to be in that city by that date. From Honolulu."

BARRACKS FOR THE MARINES

ADMIRAL TERRY RECOMMENDS THAT SUCH A PLACE BE PROVIDED.

Admiral Terry has asked the Navy Department for an appropriation of $5,000 with which to erect a barracks and some small houses for the accommodation of the detachment of marines that have been ordered to this place. Admiral Terry has not as yet received any response to his request although the Navy Department was communicated with some time ago.

When Admiral Terry first recommended having the marines stationed at the local Naval Station he had not quite determined regarding the best method of caring for them. After looking over the situation he decided that barracks would be the best style of house. He has therefore, recommended an inexpensive structure that will quarter the men comfortably. The barracks will probably be located inside the enclosure at the Naval station, although this matter will be announced definitely later.

About 50 marines are expected to arrive. It is not known when they will come to Honolulu. Captain A. W. Catlin of the marine corps who will command the detachment arrived yesterday from Manila on the transport Sheridan.

ELEU KEPT BY THE TERRITORY

PETERS ADVISES AGAINST TURNING THE TUG OVER TO THE COUNTY OF OAHU.

Deputy Attorney General Peters has rendered an opinion at the request of Superintendent of Public Works Holloway, advising the latter as a territorial official not to turn over the tug Eleu to the county of Oahu, as provided by the county act. The opinion is of special importance as bearing in some respects on the question of the legality of the act. Peters sets forth his views as follows:

Hon. C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, Territory of Hawaii.

Sir: In reply to your verbal request for an opinion from this department as to whether or not, it is your duty to transfer to the County of Oahu the steam-going tug Eleu, I have the honor to say:

By the Act of Congress dated the 7th day of July, 1898 (30 Statutes at Large 750), entitled "Joint Resolution to Provide for Annexing the Hawaiian Islands to the United States," the Government of the Republic of Hawaii did cede absolutely, without reserve, to the United States of America, the absolute fee and ownership of all public Government or Crown Lands, public buildings or edifices, ports, harbors, military equipment and all other property, of every kind and description, belonging to the Government of the Hawaiian Islands, together with every right and appurtenance thereunto appertaining.

By the Act of Congress, approved the 30th day of April, 1900, entitled "An Act to Provide a Government for the Territory of Hawaii," the United States of America, by virtue of Section 91 of Chapter 6 of said Act, granted unto the Territory of Hawaii the possession, use and control of all public property theretofore ceded and transferred to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii under the Joint Resolution of Annexation. Consequently the possession, use and control of the tug Eleu is in the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, and must be maintained, managed and cared for by it at its own expense, until otherwise provided by Congress, or taken for the uses and purposes of the United States by direction of the President, or of the Governor of the Territory.

To what extent the possession, use and control of the Territory of Hawaii over the tug Eleu can be exercised is a matter of deep consideration. The Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii has now before it, in the matter of the Territory of Hawaii, upon the relation of the Attorney General, Lorrin Andrews, against the Supervisors of the County of Oahu, the question as to whether or not property held by the Territory of Hawaii under Section 91 of Chapter 6 of the Organic Act, can be transferred to the county government. Several other questions of law are involved, but the case, to my mind, will be decided principally on this one question of law. And while not desiring to anticipate the decision of the Supreme Court, it seems to me that should no other question in relation to the transfer of the Eleu prevent, that the Superintendent of Public Works would be warranted in refusing to transfer the same, on the ground that it is the property of the United States, and its possession, use and control is reposed in the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, and it alone and not a subdivision or lesser government thereof.

But other causes do intervene, irrespective of the aforementioned reason, upon which I would advise you to refuse to transfer the Eleu to the County of Oahu. Sec. 432 of the County Act provides: "All property now in the possession of any officer of the Territory of Hawaii, which has been used in connection with any public works or institutions, which by the terms of this Act are placed under the jurisdiction of the several counties, shall, by the officers of the Territory having possession of the same, on the 4th day of January, A. D. 1904, be delivered to the officer or board of the county by this Act having jurisdiction of such public works or institution."

