NEW MAIL SERVICE A FACT

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED BY NEW ZEALAND.

Steamers Every Two Weeks With the English Mails—Details of the Plan Made Public.

The much talked of fortnightly mail service between Auckland and San Francisco has at length been arranged, and will be inaugurated on April 1st, according to advices received by the S. S. Alameda today. An understanding has been reached between the Oceanic and Canadian-Australia lines whereby the steamers of the respective lines will leave Auckland and San Francisco every fourteen days, alternately, the Oceanic steamers making the voyage in 19 days and the Canadian liners in 21 1/2 days.

Mail Agent Isbister of the Alameda confirmed the news this morning. He says that the New Zealand legislature, before the Christmas adjournment, voted a minimum annual subsidy of £7500 to establish the service. According to the terms of the agreement the steamship companies are to receive 10s 6d per pound for letters, 3d for book packets and 5d for newspapers. Under the old arrangement the steamship companies received 12s for letters, while all other mail matter went free, and the steamship people had to take what they could make. Now the New Zealand government guarantees a minimum of £7500 per annum, and allows the steamship people to make all over that sum they can.

The steamship people expect a good thing, as it is more than probable the bulk of English mails that now go to Australia by way of the Suez canal, will in the future come this way. During the past year the earnings of the steamship people on the mail contracts have averaged about £7500.

By the new arrangement the time of the Oceanic liners between Auckland and San Francisco is lessened one day, and the time of the Canadian steamers about one week, as the latter line has hitherto been conducting a four-weekly service. Under such an arrangement it frequently happens that the steamers of the two companies arrive here but a day or two apart, or even on the same day.

It is said that the arrangement is most satisfactory to the general parties concerned. At least the people of Honolulu can be assured of two regular mails a month from the coast.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.

Valdemar Knudsen, who came to the Islands in 1851, died of old age at the Arlington hotel early this morning. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Arlington hotel.

Mr. Knudsen resided on Kauai from whence he came last month, en route to San Francisco. He leaves a widow, three boys and two girls. One of his daughters was Mrs. H. M. von Holt.

WILL SAIL NEXT WEEK.

The Australia, sailing next Wednesday, will take away quite a few passengers. Among those booked to sail are H. P. Baldwin of Maui, Miss Billings, Miss W. A. Akers, Miss Stanley, Mrs. C. A. Bennett, M. Howard, J. H. Wilson, J. E. Dean, Mrs. Winchell and maid, A. H. Bachelder, H. C. Bush, George Castle, Miss Daisy Kern, William Kern, J. E. Dean, Miss L. E. Whittier.

HORSE RACES COMING.

The horsemen have announced that a special race meet will be held at Kapiolani park track on March 17th. The committee fostering the meet comprises William Cunningham, John Sullivan, James Dodd, Charles Bellina and Charles J. McCarthy.

ENTERTAINED CITY FRIENDS.

Mr. Kunst, a visitor, was the host at a picnic party given at the Monsarrat place at Nu. There were several wagonette loads of guests. The Quintette club accompanied them.

SUCCEEDS MR. LANSING.

THE PRESIDENT OFF TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Hawaiian Government, After Careful Consideration, Plays a Very Strong Card.

WILL CONSULT THE UNITED STATES' EXECUTIVE.

Sanford B. Dole Leaves by the S. S. Peru Saturday, To Be Absent Six Weeks or More.

The steamship Peru, the big ocean liner, which is due to leave here for San Francisco, day after tomorrow, will take away as passengers President Sanford Ballard Dole, Major Curtis P. Hauke, the President's secretary, and Dr. F. R. Day, as physician.

The party will go direct to Washington from San Francisco, where he will meet President McKinley and his administration and confer with them upon pending annexation matters. Immediately upon his arrival in Washington, the President will consult with Minister Hatch, Secretary Castle and Lorin A. Thurston, president of the Annexation club.

WILL BE ABSENT SIX WEEKS.
From present arrangements the President will be absent six or seven weeks, and possibly two months. He will not be back in Honolulu much before March 1st.

It is not the desire that the President shall travel about addressing different meetings and bodies on the Hawaiian question. It is doubtful if he will appear before the committees of either branch of Congress to be questioned on Hawaiian affairs.

BEST FRIENDS ADVISED IT.
The best friends of the government and annexation sincerely believe that the President's departure for Washington is one of the very strongest moves. His presence in Washington will give great strength to the annexation cause. There are other good arguments in favor of his going to the front.

