Maui Republicans Endorse Baldwin As Their Choice

Republican Committee Puts Senator In Field; D. H. Case for Circuit Judge and Kunewa for Assessor.

Senator Harry A. Baldwin for Delegate to Congress was the endorsement voted by the Republican executive committee at its meeting in Wailuku Friday afternoon, thus putting him squarely in the field of possibilities as the unanimous choice of the Republican party of this County for the nomination. Though he was present and protested against the action S. E. Kalama's motion carried with no voice other than Senator Baldwin's raised against it. Only his absolute refusal to accept the nomination can eliminate him from the field.

D. H. Case was given endorsement for the Circuit Court judgeship of this circuit on the expiration of the term of Judge L. L. Burr in March. Notification of his endorsement is to be sent to the Republican National Committee and to the Territorial Bar Association. Mr. Case's well known friendship with Governor Farrington is considered certain to bring an endorsement of his candidacy from the Executive if he shall be consulted in the matter. Mr. Case is the only Maui Lawyer prominently mentioned for the appointment.

Territorial Committee Ignored

It was significant that in making endorsements for the appointment of Mr. Case, J. H. Kunewa, for reappointment as assessor and of various postmasters, no recommendation or reference to the Territorial Republican Committee is made. There was no consideration of any possible reconciliation with that body since there has been no official approach from that body and the Maui delegation to that Committee remains in the same position as it has been since it left the committee on the organization of that body with Andrews as chairman and Wise as vice-chairman. The recommendation for the reappointment of Kunewa is made direct to the Territorial treasurer, A. Lewis, Jr.

Postmasters Suggested

Recommendations for appointments were made as follows:

Wailuku, A. Garcia, if any change shall be made.

Makawao, J. E. Tavares.

Puuhi, J. S. Medeiros.

Makana, J. B. Bietow.

Hana, M. Watanabe.

Kennea, Mrs. Maggie K. Ching.

Kaupo, Nicholas Soon.

Roseville, Ed. K. Devauchelle.

Kelae, Isaac Hart.

For Kahului, Paia, Lahaina and Wailuku, no recommendations were made.

Election Inspectors

Considerable interest attached to selections for election inspectors, recommendations to be made to the Secretary of the Territory. As a general thing selection by the committee is considered as practically the appointment since the secretary generally acts upon the names recommended to him. In some instances appointment was deferred. The following were the recommendations of the committee.

1st. Lawrence Gay and Henry Gibson.

2nd. George Kauhi and August Reimann.

3rd. J. W. K. Hose and John Robinson.

4th. E. Hanneberg and David K. Kinney.

5th and 6th. Action deferred.

7th. C. C. Campbell and W. A. Robinson.

8th. A. K. Tom and W. A. Baldwin.

9th. Ed. Wilcox and John de Lima.

10th. J. Vincent and David Kapohohe.

11th. A. D. Furtado and James Tam Sing.

12th. Foster Robinson and E. W. Ali.

13th. J. K. Emmesley and E. J. Smythe.

14th. John Plunkett and Kingson Ching.

15th. Marion Cabral and Frank Cabral.

16th. William P. Haia and George Opiopio.

17th. Hans Fassoth and John Kamal.

18th. Scott Hai and J. V. Marciel.

19th. J. Kamano and L. K. Kalouah.

20th. Isaac D. Iaca and Charles Kanani.

21st. David Kaal and Albert Kahlan.

22nd. Emil Van Lil and William Kaliaheana.

No recommendations as to District magistrates were made as none have terms expiring at this time.

OKUMA DIES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

TOKIO, Jan. 10—Marquis Okuma died this morning after having lain in a state of coma for several days.

Dispatches of last Friday told of the death of Marquis Okuma and obituaries have since been generally published. The report was found premature and denials made Saturday and yesterday. His condition led to the premature reports of his demise.

County Reduces Its Expense Bill

Salary Cuts Mostly Small; Savings Planned in all ways Reach $80,000 for Year as Compared With Last.

Maui County's appropriation bill shows reduction in proposed expenditure as compared with the first six months of last year of more than $40,000 the biggest saving being effected in the department of public works and in the sundries accounts. In several of the departments it was impossible to operate for less than last year because of the salary increases to officials of such departments made by the last legislature. The appropriation bill provides for expenditures of $74,792.50 for the quarter as against $188,550 for the first six months of last year.

General Salary Cuts

Salary cuts in offices where salaries are not fixed by law have been general except in the county engineer's office and the examiner of chauffeurs but usually are not large. An exception is that of the deputy county attorney, raised a few months since $75 a month and now cut from $250 to $200 monthly. Salary cuts generally range from $5 a month in the police department up to $10 and $15 a month in clerical positions. The cut in the salaries of policemen is designed to effect a savings of about $10,000 in the year.

County physician salaries were cut in several instances $25 a month making an annual savings of $1200. Plans for road and bridge work are curtailed, the appropriation for Wailuku being at the rate of $10,000 instead of $20,000 annually, Makawao $10,000 instead of $25,000, Lahaina $10,000 instead of $15,000, Hana $7500 instead of $12,000 and Molokai $5,000 instead of more than $9,000. Proposed expenditures for machinery, stock and equipment are cut in half as compared with last year. Child welfare appropriations are cut at the rate of $10,000 a year and the indigent and pension fund is reduced at the rate of $6000 for the year. County park upkeep and street lighting appropriations are reduced one half.

In making up the appropriation bill the board did not quite limit itself to the $35,000,000 assessed valuation basis. Such a limitation would have necessitated a further reduction in expenses for the quarter of $5000. On that basis the county would have only a revenue of about $280,000 in the general fund and the appropriation bill provides for expenditures at the rate of $300,000, but the county ended the year with a surplus of some $20,000. When details of the assessed valuation are obtainable a change of basis can be made in subsequent appropriations measures. If the valuation is higher, the board will not have to sail quite so close to the wind but if it should be $35,000,000 or less cloth will have to be cut accordingly and subsequent appropriations will have to be smaller, further economies put into practice.

Auto Expense Regulated

While the salaries of district overseers has not been cut, those who have their own cars will have to buy their own tires and pay for the upkeep and repairs but will have an allowance of oil and gasoline. County officials in other departments are also placed on allowances for upkeep of cars, tires, repairs, etc. The deputy sheriff of Wailuku is allowed at the rate of $20 a month, detectives $30, Makawao deputy $50, Lahaina deputy $20 and Molokai deputy $15.

Public works will be considerably curtailed, it is evident from a study of the budget but the board appears to have done excellent work in its attempt to make the necessary economies.

Gatherell's Wife Did Not Die As Thought

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HONOLULU, Jan. 9.—Frank H. Gatherell, who confessed to having slain his wife in New York has brooded over a crime he never committed. Advice from the New York police said the woman had been seen alive and well three or four months later than the time Gatherell shot her and left her for dead.

Gatherell has been released by the police and is not detained by the military authorities for being absent without leave while he was in civil custody.

All Hawaii In Mourning For Prince and Delegate

Kuhio Succumbs to Heart Failure and Body Lies In State in Old Kawaiahao Church This Week; Final Obsequies Will be Held on Sunday.

In old Kawaiahao Church in Honolulu almost the last of the male line of Hawaiian royalty of the monarchical days and for 20 years Hawaii's delegate to congress, lies in state. He is being accorded the honors customary to departed Hawaiian royalty in the old days. Watchers of his own race are there in relays and kahilis wave above his bier. Final rites will be held next Sunday when the body will be taken to the former throne room of Iolani Palace, now the capitol, and thence escorted to the royal crypt, its final resting place.

