THE VOLCANO HOUSE COMPANY.

In another column will be found the outlines of an enterprise, which proposes to incorporate a company for the erection of a new and commodious hotel at the volcano, and making better provision for the transportation and care of tourists visiting the great crater of Kilauea.

With attractions such as are possessed by few countries in the world, with the only accessible active volcano in existence, where travelers may stand within a few feet of its boiling lavas, and dip the molten fluid from the seething lake, and with a climate incomparably more attractive and healthy than any on the face of the globe, the discomforts to be overcome in reaching it have heretofore deterred many from attempting to view our great natural wonders and attractions. It is to remove these, and to render the trip to Hawaii and Kilauea one of pleasure and health, that this volcano enterprise is being pushed, and it should receive the support of the community.

With the backing of the names which are already enlisted in its support, and the personal energy of Mr. Thurston to superintend the initiation of the enterprise, one thing is certain, and that is that it will not be allowed to go to sleep.

VITAL STATISTICS.

The Mortuary Report for the month of February is in its regular course again before us, and exhibits the same anomalies, though not in quite so striking a scale as those to which we drew public attention at the same period last month.

The total number of deaths is 55, or 1 less than last month, and 11 less than February, 1890. Under one year of deaths is the same as last month, but the comparison of Hawaiians with all other nationalities is not quite so unfavorable. Last month the figures stood at "all nationalities," 29.21 per thousand, Hawaiians, 45.81 per thousand. This month they stand at 28.69 and 40.36. "Unattended" count 15 this month, against 21, and "cause unknown" as 6 against 10. Though it must be conceded that this is some improvement, yet it is but small, and seeing that this is a report of the metropolitan districts and the seat of the Board of Health, the police department and of all executive government, we hope that the "unknown" and "unattended" classifications may become things of the past before very long. In fact "unknown" ought to be impossible. If a death occur from unknown causes it is time to call in the Coroner, and his inquest ought to be able to certify the cause, i.e., the direct occasion of death, even though it fail to discover the attendant circumstances. The heading "unattended," means, we take it, as referring to the absence of any responsible relative or "recognized" medical man, and might be reported as "attended by those whose who do 'attendance' by stealth, and would blanch rather than blush to find it fame."

A brief compendium of the meteorological conditions which obtained during the month, as compared with the same month of last year or series of years would add much to the value of the table, as for instance the maximum and minimum thermometer and the rainfall of February, 1891, would be well worth comparing with those of the last five or ten Februarys.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements made, or opinions expressed by our correspondents.

The Thermometer on Wednesday Morning.

MR. EDITOR: The following readings of a thermometer this morning at my house in Kulaokahua, are so phenomenal that I should like to inquire if they are supported by any other observations. The thermometer is an ordinary one, and may therefore not be absolutely accurate; it has, however, been reasonably so, and has in the same position never before indicated a temperature below 54 degs. Fahrenheit; it is placed about eight feet from the ground, under cover vertically, with a north-westerly aspect.

At 5 o'clock this morning the reading was 48 degs.; at 6:30, 47 degs.; 7:00, 51 degs.; 7:15, 54 degs.; 7:30, 59 degs. Although there was much dew in the atmosphere last night, there was no apparent condensation upon the instrument, as has more than once this winter been the case; and the air seemed very still. I am, sir, your obedient servant,

THOMAS RAIN WALKER.

[NOTE.—Mr. Wells Peterson (Beretania street) reports his thermometer (outdoors) at 6:30 o'clock, 48 degs.; Mr. H. M. Whitney (King street) reports his thermometer (indoors) at 6 o'clock, 50 degs., and at 7 o'clock 56 degs.

INCORPORATION OF THE VOLCANO HOUSE.

Capital $50,000.—New and Commodious Buildings; Steamboats; Carriage Drives; Road Across the Crater, Etc.

It is proposed to incorporate the Volcano House, and the transportation business thereto from both Punaluu and Hilo.