WAS ENTERTAINED.

Miss Maye Colburn gave one of her delightful dinners last evening complimentary to Mrs. Harry Macfarlane for whom she was maid of honor. Pink roses and ferns decorated and blended with the soft light thrown by pink-shaded candelabra. The affair was simply a reunion of old friends who had seen many merry days together before marriage changed the homes and immediate interests of some.

Those present were Mrs. Lyman Colburn, Miss Colburn, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Dr. and Mrs. John Rogers Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsay Spencer, Major Stephenson, U. S. A., Emerson Warfield and Frank Owens. — Chronicle.

About Colds—In all countries and among all nations of the globe, cough medicines are used and used probably more extensively than any other one class of medicines. Every human being is subject to throat and lung troubles, which may terminate his existence. People everywhere realize the dangerous consequences of a neglected cold, for the majority of fatalities have their origin in and are characterized first by a simple cold. The more careful and prudent persons do not permit a cold to run its course, but treat it promptly. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use throughout the United States and many other countries and time has proven it to be the best adapted of any remedy yet made for all throat and lung diseases, and especially coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by all dealers, Benson Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

JAPAN TAKES CONTROL OF KOREAN RAILROADS

TOKIO, Dec. 28.—An extraordinary meeting of the Privy Council today approved the issue of the Cabinet of an emergency ordinance and authorizing the guarantee of the principal and interest of an issue of 10,000,000 yen debentures for the purpose of expediting the work on the Seoul-Fusan Railway, which is expected to be finished by the end of next year.

The ordinance also provides for all possible military expenses for the protection of the railway and other interests. It is believed that unless Russia modifies her reply Japan will immediately safeguard Korea, though such a step will not necessarily mean war with Russia.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Some of the papers print a report that the Japanese Ministerial Council has decided to transfer $25,000,000 from the educational fund for emergency purposes.

The Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent says that after the meeting of the Ministerial Council the Emperor entertained the councilors at luncheon. The Cabinet then held a sitting, which was prolonged until late at night. The correspondent says that the Finance Minister, on Sunday, entertained the leading bankers at dinner for the purpose of discussing with them the best means of meeting the emergency.

Continuing, the correspondent says: "The Japanese officials already have taken over the control of the Seoul-Fusan Railway. The president of the railway has been dismissed and been replaced by the Japanese chief of the railway board. The Japanese fleet has been organized and disposed in divisions and squadrons, prepared to check any Russian movements from Vladivostok or Port Arthur."

THE AUSTRIAN

REPORT THAT EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH IS SUFFERING FROM A STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

NEW YORK, December 29.—A cable to the Journal from Vienna says: All Austria was startled today by a report that the aged Emperor, Francis Joseph, had been seized with paralysis. It was almost as much a surprise to the court to learn that the news had got abroad as it was to the capital to receive it. Every effort was made immediately on the part of the palace officials to minimize the gravity of the Emperor's condition, but as the day wore on it became more apparent that much alarm was felt by the courtiers.

Late this evening the following statement was given out in an attempt to allay popular apprehensions: "On Christmas day his majesty paid his customary visit to his daughter, the Archduchess Maria Valeria, at her castle of Wallsee. He was in cavalry uniform, and as he was ascending the grand staircase one of his spurs became entangled in the carpet and he fell. His injuries are not serious."

This announcement, however, does not give the facts. It has been learned that the Emperor's fall that accompanied the seizure was a severe one. He pitched heavily forward and struck on his forehead with such violence that he was momentarily stunned. He was unable to rise and was lifted by his attendants and carried to bed. The court doctors were summoned, and by them it was determined that the Emperor should be moved to Vienna as soon as possible. He was brought here this morning. Perfect rest has been ordered, and the audiences announced for New Year's eve have been indefinitely postponed.

