OUR RELATIONS WITH HAWAII.

Speech of Hon. J. F. Stallings of Alabama, in the House of Representatives, Tuesday, February 6, 1894.

Again he says in the same letter:

"On Saturday, the 14th of January the capital was wholly controlled by the royal troops, including a large additional force of over 500 armed men not authorized by Hawaiian law. On the same day the first call to arms in opposition to the Queen was issued, and the citizens' Committee of Safety was developed. During the 14th, 15th, and most of the 16th, the two parties confronted each other in angry hostility, with every indication of an armed conflict at any moment. It was not until late in the afternoon of Monday, the 16th, after request for protection had been made by many citizens of the United States residing in Honolulu, that a force of marines was landed from the Boston, by direction of the Minister, and in conformity with the standing instructions which for many years have authorized the naval forces of the United States to co-operate with the Minister for the protection of the lives and property of American citizens in case of imminent disorder."

This letter was also sent to the Senate with the President's special message and the treaty of annexation. With these statements from the very highest authority from that source from which the Senate had a right to expect the true condition of affairs could and would be furnished them they of course, had a right absolutely to depend on this information. But, sir, accompanying the President's message, the letter of his Secretary of State, and the treaty, was a protest from the Queen and her Minister, stating explicitly that she had yielded up her Government to the superior force and power of the United States. She said:

(Received February 3, 1893.)

HIS EXCELLENCY BENJAMIN HARRISON, President of the United States.

My Great and Good Friend: It is with deep regret that I address you on this occasion. Some of my subjects, aided by aliens, have renounced their loyalty and revolted against the Constitutional Government of my Kingdom. They have attempted to depose me and to establish a Provisional Government, in direct conflict with the organic law of this Kingdom. Upon receiving incontestable proof that His Excellency the Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States aided and abetted their unlawful movements, and caused United States troops to be landed for that purpose, I submitted to force, believing that he would not have acted in the manner unless by the authority of the Government which he represents.

This action on my part was prompted by three reasons: The futility of a conflict with the United States; the desire to avoid violence, bloodshed, and the destruction of life and property, and the certainty which I feel that you and your Government will right whatever wrongs may have been inflicted upon us in the premises.

In due time a statement of the true facts relating to this matter will be laid before you, and I live in the hope that you will judge uprightly and justly between myself and my enemies.

This appeal is not made for myself personally, but for my people, who have hitherto always enjoyed the friendship and protection of the United States.

My opponents have taken the only vessel which could be obtained here FRIDAY, DEC. 18, 1896.

WHAT IS THE CONSIDERATION?

Anent the annexation boom the Advertiser has a leading article in this morning's issue, in which it attempts to roast the New York Evening Post and laud the Washington Star. From the article we extract the following choice morsel, italicizing one word to paint a moral and adorn a tale:—"The Post, weak in its arguments and weak in its representation of the popular will of the American people, finds a ready opponent to take up the fight and refute the impecunious bantering with which it attempts to throw discredit upon the Hawaiian Government and upon its staunch and able friends in the political circles of the United States."

Our dictionary gives three definitions to "impecunious: Having no money; habitually poor; penniless." We have tried in vain to fit impecunious to bantering in a way to illuminate the meaning of the expression of the editorial writer. The only way we can understand the matter is that the Washington Star lauds this "funny little republic" and its scheme for annexation for a consideration, and the N. Y. Evening Post pokes fun at the Hawaiian Government and its scheme without a penny of reward. Our explanation lines up with the well-known fact that the Star of Washington has no editorial column; that every inch of its space is a purchasable commodity.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Advertiser gives Queen Liliuokalani a little sneering advice as to how she shall conduct the mission she is upon. On behalf of the absent lady we venture to say to the Advertiser that the Queen is not taking advice from its columns at this time.

THE INDEPENDENT desires to impress their correspondents with the fact that communications having for their object the gratification of personal feelings, the abuse and vilification of political opponents, and especially of the writers on the Annexation Press, are not admissible in its columns. Doubly so, is the tabu placed upon those who shield themselves from public notoriety under anonymity, although their names may be furnished to the Editor. Our own staff is perfectly competent to use the lash whenever required, and to accept the responsibilities.

Our friends of the Annexation cause are grasping at every straw to save them from drowning. How do they like the stand now being taken by the San Francisco Bulletin and other California journals in reference to the contest between cane and beet sugars? The beet crop is of greater importance to our neighboring State than are the cane crops of Hawaii.

