ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

A leader in the Advertiser of November 22d has the following: "It would be interesting to ascertain how many times Mr. Cleveland wants this country to ask for annexation before being convinced that it is really the desire of the people." Will the Advertiser please inform the public at about what time during the last sixty years "the people" have applied for annexation? Surely, the Advertiser cannot mean, that the small squad of swashbucklers placed on top by Stevens are "the people?" "The people" are yet to be heard from. Whenever "the people" of Hawaii ask for annexation—then, perhaps Mr. Cleveland will take notice—not before, Mr. Advertiser, not before. Squeaking, squirming and lying will never bring the grist to mill. HUDSON.

Poor Discipline.

Two Admirals of the American navy have just got into trouble by the too free use of their tongues—that is, by gross indiscretion. One of them undertook to "sass" his own Government because he disapproved of its politics, and another arrogated to himself the functions of the State Department, and opened diplomatic relations of his own with foreign potentates. Signs of this growing indiscipline have been long visible. It is due in part to the way in which the late Administration allowed naval officers of all ranks to magnify their office in public, with the view of helping to get appropriations for the new navy; in part, also, to the uncrupulous way in which the Jingo press and orators encourage naval officers to despise and criticise any administration which pursues a peaceful policy and respects the law of nations. This disposition to drag the navy into the political arena has, in fact, grown steadily ever since the Republican party entered on a policy of extravagance in order to make a high tariff seem necessary. And yet there could not be a more ominous sign of national decadence than the enlistment of either army or navy in party conflicts. What is oddest about all this is that the Jingo, who, more than any other class, will need a highly disciplined fleet to protect their various keys and canals, are foremost in this work of demoralizing the soldiers and sailors. They are almost making insubordination and insolence to Presidents and Secretaries of the other party a military virtue. But no navy which did not keep its mouth shut and obey orders was ever worth much.—The Nation.

Follow the Example

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—There is a definite understanding among the attaches at the French Legation that ex-Consul Waller will be released before New Year's Day. This, it is said, is part of the programme of the new Radical Minister in France to extend amnesty to all political offenders. Waller's release will come, it is understood, as part of a general scheme of forgiveness, and will be in no sense the result of any representations by the United States authorities.

The California Feed Company have received a large invoice of goods by the S. G. Wilder. They quote the lowest prices, and the finest qualities in all the lines, and give full weight. Amongst the lot are to be found, hay, oats, rolled barley, bran, corn, cracked corn, oil-cake, etc. Everything is of the freshest, and if you want to get the best and cheapest the California Feed Co. will hear from you.

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

"CREOLE" is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:15 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10, and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.) He is 15½ hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired and his action superb. He is a sure foal getter.

Residing in Honolulu

SATURDAY, NOV. 23, 1895.

TRY THE BALLOT

The sense of the editor from Kennebunkport is fine, in fact quite refreshing. Out of an editorial published yesterday, we select the following sentence. "It would be interesting to ascertain how many times Mr. Cleveland wants this country to ask for annexation before being convinced that it is really the desire of the people." The editor evidently thinks that his patrons in the Executive building are the people, and if they desire annexation that the rest of us must say Amen.

The fact of the matter is that Messrs. Morgan, Hoare, Lodge and possibly other leaders of the Republican party, have thought to make a strong point on the Hawaiian question, and Mr. Cleveland's latest move, if he has made one, cuts the ground out from under the Republican leaders.

Mr. Cleveland is on safe ground when he says that when the Hawaiian people express a desire to become a part of the Great Republic it will be time to consider the matter.

If Mr. Dole and his colleagues of the oligarchy desire to help Messrs. Lodge, Hoare and Morgan, before they are too deep in the mine of the Hawaiian question, let them order a ballot and ascertain the views of Hawaiian people that Mr. Cleveland speaks of.

The result of such a ballot will be a surprise to the "intelligent Hawaiian" citizens who have misled the leaders of the Republican party of the United States.

THE LOVE FEAST.

The petition of the leading citizens of Honolulu, regardless of political color, asking the Executive to liberate the political prisoners yet confined in Oahu jail meets a violent opposition from the Advertiser—the missionary organ—which at all times has placed itself on record against any mercy being shown to the unfortunate men who are accused of having been implicated in the so-called revolution.

Whom the Advertiser represents we do not know in this instance. We feel obliged to believe that the editor of the most Christian organ simply airs his own narrow views and is not as usual prompted even by the saintly gang who run his paper. We have seen the petition which is now being circulated, and we have noticed the names of the members of the same Advertiser clique among the subscribers. The "missionaries" have to a man signed the petition whenever they were "asked." The rabid element among the Government supporters have unhesitatingly joined the petitioners. The most conservative "royalists" who usually ask no favor of the Government have placed their names to the petition. The American League has passed resolutions favoring the object of the petition which has been signed by the officers of the League. Yeal even the representative of the Hawaiian Gazette Co.—the boss of the Advertiser—has swelled the list of petitioners by adding his name.

