STRONGER THAN ROYALIST APPEALS.

The disclosure of the letter from the ex-queen to Mr. Stevens, and the request made in her name by her ex-ministers an hour later that Mr. Stevens would sustain the fallen monarchy with the forces of the United States, has proved another fatal shot between wind and water to the sinking royalist cause. In attempting to squirm from under the logical weight of the ex-queen's second fatal admission in writing, the royalists refuse to consider, for very patent reasons, the request for aid to her cause, made an hour after Mr. Stevens received her letter. It is this request which throws the light of interpretation upon the ex-queen's epistle and makes its intent and purpose clearly preparatory to the request for aid which followed almost before the writing was dry.

Another point upon which there seems to be some confusion in the royalist mind is the repeated assertion heard that the United States has the ex-queen's "claim" under consideration and that her "case," whatever that term may be intended to mean, is pending before the United States government. The only question at present before the government of the United States is one of the acceptance or rejection of the proposition for the annexation of these islands. The Provisional government has been fully, formally and officially recognized by the United States and any further negotiations for the consummation of annexation or a modification thereof, will be carried out only with the consent and ratification of the Provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands. The ex-queen ceased to have a claim or a case, as her supporters call it, when, by her own unconstitutional act she overthrew the rotten monarchy, permeated by immorality and directed by a lot of gamblers and hungry financiers awaiting a pretext to make ducks and drakes of the public revenues and load the resources of the country with further burdens.

It was after the fall of the monarchy, after the establishment of the Provisional government, and long after the landing of the United States troops that the ex-queen and her gang of gambling parasites set up the claim that Mr. Stevens and the United States troops had aided the citizens of Hawaii in establishing good government. Her alleged claim comes to late to be valid, for the very forcible reason that it comes into conflict with the statements and admissions made in the power of attorney given Paul Neumann, to procure her, if possible, a pension payable in golden eagles of the United States of America; it also conflicts with the letter sent Mr. Stevens and the request for aid from him and the United States troops. To now turn to abuse and claim that the annexationists who overthrew the monarchy were the lottery supporters is so palpably absurd it needs no answer. None but royalists would think of such a mood of defense; and it begins to look as if the oft-repeated charge of intellectual and physical cowardice brought against them has somewhat of truth in it.

There is one other point which is occasionally referred to, when the royalists feel their past acts galling them most severely, and that is the good advice that Mr. Stevens took occasion to give the ex-queen, when she mounted the throne at her brother's death. Mr. Stevens neither "assailed" nor treated the ex-queen "rudely" on the occasion referred to, and it was the prophetic truth and candor of that advice, given by a diplomat accustomed to measure and foretell the results of national policies, which made it so unpalatable to a semi-civilized ruler, who had already determined upon an unconstitutional course. This her foreign subjects, as well as Mr. Stevens, had already suspected, and it was that anticipation by the people which prepared them to act when the ex-queen promulgated her anti-haole constitution in last January. The result was her immediate exit from public life before the moral force and political indignation of her subjects, whose interests she threatened, and whose rights she proposed to subvert.

Had the ex-queen followed the advice of Mr. Stevens and conducted her government in the manner hinted at by "the Augusta diplomat" she would still be at the head of the Hawaiian government, and the royalists, who are now vainly "kicking against the pricks," would still be drawing their private sustenance from the public treasury, which their own political abuses so suddenly and unexpectedly removed from their greedy reach. It is uncertain whether the royalists hate Mr. Stevens most for pointing out the inevitable downfall of the monarchy, or Minister Damon for emphasizing the unfitness thereof by making the Provisional government self-sustaining under necessarily heavy expenses, within a few months after the retirement of the ex-queen and her followers from the control of national affairs. It is the consideration of such and similar facts which makes Mr. Stevens' speech upon Hawaiian affairs much stronger than any appeal yet put forth by the royalists.

The Duke and the Press.
The bellboy on the fourth floor of the Palace tells a good story of his grace the duke of Newcastle. The day after the duke arrived in San Francisco he called for the morning newspapers. He was yet in bed and smoked a cigarette after having tasted his morning roll and sipped his coffee. "I understand," said his grace, the newspapers of San Francisco are very courteous to gentlemen of rank from England." "Then he picked up one of the newspapers and read the statement that he was a victim of the cigarette habit. This caused him to fling the paper aside and roll over on his couch in anguish. "Hence, papers?" said his grace with a wave of his hand. "I want you not." S. F. Call, July 4th.

