AN OPEN LETTER.

To C. W. ASHFORD.

HONOLULU, H. I., Jan. 29, 1892.

Sir:—As a candidate for the honorable office of Representative of the Hawaiian Kingdom, your qualities and fitness for the honor sought by you are fair subjects of investigation to every interested citizen, and both in your own interest, the interest of your followers, and that of your opponents, is the right maintained and used of addressing you openly upon the subjects mentioned.

During the past few weeks your language and ideas expressed in your various speeches have been characterized mainly by vituperation and abuse the "wash woman's" argument—that line of argument, sir, which is resorted to by the lawyer with a poor case, or the incendiary communist.

A persistent effort to discover from yourself so far honest and honorable reasons and motives in yourself for your present political course has failed. Perhaps—believing that your audiences were made up of densely ignorant hearers, to whom the language of passion would appeal more forcibly than that of reason—you have overlooked another class of voters, and possibly belittled the intelligence of many upon whom you rely as followers.

Grave charges are in circulation in this Kingdom regarding your political course—several of which can be briefly answered by you, and the truth of which would necessarily be presumed were you to remain silent when the questions are fairly put to you.

You arrived in this Kingdom, it is believed, in the spring of 1883, and about the same time as our genial friend Neumann, whom you term a "malihini." Do you for any greater reason than Mr. Neumann claim to be a "kamaaina," and if so, what is that reason?

You were born in Canada. Did you or not state frequently and forcibly from the date of your arrival here up to the summer of 1889 that the country of your birth did not appreciate your talents? That the malevolent influence of Sir John Macdonald and other obstacles had driven many bright and ambitious young men like yourself to seek home and fortune under the welcoming folds of the stars and stripes.

You took up your home and your fortunes in America for a time, and made that the first country of your adoption. Did you or not, from the date of your arrival in Hawaii to the summer of 1889, frequently and forcibly proclaim your former fealty and present regard for the laws, customs, and institutions of America, the first country of your adoption?

You came to Hawaii in 1883, and before your first meal in the kingdom had digested you demanded that an honored and wise law of the kingdom be set aside in your behalf in order that you might at once be admitted to the ranks of the legal profession —a right at that time reserved to "kamaainas," as you well know. At that time residence for five years and citizenship were legal pre-requisites to becoming a legal practitioner.

By the courtesy, generosity and hospitality of His late Majesty—qualities at all times too largely possessed by monarchs of this Kingdom —the law was set aside in your favor, and you were received with open arms by the people of this, the second country of your adoption, no small reason for your friendly reception being the fact that you hailed from the "land of the free and the home of the brave."

Did you or did you not actively support the revolution of 1887—which resulted in establishing the present constitution? You became Attorney-General of this Kingdom upon the promulgation of the present Constitution and continued in office until June, 1890. Did you or not act in thorough and complete harmony with your associates upon all questions up to the time of your departure for Canada—the country of your birth, in 1889?

Did you or not, as often as the subject of the proposed treaty of 1889 with the United States was brought up prior to your departure for Canada, speak in unison with your colleagues, in its favor?

Did you or not while in Canada accept the hospitality of Canadian Government officials, and of officers of the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company?

Did you or not during your late Canadian pilgrimage overstay your leave of absence, and draw your salary for the full time as though occupied in the duties of your office of Attorney-General?

Did you or not during your absence in Canada acquaint your colleagues with your movements, plans, or work, if you performed any, in the good faith which is customary, fair, and honorable among members of one Cabinet?

Upon your return, when you refused finally before his late Majesty and in the presence of your colleagues, to join with them in recommending the signing of the proposed treaty of 1889—did you give, had you ever before given, or have you ever since given any sound, square, honorable reason for your course?

Do you believe that a change of Constitution is necessary for the health and prosperity of this Kingdom?

If you so believe, do you believe that the present is a sensible, proper time for agitating and asking such a change?

Sir: These questions are asked of you in all candor, and the columns of this paper are open for your replies, and will remain open until the first day of February.

In conclusion, permit me to say:
You come from two large and powerful nations to a small one. The position upon the map, climate, soil, and class of population of these Islands entitle them to peace and happiness. Small as this country now is, there live in it men of honored names and family—native Hawaiians, and foreigners of various nationalities, who are beginning to ask themselves: What does this man Ashford mean? And they will look with eagerness for your replies when you are told as I now tell you:

Sir, It is said that you are a renegade Canadian. It is said that you are a renegade American. It is said that you have already betrayed this country, and the United States, in whose hospitable arms you found welcome for a time, also the country of your birth which you are said to have left with a heart of loathing and hate.