MRS. CARTER'S MOTHER DEAD.

MEAT THE CAUSE.

In a recent discussion of the Academy of Medicine, Paris, M. Lucas-Championniere said that every day more confirmation was forthcoming of the idea that it was the abuse of a meat diet which was the principal cause of appendicitis. In those countries where the natives eat very little meat, as in Brittany, appendicitis is very rare. In England and the United States, where a great deal of meat is eaten, appendicitis is four times more common than in Paris.

COTTON.

The subject of cotton production in Africa has been under consideration among the Germans for some years past.

In 1900 the colonial industrial committee took up the question of introducing cotton growing into the German colonies, and the first report of the committee, published in 1902, summarizes conditions as follows:

In Togoland, West Africa, there is as much land suitable for cotton growing as there is in Egypt, and climatic and soil conditions are favorable. A comparatively large part of the population has taken up the cultivation of cotton readily. The quality of the Togo cotton is, according to the American market, "middling," and it is capable of improvement. A profit from cotton culture by the natives seems assured as long as transportation is cheap.

The committee is interesting capitalists in the building of a railroad into the interior of Togo, which it is hoped will be commenced soon. Methods for increasing cotton culture in German East Africa are also being studied by the committee. There the conditions are different from those in Togo. The population is not large, nor is it so intelligent. Besides, it is interested in the cultivation of the oil palm.

The report states that a small area is devoted to cotton in Kamerun, German Southwest Africa, where irrigation will be an important factor in the culture of cotton; and, according to a resident of this region, the Kunen River can be used for this purpose. Already cotton culture in Ambolade is flourishing. The uncertainty of rain, however, makes it an unsafe crop, but by the diversion of the River Kunen as ideal conditions would result as are found in Egypt. Some experiments have been tried with Sea Island cotton, which have turned out fairly well.

The introduction of cotton into the German colonies will prove exceedingly valuable, as the cotton raised there will doubtless go to the German market; while this is the case only in a limited measure with the cotton countries of South America and Asia Minor. For the carrying on of their work the colonial committee has been promised 500,000 marks ($119,000).

The greatest interest is felt throughout the manufacturing world in this matter of cotton cultivation. Though in a measure foreseen by many governments, the extraordinary shortage of last year's American crop, has given a jar to commerce. When one comes to consider it, cotton is probably the mainstay of the commerce of the world. Textile fabrics form the main exports of all manufacturing countries.

DESERTING SEAMEN.

The subject of desertion of American seaman at foreign ports is exciting considerable comment. The consul at Buenos Ayres writes upon the matter from his point of view. He considers the cause is to be found in the law of December 21, 1898, which reads:

Every seaman on a vessel of the United States shall be entitled to receive from the master of the vessel to which he belongs one-half part of the wages which shall be due him at every port where such vessel, after the voyage has commenced, shall load or deliver cargo before the voyage is ended unless the contrary be expressly stipulated in the contract.

If the last ten words were not in the contract, he considers desertions would not be so numerous, for the following reasons:

Most of the American vessels coming to this port sail from Boston, Mass. There the shipping articles are signed by the seamen before the United States shipping commissioner. On the front page of said articles toward the bottom of the page, in almost all shipping articles, the following words are stamped, "No money to be advanced during the voyage." As a rule it takes from sixty to seventy days for vessels to reach Buenos Ayres. The seamen, once the vessel is in port, will ask permission from the master of the vessel to go ashore, which permission is granted for twelve hours. He will ask for some money, which is refused, the master of the vessel claiming that the shipping articles which the seaman signed provide that no money is to be advanced during the voyage. The seaman goes ashore without a dollar in his pocket; he falls in with runners of boarding houses and shipping masters, by whom he is taken care of by being provided with liquor and eatables. In many cases the seaman gets intoxicated and does not return to his vessel, and, at the expiration of the forty-eight hours from the time his permission to go ashore ceases, the master promptly reports him a deserter.

