Captain Pond intimated that he would be merely a passenger on the vessel and she would be commanded by Captain Rodman her regular commander. The Iroquois is to stand by until the cable landing will have been made. Captain Pond has instructions to secure data for light houses, buoys and wharves at Midway. ## UNDER COVER

Somewhere in the locked desks of the House are several hundred vouchers, which in the aggregate represent the $38,000 and odd which the House spent during the regular session.

These vouchers, if they are ever allowed to see the light of publicity would tell a much more interesting story, even, than the warrants based on them tell. A good many people would like to see these vouchers, and learn the story they could tell. For instance, some of these vouchers might tell how many fountain pens were bought for the thirty members of the House. Some of them might tell of the quantity of other incidentals and perquisites purchased, typewriters, for instance, and things like that.

But for the present, at any rate, these vouchers are kept in the possession of the clerks. There are some interesting rumors about what the vouchers would show if they were brought to light, but whether they ever will be brought to light is a question.

The documents of the session are supposed to be turned over to the Secretary of the Territory when the session ends, but this was not done by the Home Rulers last time. In fact the vouchers were destroyed by burning. It is said that this may be done this time. Burned documents tell no tales.

The vouchers of the House are at present denied to those who ask to be allowed to see them. They are kept in the possession of the clerk and unless they are turned over to the Secretary the stories they tell, which are the subject of some not very pleasant rumors, may never be brought to light. The House is very sensitive about publicity and investigations and did much squirming the last time any of its scandals were ventilated. There is a disposition to keep the vouchers where they are and preserve their secrets from an inquisition public.

A TRIP TO THE PARK

THE HOUSE ACCEPTS AN INVITATION OF THE PARK COMMISSIONERS TO LOOK OVER THE SITUATION AND SEE WHAT IS NEEDED IN THE WAY OF IMPROVEMENTS AND CARE.

On invitation from the Park Commission the House of Representatives decided to make a visit at 2 o'clock this afternoon to Kapiolani Park, for the purpose of considering improvements of the park. The letter was from Secretary of the Commission L. A. Thurston and was in part as follows:

"1. The Kapiolani Park is no longer under the control of a private corporation, but is exclusively a public park, the Commissioners thereof being appointed by the Governor with the approval of the Senate and serving without pay.

"2. Heretofore the communication between the city and park has been so poor that except upon special occasions, but few people visited it, and but slight expenditure in development seemed justifiable.

"3. All this has now changed. With electric car communication established, many people visit the park every day, and on Sundays and holidays, several thousand go there.

"Under these circumstances it would seem to be in the public interests to change the policy concerning the park, and begin development of the same on modern lines, in order to make it sanitary and beautiful. It does not now possess either of these qualities. It is not sanitary because the waterways are filled the greater part of the year with stagnant water, slimy, ill-smelling and malarious.

"The greater part is not beautiful because the land is too sandy to support vegetable life without water, and there is practically no water for irrigation."

The letter states that some work has already been done and that as the legislature is the body to finally decide what shall be done at the park, the Commissioners hope that the invitation will be accepted. The letter concludes as follows:

"If it is accepted and you will let the writer know the hour when the House of Representatives desires to go to the park, special Rapid Transit cars will be provided for the purpose.

"I have the honor to remain, your obedient servant,

"L. A. THURSTON,

"Secretary Honolulu Park Commission."

LEGISLATURE SEEKING LIGHT

PAELE INTRODUCES A RESOLUTION PROVIDING NEWSPAPERS FOR THE PERUSAL OF EACH MEMBER OF THE HOUSE—BUT WHEN BECKLEY PUT THE MOTION NEARLY EVERYBODY GOT COLD FEET.

The House spent most of its morning in committee of the whole considering the bill making departmental appropriations for six months. Senate Bill Number 5 passed second reading and Senate Bill No. 4 was referred to the Printing Committee.

Paele introduced a resolution instructing the Sergeant-at-Arms to provide each member every day with a copy of each newspaper, whether English or Hawaiian, in Honolulu. A motion to refer it to the Miscellaneous Committee was lost by 12 to 11, but Beckley saved the day.

"Those in favor of free newspapers rise," said the Speaker, interrupting a speech which Paele was beginning. Only Kumalae and a few others rose when the question was presented this way and the subject was dropped.

The item of $2,500 for purchasing and installing 50 new fire alarm boxes was raised to $10,000, Beckley and others stating that $2,500 was not enough to purchase Gamewell boxes.

A communication was received from Delegate Kuhio referring to a petition of Wailuku citizens asking for improvements in Kahului wharf and offering to co-operate with the Legislature in securing improvements.

PAYING OUT THE CHINESE FUND

THE PANDORA'S BOX FROM WHICH SO MANY EVILS HAVE COME TO THIS TERRITORY IS SOON TO BE NO MORE—PREPARING TO PAY IT OUT TO THE CHINESE.