A Complete Bindery.
The Hawaiian Gazette company has recently imported from Chicago and New York about fifteen hundred dollars worth of the latest and most approved bindery machinery and materials, such as have never before been introduced here. Probably no office in San Francisco is better fitted to turn out first-class binding more rapidly than this office can now do it. The purpose of the Gazette company is to maintain a first-class bindery here, so that there can be no necessity for sending work abroad. The largest size of account books can be manufactured at short notice, and guaranteed equal to the best foreign manufacture, in paper, finish, lettering, paging, etc.

Will Study Law.
Prof. J. Q. Wood, who has been a teacher of mathematics and English literature at Oahu College during the past two years, leaves by the steamer Australia to attend the law department of Harvard College for three years. He intends also while at Harvard to pass examinations for the A. M. degree. Mr. Wood will spend several weeks in California visiting relatives, and another several weeks at the Chicago fair, reaching Harvard next September. Mr. Wood's numerous friends wish him bon voyage.

One More Chance.
Saturday was named as the last day when water rates could be paid without the added ten per cent. for delinquents. For several reasons Superintendent Brown will give the public a day of grace, so wise people will pay their bills today as hereafter the extra per cent. will be exacted.

Cash Talks.
It will pay you to come to the Columbia bicycle agency for special prices which are being given on the big consignment per Australia.

C. J. LYONS,

In charge of Weather Bureau.

Letter from S. E. Bishop.
MR. EDITOR:—I was surprised to find the Bulletin admitting on Saturday to its columns so libelous and violent an attack as that of "American," on myself. Probably much allowance is to be made for the present exasperation of royalist animosity.

I will content myself for at least the present by saying in reply that as to that affair of the horse, just five years ago, all who knew the facts were aware that no injury was intentionally inflicted on the animal. The matter never came before the court at all, but was readily settled outside. As to the scurrilous insinuations following, I have lived forty years among my neighbors here, and need take no notice of them.

I hope that the Bulletin will be so honorable as to reprint this letter in their afternoon issue, and oblige,
S. E. BISHOP.

The war on the blight continues, and we supply the arms and ammunition. Orders left with us for Insecticide Wash will be promptly filled and with no inconvenience to consumers. Also, in connection with this, we have imported a supply of the celebrated Lewis Combination Spray Pump which is particularly adapted for the purpose of distributing the wash.

English toilet sets are admittedly the best in the world and getting them as we do, direct from the manufacturers they are the cheapest. The Australia brought us fifty complete sets that go to you at a price that would make our buyer in London blush. They're worth double the money as an ornament even if you have no use for them in your bedroom.

The difficulty in the way of obtaining a good arrangement for mending hose has been overcome by the introduction of the "Kempshall Hose Mender" which goes to you at a quarter of a dollar, and you can make an old piece of hose as good as new with one of them and ten minutes work.

Two or three times, we have imported small quantities of a very excellent pocket knife adapted to persons whose finger nails are brittle and apt to the broken in opening a blade. The knives were such a success that we have been obliged to order more. The Australia brought them, and people who do not know what an automatic pen knife is should come in and get one.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE LEPER SETTLEMENT.

Contract for Paiai Awarded.

Dr. Oliver Granted Leave of Absence—

Report on the Vaccine Farm—The Next Examination of Lepers—

News from the Settlement,

etc., etc.

The board of health held a called meeting last Saturday morning at 11:20 o'clock, to consider tenders for paiai for the leper settlement. Several matters of special business were taken up and as many more went over to the next meeting to be called by the president.

There were present President W. O. Smith, members John Ena, Dr. Day and J. O. Carter and Agent C. B. Reynolds.

Messrs. Bailey and Richardson of the Hawaiian Fruit and Taro Company were also present on invitation of President Smith.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read. On motion of Mr. J. O. Carter the minutes were approved and the action taken by the last meeting when the rules and regulations of the leper settlement were adopted, was affirmed by the full board.

