LURLINE IS SIGHTED IN LEAD OFF HILO IAUKEA SUSPECTS DETECTIVES OF GRAFT

Detectives Suspected By Sheriff Iaukea of Protecting Gamblers

It looks very much as if certain gambling places were afforded police protection.

The authority for this statement is no less a person than County Sheriff Iaukea himself. He has had his suspicion aroused, and to such an extent that he has taken the out of the hands of the officers whose business it has been heretofore, and has placed it exclusively in the hands of the newly appointed members of the detective force.

The Sheriff says that he will make an investigation of the matter, and that changes in the detective bureau are likely to follow.

The subject was brought up by the Sheriff this morning when he was calling attention to the arrest of fifteen Chinese gamblers made in the basement of Fook Ching Wo's store, near the corner of Hotel and Maunakea streets last night.

"I have been suspicious of several places of this kind having police protection," said the Sheriff. "You will notice that the arrest was made by Chief Kakaia and Lualaba, and not by the officers who have been used to make such arrests. I gave strict orders to have them left out of the raid. The fact that the place has been running for some time, and that these officers have not raided it, in spite of the fact that it was very easy to enter, the lock being on the outside, has confirmed my suspicions. There are several other places of this kind, and these are to be raided by officers other than those who have heretofore had charge of this kind of work.

"I am going to make an investigation of this matter, and some changes in the detective force may follow. It will not be necessary for me to prove a case against the men to make me discharge them. The mere fact that I have suspicions against them will be sufficient."

The reporter stated that from the Sheriff's statements it looked as if Officers Apana and Ahi were the men aimed at, as they have been making most of the gambling arrests, but the Sheriff answered that he would not at present give out the names of the men whom he suspected.

Sheriff Iaukea this afternoon asked Detective Apana to resign. The Sheriff stated that while he did not charge Apana with grafting, he had suspicions that he was not doing all he could to eradicate gambling.

Holstein Scores His Following

Speaker of the House of Representatives Holstein has been disappointed in the lack of interest shown by the Republicans and has issued the following open letter to Republicans of West Hawaii:

For over half a century the Republican party has pursued its beneficent career and during all that period its principles and its policies have been among the greatest factors in the material development of the States and Territories. When we joined the great organization 8 years ago, we were animated by the spirit of its leaders who loved and served the organization, and when we joined we were pledged to follow and carry forward the standard they bore so worthily. The party of Lincoln and Grant and Garfield and Arthur, of Hayes and Harrison and McKinley and Roosevelt! What a heritage and an inspiration for the future! If we are true to their principles we shall stand for clean politics and clean politics. And now let me ask you Republicans of West Hawaii what have you done for the organization? There are eleven precincts in West Hawaii, who should have organized according to the rules of the Republican party of Hawaii on the 17th of July. You should have held your primaries, even if there were only a half dozen in a precinct. Only two precincts out of the 11 did their duty. The rest of you either have surrendered to the enemy, or have gone to sleep, or don't care a hunk for the party or are busy making money under Republican good times that you don't care a darn whether school keeps or not. There are many of you who hold Territorial, County and District offices, and when you wanted the organization's support, it was ready and willing to give it to you, but in its hour of need, you seem to stand aloof. Cannot you give the organization the support she desires for the work she has to do? Cannot you make up your minds to have your primaries before the Fourth Friday of August when you should elect delegates to conventions? Don't let your modesty tend to an underestimation of your own importance. Don't fritter away the opportunities and influence that your Republican clubs have held in the past. Get out and do some work. Don't run away at the first sign of disaffection among the enemy. Be men, get together and organize and send your report to headquarters. If you have no book on rules write to Wm. Savidge, secretary of the party, or telephone me, but by all means take an interest in your organization.

Me ke aloha.

Republican Executive Committee member, Kohala, Kona and Kau.

RICHARDS' LAUNDRY VERY INSANITARY

Inspector Keen Calls His Attention Several Times

Theodore Richards, who built a laundry in order that the people would be freed from insanitary washing conditions, has been called to time repeatedly of late on account of the insanitary manner in which he has allowed the filth from clothes to collect in the dirt-catcher of his laundry and overflow in the street, and the last rebuke which Chief Sanitary Inspector Keen sent to him was of such a nature that it called forth a letter of explanation dealing with another subject from Richards.

Some years ago the condition of the laundry under the control of the Government was so bad that it became a matter of public comment, and it was condemned by the Legislature. Theodore Richards then built a laundry on Vineyard street to protect the people from insanitary conditions. For a time the place was supposed to have been kept clean. Of late, however, according to Mr. Keen, it has been necessary to call Richards' attention a number of times to the fact that the refuse from his dirt-catcher was overflowing in the public street.

"We have always been inclined to leniency toward Mr. Richards," said Inspector Keen this morning, "but at the same time we do not intend that insanitary conditions shall exist, no matter who the person may be. Mr. Richards deserves credit for the idea of building a laundry alleged to be sanitary, and for this reason, that he built it for the good of the people, it is that we are as light on him as possible. However, he must keep the place sanitary, regardless of the inconvenience it may cause him. It is hard to do this in some respects. About one million gallons of water are in daily use, no water tax having to be paid on account of the fact that there is an artesian well on the premises. The Chinamen let the water run whether or not it is in use.

