McKinley's Creed.

A correspondent of the Outlook asks for space for the following creed, which he says seems to be held by President McKinley and his political advisers:

I. I believe in keeping up the old war taxes to prevent trade with Europe and new war taxes to forge trade with Asia.

II. I believe in the exclusion of ignorant Europeans and the inclusion of more ignorant Asiatics.

III. I believe in a protective tariff where farmers would trade abroad, but in free trade where manufacturers seek a market.

IV. I believe the public can not manage monopolies at home, but can manage subject races on the other side of the globe.

V. I believe in home rule for Ireland, but in alien rule for the Spanish islands.

VI. I believe in a Monroe Doctrine which forbids Europe to interfere with self-government in America, but permits America to interfere with self-government in Asia.

VII. I believe the Spanish islanders are unable to govern themselves, but will be fit to help govern us.

VIII. I believe the blacks have a right to govern themselves, but that whites and blacks have a right to govern yellows.

IX. I believe that taxation without representation is tyranny when applied to us, but philanthropy when applied by us.

X. I believe that governments get their just powers from the consent of the governed in America, but from the conscious superiority of the governors in Asia.

XI. I believe that militarism and foreign broils are the refuge of despotism in Europe and of republicanism in America.

XII. I believe that American policies have made a little America and that European policies will make a Greater America.

Seeing the Point.

The following story is told of a Philadelphia millionaire who has been dead some years. A young man came to him one day and asked pecuniary aid to start him on business. "Do you drink?" asked the millionaire.

"Once in a while."
"Stop it. Stop it for a year, and then come and see me." The young man broke off the habit at once, and at the end of the year came to see the millionaire again.

"Do you smoke?" asked the successful man.

"Now and then."
"Stop it. Stop it for a year, and then come and see me again." The young man stopped smoking, and at the end of the year came to see the millionaire again.

"Do you chew?" asked the philanthropist.

"Yes, I do," was the desperate answer.

"Stop it. Stop it for a year and then come and see me again." The young man stopped chewing, but he never went back again. When asked by his anxious friends why he never called on the millionaire again, he replied that he knew exactly what the man was driving at. "He'd have told me that now that I have stopped drinking and smoking and chewing I must have saved enough to start myself in business—and I have."—Youth's Companion.

As She Heard It.

After the new servant had been installed in the home of a New Jersey housewife the day finally came when the privilege of "going out" had to be decided on. This fell on a Thursday, to which the mistress assented.

"You may go to-day, Bridget," she said, "and every other Thursday."

"All right, ma'am," replied Bridget.

The next week on Thursday surprise was great at Bridget's coming from her room all toggled out for another afternoon out. The mistress rebelled and asked her if she remembered that she was to go out only every other Thursday.

"Certainly I do, ma'am, certainly! Didn't you say I could go out that Thursday and every other Thursday—that Thursday and every Thursday afterward?"

"No, no," replied the mistress.

"That Thursday and every second Thursday thereafter."

"Sure you didn't say so. You positively told me that Thursday and every other Thursday. Of course that means every Thursday." Bridget won.—N. Y. Sun.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1899.

The "boys in blue" have evidently come to the conclusion that war is not a picnic. We judge from the following extracts from a letter written by a Manila warrior and published by the P. C. A. It reads: "The sight of thousands of yelling natives charging upon one with guns and long sharp knives is enough to turn the hair gray." The brave correspondent will be fortunate if he returns to his home with any hair on his head at all—or with a head.

IS IT A DEAD LETTER?

The Solons representing the clique which has been running the Government during the past six years, enacted a law which made it compulsory on the importers of Asiatic laborers to bring to the islands Europeans or Americans to the amount of ten percent of the number of Asiatics imported by them.

A heavy bond was exacted for the faithful compliance with the law, to be held by the Minister of Interior. A specified period was granted, during which the conditions should be carried out.

