

PHILADELPHIA

CALLED AT PAGO PAGO WITH SUPPLIES FOR ABERENDA

Scores of Native Samoans Called Aboard Ship All Dressed in Not Much of Anything.

The cruiser Philadelphia arrived from Pago Pago and anchored off port last evening, after a round trip of 25 days.

The cruiser left here July 24 for Tutuila with supplies and men for the Abrenda, stationed at Pago Pago. On the trip down, pleasant weather was encountered and the run made in about seven days.

During the Philadelphia's stay of ten days in the harbor the natives of Uncle Sam's new possession made friends aboard the vessel.

From Executive Officer Hughes the following account of the visit to Pago Pago was obtained:

The natives who are splendid specimens of humanity, were greatly interested in the warship and used to visit the vessel in bands of a couple of hundred each. Soon after the vessel arrived a great feast and dance was given by the chiefs in honor of the officers. The chiefs have all been retained by the Governor and are acting as his aides in the government of the island. The people are very good natured and extremely honest. In going aboard the Phillie they virtually took possession of the ship. They wanted to know all about everything and handled and examined everything aboard.

At first they were looked upon by the men of the ship with some little suspicion but, as time went on and not a thing was missed, their honesty was established and they were allowed the freedom of the ship.

The day before sailing, a banquet was spread aboard for the natives. They were given a feast of canned salmon, canned meat, fruits and crackers. Three hundred of them were present and, on account of the crowd, only the women were allowed to sit at the feast. The men were not forgotten by their sisters, however, as each woman who left the ship took a supply of food hidden away under her skirt.

While at the island, many of the officers and sailors got little souvenirs of their visit. War clubs and tapa cloth, kava bowls and silver dresses and a variety of other curios were brought back.

The work on the harbor improvements is going on rapidly and soon the construction of the governor's new residence will be started. Lieut. Com. Dorn is acting governor during the absence of Commander Tilley.

From the time she left until she returned to port, the Philadelphia did not sight a vessel. She will remain here until after the next rail from the Coast and will then proceed to San Francisco where she is due August 17.

MISS NOTT ENTERTAINS.

Miss Mary Nott gave a reception at her home in Vineyard street last evening in honor of Herbert W. Getchell of St. Cloud, Minn., one of the teachers aboard the transport Thomas, bound for the Philippines. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion and the evening's pleasant doings were continued to a late hour. Vocal and instrumental music added very much toward the evening's entertainment. A solo by Mr. Conant was especially fine. Refreshments were served and all the guests joined in voting Miss Nott a charming hostess. Among the guests were: R. L. Heindel of South Wayne, Wis., and C. Everett Conant of Chicago, Ill.

At Central Union church Sunday at 11 a. m. Dr. Geo. C. Adams will preach on the subject, "Being such a one as Paul the aged. At 7 p. m. Lieut. Col. Geo. French of the Salvation Army will preach on the subject, "Darkest America."

COFFEE GROWERS MEET

LOW PRICES ARE DISCOURAGING PLANTERS

Japanese Company Will Continue
Operations Though Many in Kona
Are Plowing Up Trees for Sugar Cane.

Kailua, Hawaii, July 30.—A meeting was held today by the Kona Japanese Coffee Planters Association at their complete coffee cleaning plant in the town of Kailua, for the purpose of discussing the present and future status of the industry.

On account of the present low price of coffee the planters of Oahu, Puna, and other coffee belts of the island of Hawaii have plowed up the coffee trees and turned the fields into growing sugar cane. Notwithstanding all this the Japanese coffee planters of the Kona district have an abiding faith and have been expecting that the resolution of Senator Paris would take effect before long and that several obstacles which have had a tendency to lower the price of that useful beverage, would soon be removed, and that their work of many years would at last be rewarded.

In 1899 the Japanese planters of Kona built their cleaning mill at Kailua which is supplied with the very latest mechanical appliances, and which will commence operations again in the near future.