The following extracts from the prospectus show fully the scope of the proposed undertaking.

Mr. L. A. Thurston is the promoter of the enterprise, and will superintend the carrying into effect of the plans of the proposed company. The following extracts are from the prospectus which has been issued:

The care and entertainment of travelers to the Volcano is now in the following hands:

1. The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. to Punaluu. Tickets issued by it are not taken on the Hilo side.

2. At Punaluu, Mr. Peter Lee takes charge of the passengers, and transports them to the Volcano House.

3. The Wilder Steamship Co. to Hilo. Tickets issued by it are not taken on the Punaluu side.

4. Passengers make their own hotel arrangements, and at their own expense in Hilo.

5. Mr. Wilson transports them from Hilo to the Volcano and return.

6. The Volcano House is under the management of the Wilder Steamship Co.

No horses or vehicles are now kept at the Volcano House for hire.

For many years a Volcano House has been maintained at Kilauea, at which travelers have been accommodated for the day or two during which they were visiting the crater.

The house has been, and has pretended to be, no more than a place at which one could obtain a bed and the necessary food while visiting the Volcano.

The house has served its purpose and served it well.

But it is believed that the time has come when the circumstances will warrant a departure from this plan.

It is proposed:

1. To form a Joint Stock Company which shall purchase the Lease of the Volcano House, the Hotel at Punaluu, the Half-Way House and Peter Lee's transportation plant, and make arrangements for a hotel at Hilo, and itself to convey all passengers to and from the Volcano, so that the Company will have the entire charge and control of the tourist travel of the Volcano, including hotel accommodation at Hilo or Punaluu, and the Volcano, and transportation to and return from the Volcano.

2. To make arrangements with the Inter-Island and Wilder's Steamship Cos., to issue tickets which will be taken by either Company, and covering all expenses, including passage from Honolulu, Hotel at Hilo; transportation to Volcano; Hotel at the Volcano, guides and transportation into the crater; transportation to Punaluu; Hotel at Punaluu, and passage to Honolulu.

3. To make arrangements with the Oceanic Steamship Co., and one or more hotels in Honolulu, by which through tickets will be issued in San Francisco, covering all of the above items, and also passage from and return to San Francisco, and Hotel expenses in Honolulu.

4. To enlarge and improve the accommodations at the Volcano House, so as to make it a comfortable and attractive resort.

Among other additions and improvements proposed to be made are—

1. A billiard and smoking room.

2. A parlor and reading room.

3. A dining room.

4. Additional bed rooms, giving accommodations for say forty to fifty guests.

5. Several cheap but comfortable cottages, which can be used as guest rooms or rented furnished to families.

6. A good stable.

7. The sulphur steam baths will be made one of the main features of the place. The steam will be placed under the control of the bathers; shower baths will be inserted and all accessories will be made first-class.

8. Carriage drives will be made to Kilauea; to Keanaakoi, a pit crater just south of Kilauea; to the pit crater on the road to Puna; to the bluff overlooking Halemauana, from which the surface of the lake can be seen; to the top of the bluff and into the Koa woods back of the Volcano House.

The soil to all of these points is of a sandy nature, without mud and without stones, over level or gently rolling country, sparsely covered with vegetation. For three-fourths of the distance a good carriage road will be secured by simply clearing the underbrush, and but little grading will be needed anywhere.

9. A horse trail will be constructed across the floor of the crater to the lake, so that this fatiguing walk into and out of the crater will be eliminated.

10. Horses, carriages and buggies will be kept at the Volcano House, for rent to guests.

The estimated cost of the improvements proposed, the detail of which is given in the prospectus, is, in round numbers, $40,000.

The annual receipts are estimated at about $25,000 based on an estimated increase in the number of visitors to the volcano, of 50 per cent and an average of five persons at a time who will remain longer than the regulation two days and nights.

The total number of visitors at the Volcano House during the year ending November 1, 1890, was 484. Of this number, 210 held round trip tickets, and 274 did not.