Has it been done? Have the Minister of Interior and the Executive even attempted to uphold the provisions of the law? Dare they claim that the law has been complied with, or if not, that the bonds have been declared forfeited for the benefit of the Treasury?

About 14,000 Asiatic laborers have been imported since the law referred to went into effect, and we all know that no 140 "white" laborers have arrived here since then. We are also aware that the bonds, many of which have lapsed, have never been collected, but that the whole matter has simply been pigeon-holed, because this government of the planters, for the planters and by the planters, does not dare to carry out the laws passed by the Legislature, sanctioned by the Executive and signed by the President. If they happen to clash with the interests of the sugar barons.

The neglect to declare these bonds forfeited and to collect the amounts due on them is a direct insult to every member of the Senate and the House of Representatives. Whether the measure was wise or not is not a question at all. The fact remains that the measure became law, and being such it should be carried out, even if the wrath of the sugar barons should fall on the head of the Government. It is unjust, cowardly and even fraught with fraud and corruption to allow a law of the country to become a dead letter simply to suit a certain class of the citizens. And remember well that the Legislature was controlled by that class, that the planters were the men who spouted about their Americanism and "white" laborers at all hazards, and wanted Asiatic immigration checked if not stopped by the passage of this very law, calling for the introduction of white labor at the rate of ten percent of the Asiatic coolies imported.

Castle & Cooke and the other big sugar firms talked very loud at the time. They could get all the American laborers needed here in a moment, and they were going to have them. Mr. E. D. Tenney and the Lowrey of Ewa asserted repeatedly that the cane-fields of Hawaii were exactly the proper working fields for white labor, and Fitzgerald, the humbug from California, whooped it up on the same line—as long as he was paid—and he never sent a single "white" man to be scorched and "docked" in Hawaii.

We do not desire to cast a straw in the way of the planters getting all the Asiatic coolies or other cheap laborers to sweat in their fields and mills and develop the new enterprises with stock gambling and dividends, but we claim that it is undignified to have a law on our statutes, which is not enforced, and that the Government cannot afford the charge of servility, cowardice if not corruption, which can justly be laid at its door, if they do not declare the bonds now lapsed, forfeited; 15,000 Japanese coolies will soon be on their way to Hawaii. Gentlemen of the Government, the law demands 15,000 "white" laborers to follow them or the laws and the Government of the country will be brought into contempt.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Dole Letter.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

In the course of the warbling of "ex-President Dole's" long letter to Harper's Weekly, is the following choice morsel: "Many Hawaiians cheerfully accepted the abrogation of the monarchy, having lost confidence in it. These, as a rule, would have preferred the continuance of the republic of Hawaii to annexation, but with confidence in the judgment of the annexationists, bravely faced the new departure." There you are gentlemen, read carefully and digest, and if you don't quickly come to the conclusion, that Mr. Dole has out-ranked old Ananias in the art of lying, then the crucifixion of our Savior was a myth. In the name of common sense, if the Hawaiians "cheerfully accepted" the stealing of their homes and placed "confidence in the judgment of the" thieves, why all this arming of so many aliens from every quarter of the globe, at the rate of forty dollars a month and found? And also why was the palace seized and turned into a government building and fortified from roof to cellar, with two hundred armed men there every day and night, and all government men from the President down, with pistols in their pockets and bowie knives in their boots? And again, if the Hawaiians cheerfully accepted the situation, why did Mr. Dole beg of the United States government to station an armed cruiser here and then encourage the commander to parade his armed forces frequently through the streets of Honolulu in order to terrorize those cheerful Hawaiians? After the riot of 1895, some hundred or two of Hawaiians became discouraged, and seeing no signs of restoration of their rights, took the oath to the government and worked for annexation. When asked by anyone of their friends why they had done so, their answer would invariably be this; we see no other way to down this accused oligarchy, except we have annexation. Advertiser please copy and send to Harper's Weekly.

How Relief Came.

