Resolution of the General Convention with Regard to the Church in Hawaii.

We are indebted to The Churchman for the following report of what was done in the House of Deputies touching the relation of the Church in the United States to the Church in Hawaii:

"Mr. Seabreeze, of Indiana, introduced the important though quite diffuse report of the joint committee on the Increased Responsibilities of this Church and on Missions to Christian Countries in this Hemisphere. The committee had received many suggestions and memorials, and had determined in regard to Hawaii, that good faith required recognition of a joint verbal agreement that Bishop Kip had made with the authorities of the Church of England. * * * While assuming that the ultimate complete control of the American Church was assured, the committee desired a conference with the English Church before taking any final action.

"This was much against the judgment or wish of deputies from the Pacific Coast. Members from California and Oregon urged immediate action, and also that Mr. Usborne, of Hawaii, should be permitted to address the House. An effort was made by Dr. Davenport to get the whole matter postponed, but he finally withdrew his motion, and Dr. Fulton said with considerable frankness that it was unwise for the House to listen to Mr. Usborne, who was a partisan of one of the regrettable factions that were rending the little Church in the Sandwich Islands. In law this was a missionary district of the Church of England. Our entrance there would be an intrusion. Ecclesiastical tomy required the consent both of England and Hawaii to any action of ours.

"This view was supported by another deputy, who stated that Mr. Usborne had come before the committee and had spoken with acrimonious diffuseness. He hoped he might not be suffered to stir up scandal in this Convention, a view that finally prevailed. The committee's resolution in regard to Hawaii was then passed, as follows:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, that the present situation of the Church in Hawaii is not such as to render it expedient that the Church in the United States should interfere at this time with the existing status; and the consideration of the spiritual jurisdiction therein should be postponed until conference shall be had with the authorities of the Church of England."

The House of Bishops concurred. —Diocesan Magazine.

Exit the Cannibal.

Oh, the blithe and eager cannibal has seen his brightest days; They are fading out forever in Old Glory's coming rays. And the happy missionary will not dread the fatal broth, As he drops that ragout feeling which was common in the cloth.

Oh, no more the paunchy savage will set up his steaming pot, Out of which the fragrant parson will be forked or ladled hot; And no more will grinning henchmen squat beside the chief while he With nice discrimination handed around the late D.D.

For the Yankee swept the ocean, and the polishers of bones In the Philippines and Sandwiches and far away Ladronez, Must resign their meatly diet and come down to plainer things. For there'll be no more man eating 'neath the eagle's sheltering wings.

Postal Savings Banks.

No feature of the report of the Hawaiian Commissioners has given rise to more discussion than the proposed abolition of the savings bank system in the islands and the closing up of the institution by making repayments of deposits as soon as practicable.

Postal savings banks have been in operation in Hawaii ever since 1886, and, as in other countries where fairly tried, they have proven successful and greatly beneficial to the people. It is stated that the deposits in these banks at the present time amounting to something over $1,000,000, which is $10 a capita to the population. The working classes in the islands have profited by the existence of the banks, and through them considerable sums of money, which would otherwise have been hoarded, have been placed at the disposal of trade and industry.

The proposal to abolish them is due to the fact that we have no postal bank system in this country, and the Commissioners deem it advisable to make the postal system of Hawaii harmonize with our own. Commenting upon this argument the St. Paul Pioneer-Press says:

"What necessity there is for enforcing harmony or uniformity in the case is not strikingly evident. There are great many points of administration yet to be discovered, as our governmental relations with our new dependencies shall take form, which cannot and ought not yet awhile to be made uniform with what we are accustomed to in the States. Furthermore, if uniformity in the conduct of postal matters is desired, Hawaii is in this instance distinctly in advance of the United States, and it would be far better to at once devise a postal savings bank system for the nation, and all its dependencies, than to set Hawaii back in the scale of progress in order to bring her postal system down to the present lower level of our own."

With the view taken by the Pioneer-Press most students of the subject will agree. There has long been an agitation in this country in favor of establishing postal savings banks, and several Postmasters-General have recommended them. In fact, a bill to provide for their establishment was before Congress at its last session, and the subject may be taken up as soon as the new Congress assembles.