"The matter that has called forth a letter from Mr. Richards is the fact that from some source water has been flowing on the street, and I thought that this must come from his laundry. His explanation is that there is a broken water pipe there—one of the city's pipes, as I judge from his letter. I have been told that he is right, but have not as yet had the opportunity to make a personal inspection."

Acting under the impression that the city pipe was broken in front of the laundry, the reporter then saw Mr. Little, of the Water Department, who immediately drove up to see what the matter was. It was found that a stream of filthy water was flowing along the street from the

Kepoikai Has Paid The Note

Governor Frear this morning gave out the information that Judge A. N. Kepoikai had paid the note which he gave for money borrowed from an estate under his control. The money was paid in full, according to the Governor, the principal and interest being settled to date.

"No action has been taken, and so far as I know the matter has not yet been sent to Washington," stated Governor Frear, "for we have not all the facts of the case. There is more yet to be done."

LURLINE IS IN THE LEAD

HILO, Hawaii, July 30, 2:05 p. m.—The yacht Lurline has been sighted from here. The breeze is freshening.

The Lurline at shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, by the latest advices gotten from Hilo, was leading by miles. The others were strung along the coast, all becalmed. A yacht of the local club, presumably, was second, and the Kamehameha and Gladys together off Laupahoehoe. Thick weather makes the identity of most of the craft doubtful.

(Special to the Bulletin)

HILO, Hawaii, July 30, 9:27 a. m.—Three yachts sighted, Hama-kua coast. Weather thick, with heavy rain, and squally.

10:05 a. m.—Leading yachts off Hakalau, three off Papaia, one off Laupahoehoe. Weather thick.

11:33 a. m.—Lurline leading off Hakalau. No wind. She is rolling in the swell. Yacht flying red flag apparently second.

(Any yacht of the Hawaii Yacht Club would be covered by this description, as the flag of the Club is red, with a star.)

HILO, Hawaii, July 30, 1:41 p. m.—Hakalau reports no wind. Lurline is drifting back, losing half a mile. Hilo will entertain the yachtsmen at lunch or dinner, and will send a party to the Volcano. Gladys and Kamehameha are both off Laupahoehoe.

Another wireless was received here this morning, as follows:

"Yacht Lurline has been lying off Hakalau all morning in a calm. Another yacht is becalmed off Maui gulch. One off Papaia and two off Paauilo. The last four will catch a fine breeze now coming up. Impossible for me to make out names of yachts."

Land Commissioner Pratt will, in all probability, make the trip to the States with the rifle team, representing the National Guard of Hawaii, and after the shooting meet is over, will go on to Washington at the express request of Secretary of the Interior Garfield to study the methods of the land offices there.

What this means to the Territory of Hawaii can be seen at a glance. While unusually pleased with his inspection of Mr. Pratt's office work here, and the manner in which all land matters have been handled, he suggested and advised that the local land commissioner meet him in Washington as soon as the Secretary's tour of inspection was over, when a general study of land matters would be gone into. The methods of procedure, advertising lands, office work, and everything that pertains to land matters that will be of value to the Territory will be gone into, and Mr. Pratt will return with a fund of information that will be of the greatest value to Hawaii.

Secretary Garfield felt, as he stated privately while here, that while there were a great many manners of setting ahead with land business which the local people would undoubtedly learn from experience these could be picked up at first hand from the old land institutions on the mainland, and thereby the Island Territory would profit by the years of experience in the States.

There was considerable discussion as to the advisability of Mr. Pratt's leaving at this time, but on figuring the proposition out, it was found that this was the most satisfactory arrangement that could be made, and in fact, it is an especially advantageous arrangement in view of later developments. The Governor's trip around Hawaii for the purpose of looking into land matters there will start about the time of the return of Pratt from the Capitol city, and shortly after this the Land Advisory Board will meet and make a report. It is necessary that Mr. Pratt go with the Governor on this trip, and it is also necessary that he be present at the meeting of the Land Board. Another point in favor of his making the trip at this time, is the fact that his expenses will

Robertson Discusses Frear's Aala Speech

National Committeeman A. G. M. Robertson, who returned from the Chicago convention yesterday, this morning gave his views in regard to the famous "yellow-dog" speech which was made by Governor Frear at the Garfield meeting. As the official head of the local Republican organization, and as a leader whose advice has been always valued by the workers in the political arena, Robertson's opinion on this subject has been a matter of much interest.

"You ask me what effect Governor Frear's Aala Park speech will have on the Republican party organization," said Robertson. "I do not know that it will have any particular effect. It seems to me that rather too much importance has been attached to the Governor's remarks."

"I have carefully read the newspaper reports of the Aala meeting, especially the emphasized portion of the Governor's talk wherein he is reported to have said 'Loyalty to party when it comes into conflict with one's duty to one's country, is treason.' Of course the word 'treason' was not used in its technical legal sense, but there can be no question that a man's duty to his country is paramount in politics. A political organization may become so absolutely rotten and corrupt that revolutionary measures are necessitated to put things right, but I do not

Buhler and the Lumleys artists appearing in the celebrated story as told with startling interest in which Buhler and the Lumleys may be seen for some time, and to miss the opportunity to enjoy this masterpiece of stirring sensation before the foot-lights will be a source of regret to you for a long time.