It is said that you aim to betray Hawaii again. Sir: If you can explain away the charges that are made against you—the measure of abuse that has been and is being heaped upon you will be the measure of your reward. DIOGENES.

EMMELUTH WITHDRAWS.

Gives Notice and Reasons at the Independents' Meeting.

Small Attendance—Road Board in Front.

Forty or fifty people, about a fourth of them Portuguese, had assembled at the Gymnasium, Beretania street, in response to the call of the Independent candidates.

Hon. Antonio Rosa by request took the chair, and asked those who called the meeting to direct the proceedings.

Mr. J. Emmeluth came forward and began at once to give the history of the failure of the central committee of the Reform party to call the party together. Those who desired organization were put off from time to time with "by and bye," and the result was unsatisfactory to most right-thinking members of the party. There was nothing that the party need be ashamed of. They considered that when the party failed to come together as a whole, it should have had some representation on the Mechanics' Union ticket. In this they were disappointed and then an effort was made to get up an independent ticket.

They had gone far enough in this to show Mr. Lorrin Thurston and those who agreed with him that they still believed in the principles of the Reform party. He had been encouraged by many steadfast men in joining the Independent ticket. At noon that day he had become convinced that the persistence of the Independent ticket in the campaign would be to risk the election of the Wilcox ticket. Mr. Neumann was approached to see if he would retire as a concession to the Reform party, but he had informed them that matters had proceeded too far for him to withdraw. Therefore the speaker decided to draw out, and he hoped that Mr. Kaaukau would do likewise. In that case the Independent voters ought to concentrate their votes as much as possible against Mr. Neumann. He thought the best they could do was to vote straight for Waterhouse, Cummins and Williams. In retiring he wished to thank the friends who had stood by him and to the advertiser for its kind expressions. (Applause.)

Calls for Mr. H. Waterhouse, who had been present, elicited the statement that he had gone away.

Mr. John F. Colburn, independent candidate for the road board, briefly solicited the votes of the people. It would not be right to put two employees of one firm on the board, as that would make matters as unsatisfactory as before. The object of the board was to have the road money properly expended. Whoever they elected it should not be Boss Bowler, who should be elected to stay at home. Bowler had got his share and others should have a chance. (Laughter.)

Mr. Robert Lishman delivered the following address: Mr. Chairman and fellow-citizens: I appear before you this evening as a candidate for the road board, and if you elect me I feel confident that I can provide you good roads. We ought to have good roads in this district, as we have the very best of material for road making within easy reach of the main streets of Honolulu. The road board is one of the most important parts of the government, having the life, safety and comfort of their fellow citizens in their hands, to say nothing of the very large amount of the people's money to spend. I ask you to be careful in the men you elect, and to whom you entrust the expenditure of your money. I feel safe in saying that if you elect John Phillips, James F. Morgan and Robert Lishman you will have the very best streets; your money will be honestly spent. What are your roads now? In summer you are blinded and smothered with dust so thick that it resembles a sand storm in the desert. In winter you wade around ankle deep in mud and slush, like walking in a new plowed field after a thunder storm, and why is this? Because your present road makers in dry weather put cart load after cart load of Punchbowl dirt and red Ewa dust upon the streets. After the first shower, they scrape it off and cart it away in the form of mud, only to replace it again the first dry day. Gentlemen, think how much time and money is thus uselessly wasted which could be put to better advantage. Our roads should be made of clean lava rock properly prepared, and once laid down, not constant scraping would be required. But neither our present Road Supervisor nor his boss, the Minister of the Interior, knows anything about road making. Look at the Esplanade to-day. It is a disgrace which cries out against the gross incompetency of the road authorities. To-day, after our late rains, the Esplanade, where not knee deep in mud, is one great inland lake where the small boys amuse themselves by sailing about on rafts made of planks. This place should be one of the first to be fixed; it should be properly drained and graded so that the merchants can get to their warehouses without the need of a row-boat; that draymen be not placed in danger of drowning their horses, and when the dock laborer can work without being waist deep in water or mud during the long hours of his daily toil. The quantity of stagnant water on the Esplanade is a serious menace to the public health and should receive the attention of the Board of Health. Beretania street should be completed at once and not allowed to drag along at snail's pace as it is now. It is a wonder to me that the luna of Beretania street and all his gang have not died from laziness long before this. All lumber and material required for use upon the roads should be bought after proper tenders have been ordered; if this cannot be done, then no one firm should have it all, but the patronage should be evenly distributed among all merchants dealing in the articles required. If I am elected I shall see that no Chinese or Japanese are employed by the Road Board, and that all labor shall be done by Hawaiians, Portuguese, or other nationalities—but no Asiatics. The place for the Asiatic is in the plantation fields, and not upon the roads to take the food out of the mouths of the wives and children of our Hawaiian and Portuguese fellow-citizens. My motto will be fair wages and no grinding of the laborer down to Asiatic prices. The laborer is worthy of his hire; so let him have just wages, that he may bring up his family decently, so that the children will fill the parents' places in the future. Every day we see hundreds, yes, thousands of dollars of the people's hard earned money squandered through gross negligence. But, gentlemen, this will be remedied if you elect Phillips, Morgan and Lishman. While on the street to-day I was asked by a friend "if I was aware that there were three Sams running against me for the Road Board?" I told my friend I was only aware of two; he told me if the two Sams got in who had their names on the list, the third Sam would have all the management of the roads; I tumbled to who the third Sam was and left. I am aware there has been some of the candidates on other tickets who have asked you to strike off some of my colleagues' names and put them on my ticket. They tell you they want me to go in, as I am a practical man. I tell you, gentlemen, they don't care anything about me, if they can only get there themselves. I ask you, gentlemen, to vote for J. Phillips, James F. Morgan and Lishman.

