A New Era in Cyclopaedism.

It came into existence as the result of public opinion that the masses of the people needed a Cyclopaedia better adapted to their wants and means. It has the cream of all the other Cyclopedias given in a masterly, scholarly manner, not mere skeletons, but the flesh and blood of all the others. It has eighteen thousand topics more than other Cyclopaedias, five thousand illustrations, fifty-two double colored maps, one hundred and twenty-five maps and diagrams. The maps are Rail Road and County maps of the United States.
The work is complete and now ready for delivery, revised and all brought down to 1884.

THE CENSUS OF 1884.

Through the kindness of Mr. F. L. Clarke, Superintendent of the Census of 1884, we are enabled to give some particulars of that important work. The simultaneous method has been adopted, whereby it is designed to enumerate all the inhabitants of the Kingdom on a particular day. That day is to be the 26th of December instant. Twenty-six agents of the Superintendent have been appointed by the President of the Board of Education, one for each electoral district. These will appoint, according to the amount of work to be done in their respective districts, sub-agents to assist them.

A few days previous to the 26th a blank, with columns for all the kinds of information desired, will be left at every house to be filled by the householder. On the 27th of December the sub-agents will begin collecting the blanks, and are obliged to see that they are made out correctly. The agent, on receiving all the blanks from the sub-agents, will summarize their contents in a blank provided for the purpose, which he must send to the Superintendent. He must also preserve the blanks from which he makes out his table, until the receipt and acceptance of his returns shall have been acknowledged by the Superintendent, and until he shall have received instructions as to the disposition to be made of the blanks. The agents shall arrange with the sub-agents for the amount of compensation to be given them for their work.

Inter-island vessels are to be supplied with blanks to be filled in cases where they are not in port on the night of the 26th. Besides the regular blanks, for English-speaking and Hawaiian people, special forms have been prepared in the Chinese and Portuguese languages, respectively. Senor Canavarro, the Portuguese Commissioner, has kindly volunteered to address the blanks to his countrymen in the Kingdom.

Each blank is to contain an enumeration, with particulars of age, sex, condition, occupation and religion, of those who sleep in each domicile where it is left, on the night of December 26th. It is of the utmost importance that the census shall be accurate, and it becomes the whole people to cheerfully facilitate the work as they best can. The Superintendent seems to have planned the operation well, and if all his subordinates do their duty a very complete census should be the result.

SANTA CLAUSLAND.

(Special Correspondence of the BULLETIN.)

Feasting is one of the principal industries in Santa Clausland, and the traders are very eager to supply the viands. One of the most popular dishes in this part of the empire is called poi. It is made of the taro bulb, usually by pounding in a mortar with stones. Nothing is more wholesome and nutritious as regular diet, and no festive board here can be bounteously laid without a calabash full of it in the centre. Some fastidious people have not taken kindly to this dish, from their suspicions that the mode of manufacture did not ensure cleanliness. So that none need be without poi, however, a skilful artificer has invented a machine for making it, and the product, absolutely clean and inviting to the daintiest palate, is sold by a Mr. F. B. Oat, whose place is in the Pacific Navigation Company's building, Queen street. No one can give a feast to friends from parts of the empire where poi is unknown, which shall be complete without the native dish of this region.

All over the empire the most palatable fish is acknowledged by a majority to be the salmon. No place yields better salmon than the Columbia river, Oregon. Mr. E. P. Adams, a renowned auctioneer of these parts, has on hand a supply of this year's catch of that stream's red salmon. No Christmas table can be complete without some of this fish, and it is no wonder that the store where they are got is thronged with people buying it up like hot cakes.

The shop of Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., one of the largest firms in this place, is where many of the traders go to get their supplies of all kinds of provisions at wholesale. One of their specialties is Australian preserved beef, which is at once a necessary and a luxury.

Messrs. Wolfe & Edwards keep a large grocery and provision store at the corner of King and Nuuanu streets. They have such a large and diversified stock on hand at all times that one would think, to look in from the street, that they had scarce room enough to turn round in. Nevertheless they are able to accommodate a large custom, by good arrangement and prompt attendance. It would be impossible to tell in this letter all that they sell. But just name any article in their line, and you may call for it at their shop with assurance that it will be supplied. They receive groceries and provisions by every steamer.