From Cole County Democrat, Jefferson City, Mo.

When la grippe visited this section, about seven years ago, Herman H. Eveler, of 811 W. Main St., Jefferson, Mo., was one of the victims, and has since been troubled with the after-effects of the disease. He is a well known contractor and builder, a business requiring much mental and physical work. A year ago his health began to fail and he was obliged to discontinue work. That he lives today is almost a miracle. He says:

"I was troubled with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general debility. My back also pained me severely."

"I tried one doctor after another and numerous remedies suggested by my friends, but without apparent benefit, and began to give up hope."

A Contractor's Difficulty.

After taking the first box I felt wonderfully relieved and was satisfied that the pills were putting me on the road to recovery. I bought two more boxes and continued taking them.

"After taking four boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People I am restored to good health. I feel like a new man, and having the will and energy of my former days returned, I am capable of transacting my business with increased ambition."

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a wonderful medicine and anyone that is afflicted with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration and general debility, will find that these pills are the specific."

"HERMANN H. EVELER."
Subscribed and sworn to before me a Notary Public, this 24th day of May, 1897.

ADAM POUTZONG, Notary Public.
Mr. Eveler will gladly answer any inquiry regarding this if stamp is enclosed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure people troubled with the after-effects of the grippe because they are directly on the impure blood. They are also a specific for chronic erysipelas, catarrh, rheumatism and all diseases due to impure or impoverished blood.

THIEVES AT LARGE.

Petty Robberies Are Now the Order of the Night.

The police have received several complaints in regard to the operations of petty sneak thieves now at large in the city and at present making the residence quarter of King street a special field for their enterprises.

Last night a valuable rug and a doormat were abstracted from Dr. Howard's residence on the corner of King and Pensacola. The thief, frightened by the barking of a dog, ran away and stumbling over a water tap dropped the booty, and disappeared before the owner, aroused by the noise, arrived on the scene.

On Wednesday night another residence on King street nearer to town was entered, a shutter carefully opened, when the occupant of the room woke up and the burglar ran away after abstracting two Japanese boxes in the window. The stolen property was of small value and was probably removed only to facilitate an entrance into the room. On Thursday night the burglars made a visit to the same house. By climbing a tree the roof over a verandah was reached from which an easy access to the second story can be gained. A window was raised very quickly, and a cup and glass on the broad window sill removed, a bottle of medicine was knocked over and the noise awoke a young boy sleeping in the room who immediately gave an alarm, upon which the intruder made a hasty exit climbing down the tree and jumping the fence before the people of the house, thoroughly aroused, could make out his identity.

There is apparently a gang of crooks at work in the city—another sign of civilization—and we hope that if the police cannot catch them, some citizen will dose them full of lead at the very first chance. The days when we slept with doors wide open have passed of course, thanks to our advanced civilization, but we kick when it becomes necessary to bolt and bar our windows and purchase bulldogs and revolvers.

Orpheum Theatre.

There will be another complete change of program to night.

M. Post has prepared two new surprises a new one-act comedy, entitled "The Baby Elephant," and the popular Parisian craze Fantasma or "La Dance Vamoose," a highly amusing and mystifying illusion.

Miss Mervyn and Miss Francis have prepared new specialties.

Prof. Martin and his educated dogs are a prime novelty and must be seen to be appreciated.

Sale of Newspaper Stamps.

Stamp collectors were quick to take advantage of the opportunity to obtain a set of the periodical stamps recently retired from use by the United States, afforded by their being placed on sale at the local postoffice at $5 a set. These labels had not been previously sold to the public. When the postal authorities decided to retire these stamps it was arranged to save 50,000 sets for sale to collectors. All the remaining labels were burned and the plates from which they were printed are to be destroyed.

The much-coveted stamps were placed on sale at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and before nightfall orders had been received for half of the 100 sets on hand. The set consists of twelve stamps, ranging in face value from 1 cent to $100.—S. F. Call.