Is it not somewhat surprising that no practical effort is being made on the Islands to produce cotton for the Japanese market. We are informed by persons of experience from the Southern States that there is a fortune in it for the first adventurers in that direction. There is no waiting years for results as with coffee, and cotton growing would afford profitable employment for the Hawaiians and their children.

Our attention has been called to a report from Mr. Meyers of the leper settlement read at the last meeting of the Board of Health to the effect, that of a shipment of cattle on the 21st of November from Hawaii to the settlement 10 head died on the plains. Mr. Meyers suggests that thirst caused their death and is reported to have expressed as his opinion that "they had probably not been given water aboard the steamer and might have swallowed salt water, a thing that almost always causes death." Several people have construed these words of Superintendent Meyers as a reflection on Wilder's Steamship Company, which is distinctly unjust. The Inter-island steamers do not water cattle shipped by its steamers on voyages of less than twenty-four hours duration. The lot referred to in Mr. Meyer's letter was shipped and landed in very rough weather, and the pastures at the settlement on Molokai are moreover in a very dry and poor condition. There is nothing unusual in losing cattle shipped from one island to another. No blame can be laid on the steamer companies.

We notice that Mr. Albert Francis Judd is entitled to have the following portion of the alphabet tagged on to his name: C. J., A. B., A. M., L. L. D., L. L. B. This is decidedly encouraging for our young men whose ambition lies in the alphabetical direction. If a man of the mental capacities of Judd can get such a fraction of the alphabet as a handle to his name, as above quoted, any bright young fellow of average brain power ought certainly to be able to get the rest.

The Advertiser reprints the latest ebullition of the Washington Star, the subsidized organ in the capital of the United States, in regard to annexation, and the Tiser feels very happy over the Washington Star and its editorial purporting to be an answer to an excellent, truthful article on the same subject from the N. Y. Post. For once we agree with the Castle organ which uses as headlines to its remarks the words "A Fiend's Reply."

The annexationists have had another valuable and, to their cause, encouraging message. Mr. Francis M. Hatch has written a letter to Cecil Brown, probably after a good dinner, in which he states in regard to the prospects of annexation that "they were never brighter." We agree with Mr. Francis Moses Hatch. The prospects of annexation are exactly as dull and clouded today as they have always been, and they never will be brighter.

Jayasuriya, the Cingalese importer has opened a new store at No. 6, Hotel St., almost at the corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets, where he has some splendid specimens of Cingalese lace and jewelry. The prices are within the reach of all from the poorest to the richest. An inspection will amply repay the lovers of the curious and beautiful.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The Results of Yesterday's Meeting of the Board.

President W. O. Smith presided at yesterday afternoon's meeting, and the following matters were attended to.

Mr. Dowdel was appointed assistant principal at Kula, Maui. Miss Alvison Keick received a raise in salary.

Miss Kelsey was appointed to a vacancy in the Night School, and Miss Farr was appointed to the Hanamaulu school to succeed Miss Kelsey.

C. Meinecke, school agent at Kau, supported by Inspector-General Townsend, stated that there were no grounds for the complaint of Lino against Miss Angela Crook, the teacher of Waichinu.

Mr. Scott was authorized to purchase two 500-gallon tanks for Hana school; Mr. Hayselden was instructed to have the Lanai school house repaired at a cost of $50 and A. H. Crook to have a kitchen addition made to the Ulupalakus school for $25.

Two months leave of absence was granted to E. W. Estep of Hawaii, he having made satisfactory arrangements for a locum tenens.

It was ordered that necessary repairs be made to the overcrowded school at Waianae at a cost not to exceed $100.

Satisfactory reports on the visitation of schools were made by members of the Board, and after the transaction of unimportant matters the Board adjourned.

The Cause of Delay.

The delay in serving THE INDEPENDENT last evening on the King street and Waikiki routes was unfortunately unavoidable. The bright little carrier unhappily fell sick from the prevailing epidemic, and notice of his sickness did not reach the business manager until 5 o'clock, when it was too late to make other arrangements.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

Scotch whisky has become one of the favorite beverages in Honolulu during the last year. The different business houses have competed to find the very best brand. The Royal Annex now claims to have imported a whisky which cannot be excelled. T. V. F. is the name and the letters stand for "The Very Finest." This whisky will be served exclusively at the Royal Annex and connoisseurs will do well to step in and taste the T. V. F.