WILL ACT AS PRESIDENT.
Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper will act as Chief Executive during the absence of President Dole in Washington.

MR. CARTER LEAVES TODAY.
J. O. Carter, Sr., leaves today on the Alameda for Washington, where he will use his efforts to defeat annexation.

STOP AT THE WATER EDGE.
Partisanship, as the old phrase goes, should stop at the water edge. Because the annexation of Hawaii is a Republican measure is not reason for Democratic hostility to it, says the New York Journal. Rather the party which has to its credit now all the United States west of the Mississippi river, Florida and Texas, should see that future generations will recognize democratic initiative in the annexation of Hawaii.

DRUG FIRM INCORPORATES.
Benson, Smith & Co. Make a New Departure.

The drug firm of Henry M. Benson and George W. Smith has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Benson retiring. The business has now been incorporated under the firm of Benson, Smith & Company, Limited, with George W. Smith as president, J. H. Fisher vice president, J. A. Kennedy secretary, S. L. Ramsey treasurer, and George F. McLeod auditor.

These officers comprise the directory.

The drug firm has been established fourteen years. It has prospered under careful and able management and today is a leading firm in the Islands.

EMPIRE SALOON.
Under the new management of L. H. Dee this popular place is to be made one of the best in the city. Workmen are now busily engaged in changing, and no expense will be spared to put everything in first class shape.

ADVERTISED FOR A HUSBAND.
A marriage which was brought about by an advertisement in a Chicago matrimonial paper, and which has aroused a great deal of comment among the relatives of the bride and groom, was that of Mrs. Joseph Laurier of Binghamton, N. Y., and Leroy H. Wright of San Francisco. Mrs. Laurier is an ardent admirer of the Remington bicycle and it was through the advertisement of a husband who rode a Remington that she procured her wish. Pacific Cycle and Manufacturing Company have Remingtons for rent.

ICE HOUSE GOODS.
At the California Fruit Market—Cammarino's—can be found at all times the choicest fruits and all kinds of poultry and game. Fresh goods received on every steamer.

A convincing argument. An argument in The Star.

TEN THOUSAND APPROPRIATED.
A ballot was taken on the question, and not one dissented. The Councilors voted an appropriation of $10,000 and instructed the President to choose his secretary and physician. That the latter should go was necessary for the President has not been in the best of health lately, and then again, the change in climate at this season of the year is very decided and might cause the President considerable difficulty unless he was careful.

NAMES HIS COMPANIONS.
The President immediately selected Major Curtis P. Hauke, a representative Hawaiian, as his secretary, and Dr. F. R. Day, as physician.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Dole had not decided whether she would accompany the President or not. It is quite likely that she may go as far as California with him and visit relatives while the President goes on to Washington.

WILL GO LATER.
Annexation Club Sure to Dispatch a Delegation of Hawaiians.

The proposition of sending a delegation of native Hawaiian annexationists to Washington is receiving sincere consideration by the Annexation club. There was brief consideration given the matter at the Council of State meeting yesterday afternoon. The government decided not to undertake the matter but should the Annexation club desire to carry out the scheme no objection would be forthcoming from the government.

It appears that a majority of the executive committee of the Annexation club are in favor of sending a delegation to the front as quickly as possible. Efforts will be made to prevail upon Col. Samuel Parker, John Ena, J. M. Poepe and J. L. Kaulukou to make up the delegation.

DANCED ON BOARD.
The reception and hop given on board the United States training ship Adams, yesterday afternoon, was patronized by a good number of society people. The Baltimore and Bennington were well represented.

The Adams will leave Honolulu for San Francisco today.

A SUGAR DEFENCE LEAGUE.
A meeting of the sugar farmers was held recently in New South Wales with the object of forming a sugar defence league. The following motions were carried: 1. That this meeting is of the opinion that in the interests of the sugar industry of the colony urgent steps should be taken to prevent its extermination. 2. That the best means to give effect to the foregoing resolution is to establish a sugar defence league. 3. That the meeting at once taken the necessary steps for the formation of a league. A league was then formed and the officers and committees elected.

SUPREMACY IN THE PACIFIC.
Five years ago annexation commanded the assent of the nation as a wise provision for the future, observes the Philadelphia Press. The swift history of five years has proved annexation the imminent necessity of the immediate present. Delay was never more dangerous. The Senate must plant the flag at Honolulu and begin American supremacy in the Pacific.