Prince Kuhio died at 2:37 o'clock on Saturday morning and Associated Press dispatches to this paper brought the news to Maui about 11 o'clock. The seriousness of his illness had not been recognized fully until a very few days before his death. X-ray pictures showed enlarged arteries at the heart and a bursting of the aneurism induced death.

End Comes Unexpectedly

Two days before Kuhio died it was decided he should be taken to a Southern California sanitarium. On the day before his death he had seemed somewhat improved but was unable to lie down, remaining seated in an arm chair. Friday evening paroxysms of pain about the heart attacked him and his breathing became labored. Later he sank into unconsciousness and there were two internal hemorrhages when the arteries burst. With him at the last was the Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Stella Kea, Edwin Kea, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. R. W. Shingle, Mrs. and Mrs. John C. Lane, Mrs. Myra Iona and Doctors Hanchett and O'Day. Other old and valued friends were near at hand.

Governor Issues Proclamation

Princess Kawanakoa was notified and was an early arrival in the bereaved home and others also arrived early. Soon after death came Governor Farrington was notified, offered his services and extended his condolences to the widow. Saturday morning he called officials together and all public offices were closed and the governor issued the following proclamation:

"It is with profound sorrow that the Governor of Hawaii announces the death on January 7th, 1922, of Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniano'ole, Delegate to Congress from this Territory.

"The passing of the Prince arouses all those inspiring sentiments associated with the death of a leader at his post of duty.

"Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniano'ole was sincere, loyal and courageous, and he possessed the peculiar kindness of heart distinctly Hawaiian that is identified, interpreted and glorified in Hawaii's Aloha.

"As a member of the royal family of Hawaii he maintained the dignity of his station with refined freedom from ostentation. He understood the developing forces of the Pacific and was solicitous of the welfare and the highest type of progress for his people.

"Without sacrificing his pride of race or of nationality that had been merged in the great Union of States, he was a whole souled American.

"The best expression of the sincerity of our sympathy that can be given to his beloved Princess and of our Aloha to the leader that all Hawaii loved, is a pledge to carry on his work and follow out the high hopes he had for service to his people.

"The body will lie in state in Kawaiahao Church from Monday, January 9th to Saturday, January 14th, 1922, inclusive, and the last rites will be performed in the Throne Room of the Palace on Sunday, January 15th, 1922, giving opportunity to the people of Hawaii to pay tribute to the memory of their beloved Prince.

"It is requested that Hawaiian and American flags be half masted on all public buildings of the Territory during the time of the lying in state and during the funeral.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory to be affixed.

"(SEAL)

"DONE at the Capitol, in Honolulu, this seventh day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

"W. R. FARRINGTON,

"Governor of Hawaii."

Paia Sends Flowers

The Paia Hawaiian Church desired to send a delegation to the funeral of their beloved prince but was unable to do so at this time. However the Paia Church and Sunday School and Christian Endeavor society and the Halumale Sunday School and Christian Endeavor society raised funds which have been sent to Mrs. Alice Kahokuoluna who is in Honolulu with the request that she get flowers for the funeral and convey their Aloha nui loa to widow, Princess Kalaniana'ole.

New Jersey Governor Denounces Strongly

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 10.—Governor Edwards, in his second annual message to the legislature urged the repeal of the Van Ness Prohibition Enforcement Act in New Jersey.

The governor characterized the act as an instrument of oppression and proposes the substitution of a less drastic act which should provide jury trials for alleged violations of the prohibition laws.

BALDWIN SENTIMENT

(Special to MAUI NEWS.)

HONOLULU, Jan. 10.—A strong and growing trend of sentiment in favor of Senator Harry A. Baldwin for the republican nomination for delegate to congress is noted here.

If a statement were issued by him that he would accept the nomination he would be the strongest possibility in the field.

Senator Baldwin said this morning when reached by telephone at Grove Ranch: "I would not consider it. I have not been at any time a candidate for the nomination for delegate and I shall not be."

New Government of Ireland Organizes; Griffiths At Head

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Ireland was without government last night owing to the failure of the Dail Eireann to appoint a successor to Devalera whose resignation was accepted following the ratification of the treaty on Saturday by a vote of 64 to 57 amid scenes of the wildest excitement. Yesterday a motion to reelect Devalera head of the government lost by a vote of 58 to 60. When the final vote was taken and Devalera saw the treaty was ratified he left the hall with tears streaming down his cheeks.

Yesterday when defeated for reelection to head the government Devalera announced that the whole cabinet would go out with him. Cheering greeted the announcement of the result of the ballot but the whole assembly approved when Arthur Griffiths and Michael Collins bestowed tributes upon the ex-president and urged his opponents to elect a successor. Devalera accepted his defeat in good spirit and pledged his support to the new government "so long as it pursues a course looking towards the independence of Ireland."

The hiatus in government came to an end after the reassembling of the Dail when Arthur Griffiths was elected unanimously after Devalera and his followers had walked out following his nomination by Collins.

Griffiths nominated the following cabinet: Finance, Michael Collins; Foreign affairs, George Gavan Duffy; Home affairs, E. J. Dugan; Local government, William T. Cosgrave; Economic affairs, Benton O'Higgins; Defense, Richard Mulcahy.

At the session this morning Collins declared the formation of a provisional government was necessary at once to prevent anarchy.

A message was received from the Vatican saying that the Pope rejected that an agreement had been reached.

President Griffiths announced that the Dail will continue to function until the Irish Free State is set up.

The Dail ratified Griffiths cabinet nominations.

The Devalera faction held a session outside the hall.

Britain Will Assure France of Full Aid

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

CANNES, France, Jan. 10.—Notification has come to the Allied Council meeting here that endorsement by the British cabinet of the proposed written pledge binding Britain to aid France to the full extent of its military and naval resources is expected today.

Both Germany and Russia have accepted the invitations to attend the conference and messengers say that German delegates are on the way to confer as to reparations payments.

Messengers from Russia said the Soviet Government would send representatives, that the pressure of affairs might prevent Lenin from coming but that Russia's representatives would have full powers. The prompt acceptance is regarded as an expression of a sincere desire on the part of Russia to get back not intercourse with the nations.

Conference Draws To Close; Navy Treaty Is Ready

Question of arming Merchantmen Decided; Far Eastern Treaty May Be Ready For Action Monday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Last stages of the conference for the limitation of armaments are at hand. Only technicalities and the phrasing of the naval treaty remains to be worked out before it is ready for the signatures of the plenipotentiaries. The delegations will meet separately and discuss the tentative draft which is expected to be ready for publication at a plenary session which will be held on Thursday or Friday.

The draft of the proposed treaty includes the agreement which was reached yesterday limiting the size of guns on merchantmen to six inches and prohibiting the conversion of merchantmen of more than 10,000 tons into auxiliary war craft. It is generally expected that these provisions will be adopted.

The committee on aerial warfare has decided that the question of increases and development in that line of armament is a subject which had best be deferred to future conferences and will so recommend and that action is expected to be taken by the plenary conference.

Use of noxious gases as weapons of war will be condemned and forbidden by the conference, is the expectation.

Some delegates expect the Far Eastern treaty will be completed and ready for signing on Monday. Baron Kato expects to remain in Washington until the affairs of the conference are fully completed but General Tanaka, heading a large party of the Japanese, will sail on the 24th regardless of whether all of the work of the conference has or has not been completed.

