

VOLCANO FIRE IS BLAZING

A PARTY OF TOURISTS RETURNING BY THE MAUNA LOA THIS MORNING, TELL OF THE ACTIVITY IN HALEMAUMAU—ARE ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WHAT THEY HAVE SEEN AT KILAUEA.

There is fire in the crater of Halemaumau. The fire has been going day and night. News of the fire was brought this morning by a large party of tourists who returned from the volcano by the steamer Mauna Loa. The party went up to the volcano nearly two weeks ago.

From the statements of those in the party, the center of activity is a well defined portion of the pit. A place which was said to be about fifty feet in diameter was the particular center of activity. The lava was bubbling in this place. Evidently a greater portion of the floor of the inner crater is affected. What would appear to those above the floor of the pit to be fifty feet in diameter would be much greater. The spectators had to look down about 1,500 feet and a space fifty feet in diameter would appear nothing but a tiny speck from such an elevation.

Quantities of steam were to be seen arising from numerous places in the big crater proper.

EMERGENCY BILL

THE SENATE COMPLETES THE BILL THIS MORNING—THE APPROPRIATION FOR THE BAND GOES THROUGH—MARKET INSPECTOR'S SALARY IS CUT DOWN.

The Senate got in an economical mood this morning when the item of salary for the fish inspector at Honolulu was considered in the second reading of the appropriation bill. The bill proposed to pay the inspector $450 for the six months period for which it is proposed to make the appropriation.

Senator Kaohi wanted the entire item eliminated. J. T. Brown seemed of the same opinion.

Senator Achi supported the item. He said that the revenue from the market was considerable and that the men who did the work in collecting these revenues should be paid for the work they did. The appropriation was not excessive, he thought. He moved that the item pass at $450. This was lost. Senator Cecil Brown then moved that the item pass at $400 which was also voted down. There was an evident disposition to cut the item out entirely, so before anybody could make any such motion Senator Cecil Brown offered another motion to pass the item at $380. This measure passed.

When the salary of the assistant market inspector came up, however, one of the Home Rulers moved that the item be raised from $300 to $350, and the Home Rulers voted solid in favor of the measure. The measure was voted down by a strict party vote. Senator Achi moved that the original item of $300 pass. This was carried.

Passing along various items the items for the band were reached. Everything got through. Senator Crabbe had the item appropriating $600 for the singers, reconsidered. He said that the item should be more specific. He had been informed that on this account that the two lady vocalists had not received all of the salary that had been appropriated for them. The senator wanted the item to specify that it was for the payment of two lady or female vocalists. After some discussion the amendment was made and the item was passed.

The item of $1250 for the maintenance of hospitals was referred to a special committee consisting of Senators Paris, Dickey, Wilcox, McCandless and Palmer Woods.

There was some discussion over the item of $2250 for the Auditor but the item was passed as read.

The Senate finished the emergency appropriation at the session this morning. The various measures which were referred to committees will first have to be reported on before the measure can come up next week for its third reading.

WRAY TAYLOR IN BOSTON

FRIENDS OF THE FORMER AGRICULTURAL COMMISSIONER IN LOWELL, MASS., AWARE OF HIS TROUBLES IN HAWAII—TAYLOR REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN IN BOSTON LAST WEEK.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

LOWELL, Mass., March 13.—Former Agricultural Commissioner Wray Taylor, of Hawaii, is believed to have been in Boston last week. Friends here are aware of his troubles in Hawaii.

No further news regarding Wray Taylor was received by Attorney General Andrews today. This is supposed to mean that the police on the Mainland failed to locate him and that he has left the country.

The theory of insanity in Taylor's case has some supporters in view of his peculiar actions. He remained in San Francisco quite openly and in touch with the government here for five weeks after he left and in view of the smallness of the alleged embezzlement, as compared to the amount available if Taylor had wanted to make a steal, it is the opinion of many that an ordinary charge of embezzlement does not fit the case.

The Senate's approval of the treaty carries with it a proviso that it shall not go into effect until approved by the House. Senate leaders predict definite action in the present session on both the Panama and Cuban treaties.

THE CHINESE FUND PUZZLE

HOUSE COMMITTEE WANTS SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS TO COME BACK FROM MAUI AND HELP THE MSOLVE IT—WIRELESS TELEGRAPH RESORTED TO.

Representative Kumalae introduced this morning and the House adopted a resolution to send a wireless message to Superintendent Cooper asking him to return at once to Honolulu, to appear before the special committee which is investigating the matter of the Chinese fund. The resolution was as follows:

"Whereas it is necessary for the heads of departments to be in the city of Honolulu when the Legislature is in session, and

"Whereas, the Honorable Henry E. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works, is away from the said city of Honolulu, therefore,

"Be it resolved by the House of Representatives that the clerk of this House be and is hereby instructed to send a message through the wireless telegraph to the Sheriff of Maui to be by him forwarded without delay to the said Honorable Henry E. Cooper to return to this city by the S. S. Claudine on Sunday, March 15, 1903

"JONAH KUMALAE, Representative Fourth District."

"It has been the custom of heads of departments to remain here while the legislature is in session," said Kumalae, "and it is necessary for them to be here to answer questions. The committee was appointed to investigate the matter of the Chinese fund and we need the testimony of Mr. Cooper. If he had been here we should have been able to report this morning. If we do not send for the Superintendent of Public Works he may go to Hawaii and be away several weeks while the House will not get its report from this committee.