WHAT SAILOR MEN TALK OF

S. S. ALAMEDA ARRIVES FROM THE COLONIES.

Ship Fort George on Her Way Here—Fire on the A. W. Spies—Water Front News and Gossip.

S. S. Alameda sails for San Francisco at 3 p. m.

The Kilauea Hou arrived from Hawaii ports this morning after a rough voyage. She brought some miscellaneous freight.

The bark Nuuanu will be ready to go to Kahului to finish loading next week, and it is likely that the Claudine will tow her out Tuesday afternoon.

The barkentine Kikikat finished discharging lumber yesterday, and is ready for sea. Captain Cutler is anxious to get away this afternoon, and reach the Sound in time to take advantage of the high tides.

The British bark Ethelbert, recently in this port, has been chartered on the Columbia river to carry wheat to Cape Town at the high rate of 90 shillings. Charters in England are practically unobtainable, even at the high rate of 50 shillings.

The S. S. Alameda arrived from the Colonies this morning, and hauled alongside the Mail dock about 8 o'clock. All the way from Suva she has encountered strong northeast winds and heavy head seas, a most unusual thing at this season of the year. The Alameda brings but 32 tons of cargo and has a light passenger list.

The fine ship Fort George, now sailing under a temporary Hawaiian registry, is expected to arrive here about the 20th, with 2800 tons of coal for the Inter Island Steamship Company. She was loaded and ready to sail on the 1st inst by the last mail advice. The Fort George is partially owned here. When she arrives application will be made for a permanent registry for her.

A fire in the hold of the American ship A. W. Spies at the railroad wharf soon after midnight caused considerable excitement in the harbor. The warships in the harbor sent relief crews, with pumps and hand grenades and additional help was received from sailing vessels. The fire was in the dunnage in the after hold and was extinguished before the vessel had been at all injured. The Spies had a cargo of railroad iron most of which has already been discharged.

According to the latest advice received from Sydney, the barkentine, George C. Perkins, sailed from Lady Elliot Island for this port, coal laden, on November 19; the barkentine Gleaner from Westport on November 27th, and the five masted schooner Inca from Newcastle, on December 16. The four masted schooner Olga was to have sailed from Newcastle on the 18th ult. Vessels chartered to load at Newcastle for this port are: Schooners Golden Shore (626), King Cyrus (667), Robert Searles (505), and the barkentine McNear (1182), Planter (449) and Robert Sudden (517). The schooner William Bowden has been chartered to load coal at Westport for Honolulu.

HELP THE SAILORS' HOME

WORTHY INSTITUTION NEEDING ASSISTANCE.

The Sea Faring Folk Should Help the Landsmen in Keeping a Home for Jack Ashore.

The reports furnished by the Trustees of the Sailors' Home, show that that institution is by no means in as flourishing a condition as it should be.
Few of the shore going people know how much good is done to the transient population of a seaport by a Sailors' Home. You may have libraries, you may have Y. M. C. A. buildings, you may have dozens of philanthropic institutions, but the Sailors' Home is a place where Jack feels that he belongs. He feels that he can go there of right, and he knows he will not receive the "marble heart," as he calls it, when he walks over the steps in his sea going togs. He knows he can leave his wages in charge of the manager, and no question will be asked as to why he draws them out again.
It is to him a true "home" in a distant land, and as such, it deserves support.

The Honolulu Sailors' Home Society was founded in 1854. Writing of the original twenty trustees in 1894 it was said that only three of them remained.
At the present date of writing only one remains, H. M. Whitney; the other two, S. N. Castle and John Thomas Waterhouse, have passed over to the great majority. It may be urged that in 1854 there was greater need of a Sailors' Home than there is now, but no place that is a shipping center, as Honolulu is, can afford to be without such an institution, and call it self an enlightened town.

During its period of existence the Sailors' Home has changed its quarters. It occupied the now empty site opposite the station house for close to forty years, and then, as the town changed, was moved to its present site. Wherever it has been it has afforded a comfortable, quiet home for men who need such a place, and has done infinite good to hundreds, nay thousands, of passersby on the great highway of the world.

The question now before the public is how to help so meritorious an institution. The landman, out of the kindness of his heart, should readily give, but those who go down into the sea in ships, or those who employ seamen, or have interests in vessels, should come forward and help the good cause. Mr. F. A. Schaefer will be glad to receive any subscriptions to the institution, and to no more worthy cause can a few dollars be devoted than to the Sailors' Home.

