PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, JUNE 27, 1894.

Wiltze Redivivus.

It is generally stated to-day by leading p. g. men, that the American minister has signified his readiness to land the troops under the command of Admiral Walker on the Fourth and allow the new "republic" to be proclaimed beneath Uncle Sam's bayonets. We have reason to believe that there is no truth in the statement, yet the course of Minister Willis has been so that we must be prepared for any action on his part. Nothing better could happen to the royalist cause than such an act of the United States representative.

President Cleveland has, officially and publicly, admitted that the establishment of the provisional government on the 17th of January, 1893, was accomplished through the offices of minister Stevens, and even the Harrison administration disavowed the Stevens-Wiltze move in establishing a temporary protectorate over Hawaii. If the Willis-Walker combination is to follow in the footsteps of Stevens-Wiltze and use American moral and physical pressure while the Hawaiian republic is being proclaimed, they will be entitled to the same blame, the same odium and the same censure which fell on the heads of their predecessors, and they will jeopardize their official positions. If the Hawaiian republic is competent to exist on its own merits, let it appear to the world that such is the case. If the republic is dependent on the bayonets of United States troops let it be never be born. A voluntary support of the people is the only safeguard of a republic. Wiltze is dead, Stevens is forgotten. One went to his grave a disappointed, misled and heart-broken man; the other found his political grave through his fanaticism and unscrupulousness. Both are forgotten. It would probably be well for Messrs. Willis and Walker to benefit by this historical example.

Very Likely.

It is stated that the reason why the Fourth of July has been selected as the day on which the republic shall be proclaimed is, that the usual salutes will be fired at noon of that day by the war vessels in port in honor of America's national day, and that the "republican" government proposes to appropriate said salutes for its own use, and claim that it has been fully powdered by the foreign powers. Such a scheme may work among the ignorant crowd behind Dole's throne, but it will hardly have any effect in the camp of sensible citizens—heap savvy Hawaii-Melican man!

L. J. Levey received by the Arawa a limited supply of Oolachans from the Columbia river. This little fish is superior to Herrings and are only caught during one season of the year. They are put up in kits and sold at a very reasonable figure.

His Opinion.

The following is an extract from a letter which appeared in the Boston Transcript:

It is not in place for an alien to suggest how another nation ought to manage its domestic affairs, but as I have been persistently asked to express an opinion on this point, I will add it to the foregoing statement.

There are only three courses open to Hawaii, namely, oligarchy, a republic or constitutional monarchy; of these the republic is the least stable; the attempt to carry on the nation under such rule will probably subject it to frequent revolutions, anarchy, ultimate chaos. There is, however, a chance that this prediction will be at fault, but that chance means that while nominally a republic, the government will be in fact an armed despotism, supported in the future, as it is today, by well-drilled alien troops, thereby guaranteeing its strong hold until insensibly, after years shall elapse, it may approximate to a commonwealth.

It has been well said that there is no party in Hawaii favorable to the next heir to the throne. This lack of partisanship gives to the present Government its golden opportunity. They should at once make a compromise with their opponents. They should accept the abdication of Liliuokalani, and support as the reigning sovereign under a proper regency the Princess Kaiulani. She should be their candidate, not that of the Royalist party; but these would be then deprived of all excuse for refusing the oath of allegiance. Such a government would require no recognition from the great powers, it would be at once constitutional, and its diplomatic representatives would be promptly received abroad. The relief to all classes at the Hawaiian Islands would be instantaneous, business would at once revive, and the country would enter upon renewed prosperity. This is the only course open to the Provisionalists which will not end in political and financial ruin.

Such, neglecting unimportant points, are my conclusions in regard to Hawaiian affairs. I claim for them no infallibility nor do I defy any opponent to prove their falsity. I simply say that I had better facilities for forming an opinion than any other person, because I was most kindly and confidentially treated by those of all parties—I express them now as the final judgment of one familiar with the premises, and understanding the residents of the islands. I offer them with the assurance (of which your readers have scarcely need) that they are the result of a judgment acted my life long for absolute independence. No public journal could have bought my pen to write upon this question in any other manner than that in which it should be supported by my own conscience. While believing that neglect to vote should be a punishable misdemeanor, I never yet voted or acted with any political party, nor conceded to it the right to make a platform of my principles.