The vessel remains in port discharging and receiving cargo for about two months, and as the seaman has little or nothing to do—the cargo all being discharged by stevedores—by the seaman deserting the master or ship saves the wages, and, the consuls claim, he never knew of a master who worried about a deserted seaman. The shipping master takes hold of the deserter and soon finds another vessel for him (not an American vessel) and collects one month's allotment for board due him by the seaman. The ship saves from two to three months' wages by the seaman deserting. The shipping articles further provide that these seamen ship for from twelve to eighteen calendar months, and the first time they learn they can draw no wages is when they ask the master for money when the vessel is in port, and it is hardly to be expected that they can be kept out of their wages for twelve to eighteen months.

Another reason why seamen desert is on account of the following words also being stamped on the shipping articles: "The crew are to handle all cargoes and ballast required." Of this the seamen are ignorant until they are put to work by the stevedore, who pays the ship $1 a day for every seaman who assists in discharging the ship, and as soon as the seamen are aware of it desertion follows.

Another cause of desertion is the following: As soon as a vessel is towed into the port, and before she gets to her discharging berth, boarding-house keepers and runners board the vessel in boats and mix among the crew, without any objection from the master of the vessel, and as a rule the seamen desert the vessel as soon as she is moored. He reasserts that the masters of vessels have never yet complained at the consulate of losing their seamen, and in most cases it is his opinion that it is just what they want.

Russia will go on negotiating with Japan as long as she is waiting for more ships and more men. When that arrives she will promptly put her foot into Korea and Japan will have to accept the inevitable. If Japan ever means to fight, she had better fight now.

Central Asia is now going into the best sugar business. Near Tashkent, the capital of the district of Turkestan, the erection of a beet-sugar factory was commenced some time ago, which is expected to be in working order in September, 1904. Its annual output is estimated at about 11,000,000 pounds, about one-fifth of the total consumption of sugar in Russian Central Asia. The beet root is said to contain in Turkestan about 2 per cent more sugar than in European Russia, so that it is very likely the sugar industry in those parts will develop favorably and quickly.

They are up to the times in England when it comes to abusive epithets. Joe Chamberlain is styled by papers that oppose him, Artful Dodger, Imperialistic Knave, Political Hamstringer, Vulgar Rantier and Colossal Humbug. Not to be outdone the New York Sun has taken to calling Governor Odell "the great gastropod of graft." The Hawaiian press is not in it beside these.

The steel trust is not all that one's fancy might paint it. When it first went into being it was going to return untold wealth to those interested in it, and was going to eat up the world. Last year its earnings fell short $25,000,000 and Christmas was a cold season.

A Russian regiment off to Korea to quell disturbances between Koreans and Japanese has rather a fishy odor. Russian troops originally went to Manchuria to "keep order."

Delegate Kuhio telegraphs asking that judgment be suspended until a letter is received from him. A story is never complete until both sides are heard. It is but justice that Kuhio's version of the matter should be taken into consideration before he is condemned. There are times when it is quite justifiable to knock a man down. This may be one of the cases. The fact that the delegate refused to put up bail shows that he thought himself unjustly treated.

THE CHICAGO DISASTER

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—More than five hundred men, women and little children met a fearful death at the Iroquois Theater this afternoon, tortured and incinerated by fire, suffocated by smoke and gases, crushed to death by one another while struggling to escape impending doom.

Hundreds of others are now lying between life and death, with limbs broken and burnt, at their homes and in hospitals, while every undertaking establishment in the city is filled with dead bodies, many of which will never be identified.

The disaster, the most fearful of the character that has ever fallen on Chicago, occurred in the middle of the matinee performance of "Mr. Bluebeard," with fully eighteen hundred persons in the audience, a large proportion of them being women, girls and little children.