On Monday evening at the Orpheum there will open a splendid vaudeville show, something that Honolulu will be delighted over. Those who take part are leaders in their line, masters at their stunts. Rinaldo is a name to conjure with and such appellations as Henri French, Halton and Fuller and Adams and Polk will long be remembered as famous. French is a king among vaudeville entertainers and he was not long ago drawing $1250 a week from the Proctors and Keith circuits. The wonderful part of his performance is that he is virtually three great artists in one.

First—As an imitator of great men he does an act on the order of Henry Lee, heretofore known as the greatest in that line. Critics pronounce him better than Lee.

Second—As a juggler he ranks with Solerno and all Honolulu remembers Solerno.

Third—As a prestidigitateur he is second to none.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THE U. S. S. ARETHUSA sailed this morning from the Channel wharf, bound for San Francisco, where it is expected that she will go out of commission. In coming down here, she acted as the water tender of the Fleet, carrying water to ships which anchored off Maui to coal.

THE CONTEMPLATED trip of the Argos to Pearl Harbor yesterday was not consummated, as the blowage out of a manhole gasket while the tug was in about the middle of the channel, made it expedient for her to put back into port. There was no damage to speak of.

THE CLAUDINE arrived at 4:55 o'clock this morning, with a fair list of cabin passengers, 41 on deck, and cargo as follows: 30 wharf piles, 20 cords wood, 60 bags, 163 sacks potatoes, 28 packages empty bottles, and 116 packages sundries.

THE KAULANI was delayed two days in sailing from San Francisco, by the quitting of two crews, on account of the low wages paid on this vessel. She is bound for Honolulu.

THE A-H. S. S. Columbian sailed yesterday from San Francisco, with mail for 4 days. She is expected in next Wednesday morning, while the Hilonian is due in the afternoon.

THE A-H. S. S. Alaskan came into port at eight o'clock this morning, 9 days and 18 hours out of Seattle. She brought no mail and about 4500 tons of general freight.

PRESS ASSOCIATION ANXIOUS TO COME

Excursion Will Probably Arrive Here Next Spring

Secretary Wood has prepared the following letter which he will submit to the Promotion Committee at its meeting this afternoon:

The demand for our pamphlet "Agriculture in Hawaii" still continues.
Requests are being received for it from every State in the Union, also from Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Porto Rico.

That our News Service is also appreciated is evidenced by letters from editors of numerous papers asking that their publications be kept on our mailing list.

When Mr. James McCandless left for St. Paul, we furnished him with 1000 stamped and addressed private mailing cards to be filled in with the names and addresses of Shriners and others attending the Conclave who were desirous of hearing more about Hawaii. By the Korea yesterday a large number of these cards were received, each bearing from three to five addresses, to all of these we will and, by next mail, copies of our different folders.

A letter from the vice president of "The World Today" Publishing Company of Chicago, Illinois, states that they are planning to make the November issue of their paper, (150,000 copies), a Pacific Coast edition. The leading article in the number will be by Senator Perkins, entitled "Facing the Orient." We have been requested to furnish an article on "The position of the Hawaiian Islands in Orienta-Trade," about 1500 words, which will be illustrated. Arrangements have been made for the paper which will go forward with a number of suitable photographs, by the next mail.

The President of the California Press Association writes under date of July 15th:

"Just as I anticipated, your circular letter to the members of our Association has stirred up a world of trouble for me. All of our members are simply crazy over the prospects of a visit to your wonderful country. I am being flooded with letters each mail."

No definite arrangements have been made for this excursion but it is thought that it may be pulled off next March or April, possibly early enough to take in our Annual Floral Parade.

That eminent scientist, Professor C.
H. Hitchcock, writes under date of July 9th, suggesting that we endeavor to get the members of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, who meet in Winnipeg next year to make an excursion to Hawaii. While it is a long shot, I lost no time in taking up the matter with the Passenger Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway, quoting from Professor Hitchcock's letter and suggesting that they get in touch with the officers of the Association without delay.

Our friend, Mr. W. H. Simpson, the advertising manager of the Santa Fe Railway, writes that he is about to issue another large edition of their Wal Map and will gladly make any change in the part of the map referring to Hawaii that we may wish.

My only suggestion was that a sketch of Pearl Harbor, the future great Naval Station of the Pacific, be added.

I am pleased to be able to report that our efforts to direct travel to Kauai and Maui, as well as to Hawaii are meeting with success. Quite recently we were instrumental in getting different parties to include the beautiful scenery of Kauai, as well as the Valley and Haleakala, on Maui, in their itinerary. They were all delighted with their trips. All that is needed to make the ascent of Haleakala a popular outing is a better trail up the mountain and a comfortable Res-house at the top and as these matters are now being given attention by Maui's progressive citizens, they may expect to see an increase in travel their way.

An M. D. On Kidney Disease

Written on kidney disease, the medical term for which is Nephritis, Dr. J. W.
Chammond says in the "MEDICAL BRIEF":

"In its incipency it is as curable as any malady that the system is heir to."
"IN ITS SECONDARY STAGE WE POSSESS NO SPECIFIC FOR ITS RAV-AGES."