Newberry's Defense Brings Excitement To August Senate

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Unwonted scenes were enacted in the senate chamber yesterday when Truman H. Newberry presented his defense against the charges of undue expenditures in connection with his election over Henry Ford.

Newberry read a carefully prepared speech and then submitted to a cross examination by Walsh of Montana for half an hour. At his close Republicans rushed down the aisles and grasped Newberry's hand and congratulated him. Only a single hand clap was heard from the gallery. Democrats said his defense was enough.

Newberry said in part: "As God is my witness I am not conscious of having done any wrong in connection with the 1918 election in Michigan, nor of a single dishonest, dishonorable or corrupt act. He said he had been filled with astonishment and regret when he heard that the campaign had cost $195,000.

John Sharpe Williams of Mississippi caused a dramatic scene when he declared Newberry's statement that he did not know of the expenditures being made in his behalf to be "false as hell."

Holding a copy of the statement in his hand, Williams said: "It is a terrible thing to accuse a man of perjury, but there is no man within the sound of my voice who believes this statement that has been read." Turning toward half of the senators he asked each if he believed the statement without getting even a nod. Turning back to his position and hammering his desk with his clenched fist he shouted: "You know it is false as hell!"

Use of Cottage of Jailer for Young Delinquents Urged

Recommendation that the jailer's cottage at Wailuku be fitted for the accommodation of juvenile delinquents who may be taken into custody and detained by the police is contained in a letter written by Mrs. Renee Whitehead, probation officer, to Judge Burr. She says the sheriff approves the proposal.

Mrs. Whitehead comments on the fact that a number of boys were recently detained in the common jail for several days and refers to the law touching upon that subject and that there is no other place than the jail for the holding of juveniles when captured in punishable offenses. She speaks of the use of the probation officers' homes in some communities and that her home here is not large enough for such use, and then suggests the use of the jailer's cottage here so the law may be complied with in reference to temporary incarceration of juveniles.

SPORTS

Fumble Proves Costly To Lahaina Grid Team

Recovering a fumble in the first quarter on Lahaina's 15 yard line Joseph de Rego carried the ball over the goal line to a touchdown which later proved to be the only score in the game resulting in a victory for the Wailuku Town Team by the score of 7-0.

From that period on the ball remained practically in midfield and neither team were able to make a substantial gain other than to resort to punting. Pass after pass via the air route were attempted but only twice was completed by each eleven and then for but a few yards gain.

With the defeat of Lahaina by the Town Team, the Maui High School lads are now undisputed junior champions of the gridiron and will probably remain undefeated as the season is past its closing time and it is doubtful if another game will be seen before next fall.

Maui Chess Players Hold First Session

On Friday evening of last week the Maui chess players and their wives were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foster at their Hamakuaapoko home. This was the first meeting of the chess club in regular session this year. While the chess players were demonstrating their respective ability to meet a Queen's Pawn's Gambit with a Two Knight's Defence, declining or accepting an Evans Gambit as they thought best, meeting a Ruy Lopez, or puzzling over the intricacies of a King's Bishop's Gambit—and all the while perfectly oblivious to the passage of time—the ladies played bridge while awaiting the time when they considered it proper to break up the chess playing by announcing that refreshments were about to be served.

The next session of the chess club is scheduled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cameron.

HOW TO PLAY TENNIS

By WILLIAM T. TILDEN

World's Grass and Hard Court
Lawn Tennis Champion

Copyright 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

Volley in Lawn Tennis Purely Offensive Stroke

IN TAKING up the next two strokes, namely, the volley and overhead, the first thing to get clearly in mind is that these shots are purely offensive, or attacking shots, and never, under any circumstance, defensive shots.

When considering tennis from a technical standpoint, the game resolves itself into one of pure attack and defense and the volley and overhead, or the "net game," as it is termed, is to tennis what the German forty-two-centimeter guns are to their attack.

All volley shots should be made with the idea of winning the point, not merely returning the ball, because a mere short return opens both sidelines to your opponent for his passing shot.

There are certain things about a volley that must be understood at once. First, hold the racket tight and volley with stiff wrist. More volleys are missed because of the racket slipping in the hand than for any other reason except taking the eye off the ball.

The volley is made up of a very different combination from the strokes. It has very little swing and no "top." One reason Mrs. Mollie Bjursted Malory cannot volley is because her whole game is made up of free swings with plenty of top. The result is she cannot volley and in comparison with her last court game, her volley game is absolutely second-rate.

The volley should be made with nearly a flat racket face, stiff wrist and very short swing. Let the other man's shot put the speed in your volley while you attend entirely to depth and direction. Do not chop down on your volley shot, but bring your bat into the ball. In other words, do not make the angle between the flight of the ball and the flight of the racket nearly a right angle; try to make it nearly a straight line. An excellent example of this style volley is Craig Biddle, of Philadelphia.

The only volley to chop successfully is the forehand cross-court volley from near the right-hand sideline. This can be chopped for a very acute angle provided the footwork is correct.

The question of footwork in volleying should be considered more as regards placement of the weight than actual position of the feet, since often you have not time to change your feet. You can always shift your weight on to the correct foot.

If there is time, for the forehand volley should be in front of the right, with the weight on the right foot; while for the backhand volley the footwork is reversed and the right foot is in front of the left, while the weight is on the left foot. In both cases the weight shifts very little in making the shot.

Technique of Shot

Where there is not time to change, remember the rule. The weight should be on the shot, not away from it. In other words, for the forehand volley it should be on the right foot and for the backhand on the left foot. Thus there is no tendency to pull away from the ball, but the body remains in position to play the shot either way.

There are several styles of volleys: First. The deep, fast volley. This is usually made straight and should be made the foundation for the volley game. Play this volley when the other man is watching for the short shot and is inside the baseline, as if will catch him at his feet. Volley deep whenever you see a chance of getting the other man at his feet, for even if he makes his return, it forces him out of position and upsets his style of play. The deep volley should be a fast shot.

Second. The "stop" volley. This shot is the most effective form of breaking up a back-court game. It is practically the only safe way of playing men like Wallace Johnson, Armstrong, Pearson, Swayne and other exponents of the steady back-court game. This shot should be made with very little pace and placed at a most acute angle. The sharper the angle acquired in stop volleying the better the shot is, for even if covered, it opens the court to the next shot.

Be careful in making this shot not to volley soft to midcourt, since that only lays you open to your opponent's passing shot. It will be seen as a general rule, then, that it is safest to volley deep and straight, and last

Golf Will Be Topic At Meeting Thursday

A meeting will be held Thursday night at 7:30 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Wailuku to which all persons are invited to discuss the possibilities of introducing golf among the sports of Maui. Leland C. Lewis, manager of the Maui Sporting Goods Company who has recently returned from the mainland has made an intensive survey of the golf links on the coast including the Del Monte Country Club one of the largest and best equipped links in California and feels that he is in a fair way able to lay the facts before the Maui people who may be interested in that sport.

The Valley Isle, its climate, and surrounding conditions would no doubt prove ideal for the playing of golf and as a winter sport and exercise should easily popularize itself in the large field that is open here for the expansion of all branches of athletics, says Lewis.

Should sufficient interest be shown to make a start in the project the Maui County Fair and Racing Association will be asked to form a committee to be affiliated with the main body in order that it may be conducted through the proper channels and above criticism.