A calcium light on a stand six feet above the level of the stage exploded, and in a moment a little streak of flame had caught the tinsel of the stage setting, flooding everything back of the footlights in a wave of fire. Eddie Foy, the chief comedian of the company, stood out from the panic-stricken group on the stage to assure the audience that there was no danger. Even as he spoke, the great asbestos curtain was let down, but it caught on one end and failed to work. In another instant the smoke burst out from the top arch of the curtain, and before a man or woman in the seats could rise the whole roof of the auditorium was in a blaze.

Two gas tanks exploded in the flies on the east side of the theater, and black, choking fumes beat down in a cloud of death from every wall. That was all. Fear, uncontrollable and ter-

FILIPINOS WILL GET JUSTICE

"Anything but politics," is the motto of Sixto Lopez in talking with newspaper interviewers. The last time he was here the noted Filipino made a number of remarks regarding the situation in the Philippines which were regarded as seditious, and for a time he was in danger of getting into trouble with the federal authorities. When seen this morning on the Nippon Maru Lopez cheerfully offered to give his impressions of Honolulu and the islands, remarking that they were "very favorable."

Sixto Lopez left on the Nippon Maru and says that he is going as far as Yokohama anyhow, but may stop there. As that is the steamer's first stopping place he cannot help going that far. "I may go on to Manila soon," he said, "but have not any definite plans made yet."

Lopez expressed the opinion that the Filipinos would get justice in the end, when asked about the future of the islands, but he didn't care to say what he considered would be justice in the case. That would be politics, and this is not his trip for political sayings.

"I think it better not to discuss politics at all at this time," he said. "I have had a very pleasant stay in the islands and have formed a very good impression of them. I went to Maui and visited Pioneer plantation. The manager was very hospitable and kindly entertained me. I have also traveled about this island."

"I think the Hawaiian Islands better than my country for the production of sugar. In the Philippines we have too much rain and too much sun both, for sugar cane. During the long wet season the rainfall is too much and the cane would not do well, and when the dry season comes there is too long a period of hot sun. The use of machinery here also puts these islands far ahead of the Philippines."

Lopez has not been "assimilated," benevolently or otherwise, and is believed to still cherish hopes of ultimate freedom, or much greater freedom, for his countrymen. He is not saying anything about it, however. His family owns an immense estate on the island of Luzon, and Lopez has been to the mainland and called here to study agricultural methods. His trip will probably result in the introduction of modern machinery on the estate and it will probably develop into an important enterprise.

BOARD TO HAVE INTERPRETER

An effort was made in the Board of Supervisors this morning to do away with the Hawaiian interpreter, but the Home Rulers, with the aid of Mark Robinson, voted the proposition down, after considerable discussion, and a motion was carried to employ a permanent interpreter. Instead, Supervisor Gilman brought the matter up after the reading of the minutes. He said that he didn't want to do anything to retard business or to deprive any member of what was needed, but thought that an interpreter was superfluous.

"All the members of this board talk and understand Hawaiian with the exception of myself," he said. "It is not fair to ask a gentleman to come here day after day as a temporary interpreter. If we are going to have one permanently let us have a permanent interpreter. I don't think it is necessary. In order to bring the matter before the board for discussion I move that the interpretation be dispensed with."

Lucas seconded the motion, and Mahoe, for whose benefit an interpreter is employed, opposed it. "I feel sorry that I have been the reason of causing delay," he said. "I felt that every member of the board was interested in seeing that all understood and therefore I wanted a man to tell me what was going on, because I am not a first class English scholar. I want to know what is going on and the other members might not tell me."

"Mr. Mahoe can speak English almost ribble, reigned. Men and women fought like wild beasts, filled only with a desire for self-preservation. Babies slipped from their mother's uplifted arms and in an instant their lives were crushed under foot. Girls threw themselves from the balcony and lay crushed and dying till suffocation ended their miseries.