In accordance with the act approved April 28, Secretary Carter and Auditor Fisher are preparing to pay out to 5,000 Chinese who are holders of immigration pass books the $155,000 known as the "Chinese fund." Secretary Carter thinks that the fund will soon be a thing of the past, when the announcement is made that those entitled to the money may call and get it. Already a number of pass books have been handed in by Chinese who want their money. Two of them are for dead men, whose relatives claim the coin in behalf of their estates.

The new law declares the fund to be a government realization and orders it to be disposed of as follows:

"Section 3. The Governor and Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii are hereby appointed a Board of Examiners to investigate all claims of Chinese whose names appear in the records of the Board of Immigration or as depositors in the Postal Savings Bank, or any other persons who have contributed to the said Chinese Fund. And whenever the said Board is satisfied as to the identity of the claimant, or his legal representatives, they shall so certify upon the claim, and such certification shall be full authority for the Auditor to draw a warrant for the Treasurer to pay the same.

"Section 4. Claimants under this fund shall not be required to prove that it is their intention to leave the country, as a condition precedent to securing the payment of their claims."

When the time came to pay out deposits it was found that the books were in such condition that certificates could not be found. There appears to have been no system by which the various accounts with the Immigration Bureau and the Postal Savings Bank could be checked, and Auditor Fisher is at work on a "key" by which Carter will be able to find the account of any holder of a pass book who may present his claim.

When the accounts are straightened out any Chinese who has a pass book will be entitled to the $36 or more he deposited and it is expected that the 5,000 Chinese will not lose much time in calling for the coin. "I do not think there will be much to revert to the government," said the Secretary. "The Chinese have probably all carefully preserved their pass books, as is shown by the fact that the books of two men who are deceased have already been presented. The only books that will not be presented are those of men who violate their labor contracts before as presented are those of men who violated their labor contracts before and old laws."

NOAR'S PETITION.

A petition from Isaac Noar, asking for $1,054 alleged to be due him for land taken for the widening of Beretania street, was referred to the Public Lands and Internal Improvements Committee of the House this morning.

BACK TO ITS BUILDERS

NOTORIOUS OLD IWILEI STOCKADE RETURNED TO THE CHINESE CONTRACTORS.

After many vicissitudes the notorious old Iwilei stockade has returned to the hands of the men who made it. Yesterday, acting on a writ of restitution, Deputy Sheriff Albert McGurn put Ching Lum and Leong Kau in possession of the place.

The Chinese were the contractors who built the place for T. Masuda and H. Hamanaka, the alleged Japanese proprietors of the place. The place was built practically on speculation. The speculation proved highly profitable and during the height of its career, was a mint for those concerned in it.

But the apotheosis of vice departed when the courts issued injunctions that resulted in the place being closed. Since that time, the place has been worthless, so far as bringing any revenue to its owners was concerned. Since the time of its being closed the place has had but few tenants. The Chinese contractors have, in the mean while been whistling for the balance of the money due them.

Masuda went to the mainland last year and is reported to have died in a New York hospital. The other man has not been where the authorities could secure service, so the writ was finally issued this week out of Judge Dickey's court and Deputy Sheriff McGurn turned the property over to the original builders. What use they will make of the place has not been announced.

MAY EXTEND TO KAIMUKI

DE BOLT RENDERS A DECISION
APPROVING RAPID TRANSIT
AGREEMENT WITH ESTATE.

Judge De Bolt rendered a decision yesterday in the matter of the petition of the trustees of the Bishop estate for an interpretation of the will and codicil to determine whether the trustees have power to enter into an agreement to deed lands to the Rapid Transit company in consideration of the company extending its lines through Kaimuki. The court holds that the proposed agreement is within the powers of the trustees and the contract may therefore be carried out, and the Rapid Transit company may extend its road through Kaimuki. In his decision Judge De Bolt said:

"In my opinion, under Section 17 of the codicil, if not under the original will, the trustees are empowered and have authority to enter into and perform said contract. Indeed, it would seem that such power was contained in the power to sell or to exchange."

"It is urged by Messrs. Holmes and Stanley appearing as Amicus Curie, that the proposed conveyance is a bonus, i. e. a gift, and without consideration, and that, therefore, the trustees, having no power to give the property of the estate away, it follows that they have no power to enter into said contract. I do not think the proposed conveyance is a gift, or that it is without consideration. Bouvier defines a bonus thus: 'A premium paid to the grantor or vendor, as the bank paid a bonus to the state for its charter. A consideration given for what is received.'"