Under the circumstances it would seem to be hardly worth while to close out the banks in Hawaii. The system is serving a good purpose there, and even if we do not adopt a similar system of our own within the next few years it would still be no more than right to leave the Hawaiians in the enjoyment of the benefits to which they have been accustomed for the last twelve years. —S. UNMITIGATED GALL.

We should like to know whom the Y. M. C. A. is representing when the members take upon themselves the task of sending a memorial to Congress, in which they claim that they are speaking in the interest of the entire people of the Hawaiian Islands, while we all know that the Y. M. C. A. does not represent even a respectable minority of the clique composed of "missionaries," and the raffish which expects to get a job by singing hymns and indulging in other pastimes indigenous to the Association.

TO THE HONORABLE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, Assembled.

Greetings:—

WHEREAS, A constitution for the Government of the Hawaiian Islands is being prepared by your honorable body; and,

WHEREAS, We, your humble petitioners, believe you to be supremely interested in the welfare of all our population; and,

WHEREAS, Should there be any extension of the franchise, such would materially weaken the power of the conservative element in the community, and might lead to grave questions and issues pertaining to the well-being of certain elements in our population; and,

WHEREAS, The traffic in intoxicating liquors has been and is the greatest bane of every class in our country—one which has received the attention of the Hawaiian Government, now trying to regulate it; and,

WHEREAS, Gaming for money is another pernicious evil especially dangerous to our population and one which has been prohibited by the Hawaiian Government; and,

WHEREAS, the sale of opium is another evil, now prohibited by the Government.

We, therefore, petition your honorable body in the interest of over 39,000 Hawaiians and part Hawaiians; over 15,000 Portuguese; over 24,000 Japanese; over 21,000 Chinese (as per census returns of 1896—and thus including over 90 percent of the total population, 109,020)—to enact and place in the constitution now being framed for this territory, the following provisions:

First, that the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors be prohibited; and,

Second, that gaming be prohibited; and,

Third, that the importation and sale of opium be prohibited.

And your petitioners will ever pray.

That is the petition which the Y. M. C. A. has chosen to send to Congress without the slightest authority from the people of Hawaii. That the petition will be landed in the Congressional waste basket goes without saying, but we cannot allow such a piece of impudence to go by without entering a protest.

Recent happenings within the precincts of the Y. M. C. A. should make that institution take a modest back seat instead of throwing itself forward in seeking for notoriety. What was that little "affair" brought up at a recent meeting which did not reflect well on the association and which had nothing to do with the vices of drinking, gambling and smoking opium? Take a friendly advice, dear alphabetical societies, and mind your own business. If the people want prohibition and a tabu on gambling and opium, the people will get it, and they will know the way to go about it. The people, however, take no "tips" from an association of the character of our present Y. M. C. A.

THE ADVERTISER RILED.

Mr. Edward Atkinson, a well-known Bostonian literateur, has made an address in which he has ventured to criticize the "missionaries" of Hawaii and he consequently receives a terrible "roasting" from the missionary organ.

The Advertiser admits the high standing of Mr. Atkinson in the literary world and at the same time insinuates that he must have gained his views from Julien D. Hayne or from Captain Palmer, the two "enemies" of sacred Hawaii. The Advertiser gets highly indignant when Atkinson insinuates that the people of Hawaii were happy and contented when the missionaries arrived. It tries to prove that the Hawaiians were simply wretched; that they owned no lands and were living without clothing in the thralldom of the big chiefs. Now, argues the missionary organ, they are happy. They own no lands, but they have clothes, for which they must pay and in the majority of instances they eke out an existence in the thralldom of the sugar barons and the money lenders. It is true that our women no longer sport the "pau" of their ancestors and that silks and muslins have taken the place of the ancient "kapa," but are they happier for the change or are their supporters better off? It is true that the men then had to work for the chiefs and were obliged to earn a living by slaving for the select classes. But how about present conditions? Have taxes not to be paid in U. S. gold coin? Have rents and other contributions not to be furnished yearly to the present great "chiefs"? We don't see that Mr. Atkinson is very wrong when he compares the conditions of the past with those of to-day and credits the old times with more contentment and happiness than is enjoyed in the present "missionary" period.