The present aspect of the coffee industry in Kona is not of the best owing to the kona storms which prevailed this spring which destroyed the coffee blossoms, but notwithstanding all this, much coffee has been harvested in the more secluded localities.

The main business transacted at the meeting on Tuesday was the discussion of the business outlook for the coming season. This Japanese association has a membership of 300, and has been incorporated for $10,000, divided into 400 shares having a par value of $25 per share.

The school teachers in the transport Thomas have been invited to Murphy Hall this evening to hear Franklin Austin lecture on Modern and Ancient Hawaii.

What Baseball Men
Are Talking About

Whereas, a few days ago, it was hard for anyone to pick up any Star money, today it can be found anywhere so that it seems to be a stand-off. The Honolulu are depending on their superior pitcher while the Stars are counting on their field work. That tomorrow's game will be a good one goes without question. Every man of the team is going home early tonight and every man will be on his mettle when the time comes for the fun to begin. The fact that Harry Whitney and Morris Keohokalele are to be umpires is proof enough that there will be square baseball played. There is some talk of starting the game at 2 o'clock in order to allow people to get home in time for whatever may be on Saturday night.

There is on show in Pearson & Potter's window, Fort street, the silver championship baseball cup which arrived recently from the Coast and which will go to the winning team. The cup is the gift of Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, the president of the local baseball league. On the cup is the following inscription:

Honolulu Baseball League,
President's Cup Season of 1901.

The cup holds about three pints when well filled. It is safe to say that during Saturday night it will be made to hold more than three pints.

KITCHNER REPORTS FIGHT

London, July 23.—The British War Office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, July 23d:

"A train from Cape Town with 112 men and stores was held up, captured and burned at Scheepers, eight miles north of Beaumont West, on the morning of July 21st. Our casualties were three killed and eighteen wounded. An inquiry is proceeding."

"French reports that Crabbe, with 500 men, was attacked in the mountains near Craddock with Krizinger, at dawn July 21st. The horses stampeded. An all-day fight followed. Crabbe fell back on Morimer. Our loss was slight."

New Educational Leader.

Des Moines, Ia., July 19.—William Miller Beardshear, the recently elected president of the National Educational Association, is one of the most popular men in Iowa. He has been prominently identified with education in this State for many years. He was formerly president of Western College, Toledo, Ia. Later he was Superintendent of the city schools of Des Moines, and at present he is at the head of the Iowa College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, located at Ames.

JAPANESE SEEKING TO REMOVE COFERADMINISTRATORS APPOINTED AND OTHERS DISCHARGED

The Japanese of the city are after Dr. Cofer, the head of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service at this port and, at a mass meeting of Japanese residents to be held in the Japanese primary school, Nuuanu street, at 7 o'clock this evening, a resolution will be presented which will call for his removal from the position which he now occupies. A set of these resolutions will be sent to the Administration at Washington and another, accompanied by the proceedings of the mass meeting, will be forwarded to the home government in Japan. At this mass meeting, speeches in both English and Japanese will be made. Members of the press have been invited and an interpreter will be set aside for the special benefit of the newspaper men.

The Japanese charge Dr. Cofer with discrimination in the matter of the examination of the passengers of the America Maru upon her arrival here from the Orient July 25. Several of the most prominent of the committee of twenty in charge of the mass meeting were seen by a Bulletin reporter today and this is what they charge: That, on the arrival of the America Maru, Dr. Cofer and his assistants went out to carry on the usual investigation; that a Chinese with a suspicious disease was found; that plague was feared at first; that the steamer passengers were examined first and then came the cabin; that Dr. Cofer allowed the white people in the cabin to pass by him with simply a casual glance, that the Japanese were cordoned off; that the men were made to strip; that the women were then taken to the surgeon's cabin and also made to strip; that all the Japanese were subjected to the most rigid physical examination while the white people were not touched.