Mr. Wm. McCandless, 6 Queen street, and Mr. Ed. G. Waller, who has a shop on King and one on Punchbowl street, supply most of the people with all kinds of fresh meat, fish and vegetables.

There is one establishment here that would leave a serious blank upon many festive boards if it was blotted out. That is the Pioneer Steam Candy Factory and Bakery of Mr. F. Horn. It can furnish a whole feast to order, or supply the national dishes of Santa Clausland separately, such as plum pudding with rich sauce, all kinds of cakes, plain and ornamented, rich mince pies, and the meat to make the latter when it is desired to make them at home. His place is the leading source of supply for sweetmeats distributed by the Emperor in the children's stockings the night before Christmas.

Probably the most enterprising grocers here are Messrs. Lewis & Co., Hotel street. You cannot imagine a daintier or a luxury from any quarter of the globe, which is capable of transportation in any form, that cannot be obtained in their shop. The variety of fruits they obtain by every steamer makes their shop suggestive of a California fruit exhibition. Their establishment is positively essential to the proper administration of Santa Clausland affairs in this quarter.

For the lone, lorn bachelors and cognate characters, out alone in the cold, cold world, the best apology for a home Christmas keeping is to be found in the Beaver (temperance) Saloon of Mr. H. J. Nolte, and the same gentleman's Casino in a neighboring park. Victims of the "vile weed" can also get their consolation in his varied stock of tobacco and cigars, and dry characters slake their thirst at his fountain. Mr. Robert Donnelly keeps a place he calls "The Fountain," at 123 Fort street, where persons can treat each other to anything in the smoke or temperate and wholesome beverage line. And this is one of the customs of the land which blooms particularly on Christmas Day.

HAND GRENADES FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24, 1884.
H. H. Gross, Esq.,
21 New Montgomery street,
City.

DEAR SIR:—We take pleasure in informing you of the good work done by your Hand Grenades at our Factory in Alameda, yesterday. A fire caught upon the shingle roof of a large frame structure, and burned furiously, and for a time endangered our entire works. The fire was burning over about one hundred feet of surface when the alarm was given, and the men all being on the first floor, seized the Grenades and had to go up three flights of stairs to the top of the building, which is sixty feet high, and there was difficulty in gaining access to the fire on account of the steepness of the roof and the absence of cleats, which occasioned considerable delay. When the men reached the fire they instantly extinguished it by the use of your Hand Grenades, although the shingles were well burned. We believe your Grenades saved the building from total destruction. Please send us an additional supply immediately.

A Special and Important MATINEE.

The Grand Christmas Sale

For the Season of 1884.

We will sell at the store of Mes G. W. Macfarlane & Co., in their sales room, upstairs, on Wednesday, Dec. 17th,

Commencing at 9:30 a.m.

We have made this a Morning Sale especially for the convenience of ladies, and the

New & Choice Christmas Goods

Which we shall offer are such as cannot fail to attract and secure their attention. This invoice is composed entirely of FRESH NEW GOODS never before opened, and amongst them are some of the finest novelties ever offered in Honolulu.

The Bronzes especially are beautiful works of art, which cannot be but appreciated.

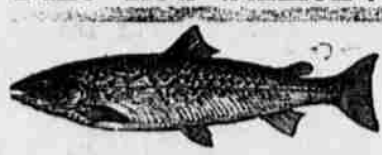

The French Plaque Clocks are quite new in this market, and ought to command ready sale.

We call attention also to some fine French Marble Clocks, Terra Cotta Plaques, Liquor Stands, new designs; Wall Pockets, Water Colors, Paintings, Dolls, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Sets, Easy Chairs, Lounges, Fancy Tables, Traveling Bags, Opera Glasses. And many other useful and ornamental articles too numerous to mention.