While parties may be necessary, a selection of the best names on all tickets, to be made by the voter at the polls, should be the rule and not the exception. Thus would each party be nerved to put forward its best men, while now a man is nominated and from the start is sure of the suffrages of a majority of his party. Party whips should be openly defied, party allegiance should be a disgrace to any man; then political bosses would be impossible, and there would be no such circle as a ruling ring.

Such having been my views and having acted thereon for thirty years, any reader can judge how much partisanship there is in my final judgment on the Hawaiian question.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

Are you not aware that there exists in this town a newspaper called the Star, in the columns of which one Arthur Johnstone, at one time a pet of Gibson and later on of the National Reform Party, is indulging in the most violent abuses of the loyal citizens of Hawaii? I ask you this question because I never see you take any notice of the Star ramblings.

SUBSCRIBER.

[We are aware that a paper called the Star exists, and we are aware of the political and journalistic career of its alleged editor; but we must ask to be excused from noticing the incoherent editorials in Messrs. Atherton, P. C. Jones and company's organ. We would rather undertake to invent a perpetuum mobile than to understand or notice the contents of the Star's single editorial column. Ed.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA.

This is a very curious world, composed of strange people. This, perhaps, is very necessary to give spice to life, and break the monotony of what would otherwise be a rather slow existence. The many peculiar characters we meet, affect us in diverse ways. Some tickle us into laughter. Some compell our admiration. Some draw our compassion. Others incite our contempt.

With this latter class, usually dubbed lickspittles, we all, unfortunately, have come in contact. We can hardly conceive of what excuse nature can have for their creation. Honolulu has not been slighted as regards lickspittles. She has more than her fair share. Whatever or whoever be the powers that rule there is always found a numerous class of hangers-on.

Of late Honolulu's pro rata of this peculiar species of human nature have been augmented by fresh arrivals from the States.

The Provisional Government now holding the reins of power, they, naturally, toady and scrape to them. These cuckoos are ready and willing to sacrifice truth, honor and manhood to obtain some small notice from the mighty dignitaries of the p. g. They may daily be seen button holing p. g. officials, hanging on to the coat tails, as it were, of the delegates to the convention, and all the while protesting their great love for Dole, Smith & Co. They tumble head over heels in their anxiety to obey the rod of the temporarily mighty.

That these cuckoos will submit to any indignity to hold or obtain a government billet is evidenced by their reception of the new constitution—to be, and their assent to the undue and undemocratic authority which the Constitutional Convention have assumed. They might, at the least, have demanded as men that their wishes be consulted by the p. g., if merely as a matter of form. The p. g., with an assurance worthy of the Czar of Russia's Government, coolly proceed to form an oligarchy, safely estimating the calibre of most of their registered supporters.

And yet these same lickspittles style themselves Americans. If these be true and representative Americans, then the American nation are a race of hypocritical cravens. We will mercifully presume that these are renegades, and that true Americans will blush with shame should the mistake be made of assuming that these renegades are imbued with American principles.

It is only a short while back that the Star, backed up by the American League, was crying "close corporation," "family compact," etc. What has become of all their bluster? Why so sudden a back down? The p. g., and the p. g. press assert by their respective actions and tone that the "family compact" are in and are going to remain in. The American League assumes immense conspicuousness by its mysterious silence.

As providence, no doubt, had some object in producing cuckoos or lickspittles, we shall not criticize her work further than to say that we consider it a d—bad job.

The Bay Horse Cases.

On Sunday the 17th inst. Geo. Houghtailing an employee of the Bay Horse Saloon was arrested for selling liquor on that date and placed under bonds. At the same time James Gibbs was arrested for selling liquor without a license at the same time and place, and also placed under bonds to appear on the following Monday. The cases were continued several times and came up last Monday, when a new charge was entered against both defendants jointly charging them with detailing spirituous liquors on Sunday the 17th, they being the servants of the holder of the license Mr. Creighton counsel for the defence objected to the charge entered as defendants, had not been arrested upon it, and demanded that they be tried on the charges in the warrants and claimed that the warrant against Houghtailing was defective as the law, he was charged with violating did not exist. Deputy Attorney-General Wilder entered a nolle pros. on both warrants, and the trial proceeded on the charge then made—defendant's waiving the issuance of a warrant.