The following are the new rules and regulations as they stand, signed and approved by the government.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR LEPELERS AND KOKUAS LIVING AT THE LEPER SETTLEMENT ON MOLOKAI, PROMULGATED IN ACCORDANCE TO SECTION 519 OF CHAPTER XXXII. OF THE LAWS OF 1870, AND SECTION 2 OF CHAPTER LXI. OF THE LAWS OF 1888.

Section 1. All lepers and kokuas are required to live in an orderly and peaceable manner, and to respect the laws of the Hawaiian Islands as well as the rules and regulations of the board of health, and lawful orders of the superintendent.

Sec. 2. Lepers shall not leave the settlement except on an order from the board of health, under penalty of punishment by fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days with or without labor, as the case may require.

Sec. 3. Lepers shall not scale or climb up the walls without a permit from the superintendent, and then not beyond the limit prescribed by the superintendent.

Sec. 4. Lepers and kokuas shall not enter or live on the kulanas, or in the houses owned by the kamaainas at Kalaupapa or other portions of the settlement. Any person violating any of the above rules will be liable to a fine not exceeding ($20) twenty dollars, or imprisonment with or without labor for a term not to exceed (40) forty days.

Sec. 5. All able-bodied lepers are required to keep the surroundings of their houses clean; and to whitewash or cause to be whitewashed the houses in which they live, which are not painted with oil paints, inside and outside, twice a year, at intervals of six months, for which time and brushes will be furnished. On failure of lepers to comply with this rule, without showing good cause, the work will be done for them at their expense.

Sec. 6. Noises after 9 o'clock in the evening and disturbances of the quiet of the night are forbidden under a penalty of a fine not to exceed five dollars or imprisonment with or without labor not to exceed ten days.

Sec. 7. The inmates of the leper hospitals shall conform to the rules and regulations made by those in charge of the said hospitals or hospitals, under penalty of dismissal from the same.

Sec. 8. Lepers are permitted to build houses for their own use, and to select building sites, subject to the approval of the superintendent of the settlement; provided however, that if at any time the Board of Health desires any such land for any purpose, the board shall have the right to remove any house thereon to another site. All expenses of moving shall be borne by the board, and the board shall pay to the owner of the house all actual damage caused him by reason of such removing.

Sec. 9. They may sell or give away or devise by will such houses, but only for the use and occupation of other lepers, and with the knowledge and approval of the board of health.

Sec. 10. No leper shall be permitted to build or own more than one dwelling house.

Sec. 11. Property left by lepers who have died without leaving a will, and who have no legal heirs at the settlement will be sold at public auction and the proceeds, after deducting the lawful expenses, will be remitted to the president of the board of health for the benefit of the legal heirs of the deceased, and, if after due advertisement in an English and Hawaiian newspapers, no lawful claimant shall appear, such proceeds, after deducting the expense of advertising, shall be turned over into the public treasury as government realizations.

Sec. 12. Lepers may leave their personal property and effects at the settlement by will, but only by a written will, signed in the presence of not less than two witnesses, one of whom shall be the superintendent of the leper settlement, or other officer authorized by the superintendent.

Sec. 13. After the death of a leper no claim for services rendered him will be allowed unless proofs are produced that the deceased in his lifetime verbally acknowledged such service in the presence of a credible witness, or may have been by him acknowledged in writing, signed in the presence of the superintendent or other officer authorized by the superintendent.

Sec. 14. Lepers trusting one another do so entirely at their own risk, as they will not be assisted in collecting claims by the board of health or the superintendent.

Sec. 15. Lepers are allowed to plant on the lands of the board of health and to dispose of their crops without giving a share to the board, or paying for the use of the lands. They may select grounds suitable to the crops they intend to raise, subject however to the approval of the superintendent. But no one shall be allowed more land for his or her own use, than he or she can cultivate; nor shall he or she be allowed to transfer such planting ground to another without the knowledge and consent of the superintendent; provided, however, any person to whom land for planting has been assigned who neglects to plant on the same shall forfeit his or her right to the said land, and such planting ground may be assigned to another person.

Sec. 16. No person who is not a leper shall be allowed to live at the leper settlement as a kokua for lepers, without having first obtained written permission to do so from the board of health.

Sec. 17. Every kokua must minister to the wants and the necessities of the lepers for whom he or she has been permitted to live at the settlement. Any kokua who deserts or neglects the leper with whom he or she obtained the permit shall forfeit such permit, and shall be expelled from the settlement.