Chillingworth supported Kumalae's resolution. He is a member of the Chinese fund committee and said that the committee had worked hard and had collected a lot of testimony, which Cooper's evidence was needed to complete. "Some of the parties connected with this Chinese fund have left the country," said Chillingworth, "and it is necessary that Mr. Cooper appear and things which the committee desires to know about."

The resolution was unanimously adopted without further discussion, and Meheula was instructed to send a wireless to Cooper during the noon recess.

WILL BUY KAHAIKI LEASES

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WIRES TO UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY BRECKONS FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE OPTIONS ON THEM FOR TWO MONTHS AND WANTS IMMEDIATE REPLY.

United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons this morning received a cable from Washington which indicates that the government intends to purchase the Kahauiki leases on which options were secured some time ago for a military reservation. The cable asks Breckons if he can secure a two-months extension of time on the options of the leases.

Breckons will find out from the Dowsett Estate, the Star Dairy and others if they are willing to extend the leases in question and will cable an answer today or tomorrow.

WATER AND LIGHT.

LAHAINA, March 12.—At the Pioneer Mill, grinding is progressing at a lively rate, day and night. When the new ditch and the numerous tunnels are completed, there will be an abundant flow of water. Dynamos will probably furnish sufficient electricity to run all the machinery and the use of coal can be dispensed with. It is hoped that the plantation will eventually be able to light the streets, stores and dwellings with electricity, at the center of the town.

NEW SPECIALS.

Madapholam, 36 inch wide, soft finish, 19 cts. yard; Pillow casing, Pequot brand, 12 1/2 cts. yard; fine white Cambric, 10 cts. yard, today at Sachs' Dry Goods Co.

SAVINGS BANK.

Many people start in to save by fits and starts. They make deposits in a savings bank for two or three months and then stop and get into their old habits of spending what they earn. The Pioneer Building & Loan Association by requiring a monthly deposit of the same amount each month breaks them of the spending habit as they soon come to look upon their payments as a monthly expense that must be met. The interest earned for 1902 was 11 1/2%. The 25th series of Stock is now open for subscription. One share requires a payment of $1.00 per month and when it matures is worth $200.

WAS AN INSULT TO THE HOUSE

MEMBERS THREATEN AN INVESTIGATION OF THE NOTICE OF INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

When the House met yesterday morning there was general expectation that the matter of the freak bills of which notice was given Wednesday afternoon would come up, but the morning session went through without any action. Several of the members declared themselves as in favor of an investigation, and punishment of those responsible for the "insult to the House," as they termed it.

Vida, whose name was connected with the notice, denies that he turned it in. The bit of paper bearing the formal notice of an act to prevent cats from making a noise at night, and other equally absurd laws, appears to have been passed around the House a good deal before it got to the speaker and was finally read as an official notice. Quite a number of members had seen it before it was read by the clerk, and they prevented a full reading of the titles of the six acts mentioned by a hasty adjournment Wednesday afternoon.

There were numerous discussions and inquiries about the matter before the House met yesterday but the morning was occupied by the regular order of business and the would-be investigators restrained their indignation for the time.

A petition of lepers asking for an increase in the special allowance from twenty-one pounds to twenty-five pounds was introduced by Nakaleka and was referred to the Miscellaneous committee.

Lewis presented a petition of Hiloites asking for $25,000 for the Hilo hospital. It was referred to the Public Health committee.

Chairman Kellin presented the Agricultural committee's favorable report on the senate bill for the protection of horticulture by providing a quarantine against pests and injurious insects.

Important Reasons

Why Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Co.'s Safes and Locks are the Best?

The concrete filling makes these safes absolutely Fire-Proof and positively Damp-Proof. The solid angle corners add greatly to their security in time of fire, and form the only solid corners made. The patent Bolt Work is superior to any in use and does not require the constant oiling, cleaning, and repairs that is acknowledged in other makes of safes. That although 600,000 of these safes are now in use and many thousands have been tested by some of the most disastrous conflagrations in the United States, THERE IS NOT A SINGLE INSTANCE ON RECORD WHEREIN ONE OF THEM EVER FAILED TO PRESERVE ITS CONTENTS PERFECTLY. They make safes for county treasurers, county recorders, county clerks, jewelers, Hotels, residences, churches and corporations. We have a large assortment of safes on hand and will be pleased to show same.