Where does that leave the kidney medicines you have been taking?
And just as we have said over and over, it doesn't make much difference what you call kidney trouble, if it fastens, physicians and druggists have had no successful treatment for it. True, it commonly gets well at first, but if it does not, it enters the second stage that was incurable up to the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound, which is the first thing known to reduce inflammation in kidney tissues.

When does the second stage commence?
Dr. Chammond says: "IT DEVELOPS
SO UNCONSCIOUSLY IT IS AS A RULE
FOR ADVANCED BEFORE IT IS DIS-COVERED."

In view of these acknowledged facts, people with kidney trouble should do some very serious thinking before taking futile kidney medicines under which the kidney deaths have risen to over 170 per cent. Even if the inflammation is in the first stage, a course of futile medicine is delay that develops the very condition that Dr. Chammond says is "irreparable," and that was irreparable up to the date of Fulton's beneficent discovery.

If you have kidney trouble, either starting or severe, how can there be any question about your taking the only known specific for inflammation of the kidneys, which, incipient or chronic, is the real difficulty with kidney-troubled people?

THE NEW EMERGENCY CURRENCY LAW

A Washington correspondent is authority for the statement that the city of Washington, D. C., is the only city whose bankers have formed a National Currency Association authorized under the Freeland-Aldrich bill passed at the last session of Congress, and which went into effect in June. The purpose of the organization is to enable banks to take advantage of the clause in the new law which provides for the issue of emergency currency, secured by commercial paper—legalized clearing-house certificates.

Banks of other cities have taken up a discussion of such organization but so many questions have arisen that little headway has been made.

The bankers of New York, for instance, were stalled when they attempted to pass a by-law making it possible for any member of the Association to withdraw when it pleased. Mr. Cortelyou maintains that the allowance of such a by-law would destroy the vital feature of the whole law—the right of scrutiny for all members. The law is so shaped that each member must make it a part of its business to see what sort of banking methods are being used by other members.

It is claimed that the panic of last Fall and the disclosures of doubtful methods would have been impossible under such a law as this. The wrong-doing would have been headed off. But the banks are not pleased to open so freely the acts of their boards to the scrutiny of others. Thus the delay—in Wall Street.

Not a city, not a bank has thus far indicated a feeling that an emergency is in sight, wherefore, of course, there have been no applications for permission to take out emergency currency. The Treasury has been ready with the new form of notes since June 20. Some of them went into circulation on that day over the counters of a new bank in Utah.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing is turning out new notes at the rate of $4,000,000 worth every day. It takes three weeks to make a National bank note. The only difference between the old and the new notes is in the addition of the words, "or other securities," to the legend setting forth the fact that the notes are secured by bonds of the United States on deposit with the Treasurer.

Should an emergency arise, the fact that banks had asked for additional circulation would probably not become public property, for, if there were an extra strain on the supply of currency, the Treasury would not desire to add to the difficulties of the banks by advertising the fact that they were putting out bank notes secured by the deposit of commercial paper and other evidence of debts owing to the banks. The fact, if made public, would have to come through the banks themselves.

The Treasury people are inclined to view the new currency law as one of the best laws ever put on the statute books. They believe it produced the feeling of confidence that they assert now pervades the business world, because the average business man engaged in commerce or manufacturing has been led to believe that should a real emergency arise, it would be possible for the banks to bundle up his paper and that of his associates, have a National Currency Association and the banks composing it endorse the bundle and deposit it with the Secretary of the Treasury as collateral security for an issue of Government notes.

Well-informed bankers have found from their correspondence with Secretary Cortelyou that that official intends being strict in the administration of the new sections of the national banking law. Even had the banks of the country organized currency associations so that the whole land should now be covered with them the greatest question of all would still remain unanswered.

What is an emergency is a far greater question than any raised in connection with any of the proposed by-laws of half-formed associations. The Secretary of the Treasury is the final tribunal for the settlement of that question. There is no way for appealing from any decision he may make. Under the new sections of the law the disturbance of last Fall need not have been regarded by him as an emergency within the meaning of the law. Wall Street regarded it as an emergency long before the remainder of the country did. Secretary Cortelyou went to the assistance of the great financial center before some other parts of the country were willing to look upon the crisis as an emergency.

At times the West has had disturbances which it regarded as crises, but Wall Street refused to regard them so seriously. That presents the possibility of one section of the country regarding the condition as much less than an emergency such as contemplated by the law and of the Secretary of the Treasury agreeing with the section that said it was not an emergency.

It is on account of that possibility that the Treasury officials are not disposed to discuss the probability of the question of the workableness of the law being tested this fall. They do not want to have the question brought up until it is no longer avoidable. They are therefore all members of the Sunshine Society, telling everybody that everything is all right and proving it by the fact that no one has yet undertaken to put the emergency feature of the new currency legislation to the test.

The task before the Democrats at Denver has been made harder by the skillful work of the Republicans. If the Democracy expects to win in November, it must imitate the Republicans and get together, at any sacrifice of sectional or personal ambitions. Only the best candidates and the best platform the Democrats are capable of making will be able to stand against the Republican onslaught during this summer and fall. —Washington Post.

ROBERTSON DISCUSSES

derstand the Governor to intimate that any such condition of corruption exists here.