Sec. 18. All permits of kokuas terminate with the death of the party or parties for whom they have been serving as kokuas and such kokuas must leave the settlement on or before the expiration of two weeks after the death of such party or parties; provided, the physician at the settlement shall, on examination, pronounce such kokuas to be free from all suspicion of leprosy.

Sec. 19. Kokuas must work for the board when called upon by the superintendent, and for such services they shall be paid fair wages; provided, however, they shall not be called upon by the superintendent when the condition of the party or parties for whom they are kokuas shall demand their constant presence and attendance, for which the certificate of the physician shall constitute a sufficient proof.

Sec. 20. Kokuas may build houses for the party or parties for whom he or she is the kokua, under the same condition as lepers.

Sec. 21. Kokuas shall not be entitled to rations of any kind. They shall not be allowed to own horses or dogs at the settlement. Food rations, however, may be issued to them in lieu of services rendered to the board, on the recommendation of the superintendent.

Sec. 22. Kokuas shall not leave the settlement without the written consent of the superintendent, and then only on important business concerning the board of health.

Sec. 23. Any kokua, duly convicted for violating the laws or for disregarding the rules and regulations of the board of health, shall forfeit his or her permit, and must leave the settlement within one week after conviction, or suffer the penalty provided by law.

Board of health, by its president, WILLIAM O. SMITH.

Office of the board of health, Honolulu, July 15, 1893.

We hereby sanction and approve of the foregoing rules and regulations:

SANFORD B. DOLE, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

J. A. KING, Minister of the Interior.

S. M. DAWSON, Minister of Finance.

WILLIAM O. SMITH, Attorney General.

President W. O. Smith stated that the tenders for supplying the leper settlement at Molokai with paiai for the next two years would be read. The Hawaiian Fruit and Taro Company had held the contract for several years and received sixty three cents a paiai. This was the least they could furnish it for and guarantee the supply and quality of the paiai.

The bids ranged from 63 cents to 49 1/2 cents a paiai, to be delivered under the terms of the contract.

Considerable discussion took place as to the reliability of the persons tendering, and the feasibility of accepting the lowest bid. Several facts of more or less importance and interest were brought out during the discussion. Mr. Bailey stated the regular order was for the month, but the weekly order sometimes largely increased the supply needed and was received about six hours before the paiai was shipped. It took at least 150 acres of growing taro to keep up the supply for the settlement under the terms of the contract. The amount demanded at the settlement would average about 750 paiais a week.

The question of raising the bond required was also discussed and it was determined it should remain at $1000.

The tender of Lee Chin of Honolulu, was accepted to furnish paiai to the leper settlement for the period of two years at the rate of 49 1/2 cents a paiai, under a contract and bond to be drawn and approved by the president of the board.

Dr. Oliver was granted a leave of absence for one month during the coming fall to allow him to transact some necessary private business in the district of Kan., with the understanding that Dr. Oliver furnish a substitute during his absence.

A letter from Superintendent Meyers was read which included his monthly account of expenses. It also stated that the steamer Lehuha had landed the last lot of lepers sent up and that as only three of them had entered the Bishop home for treatment, the expected crowding had not taken place.

Dr. Goto's last letter for more medicines was read. The secretary stated that the medicines had already been forwarded.

The matter of the charges against the Japanese physician near Hilo together with a letter containing his reply to the same went over until the next meeting of the board.

Dr. Day stated that they had not yet been able to get the vaccine farm started owing to the fact that the virus thus far used had not taken. They had sent East by Dr. Miner for a fresh supply of virus which they hoped would prove better than that from New Zealand.

It was ordered that the physician at the government dispensary be temporarily appointed to fill the place of Dr. Henri McGrew on the board of examiners at the leper receiving station at Kalihi.

Agent C. B. Reynolds stated that another examination of the lepers at the station was desirable soon—next week, if possible—as the present lot had to be kept constantly under guard.

At 12 o'clock the board adjourned subject to the call of the president.

THE NATION'S DEAD.

THE VICTIMS OF KOOLAU
BURIED WITH MILITARY
HONORS.ELOQUENT WORDS BY DR.
BECKWITH.Description of the Sorrowful Journey to God's Acre.The Line of March—Order of Procession—The Services at the Graves—Scenes and Incidents Along the Route.