The Japanese have secured the sworn affidavits of those who were compelled to go through on the steamer. Other Japanese such as Vice Consul and Mrs. Okabe who, it is alleged, received the same treatment, will be at the meeting to speak for themselves.

The Japanese are very angry over the matter and state that, if amicable relations are to be preserved when it is a question of travel between the Orient and Honolulu, Dr. Cofer must be removed. O. Shioda, manager of the Kei Hin bank is chairman and Y. Soga of the Hawaii Shimpu Sha, the secretary of the meeting.

ISENBERG ON FORESTS
SUNSHINE AFTER RAINADVOCATES KILLING CATTLE TO PRESERVE THE TIMBER

Herd of 1000 Head on Maui Plantation Will be Exterminated for This Reason.

H. A. Isenberg, acting manager for Hackfeld & Co., believes that radical steps should be taken in the matter of the preservation and propagation of forests in the Hawaiian Islands. This belief has taken practical form in the policy of the management of the Pioneer Mill Company on Maui. Believing that pasturing cattle in the forests is one of the chief causes of the extermination of trees, L. Barkhausen, the manager of that plantation advocates exterminating the cattle. His view is upheld by the management and as a consequence the 1000 head of cattle on the lands of this company will be gradually butchered and fed to plantation laborers. The herd will not be replenished, but will be wiped off the face of the earth hoof and horn.

Mr. Isenberg says that any one who has lived here even ten years cannot fail to notice the devastation that has gone on in the forests with the consequent damage from decreased rainfall. "The chief cause of the damage to the forests is cattle," he continued, and the herds should either be killed off or fenced in.

"The first thing necessary is the appointment of a forester by the Federal government, under the United States Forestry Bureau. There is as much need of a forester in these islands as there is for a physician in any community. If we had such an official he would be of inestimable service in preventing further destruction of forests and in the creation of new stretches of timber land. There are large areas in all parts of the islands, which can be set out to various kinds of valuable trees. The influence of forests upon the rainfall is well understood and the importance of the subject to these islands cannot be overestimated."

The Kinross will go up to the Navy ship No. 2 this afternoon. The Elou will move her.

WHOSE SHOES ARE THESE
FOUND IN SHARK'S STOMACH

Kailua, Hawaii, July 30.—A few days ago Ite, a Japanese fisherman and several of his associates while fishing off Mahukona caught an enormous man eating shark, which was estimated to be fully fifteen feet in length.

The shark was hauled alongside of the junk like craft, where efforts were made to get it aboard, but owing to its great length and weight, it became necessary to abandon the idea.

Ite, the head man of the boat noticed that the shark had an extremely large stomach, and drawing his knife made an incision some three feet in length from the head towards the center of the shark, and imagine his consternation and that of the crew upon seeing a pair of men's shoes protrude from the opening. At this stage of the proceedings the Japanese fled to the other end of the boat, leaving Ite to pursue his investigations. Ite then hailed a passing fishing boat and informed them of the find, but the occupants of the boat would not credit the story until they were shown the shoes.

It is said at Mahukona that Ite reported the affair to several parties, and when questioned why he did not tow the shark ashore, made the remark that the Japanese as a rule are very superstitious and absolutely refused to assist him. He describes the clothing worn by the man very minutely, and states that in addition to the shoes which were of a light color with strings, he saw a white shirt and black coat but beyond this it was impossible to give further description.

Telephone communication from Kailua to Mahukona verifies the statement made by Ite, but the authorities at the latter place do not remember of any one being lost in that neighborhood of late. Another excuse made by the fisherman in not towing the shark ashore was the badly decomposed condition of the man's body.

Just who the unfortunate man was will no doubt be shrouded in mystery.

Oahu Directors
Discuss Oil Fuel

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Oahu plantation, the subject of using crude petroleum for fuel was discussed favorably. The idea was considered practical and prominent officials of the plantation believe that it is only a matter of time until oil will be the sole fuel used. The problem to be solved is that of securing a regular supply. Inquiries will be made into various points and the subject will be taken up again in the near future.