arms, munitions of war, provisions, commissary and quartermaster's stores, uniforms and hospital supplies, and in connection therewith arrested a considerable number of men both in Canton and Hongkong. Among the articles seized were several thousand pairs of big scissors. The purpose of these, it has leaked out, was this: The revolutionists determined as one of their first acts after the first military blow had been struck, and the country and the people had been aroused, to cut queues from every Chinese head possible, especially from the heads of mandarins, yamen officials, and others whose positions made them naturally side with the Imperial government. The object of this was to prevent the officials from making the absence of a queue evidence of being in sympathy with the rebellion, as it was thought they would very likely do, in order to carry out a system of terrorism as a means of suppressing the rebellion. It was also figured that a great many who might otherwise waver on the question of joining the government or the revolutionists, if their queue were cut off, might have less hesitancy, feeling that with their queue gone, they would be suspected of revolutionary sentiments anyway.The seizure of these arms and supplies was made at the two establishments of the Sun Yee Company. One of these places was outside the walled city of Canton, and the other was within the walls. The men actually in charge of them were employes of German firms which claimed the ownership of the property as agents of the Sun Yee Company, and through the German consul protested against the seizure. The Imperial Chinese authorities were not disposed to recognize the protest, but advices came from the German foreign office, to the consul to persist in his protest, and the matter, at last advices was still in abeyance. Of the men who were arrested in connection with the seizure, those arrested in Hongkong were released by the Hongkong magistrates. Those arrested in Canton claimed exemption on the ground that they were employed by German subjects, and thus brought the matter within the cognizance of the consular court, and they too were discharged.The disclosures made in these trials was that it was the plan of the revolutionists to begin their revolution on the eve of the Chinese new year, but some premature acts on the part of some of the revolutionists brought about the seizures of the arms and war materials, preventing the general uprising meditated.The further plan of the revolutionists was to secure control of the province of Canton, which is said to be a hotbed of revolt, organize a government, and with that as a basis give aid to other provinces as the people in them rose in revolt against the present government of China. The leader of the movement is Hung Kim Fook, a nephew of Hung San Ting the great leader of the Taiping rebellion in the sixties.Hung Kim Fook was himself an active participant in the Tai-ping rebellion, and after the fall of Nanking escaped from the country and has been an exile ever since until about a year ago.
He lived many years in Peru, is a linguist of rare attainments and has embraced the Roman Catholic religion. He is now in Bangkok.STEAMER INSPECTOR OUT

Associated Press Cable, Morning Service.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Dumont, Supervising Inspector of Steam Hulls and Boilers, has resigned.James A. Dumont, the Supervising Inspector of Steam Hulls and Boilers whose retirement from office is thus announced, has held the position for a great many years, and is a very old man.
The office of which he has been so long the head, has to do with the inspection of all steam hulls and boilers of the United States merchant marine. The primary purpose of this is the safety and protection of life and property while being conveyed on the ocean, the lakes or the rivers. It is the bureau that frames, under the powers granted to it by congress, the rules and regulations for the inspection and licensing of steam vessels of all descriptions, and with the framing of regulations and rules for the navigation of such vessels. Under the acts of Congress relating to this subject and the regulations adopted in pursuance of the acts of Congress, masters, pilots, officers and engineers of steam vessels are examined and licensed; are tried for breach of duty, violation of regulations, and on charges of incapacity or inattention to duty, and are acquitted, fined, suspended or their licenses taken away from them as the facts and the judgments of the inspectors seem to warrant. The entire territory of the United States is divided into districts over which an inspector of hulls and an inspector of boilers presides. Hawaii is in the district which also includes Alaska, and the presiding inspectors of this district were only recently here.The position which James A. Dumont has just vacated will doubtless be eagerly sought for as it is a position with honorable rank and commanding a salary of $3,500 a year. The incumbent must reside at Washington.James A. Dumont's signature is familiar to every sea-giong man who travels by steam vessels, as his signature or fac-simile of it is on the licenses and sailing regulations which are framed and posted conspicuously on every steam craft of the American merchant marine.CHILTON FOUND GUILTY.Harry B. Chilton was found guilty of child stealing, the jury returning its verdict at 1 o'clock this morning and recommending him to the mercy of the court. The trial occupied all day yesterday, and an evening session was held, the jurors retiring at about ten o'clock. The defendant was ordered to appear for sentence on Saturday morning. The defense took exceptions to the verdict and made a motion for a new trial.MAIL TO THE COAST.The S. S. Nebraskan will sail this afternoon about 3 o'clock

THE TENDER SPOT.

The House yesterday did not take up the matter of the disgraceful and obscene communication, bearing the name of Henry Vida, which its clerk began to read from the desk during the session of Wednesday afternoon. Only a part of the contents of this notice of intention to introduce acts has been published. The rest is not fit for publication.

Vida's political lieutenant, the man who gave the signal to put out the lights and steal a ballot box in the last primaries in the "fighting seventh," thus precipitating a disgraceful brawl, has taken the burden on his shoulders and says that he wrote the notice. This does not explain matters, however, for when the clerk began to read the notice and was interrupted, Speaker Beckley made the statement from the chair that the document had been handed in by a member and therefore must be read. Who the member was is a question many people would like to have answered.

Vida, yesterday afternoon, took up the time of the "Business Session" with efforts to influence the writings of members of the press, but the House didn't seem to have time to investigate an insult to its respectable membership. The obscene notice reached the clerk of the House in some way, during the course of the business of a regular session, just the same as the "hold-up" resolution did.

CARRIAGE BY WATER.

In considering the movement of freight to and from and within our own territory, a great many interesting comparisons may be made with the freight movement in other portions of the country, and especially with the movement of freight by water. In a recent publication by the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department, a great deal of valuable information on this subject is given.

Among the streams of the United States the traffic on the Monongahela River is possibly the heaviest, owing to the prominence of the coal trade. For the 12 months ending with December 1902, the total coal traffic passing through Lock No. 3, in addition to the quantity mined in the first and second pools, was reported as amounting to 9,109,002 tons. This may be compared with the total amount of coal shipped from domestic ports on the Great Lakes to other domestic ports during the year 1902 amounting to 9,632,866 net tons. The total Monongahela freight movement, in both directions, reached a grand total of 9,989,686 tons in 1902.