"In the case of Leslie vs. Leslie, 50 N. J. E. 103, the word bonus was held to mean price. Also in the case of Kaniok vs. Wayne County, 15 Wall (U. S.) 470 the Supreme Court of the United States made use of the following language: 'A proposition was submitted to the voters of which the affirmative was in these words: "For appropriating the swamp lands of Wayne as a bonus to any company for building a railroad through said county." It is said that the word "bonus" condemns the submission; that this word means a gratuity, a voluntary donation, a gift, and that a town or county cannot, although it have the direct authority of the legislature give away its property. When this question is properly before it will be disposed of. It does not, however, arise in this case. In the first place, if it be assumed that the word is correctly defined as a gift, or gratuity, that meaning is controlled and limited by the connection in which it is here used, to-wit: that in consideration of it the company receiving the lands will undertake to build a railroad through the county."

"I therefore find that by said will and codicil of Bernice Pauahi Bishop, the trustees acting thereunder are vested with the power to enter into said contract with the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, and of course, have power to convey the land therein described according to the terms and conditions thereof by deed."

"J. T. DE BOLT,
Judge."

KAPIOLANI PARK.

Kapiolani Park is becoming more and more a pleasure and recreation resort for the entire city. Since the Rapid Transit extended its line out there, the park can be reached from practically every part of the city for one fare, in comfort and with expedition. The Sunday band concerts at Makee Island are more largely attended than they ever have been before.

Kapiolani Park has therefore been brought more intimately into the life of the community than ever before.

Recognizing this, the Park Commissioners feel that it is their duty to do everything in their power to make it the attractive pleasure resort and recreation ground that it ought to be under the new conditions. The possibilities for making it a veritable paradise for beauty are fully recognized by the Commissioners, and they have devoted much thought to plans how to bring it up to its possibilities as a park, without at this time drawing too heavily upon a treasury which has other and many important demands upon it. In their estimates presented to the Governor, the Park Commissioners asked for $30,000 as the sum absolutely required for its maintenance, with any outlook at all toward keeping it up to its present best status and for its future improvement. This estimate did not include any radical or expensive improvements. It was for maintenance. Governor Dole in his estimates to the Legislature felt it his duty to cut this estimate to $14,000, in view of the many demands on the treasury. But the matter is now before the Legislature, with the new place the park is to take in the life of the community by reason of improved intra-mural transit now more fully developed than it was when the Governor sent his estimates to the Legislature. It is more clearly to be seen now than it was then that the public seeks the park; that it makes use of it as a recreation ground; that the park is to be an important educational factor in the life of Honolulu; that is to be one of the great show places of the town, to be talked about away from here by visitors to the Islands; to be a delightful memory to our citizens or to strangers when they are away from here.

The Legislature ought to give the park and the estimates of the Park Commissioners careful consideration and be as liberal in appropriations for it as it is possible to be under the conditions of revenue with which the Legislature has to deal.

Kapiolani Park in its name and location, in its present relation to the life of the community and in its possibilities, deserves careful consideration and liberal treatment at the hands of the legislators.

THE ISSUE.

The present situation with regard to the County act is rather a curious one. The act has passed. It is an act which every one expected and yet which few have studied. Portions of the act keep cropping up in a manner which is objectionable to a very conservative community. The County act steps in and makes many changes which are not as agreeable as they might be, but which come in the line of progress. It will be met with countless objections, but it will stand in spite of all attack. The County act rallies round it the best thought of the community. No amount of cold water will put out the light of the County act. Its results will be far-reaching.

The County act has come to a position of strict accounting. Either it is a good act, or it is a very poorly drawn document. The people of Hawaii have been looking for a county act for three years, and now that it has come, and has been framed with so much care, it is not likely that they will calmly accept a position in which they lose at a blow, what they have been determined to obtain, and what was the main issue of the last campaign.

It has been currently stated that the defect in the County act, if there is a defect, was seen long ago, but that it was not pointed out to the members of the Legislature by those who realized it, for the express purpose of defeating it when it had passed. Now this is a contention which The Star does not give credit to. The wish in this case is father to the thought. There is a desire to pose as being more far-seeing than the rest of the community. But granted that there was such knowledge, it was the height of folly to keep it hidden away and spring it now. It certainly is not an act to be proud of to put a stop to the wishes of a whole Territory, deliberately and of malice aforethought.

The issue which has come up is decidedly a far-reaching one, and it is one which must be settled finally. Whether the Supreme Court of the Territory can settle this finally is a question. It may give a decision, but it is one which can be attacked through other courts. In a case of this kind the Supreme Court of the Territory is not the court of final appeal.

But granting that the County bill is overthrown, does that mean that we are going back to our former system of government. By no means. If it is finally shown that we cannot frame a County act for ourselves, we shall have a County act framed by others, which will not take into consideration our local conditions, and which will be much more radical in character. One has only to read through the report of the Senatorial sub-committee which visited the Islands last fall, to appreciate and understand what will be the attitude of Congress should our County act fail. We shall then, without doubt, have a County act given to us by Congress, and we shall have very little to say about its provisions.

The issue before the Territory is a very serious one, and the construction of the act should have the broadest interpretation. If it has not such broad interpretation the results may be really very serious, not only now, but in the immediate future.