More than a thousand people in the orchestra seats, with easy access to doors, gradually made their way to safety, but most of them threw aside wraps, pocketbooks, hats—everything that seemed to burden them—in their rush for life and the open air. In spite of the panic, in spite of the suffocation, nearly all of them were saved.

But in the balcony and gallery the demon of destruction wrought his frightful work at will. Flame and smoke gathering on these upper floors caught the people before they realized the full extent of the danger. It seemed incredible that a little rush of fire could leap up the walls so quickly and reach out after them like a stroke of lightning.

DESPERATE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE. Then, when the full meaning of the disaster came to them, they fought and battled with one another for safety—battled like stampeding animals with deadly smoke curling all about them, everything plunged into absolute darkness, not even a friendly lantern to show them the way out of this pit of death.

The classic outlines of the theater, the beautiful plush hangings, the arched windows with their stained glass, and stately pillars, became a morgue five minutes after the first little ribbon of flame made its way along the stage. The women and girls in the galleries never had a chance for life. Many met the end still seated in their theater chairs, their poor, impotent hands burned into one congealed clinder with the sides of the seats they had grasped when the panic came.

Others who had managed by the strength of terror to get into the aisles found their awful ending in the mingled smoke and fire and tearing of limbs in the open space back of the seats. Dozens of others, swept, carried, dragged or thrown out to the stairways and even down to the landings in actual sight of the daylight that streamed through the big front doors, in sight of throngs outside died in great masses seven and eight feet deep, their limbs mingled fearfully together, their clothing burnt off and their faces caught in their last agonies, all turned toward the as fluently as Hawaiian," said Lucas, at which Mahoe showed his understanding of the language by signs of dissent. "Mr. Harvey is a good English scholar and so is Mr. Kealoha. You can't make me believe that with men of such intelligence an interpreter is necessary. Mr. Mahoe understands every word I am saying now. He knows it. It is not a question of expense any more than of time. We are here to work and want to get through. If Mr. Mahoe did not understand English I would be the first to favor having an interpreter, but he understands it just as well as anyone."

"He admits he understands English, but says he can't express himself well in the language," said Harvey. "He doesn't have to, we all understand him," said Lucas.

Gilman said he was willing to allow Mahoe to speak in Hawaiian and would get Mahoe's meaning from other members. Robinson thought that it was better to have an interpreter, and this settled it. The interpreter was retained by the votes of Harvey, Mahoe, Kealoha and Robinson. A motion was carried to secure a permanent interpreter, and Lucas suggested that $5 per day, for actual working time, would be a sufficient rate, only $2.50 to be paid for half a day. Harvey wanted to know if a competent interpreter could be employed for that sum.

"You can get cartloads of them," said Lucas, and Harvey said that Lucas had better proceed to get them. "I'd like to take the job myself," said the latter.

doors they could not reach.

Barely five minutes after the first alarm was turned in the firemen were struggling into the theater, making their way in some miraculous manner through the maddened mob that was pouring out of the auditorium and doing what little they could not only to check the fire, which was fast turning the whole interior shell into a cauldron, but to rescue the frantic hundreds in the upper balconies by a ladder stretched from the main floor. A few—thirty at most—were rescued in this way, and then the firemen, after controlling the flames, abandoned their lengths of hose to go with the fast gathering police to the scenes of death on the upper stairways and in the balcony seats.

Outside the main entrance to the building passers-by, attracted by the presence of the fire engines, had no knowledge of the fearful disaster inside. Tens of thousands passed and repassed within a block without knowing about it. Even police officers stationed in the roadway were asking one another if there had been any accidents, if any among the audience had been badly hurt. But when from inside began to stream a procession of firemen carrying between them the charred remains of those who a little while before had been happy in the enjoyment of an afternoon's pleasure, the scene without changed as if by magic. From every business street of the city men whose wives and families had gone to the matinee streamed with white faces and eyes blinded with half-frozen tears over to the theater and screamed like madmen the names of those they were seeking. Many of them found their loved ones, but still half-crazed in the surrounding stores and hotels others discovered them among the dead by some particle of dress, half-charred hair ribbon, shoe or locket. Others are still searching and will continue to search before they can finally assure themselves that the happiness of their lives has gone forever.