The Advertiser is undertaking a big contract when it attempts to defend the "missionaries" in Hawaii after a century of "civilization." The Hawaiians still condemn the selfishness and cruelty of the men who introduced the Blue laws into their Paradise and whose descendants now own the lands of the natives and clip their coupons in their baronial mansions abroad. Mr. Edward Atkinson may not be correct in all the details but he does something that no missionary can do—he tells the truth.

Quick Work.

It is a pleasure to notice that under the present management the soldiers are looked after in a most exemplary manner when in need of medical assistance. At the convalescent hospital on Punchbowl Dr. Eagan, a private, who suffered from tonsillitis was taken dangerously ill yesterday. Sergeant-Major Wood was notified at the headquarters at Kapiolani Park, and within twenty minutes an ambulance with a physician had arrived from headquarters the sick man attended to, and later on removed to the valley hospital. It is when such attention is given to the men that no complaints are heard of.

The State in Cochinchina derives revenue from farming the right to kill birds, the feathers of which are exported. The farm is let to Chinese on a three years' lease at the rate of 20,000 francs a year. This feather trade now increases in bulk, China being the market. The feathers are mostly used in the manufacture of fans.

The Open Door.

The papers in America, now, since the war is over
Insist that China shall be made to have an open door;
They rave about encroachments made by Russia and by France, And threaten if they do not cease, to fight them a l'outrance.

The easy victory over Spain, has made the jingoes dare
To fume, and threaten, and to try a big bluff on the Bear;
The Eagle, too, must stop its shady onward flight,
Or else they'll be in danger of a long and bloody fight.

But both these nations know full well, how to meet the bluff,
They'll order iron from Carnegie, some million dollars worth.
The papers, too, they'll flatter, and with dollars fill both hands,
As the planters of these Islands did, when they stole kanaka's lands.

And after this, these Godly men, who for Cuba's freedom fought,
(And now are trying all they know to have the Cubans out)
Will pat John Bull upon the back and beg him force the door,
They'll help him diplomatically, to oust the Russian Bear.

And when its done, they'll tell the world of England's grabbing style,
And call poor John a robber, a pirate, and a curse to modern time;
But they'll take advantage of his work, and try to push him out,
Some day they'll over-reach themselves and find they're up the spout.

'Tis sad to see a nation whose founder could not lie!
Stand forth pre-eminent in foreign diplomacy;
The Stars and Stripes, once floated as an emblem of the free,
But now in sorrow fold the flag, it brings nought but misery.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The total number of voters on Oahu is only 816 as disclosed by the present register of voters. The "masses" have no show at the forthcoming election for a successor to Senator Schmidt. If the A. U. P. wish to quarrel openly with the Dole Government they alone can do so, but the Government employees will probably down them, as the people cannot take a hand in this fight.

There is a strong move on foot to elect Mr. John Phillips as Senator in the place of Mr. Schmidt, resigned. The special session of our local Congress now in prospect may not be of great importance but the nomination of a man like John Phillips would be a wise political stroke on the part of the A. U. P. and gratifying to the "malcontents." Whether Mr. Phillips will accept a nomination is another question. Take a hint, boys!

The blind man who "toots" whistles around town is becoming a nuisance and should have the immediate attention of the police. Before daylight he traverses the streets in the vicinity of Kawaiahao Church and wakes the neighborhood with hideous wailing and discordant noises. Everybody pities the misfortunes of the poor fellow, but he should not be allowed to become a nuisance to the public. Even the dear girls at the Seminary lose their beauty sleep, when blind the man starts out.

Why have we no Court Missionaries in this country? In England, Germany and other civilized countries the "missionary" is present at every proceedings in the courts. He uses his judgment, and young boys and girls are saved from imprisonment or "reformatory" schools whenever the "missionary" of the court sees a chance to redeem an offender against the laws. In our District Court here we often see young people who might do better sent to jail when the magistrate willingly would turn them over to some respectable "missionary" or to some "home." It is sad to see boys of tender years ordered to jail or the Reformatory School, in which they never will improve in morals or become decent citizens. It is still sadder to see young girls arraigned in Court for petty offenses and turned loose because there is nothing to be done for them under our laws. Where is Sereno? Bishop, Henry Parker, Frank Damon, Kincaid and Osborne? Why do they not spend a few minutes every day in being present in the Police Court and doing some "practical" good? It is true that they are not paid for such Christian work. Was Christ paid for what he did for the manhood of the world? The Court-missionary in Honolulu would have the support of Courts and the community—but can he be found among our virtuous saccharine missionaries.