The discovery of an aerolite still hot and smoking is not a common event, but such discoveries have been made. From the account of the meteor seen along the coasts of Hawaii it is highly probable that it may have buried itself among the mountains of that Island. There is an authentic account of a meteoric mass which buried itself on Lanai, and meteorites have been obtained at various places on the mainland.

The division of appropriations into six months and eighteen months is liable to cause some trouble in the management of the public funds. If the appropriations for the six months prove to be too liberal, the balance cannot go over into the eighteen months period, but will close down at once. In the matter of specific salaries the apportionment is easy enough, but in appropriations for constructing of public works, there will be very serious difficulties which will require neat adjustment.

King Edward is doing a great deal of visiting upon the continent of Europe. It used to be much more of a rarity for monarchs to go about visiting from capital city to capital city, than it is now. A royal visit used to be regarded

A rubber vine has recently been discovered in Honduras. These vines grow to 100 feet in length, and are said to belong to the African family of rubber vines. The discoverer regards it as superior in quality to the Para rubber of commerce and asserts that his convictions are borne out by the analysis made by American and European chemists. The vine thrives at great altitudes as well as in the lower valley levels. Such luxuriance of growth has this plant attained that it is quite capable of being cut in commercial quantities. It may be quickly propagated by means of seedlings, and the growth is much faster than that of rubber trees. Our experiment station might look up this matter.

ROOSEVELT AS A COLLEGE PRESIDENT

HOW THE SUGGESTION THAT HE ASPIRES TO SUCCEED PRESIDENT ELIOT AS THE HEAD OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY IS RECEIVED, AS INDICATED BY THE TREATMENT OF THE SUBJECT IN NEWSPAPERS.

The most startling rumor to be launched just now is that put forth by The Springfield Republican that President Roosevelt is ambitious to succeed the venerable head of Harvard, Dr. Eliot. President Roosevelt was never supposed to be a profound scholar in any department, but he is backed by plenty of degrees, and that he is something of a thinker is shown by his brilliant ideas on "race suicide." But as President Roosevelt proposes to wait till after he has finished his second term at the White House, there is no cause for immediate alarm at this strange innovation.

The idea of a man of President Roosevelt's stamp assuming to cover so grave an academic function is not, after all, so strange as it would have been formerly. The president of a modern college is not the over-awing personality that he formerly was. His office is now more a business one than a strictly academic. He is supposed to be a shrewd caretaker of the college securities and properties and to preside over a multitude of concerns that formerly had no existence.

Some may think President Roosevelt a little too strenuous and too much addicted to hunting and other undignified sports, but as an advertising card for athletics he would prove a prize. But Dr. Eliot believes that a typical scholar would most dignify the president's chair at Harvard, and there are lots of old fogies that probably think so, too.—Boston Globe.

How much longer will Dr. Eliot of Harvard, the septuagenarian college president, hold his position as head of the Crimson university? This is the question called forth by a recent editorial in The Springfield Republican to the effect that President Roosevelt aspires to succeed President Eliot in Cambridge when his career in national politics comes to an end.

Up to the present time few people connected with Harvard have even thought of President Eliot retiring. So hale and hearty is the grand old president that the idea has seemed to prevail that he would live on indefinitely like those who, in olden times, drank at the fountain of eternal youth. Now, however, every one has suddenly awakened to the fact that President Eliot is far beyond the age when college presidents are usually expected to retire. Three years ago the corporation, in strict accordance to custom, could have asked him to resign. But they did not do so, and even today have never considered a single candidate to succeed himself in his important place.

Every Harvard undergraduate thinks Roosevelt would make a great Harvard president. "He would be strong for athletics." "He would speak to the fellows" (which Dr. Eliot doesn't do). "He would be a great hustler." These are only a few of the comments which his name suggests to Crimson students, each and all of whom hope that there is truth in the rumor that some day he will be over them. President Eliot himself is at the present time out of town. According to the statement of Mr. Green, his secretary, yesterday, there is no foundation for the rumor that President Roosevelt has even been thought of to succeed him.—Boston Post.

It is hardly pretended that Mr. Roosevelt is the ideal man for the head of Harvard, regarded merely as an educational institution. On the other hand, it is certain that his incumbency would draw many students to the university, that he would keep it constantly in the public eye, that athletics would be likely to show a lusty development, and that he would encourage a manly, hearty spirit among the students. He would have a great and wholesome influence in many ways. But the university as a seat of learning would gain things from another man such as Mr. Roosevelt could not give. It is not a question of greater or less, but of difference in kind, and both kinds are required for the good of the place.—Hartford Times.