A GOOD MOVE.

The action of the Advisory Council in deciding that President Dole should proceed to the United States to help the cause of annexation was well taken. That there should be no hesitation about his going was still better taken, for it is his visit to be of any use, it must be now. The struggle to get annexation is now on hand. The foes of annexation are using every influence they can bring to bear upon the people both in and out of the Senate. Circulars are being sent to the farmers all over the States asking for how much land they can put into beet, offering to put up machinery, and promising large returns, but stating that should the Islands be annexed, none of the prospective benefits need be looked for. This is good campaign tactics, after all. There is no let up either in love or war. But such tactics must be met, not necessarily by counter tactics of like dishonest kind, but by good honest, straightforward statement of our case, by the very best men we have who can put it.

The main object of the present government of the Islands is to obtain annexation to the United States. The Constitution of the country calls for it. It is but just that the head of the government should personally see how things are going, and add his undoubted influence to the cause. If we were burdened with a monarchy, there would be lots of formalities before the monarch could move, but the advantage of having a republic is that the President can move, untrammelled by the monarchical trappings, and frimping of that sort.

In President Dole, Minister Hatch and Lorin Thurston will have a strong coadjutor, and chief. Our annexation delegation in Washington is worked off its legs and needs help. What better help could be given it than the man who has been chosen as the head of the State and who understands conditions here, as few men have had the opportunity of understanding them.

Then Mr. Dole is a son of the soil. He has spent his life in the Islands. He has mingled with native Hawaiians from his earliest years. He understands their characteristics perfectly. He is a man of dignity and worth, and though his rancorous enemies may choose to deride him, the man shines the clearer for the attacks made upon him.

The move undertaken is a strong one, and like all strong moves it is bound to be freely attacked, but that it will have ultimate success; that it will strengthen the cause of annexation there is little doubt. A mere diplomat might have some time to waste in forcing his way into public notice in Washington. Not so President Dole. The annexation question is too burning a one in the United States not to make his visit more than notable, and the doors which might be closed to even accredited envoys will be found willingly opened for him.

From the point of view of The Star the Advisory Council has urged a decision which will be of the utmost advantage to the annexation cause, and thus to the great ultimate advantage of the Hawaiian Islands at large.

The question of the tree in Vineyard street is no question of beauty or of anything of that kind, it is a question of pure right, and it is upon that right that The Star makes its fight. According to the penal code, Section 337 and 347, the tree has no legal right to be where it is. If it has no right there must be some authority which is lacking in its duty for not having it removed. What The Star has been trying for some time to find out is who, in this country, is above the law. New streets are going to be opened, are we going to have a crop of trees left growing in them for sentimental reasons? If the Vineyard street tree is left, why not others? As a fact we are building streets, not raising gardens, and when we open a new street it should be a true street. If we want a boulevard, we can have one, but we must increase the width of the street, and plant trees through the center. An obstruction in the road is removable upon complaint. The only way a complaint for common nuisance is through the police court. Will it have to come to this?

THEY MAY FOLLOW.

The question whether a native delegation should be sent forward to Washington is being considered. It would not be proper that such a delegation should go forward with the President. The President's visit is as the head of the government, acting as the attorney, one may say, of the governing party. If a native delegation of Hawaiian annexationists goes, it should be, not as connected with the government, but as representatives of the annexationists of Hawaii. Of such representative Hawaiians the names of Sam Parker, John Ena, J. M. Poepoe, J. Lot Kaulukou, naturally occur. All are truly representative men, who have either landed, commercial or professional interests.

Sam Parker's reputation extends beyond the Islands, the positions he has held under monarchy show how he has been considered in the past, the fact that he is a large land holder and an annexationist makes him a powerful factor at the present time.

John Ena is an instance of a Hawaiian who has been wonderfully successful commercially, and his position as vice president of the Inter Island Steamship Company stamps him as a man of affairs.

J. M. Poepoe, as well as being a lawyer, is editor of the Kuakoa, and he has for years been a strong factor in politics.

J. Lot Kaulukou is member-elect for Honolulu, he has been Attorney General, and has occupied diplomatic positions abroad. He is well versed in legislative matters and is a lawyer in full practice.

If these gentlemen can be prevailed upon to go to Washington they will be able to show what ability the cause of annexation is possessed of on the Hawaiian side. They will not go with any cooked up petition signed by women and children, but they will go as the representatives of a body of men whose earnest desire is to become citizens of the United States.