The Goods are now open and ready for inspection, and we shall be pleased to have the Ladies call and see on Monday and Tuesday before the sale.

hailed up on the Marine Railway

Don't forget Mr. E. P. Adam's first Christmas sale to-morrow evening, at his sales-room, commencing at 7 o'clock.
POSTMASTER General Whitney nearly got run over at the steamer wharf this noon. He saved himself by showing a little agility.
THE tug Pele is out of order again as usual. How about the new tug the Legislature appropriated a sum of money for? Echo answers, as usual, Mahope, mahope.
THIS morning Mr. Lucas formally handed over the new building in the Government yard to the Government. It is a most substantial and thoroughly finished structure within and without, and an ornament to the locality.

A young half white man who arrived from Mahukona last week stands six feet five inches high.
Wonder how the weather is up near the regions of his head.

MUSICALLY inclined Kala, who deprived John Kea of the use of his Stradavarius violin by purloining it, had his case brought up this morning, and was further remanded.

MR. A. Kraft, the well-known jeweller and optician, has removed his place of business, next to Waterhouse's store, where he will be pleased to see all his old customers, and new ones too.

THE S.S. Mariposa after leaving her dock got stuck in the mud, and it was a quarter before one o'clock before she got away. The freight list is good, but she does not carry many passengers.

MESSRS. Bishop & Co. request that in future all accounts against them, whether owed by them personally, or as trustees, guardians, executors or agents, be presented at the end of each month.

THE largest shippers of sugar by the Mariposa were:—Irwin & Co., 11,123 bags; Schaefer & Co., 5, 695 bags; Brewer & Co., 4,107 bags; Grinbaum & Co., 2,517 bags; Davies & Co., 1,721 bags.

CAPT. John H. Brown, agent of the Board of Health, wishes that persons would not take their dead horses out into the harbor and leave them there. A notification to him would be properly attended to, and prevent the horrid smells which proceed from that vicinity with a south wind.

A CHRISTMAS dinner is a very important item. Of course the piece de resistance will be a turkey. S.
J. Levey & Co. will have for sale a quantity of choice turkeys, ready dressed, on ice, to arrive by the Alameda, Dec. 22nd. By the same steamer they will also receive a large and varied stock of choice groceries and Xmas goods.

THE lumber for the new quarantine ground has been ordered to-day.
The first thing done will be to erect a strong fence round the lot, which contains about three acres. A place will also be erected for diseased animals, and when they are shot they will be properly buried. The prompt action in this matter is very commendable.

LETTERS have been received from four different Portuguese on the Naalehu Plantation, Hawaii, complaining that the manager puts difficulties in the way of their ordering goods from Honolulu, so as to compel them to buy from his store. He refuses to issue plantation orders, and when the laborers do manage to get anything from Honolulu, he imposes a sort of duty. Surely this is not just.

THE mail for America and Europe by the Star Mariposa to-day was unusually heavy, and comprised 6,305 letters and 1,913 papers and packages, many of which came from the other Islands. This morning over 2,500 letters and papers were posted at the office, many of them being left without stamps, some people seeming to think it the duty of the Post Office to affix their stamps. In other countries, the custom is for the writer to affix the necessary stamp himself on his correspondence.

WHILE a crew of the Myrtle Boat Club were out in their boat "Red, White & Blue," yesterday afternoon, they came across three sharks feeding on dead horses near the Spar Buoy. One of them was about fifteen feet long, and just as this monster was going to swallow a large piece of meat, Fred Wundenberg struck him with a harpoon near the fin, driving the weapon into him nearly up to the handle. The brute let the meat go and started off, but had not got far when unfortunately the rope broke, and he was free. It was hardly possible for him to live long.
There are too many sharks in the harbor, attracted by dead horses.
The latter ought to be taken further out to sea.

THE opening of the new skating rink on Saturday night was a success in every respect. There were four dozen pairs of skates on the floor, and over 150 people present. Skates were in so great a demand, that as soon as anyone took them off they were given to another. The floor is perfect and the skates are good.

Several natives, who were never on skates before and seeing how easy it was to manoeuvre, were very anxious to try, and they did. One of them, a man not weighing less than 200 lbs., having strapped on his skates was assisted to the floor. He stood erect and smiled, and then—biff, bang! he sat down and took them off. Such ludicrous actions of the beginners and the unmerciful bumps they received afforded much laughter for the spectators. Mr. Wall expects two dozen pairs of skates by the Alameda, and then he will be better prepared to supply the demand.