Why should not Mr. Roosevelt become actual president of Harvard? Why not, indeed? It is impossible to imagine any position whatever in which the president could be placed to which the prefix "ex" would not be absurdly inappropriate. It is equally impossible to imagine any position in which he would not be very much "at large." He would at once "get busy" at the head of that or any other institution, and he would promote business in others. When the existing undergraduate body thinks of his presidency, it must lament that itself was born too early. Under the grinding tyranny of the faculty committee on athletics its victims now groan helpless. How would they rejoice if they could look forward to a Rooseveltian regime. The new president would put that body in its place if he had to lick every member of it. And how happy would those undergraduates be who feel themselves capable of filling every item of the Cecil Rhodes bill except the disgusting first, which the name "scholarship" implies, if they were sure that this frivolous and irrelevant objection would no longer be brought up against them.

It would not be. Can anybody imagine President Roosevelt letting a good left tackle go because he could not decline "musa, musae," or, for that matter, because he could not spell "cat"? Assuredly not. Harvard would be first in the field and on the river, whatever became of the Homer examinations and the prize debates or its president would know the reason why. His aspiration for his undergraduates would be that of the poet around his "dusky brood":—

Iron jointed, supple-sinewed, they shall dive and they shall run;
Catch the wild goat by the hair and hurl their lance in the sun;
Whistle back the parrot's call and leap the rainbows of the brooks.
With blinded eyesight poring over miserable books.

Theodore Roosevelt must have conducted considerably to the enlightenment of Harvard when he was there as an undergraduate, even though cramped by the trammels of an effete system of discipline and a false standard of instruction. But installed there as president, with ample power to his free and strenuous elbow, what a transformation he would work! All over our broad land youths more distinguished for strenuousness than for studiousness would be begging "the old man" to send them to Harvard as the first arena ever opened for their peculiar gifts in the guise of an institution of learning. The presidency of Harvard would be great while it lasted. There is no doubt about that.—New York Times.

It is a little early for speculation as to Mr. Roosevelt's employment after he leaves the White House. Two years of his present term remain, and a full term of four years may be added. But this much may be said with safety: The presidency of Harvard university would fit him like a glove. The duties of the office would appeal to him strongly; and while they would take up a good deal of his time, they would not take up all of it. There would still be time for writing, and Mr. Roosevelt could address himself to the preparation of those histories and biographies relating to American subjects and statesmen which are said to be now on his memorandum book. At 50, and even at 60, years of age, Mr. Roosevelt is likely to be a very strenuous laborer in whatever vineyard may be found.—Washington Star.

President Roosevelt's future after he leaves the White House is mapped out for him in an editorial printed by The Springfield Republican, which carries the inference that Mr. Roosevelt would not be averse to accepting the presidency of Harvard university when President Eliot retires. It is not known whether the editorial is ex-cathedra.—Philadelphia North American.

THE ASSETS SEEM TO BE MIXED

W. F. RAWLINS, REFEREE IN BANKRUPTCY MAKES INTERESTING REPORT ON THE CASE.

W. F. Rawlins, referee in bankruptcy this morning made a report to Judge Estee in which he accused M. G. Silva, the alleged bankrupt, of deliberate perjury, in connection with his schedule of assets and liabilities. Rawlins found many inaccuracies and a wholesale stuffing of assets. He calls attention to the fact that in the schedule the assets are placed at $56,829.90 and the liabilities at $23,257.50 and says:

"If this statement can be taken as true then M. G. Silva is not a bankrupt and he came before this Honorable Court and committed wilful and deliberate perjury by stating under oath that he was a bankrupt and unable to pay his debts. As shown by schedule his assets exceed his liabilities in the sum of $33,572.40. This appears to be an alarming state of affairs for a person who claims he is a bankrupt, but a very little figuring will show that this great difference between the assets and liabilities is due to an overvaluation and puffing on the part of the bankrupt of the value of his estate, and that the assets are worth about one-half the amount given by him."

Land on Wilder avenue is valued at $13,000 though its tax return value was only $5,000 and the same was done, says Rawlins, with other real estate. A life policy was returned at $5,000 though it is not worth $500 and notes put down at $5,000 are worth "absolutely nothing." Regarding loans made by Silva the report says: "In most cases the mortgagees are innocent Portuguese, who have been induced by the bankrupt to lend him their money, trusting to his honesty and integrity they loaned money to him only to find in the end that false representations had been made to them."

Silva is alleged to have sworn falsely regarding his Beretania street grocery store, the referee finding as follows: "In regard to this particular grocery store it is to be noticed that nearly $1400 worth of liquor was sold there during the months of June and July, 1922. The bankrupt declared that the store belonged to one Leonard Nunes and that he was employed there. This was denied by Nunes, who declared that Silva owned the store and that he worked for him. The lease of the premises was introduced in the evidence and revealed the fact that Silva was the Lessee. In this instance the bankrupt swore to a deliberate falsehood."

On the showing in the report Judge Estee made an order as asked for by the referee, directing Silva to file new schedules within five days.

A JAPANESE QUARREL.