CONCERT AT KAWAIAHAO

The concert at Kawaiahao church will be the principal event of the evening. From the sale of tickets, a very large attendance is assured. The teachers aboard the transport having learned of the excellent program of music arranged and the particular interest attached to the old stone church as one of the very few remaining relics of the days when the Hawaiians were receiving their first teachings in Christianity, will be present in large numbers. The church is a large one and the seating capacity is in proportion so that there need be no fear of lack of accommodations for all who may wish to attend. The admission fee is only fifty cents.

Dr. Bogie, chiropodist, removes corns and ingrowing nails painlessly.

The Thomas will sail at noon tomorrow.

AUSTIN NOT CERTAIN

OF AUTHORITY TO PAY
MONEY TO HOSPITALS

Attorney General's Opinion Only
Settles the Question as to Fund for Queens Hospital.

Auditor H. C. Austin is still in the dark as to his authority to pay hospital subsidies to institutions other than those owned and controlled by the Government. The question came up in the Auditor's mind when bills from Walmae and Lihue hospitals came in. He forthwith directed the following to Attorney General Dole:

"I would respectfully request an opinion from your department upon the following question, viz: Is it contrary to the provisions of Section 55 of the Organic Act to pay subsidies to hospitals which the Territory of Hawaii does not own or control?"

The Attorney General submitted in reply a copy of the opinion he sent to the President of the Senate with reference to the Queen's Hospital at the time the Appropriation Bill was pending. The opinion says:

"I have examined the charter, by-laws and regulations of the Queen's Hospital. The charter is drawn on the broadest and most liberal lines. It is not obnoxious to the provision in the Organic Act prohibiting appropriations of public moneys for sectarian purposes. It is maintained 'for the relief of indigent, sick and disabled people of the Hawaiian Kingdom, as well as of such foreigners and others as may desire to avail themselves of its benefits. It is one of the classes of institutions for the erection of which the Territory, under Section 55 of the Organic Act, is especially authorized to incur indebtedness. I think that the Legislature has power to make an appropriation in aid of this charity."

"The answer to the question asked me, as to whether the Legislature has power to aid other institutions, depends upon the nature of the institution."

While Auditor Austin thinks the reply of the Attorney General settles the matter so far as the Queen's Hospital is concerned, he is doubtful of his ground with reference to other institutions. He will, therefore, make no payments until definite legal opinion has been received concerning the other hospitals.

MRS. JOHNSON GOES FREE

Mrs. Johnson, the lady who was summoned to the police station yesterday to explain her trouble with Frank Middleton, one of the drivers for the Sanitary Steam Laundry, appeared in the Police Court this morning on the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon.

Middleton was present with a bundle of clothes as was Mr. Johnson, husband of the defendant. Everybody expected that something would be doing but Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth had heard and investigated a number of things which determined him in the course he took later.

When the case of Mrs. Johnson was called, Mr. Chillingworth asked that a nolle prosequi be entered. Judge Wilcox said he certainly did not wish to proceed with the case if the prosecution did not and told the lady she was free to go. Middleton did not like this a bit.

THOMAS MEN BEATEN DOLE FILES APPEALS

SPIRITED GAME BETWEEN STAR TEAM AND TEACHERS

Transport People Showed Lack of Team Work But Played Good
Plucky Ball for All That.