VICTOR SAFE

Perhaps one of the best recommendations we can use is the following letter from governor Thos. J. Jarvis of North Carolina. Every one knows the Governor, who held his State for 6 years, was U. S. Minister to Brazil and U. S. Senator. He writes:

GREENVILLE, N. C., Feb. 26th, 1896
The Victor Safe and Lock Co., Cin., O.:

GENTLEMEN:—I am pleased to say the Victor Safe you sold me some five or six years ago, preserved intact all of its contents in the late fire in Greenville, on the 16th inst. The safe stood at a point in my office in the Opera House Block, that must have been one of the hottest parts in the great conflagration. It contained papers and other things of value. When it was taken out of the ruins and opened some twelve hours after the fire, everything in it was found to be safely preserved and in good condition. I cheerfully make this statement of facts in recognition of the valuable service rendered me by your safe, and you are at liberty to make such use of it as you may see proper.

Yours truly,
THOS. J. JARVIS.

We have the

VICTOR SAFE

in four sizes but can obtain any size you wish. The prices of those we have in stock range from $50 to $110, and are especially suitable for stores, lawyer's agent's, and business men's offices. They are neat, compact and absolutely reliable. Call and inspect them and pass upon their merits.

Congratulations to our friend Joseph Tinker and his happy spouse on the birth of a daughter this morning. Happy is the man who has his quiverful of such a winsome family.

The examination of school children by their teachers as to the nationality of their parents still continues. Had they not better ask next for a certificate of birth, baptism and marriage.

Want the Coin.

Seven Chinese were arrested at Waikiki yesterday on a charge of having opium in possession. A raid was made on their premises and a trunk containing a small quantity of opium was found. The owner of the trunk could not be found however, all the Chinamen on the premises denying all knowledge of the "loaded" trunk. On a closer examination of the trunk $250 in gold was discovered and they all want the trunk or at least the coin. The case will be tried on Wednesday next and in the meantime the Deputy Marshal proposes to hang on to the trunk, the opium and the coin besides a large demijohn and half a dozen bottles of colored okolehao also found on the raided premises. Such is life in the tropics!

TINKER—In this city on the 18th inst., to the wife of Joseph Tinker, a daughter.

Gen Grant, Gen Sheridan and Col. Murphy were once at dinner together, when Murphy asked, "Who was the greatest general the South produced during the civil war—Robert E. Lee or Stonewall Jackson?" "Neither," said Grant, laconically, "J. E. Johnston was. And what do you say, Sheridan?" asked Murphy. "That is my opinion, too," replied Sheridan.

House Numbering.

The business of numbering the houses in the City is now completed and the promoters of the scheme are to be congratulated on the efficient manner in which the work has been done.

Commencing at the corner of King and Nuuanu streets, No. 1 is placed above the door of the Anchor Saloon. This figure not only denotes the number of the building, but also the quality of the refreshments served to its patrons inside, particularly the Long Life Whisky, Cold Seattle Beer on draught or in bottles, and lunch every day at noon. All of which are No. 1.

There's Danger

In every drop of impure beer you drink. By far the greater proportion of kidney trouble is due to its use. No need of your drinking it. Seattle Beer is pure. It's brewed of the finest hops and malt, aids digestion, promotes health and preserves it. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

PERFECT HARNESS

For many years past we have earned the reputation of making the very best HARNESS and Horse fittings in the Islands. Our make and all our supplies are invariably reliable. Our new patrons sustain the verdict of the old.

W. W. DIMOND'S

There are many kinds of cut glass sold, and to the ordinary purchaser, one make is as good as another. The value of the pieces depends, of course, on the cutting. If the edges are sharp, you may depend upon it that the quality is good.

Among all the makes of cut glass in the United States, but one firm sells enough to warrant their having a wareroom in New York. Everyone in the States knows which firm that is—Dorflinger. In the large cities, from Boston, south to Richmond and west to Denver, the purchaser puts but one cut glass question to a salesman, "is it Dorflinger's?" The make is so well-known that the name sells it. Our stock in this line is entirely from the Dorflinger factory—other dealers think it is the best, the buyers think it is the best, then why should not we? Other makes may be as good, they are certainly no better. Cut glass has been looked upon as essentially a luxury of the wealthy class, but our cut glass at cut prices, both cut, makes it possible for the middle class to own pieces of various sizes and shapes.

We have also a desire to call your attention to a stock of silver ware, genuine sterling, that excels most anything of the kind ever shown here. We sell Sterling silver napkin ring for $1.50.