HER MOTHER'S GIRL.

A bright, handsome girl on the borderland between childhood and womanhood, is at once a source of pride and anxiety to her mother. But she has grown fast and is still growing. Nature makes stern demands upon the slender body. The skin is dull, the eyes lustreless, the cheeks and neck are sunken, the appetite is capricious, and the movements languid. The trouble is impurity and sluggishness of the blood. It needs the life giving elements from which alone the body derives its vigor and health. The remedy is of the nutritive properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry Bark, has saved many such girls. It contains all the flesh-forming and strengthening qualities of the oil without its loathsome taste. The most sensitive and feeble can take it, as they take syrup, and digest it perfectly. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, stops the emaciating process, puts flesh on the thin and bony body, and rosy cheeks soon tell the story of pure blood, good digestion and recovered health. Girls and women gain weight and vigor by the use of it. To give it a trial is to believe in it always thereafter. It is food and medicine combined. Genuine only gives results from the first dose. Sold by all chemists.

PREPARATION.

Timely Topics.

December 30, 1897.

Our attention is naturally drawn to the next holiday event, which will be the races on March 17th, and horsemen and others are brushing up their harness and getting everything in order to make a good appearance on that day. Hadn't you better lay aside that old Harness and let us fit you out with a brand new set. We can give you something good and reasonable in price both in black and in russet. We also carry a large stock of Express Harness—strong and durable.

Come to think of it, we can fit you up with a "Racing," or the celebrated Whitman Riding Bit, while being easy to the horse's mouth are so arranged that a horse with a strong mouth is under full control.

To complete your outfit get one of our Linen or Momic Lap Robes. Your choice from $1 to $2.50.

We have imported some Metal Feed Boxes because we knew they would sell on sight. They can easily be attached to the manger or to a post, and will pay for themselves in a very short time, as the horse cannot waste his feed and it prevents slobbering.

Your outfit is not complete without a Whip, and we have some good ones. Also Sponges, Curry Combs, Ivory Rings, and every article necessary to complete a well equipped stable.

We haven't said much about prices, but if you have ever dealt with us past experience will tell you that they are low. The fact is we put prices down to the point that keeps our goods moving all the time.

'T WAS A MASONS' EVENING

GAY TIME AT THE PACIFIC LODGE BANQUET.

The Newly Chosen Officers were Installed into Office—Some Masterly Addresses—Harmony Prevails.

The banquet following the installation of officers of Pacific Lodge No.
822, A. F. & A. M., in the Masonic Temple, last evening, was a delightful affair. The toasts were responded to more seriously than at the Havaian Lodge banquet last week, when the speakers touched more lightly on the subjects assigned to them.

Minister Henry E. Cooper was the toastmaster. To his right sat the newly installed master of Pacific Lodge, N. E. Gedge, and on his left, Master Little of Hawaiian Lodge, Chaplain Freeman of the flagship Bat-imore invoked the blessing.

TOASTMASTER H. E. COOPER, Who Found Honolulu Masons Dead in Earnest.

In opening the evening's entertainment Toastmaster Cooper gave a neat commentary on real Neumann, who presided over the festivities of the Hawaiian Lodge banquet. He was almost a professional toastmaster and had an international reputation as a jolly good fellow. Minister Cooper stated that it had been his good fortune since arriving in Honolulu to find men who were dead to earnest in their efforts to place Masonry on its highest plane. He then called upon Referring Master John Phillips to respond to the toast of "Masonry."

After a few words of good cheer to his brother Masons, Mr. Phillips had down sound advice to those working in Masonry. He stated that it was true that many found fault with the ritual, but it cannot be altered. The ritual has been handed down from time to time, and it came correctly from mouth to ear. Chans would be inevitable were each Mason permitted to insert in the ritual what he deemed proper. Mr. Phillips spoke of the capabilities of the incoming master.
He believed the lodge was in safe keeping in his hands.

The toastmaster spoke of the hard feeling that existed when Pacific Lodge was organized but now the best of harmony prevailed. He requested the newly installed master to respond for Pacific Lodge.

Mr. Gedge responded cheerfully, saying:

"While the Pacific Lodge has not attained the maturity of manhood as far as years go, it certainly is a vigorous and healthy infant. Preliminary arrangements looking to its organization were held in April and June, of 1895. On June 10th it was erected and consecrated in accordance with the laws of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, with a charter membership of twelve.
We now have a total membership of seventy-three. The finances are in a healthy state.