Evans a detective swore that he purchased two drinks from Gibbs on the day mentioned, but none from Houghtailing. He also swore that he had been there three Sundays the 4th, 11th and 17th, and at no other time. That the sale on the 17th took place in a room off the Chinese Stable on Bethel street. Other evidence was produced as to the employment of defendants, the ownership of the room, the finding of the liquor and the conditions of the premises. After the close of the prosecution the defence moved for their discharge, and the court discharged Mr. Houghtailing as there was no evidence against him, and after viewing the premises did charged Mr. Gibbs on the grounds that there was no evidence to hold him guilty of the offence charged.

HARDWARE COMP'Y

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pears spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a hit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatuously dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the continent to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aeromotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aeromotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Looked Fence but it would not have done so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinary wire fence. First; the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Pansy Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. If was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economise in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experience if the articles are good we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcott Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

LOCAL NOTES.

Have you tried Luce's Benedictine?

Company B has re-elected Louis T. Kenake first lieutenant.

John W. Kalua is at present an ardent philo-American. What next?

Mr. Dole's home-made republic will be proclaimed on the Fourth of July.

The Monowai is due tomorrow from Sydney en route for San Francisco.

Dr. Brodie leaves on the Warimoo for British Columbia for a short vacation.

The convention was at it again today. The constitution is now nearly full-baked.

Company B's ball took place last night, and is said to have been a successful affair.

If the Monowai arrives today the band will play at the Hawaiian Hotel at 7:30 p. m.

Makaweli plantation will finish grinding in two or three weeks. The crop will exceed 13,000 tons.

Geo. Houghtaling charged with violating the Sunday law, was discharged in the District Court.

The Philadelphia men, it is understood, will not be landed on the Fourth, to partake in Colonel Soper's parade.

The Maui people are to be congratulated on the appointment of Dr. Armitage as government physician for Wailuku.

Mr. Husted the directory man has appointed David Morton as his canvassing agent for Maui. Morton left yesterday by the Claudine.

It is expected that Francis Leo etc. Harden will depart on the Monowai. The government intends to assist him in making himself scarce.

People desiring to visit Maui on the Fourth should secure their tickets without delay. The prospects are that the Claudine will be crowded.

Banting for the Fourth of July is in great demand. Charles Girdler sold his whole stock of red, white and blue before 10 o'clock this morning.

The programme for the celebration of the Fourth of July has been made up and promises some good entertainment to those who celebrate America's day.

The beneficiaries under the will of J. F. O. Banning will receive over $71,000 each. The litigation between the heirs and the administrator of the estate is now finished.

It is stated that the Japanese Diplomatic Agent Mr. S. Fujii has asked the government for permission to land the troops from the Kongo for a drill, and has been refused. The reasons of the refusal seem to be similar to those given to the British representative.

BENEDICTINE WINS.

Seaborn Luce Will Take the Prize.

There is quite a competition among the merchants as to who is to take the prize offered by the 4th of July committee to the party who presents the finest decoration of his premises. Seaborn Luce has been practising for several days, but today he hit the mark and the committee is with him. Some beautiful posters advertising the famous Benedictine furnished the foundation of the decoration while samples of the unique liqueur put the 'judging' committee in the best of humor. Besides being picturesque the decoration has the advantage of being palatable and useful. Even the aromatic micewere out of sight. Don't forget to call.

Base Ball.

To morrow afternoon, a most interesting match game will be played at the Makiki grounds between the After the Ball team, Andrew Phillips, captain, and the Daisy Bells, Eddy Neumann, captain. The reputation of the two young professionals insures a most successful and interesting game. The pitching and batting will simply be unique. The Crescents might get a point or two.

The Miike Maru.

The Japanese steamer Miike Maru arrived off port last night, and after a thorough investigation by the health officers was permitted to land this afternoon. The steamer is fifteen days out from Yokohama and carries 1197 male and 327 female immigrants. She also has two cabin passengers and fifteen in the steerage. As freight she carries coal and Japanese merchandise. Owing to the pestilence in China, the quarantine authorities used great care in allowing the vessel to come inside. Secretary Wray Taylor is busy this afternoon landing the immigrants who will be distributed on the different plantations as soon as possible. The Miike Maru will probably take about 600 Japanese away from here when she leaves for home.

The American League didn't stop the 1,500 Japanese from landing as it was promised they would do.

Don't forget the graduating exercises of the Kamehameha schools at Kawaiahao church to morrow night.