The point of largest recorded traffic on the Ohio, after leaving Pittsburg, is that of Davis Island Dam, a short distance below Pittsburg. This dam, both in construction and in operation, is one of the country's noteworthy achievements of engineering talent. It affords the coal and iron trade of this portion of the country deep-water navigation on which to accumulate the products of the mines and industries to be floated down the Ohio River whenever a sufficient depth of water is available. The total tonnage passing this point during 1902, as reported by the engineer in charge, was 3,873,952 tons. The month of the largest business was July, when 1,123,990 tons were shipped.

Another point at which traffic on the Ohio is gauged is at Louisville, Ky. Here the Ohio River trade passes either through the locks of the Louisville and Portland canal, or over the Falls of the Ohio, in case that the water is of sufficient depth; so that the movement of these two channels gives the total traffic at this point for a given period. For the 12 months ending with December 1902, the traffic through the canal amounted to 1,234,422 tons, and that over the Falls of the Ohio to 763,551 tons, making a grand total of 1,997,973 tons.

Next in importance to the traffic of the Monongahela and Ohio rivers is that of the Great Kanawha River, consisting primarily of coal and lumber. During the year 1902 the total tonnage moved through Lock No. 11 on this stream was 877,101 tons. Next in importance is Green River, Ky., through Lock No. 1 of which 392,847 tons passed. The Big Sandy River, in the same locality, is credited with 251,511 tons passing Lock No. 1. The Little Kanawha had a total freight tonnage of 69,706 tons for the same period. The Des Moines, (Ia.) Rapids Canal carried 55,781 tons. The Canal of the Cascades in Oregon reported 25,303 tons of traffic. The Barren River, Ky., 41,231 tons through Lock No. 1. The Black Warrior River, Ala., through Lock No. 3, had a tonnage of 16,105 tons, and the Coosa River, of the same State, through Lock No. 3, 3,226 tons, mostly lumber in both cases. On the Kentucky River, Lock No. 4, 48,665 tons of freight were shipped, and on the Muskingum River, Lock No. 1, 37,380 tons, in 1902.

The tonnage moved through the New York State canals is reported by the State Superintendent of Public Works as amounting to 3,179,362 tons in 1902. Of this amount 2,225,986 tons moved eastward and 953,376 tons westward, showing that the eastward tonnage is about 2 1/2 times the westward tonnage. For the year 1901 the total tonnage for an equal season ending with November was 3,111,444 tons, of which 2,270,809 tons moved eastward and 1,066,085 tons westward. Coal shipments on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal were 192,535 tons in 1902, compared with 229,393 tons in 1901.

The above traffic movements may be contrasted with those of the Sault Ste Marie Canals, through which a freight tonnage of 35,961,146 net tons passed in the season of 1902, and also with the Portage Lake Ship Canals of Michigan, on which cargo of 2,686,189 net tons passed in the same season. The tonnage movement through the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, as reported by the operating company, has been given for only the last 4 months of 1902, as 205,382 net tons, with a vessel movement of 1,382 vessels.

The verb "to banderlog" appears to have come to stay. The last legislature did something for the language anyhow.

TOPICS IN BRIEF.

Minneapolis burglars took 400 pounds of antracite, but left untouched the jewelry and plate. Thus does serious reality deprive the funny paragrapher of one of his best joke topics.—New York Press.

A Berlin paper makes the charge that Kipling is an American. This is the German idea of revenge on the English poet who described the German as the "shameless Hun."—Kansas City Star.

The arrest in this city of a woman charged with being a footpad must prove conclusively that the inroads of the fair sex upon the vocations of men have reached a crisis.—Columbus (Ohio) Citizen.

A Baltimore specialist comes to the front with the declaration that all Americans are neurotics. Well, who wouldn't prefer being neurotic to being an oyster?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Indiana respectfully acknowledges the receipt of two more $10,000 library propositions from Mr. Carnegie. Wonder if he has any spare coal.—Indianapolis News.

If the Populist party were only alive now it would hand the money devil some hot resolutions on the amount of coal per capita.—Kansas City Journal.

The recently announced cure for blood poisoning may be a success and tend to lower the death rate. Were such a discovery to be followed by the finding of effectual remedies for consumption and for cancer, a mighty thrill of exultation would run over the world.—New York Tribune.

The eagerness to pass anti-trust bills in Congress that are likely to have little or no effect is only surpassed by the repugnance to reform tariff laws which give to monopoly its shelter and its power.—Philadelphia Record.

COUNT BONI.

Count Boni has been re-elected to the French Chamber of Deputies. The Gould wealth may expect another sight draft.—Grand Rapids Herald.

Count Boni de Castellane has been elected again to the French Chamber of Deputies after a strenuous fight. The Gould millions still go marching on.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Count Boni de Castellane has been re-elected to the French Chamber of Deputies. It would be interesting to know how much this "vindication" cost the Gould family.—Salt Lake Herald.

Count Boni de Castellane has been re-elected to the Chamber of Deputies. His indifferent success in other directions inspires a belief that he may develop into a statesman.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Gould money has not lost its potentiality in the Basile Alps district. Count Boni Castellane, who married the Gould millions, has been re-elected to the French Chamber of Deputies, out of which he was kicked last November for fraudulent election practices.—Providence (R. I.) News.