We have everything in our store that will appease an appetite every day in the year and Christmas too. Our stock of canned goods, Puddings, Jams and Jellies have never been surpassed. We have everything for decorating a Christmas tree and by the Alameda we will have the same kind of trees used in the States.

We received 2,400 packages by the Australia, most of them containing goods especially for this season. A visit to the store will convince you that ours is the apotheosis of the edible world. There's nothing for the inner man, obtainable in the San Francisco markets that we do not have. We know what is wanted in Honolulu and we buy it, and at prices which guarantee a sale. for the purpose, and hearing of their intention to send a delegation of their number to present their side of this conflict before you. I requested the favor of sending by the same vessel an envoy to you, to lay before you my statement as the facts appear to myself and my loyal subjects.

This request has been refused, and I now ask you that in justice to myself and to my people that no steps be taken by the Government of the United States until my cause can be heard by you.

I shall be able to dispatch an envoy about the 2nd day of February, as that will be the first available opportunity hence, and he will reach you with every possible haste that there may be no delay in the settlement of this matter.

I pray you, therefore, my Good Friend, that you will not allow any conclusions to be reached by you until my envoy arrives.

I beg to assure you of the continuance of my highest consideration.

LILIUOKALANI, R.

Honolulu, January 13, 1893.

This communication was received at the State Department on the 3d day of February, 1893, before the treaty of annexation had been concluded, or even considered. In this note from the Queen to my "Great and Good Friend," the President of the United States, is presented a state of facts, as Mr. Cleveland says in his special message, transmitting the correspondence to Congress,
"upon the face of the papers submitted with the treaty it clearly appeared there was open and undetermined an issue of facts of the most vital importance." There was an issue of facts and it was of vital importance to both governments, because it involved the very existence of the Constitutional Government in Hawaii, and to the United States it involved the destruction of a foreign policy as old as the Government itself; it involved our national honesty, our good faith, and our integrity as a nation.

When Mr. Cleveland was inducted into office on the 4th of March, he ascertained that this treaty was then pending before the Senate, and true to himself and the great trust confided in him by the American people, true to the traditions and policies of the Republic, appreciating national honesty above territorial acquisition, he withdrew the treaty from the further consideration of the Senate "to cause an accurate, full, and impartial investigation to be made as to the facts attending the subversion of the Constitutional Government of Hawaii."

Is there a member of this House, Mr. Speaker, who will risk his reputation on the assertion that the President was wrong in withdrawing this treaty from the Senate in order that he might determine this question of fact, which had been submitted to him for arbitration, and of such vital importance to both nations and people? I think not, sir. I can not believe that partisan prejudice can control the action of members of this House when the nation's integrity, its honor, and the preservation of its traditions and policies are the stakes at issue.

But, sir, this is not all; there was another communication in which the head of our Government was directly appealed to. Where a feeble and defenseless neighbor appealed to our strong and powerful Government for national justice and fairness. The American people are to be congratulated upon the fact that this appeal finally reached the ears of a statesman conspicuous for his patriotism and courage, a man who regarded the nation's honor as of the highest concern and was actuated and moved alone in his conduct by that high and exalted sense of justice which saved the nation from disgrace. In yielding to what the Queen called the superior force of the United States, she said:

"I, Liliuokalani, by the grace of God and under the constitution of the Hawaiian Kingdom, Queen, do hereby solemnly protest against any and all acts done against myself and the constitutional Government of the Hawaiian Kingdom by certain persons claiming to have established a Provisional Government of and in this Kingdom.

"That I yield to the superior force of the United States of America, whose minister plenipotentiary, His Excellency John L. Stevens, has caused United States troops to be landed at Honolulu and declared that he would support the Provisional Government.

"Now, to avoid any collisions of armed forces and perhaps the loss of life, I do, under this protest, and impelled by said force, yield my authority until such time as the Government of the United States shall, upon the facts being presented to it, undo the action of its representatives and reinstate me in the authority which I claim as the constitutional sovereign of the Hawaiian Islands.

Done at Honolulu this 17th day of January, A. D., 1893.

Catholics and A. P. A's.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

I want to know how it is the supporters of annexation have the face to ask Catholics to join their schemes when they are supporting a body like the A. P. A. which is oath-bound to down every Catholic on the islands. I have a list of all the members of that body and I intend to publish it in the San Francisco papers and here also, to show what sort of men are running affairs here now. No self-respecting Catholic could have anything to do with such men or any who knowingly associate with and support them.