ANSWERS TO FRIDAY'S QUERIES

Hanson, of Cornell, kicked the greatest number of consecutive goals from touchdowns this season.
Zbyszko is forty-seven years old.
Battling Nelson never fought a man named Grans. He fought Joe Gangs three times.

The Players' League, or "Brotherhood" was in the field only one season, 1890. It comprised teams from Pittsburgh, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo and Cleveland.

If, when the basketball is in the air during a try for goal, a foul is called on the throwing side, the ball is dead and the goal does not count.

to "stop" volley play soft and short and cross.

The question of position and the volley is most important and should be considered carefully by all who intend to develop this game. Faulty position will ruin the best volley game ever developed. As a general rule play from eight to twelve feet from the net, or, in other words, just close enough to the net that you can volley on the full and are not forced to play a "trap" or "pick-up" shot.

Court Position

Now comes the important question of which part of the court parallel to the net to play. The answer depends entirely on your own shot that you have followed in.

Remember that as a rule the last return is the straight return, while the cross-court must be slower to hold in court.

In following in on services to either court do not come into the middle of the court, but come in about eight feet from the sideline or, less, and cover the straight shot. Especially is this true of the wide-breaking service to the left (second) court. An example of covering this service is the way R. N. Williams, 20, comes in on his. He comes to about three feet of the sideline and six feet from the net.

Thus to sum up the volley:
First. It is purely attack, an offensive shot.

Second. Hold the racket tight at all times and volley with stiff wrist.

Third. It is little swing and no "top."

Fourth. Do not chop your volley.

Fifth. Footwork: when there is not time to change feet, have weight on foot nearest the ball.

Sixth. Deep volley should be fast and straight.

Seventh. "Stop" volley should be soft and short and cross-court.

Ninth. Following in service, use the rule above.

My next article will be on the overhead.

Friday's results—Alerts 21, Kahului 19; L. D. S. 15 Puunene 12.

Continuous training and practice is bringing to light the teams that will probably finish in the first division at the end of the seasons basketball championship. Though too early for predictions as to probable leaders, the early games tend to indicate those whose morale is not affected by the first few defeats and those whose determination to overcome faulty and ineffective playing will probably place them near the top when the season draws to a close.

The second game of Friday night was the same old story of a well trained team playing against a much poorer one. Lack of practice, especially so in throwing baskets was apparent from start to finish. The spirit was there 100 percent strong, but even such a strong asset as confidence and the determination to win at all odds can seldom overcome the heavier obstacle. The score in the second contest Friday night, Alerts vs. Kahului, of 21-19 is not an overwhelming one, but had the Alumni boys wished to play a faster game the total would undoubtedly have been greater. The feature of the game was Shige Hanagita's throwing baskets. From almost any position on the field and practically at will the St. Anthony boy would score, he alone making 15 of the total 21 points.

The first game, Puunene vs. the L. D. S. though slow was a good exhibition of basketball, the Elders winning by the score 15-12.

Improvement in their method of play over their first game was noticeable and their more accurate passing and open play brought them a well earned victory.

Personal and technical fouls were noticeably absent in both games, appreciation of which can be seen by the better support the games are drawing from the Maui fans.

The Maui Drug Company will give a cup to the players having the highest individual score at the end of the season.

WEST MAUI LEAGUE

Friday's Results—Lahainauna 20, Kam. Hl 14; L. A. A. 67, Town Team 30.

Lahainauna was returned victor in one of the best games seen in the Armory this year, defeating Kamehameha III, 20-14. Fast and clean playing and almost perfect guarding of the goals was the outstanding feature of the game.

The second fray L. A. A. vs. Lahaina Town Team resulted in a victory for the former 67-30. Reason for the high score is that the Town Team played the first half with but 4 men opposing the association quintet.

The first series of the Lahaina league schedule will finish next week and figures will be available for a percentage table of wins and losses in Friday's edition of Maui News.

Tennis

William H. Engle and Mrs. Fitzgerald are the mixed doubles champions of Maui. They won a hard fought and well deserved victory in the finals over Eddie Tam and Mrs. Paris on the Puunene courts on Saturday afternoon. It was a match that kept the spectators on edge from start to finish, the most hotly contested match of the tournament and three of the sets went into extra games, the result coming as a surprise to numbers of the followers of the game. Tam and Mrs. Paris took the first set, 8-6, but then Engle and Mrs. Fitzgerald came a shade stronger and the winners of the first set weakened a bit and lost 6-8. The advantage stayed with Engle and Mrs. Fitzgerald and they led out again in the third, taking it 7-5. Confidence further strengthened they took the fourth and deciding set 6-4 and became possessors of the handsome H. P. Baldwin cup.

ATTENTION FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Members and friends of the Wailuku "Blues" football eleven who wish a photograph of the Maui champions will find an excellent one in the Monday, January 9th edition of the Star-Bulletin. How it came there, or from what source, is a mystery but it is a fine reproduction and will make a nice souvenir of the past seasons gridiron battles.

Progress of Sports On Maui Well Told In Annual Report

Growth, development and progress of sports on Maui were detailed by Chairman J. Garcia of the Athletic Committee at the annual meeting of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association last week. His report is of wide interest not alone to members of the association but to those interested in any branch of sports and follows in full:

I beg to submit report of your Athletic Committee covering its activities during the year 1921.

Finances—From a financial point of view, our activities have not been a success, as the net result for the year has resulted in a deficit of approximately $150.00, which however has been arranged by a temporary advance, so that all bills of whatsoever nature against your committee have been paid or provided for.

We believe, however, that the small loss incurred by your Committee, is considerably more than offset by the benefit which has accrued to the community in the way of clean sport, which might be termed invisible dividends.

The committee does not ask the main body to make good the small deficit.

Organization—During the year just past, the committee consisted of your chairman and the following gentlemen: Geo. Cummings, vice-chairman; C. A. Puck, secretary; C. S. Childs, treasurer; A. W. Collins, C. L. Bowker, Clem Crowell, J. T. Fantom, R. E. Hughes, M. G. Paschoal, J. Meinecke and J. H. Gray.

Baseball—Our baseball season was a trifle drawn out, in consequence of which no Junior league was staged. The games were a success and Mr. Paschoal, did good work in this connection.

Basketball—Last year was our first venture in the way of a league and this year promises greater success.

Track and Field Meet—By reason of rains and postponement of the date of the meet, the track events proved a loss from a momentary point of view, but who is there that would deny the children this day's pleasure during the year? This year we hope to make it not only a pleasure, but a financial success as well.

Bicycles Races—This sport was revived this year, and Mr. Fantom successfully staged a few races during the Fair.

Soccer—We have allowed this sport to lay dormant during 1921, as the year was so much taken up.

We have also not done anything in the way of Tug-of-War or Hand-ball tournament.

American Football was inaugurated this year, and the tremendous enthusiasm with which this sport was greeted by the public speaks well for the future of the game on Maui. In addition to local games, we have also had visitors on three occasions. It is of course unnecessary to mention the result of the visits, as we are only concerned with getting the game on the map.

Swimming—The Swimming Committee handled two very successful carnivals, the best ever had on Maui. The net receipts from this sport are being placed in a special account by the main body, looking towards the erection of a boat house, so that in the not far distant future, we may also have boat races at Kahului. Let us hope that this is not too far off.

Tennis—We have made a good start with Tennis under the auspices of your committee, this division being in charge of Mr. Collins. This year we look for bigger things in tennis, particularly if the courts at the Fair Grounds are placed in shape, as it is our intention to stage the semi-finals and finals at Kahului on our own courts. Up to the present we have been somewhat handicapped by reason of the fact that we have had no courts under our jurisdiction.