This time Count Boni de Castellane easily wins a seat in the French Chamber of Deputies. There is a tendency not to regard this dapper scion of nobility seriously in this country. But it will have to be admitted that thus far Boni has succeeded fairly well. He has "won out" in the lists of love, on the field of Mars, and in the arena of politics.—Troy (N. Y.) Record.

A NEW SHORTHAND CHARACTER.

The invention of the method of writing by signs, called shorthand, has served the grand and useful purpose for which it was intended. The stamp made by business men to crowd the greatest amount of work into the smallest space of time, thereby realizing greater attainments, has given birth to time-saving devices of many kinds, but not the least of these is the shorthand alphabet. There are many different systems but even those which were supposed to have been perfect a few years ago are being improved and characters are changed to include more in their meaning. The letter D has been adopted recently by many stenographers to signify anything perfect. It has been found that the letter D stands for Douglas—the inventor of the Douglas Patent Closet, guaranteed against leakage and the annoyance of running water. Bath, the plumber, installs the Douglas.

DOCTORS ROASTED

SENATOR J. T. BROWN MADE SENSATIONAL CHARGES AGAINST A GOVERNMENT PHYSICIAN—CLAIMED ALLOWED CAPTAIN ANDREWS TO DIE FROM POISON.

Some of the Senators are trying to put the government physicians over a barrel, metaphorically speaking. They plan to accomplish this by plugging up the Territorial barrel by refusing to make any appropriation for the payment of the government doctors. The matter caused quite a lengthy discussion in the Senate this morning and was finally referred to a special committee.

The discussion was precipitated by Senator Achi during the second reading of the emergency appropriation measure. There was an item of $10,149 for the payment of the government doctors for the last six months of this year. Senator Achi moved that the entire item be thrown out. Senator McCandless seconded the motion.

Senator Achi said that he had been informed that the government physicians were accepting pay from the government with the understanding that the poor people should receive free medical attention and medicines. Instead of performing these duties the doctors were in the habit of always asking the people if they had any money and in case the patients had, they were forced to pay the physicians. In fact the Senator said that if they had no money with which to defray the expenses of attendance they were neglected.

Senator Paris opposed this motion. He said that in the city where there was a choice of physicians, the government physicians might not be necessary but in the outside districts where there was no physician within many miles, the conditions were entirely different. A physician was necessary. He cited the case of one of his constituents, Dr. Mahony on Hawaii who was always saw no use in appropriating any ready to respond at any time day or night, to summons to a sick bed.

Senator McCandless explained that the government physician was on the floor as the appropriation. He said that he had himself been forced to pay for the services of doctors for natives who had been neglected by the government physicians on this island. He expressed the belief that Senator Paris had probably done the same thing. He thought the entire item ought to be thrown out. The doctors did not perform their work.

Some highly sensational statements were made by Senator J. T. Brown. He said that a short time ago Captain Andrews had been poisoned at Hilo. The government physician was summoned to attend the sick man. The physician went in to where the sick man was lying, looked at him and did nothing and went away. "If that sick man had been properly attended by the physician," continued Senator Brown, "his life would probably have been saved."

"The physicians are supplied by the government with medicines to give to the people but they do not do so. If the people do not have any money they cannot get the medicines for the physicians claim that they haven't received any from the government. I have personally gone to the government physicians and solicited medicine and it has been refused me."

"I do not think that the fault lies entirely with the physicians. It rests largely with the board of health because of the manner they have dealt with complaints. Whenever complaints are filed with the board of health against any government physicians, no attention is paid to the charges. I favor this appropriation but I do not approve of the way that the government doctors have been acting."

Senator Kaohi wanted the item killed. He said that in Kohala he had had similar experience with the government physicians refusing to attend poor people. A woman had come to the speaker on one occasion and asked him to send for the government doctor to attend her sick child. He had personally notified the doctor to attend the child but the doctor had replied "wait". The next day the doctor came but it was too late for the child was dead.

Senator Cecil Brown said that it was in 1880 when he was in the legislature that the bill appropriating money for the payment of government physicians had been passed. He had on that occasion voted for the measure simply because the natives had asked for the bill claiming that they wanted the physicians to attend them. He had supported the appropriation every session since that time, during his career as a legislator. If the government doctors were necessary, he would not do their duty he declared.

Dr. Mahony on Hawaii who was always saw no use in appropriating any ready to respond at any time day or night, to summons to a sick bed. The debate was getting quite lively. Senator McCandless explained that the government physician was on the floor as the appropriation. He said that he had himself been forced to pay for the services of doctors for natives who had been neglected by the government physicians on this island. He expressed the belief that Senator Paris had probably done the same thing. He thought the entire item ought to be thrown out. The doctors did not perform their work.

ARRESTED FOR ADULTERY.

United States Marshal E. R. Hendry this morning arrested Mitsun Kimura and Okomoto Ginsuke on a charge of adultery, a warrant having been sworn to before Commissioner Gill.