And in spite of all that, the Advertiser comes out coolly and opposes the liberation of the prisoners because, as it says, the petition does not bring out the vital feature—the friendship of the opposition.

Is the clemency of Mr. Dole supposed to be of that very limited kind of charity which asks a quid pro quo? The Government will not liberate the prisoners, if the Advertiser expresses its views, because such an act would be wise, magnanimous, and extremely politic. We are to understand that the Government desires to strike a bargain—to offer the liberty of the harmless old men now in jail in lieu for the—at least pretended—friendship of the opposition.

The Advertiser graciously says that it does not expect or anticipate a love-feast. But it does believe that the time to strike a bargain has come. That by liberating the prisoners the opposition should show its willingness to come into the fold, to take the oath, to assist by its overwhelming numbers in furthering the schemes of the ruling clique, to sacrifice principles and opinions, and like the Advertiser itself become lick-spitting sycophants of the oligarchy.

Thank you, Mr. Advertiser, for your kind offer. We have the welfare of Hawaii as much, if not more, at heart than you have, and it is solely for that reason that we advocate the release of the prisoners. Individually they are nothing to the petitioners to the Government. It is because it is wise and to the advantage of the country that the petitioners pray for the liberation of all political prisoners. It is not a personal matter. It is purely a national matter.

When the cages of the political prisoners have been opened the time has come when the opposition can calmly discuss the situation with the dominant party. The opposition will be open to argument and common sense and good reasoning, but it does not "sell out" even if the liberty of hundreds of men depended on it. We make no bargain but we submit to Mr. Dole and his councillors that it is well worth for them to make a step towards conciliation which virtually means nothing to them, but on which the large majority of the people have set their hearts and minds.

Let Hawaii know no more of political prisoners. The experiment of releasing those in jail incurs no risk to the government. Keeping them there means a continuance of mistrust, bitterness, unrest and dissatisfaction. And it will furnish the opposition with a constant reason for expressing and nourishing those feelings.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Miss Kate Field has been detailed by the Chicago Times-Herald to visit Hawaii and write up annexation. It is to be regretted that an able writer as Miss Field undoubtedly is has undertaken a task which must necessarily place her in an awkward dilemma. If she tells the truth, she will be obliged to write contrary to the former policy of her employers and of that pronounced in her own paper. Both have claimed with a great deal of assurance that the "people of Hawaii" want annexation, and it will not be long before Miss Field, if she wants the truth, will realize the fallacy of such a postulate. Miss Field, according to the Advertiser, has already expressed her views on matters pertaining to Hawaii, of which she cannot know anything yet from personal observation. She follows apparently the example of other writers detailed to see Hawaii and the Hawaiians in a certain light by taking her cue from the "charming" people who hastened to greet her and invite her to Central Union Church socials and other insipid entertainments of a similar nature. If Miss Field wants the truth and only the truth we will strike the warning note and advise her to use her own independent observations and not depend on the "charming" people who heretofore have furnished "Hawaiian history" to the Republican papers of the United States. Her intelligence and experience as a writer will not be needed for that purpose. Hawaii has got Frank Judd.

In Hawaii we have a Custom House. It is well. Many times we have criticised it. Yet it has its uses. But we must say like almost everything else—the Government has done, it has done its utmost to rasp the business community when a little tact would have attained the same ends and everything would have gone smoothly. It is now about Christmas time, and the minds of the people are set on Christmas gifts, and our trades people's minds are set on having them buy them. Yet the Custom House officials seize this opportunity to seize all the Christmas gifts and other goods to thoroughly examine them. The idea is a proper and good one, but the time chosen is singularly unfortunate. The examination takes time. The results may increase the amount due the Treasury. But it delays business and the Custom House authorities might have expedited it by going a little beyond routine and examining the goods as they were unpacked in the stores for which they were destined. And as all have not been apparently served alike, it seems there is a cause for objection.

We publish in another column an article from the New York Nation in which the lack of discipline in the American navy is severely commented on. The tendency of the naval officers of the United States to interfere in the foreign policy of the American Government has reached dimensions where it has become necessary to check it. The annexation question in regard to Hawaii has generally been agitated and promoted by naval jingoes, who in the eventual enlarging of territory see prospects of advancement and promotion. The attitude in Hawaii on different occasions of officers like Captain Wiltze, Captain Cochrane, and Lucien Young would never for a moment be tolerated by any European government. Officers or officials of any government which understand the word discipline would be "sat on" in a most unmistakable manner if they ever allowed their tongues to run about their own government, or the government of any friendly power in the manner which seems to be the custom among the employees of the United States. It is not alone among the officers, however, that the lack of discipline is conspicuous. The sailor and the soldier are imbued with the same spirit of insubordination and in American style they pass resolutions against their superiors and write stacks of letters to the newspapers complaining about alleged wrongs done to them by their commanders. Such a thing is unheard of in the armies and navies of the old world. But as long as such a semi-communistic idea pervades the service of the United States and is tolerated, if not even encouraged, the day will come when it will be found that these "independent" soldiers make very poor soldiers.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Oct. 25, 1895.