Mr. H. von Holt said he was not supporting an Independent ticket for Nobles. The only independent ticket he would support was his own. "The Lone Independent"—lone because he expected to be one of three successful candidates and not one of a large number of unsuccessful ones. All the road board candidates wanted good roads, economical expenditure and equal privileges for all. His ideas coincided with Mr. Lishman's remarks, and if elected he would try to carry out the ideas to the best of his ability. He thought it only right that the public at large should know what the candidates of the Liberal party were telling the natives. Mr. Fernandez told them that being well known to the wealthy business men of Honolulu, he had promises from them, that if ever the road board funds ran short they, the merchants, would advance any sums necessary. (Laughter.) That was a valuable man to have on the board. The two Sams had been to their employer and asked his permission to run when they say this is the answer Sam Allen gave: "If the voice of the nation calls you to act, I cannot very well refuse, and if you are elected I will not interfere with your duties, and will assist you all I can." Sam Allen says that, gentlemen. With three such men in the field so well supported, it might seem impudence on the speaker's part to run against them, but he was in the field to break up such a combination and intended to fight it out. A careful canvass amongst the strong Hawaiian districts had convinced him of his strength with them, and if he could depend upon a support from the white voters he felt sure of at least breaking up the other solid ticket (for there was no doubt in his mind that the natives as a whole would vote that ticket almost straight), and probably coming in third with S. C. Dwight at the head of the pole. Therefore he asked the white voters not to forget him on election day but cast their ballot with his name having a cross against it, and not to throw away their votes upon those who had no show of getting in.

Mr. Jas. F. Morgan didn't know what they wanted him to talk about. Road boards? Well, all he could say about road boards was to mention the three names—Phillips, Morgan and Lishman. They relied chiefly on Mr. Lishman's ability and experience for the practical work of the board, but the speaker would see that the accounts were all straight. He was not aware previously of any personal advantage in getting on the road board, but since the remark of Mr. Colburn just then he began to think it would be a good thing to be a member of the board.

The meeting adjourned at 8:25.

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations

A worn-out with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DREBRICK, Saugerties, New York.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's, S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.

MR. THURSTON'S REPLY TO MR. ASHFORD'S CHARGE OF ACCEPTING A BRIBE WHILE IN OFFICE.

Mr. Ashford has charged that Mr. B. F. Dillingham bribed me while I was Minister of the Interior by giving me five shares of Oahu Railway and Land Company stock, in exchange for which I gave the Railway Company "one-half the harbor of Honolulu."

Mr. Ashford stated on the floor of the last Legislature that he told a wilful falsehood concerning the treaty to the committee of citizens appointed by the meeting at the Chinese theatre.

A man who will falsify once will do it again, if he thinks that circumstances require it.

Evidently Mr. Ashford thinks that circumstances do now require a fresh assortment of falsehoods, and he has invented the one above set forth as a sample.

When the charge was first made I had intended to reply upon my own reputation and that of Mr. Ashford as being a sufficient reply, until I had time and opportunity to make a full digest from the records and correspondence of the Interior Department concerning the transactions between the Railway and the Government while I was Minister of the Interior; but as the interests of others may be affected by a delay in publishing a denial, I hereby state that the charge made is untrue.

Without going into details I will state:

1. That while I was in office no grant of land, or other privilege, was made to the Railway by the Government, except under authority of the statute regulating the granting of the rights of way and station grounds to railroads, upon Government lands.