Down the beautiful staircases, glittering again in rows of electric lights, the current of which had been turned on by the electricians, came a procession of men carrying the dead and dying. In ten minutes a dozen stores had been converted into hospitals and morgues. Two large restaurants, one on Randolph and one on Dearborn street, flung their tables and counters on top of one another and laid out great heaps of table linen to be used for bandages for the wounded and coverings for the dead. All the great State-street stores threw their main floors open and sent to the theater great piles of blankets, rubber cloth—anything and everything that could be utilized.

The ambulances were re-enforced by dozens of wagons from these stores and teaming establishments, and from everywhere willing helpers poured to do or give what they could. In a little while, with frantic thousands trying to batter through the strong lines of police flung across the corners of Dearborn and State streets, the bodies of the dead came faster and faster, till it seemed as though there was no place to lay them. The north sidewalk of Randolph street for a hundred yards was covered with these remains, packed side by side and covered with white blankets and table cloths. Soon the great entrance was choked with them, and faster than the Morgue wagons could take them away they were deposited on the sidewalks and in every building in the neighborhood.

Here and there then up in the gallery entrances could hear underneath the tangled masses a faint moan—the despairing signal of some unfortunate for succor. Then, tearing, struggling at the blackened mass to penetrate it and effect a rescue, they labored. Some of the still living victims were rescued and taken out in time to be saved. Others died before they could be lifted from the heap of dead; others while they were being carried down the staircases.

SIERRA MADE A SPLENDID TRIP

With another record to her credit the S. S. Sierra arrived off the harbor shortly after 8 o'clock this morning from San Francisco, hours before any body expected her. The arrival of the vessel practically on time from the Coast caused a big surprise for she had sailed from San Francisco last Thursday 3 hours behind time owing to having had to wait that length of time for the belated British-Colonial mails to arrive. The Sierra is now the crack liner of the Oceanic fleet. She made the run to this port in 5 days 8 hours, and had docked before 9 o'clock.

She sailed December 31. She had fine weather with moderate northerly winds and northwesterly squalls until January 4 and from thence to port, she had fresh east southeast winds and high chopping seas, accompanied with frequent rain squalls. A bark standing southwest was sighted several days ago but her identity was not ascertained as she was too far away. The Sierra brings a good sized list of passengers for Honolulu. There were 54 people who stopped at Honolulu.

The most prominent passenger is Rev. Francis E. Clark the president of the International Christian Endeavor Society, who accompanied by his daughter, is en route around the world. He will not stop over at Honolulu.

S. T. Alexander of Alexander and Baldwin arrived for a visit from the mainland. He was accompanied by Miss Alexander.

C. J. Littlejohn of the Wilder S. S. Company returned from a business trip to the mainland. He states that the plates are being put on the new steamer Likiepke.

Dr. M. E. Grossman returned. H. W. Holling of the San Francisco Examiner business department is here in his fourth annual trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

S. A. D. Jones of the Hawaiian Trust Company returned from the mainland. A. Lewis, Jr., returned from a business trip to the mainland.

Miss Katherine Lynch is the sister of the cashier of the First National Bank of San Francisco. She comes to teach English and history in the High School, succeeding Miss Cartwright. A. Searle of the Bishop Museum returned from a visit to his Alma Mater, Stanford.

Dr. B. F. Sandow and wife of Kauai returned from a trip to the mainland. C. H. Wilcox and G. N. Wilcox of Kauai returned from a visit to California.

The Sierra is scheduled to depart at 6 p. m. today for Pago Pago, Auckland and Sydney.

DESPERATE JAPS.