About ten days ago, two Japanese had a bloody encounter in a Vineyard Street resort in which one of them received such a deep gash on his head that his life was feared for at one time. Now we hear of their patching troubles out of the court. A question that has not been answered to our satisfaction is how outraged community has come out in this affair in the way of dealing out justice to these breakers of law.—Hawaii Shippo.

A WIFE'S HONOR.

Elleford Company Announces New Bill for Tonight.

With a plot of intense heart interest and scenes laid in Russia and France, A Wife's Honor, to be presented at the Orpheum this evening, is one of the strongest bills of the Elleford repertoire. The plot is furnished by the dishonesty, perjury and falseness of a man left as guardian of the estates of a barren's wife and child. This villain has previously estranged the husband and wife and now attempts the dishonor of the barones, driving that unhappy lady to suicide to escape her threatened shame.

Virtue is triumphant at the last after many vicissitudes, and villainy sinks beneath the weight of accumulated vengeance but the working out of the story is of intense interest. There is, too, genuine mirth in the play despite the more sombre nature of some of the passages. Baby Maitland is announced to hold a reception matinee on Saturday afternoon, when she will receive on the stage.

MORE SALOONS.

The following additional malt liquor licenses were issued by Treasurer Koppik yesterday:

A. F. Franco, mauka side Beretania street, near River. Fidelity Insurance Co.

Joseph A. McGuire, Fort street, in "Star" block. A. Hocking, surety.

COOPER REFUSES

Superintendent of Public Works H. E. Cooper this morning sent a reply to Secretary Carter of the Board of Public Institutions, declining to recognize that body as a legal body, or to turn over to it any of the public buildings and property over which the new board is supposed to have jurisdiction. The Board appointed Cooper its agent to retain control of the various institutions, and he declines the appointment.

RAFFLES HIMSELF FOR A WIFE.

Edward J. Eisbrenner of Rogers City, Mich., wants a wife so badly and has had such trouble in deciding on the right candidate that he has decided to raffle himself off. He has issued 1,000 tickets at 2 cents each, which have been put on sale in the drug stores of all the nearby towns. He will marry the one that wins, his only condition being that she is respectable, unencumbered, healthy, a Roman Catholic and between 40 and 55 years of age.

Colds often hang on. You try this thing and that thing, every kind of home remedy and cheap cough mixtures, and yet your cold continues to hang on. You must not deal lightly with these old colds. You must get rid of them just as soon as possible. You must take something to break their hold.

LANTANA BUGS SET TO WORK

THE NEW IMPORTATIONS BEING DISTRIBUTED ALL OVER THE ISLANDS.

Professor R. C. L. Perkins gave out many lantana bugs yesterday to people who came after them in response to the published announcement that they were ready for distribution. Some are for shipment to the other islands and in a short time the new bugs will be at work on lantana all over the group.

Applications for the bugs are required to be along a tin box at least eight inches high for the confinement of the bugs and with every consignment Professor Perkins gives the following instructions:

1. Do not open the box until reaching the spot where the contents are to be liberated.
2. Choose a lantana bush or several adjoining bushes in a place sheltered as much as possible from all wind, or at least the prevailing wind; the bush or bushes should have many flowers and green berries on them and should be free from ants.
3. Rest the pieces of infected lantana in such bush or bushes towards the top or at least well off the ground.
4. Berries that become detached in transit should be dropped in the shade at the roots of the bush.

THE SYMPHONY CONCERT

The Symphony concert at the Hawaiian Opera House last Saturday evening, was at once an accomplishment and an inspiration. An ambitious performance, it was worthily and meritoriously given, and is an inspiration to further endeavor on the part of the Honolulu Symphony Society, and a matter for congratulation for all who love music or desire the spread of cultivated tastes in the community.

The audience that heard the concert was not as large as it should have been either from the point of view of its worth, or from the fact that it was the first symphony concert ever given in Honolulu. It is to be hoped that when next the society gives a public concert, it will receive the compliment of a larger attendance. Certainly no worthier influence can be encouraged than that of a strictly musical organization such as the Symphony Society is, devoting its efforts to the serious cultivation of music as an art and not merely as a pastime.

Mrs. George W. Macfarlane as the soloist gave great pleasure. Her selection was "Ave Maria," the text used an English one by Fred E. Weatherly. The musical inscription was the Intermezzo from Mascagni's Cavalleria Rusticana. Mrs. Macfarlane possesses in rich measure that valued and too rare quality, splendid enunciation.

The selection which gave the characteristic to the concert was Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," in B Minor. A most interesting historical and descriptive dissertation on this composition prepared by William F. Apthorp for a similar program of the Boston Symphony Society was given on the program. A reading of this, with a careful following of Director W. F. Jocher's baton, would go far toward being a liberal musical education, on its intellectual side, to anyone who really loves music. Mr. Jocher added to the reputation, as a conductor, he had established in conducting the orchestra in the recent performance of "Mefistofele" without being laborious in manner, he directed, guided, controlled, the various instruments, that combined to render the beauties of Schubert's composition.