"The Governor's other remark to the effect that if any party has only the straight ticket to commend it, that party should go down to defeat," contains no concrete or practical proposition. How can any party ever have 'only the straight ticket to commend it'? You cannot eliminate the party's platform, its policies, or the personnel of its candidates.

"Governor Frear's remarks seem to have been understood to be a suggestion to vote for the so-called 'best men' irrespective of party."

"I cannot agree with that idea."

"The much-abused Republican machine and its straight-ticket policy has been and still is the main political safeguard of this community. To it must be given credit for defeating Wilcox and breaking the power of the Home Rule party. It has given the Territory an efficient and economical Legislature. It, and it alone, can prevent a relapse to the color line as the basis of political division. The present tendency on the part of the Hawaiians to get together and combine against the national party lines is the natural result of the 'vote-for-the-best-man' policy as put into practice by Governor Carter and the Civic Federation."

"Under the influence of the straight-ticket doctrine of the Republican organization the native Hawaiians in the campaigns of 1902 and 1904 freely and unhesitatingly supported the haole candidates on the Republican ticket. They voted straighter than the white Republicans did. Two efficient Legislatures resulted."

"Now the Hawaiians are beginning to think that they have as much right to split their ticket as the haoles have, and the surest way to prevent the establishment of color-line politics is for Governor Frear and other prominent haole Republicans to get in and support the machine in the consistent fight it is making for the perpetuation of the regular national party lines. To sit by and say, 'I will not vote for a yellow dog,' before any yellow dogs are nominated, is to invite disaster. It is to be hoped that Governor Frear, in 1909, will not be confronted by such a Legislature as Governor Dole had on his hands in 1901. The straight-ticket proposition properly 'boosted' and honestly supported by our representative and responsible men, from the Governor down, will prevent such a catastrophe. My connection with the Republican Territorial Committee will terminate with the approaching convention, but I feel sure that the organization can be depended upon to hold its end up in the future as it has done in the past."

The course of the race can be followed in some fashion by the reports which come up from various places on the Maui coast.

The Claudine, which came into port this morning, sighted the racers about noon yesterday, when the steamer was making Kahului. There was a good breeze at the time, and the Hawaii and Gwendolyn, well in the offing, were sailing together, lying far over. The others were strung out well astern.

It was remarked that both the Hawaii and the fast little yawl sailed well when heeled over in a stiff breeze. The wind at the time, while not fresh, was good.

A 'phone message coming from Hana to Lahaina, at 7 o'clock last evening, reported that the Hawaii and Gwendolyn were seen off Hana at 6:15. The Gwendolyn was close behind when the two were sighted, but while passing Hana she crawled up and left the Hawaii astern. The import of this message was sent by letter to W. M. McInerney of this city.

The reliability of any or all of these reports is not absolutely certain, though the 'phone message from Hana came from Wilder, and so seems the most dependable news which was gotten from the Maui coast.

It was almost at this same time that a message was gotten last evening, saying that the yachts were off Hana, a sloop leading, according to the natives, and a schooner close behind. Might the yawl Gwendolyn have been mistaken for a sloop? Or might the Lurline and the Hawaii be confused?

It was expected that the race would be over so far as the winner was concerned by daylight this morning, but at shortly after 9 o'clock the boats were off the Hamakua Coast, and finding thick weather and light winds. The message dated 11:33 a. m. indicates that the wind had died altogether, and the end of the race thus indefinitely put off.

DELAY DISPLEASES TURKS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, July 29.—The demonstration of satisfaction over the granting of constitutional liberty to the people by the Sultan has ceased, and indignation is growing among the populace at the delay shown by the Government in dismissing obnoxious officials.

COLLISION ON ELEVATED

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 29.—In a collision between two trains on the elevated here today four passengers were severely injured.

Johnson would run stronger, perhaps, in the West, Gray stronger in the East. Gray would, perhaps, better represent the old sound money section of the party, though that is ancient history, which no true Democrat will recall. Either will make the ticket solid and sure, good to fill the Vice Presidency or the Presidency to the brim, for, whether the ticket be Bryan and Gray, or Bryan and Johnson, it is going to be elected. Put that in your pipes, boys, and chew on it!—Louisville Courier-Journal.

In a statement issued June 22, 1902, Mr. Bryan said that Mr. Cleveland secured his nomination in 1892 by a secret bargain with financiers; that he spent the largest campaign fund the party ever had; that he filled his Cabinet with corporation agents; that he placed railroad lawyers on the bench of the United States Supreme Court and that having debauched his party he stabbed it to death to prevent its return to the path of virtue. Now that Mr. Cleveland is dead Mr. Bryan is seeking to capitalize his memory for personal political profit.

Good friends have pointed out that when Stein-Bloch advertise that they have been tailoring 53 years they are not saying anything that should lead a man to buy Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes. These good friends forget that Stein-Bloch advertise "53 Years of KNOWING HOW."

The "Knowing How" is what makes the last suit fit as well as the first. It is what makes this suit fit you, no matter whether you live in New York, or Oregon, or Hawaii

One tailor doesn't make the suit or overcoat. It is the united product of a body of tailors, each of whom holds his place because he is the best man at that task. When each one has finished his special work and the results are assembled, the suit or overcoat fits because the men who made the parts knew what they were doing.