The two Japanese who escaped from the S. S. Doric last week after a desperate fight with the Customs officers have been recaptured and are now aboard the S. S. Nippon Maru being deported to Japan.

Immigration Inspector R. C. Brown saw a Japanese man standing opposite the entrance to the Bishop wharf yesterday afternoon. Brown immediately recognized him as one of the deported Japanese who had escaped from the Doric. The fellow had been transferred as a stowaway from the S. S. Coptic last week over to the Doric which was then in port and en route to the Orient.

The Jap was arrested. The second man who was at large was caught at Alea Plantation yesterday and both were sent away on the Nippon. The capture of the men was highly gratifying to the local agents of the steamship company for had the Japs remained at large, the steamship agents would have been fined by the immigration authorities.

JAPANESE BANKRUPT. K. Kajita of Kapaa, Kauai, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. His unsecured debts are $471.53 and his assets most of them uncollectible accounts, are $7,204.55.

TAX APPEAL DECISIONS.

Cherry Pectoral

cures coughs and colds, even hard coughs and colds.

Mrs. A. White, of Fitzroy, Victoria, says: "I had a very hard cough night and day. I tried many remedies, but without relief. I thought my lungs were nearly gone. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I began to improve at once, and only one and one-half bottles completely cured me."

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them! Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Two sizes. Large and small bottles.

Inspires Her Husband*Mme. Combes*

No woman in France is more admired than is Mme. Combes, the cultured wife of the head of the French Cabinet. M. Combes was the son of a poor workman and had to qualify as a physician before being allowed to marry her. His upward course has since been aided continually by her encouragement and interest in his career.

PURITA - OLIVE - OIL

LOOK FOR THIS LABEL.

Is an absolutely pure California Olive Oil. Olive Oil is one of the products that is more often adulterated than any other commodity. Official reports at Washington show that a test of 66 brands of imported olive oil, none were free from adulterant, although purporting to be "pure olive oil."

We offer you a pure olive oil. If not as we claim, return it. We stand back of Purita Olive Oil, because we know it is a pure, delicious olive oil, and pleases every one who has tried it.

The price has been placed very low for such a high quality product, but we want every one to use it and therefore place it within the reach of all. Purita Olive Oil is now being used by families in gallon quantities, the quality being identical to the bottled goods

JACKSON'S POSITION.

EDITOR STAR: In regards to a statement made by Santos in yesterday evening's Bulletin that he was not in proper condition when he met me, and was defeated at the Orpheum, New Year's night, and that he is confident that he can whip me, I in my turn wish to state that I am perfectly willing to satisfy Mr. Santos. I will fight him at the Wela Ka Hao saloon tonight or Saturday night for 10 rounds and a side bet of $50. Put up or shut up.

IROQUOIS FOR LANAI.

A party consisting of Secretary Atkinson, High Sheriff Brown, Dr. Judd, R. W. Shingle and Land Commissioner Pratt left this morning on the U. S. S. Iroquois for Lanai and Kahoolawe for a hunting and business trip. Governor Carter secured permission from Admiral Terry the commandant to have the vessel sent to Lanai in connection with the extermination of some goats and also to enable the Territorial officials to secure some information regarding Lanai and Kahoolawe in connection with a transfer of some government land for a sheep ranch. The party will remain two days at Lanai and one day at Kahoolawe returning on Saturday to Honolulu. The governor was unable to be one of the party so Secretary Atkinson represented him. The others in the party went as the guests of Captain Rodman the commander of the vessel.

KUHIO WRITES TO ATKINSON

Secretary Atkinson last night received the following cable from Delegate Kuhio:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., January 5—9 p. m.—To Secretary Atkinson, Honolulu: Ask my friends to suspend judgment until you receive letter.

"KUHIO."
The prince's cable refers to the trouble he had with Attorney Charles Clark as a result of which the delegate was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. Kuhio has undoubtedly written a letter to Atkinson, giving an account of what took place.