The facts of the case, found Chilton guilty of child-stealing, but were moved to recommend him to the mercy of the court. There was much poetry in the letters. The prosecution introduced Chilton's letters to the complaining witness and the defense introduced the letters that passed the other way. One of the former said: "My dear sweetheart Maggie L. V. E. Milton. The days shall pass, thy flowers shall fade, in dreams of you my loving Maggie. Roses are read, violets are blue and you do not know how much I love you. Maggie dear you are beautiful sweetheart of sweet sixteen. How I would sit beside you and think you were a queen. The roses on your cheeks shall grow pale all the while, it grieves me my darling to see your sad smile, but no sunshining are there. Maggie dear, don't tell your mama anything if she says no I can't marry on. I take you and marry you on the sly. Maggie dear I love you still with all my heart. You know that night when I was standing with you and talking to you and he came along and said he would break my neck and you went in. I cried for you and I prayed for you when I went home. Maggie dear, if you would only listen to your mama I think you could get along better. Don't you think so. I will close my love letter by saying good-bye Maggie dear. You're the only girl I love and I love you true with all my heart. So good-bye dear. Dear Sweet Heart! This letter from your loving sweet heart."

In another letter the following almost Shakespearean lines occur: "The hoop is round And has no end So is my love to you."

Chilton, it was shown, wrote many letters to Mrs. Place asking permission to marry her daughter, and one of them brought forth the following: "Dearest Harry: What made you write that letter to my mother? You said that if she let you marry me that I would be a good girl. That's where you make a big mistake. She said in 1904 then I can get married to you. When that time comes I will run away. Too Good. From, Margaret Louisa Violet Ethelmit Milton, 1000 had."

It nourishes and keeps up the strength during those periods when the appetite fails and food cannot be digested. To avoid imitations and substitutions, this "trade mark" is put on every

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, aids digestion, renews vital power, drives out disease germs, makes the blood rich, red and full of constructive elements and gives back to the pleasures and labors of the world many who had abandoned hope. Dr. S. H. McCoy, of Canada, says: "I testify with pleasure to its unlimited usefulness as a tissue builder." Its curative powers can always be relied upon. It makes a new era in medicine and represents the best medical advice of the twentieth century. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." ## Interference.

Financial Article No. 5

DO

We interfere with other financial institutions is the question often asked. We do not, as the system of loaning by us is strictly installment loaning which the banks and private money lenders do not care about doing. Our money is placed on people's homes and business places repayable part interest and part principal each month until the loan is fully paid off. We offer special inducements to the small investor in this financial institution, and centralize small monthly payments from a large number of people who probably have never saved to amount to anything before. The large sums that we receive are from capitalists who are tired of making flat loans and worrying with the bother and trouble of selling out the security which would come back to them and are satisfied that to have their money managed by experienced financiers who guarantee them against loss is much better than investing their own money. No money deposited with us can be withdrawn within one year, for that reason our proposition applies to people who have made up their minds to deposit for a certain number of years if possible, and who would not on account of small interest rates offered on call money, deposit with any regularity through other sources. The above sentence is not intended to convey the meaning that interest on deposits for call money should be large. In fact, the banks are paying today a very liberal rate for money subject to call, and it would be hazardous for them to pay larger rates. The question for today to answer as per one of our former articles, is: Why do you pay larger rates of dividends than other financial institutions do?

First—You are a stockholder in this institution just the same as if you were a stockholder in any other financial institution, and consequently get your full proportion of profits, according to the stock held.

Second—We loan money on installments, thereby getting the use of the money one-half over again.

Third—A premium is placed upon persistency by exacting from the withdrawing member sufficient for his portion of expenses and also a certain portion of his profits.

Fourth—We compound and handle money monthly.

Fifth—In case of stringent times the profits from withdrawals are added to the ones who stay through.

Sixth—In case of good times the expanding of business produces a larger field for loans, which enables us to put out paid up stock through our directors and other large financiers, and guarantee a rate of six per cent. The difference between the said six per cent and the dividend rate of the company (less small pro rata of expenses) is turned into the installment stock.

Wouldn't you like to have your money operated by the side of and operated by the men below, who are the directors and managers of the Phoenix Savings, Building and Loan Association?

CONSERVATISM

IF

It shows conservatism in a bank to pay low rates of interest, why is it that the Phoenix is such a safe institution and pays such high dividends? This seems to be the "sticking" point with a great many prospective building and loan investors, but we do not blame them, as they have never had the building and loan system properly explained to them, or have never given it as much thought as they have their ordinary affairs.

Banks have a great deal of their money subject to call, and have to, for this reason, make short term loans, with their money or interest all due at one time. You can draw your deposits out whenever you want. On the contrary, the Phoenix makes nothing but long term installment loans, not repayable under a year, and they can run as long as ten; consequently, these loans, being repayable in monthly payments of principal and interest, they receive sufficient each month to pay all withdrawing members and make what good loans come to them. The certificate of investment stock being distributed among a large number of people and all due at different times, puts in a safe position while, if all the money was due at one and the same time, it would be less feasible.

As to the profit feature, these same monthly installments give the Phoenix an opportunity of handling its money half over again. In other words, if the Phoenix had loans at 8 per cent, the handling of the money over again will produce a profit of 4 per cent additional to pay stockholders, and would not have worked a hardship upon the borrower, who is getting rid of his debt in easy monthly installments, the same as rent. On the contrary, the flat loans made by banks and individuals receive their interest on money semi-annually or annually, and are not in a position to replace it on loans if they receive monthly installments as we do.

Another safety feature is the premium placed upon persistency. In other words, the man that withdraws pays his proportion of the expenses and a stated portion of his profits if he withdraws before his contract terminates.