This is modern, economical tailoring.

THE GREATEST FISTIC CONTEST

One of the greatest fights in history, that between Tommy Burns and Gunner Moir for the championship of the world, will be seen at the Empire Theater in moving pictures, beginning next Monday night. Ladies and gentlemen will enjoy this contest to the limit.

RICHARDS' LAUNDRY

(Continued from Page 1) laundry to the Nuuanu stream, and to Mr. Little's positive knowledge this has been running for over a week. It is insidious to a high degree, and the water comes from the laundry sewer pipes, which have become clogged from the refuse. One man is at present, and has been for some time past, trying to remedy this. With the proper force of men it could be stopped in very short order.

At the alley entrance to the laundry, along the concrete back sidewalk the water is backed up for a distance of fifty feet. It is wash-water and is anything but sanitary.

One of the most startling proofs of the insanitary conditions around this section is the statement of Carl On Tal, who has several of Richards' camps under lease, that a number of children living there have contracted a nasty itch on their legs from wading in the stagnant, stinking water that is allowed to remain. This statement was made to Mr. Little and Sam Chillingworth, when they were inspecting for the Water Department.

What action will be taken is not known as yet. Mr. Richards' letter, which is written so that it may be construed in two ways, seems to place the blame for the running of the water down Vineyard street on the Water Department of the city, but this has been shown not to be so. It is probable, however, that an immediate and definite investigation will follow.

"Won't you put those white arms around my neck?" pleaded the summer man. "Why this haste?" asked the summer girl. "I merely wanted to enjoy the experience while they are still white." — Kansas City Journal.

REV. A. MACKINTOSH WILL NOT RETURN

Rev. Canon Mackintosh, who is visiting in England, will not return to Hawaii. By yesterday's mail Bishop Restarick received a letter from him, asking that he be allowed to resign the active membership in the Chapter of St. Andrew's Cathedral. Rev. Mackintosh has received an offer in the diocese of Norwich.

Rev. Mackintosh came to the Islands in 1870. In March, 1876, Bishop Williams ordained him a priest. He was for many years principal of the Royal school.

The wardens and vestrymen of the parish of St. Andrew's cathedral met yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the bishop read the letter of resignation. Those present passed a resolution expressing their appreciation of the faithful services rendered by Rev. Mackintosh.

TENNIS CHAMPION WEDS.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride's parents by the Rev. W. D. Westervelt, the contracting parties being George T. Coulter and Miss Ethel Horner. The young people are spending their honeymoon on Pacific Heights. Mr. Coulter, the groom, is a conductor on the Rapid Transit. His bride was formerly a teacher in one of the city schools. She is well known throughout the Territory as the holder of the ladies' singles tennis championship for the past five years.

P. Maurice McMahon, the poet, stenographer, traveler, etc., arrived this morning in the Irmgard. Since McMahon left Hawaii some years ago he has often written expressing his longings for Hawaii, and it now seems that his heimweh has gotten the best of him.

The Afoong case came up in Judge Lindsay's Court this morning for a few moments, when the attorneys for both sides were present, and a discussion as to the taxation of costs ensued. Attorney Withington, for Mrs. Afoong, will present an order to the Court this afternoon at 4 o'clock dismissing the plea in bar.

TUG IS LIABLE FOR SHIP'S STRANDING

In the old admiralty matter of Pope & Talbot et al., versus the tug Fearless, in which a motion for rehearing was filed on account of the fourth exception to the second amended libel, Judge Dole this morning handed down his decision, deciding that the fourth exception to the second amended libel should be modified and the same overruled as to both of the strandings of the vessel in question.

The syllabus explains the case very clearly:

Liability of towing vessel for injury to tow.—A vessel in tow is stranded through the negligence of the tug; she floats off in such a position in a narrow channel that her rescue is a matter of difficulty but yet practical with exercise of reasonable care and skill. The same tug attempts the rescue, in which attempt she is again stranded. Held, that the tug is liable for second stranding through its failure to exercise sufficient care and skill to save her, and not because of its negligence in causing the first stranding.

Had the second stranding been inevitable in consequence of the first stranding, the tug would be liable whether it had attempted to rescue her afterwards or not.

KAIMUKI SHOOTING

Ah Poon, a Chinese with a record as a burglar, was shot in the leg by a Chinese vegetable gardener at Kaimuki last night, and is now at the hospital. The vegetable man claims that Ah Poon tried to burglarize his place, but Ah Poon says that he had spent the evening with him at his invitation and that the assault was unexpected.

IRMGARD MAKES FAST TRIP WITH POOR BREEZE

After another of those fast trips which have made her one of the best known boats in the Pacific, the barkentine Irmgard, Captain Christian, arrived in port early this morning, eleven and a half days out from San Francisco.

The Irmgard sailed from the California port check-a-block with general freight. She encountered light winds all the ways down, and came with yards squared all the way. In spite of light winds and deep draught, however, she have off port at least two days before expected, in the time which a racing yacht might envy. She has goods consigned to Schaefer & Co. The trip down was uneventful.

This popular packet brought down with her one passenger, P. Maurice McMahon, who is well known here, being a resident of this city at one time.