The estimated annual expense of running the business on the contemplated scale, is $18,600; showing an estimated profit of about 14 per cent on the proposed capital stock of $50,000.

It will undoubtedly be advisable at first to make a liberal expenditure in advertising, and improvements not now thought of will be desirable. The disposition to be made of the funds of the company will be subject to the control of the company.

It is impossible at present to estimate what the future growth of the business will be; but the business is conducted energetically and economically, with an eye first to the welfare of guests, and second to the profit of the company, there is no reason why tourist travel to this country should not increase with the astonishing rapidity that it has in other parts of the world less favorably situated than we are.

The capital stock will be $50,000 divided into 2,000 shares of a par value of $25 each, to be paid in installments as required.

The parties who have already signified their willingness to subscribe for stock in the proposed company are: The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Wilder's Steamship Co., Oceanic Steamship Co., Jones, J. B., Atherton, Cecil Brown, S. T. Alexander, Chas. Furneaux, W. H. Shipman, Chas. Richardson, W. G. Irwin, Jno. Ena, C. M. Cooke, J. F. Colburn, Jona. Austin, W. R. Castle.

Immediately upon the stock being subscribed for, the company will incorporate and organize, and proceed with the execution of the foregoing plan.

Mr. Peter Lee, who has been so long and favorably known to the public, as owner and manager of the Punaluu Hotel, and conductor of Volcano travel from Punaluu, has agreed to assume the management of the company's business. No further assurance that the management will be conducted energetically and economically and to the satisfaction of the traveling public, is needed.

It is intended, as soon as the concern is in condition to accommodate the guests, to systematically advertise the business; to organize periodical excursion parties, both from Honolulu and San Francisco, at reduced rates; to constantly improve the accommodations and facilities at the Volcano, and to do everything that capital, energy and push can do, to render the Volcano trip an easy and attractive one, and the Volcano a fascinating resort, affording pleasure and health to tourists, rest to the weary Honolulu business man and his family, change to the busy planter, and profit to its stockholders.

Subscriptions for stock and requests for information, can be forwarded to Lorrin A. Thurston, Honolulu.

A HURRICANE

Will not interfere with the regularity of action of the Aermotor because it is so constructed that it swings with the wind, no matter how hard it blows. This style windmill is an innovation on these islands and plantation men are beginning to realize the necessity of them; some day, not far distant we imagine, a plantation will not be considered complete without one.

There are many styles of windmills on the market, some cheap, others high priced, others again dear at any price. The old-fashioned wooden ones may be properly classed among the latter. Our opinion is based on the fact that they are going out of use on the line of the Union Pacific Railway, and, in fact, nearly every place where windmills are used. In California, where windmills are as plentiful as dwelling houses, the ranchmen are taking out their wooden ones, even though they be in good condition, that is, not rotten, and replacing them with Aermotors. We secured the sole agency for the latter style because we were convinced of its superiority over any other manufactured, and because we were satisfied that it would bring better results to the purchaser. The first one set up worked successfully, and the man who bought it told his neighbor about it, so we sold another one. That's the way it has been ever since we introduced them; now the demand for the Aermotor is so great that we have decided to keep a few of them in stock. Late purchasers have been obliged to wait until we could have their orders filled in San Francisco, new ones will not. We could publish other testimonials as to the practicality of them on these islands, but we think the following will answer:

HONOLULU, February 26, 1891.

MESSRS. THE HAWAIIAN HARDWARE CO., HONOLULU:

GENTLEMEN—I have had the Aermotor, purchased of you, placed in position on Maunaloa Ranch, and desire to express to you the genuine satisfaction I feel at the work it has done.

It runs smoothly and the wheel revolves with the slightest wind. One strong point in its favor is the fact of there being absolutely no noise in its operation, a fault so common with every other windmill I have ever seen.

(Signed) GEORGE J. CAMPBELL, Manager Maunaloa Ranch.