The barracks at the court house was yesterday turned into a place of mourning, and sombre emblems of death were met on every hand. Over the archway that divides the long barrack room were the sorrowful words in dead black against the pallid wall, "We mourn our loss." The chandeliers were twined with mourning colors, as was the crimson drapery over the rostrum behind the three flag spread coffins, where the three brave men slept nerveless in death, but loved and honored by their living comrades and the government they served.

Long before two o'clock the long hall was filled with people,—men, women and children, met to pay a last earthly tribute to the men killed at Kalalau, while endeavoring to carry out the law of leper segregation, long neglected and defied under the monarchy, fallen none too soon. Along the Ewa side near the wall, hiding the gun-racks trimmed with death emblems, were ranged twenty members of George W. De Long Post G.A.R., come to attend veteran McCabe to his last earthly resting place among the greenery of the Nuuanu cemetery.

"He was a G. A. R. man, was he not?" was asked of a gray-haired veteran of the post, as he stood facing the flower-decked coffins. "No, not a G. A. R. man, but a veteran of the war," replied the old soldier, "but he will be buried in our plot just as if he had joined the grand army, which he intended doing by the way."

"You all knew him, then?" was asked. "Yes, yes, we all knew McCabe," said the old man, showing a soldier's interest at once, "he enlisted first in 1861, in the first Rhode Island battery, where he served for three months and was mustered out at Providence, R. I. He then re-enlisted in the third Rhode Island regiment for nine months and was again mustered out at Providence, after which he re-enlisted for the last time in the ninth Rhode Island regiment and served during the remainder of the war. At the close he was honorably discharged. Ah! here they come," said the living comrade, as he closed up the line and held his head up, looking straight before him as Captain Zeigler came to the front preparatory to the commencement of the services over the dead.

The three biers stood in front of the rostrum covered with Hawaiian flags and loaded with floral tributes. At the ends stood two rows of six guards each, facing across the biers, with their arms grounded and their heads erect. Military discipline was not relaxed even upon this sad occasion. On the sides of the aisles next the coffins stood two gattling guns, and the twenty G. A. R. veterans who ranged along the wall held each a bouquet of flowers in his hand, while on each breast was the beautiful and honorable badge that none but veterans of the grand army of the republic wear. McCabe's coffin rested on the Ewa side of the hall, Hirschberg's lay in the center, and Anderson's occupied the Waikiki side. The large hall was crowded until there was no further standing room when the service began.

Immediately in front of the rostrum were seated President Dole, Vice-President W. C. Wilder and Ministers Damon, King and Smith. At the close of the service Pres. Dole remained at the executive building and Minister Damon at the court house until the troops returned from the cemetery. Near the entrance door to the room of the bureau of agriculture and forestry, was seated the choir of the Central Union church, while Rev. Dr. Beckwith occupied the rostrum.

THE SERVICES.

At six minutes past 2 o'clock the funeral service was opened with a short prayer by Dr. Beckwith, followed by the singing of a hymn. The reverend gentlemen then arose and after reading from II. Timothy, 4:7 and 8; Romans, 8:35-39; II. Samuel, 1:17-27, said in substance:

We have listened to the lamentation of an Israelite of old; we are here also to lament our dead today and we bring our tribute of sorrow and honor to our comrades in arms who have laid down their lives in the good fight; where they were found standing as the defenders of right, of law and justice, and hence of the land. We should do them honor as their deeds honor us and the manhood of our country. They were volunteers who met their death upon the call of their country in carrying out the law and order of the land, and this fact calls for double honor for the service rendered. We should also honor them for their manly courage. It was a perilous mission they went upon as volunteers and they knew the danger, yet never faltered. One of those who lies cold in death before us, when shaking hands with his comrades at the wharf, was heard to say, "Yes, boys; it's a dangerous job and some of us who are leaving you will never return; but we will do our duty." And so they did—and so did he, poor fellow, and he never left Kalalau only to be carried back by his comrades with two other brave men, whose actions we are gathered to honor today. Brave is the man who knows his danger and yet faces it—such as was this—braver is he than the soldier who meets his death in the long line of battle amid the excitement and roar of the battle-field. Let us honor them for their noble self-sacrifice; they have given their lives for the public good, therefore I commend them to the esteem of all the people in this hall today; I commend their memory to all the good citizens of this land, and we commend them to the abundant mercies of the good Lord. Let us pray.