"Taking up the work as laid down by Brothers Cooper and Phillips, with diffidence, yet with a certain confidence inspired by their Masonic example, I hope, with the co-operation of my brother officers and the support of the lodge in general, that we may achieve a record during the year that will justify the master or brother who responds to this toast a year hence, in expression of congratulations and felicitations on Pacific Lodge. It will be our aim to promote the growth of fraternal feeling with our sister lodges, that we may be only rivals in that generous sense of 'who best can work and best agree,' and among whom, I trust, the slightest contention may never exist."

The past masters received an eloquent eulogy from Archie F. Gillilan.
He spoke of his trials while in the chair of Hawaiian Lodge. Knowing the ritual by heart was the smallest part of the job. A serious question came before him and he had gone straight to "Honest" John Phillips for advice. "Do what your heart tells
you. Leave self out of the question, and have charity for all." Mr. Phillips words had greatly encouraged him.
The speaker pointed toward the portrait of Past Master Cartwright, and added that never was a distressed brother turned away from his door without help. Another past master who has spent years in carrying out the tenets of Masonry, was Brother Porter, who is now ill in San Francisco.

"Operative and speculative Masons," Judge Whiting said, are intimately connected. We out here in the Pacific have come from the beginning as workmen, in the operative, but have traveled the world over to meet in speculative Masonry.

"We find that it is broader, but the two are intimately connected. Speculative Masonry reaches not only our hearts and our souls, but our consequences, too. It makes men better, purer, mightier and stronger. It is the

One Large Scar

Is All That Remains of Great Scrofula Sores

Neighbors Could Not Bear to Look Upon Her—A Grand, Complete Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla
After Others Failed.

"I was taken with neuralgia in my head and eyes. Not long after this, a scrofula sore appeared on my left cheek, extending from my upper lip to my eye.
Other sores came on my neck and on my right arm and one of my limbs. They were very troublesome and painful and soon became great running sores. My face looked so bad that some of my neighbors could not bear to look at me and advised me to wear a bandage, but I feared this would irritate the sore and make it worse. So I

Could Not Hide the Sores.

My niece, who was familiar with a case similar to mine, which had been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, urged me to try it.
Finally I was persuaded to do so, and in a short time I saw it was helping me.
The sores began to heal and the neuralgia in my head was better. In a few months the sores on my arms and limbs all healed; those on my neck gradually disappeared and now they are all gone.
I have never had any symptom of scrofula since. One large scar on my right arm is all the sign that remains of my terrible affliction. The neuralgia is also cured."

carrying out of that same idea we cannot get away from. When the Grand Creator built that temple, man, he put something therein to make speculative Masonry possible. Man is the example of operative and speculative Masonry. Speculative Masonry insists upon no special religion, but faith and belief in one Supreme Architect is necessary."

Clinton B. Ripley gave a masterly address on "The Three Grand Masters." Solomon, King of Israel, was the pillar of wisdom. Hiram, King of Tyre, the pillar of strength. Hiram Abiff, the lovely born, the pillar of beauty. Mr. Ripley believed that there were great lessons for them in the lives of these great Masters.

George A. Davis in responding to the "Sister Lodges," said the Masonic fraternity was the oldest. The teachings of the grand masters had come down unimpaired to the Masons of the present day.

CLINTON B. RIPLEY,
Who Toasted to the First Three Grand Masters.

Then came Toastmaster Cooper's opportunity to get even with Paul Neumann. That genial gentleman, when he occupied the toastmaster's chair last week, had called upon the Minister for a toast, and he proposed that Mr. Neumann must pay a tribute to the ladies in order to even things up.

Mr. Neumann did so in a very happy frame of mind. He said in part:

"It is always a misfortune to have been born great. I have often wished for the power which was given to Chauncey M. Depew, but which I unfortunately have not. However, when such a toast as the one just mentioned by the worthy toastmaster is proposed, he must be a craven or an idiot who could not find some words in response. I am afraid I will have to disappoint you this evening. This has been a most serious evening. I should have liked to have touched the subject lightly, but listening to Brother Ripley has driven from me everything but the serious—a word to which I am not accustomed. My power wanes when I think of the subject. What higher praise could I give than to say that the Almighty Being used woman as a mould from which the Saviour sprung. I might, as a matter of course, follow the bent of the poets who have nothing good to say about woman. For them I will say that there were always reasons which excused them but which did not take away one particle of the love and respect we feel for them. If I have to respond to a light toast I would hardly know what to say. Mother, sister, daughter, sweetheart or wife—God has not given us anything like her, not even in the Klondike prospects."