PRATT WILL CONFER

(Continued from Page 1) he paid from here to Camp Perry as a member of the shooting team, and this amount which would eventually be spent, for it is certain that Pratt would make the trip at some future date, will be saved the Territory. Mr. Pratt himself will pay his expenses from Camp Perry to Washington out of the salary he receives as an officer of the National Guard.

All in all, the trip should prove of great future value to Hawaii. Secretary Garfield has been keeping these islands in mind since his flying trip here, and he will be prepared to offer some excellent suggestions to Land Commissioner Pratt by the time that they have their conference. Mr. Pratt will spend a great portion of his time in Washington studying the methods of office procedure, as this is a matter of no small value.

BRYAN'S VIEWS ON PRESIDENCY

Tells Of Restrictions Which Limit His Power

New York, July 13.—William J. Bryan has written an article "My Conception of the Presidency," for "Collier's" issue of July 18th. It is reproduced in full herewith:

"The President's power for good or for harm is often overestimated. Our government is a government of checks and balances; power is distributed among different departments, and each official works in co-operation with others. In the making of laws, for instance, the President joins with the Senate and the House; he may recommend, but he is powerless to legislate, except as a majority of the Senate and the House concur with him. The Senate and the House are also independent of each other, each having a veto over the other, and the President has a veto over both, except that the Senate and House can, by a two-thirds vote, override the President's veto. The influence of the President over legislation is, therefore, limited; he shares responsibility with a large number of the People's representatives.

Activity Restricted.

"Even in the enforcement of the law he is hedged about by restrictions. He acts through an Attorney-General, whose appointment must be approved by the Senate, and offenders against the law must be prosecuted in the courts, so that here again the responsibility is divided. In the making of important appointments, too, he must consult the Senate and, in all, he is compelled to exercise care and discretion. The most important requisite in a President, as in all officials, is that his sympathy shall be with the whole people, rather than with any fraction of the population. He is constantly called upon to act in the capacity of a judge, deciding between the importunities of those who seek favors and the rights and interests of the whole. Unless his sympathies are right, the few are sure to have an advantage over the many, for the masses have no one to present their claims. They rely only at elections, and must trust to their representatives to protect them from all their foes.

"Second—The President must have knowledge of public questions and the ability to discern between the true and the false; he must be able to analyze conditions and to detect the sophistries that are always employed by those who seek unfair advantages.

Needs Moral Courage.

"He must possess the moral courage to stand against the influences that are brought to bear in favor of special interests. In fact, the quality of moral courage is as essential in a public official as either right sympathies or a trained mind.

"A President must have counselors, and, to make wise use of counselors, he must be open to convictions. The President is committed by his platform to certain policies and the platform is binding; he is also committed to certain principles of government and there he is duty bound to apply in all matters that come before him. But there is a wide zone in which he must act upon his own judgment, and here he ought to have the aid of intelligent, conscientious and faithful advisers. The law provides these, to a certain extent, in giving him a cabinet and the Vice-President ought to be made a member of the cabinet ex-officio, in order, first, that the President may have the benefit of his wisdom and knowledge of affairs, and, second, that the Vice-President may be better prepared to take up the work of the President in case of a vacancy in the Presidential office. There ought to be cordial relations also between the President and those who occupy positions of influence in the co-ordinate branches of the government, for our government is not a one-man government, but a government in which the chosen representatives of the people labor together to give expressions to the will of the voters.

Great opportunity.

"But the Presidency is the highest position in the world and its occupant is an important factor in all national matters. If he is a devout believer in our theory of government, recognizes the constitutional distribution of powers, trusts thoroughly in the people and fully sympathizes with them in their aspirations and hopes, he has an opportunity to do a splendid work; he occupies a vantage ground from which he can exert a wholesome influence in favor of each forward movement.

"The responsibilities of the office are so great that the occupant ought to be relieved of every personal ambition save the ambition to prove worthy of the confidence of his countrymen; for this reason he ought to enter the position without thought or prospect of a second term.

"While the burdens of such an office are exacting and exhausting, the field service is large, and measuring greatness by service, a President, by consecrating himself to the public weal, can make himself secure in the affections of his fellow-citizens while he lives and create for himself a permanent place in his nation's history."

Poor Support Puts the Indian Sign On Seegar

A rather small crowd yesterday saw the Santa Claras and seven or eight of the Milwaukee baseball team defeat Seegar, the good pitcher who hails from the cruiser with the beer-town appellation, by the man-killing score of 19 to 2. That was literally what happened. Seegar was as badly done up by the poor support of his nine as he was by the efforts of the Jesuits.

It was not a good game. Errors followed errors, on the sailors' part, and the contest dragged. There was no doubt at any stage as to the outcome. Milwaukee started in with a rush, and scored two men at the outset, and after that there was nothing more to it. The players seemed somewhat listless. But, then, Milwaukee was discouraged, and Santa Clara did not have to extend much effort.

After the magnificent showing which the tars made Sunday, all this is very much of a disappointment.

Kilburn pitched a good game for Santa Clara, until near the end, when he concluded that he had no business throwing out his arm, and Friene was put into the box. From that time the sailors did not see the ball.

Seegar pitched a heady and strong game right through. He was well supported by Fite, but everyone else had taken sleeping powders.