It has been demonstrated in a most serious manner during the late epidemic of what vital importance pure water is to all human beings. While our medical men have differed in opinion in regard to the nature and treatment of the epidemic which now fortunately is ended, there has only been one opinion in regard to the imperative necessity of having an ample supply of pure water for all purposes. In Honolulu the water supply is now plentiful both for drinking purposes and for irrigation. The same cannot be said for the country districts. In many places it is necessary for the inhabitants to carefully save rain-water in tanks especially where artesian wells are impossible.

It has been a great help to people living in the country that we have introduced the celebrated Aermotor in these islands. Many people have availed themselves of the golden opportunity to purchase one of our galvanized Aermotors, and they have in all instances expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the bargain.

The Aermotor is especially appreciated because it runs in the lightest wind. Being geared back three to one, it starts with only a third of the load that the ordinary mill has to contend with. This enables it to start and run in a zephyr so light that all competitors stand idly by. Again, its lightweight and perfect bearing enable it to face up to and get the full benefit of the breeze. The wheel is so light and its efficiency so great that it is an absolute calm indeed which induces it to stand still.

The lightweight of the Aermotor is a strong point in its favor. The weight affects the cost of transportation; the ease of handling and erection; the facility of turning on the tower to face the wind for work; the regulation for safety in a high wind; the recovery of working position when danger is past; the sagging of the tower out of shape; the vibration and breaking of the tower in a storm and consequently the weight, strength and cost of a tower and foundations. The Aermotor only weighs about two-fifths as much as the other mills which do the same work. The great disparity in weight is in part made possible by the use of steel, malleable iron, and the very best materials throughout, and explains why so excellent a piece of work can be turned out at so low a price.

We invite farmers and others who have use for an Aermotor to call in at our stores, or write to us and we shall be pleased to give every further information necessary in regard to this invaluable farm implement.

Interesting Foreign News.

Ice lasts longer when the blocks are allowed to rest on their ends when laid flat.

A Russian scientist has succeeded in tracing all a man's disease to the fact that he wears clothes.

If the United States were as densely populated as Japan, they would have a population of 960,000,000.

Unless an Austrian gains the consent of his wife, he cannot get a passport to travel beyond the frontier of his own country.

The "new women" are coming to the front in Finland. They have formed volunteer fire brigades in Helsingfors and other towns, and have done first-rate work.

It is reported from Paris that the Cardinal Archbishop has issued instructions to his clergy to refuse the Sacrament to women who bicycle in bloomers and knickerbockers.

"Cool as a cucumber," is correct, scientifically. Investigators claim that that vegetable usually has a temperature one degree lower than that of the surrounding atmosphere.

According to the quarterly return issued by "Lloyd's Register of Shipping," the total number of steam and sailing vessels of all nationalities reported to have been lost and condemned during the quarter ended June 30 amounted to 208, of the aggregate tonnage of 143,594 tons.

Before her new story came out Miss Braddon had realised the historic ambition of Sir Walter Scott, who vowed he would make £100,000 by fiction before he ceased writing. This, with 53 novels standing to her credit, and a still unwaning popularity, is probable enough.

The recent severe weather in New Zealand killed the wild ducks in thousands. Their natural food was covered by snow, and in their hunger they came close to human habitations and allowed themselves to be caught. They were frequently found dead in the snow and frozen by the feet to the ice.

It may be interesting to hear that Duchesne column, which took the capital of the Hovas, was entirely made up of fair men belonging to the Foreign Legion and French Army. The dark men melted away in the ambulances. The fair men, who were from colder climates, withstood fever and heat.

A servant in Russia is expected to provide her own mattress, and can pitch her moving camp in any odd corner she finds suitable; the idea of providing rooms for servants would strike a Russian housekeeper as something supremely ridiculous. The servants sleep on the kitchen stove in winter, and in the corridor or out in the yard in summer.

More than 20,000 persons visited Shakespeare's birthplace last year. Three-fourths of them inscribed their names in the visitors' book, and of these 9549 were British subjects, and more than half as many, or 5385 Americans. It is strange to observe that only 91 Germans are numbered among the visitors, for Germany buys more copies of Shakespeare's works every year than probably any other nation.

The first Russian lady cyclist, who was a fortnight ago authorized officially to ride in the streets of St. Petersburg, has come to grief, falling from her machine and injuring herself so badly that she is now in the hospital. This accident means that cycling by ladies in Russia is doomed. The police will issue no more permits to women, as the force holds itself responsible for all accidents not caused by its agents.

A document of astonishing interest has come to light in the Oriental department of the British Museum. It is a small clay tablet, about 8 in. by 4 in., and containing about 98 lines of a very fine cuneiform writing. It is made of Nile mud, and bears upon it the marriage proposal of a Pharaoh for the hand of the daughter of the king of Babylon. It is evidently the duplicate copy of a letter written about B. C. 1530. The document admits us into the innermost secrets of ancient palace life in Egypt, with the jealousies and intrigues of the harem.