The violin quartette which rendered the "Prayer From Lohengrin," B. G. Marx, William A. Love, Dr. O. E. Wall, and Arthur Davies, gave a careful handling to the Wagnerian music that was not lacking either in spirit or subtlety. Mozart's "L'Impressario," Bach's Pastorale, "Ein Marchen," and a "Polish National Dance," by Scharwenka, and a "Hungarian National Dance," by Hasselman, completed the program, though two pieces in lighter vein given in response to recalls were a delightful finale to a splendid evening's music. One of these was entitled "After the Ball." The other was a spirited composition by one of the members of the society, called a "Chinese March," being in pizzicato and in imitation of Chinese music.

APPROPRIATIONS CUT OUT.

The House Slashes Public Works Funds.

The House yesterday afternoon continued the consideration of the six months appropriations bill, in committee of the whole. The St. Louis Exposition item of $40,000 was discussed for some time without any decision being reached with regard to it.

The item of $17,949.91, to pay the shortage represented by the I. O. U. of William H. Wright, was stricken out also the provision for traveling expenses in the Public Works Department. In the same department's appropriations the House struck out $12,500 for emergencies and $25,000 for road damages.

The Senate's emergency appropriation bill passed first reading.

Time and Money.—Sickness causes a loss of both time and money.

You lose the time and have the expense of medical attendance, entailing a double loss. This can be avoided by using some reliable remedy at the first stage of the sickness. The purchase of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy often proves a profitable investment, for, by its use at the first appearance of any unusual looseness of the bowels, a severe attack of diarrhoea or dysentery may be averted, that might otherwise compel a week's cessation from labor. Every household should have a bottle at hand. It never fails and is pleasant to take. Get it today. It may save your life. For sale by all dealers, Benson Smith & Co., general agents.

SONG RECITAL

To music lovers a rare treat was given last evening in the song recital by Mile. Dolores. It was thoroughly enjoyable, dainty, exquisite, pleasing. Mile. Dolores more than fulfilled the expectations of her, the recollections of her singing two years ago had aroused.
It was a large audience that greeted Mile. Dolores. It was a charmed and thoroughly captivated audience, that recalled her again and again as it was enraptured, now by a little pastoral ballad, and again by a dainty love song.
Mr. Newell, the pianist, shared honors with the Prima Donna. The audience insisted upon an encore to his first number, Chopin's Opus 47, No. 3, Ballade. He was as successful in pleasing the audience with his Rubenstein number, "Kammerlei," Opus 10, and again with "Der Ritt der Walkuren," Wagner-Tausig. Mr. Newell is as individual and effective in his solo numbers, as he is dainty and sympathetic in his accompaniments.
Mile. Dolores began her recital with a little song, "Violets," chaste and classic but drawing little on her capabilities. Alone it would have been a disappointment, but followed immediately by a love song, "Ma Brea," which gave opportunity for exquisite phrasing and beautiful runs it was a triumph of art.
Mile. Dolores' program was a faultless selection of gems which gave her opportunity to give varied pleasure, now by deft management of the voice in the lower register, now by striking cadences in the upper, always by the bell-like clearness and purity of tone, a flute-like delicacy, and a roundness and fullness that inspires like the horn. To the charm of voice she adds a daintiness of dramatic action, of eyes, of pose, that adds essentially to the pleasure of her listeners.
A feature of the printed program for which Mile. Dolores deserves the thanks of concert goers, is the names of the composers represented with the era in which they wrought, together with translations of the foreign texts of songs, though as to some of these, the translations are hardly worthy of her rendition of the songs, however faithful they may be to the original text.

Mile. Dolores gives a second recital tomorrow evening.

POWERS MAY WITHDRAW.
Associated Press, Morning Service. VIENNA, May 5.—It is reported here that the Powers have agreed to withdraw their war ships from Salonica. There are now at the Turkish port vessels of most of the powers and the moral effect has been to prevent the revolutionists from operating against the city. It is expected that the result will be increased disorder, with probably an investment of the town by the rebel bands now scattered about it.

PASSES ON THE EIGHT HOUR LAW

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL
WEAVER SENDS IMPORTANT
SUPPLEMENTARY OPINION.

A supplementary opinion regarding the application of the eight hour law was addressed to President Crabbe of the senate this morning by Assistant Attorney General P. L. Weaver. In a previous opinion Mr. Weaver had decided regarding the application of the law to police officers. The supplementary opinion went further and embraced all of the various clerks and others in government employ.

The opinion which was as follows, was read and placed on file:

Sir: In addition to my opinion given this morning, with regard to the effect of the eight hour law, on police officers, firemen, teachers, etc. I wish to hand in a supplementary opinion with regard to that portion of Sec. 2 of the Act, which refers to mechanics, clerks, laborers, and other employees employed "in any public office of this territory."