At the conclusion of Dr. Beckwith's remarks, the choir sang "Jesus, lover of my soul," after which the benediction was pronounced, and the hall was soon cleared preparatory to removing the coffins to the gun-carriages at the front entrance of the building, where the procession was formed before proceeding to the Nuuanu cemetery.

THE FUNERAL MARCH.

About half-past 2 o'clock the Hawaiian band, stationed on the grounds in front of the court buildings, commenced a mournful march, which was a signal that the funeral services were over, and that the bodies were being carried out to be placed on the gun-carriages. A platform rested on each carriage. They were covered with a deep black cloth, and on the edges was placed fringe of the same color. Two horses were harnessed to each carriage.

The first body brought out was that of John McCabe. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. Williams and La Pierre, who represented the G. A. R., and four members of Company A. Hirschberg's body was carried by Sergeant-Major Pratt and Charles Baker and four privates. The pall bearers for the remains of Anderson were Mr. C. B. Reynolds and Dr. Cooper, both of whom were members of the Kalalau expedition, and four soldiers.

After the caskets were placed in position on the gun carriages the order to march was given and the funeral procession proceeded in the following order.

Police.
Hawaiian Band.
Company A, N. G. H.
Detachment from Co. E, N. G. H.
Rev. Dr. Beckwith, officiating clergyman.
Firing Party.
Gun Carriage with McCabe's Remains.
Firing Party.
Gun Carriage with Hirschberg's Remains.
Firing Party.
Gun Carriage with Anderson's Remains.
Citizens on Foot.
Carriages Containing Government Officials, Members of G. A. R., Etc.

Company A turned out about 110 men under command of Capt. Charles Zeigler.
The detachment from Company E consisting of twenty-four men was commanded by Lieut. Coyne.
The police company numbered thirty-one men who were commanded by Capt. Robert Parker.
The Geo. W. de Long Post G. A. R. turned out twenty men led by Comrade J. Simonson.

A long line of carriages followed the remains of the three soldiers to the cemetery, and among the prominent people who attended the funeral were Vice-President W. C. Wilder, Minister King, Attorney-General W. O. Smith, Col. W. F. Allen, Major Potter, de camp to President Dole, John Nott, Andrew Brown, Henry Waterhouse and Judge Cooper. The military was represented by Col. J. H. Soper and his entire staff. One vehicle was occupied by Wm. Larsen and eight others who acted as special policemen under Mr. Larsen.

The procession moved along King to Fort, to Kukui and to Nuuanu avenue. At different points along the march the sidewalks were crowded with people who were from all walks of life.

When the cemetery was reached there was quite a crowd of people present and when the burial ceremonies commenced a large concourse had assembled. The first body buried was that of John McCabe. Near the grave stood the Geo. W. de Long Post G. A. R. Nearly every veteran present had a bunch of flowers in his hand to be deposited on the last resting place of their deceased comrade. Close by stood Company A drawn up in line and in front was the firing party composed of Corporal C. B. Wells, Privates E. Staunton, A. Phillips, J. Picked, J. Evensen, J. Sauterberg, P. Johnson and Arthur Fitzsimmons. This squad was under command of Lieut. George King.

The grave was surrounded with people while Dr. Beckwith spoke the burial service. When the casket was hidden from view the firing party advanced and fired three volleys over the grave. The handsome floral tokens which adorned the casket were placed on the mound while the bugler sounded taps.

Closer to the Nuuanu roadway a double grave had been dug to receive the bodies of Hirschberg and Anderson. The caskets were lowered after which Dr. Beckwith repeated the burial service. Volleys were fired for Anderson by a party consisting of Corporal Thomas King, Privates J. Frey, William Thoenes, Gus Gunther, J. F. May, Louis L. Held, C. Cavanagh and J. Vivichayes.

The same honor was accorded the remains of Hirschberg by Corporal McKeague, Privates Charles Kroll, H. S. Naylor, Thomas Downey, A. McAulton, Charles McKay, Charles Blum and F. H. Miller.