PLEASANT PARTIES.

A rather grand entertainment was given on Saturday evening, by Mr.
A. P. Fernandez, clerk in Messrs.
Halls' store, at his new house on King street. It was a luau embracing in its hospitable grasp a housewarming and a christening. Among those present were Their Majesties the King and Queen, attended by the Hon. Chamberlain and suite, His Ex. C. T. Gulick and wife, the Rev.
Mr. Cruzan, Prof. Alexander, Mr.
W. W. Hall, Mr. Walter Hill and wife, Mr. W. R. Castle, Dr. Brodie, V. S., and wife, Mr. Nowlein, Legislative Sergeant-at-Arms, and many other ladies and gentlemen.

A band of guitar players on the front verandah played delightful melodies during the evening, which passed away very pleasantly. About eight o'clock the company was invited to the parlor, where the Rev.
Mr. Cruzan solemnly performed the ceremony of christening upon two of the host's children. The elder one, a girl of six, was named Eva Adelaide Kaeokalani, and the younger, an infant boy, Edwin Lemuel Kane.
Shortly after that ceremony the company filed out upon the right verandah, where a superb collation was served. When the feasters began to lag in their efforts to do justice to the varied dainties, His Majesty rose and announced that he had been requested to name the house, and that he had fixed upon the term, "Lauiohiohi" (a gathering of leaves.)

Cooling refreshments were served at later intervals, and at ten o'clock a spell of dancing began. Mr. August Fernandez, father of the host, superintended the preparation and service of the feast and refreshments of the evening, with veteran skill.

The house so auspiciously opened is in every respect designed as a comfortable and elegant home. It seems to be in all departments convenient, substantial, simple, suitable and tasteful. It was built for the owner by Messrs. Bertelmann & Ouderkirk.

Mr. Alexander Young, Manager of the Honolulu Iron Works, has a birthday which comes round once a year as regularly as clockwork, on December 13th. Consequently, Saturday was the appointed day for this year, but, as he has had quite a number, Mr. Young did not notice it in any unusual manner. His employees, however, who hold him in high esteem decided that they would notice it, so hired two of Dodd's busses and Berger's string band, and with an assorted collection of refreshments proceeded to his residence, and thoroughly surprised the manager and his family. After congratulations, music and dancing followed, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent, the party breaking up a little before twelve o'clock.

and velvet dressing cases, very fine, bill books, purses, girls' work boxes, very choice, flower baskets, clothes baskets, a new line of brackets, whisk broomholders, doll carriages, picture cord, picture wire, hand bells, tracing wheels, both single and double, individual castors, cake baskets, card receivers, child's sets of knife, fork and spoon, vases, brush sets, and celluloid sets, transparent window pictures, velvet

THE Temple of Fashion, 61 and 63 Fort street, informs the general public that they will not give their toys and holiday goods away as advertised by other retail dealers to catch trade, but will guarantee that their stock of toys, etc., will be sold at bed-rock prices. All they ask is to inspect their stock and learn prices. 880 1m.

THE reason that Lycan & Co. sell frames and cornices cheaper than their frame maker can make better

Stallions at Marshfield!

(Thoroughbred.)

By Jack Malone, he by Lexington. 1st dam, Ivy Leaf, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, Imported Maria Black, by Philo da Putah, etc., etc.

Bazaar was bred at the great Woodburn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Pritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,065 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he downed many a favorite, and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Dunbar, Young Bazaar, Sophia, and another called the Bazaar Minerva Colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Leamington, the sire of Parole and Iroquois. Lizzie Dunbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two-year-old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year-olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last Spring by Mr. Agnew, distance 1/2 mile; time, 1:04 1/2, the fastest time on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.

Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu, and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $40. Payable at time of service.

The Imported Clydesdale Stallion Donald Dinnie, Jr., will stand at the same time and place at $30 for the season. He was bred in Canada, sired by Imported Donald Dinnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful dapple grey, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,400 lbs.; is very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.

Also, the fine large Imported Kentucky Jack Sampson. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized, as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $30 for the season.

The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.