Did He Sell Liquor.

Judge Wilcox imposed a fine of $100 this morning on Daniel Houghtailing, who it is claimed has been selling liquor at the premises of his brother on Bethel street.

Dan was represented by Mr. De Bolt, and very slim evidence was presented. The Marshal "fished" up from the cells Robert S. Scrimgeour, who had just been fined for being drunk, and who was assisted to the witness stand by police officers, where he stated that he had purchased liquor from Dan Houghtailing.

Mr. W. F. Reynolds also testified to purchasing liquor from Dan Houghtailing, and his evidence had a great effect. Other witnesses admitted that they had partaken of the hospitality of Houghtailing, but only Scrimgeour and Reynolds said that they paid for their drinks, in the precincts of the generous host.

Mr. DeBolt appeared for Dan, and noted an appeal to the next session of the Circuit Court.

The use of Scrimgeour as a witness in such a case is not a credit to the Marshal, and will not be viewed favorably by any intelligent jury.

VICTORY OF ECUADORIAN IN- SURGENTS.

By Clever Strategic Military Operations They Captured the Capital of an Important Province.

PANAMA, Dec. 28.—Ecuadorian political exiles here have received a telegram through the Columbian frontier saying that Tulcan was taken recently by invading revolutionary forces under General Rivadeneira, defeating the government troops.

The Call-Herald correspondent at Guayaquil confirms this news. The invaders pretended to march on Ibarra with the intention of intercepting the artillery on the way from Quito for General Arellano's forces in Tulcan.

To frustrate the revolutionists' strategic plans General Arellano abandoned his military positions around Tulcan, marching out all his forces to prevent the artillery falling into the enemy's hands. Immediately after the rebels had occupied the town General Arellano returned, trying to recapture his lost positions, which at last accounts were still held by the invaders.

Important details of the significant battle are momentarily expected. The invading army is said to be largely composed of a Colombian contingent. Tulcan is situated on the Colombian frontier. It is the capital of Carchi province and is well fortified. Ibarra is situated between Quito and Tulcan.

New York, Dec. 28.—A recent special cable to the Call and Herald from Panama stated that owing to attempts of the revolutionists to invade the country simultaneously from the Colombian and Peruvian frontiers the Council of State had conceded extraordinary powers to President Alfaro, who had assumed a dictatorship over the country.

How President Dole Abandoned Neutrality.

A severe attack upon President Dole and his Cabinet has been for some time in progress, on the ground that in their abandonment of neutrality last May, in favor of the United States, they acted with great reluctance and hesitation, showed cowardice, and were finally driven to it by the force of public sentiment. In their defense, an elaborate historical statement has been published in the P. O. Advertiser.

So much emphasis and publicity has been given to this matter, that it seems due to the Government for The Friend to express its clear conviction that the imputation of cowardice and unpatriotic conduct is wholly groundless, and that Mr. Dole and his associates acted in the affair with great promptness and the most loyal regard towards the United States.

The sentiment of leading men in Honolulu was greatly divided, and rather preponderated towards maintaining neutrality and observing our treaty with Spain. Immediately upon learning of the declaration of war, Mr. Dole offered to Washington the unreserved alliance of Hawaii. This was on May 10th, one day before the surprising news of Dewey's victory at Manila. But for that destruction of the Spanish fleet in the Pacific, Hawaii would have remained exposed to Spanish reprisals for violation of treaty. It is remarkable that Mr. Dole did not show more hesitation in acting—
The Friend.

To the Soldiers.

The Boys in Blue complain that they have not been served with the "Eastern" beer which tickles their palates and makes them good-natured.

Pabst Milwaukee Beer on draft, is now served at a proper temperature in the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, conducted by the elite of the employees of the Peacock Co.

The Milwaukee Beer on draft has proven a tonic which is daily helping the sensible soldiers who are patronizing the three great refreshment places, where the beer is so served that even prohibitionists from Milwaukee recommend it.
