TROPICAL TIMES.

In The Metropolis.

The trouble between the "missionaries" and the "boxers," in Honolulu has assumed an acute phase, and every steamer brings startling developments.

Attorneys Kinney, Ballou and Hartwell, on behalf of their client, Walter G. Smith, moved for a change of venue, and in support of the motion filed an affidavit in which severe reference was made to the "personal weaknesses" of Judge Humphreys, who thereupon found the three attorneys guilty of contempt of court and sentenced each of them to thirty days imprisonment. Acting Governor Cooper thereupon issued a pardon to each of the attorneys, and the whole affair seems to have simmered down to a contest between Judge Humphreys and Governor Cooper, as to whether the former can issue mitimuses faster than the latter can issue pardons.

While there is little doubt but that the rulings of Judge Humphreys are technically correct, still the sympathies of the people of Maui generally are with the conservative element of the republican party in Honolulu, for the reason that it is felt that Judge Humphreys is unduly severe, and further that he has allowed his personal feelings to sway him.

A very pretty little fight is on, and it will be a fight to the finish, with plenty of startling developments to come. Bright and brainy men are enlisted on either side, and while the interference of Governor Cooper with ready pardons might under other circumstances be viewed with grave concern by those who wish to see the laws enforced and the dignity of the courts upheld, yet the present trouble is generally regarded by the people as a little family row which it is better for the parties interested to settle as they can.

Since the above was written, Honolulu papers of Thursday have arrived, from which it is learned that the Bar Association of Honolulu have adopted a resolution to present formal charges against Judge Humphreys and ask his removal by President McKinley.

Plantation Changes.

Quite a number of changes take place on the Wailuku Plantation today. W. G. Ogg, former head overseer at Waihee will come to Wailuku and accept the position of assistant manager during Mr. Wells' absence. Mr. J. W. Marshall, present head overseer at Wailuku will go to Waihee to take the position vacated by Mr. Ogg. Robert Peplowski will succeed Mr. Marshall as head overseer at Wailuku, and Mr. Frank Summerfield will succeed Mr. Peplowski as irrigating luns. Mr. Ogg will occupy the manager's house at Wailuku, and Mr. Peplowski will occupy the Marshall residence.

Early in July, Manager Wells and family will leave for six months tour of the islands, and will visit the principal cities of Europe before his return, late in December or early in January.

Probable Attempted Robbery.

On last Saturday evening, Tameda Saku, a Japanese at Camp 5, Spreckelsville, was assaulted and seriously wounded by William Stally, a negro who had arrived the week before from Alabama.

The Japanese claims that the negro attempted to rob him and that he resisted and threw the negro down, whereupon the latter drew a jack knife and stabbed him eight or nine times. The Japanese was conveyed to the hospital at Spreckelsville for treatment, and will probably recover.

The negro claims that the Japanese committed an unprovoked assault upon him and that he did the stabbing in self defense. The negro was arrested and is being held for examination.

The majority of the negroes at Camp 5 who are a respectable and industrious class of people, feel deeply chagrined at the occurrence, as they feel that it will unjustly prejudice all of them in the eyes of the Islands. Consequently they called a mass meeting and adopted a lengthy resolution touching the matter, in which they ask in a manly way that they be not judged harshly as a class, on account of a ruffianly assault by a negro with whom they have nothing in common. A copy of the resolutions was sent to the News for publication, but was too lengthy to be used in full.

The Japanese of Spreckelsville have threatened to do up the negroes at Camp 5, and also to go on a strike till all the negroes be sent away from the plantation, but better counsels have prevailed, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Makawao Teachers Meeting.

(The following communication was received last week, but too late for insertion.)

The May meeting of the Makawao Teachers' Circle was held at Makawao last Monday afternoon. Teachers were present from Spreckelsville, Paia, Hamakua, Haku, Huelo, Kaupakuhua, Makawao and Kula schools.

Miss Oss spoke of "Geography for First Year's Pupils." She quoted from the course of study and said that all the first year's work in nature study should be carried on by observation and oral lessons, and that no written work should be attempted.

A very thorough and interesting lesson from the "American Poems" was led by Mrs. Sabey. The life of Lowell was read and commented on. The Prelude to Part First and Part First of "The Vision of Sir Launfal" were read and discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thwing were present at the meeting. Mr. Thwing in a few words spoke of his work in schools in China and contrasted that with the work in Hawaiian schools.

The program for the meeting on the seventeenth of June will be as follows:—"Vision of Sir Launfal." Miss Smith.

Meteorology in the Primary, Intermediate and Advanced Classes. Mr. Dowdle.

Closing Exercises for the Ordinary Hawaiian Schools. Miss Crook. Comets, Mr. D. D. Baldwin.

Wedding Bells at Kahului.

Yesterday at noon, D. H. Davis, better known to his hosts of friends as "Dickie" Davis, of the Honolulu Meat Co., was married to Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kirkland, of Kahului; Rev E. B. Beckwith officiating.

The wedding was a private and informal affair, only a few very intimate friends being present. The wedded couple took this morning's Kinai for Honolulu where they will make their home. Both of them are quite popular, and have hosts of friends to wish them a long and happy married life.

SHIPPING NEWS

On the 16th instant, according to reports brought by the steamship Gaelic, the Oregon sailed from Yokohama for Honolulu. A fast voyage was not intended by her commander, who planned to be in Honolulu about Thursday.

The schooner Helen N. Kimball, cleared from San Francisco on the 13th instant for Fanning Island via Kahului. It is expected that George B. Gregg, the "king of Fanning Island," will return to San Francisco in the schooner.

A seven-masted schooner, said to be the largest ever built, is under construction, at Franklin, Frenchman's Bay, Me. It will be 335 feet long on the keel, with a beam of 54 feet and depth of 32 feet. The big schooner will have a tonnage of 4,000, and is to cost $156,000.

OAKLAND, May 18.—Shortly after the mighty Ohio slid from the ways at the Union Iron Works today a similar event, of happy augury for Oakland's future, the launching of the first home-built vessel, took place at W. A. Boole & Son's shipyard, at the foot of Adeline street. When Miss Lilla Boole broke a bottle of California champagne over the vessel's bow and pronounced the words, "I christen thee Lahaina," she was cheered from pier and shore and waiting steamers by thousands of spectators, among whom were the members of the Oakland Board of Trade, the Merchants' Exchange, the City Council and other city officials and invited guests, including many people prominent in Oakland and San Francisco society.