With the exception of McKeague each member of the firing parties was at Kalalau valley, where the three men met with their untimely end.

After the double grave had been decorated with flowers and evergreens, taps were sounded, the soldiers moved in line and then the Hawaiian band leading.

MAUI NEWS.

SERIOUS RESULT OF CELEBRATING THE FOURTH

Society News and Stray Scribbles.

MAUI, July 15.—"Action is equal to reaction in the opposite direction,"—hence after the excitement of last week's celebrations; the serenades by stringed bands during the early hours of the 4th, the long and exciting race day amid Kahului's wind and dust, the picnic in Makawao, and the two dancing parties in the evening,—a most serene and perfect quiet has been the order of the last seven days on Maui.

On the night of the 4th mauka of Kahului, upwards through Spreckelsville towards Haleakala, many a rideless horse wandered about, and many a rider full of "glory" made a couch of mother earth. A collision or two have been reported, but no serious casualty, excepting in the case of an aged Hawaiian who is now in Wailuku hospital in a comatose condition, still nursing a badly bruised skull,—the result of a superlative celebration of the great day, a fall from a restive horse, and exposure caused by a night's slumber among the sand hills of Spreckelsville.

STRAY SCRIBBLINGS.

Last Saturday Miss May Bailey who has been visiting at D. D. Baldwin's at Haiku, departed for Makawao via Honolulu.

Mr. Luther Zumwalt also left for Kauai, having made arrival and departure during the same week. At the polo game on the Makawao grounds during the p. m. of the 8th, a most exciting contest took place with sticks and ball. The winning side generally being the one assisted by the strong trade wind.

J. W. Kalua, Esq., together with some lady friends are to be credited with the pretty decorative effects of the skating ring during the night of the 4th. Mrs. T. J. McLaughlin is to be thanked for the elegant badges worn by the gentlemen in charge of the evening's amusement.

Miss Katie Fleming of Panatou is a great addition to the Makawao church choir, and Dr. Fraser, Mr. Gulick's substitute from California, though weak in voice is strong and earnest in expounding good doctrine.

La grippe is losing its grasp on Maui—warm weather and the regular trades have dealt it a death-blow. The Wailuku hospital, which has of late been full of patients, has now but six or seven.

Surprise parties seem to be most popular in Makawao recently. Last Thursday evening twenty-five young folk met at the Hamakua-poko reading room, and when all was ready, promenaded to the cottage occupied by Miss Ethel Mayman and her father, completely surprising the young lady. The gathering was made in honor of her birthday. Of course a pleasant evening was inevitable.

Makawao and Kealahou schools close on Monday the 17th; Hamakua-poko on the 18th and Paia and Wailuku hold receptions on the 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Nishwitz, who for several years have been conducting the Kealahou (kula) school, will soon leave for the Coast expecting to be absent five or six months. The gentleman has been and is still suffering from a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wodehouse, of Honolulu, and Mr. C. Sneyd-Kynnersley, of Kohala, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis von Tempky of Kula.

Mr. Wodehouse and bride will visit the Makawao polo grounds this afternoon and witness a sharp contest which is partly given in honor of the newly-wedded couple. That the tax on light brakes has been reduced to $2 (when valued less than $75), is received with favor on Maui.

Query:—Why not change the position of the grand stand so as to avoid wind and dust, gentlemen of the Maui racing association?

The Maui Teachers' association held their second meeting at Wailuku government school house during Thursday and Friday, the 20th and 21st instants.

The bark Colusa, Capt. Johnson, could not make the harbor Wednesday night but lay outside and came in during Thursday A.M. the 17th, inst. She came in ballast and made the trip from Central America in 614 days. She will be busy for a week or more loading sugar.

The Makawao picnic on the 4th occurred in the beautiful grounds of H. P. Baldwin, Haiku.

Weather:—Hot, windy, and dusty—so that people are beginning to seek a mountain residence is full of good-CENTENNIAL

Having now the much desired space for the proper display of my splendid stock of FINE GOODS, arrangement of the different lines,

as compared to my old and cramped quarters; it is simply paradise.

My stock of staple and new Goods will from now on, be found complete, and any suggestion in the way of new fads will be eagerly attended to.

As a starter on new Goods, my very fine line of Leather Purses and Card Case combinations are well worth your attention.