This act is entitled "An Act to Regulate the Employment of Labor on the Public Works of this Territory."

The title covers labor on public works only. The act relates to that and also to employees "in any public office of this territory." Section 45 of the Organic Act provides that "each law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title."

In my brief submitted this morning, I referred to this discrepancy, and I now wish to express an opinion upon this question independent of the question of office or employment involved therein.

The question is, does the failure to include in the title the subject of "employees in any public office" make invalid the act, or any portion thereof?

After examining the question, I am of the opinion that that portion of Section 2 which relates to persons employed in any public office of this territory is invalid, as contrary to Section 45 of the Organic Act.

The whole act is not invalid by reason of this portion of a section being contrary to the Organic Act. This portion is readily separate from the other matter in the act, and therefore falls without reference to the other portion.

"The act being broader than the letter does not render the act unconstitutional as to the subject expressed in the title."

Hyman vs. Kapena, 7 Haw. 75.

It was also held in the case of Walker 9th Haw. 171, that one section of an act may be constitutional, although another section embraces an object not expressed in the title. This case construes Art. 77 of the Constitution of 1887, which is similar to Section 79 of the Organic Act. These decisions are in line with the general doctrine as laid down in the text books, see Endlich on construction of statutes, (Section 29) "Where a portion of the statute is void, as not expressed in the title, part would be rejected as unconstitutional." See also Rutherford on Statutory Construction, Section 102. Cooley on Constitutional Limitations, p. 14, cited in the case of Hyman vs. Kapena.

In the light of these decisions, I am no escape from the conclusion that the words "in any public office of this territory" in the third line of Section 2, are contrary to the Organic Act, and therefore invalid. This, however, does not invalidate the remainder of the act, which is properly described in the title.

Respectfully submitted,
PHILIP L. WEAVER,
Assistant Attorney General.

AORANGI CROWDED WITH PASSENGERS

BOUND TO VANCOUVER—VESSEL
ARRIVED ON TIME FROM SOUTH

The S. S. Aorangi, Captain Phillips, arrived on time this morning from the South. She experienced pleasant weather throughout the voyage. She left Sydney, April 20, Brisbane, April 23 and Suva, April 28.

The Aorangi brought no passengers for Honolulu but she has a record number for Victoria and Vancouver there being 248 aboard. Nearly all of her passenger accommodations are taken and she can take only a small number of those booked at Honolulu.

Purser F. E. Belmaine reported that Father Neptune boarded the vessel at the crossing of the Equator and the usual ceremonies attending his visit were observed. All sorts of deck games and other amusements were enjoyed during the voyage. A number of concerts and dances were given during the trip.

The Aorangi is to sail for Victoria and Vancouver at 4 p. m. today.

RETURNS IN QUICK TIME

BARK NUUANU ARRIVES YESTERDAY, 116 DAYS FROM NEW YORK WITH GENERAL CARGO.

The bark Nuuanu, Captain Josselyn arrived yesterday afternoon from New York after a quick passage of 116 days. The vessel brought general cargo for this port.

Good weather was experienced as a rule, during the voyage and nothing of particular interest occurred. Off the Horn however, 21 days of as hard weather as Captain Josselyn has known in that quarter of the globe was experienced.

The vessel had good weather coming up from Cape Horn. She will load sugar at this port for New York.

The vessel met some very heavy weather and seas going from this port to New York last year. When in about 40 degrees south she encountered a storm that sprung the bowsprit, the foremast, carried away some of the poop deck railing and some stays, stove in one of the boats and did other damage. It was a case for the insurance companies to handle. About $7,000 in repairs had to be put on the vessel. She is now in splendid shape.

Captain Josselyn has been busy receiving congratulations from his many friends in Honolulu, over the fine passage his vessel made and the splendid shape she is in.

FINAL FOOTBALL GAME.

The undefeated Amphitrites have been expressing a desire to have another game and J. H. Catton has gathered together a scratch team which he hopes will this afternoon give the tars a good brush. Three of his men are from the sailing ship Glencairn, four are from the torpedo destroyers and the remainder are local men. The team is composed of good individual players and if they can get into one another's stride and show some combination a rattling good game should be the result.

The game is fixed for 5 o'clock this afternoon at Makiki.

FIGURING OUT THE PRO RATA

LIGHTNING CALCULATORS ARE AT WORK DIVIDING UP CLAIMS
BETWEEN BONDS AND CASH.

Secretary Carter has a force of men at work on the fire claims awards, making the calculations necessary to pro rate the claims. Each claimant is entitled to nearly 75 per cent of his or her claim in cash, but as the figures are not even, there is much calculating to be done. It is thought that the list will be ready to turn over to Treasurer, Agent McLennan by the fifteenth of the month.