The sailors scored on two walks and a single, Tighe and Seegar straggling, and Smith following with a bingle, on which both men ripped across the pan.

A combination of hits and errors allowed Santa Clara to score three in the second. Four more were annexed in the fifth, on bobbles all around. In the eighth, the bases filled up on errors, and two runners came home on more errors, while Merv Shafer sacrificed and brought Peter home.

Though the game was not a rattling good one, it was sportsmanlike, and thanks are coming to the Milwaukee men, all the same.

THREE MEN DO BATTLE FOR HANDBALL HONORS

The handball schedule at the Y. M. C. A. is nearing completion. This week, Beckert and Webster have a match to play, which is the only one of the three outstanding games which can affect the outcome of the series. Then the winner of this go must play with John Baptiste, the present leader of the series.

Each of the two men who now meet, Beckert and Webster, has won 16 matches and lost 3. They have never played with each other in the course of the present schedule.

John Baptiste, the only man who has won 17 and lost 3 matches. So the outcome of the series is probably a week or so off yet.

CASTRO SENDS DEFI

Joe Castro, the warm wonder, officially designated as the "telephone smasher," wants to go in the ring with Young Nelson. Joe issues his defiance through the columns of the Bulletin. He has been in the ring twenty-eight times, and with some of the best ones, and he says that he believes he could put it on the boy who has lately been showing up so well in the local boxing game. Castro was well known to sports here in the Camp McKinley days. He was once in the ring with Jack McFadden, but pleaded lack of condition for his defeat at that time.

Joe wants until August 15th to get into condition, after when he is anxious to go with Young Nelson at any time for fifteen rounds.

HILO BASEBALL

Hilo ball results, July 25th: Hilo 9, H. A. C. 3; Mooheau vs. Naniwa game postponed, former team making the Volcano trip.

Standings of the teams in the Hilo Baseball League:

Mooheau	13	11	2	.845
Hilo	14	9	5	.640
H. A. C.	15	4	11	.265
Naniwa	12	3	9	.250

Next Sunday's games:
1:30 p. m.—Naniwa vs. H. A. C.
3:00 p. m.—Hilo vs. Mooheau.

The Santa Claras are showing up in ever better form. There will be something doing when they mix it with opponents from now on, and especially when they go against the Jewels Sunday.

Big League Will Have Half a Dozen Umpires

At last! The umpire question is settled. In fact, the matter has been nicely adjusted, in the interests of good sport.

The system adopted is not new here. "Diogenes" Pat Gleason and Eddie Fernandez were appointed a committee to pick an umpire, and they have picked. They, with the league, have adopted a plan by which the Honolulu Baseball League has not a permanent umpire at all. Five or six men are picked, and the teams which are to play have the discretion of picking the man or men to do the act. Then they have to keep quiet.

The plans thus outlined have been used here before, with marked success. Among the men who will probably handle the indicator in the future are Fernandez of the Jewels, Hampton of the Puns, Lemon of the Kams, Barney Joy of the Saints, Charles Albright, unattached, and others.

OILED FIELD COMPLETE FOR WINTER BASEBALL

Plans for winter baseball, when the second half of the Honolulu Baseball League schedule is put, are already pretty well matured. The diamond at Fort Shafter, on which the soldiers have been working faithfully for some time, is now complete, and will give the Kalihis a place in which to begin their playing, in case their own diamond in Kalihi is not finished by the time their schedule ought to start.

The diamond at Fort Shafter is skinned and oiled, and will be a nice place in which to play, at any event.

The Kalihis field is to be skinned, also, and will be worked to the very best of condition. The convict gang is now at work, getting stones out of the site. Though work is progressing slowly, it is hoped that this field, which is to be the best-skinned diamond ever constructed here, will be ready for use as soon as the Honolulu League is put.

The five teams which will take part in winter baseball this year are the Roads and Bridges nine, the Fort Shafter, the Kalihis A. C., the Walleles, and the Tidal Waves.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

The game yesterday proved something of a disappointment, as most of the mid-week ball held in this place does. The game was not anything like those the crowds have been seeing on Saturday and Sunday this year, and which they should see at this week end, according to the indications and forecasts.

Friene yesterday did something which has never been seen in this city before. He pitched winning ball with both hands in one inning. Starting things with his right, and seeming too strong for the sailors, he changed off to his left, and still they could not bat his offerings.

The regular gymnasium classes of the Y. M. C. A. start the 1st of September, meeting Monday and Thursday nights for the seniors.

The boxing game is somewhat dead in Honolulu just now. Taking a rest until the Pacific Fleet arrives, it seems.

Newsboys yesterday played ball, the Outsides defeating the Insides by a score of 22 to 12.

Kelly and Ketchel fight Friday.

WAIKAWA WINS THIS TIME

The Waiakawa team defeated Waiakawa at baseball last Sunday by a score of 6 to 2. The Waiakawa crack pitcher, Frank Deponte, was no mystery to the pineapple boys this trip, and only good support held the score down. The Waiakawas are now looking for the third game to decide the series, and hope that Waiakawa will accept their challenge.

Mr. Bryan is to be credited with having apparently secured his own renomination without patronage of any sort. Whether this more illustrates the helplessness of a man need not now be determined.—Brooklyn Eagle.