The p.g. officials are still claiming that Minister Willis will establish a protectorate as soon as the "republic" is proclaimed.

The closing exercises of the Kamehameha schools are taking place this afternoon. A large number of people is present.

The Aikoke Maru left Yokohama on the 9th inst. and is due in a day or two. She brings no contract laborers.

Nearly all the seats for the performance of the Vaudeville Company on the 5th of July have been taken. By calling at L. J. Levey's office, a few tickets may yet be secured.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, FIRST CIRCUIT of the Hawaiian Islands. In the matter of ERNESTINE GRAY, of Honolulu, Oahu, voluntary bankrupt. Upon reading and filing the petition of said Ernestine Gray alleging that more than six months have elapsed since she was adjudged bankrupt, and praying for a discharge from all her debts, it is ordered that FRIDAY, the 13th day of July, 1894, at 10 o'clock a.m. of said day, in the Courtroom of said Court, in Aliolani Hale, Honolulu, be and the same is hereby appointed for hearing said application, at which time and place all creditors who have proved their claims against said bankrupt may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said bankrupt should not be granted.

HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS

Framed by the Missionaries.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

8. OF FREE AND PROHIBITED FISHING GROUNDS. 1.—OF FREE FISHING GROUNDS.

His majesty the King hereby takes the fishing grounds from those who now possess them, from Hawaii to Kauai, and gives one portion of them to the common people, another portion to the landlords, and a portion he reserves to himself.

These are the fishing grounds which his Majesty the King takes and gives to the people; the fishing grounds without the coral reef, viz: the Kilohee grounds, the Luhee ground, the Malolo ground, together with the ocean beyond.

But the fishing ground from the coral reef to the sea-beach are for the landlords, and for the tenants of their several lands, but not for others. But if that species of fish which the landlord selects as his own personal portion, should go on to the grounds which are given to the common people, then that species of fish and that only is taboo. If the squid, then the squid only; or if some other species of fish, that only and not the squid. And thus it shall be in all places all over the islands; if the squid, that only; and if in some other place it be another fish, then that only and not the squid.

If any of the people take the fish which the landlord taboos for himself, this is the penalty, for two years he shall not fish at all on any fishing ground. And the several landlords shall give immediate notice respecting said fisherman, that the landlords may protect their fishing grounds, lest he go and take fish on other grounds.

If there be a variety of fish on the ground where the landlord taboos his particular fish, then the tenants of his own land may take them, but not the tenants of other lands, lest they take also the fish taboed by the landlord. The people shall give to the landlord one-third of the fish thus taken. Furthermore, there shall no duty whatever be laid on the fish taken by the people on grounds given to them, nor shall any canoe be taxed or taboo'd.

If a landlord having fishing grounds lay any duty on the fish taken by the people on their own fishing grounds, the penalty shall be as follows: for one full year his own fish shall be taboo'd for the tenants of his own particular land, and notice shall be given of the same, so that the landlord who lays a duty on the fish of the people may be known.

If any of the landlords lay a protective taboo on their fish, when the proper fishing season arrives all the people may take fish, and when the fish are collected, they shall be divided—one-third to the fishermen, and two thirds to the landlord. If there is a canoe full, one-third part shall belong to the fishermen and two-thirds to the landlord. If the landlord seize all the fish and leave none for the fishermen, the punishment is the same as that of the landlords who lay a duty on the fish of the people.

If, however, there is any plantation having fishing grounds belonging to it, but no reef, the sea being deep, it shall still be proper for the landlord to lay a taboo on one species of fish for himself, but one species only. If the parrot fish, then the parrot fish only; but if some other fish, then that only and not the parrot fish. These are the enactments respecting the free fishing grounds, and respecting the taking of fish.

2. RESPECTING THE TABOO'D FISHING GROUNDS.

Those fishing grounds which are known by the people to have shoals of fish remaining upon them, shall at the proper season for fishing be placed under the protective taboo of the tax officers, for the King. The fishing grounds on Oahu thus protected, are 1, Kalua; 2, Keehi; 3, Kapapa; 4, Malaekuli; 5, Pahihii; On Molokai, as follows: 1, Punalau; 2, Ooia; 3, Kawai; 4, Koholanui; 5, Kaonini; 6, Aikoolua; 7, Waiokama; 8, Heleiki. On Lanai the Bonito and the Parrot fish. On Maui, the Kuleku of Honoula and other places.