2. With the exception of an acre and a fraction adjoining the King street bridge, no land has been granted to the Railway on the harbor side of the road leading from King street to the prison, and this small piece that was granted to the Company was subsequently surrendered to the Government and purchased by the Company from the Government at public auction.

3. All of the land lying south and east of the Prison road, owned by the railroad, and constituting the "Terminal Division," was purchased by the company from the owners, who were first the Government, as to the acre above mentioned; second, the Bishop Estate, and third, the Youmans Estate. The lands acquired by the company from the said two estates front on the harbor; the piece obtained from the Government does not.

4. The Railroad Statute authorizes the granting in fee simple to the railroad of wharf and landing sites from Government lands, as well as lands for other purposes. Under this provision, Mr. Dillingham, on behalf of the company, applied to me as Minister of the Interior for the grant of a wharf site extending out into the harbor, upon which to build a wharf. I declined to give it, stating to him that I thought the Government should retain the ownership of every foot of the harbor frontage. He then asked for permission to dredge out a strip some 60 feet wide lying between the company's land and deep water, this strip being from 3 to 6 feet under water. I declined to consent to this either, as it would thereby give the company control of the water front. He claimed that he had the legal right to enforce both propositions. I replied that I would use the full power of the Government and carry the matter through all the Courts to prevent it. I offered, however, to give him permission to locate a wharf, which was needed for immediate use, and to utilize the 60 foot strip without charge, upon condition that the Government could take possession at any time upon giving 90 days' notice and paying the cost of the wharf and fillings, if any. After several months' negotiation, an agreement on these lines was drafted by myself and submitted to Mr. Ashford, as Attorney-General, for suggestions. With some slight amendments, it was approved by him. He was at this time bitterly hostile towards myself and the other members of the Cabinet.

This is the only transaction between Mr. Dillingham or the Railway Company and myself concerning the wharf site or any land adjacent to the harbor.

5. Besides refusing to accede to Mr. Dillingham's request concerning the water front, I also refused to grant him more than about one-half of the land that he applied for for station and yards upon the site of the old fish pond lying mauka of the prison. Mr. Dillingham expressed himself freely at the time, to the effect that the company was not getting the assistance from the Government that he had a right to expect, and by law was entitled to.

6. Each and every transaction between myself, as Minister of the Interior, and the Railway Company was, before completion, submitted to and approved by the entire Cabinet; and each grant of either land or privileges, including the one concerning the wharf site, was signed by the entire Cabinet, including Mr. Ashford.

7. So much for the alleged sale of "one-half of the harbor."

As to the alleged bribe for so doing, I have to say this:

The date of the wharf site transaction is March 15, 1890. I resigned from office June 14, 1890. On Christmas morning, 1890, more than nine months after the transaction in question, and more than six months after I had left office, I received a note from Mr. Dillingham enclosing five shares of O. R. & L. Co. stock, requesting me to accept it as a Christmas present.

From the time that Mr. Dillingham initiated his colonization scheme in 1885, prior to my going into the Cabinet in 1887, after leaving the Cabinet in June, 1890, and up to the present time, I have assisted Mr. Dillingham by legal advice, several opinions being in writing; by compiling statistics; by floating railroad bonds; by assisting in drawing up prospectuses and statements and in various other ways, for which I have made no charge, and for all of which I have neither asked nor received any pay. I have been perfectly content and glad to do this, for I believe that the enterprises in which he is engaged are beneficial to the public and the country as a whole, and I have been and am willing to do what lay within my power to forward them, whenever it could be done consistently with the public interests.

Under these circumstances I did not, and do not see any impropriety in accepting the stock which I did.

CARBOLINEUM AVENARIUS.

A preservative against rotting, decay, fungus, etc., of wood and stone. Will preserve any kind of wood above or under ground or water and prolong its life at least 100 percent.

Will keep off all sorts of insects, vermin or other enemies of wood.

Will prevent rats and mice gnawing wood coated with it.

Will force all moisture out of wood without closing the pores.

Will prevent shingles, coated with it, from rotting, cracking or warping.

Will prevent rope treated with it from rotting, causing it to remain pliable and excellent for coating.

Tenedos will not attack timber coated with it.

Carbolineum avenarius does not contain acids or poisonous ingredients injurious to the fibres of wood.

The following is an extract from the London "Building World": "The directors of the Palatine Railways say of 'Carbolineum Avenarius': 'Two boards cut from one and the same piece of pine, one of which for the sake of experiment was painted with Carbolineum Avenarius, and the other left unpainted, were buried, and after a lapse of three years dug up and examined. The result was, that the wood to which the Carbolineum Avenarius had been applied showed no signs of decay, whilst the other was found to be in a rotting condition.'

As a wood preservative it has no equal.