Entertainment—Several dances have been staged at the Territorial Building, with Mr. Meinecke as chairman of this division. It is needless for me to point out the pleasure people have had on these occasions, culminating in the New Year's Fancy Dress ball.

General—Your chairman has indicated to the members of the committee that in the future, all games, or as much as possible, should be played at Kahului, in order to popularize our grounds. At Kahului we will be certain that everybody has paid his or her admission. However, I want to call your attention to possible over-estimated revenues from sports. With most games we must make some division with teams, in order to enable them to pay and provide for their uniforms, paraphernalia, etc., for which the committee is not responsible. Then again there is the question of handling every element in sport, and this very frequently requires tact and diplomacy. Your chairman has been fortunate in having good men on the committee, to assist in this respect.

We have held about 35 meetings the past year, not counting sub-committee meetings.

I hope to have the Treasurer's Report for the year accompany this report.

I would strongly recommend that in future, all communications or requests touching upon sport, should be directed through your chairman, who will refer it to proper committee in accordance with rules of the Athletic Committee. I think you will appreciate the necessity of this to avoid any possible misunderstandings.

I want to express the thanks of your committee to Mr. Wm. Walsh, chairman of the grounds committee, who was always ready and willing to co-operate in anything conducive to the promotion of good, clean sport, and the arrangement of the grounds accordingly.

The co-operation manifested by the president and members of the association is also gratefully acknowledged.

Respectfully submitted,
J. GARCIA,
Chairman Athletic Committee.

(H. W. HUTTON, Commissioner)

Annual Supper and Council Meeting
On Monday, January 16th, at 7 p.m. the Maui council, Boy Scouts of America will hold its annual meeting in the Alexander House Gymnasium. Council members may bring their wives. This will be the first real annual meeting of the council. There will be an address by the president, C. D. Lufkin, the report by the Treasurer W. Engle and the yearly report of the Commissioner H. W. Hutton.

The court of honor will sit and confer first class badges on Scouts Tomatsu Omoto and H. Fujiyoshi of Troop No. 1, Puunene, these two scouts will also have their application for the bicycle merit badge test acted on and Fujiyoshi will receive his senior patrol pin presented to him. First class scout Ray Harry will be presented with three merit badges he passed while in Honolulu Council and will also receive his senior patrol pin. A general discussion for the work of 1922 will follow. It is sincerely hoped that a large number of the council will be present to get in personal touch with this great movement. The wives of the council members will serve the supper.

Second Class Requirements

Fire Building—To pass the fire lighting test, the scout should know where to look for dry wood and what wood to avoid for fire building. He should know how to get dry wood in rainy weather, both in desirous and in evergreen woods. He should know how to prepare the wood for starting the fire. He should know how to build a log, stone and trench fire-place, and should know their respective advantages and limitations. He should be able to lay a fire properly. He should actually have made a fire a number of times using only two matches and not using paper or oil.

The test fire should be built up sufficiently to boil a pint of water. He should know the types of fire required for cooking and for camp fires. Only wood in its natural state from the trees may be used in this test.

No scout should be passed who does not properly extinguish his fire when through.

Almost any arrangement of dry wood will burn if plenty of air is allowed to circulate under and through it. No fire can burn without free circulation of air. Preventing free circulation of air will cause a fire to burn slowly for a long time.

Scouts should know the following: Hunters' fire, trappers' fire, Indians' fire.

Where should you look for dry wood? Describe the method of laying a fire.

Describe the type of fire used for cooking, for camp fires and for heat. Name kinds of wood that make hot lasting coals.

Name three woods that will make a quick hot fire.

What must be done before leaving a fire?

TROOP NOTES

Sunday, January 1, to Monday, January 2, the Paia Scouts camped at the beach house and had the time of their lives. Practically all the time was given up to the study and passing of tests. The result is seen in the test column of this paper. A number of the Kahului troop visited and also had a good time.

The meeting on Friday night was the best ever held by the troop. The commissioner made the remark that in his estimation it was the nearest to what a real scout meeting should

Rehearsals Start for Oberammergau Rendition Of the Passion Play

OBERRAMERGAU, Dec. 8.—(Associated Press Mail)—The long list of characters for the Passion Play, which will be produced here a number of times in 1922, have been selected, and rehearsals have begun. The chief roles will be played again by veterans, some of whom have participated in the presentation for 49 years.

Anton Lang will portray the character of Christ for the third time. Anton Lechner will be protagonist for the second time. Other characters will be: Peter, Andreas Lang; John, Melchior Breitsamer; Judas, Guido Mayr; Caiaphas, Hugo Rutz; King Herod, Gregor Breitsamer; Annas, Sebastian Lang; Pilate, Hans Mayr; Mary, Martha Seitz; Magdalene, Paula Rendl.

One of the last selections was Guido Diemer for choir leader. There has not been a performance of the play for 50 years that a Diemer was not leader of the choir or one of the important singers in it. Guido Diemer took part in the war, first as an aviator and later as an aviator. In 1919 he dedicated his life to the study of singing, and shortly afterward appeared with pronounced success in various church concerts.

The Passion Play committee decided not to violate Oberammergau tradition by permitting pictures to be taken of the play. American moving picture representatives approached the committee with offers of millions of marks, but their proposals were promptly rejected.

Alleged Bolshevik Sent Out of Japan In Haste

TOKYO, Dec. 6.—(Associated Press Mail)—Boris Grey, accused by the Yokohama police of being an agent of the soviet government sent to Japan to spread Bolshevik propaganda, has been deported to Shanghai. Grey landed in Yokohama about two weeks ago, ostensibly a salesman for a Shanghai chemical firm but visits paid him by Japanese radicals aroused the suspicions of the police. He was called to headquarters and the questioning resulted in an order for his deportation from the Minister of Home Affairs. He is said to be a naturalized British citizen, although born in Moscow.

Signs of Reversion to Capitalism Seen

MOSCOW, Dec. 2.—(Associated Press Mail)—The Soviet government is devising all sorts of taxes in an effort to meet its expenses. It is reducing the number of employees and charging for everything which used to be free. A state bank has been opened to facilitate foreign trade. Bills of exchange will be handled. Deposits will be accepted and interest paid on them. Loans will also be made. The capital of the bank is 3,000,000,000 rubles and the total issue of paper money to date is said to be 5,750,000,000 rubles.

The ruble continues to fall, and the government and public alike are scrambling all the time for foreign currency. Chicherin's offer to recognize the pre-war foreign debts if the Entente Powers will grant Soviet Russia recognition had no stabilizing effect on Bolshevik money.

The American Relief Administration child-feeding and the announcement that warehouses will be established by the Hoover organization to supply food packages on drafts sent from abroad have not checked the rising price of bread and economists say it will continue to rise until the next harvest and the famine will be far worse next Spring than it is now. It is clear that the Soviet government is reverting to capitalism as rapidly as it can without losing its Communist support. But Lenin, Kalenin and other leaders frankly admit in their addresses that this is being done only after stores of manufactured articles and financial resources have been exhausted. They also say the change is being made merely to get a breathing spell for another attack on world capitalism.

With this threat ringing in his ears, the American or British business man who is in Moscow trying to establish commercial relations, does not have much heart in his negotiations. So far foreign business men are not permitted to rent offices. Neither may they rent apartments. They must live in the guest houses conducted by the government. All mail and telegrams for foreigners not attached to some official mission must pass through the foreign office.