DRAMA

The Janet Waldorf company presented the second of their plays of their present season at the Hawaiian Opera House last night. "The Lady of Ostend," a farcical comedy in three acts, by Sir F. C. Burnand, was last night's vehicle of entertainment. The play is not one of any greater or lasting merit, but is one of those pleasing whimsicalities which offer opportunity for action and good lively, rattling dialogue, with enough appearance of probability to carry it without the necessity of profound analysis of human character, of deep psychological synthesis.

The plot or at least the excuse for the play is the story of a young married man whose wife comes to think he spends too much time at the club and not enough at home. A visit from the wife's father and mother sets the plot in motion. The mother-in-law upbraids her son-in-law in true orthodox fashion. The father-in-law, seconds her objurgations with a wink, and the admonition in an aside that the next time he remains out "for a time," the father-in-law must be given an opportunity to enjoy it too. This is followed by the advice to the son-in-law to make peace by extreme attentiveness to wife and mother-in-law, in short to take them out and give them the "time of their lives," taking them to every thing that offers amusement. This advice the son-in-law takes and with wife and mother-in-law goes to a street show where moving pictures are on view. This is enjoyable enough until the moving pictures show the husband himself, flirting with another woman on the beach at Ostend. Little imagination is required to guess what follows.

The husband finally persuades the showman, with money, to cut this part of the picture out, which the showman does substituting the picture of another man with the same woman. This also raises a row and another substitution, to the financial benefit of the showman, replaces this man with a picture of the father-in-law, also on the beach at Ostend.

Miss Waldorf in the cast is "Dorothy Whortles," the wife. The other characters in the cast are "Baron De Longueville," (a man with a rattling past) Norval McGregor; "Dick Whortles" (The Jonah of No. 9) Ernest Macken; "Joseph Carbury," (Fond of a night out) Wilson Forbes; "Toby Crockitt," (The Gripper) Jean De Lacey; "Thompson," (a clerk at Whortles' office) Arthur Elton; "John Humbert," (manager Cinematograph Co. ## THE NEW CABINET OFFICE

HOW THE CREATION OF A NEW DEPARTMENT IS LOOKED UPON IN EUROPE—BRITISH AND OTHER PAPERS LOOK ON IT AS A PROGRESSIVE STEP THAT MIGHT BE IMITATED WITH PROFIT.

The creation of a Department of Commerce in the United States has awakened great interest in other countries and especially in the mother country, where our active but friendly rivalry in the world's markets is a subject of much attention, and the appointment of a Minister of Commerce for the United Kingdom is being urged. The London Chamber of Commerce Journal, the official organ of the London Chamber of Commerce, in a recent issue says:

"In this country the opinion was for long held that the best way to assist trade was to leave it severely alone and to rely upon the foresight, skill and energy of our merchants and manufacturers to maintain our pre-eminent position in the world's markets. Latterly, however, there has been a tendency to direct the attention of Parliament more and more to commercial matters. It is unquestionable that the idea is rapidly gaining in strength that in many directions considerably more attention and assistance might be given by the State to extending trade than is at present accorded. In saying this, the fact is not overlooked that of recent years commercial questions have received increasing attention from the Government, but the feeling is rapidly growing in intensity that what is really wanted is that they should be entrusted to a Minister with full cabinet rank, who must himself be a business man, and whose sole duty shall be to watch over, foster and support the vast trading and industrial interests of the country. We are now at a period of tense rivalry in trade; our merchants and manufacturers are face to face with the keenest competition that has ever been known; and that competition is daily developing. Is it not remarkable, in view of the magnitude of the interests involved, that the United Kingdom—the greatest manufacturing and commercial nation in the world—has not in the Cabinet a Minister of Commerce? In the United States, which may be looked upon as our most formidable competitor, and whose people are keenly alive to the necessities of modern commerce, the need for such a Minister has already been fully recognized. Surely Great Britain cannot afford to lag behind. It rests with the business men of this country to present a united front in this matter and to make their wishes known, through their commercial organization in such a manner as to command the support of the Government and the nation. That the conviction of the need for this appointment is steadily gaining ground appears to be undoubted. Several Chambers of Commerce have already expressed themselves in unmistakable terms in favor of the proposal, while the London and Halifax Chambers have decided to move resolutions in support thereof at the annual meeting of the Associated Chambers to be held in London next March. Thus will be afforded the views of the general body of commercial men throughout the Kingdom, which cannot fail to materially influence the end in view.

"Those who ask for the appointment of a Minister of Commerce do not do so in any spirit of complaint or animosity against the Board of Trade, but because they believe that the interests of the country would be best served by the establishment of the desired Ministry. There is no inclination to disparage the good work performed by the department, which has rendered great services to commerce. Few people are aware of the varied duties entrusted to the care of the Board of Trade; but, if mention is made of some of the most important, such as the regulation and control of shipping, fisheries and harbors, labor and arbitration in labor disputes, the safeguarding of the public interest in regard to railways, the conduct of bankruptcy laws, the collection and dissemination of particular information, some idea will be gained of the magnitude of the interests with which it deals. And yet the department which has charge of all these important commercial matters is not on an equality with other Government departments like the Home Office and the Foreign Office. Its head only receives a remuneration amounting to about two-fifths of that of a principal Secretary of State. What is wanted for Commerce is a Department which shall be in a position to give its undivided attention to the furtherance of commercial interests only, so that the distinction between a Board of Trade as now existing and a Ministry of Commerce, as proposed, is not a mere matter of words, but constitutes a vital difference in principle."

MUNICIPAL WOODYARDS.