The Aermotor is the only windmill made of steel; it cannot rot, as the wooden ones will, and it does not rust. It runs noiselessly, and its action is perfect. It is bound to give satisfaction. They are sold only by us. Prices on application.

Preston's report to the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey Department of the work done by him in 1888, in Determinations of Latitude and Gravity for the Hawaiian Government. This work was made at the request of this Government, to ascertain by astronomical and geodetic observations our latitude, which was supposed to vary 15 sec. from what it was generally given. It occupied several months, and extended over the four larger islands of our group. The report is illustrated with several photo tint views and other prints. Mr. Preston is expected here shortly, to execute some scientific survey work for the German Government.

A Shark Caught at Waianae.

While the steamer C. R. Bishop was at Waianae last Friday, a large shark was seen near the vessel. Pursuer Ross got his rifle and sent a ball into the monster's body. The shark sank, and one of the crew went overboard for the purpose of fastening a rope around the body, and hauling it aboard. The native performed his task, and the monster was finally got on board, but not without making a desperate struggle for its liberty. The bullet had only wounded it. The shark measured eight feet in length.

It is rumored that during the season of grand opera about to be inaugurated at the Hawaiian Opera House, the ladies attending will appear in full dress and the gentlemen in evening dress. Not a bad idea at all. This is the custom in other places, why not in Honolulu the Paradise of the Pacific.

President Harrison, family and party will visit California and probably Oregon and Alaska, in the spring, and their visit may be extended to Alaska. The Call says that the new cruiser San Francisco will be the vessel on which President Harrison and his family will make their trip up the coast. The cruiser Charleston will be at the disposal of the rest of the Presidential party.

War on Raiatea Island.

The brig Tahiti arrived at San Francisco, February 20th, from Tahiti and the Marquesas, with news of another outbreak on the Island of Raiatea, one of the Windward group. Captain W. H. Ferguson stated that the French are making a most desperate effort to assert their authority, but with little success. Three men of war—the Champlain, Veire and Volage—had been engaged in shelling the Raiatea villages for a month before the Tahiti sailed, but with no further effect than to kill a few natives, destroy their property and make the others more determined and vicious than ever.

It is the old story of the natives declining to submit to French Government. They are willing to admit the protectorate and all the privileges pertaining thereto, with the one exception of local government. This the Raiatea natives reserve to themselves, and their young Queen, the sister of the King of the group, has persistently refused to sign the protectorate papers until the government clause is eliminated.

The natives of the entire group are in more than half sympathy with the Raiateans, and in warring on them unaided the French sailors and marines are having as hard a time of it as the Germans did when they undertook to follow the Samoans into the bush.

The Opera Season.

There was a large demand yesterday at Mr. Levey's office for seats for the opera performance Saturday evening, and as a consequence there will be a full house. A few seats remain unsold. The company had a rehearsal yesterday, and astonished several musical ears. It is without doubt the finest opera company that has visited these shores, and deserves the most liberal patronage. The Trovatore is a beautiful opera, and on this occasion it will have an excellent representation.

POPULAR INSTITUTIONS.

Honolulu is justly proud of the many various institutions that flourish in her midst; be they for educational purposes, for physical development, for amusements and recreations, or for whatever purposes they are organized; all are popular for their own special advantages. An institution differing somewhat from the above, but none the less popular; one offering greater advantages to its many members; one that is not confined to the city limits, but which spreads all over the islands; an institution that, as soon as its doors were opened, was besieged by multitudes anxious to join; and which is daily growing more popular with all classes, is the H. F. WICHMAN WATCH CLUB. The unbounded success of these clubs in the few months since they sprang into existence, has astonished even the skeptical into the belief that there was something worth joining after all. Just the putting away of a small part of your spare cash, brings you, in a few short months, something worth having and having joined for. Another thing not generally known by the uninitiated, is the fact that if you already possess a good watch, you are at liberty to select anything desired of the same value. Is there anything offering greater advantages than the H. F. WICHMAN WATCH CLUB? d&w