Odesa has appealed to the Moscow government for permission to have insurance written in foreign companies so it can resume its export trade. After failure to get foreigners to operate the iron industry in the Donetz Basin the government has organized a trust combining several of the big works and will try to run them with the aid of loans from the State Bank. Shipping in the Black Sea has been even less active than in the Baltic. Small craft have taken flyers in the import and export trade but the turnover has been almost negligible.

Book your seats early at the Hip Wednesday. There a reason—Doug Fairbanks in town.—Adv.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

"DAME INSTINCT"
By DADDY

Jack and Janet hear a bird singing in the fall woods. They follow the sound and meet Dame Instinct, fairy godmother of the birds and animals, who also is seeking the singer.

CHAPTER III

Brown Bear Gets a Cuffing
"WE MUST be moving along," said Dame Instinct to Jack and Janet. "Get up, my wheel-less auto. Get up and find the foolish bird who is singing spring songs in the autumn woods!" The basket in which Dame Instinct sat, with Jack and Janet on either side, wobbled and bobbed, and then went hopping swiftly through the forest. Jack and Janet searched the woods eagerly with their eyes, seeking the mysterious bird, but they saw only darting squirrels and scurrying rabbits.

Then of a sudden Jack and Janet saw a startling sight. It was a bear—a big brown bear, waddling along the narrow path ahead of them. "Look out!" yelled Jack. "Stop!" screamed Janet. But the wheel-less auto went hopping right along. It hopped straight at the bear. As for the bear, he had his back turned to the wheel-less auto, and didn't see nor hear it coming. Thus he was taken by surprise when it came down ker-flop! right on his back. Jack and Janet were scared at that but they were not half so scared as the bear. He thought a big eagle was after him. He bumped up his back and galloped away as fast as he could gallop.

But the basket rested only a moment on the bear's back. Then it bounded ahead. Jack and Janet hoped it would go fast enough to get far, far away from the fierce-looking brown bear.

But just when the wheel-less auto seemed to be carrying them to safety Dame Instinct called out: "Whoa!" The wheel-less auto stopped still.

"Oh, oh, please don't stop!" cried Janet. "Didn't you yell for me to stop a minute ago?" asked Dame Instinct. Yes, but that was when the bear was ahead of us," cried Janet. "Don't you see that he is catching us?"

"Yes," said Dame Instinct coolly. "And that is just what I want him to do. And when he catches us, he is going to catch something else, too." By this time the brown bear was almost upon them. When he saw that he had been hit by a basket instead of an eagle, his fear turned to anger. He snarled and bared his teeth and rushed at Dame Instinct and Jack and Janet.

"Waugh! I eat folks who thump me on the back!" growled the brown bear.

"Oh, you do, do you!" said Dame Instinct sharply. "And I cuff rude bear who haven't better manners than to growl at folks that way."

What did Dame Instinct do them but hop out of the basket and give the surprised brown bear a cuff on one side of his head and then on the other.

(What happened then will be told Friday.)

1922 New Prospects

The leader called Father Time, should have prepared a chart containing three times as many numbers as there are players, and should have written in a notebook, called the Scroll of Destiny, the numbered prospects to correspond. This chart should be hung where all can see it. The odd numbers should be "fortune figures," and the even numbers character figures. Each player, in turn, asks, "What are my prospects for 1922?" And Father Time replies, "Choose your figures from the mystic chart. Take one odd number and one even number."

Player No. 1, for instance, then choose No. 11 and No. 24, and Father Time, after looking the answers up in his notebook, may announce, "No. 11 in the Scroll of Destiny tells me that the year will be successful for you. You will have few disappointments, if your character is strong enough to control circumstances." Then, turning to No. 24, he reads, "Your character is frank, without guile. You see the straight road ahead. But you do not travel every day. Too often you put progress off until tomorrow." Father Time then sums up "Prospects are good, but character needs to be improved by following the motto, Do it now to make your New Year fortunate."

If there are many players, the readings should be shorter, such as "Your best dreams will come true," "Let head control your heart," "You will get all you deserve," "You will be loved by too many," etc.

Universal Suffrage For Japan Sought by Opposition Party

TOKYO, Dec. 6.—(Associated Press Mail)—The Kenseikai or opposition party in preparing to introduce the universal suffrage bill at the approaching session of the Imperial Diet. Viscount Kato, president and leaders of the party, meeting here, decided to strike out the article, "persons leading an independent life," from the bill. The limitation hitherto adhered to by the party has been regarded by the people as an obstacle to the realization of universal suffrage, but the party decided to cancel it in consideration of the sudden change of political ideas of the people. The introduction of the bill will be one of the special features of the approaching Diet.

Vladivostok Misery Reaches High Pitch

TOKYO, Dec. 7.—(Associated Press Mail)—Misery and suffering in Vladivostok among the Russian population is greater than at any time since the overthrow of the Czarist government. Thousands are out of work, have no food and most of them are scantily clad. To make matters worse, fuel prices are exorbitant.

These conditions are described in a letter from Mrs. Pray, local representative, to the officials of the American Red Cross in Tokyo.

Some time ago the Red Cross chapter appealed to its members and a fund of about 500 yen was raised. The Vladivostok workers asked that no supplies be sent into the city, as customs duties on all things are exorbitant. They desired only cash contributions and their plan is to purchase materials from which the Russian refugees will make fancy needlework. Samples of this work are on their way to Japan and the chapter here will take orders and forward the funds to Vladivostok. Those directing the relief work intend to make the Russians earn by producing. The committee intends to find the market for the production and furnish the initial capital.

Need of More Music In Homes Perceived

If American homes are the social and economic centers around which our great commonwealth revolves then our first consideration should be the development of the home in its highest sense.

In the old fashioned home, before the age when there were so many alluring entertainments outside of the home, much of the joy of life came from the joy that was made in the home by the people who lived in it. The home circle is one of the greatest treasures in the memory of those who have known one. Those who have not are to be pitied. There is no substitute—nothing "just as good" and nothing that can possibly take its place.

Music has been the delight of millions of homes. Music that the people in the homes make themselves rather than music they go out of the home to hear. Let father, mother, uncle and aunt do everything possible to foster the love and study of music among the children. This does not merely mean preaching about it, but taking a lively interest in music in the home, playing with the children and letting them take an active part in home musical life.

One of the reasons why some children do not take any interest in practice is that the little ones feel that they have to carry the entire burden of the work. Their parental advisors tell them to practice but give no indication of ever attempting to help them or set them an example.

Get together in little groups now and bring music right to your heart-side. The automobile, golf, moving pictures and other interesting entertainment add a great deal to life, but if they lead our American people away from this great joy of music in the home they will have been dearly bought.

The strength of the individual often depends upon the strength of the home. Boys and girls "go bad" not so much because they are born bad as because the home has been undermined with vicious frivolity instead of those things which make for fine minds, clean bodies, high ideals. Music is one of the chief of these. Don't neglect it!—The Etude.

Philippine Budget Is Slashed a Third

MANILA P. I. Nov. 30.—(Associated Press Mail)—The government budget for the year 1922 as recommended to the legislature by Governor General Leonard Wood, amounts to $36,269,296, or about $10,000,000 less than the amount appropriated for the year 1921. It was explained that although the revenue of the government next year would amount only to $31,525,717 the current surplus at the beginning of 1922, amounting to $5,982,076 would give the government ample funds to cover its needs during the ensuing year. The surplus, it was pointed out, arises from the fact that appropriations have been made for certain public works, but that the money has not yet been released.