In responding to the sister lodges, E. J. Spalding spoke of the general awakening in Masonry throughout these Islands. The Honolulu lodges have increased their membership and are enjoying prosperity. The influences of Masonry are good and he is careless, indeed, who becoming of age does not become a better man. He spoke for all the lodges when he said that the olive branch had been extended and differences existing among the local lodges have all been wiped out.

Past Grand Lecturer Bush of the Grand Lodge of California was called upon. He had arrived from California the day before and had been received with the greatest hospitality. He regretted that he did not know that he would be called upon, as he would have prepared something of interest.

"Masonry, a Progressive Moral Science," was last, but not the least, on the program. It was ably responded to by George W. Smith. He spoke of the lessons received in Masonry as factors in the development of the moral aspect of man. Masonry as a progressive moral science was the unfolding of the knowledge of man and the world. It helps a man to be upright. A brother who is stranded or sick always receives a helping hand. In that way it is moral.

During the evening Master J. Little rendered that pretty song, "Dad's Dinner Fail." B. L. Marx gave a violin solo and Mr. Braddock pleased with a piano selection. W. J. Cranwell was called upon without preparation, and very cleverly recited the "Dream of Eugene Aram."

Then the Tyler's toast was drunk in silence. The festivities concluded with "Auld Lang Syne."

The decorations were artistic and beautiful. They were arranged by Thomas Black. Caterer Chapman was responsible for the elegant banquet. The newly installed officers include: R. W. Master, Norman E. Geddes; deputy master, Clinton B. Ripley; substitute master, Alvin W. Keesh; senior warden, W. Austin Whiting; junior warden, George W. Smith; treasurer, William O. Atwater; secretary, Henry H. Williams; chaplain, Frank L. Hoogs; senior deacon, John Walker; junior deacon, Thomas Black; inner guard, Louis T. Kenake; senior steward, James P. Clay; junior steward, George C. Stratemeyer; tyler, James A. Lyle.

"Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me.
Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.
Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

SUGAR TRUST SCHEMERS

TRYING HARD TO OUTWIT OUR FRIENDS.

Circulars are Sent Broadcast to the Farmers in the Hopes of Securing Their Support.

There came from Washington in yesterday's mail the following news concerning the latest efforts of the Sugar Trust schemers to defeat annexation.

The opponents of Hawaiian annexation have not been idle during the holidays. While Congressmen and Senators have been enjoying the enforced leisure of the holiday adjournment those who have been fighting the treaty have not been idle.

One of the plans for defeating the treaty devised and executed by the Sugar trust schemers will probably influence legislation, but that it will defeat annexation is extremely doubtful. Tens of thousands of circulars have been sent to farmers in this country, asking them to inform the writers if they know of good locations for sugar beet factories. The purpose of the circular is to get agriculturalists interested in sugar beets, but the writers go on to say that if the Hawaiian treaty is ratified it will be impossible to make use of the beet growing lands or erect sugar factories.

The purpose of the carefully concocted circulars is to create the belief that the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands will make it impossible for farmers to raise and sell beets to sugar factories.

It happens that the circulars have fallen into the hands of those who believe that the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands would be a distinct advantage to this country, and, consequently, the device of the anti will have little effect on legislation.

Mr. Elisha Berry of this place says he never had anything do him so much good and give such quick relief from rheumatism as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee until he used this liniment, which affords prompt relief. R. F. Baker, druggist, St. Paris, Ohio. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Are you getting your share of business these days? Well, you can do so and prevent the "dark horse" winning the watermelon by advertising in The Star.

President Will See That the Scheme is Carried Through.

WASHINGTON, December 27.—Mr.
McKinley announced to his numerous Republican senatorial callers today that he would stand by the Hawaiian annexation subject, in spite of the advice he had received from some of them to abandon it, and he hoped to see the treaty taken up as soon as the holiday recess was over, and pressed to a vote. He intimated that he should do everything in his power to promote its ratification. If the two-thirds vote necessary to ratify the treaty cannot be had the bill or joint resolution plan will be promptly put in operation.