In Massachusetts there is a wise provision of law by which members of the Legislature, pending the formation of an act, may interrogate the Supreme Court with regard to the constitutionality of certain propositions which it is desired to incorporate in the law. In reply to certain questions addressed to that body with regard to the question of municipal coal and wood yards, the Supreme Court advises that it would not be within the province of the constitutional powers of the municipality to engage in buying and selling wood and coal as a regular business, yet the establishment of such a source of supply in case of emergency would be constitutional.

END OF THE TERM.

Judge De Bolt this morning discharged the jurors who have served during the long February term in his court. Thinking of them for their attendance. The term has lasted six weeks and has broken all records for disposition of cases. Though the last day is tomorrow there was no court today, the calendar being all cleaned up. There was no case left for trial today on the criminal calendar and Judge De Bolt will have divorce matters this afternoon and tomorrow.

During this term 107 criminal cases were disposed of, or an average of nearly three a day. The long list included nearly all the offenses in the penal code, from murder and burglary in the first degree to petty larceny and malicious injury.

The jurors will have to wait for their fees like those of previous terms. The emergency appropriation bill, now before the legislature, contains provisions for paying the jurors and as soon as it is passed and signed there will be money for the jurors of the past several terms, some of whom have dismounted their claims in order to get cash.

In the case of John Gorim, charged with assault and battery, Attorney General Andrews this morning moved for a nolle prosequi, the complaining witness having failed to appear.

The case of Hattashi, charged with illicit distilling was stricken from the calendar, the defendant having left the country.

FORT GEORGE FOR COAST.

The ship Fort George will sail for Kahului tomorrow to load 2,000 tons of sugar. She has loaded 1,000 tons of sugar at this port. She is to go to San Francisco from Kahului making an extra trip in the Coastwise trade before she goes around the Horn. She has some repairs and overhauling to effect before making the longer trip.

A QUINTETTE CLUB OF EIGHT

KUPIHEA OFFERS A JOINT RESOLUTION AND A "QUINTETTE CLUB OF EIGHT HAWAIIANS" TO GO TO THE ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION TO REPRESENT THE TERRITORY.

A joint resolution was offered by Kupihea in the House this morning to provide for three commissioners to look after Hawaii's exhibit at St. Louis, as follows:

"One commissioner to be appointed by the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii;

"One commissioner to be appointed by the President of the Senate and the other to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii, and provided further that a quintette club of eight Hawaiian singers and musicians to entertain the visitors to Hawaii's exhibit at the Exposition be selected by the Delegate to Congress, Prince Cupid Kalaniana'ole, and they are to accompany the commission to the said exposition, their salaries and passage money to be fixed by the Governor and the commission for their services during the exhibition."

Kealawa introduced a resolution to make the Hilo band a part of the government band and to appropriate $14,000 for it. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military.

Haia introduced a resolution to appropriate $3,000 for the government physician at Hana.

Before ordering the noon recess Speaker Beckley announced that hereafter petitions and memorials would only be received by the House on Mondays. Harris wanted to know from the Printing Committee about a bill which had been ordered printed and he was told that the committee had just reported. Haia made a similar inquiry regarding a bill of his in the Finance Committee, of which Harris is chairman. He was told that it was being held to await a similar bill from Kaniho, in order that both might be killed at once.

SENATE PROTECTS THE CHILDREN

In the Senate this morning the members considered the emergency appropriation bill. The salary for the executive officer of the Board of Health was slashed for the remaining six months of the present year.

He announced the following special committee on the matter of the petitions regarding government ownership of the Pauoa water works. Senator C. Brown, J. T. Brown, Isenberg, Dickey and Kaue.

Senator Paris reported the emergency appropriation favorably. Bills were introduced by Senator Achi to amend the present laws relating to habeas corpus and trial before referee; Senator Crabbe offered a bill amending the internal tax law and Senator Woods a bill to present the adulteration of foods and drugs.

Senator Crabbe offered a motion that in future all bills should be referred to a special committee of three who should have the power to decide whether the bills should be presented. The idea was to save time for the Senate. Senator C. Brown opposed this measure, so it was withdrawn.

Senate Bill No. 66 relating to amendments to the criminal procedure was passed third reading.

The bill to incorporate societies for the prevention of cruelty to children came up for its third reading and passed.

EVERY NATIVE A DOCTOR

Representative M. K. Kealawa of the First District this morning introduced the following resolution:
"Be it resolved by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii that Hawaiians be permitted to practice medicine without a license."

"M. K. KEALAWA."
The resolution was referred to the committee on Public Health.
Pulaa introduced a concurrent resolution in the House this morning, as follows:

"Whereas by the annexation of the Republic of Hawaii to the United States as a Territory we entered into a new era, therefore,

"Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that it is the sense of the legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, that it would be for the benefit of all that the Governor may pardon all those who were discharged from jail, or criminal cases, giving them the benefit of voting hereafter."

Vida moved to adopt the resolution and Harris moved to refer it to the Judiciary committee. Pulaa and Kaniho spoke in support of the resolution and Haia said the House was exceeding its power in taking such action, pardons being a matter for the Governor. Fernandez replied that the legislature's power was superior to that of the executive and that the resolution should be passed.

The motion to refer was lost and the resolution was adopted 17 to 12, the usual combination of the Kumalae-Vida wing voting down the other Republicans, with the aid of Home Rulers.