The largest single recommendation made was for the department of public instruction which amounts to $9,927,646. The sum of $720,000 is recommended for the University of the Philippines, in addition to the amount for the department of public instruction.

Australia Has Capital To Use in New Guinea

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Dec. 5.—(Associated Press Mail)—A large amount of capital is ready to be invested in the former German plantations in the mandated territory of New Guinea, it is understood here, following the announcement of Premier Hughes that the government intended to dispose of the holdings on a freehold basis.

The policy is in accordance with the advice of the majority report of the Royal Commission which inquired recently into the future administration of the territories. One member of the commission, Judge Murray who is Lieutenant governor of Papua, expressed himself in favor of nationalization of the properties which are mainly coconut plantations. The two other members opposed this on the ground that copra production was not such an urgent requirement as to justify the undertaking. The movement involves an expenditure of approximately £2,500,000. A proposal leasing the plantations also was rejected because of the large capital necessary and because investors would find it difficult to obtain an advance on leasehold securities. The total value of the former enemy properties in private ownership has been estimated at £4,300,000, of which the four largest German companies owned plantations valued at £2,140,000.

Much criticism has been aimed recently at the Expropriation Board which is administering the properties, it being declared that the plantations are in a ruinous condition, Chairman Lucas, of the board denied these statements and declared that the plantations are cared for as well as they were under the previous German owners.

There to Stay

The pile of flints still to be broken was a very large one, thought the stone-breaker, as he gazed at it disconsolately between his bites at a large sandwich of bread and cheese. A minister came along and gave him a cheery "Good-morning," remarking afterward that he had a deal of work to get through yet.

"Aye," said the eater, "them stones are like the Ten Commandments."

"Why so?" inquired the genial parson.
"You can go on breaking 'em" came the reply, "but you can't never get rid of 'em."—The Christian-Evangelist (St. Louis.)

Manager Will Learn What Type of Films Children Like Best

Considerable criticism of the type of movies being shown to children in the picture theaters has appeared in the Honolulu and the Hilo press and in both Honolulu and Hilo there have been printed interviews with welfare workers, juvenile court officers and others in which it has been asserted freely that the character of pictures being shown is responsible for much juvenile delinquency. Serious and so-called "faded stuff" is subject of the more severe strictures.

Manager Harris of the Maui Amusement Company has decided to go to the problem in the right way, to go to the very root of it and to find out from the children themselves what sort of pictures they like best and why they like the pictures of type they say they prefer. He has therefore started an essay contest and has offered prizes for the children who tell their side of the question best. For the essay which is considered best he offers a month of free admissions, for the second best two weeks free entry, for the third best one week of free movies and ten other prizes to the next ten writers in order.

Serials Have Pull

"The serials seldom fail to bring a howl of delight from the youngsters who follow each chapter with real enthusiasm," says Manager Harris. On the face of it, they seem to like the serials better than good comedies. Let's find out whether this is really so or only seems so, and let's have the children tell us.

"Without doubt pictures of the serial type have a tremendous magnetism or drawing power for patrons of a certain class. Equally without doubt there is food for reflection on the why of the liking especially among the children.

Home Life Composed

In every American home there is always a scramble for the comic supplement when Dad brings home the weekly paper, yet every boy and some girls too, delight in sneaking out back of the barn or up in the attic with the latest addition of Diamond Dick or Nick Carter hidden in their blouse where they can peruse the exciting pages of darddevil adventure safe from the watchful eye of Ma or Pa who will not allow such literature in the house.

"Taking into consideration the fact that we have here children of many different nationalities, we have arranged a contest among the young patrons with prizes to be awarded for the best essay of 200 word entitled, 'What my favorite picture is, and why I like it best.'

"The opinion of the children as written in their essays should prove interesting and may show why certain pictures are responsible for sowing the seeds of crime in the minds of our future citizens."

Only Small Sum of Cash Is Found Upon Truax When Taken

In the Wailuku jail, Marion L. Truax awaits action of the grand jury. He was brought back from Honolulu Saturday morning by County Clerk Kaee and was taken into the district court and charged with "jumping" his hotel bill at the Wailuku Hotel. He was then taken up stairs and plunging his hotel bill and of forgery for raising the check of Dr. George Aiken from $20 to $120. Truax said he did not intend to jump his board bill but had intended coming back to settle it later.

Truax's conduct in Honolulu does not carry out the theory that he had expected to make a "getaway" on the Monday steamer. He stopped at the Young Hotel and when arrested had only about $25.

Sheriff Crowell says that Truax said he would contest the cases of defrauding the Wailuku Hotel and of raising the check of Dr. Aiken but admitted issuing fraudulent checks here and said he issued others in Honolulu but would make them good if he were given time.

The gold which he is alleged to have taken and melted down in Dr. Aiken's office was found by the Honolulu police and taken in charge and was expected to be sent over by the Kilauea this morning.

Pastor Waits Sneak Thief and Detects Him Entering Home

Rev. George H. DeKay turned detective Sunday evening and a sneak thief who entered his house has a sore head in consequence. The police department is looking for a man with bruises on his head and it is probable the parsonage of Kahului Church will not be invaded by the same offender again soon.

Several times small sums of money have been missed from the main house and the cottage of the parsonage at Kahului and two ladies' watches have disappeared. Mr. DeKay became convinced that some one watched the comings and goings of himself and family, especially since most of the thefts had occurred on Sunday evenings.

Last Sunday evening Mr. DeKay asked Rev. E. E. Pleasant to take his pulpit and did a little investigation for himself. He went to church but returned almost at once to his home which was in darkness. He stationed himself in the bath room and waited, leaving the door partly open into the adjacent room.

Soon Mr. DeKay heard stealthy steps upon the lanai. Then the outer door was opened cautiously and closed after the person who entered the room. Mr. DeKay was still waiting when the bath room door was opened wider and a flash light turned full upon him. He had armed himself with a koa wood walking stick and twice struck the man over the head. The thief managed to open the outer door and ran, pursued by the minister who was unable to overtake his quarry.

Mr. DeKay says he was unable to see the face of the sneak thief clearly and his chief clue for identification is the man wore a black hat.

Maui Girl Selected Hotel Co. Manager

Mrs. Russell B. Bridgeford, nee Miss Helen Macfarlane, has been selected as manager of the Maui Hotel Company and has resigned her position as assistant librarian of the Maui County Library effective the first of February, it was learned yesterday. Her selection had been rumored for several days.

Mrs. Bridgeford is not without experience in handling an institution larger than the hotels she will take over. Before her return to Maui and her marriage here she was matron at Queen's Hospital in Honolulu. She is a Maui girl and a sister of Lady Macfarlane of Kula.

W. H. Field will start his vacation when Mrs. Bridgeford is ready to take over the work and will make a trip to the mainland first, returning to the Islands later. For years he has been unable to leave business for any protracted rest and it will be a relief to him to get to the mainland, footloose and free from cares and business anxieties.

Mrs. Bridgeford was selected for the position from among several applicants and will take up the work

Territorial Grand Jury Is Sworn In

Members of the territorial grand jury for this circuit were sworn in before Judge Burr yesterday morning all those summoned being on hand for the opening of proceedings though three were a few minutes late, arriving while Judge Burr was delivering his charge. They had good excuses for the few minutes of tardiness.