Leathers in all the delicate colors of dress materials, mounted in fine

sterling silver in intricate designs

as well as the plain; they must be appreciated by those who have always been obliged to send away for these goods. Carrying in this line

the products of the leading makers of fine Leathers in the United States, it is possible for me to offer you a choice assortment from the comparatively inexpensive to that which takes dollars to buy.

The Gentleman's full dress Card

Case, seems to be the correct thing from the way they caught on—just large enough to fit the proper pocket.

Another little thing on which sales are rapidly increasing, the dainty little individual Butter

Spread in sterling silver and plate, probably the best and most useful little conceit ever thought of in connection with the table service.

Remaining on the table throughout the meal, they entirely take the place of the desert knife for spreading butter, certainly more dainty and giving the other instrument a chance to be used for what it was intended. To those of refined tastes and a sense of the fitting, very little need be said in their favor. It will not be long before every table in Honolulu will be supplied with these very necessary little articles.

A BLUEBIRD'S SONG.

To simple souls, oftentimes in simplest ways,
Come sweet surprises that we scarce know why—
Make glad with sudden brightness dreary days
Or set a rainbow in a stormy sky.
A smile perhaps from some dear passerby.
A word, unsought, of sympathy or praise,
A wafted flower, a flowerlike butterfly—
The very trifle has its spell to raise
Some drooping heart to whom God bids it speak.
And I—who heard but now all unaware
That bluebird's rapture thrilling on the air—
I knew its meaning is not far to seek;
To me, faint hearted, fearful, once again
The Father sends a message—not in vain.
—Mary Bradley in Harper's Bazar.

Baited For Catfish and Caught an Owl.

A man of unquestioned veracity vouches for the truth of this fish story:
His friend, who lives a few miles in the country, set a line for catfish one day.
In the morning when he went after the fish he found them in abundance, and on one line he found a large owl that must have been a terror to birds and fishes when alive. The line was wound around the body and the neck of the owl, and the fish bore marks of the owl's talons, showing that the owl had caught the fish after the hook had caught it, and in its efforts to fly away with the fish it had been ensnared by the line, after which the fish had its inuring by drowning the owl.

At any rate the owl was dead, and the fish, though disgorged, was still in the swim and playing the line with a vigor that caused the line to bob up and down with the irregularity of the cotton market. The drowned owl is on exhibition as a witness to the truth of the story, and the fish, though the finest of the catch, escaped the frying pan, and now has a steady job as an owl catcher. The fisher set him for owls.—Valdosta Cor.

Celtic Melancholy or Joy.

In the Irish dirge and laments there is great similarity to the music of the west highlands, only the Irish music having been written in most instances for the harp—which has all the notes of the voice—in a music of full and sweet harmonies and has not the omissions and deficiencies of the pentatonic scale which all music for the pipes was while the melancholy of the finds adequate expression in plaintive, wailing airs, recitative and melancholy.

I may be mistaken, for I continually make mistakes. But when shown to have been mistaken I own myself in error. Yet, if I am mistaken, is it not the error of him who mistakes me? But it may be that I am right and that he is mistaken, though I suppose that I ought to take him right and not mistake him.
Nevertheless I often have to say in argument: "You were quite right. I was mistaken."

In a word, though he who mistakes must be in error, our common use of language considers him who is mistaken to be so.—Notes and Queries.

Two Things Without Patents.

The floating dock and the typewriter are among the many important inventions that were hit upon by men who have made no attempt to patent their ideas. A photographer conceived the idea of the floating dock before the device was perfected and put to practical use, and a naval officer thought out a practical typewriter, but was persuaded by friends to abandon his invention as a thing that nobody could be induced to use.—New York Sun.

Some Old Cheeses.

In the cheese regions of Switzerland a custom formerly prevailed for the friends of a bride and bridegroom to join in the presentation on their wedding day of an elaborate cheese. This cheese was used as a family register, on which the births, marriages and deaths were recorded. Some of these old cheeses date back to 1600.—Exchange.

The Russian Spoon.

The Russian spoon, with its oddly twisted handle, is greatly affected by our New York society. It is made of gold and costs a lot of money. The bottom of the bowl is made of Russian enamel in green and red and has the appearance of being set with emeralds and rubies.—Once a