Judge Burr's charge was clear and concise and did not deal with any special subjects or recommendations, merely covering the general duties of grand jury as an inquisitorial and an accusing body. The judge named F. B. Cameron as chairman.

Immediately after being sworn in, the grand jury retired to the district court room which is reserved for their deliberations. It is understood that their work of yesterday and today deals chiefly with cases arising in the Lahaina district which furnishes the larger number of cases at this session. Next Makawao district may be taken up and then Wailuku.

No especially important developments out of the ordinary are expected though the investigation as to the death of White at Kahului may develop some facts that may put a different aspect on that case.

New Bond Filed—In an application for a restraining order from interference with the marketing of a pineapple crop there was considerable excitement in the circuit court on Friday afternoon. It was shown that one surety under the bond had not appeared before the notary and the other surety was not qualified as his property was an automobile he used in for rent service. He said he was advised that did not make any difference by an attorney in the case. The matter was finally adjusted by the filing of a new bond but some ugly charges were passed back and forth.

Kahului Wharf Site—E. D. Tenney, president of the Matson Steamship Company at a recent meeting of the board of harbor commissioners read a letter from Capt. P. M. Mr. Tenney said he hoped ways and means would be provided for big vessels to go along side but that under conditions as he understands them he does not see how his company could use the wharf as planned.

Maui Woman's Club

The largest attendance in several months was at the monthly meeting yesterday. The program was in charge of Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, chairman of the Music Department of the club, who deserves much credit for planning such an ambitious afternoon of music. The numbers were from Handel's "Messiah."

Mrs. E. E. Boyum gave a very interesting paper on the life of Handel, and then announced each number by reading the lines of the song.

Mrs. Kunewa opened the musical part of the program with the "Overture" played with expressive feeling and was followed by vocal numbers. Mr. Harry Washburn Baldwin, and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, all of whom were in excellent voice and gave their numbers with splendid effect.

The program was concluded with the stirring, magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus" sung by the entire Music Department.

The department will again sing this chorus at Easter time, and many who heard it yesterday have expressed their intention of hearing it again then.

Special Election to Fill Vacancy Must Be Called by Governor

Governor Farrington will call a special election to fill the vacancy in the office of delegate to congress caused by the death of Delegate Kaho, is the advice that comes from Honolulu, thus precipitating a contest which was not expected to develop until the primaries next summer. Kaho's term would not have expired until March 4, 1923, and the Organic Act "directs" the calling of an election by the governor to fill a vacancy in the office of delegate, unless such vacancy occurs within five months of the expiration of the congressional term. The provision is mandatory.

The direct primary law provides that in the event of a special election no primary election is necessary and this apparently points the way to the holding of party conventions in the old way. It is desired to avoid the possibility of one party having several candidates on the ticket and the other having only one nominee.

Governor Farrington is quoted as saying that he feels there should be sufficient time for the parties to present their candidates and issues to the voters before the calling of such special election.

It is considered possible to centralize on one candidate either through party primaries or a party convention.

On Maui there will have to be some rapid registration work done since at the last election there was only one candidate to be voted for and a large number of voters did not go to the polls and the names of those not voting have been stricken from the great register.

County Enforcement Of Prohibition Law To Be Undertaken

Prohibition laws are to be enforced by the county officials and violations enforced in the territorial courts of this county. Before U. S. Attorney Huber left for Honolulu last week he had meetings with the county attorney and the sheriff on the subject and a general plan was outlined though further advice are expected to come from the office of the attorney general so there may be uniform practice by the officials of all of the counties.

It is plain that jurisdiction is given to the courts of the territory to enforce the prohibition law and to punish violations. The United States Attorney takes the ground that the law as passed by congress is as effective on jurisdiction as if it were territorial legislation. The county officials will go ahead on such a supposition. If, however, any person arrested wants to attack the jurisdiction of the courts he can be sent to Honolulu for trial in the federal court. This would cost the accused more in time and trouble and money than to stand trial here and it is not thought likely the point will be raised.

Homesteaders Find Pines Are Best Crop

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Jan. 10.—Land Commissioner Bailey has issued a statement to the effect that pineapples are proving the best and most profitable crop for homesteaders this year. This is due to the industrial slump which pineapple growers have not experienced as they have had practically no difficulties in marketing their crops at good profits. On Oahu homesteaders are prosperous for that reason while on some of the Kauai homesteads and on the island of Hawaii they suffer from financial stringency since practically all of lands were planted to cane.

Islands Exports Show Heavy Decline in Year

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Jan. 6.—Customs figures received show a decrease in value of Hawaiian exports of 60 percent over the figures of 1920 and a decrease of 25 percent as compared with 1919. Shipments of 1921 totalled in value $71,669,115 compared with the total of 1920 of $192,383,185 and $98,363,015 in 1919.

The decrease is largely due to the drop in the price of sugar during the past year. Sugar shipments are but $7,066 tons less than the corresponding period of last year but the value has dropped more than $100,000.

With the exception of coffee and canned pineapples all products of exportation show a decrease.

PEKIN, Jan. 9—(Associated Press)—Relations between the Chinese government and the British legation here are strained following the boycott of a British firm at Amoy early last December. Official business is still resumed and it is hinted that the recall of the British minister may be asked.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9—(Associated Press)—Private steamship owners announced that they will make wage reductions of from 15 to 25 percent on their ships immediately, following the decision of the Pacific American Shipowner's Association.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9—(Associated Press)—Prohibition director Haynes while speaking here on prohibition enforcement said in part, "The prohibition law is not a failure and though the enforcement of it will probably never reach 100 percent, it is rapidly approaching its maximum point."

Children on Four Routes Will Ride To School Daily

Transportation of school children cannot be carried on upon such an extensive scale as the committee recommended to the board of supervisors because of the high rates of transportation in some instances. The board considers that only $2000 is available for the remainder of this school year, leaving $3000 to be spent for the remainder of the biennial period.

Four contracts have been decided upon by the board for taking children who live at a remote distance to school, two are in the Hana district, one in Lahaina district and one on Molokai. There may be another Molokai contract or there may be one from Pukohi to Lahaina if better offers are to be received.

Honokohau children who have in some instances been walking 12 miles to and from school are to have transportation. They will be taken to Honokohau. Thomas Medeiros has agreed to transport them at 25 cents a day each child.

In the Hana district children will be taken back and forth from Kaeleki to Hana for 29 cents a day and from Hana to Hana for 39 cents a day. Joseph Oliveira has the contract.

Except for one Molokai route, rates were too high, one proposal being at the rate of 79 cents a day.

Mauna Kea Crowded, Take Kilauea, Says Inter-Island Company

Warning is sounded by the Inter-Island Company that the Mauna Kea will probably be able to take few and perhaps no passengers from Lahaina on Friday night for Honolulu because of the large numbers who desire to go from the Big Island to attend the funeral services of Prince Kihio Kalamanaole at the Capitol on Sunday. The company advises prospective Maui passengers to arrange to go on the Kilauea on Saturday night and so avoid possible disappointment at Lahaina.

It is possible that the Kilauea will run to Hilo on its trip out of Honolulu next Monday night. Big Islanders asked the company to run the Kilauea to Hilo Sunday night but this was impossible without causing inconvenience to too many Maui folk. Instead, the Kilauea may continue on to Hilo from Kahului on Tuesday morning. If that be done she will sail from Kahului at 6:30 instead of 7 o'clock but will return to Kahului at her usual time on Wednesday.