"If we only had a little more practice, we would cut the corners off those Stars," said first baseman F. E. Force of the transport Thomas team as he jumped up and down on his bag during yesterday afternoon's game with the Stars. There is no doubt whatever that this statement is true. The Stars won out by a score of 13 to 4 but a good many of their runs were made by means of errors on the part of the visitors and these errors were made because the transport men had never played together before and lacked the always necessary team work. The Stars, on the other hand, had the advantage of the season's play against the remaining four teams of the local league. The teams as they played on the Punahou grounds yesterday afternoon, before a crowd of seven or eight hundred people were as follows:

Teachers—Catcher, O. K. McGovney, Indiana University; pitcher, C. E. A. Walton, New Jersey Normal School; first base, F. E. Force, University of Minnesota; second base, G. W. Moore (captain), Indiana University; third base, D. C. Fisher, Kansas Normal School; shortstop, W. Hill, Harvard; right field, R. L. Kirk, Missouri State University; center field, J. Nason, University of Minnesota; left field, A. F. Eastman, Princeton.

The score by innings was as follows:

Stars 2 2 0 2 3 0 0 4 — 13

The playing in the beginning was, on the whole better than the latter part of the game. When the fifth inning had been completed, the college boys led down a little and the Stars became careless. Then too, a shower of rain came out of Manoa valley and the crowd began to dwindle away.

The teachers had a jolly crowd on hand, lined up on the mauka side of the campus, dangerously close to the coach's line. Besides the young men and women from the transport, there were a number of jolly tars on hand who, armed with guitars and voices that showed the too frequent usage in too short a time, sang and shouted whenever the Thomas men made a good play. At intervals, the transport Thomas yell, which runs as follows, was given with gusto from all sides of the campus:

Ray! Ray! Ray!

U! S! A!

Thomas! Thomas! Thomas!

Moore on third, McGovney behind the bat, Force on first and Walton in the box, did the major part of the work for the visitors. Gorman behind the bat, Joy in the box, Marcellino in left field and Castle at short, did the best work for the Stars.

Special mention should be made of McGovney who, under unfavorable circumstances, caught a plucky game. Walton in the box showed his worthiness to hold down the position of pitcher although at times and resulting from lack of practice, he was wild. Moore on second played the best all around game for the visitors and Force on first was the life of the teachers' aggregation, keeping the spectators on his side of the field in fits of laughter throughout the game. Joy, pitcher for the Stars, borrowed from the police team, showed up in better style than ever before because he had Gorman behind the bat and knew full well he could send cannon balls, circumference cutting twirls over the plate with full assurance that they would be caught with ease. Al Moore, one of the best players for the Stars, was still suffering from a bad leg and did not play in his usual form.

On the whole, the game was a good one, brimful of spirit and fun and every part of it was enjoyed to the full by the large number of people that turned out.

DISAPPOINTED PURSER.

Purser Bert Sharratt of the steamer Iwaland was bemoaning his fate yesterday. He was very much disappointed because his steamer instead of going to Honolulu was sent to Kauai.

Bert had made arrangements to be married at Honolulu this trip. Now he will have to wait unless he can get a vacation and take a special trip.

Defeated the Russians.

London, July 25.—"According to native intelligence," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Standard, "Chinese and Russian troops have been seriously defeated by insurgents in the southeastern part of Manchuria, and the rebels are now destroying the telegraph wires."

WANTS SUPREME COURT TO REVIEW HABEAS CORPUS

Asks Higher Tribunal to Say When
Fifth and Sixth Constitutional Amendments Took Effect Here.

In accord with his promise and notice given at the time the matters were in court, Attorney General Dole has filed appeals in the cases of the prisoners released from the penitentiary by Judge Gear upon writs of habeas corpus. The appeals in each case are identical, and with different names substituted, read as follows:

The Territory of Hawaii hereby gives notice of its intention to appeal and hereby does appeal to the Supreme Court of said Territory from the decision, judgment, order and decree of the Honorable Geo. D. Gear, Second Judge of said Circuit Court, sitting in Chambers in the above entitled cause; said decision being in effect that said Ihara Ichigoro was imprisoned in violation of the Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and said judgment, order and decree having been rendered orally by said judge on the 27th day of July, 1901. A full and correct transcript whereof and of the proceedings herein, duly certified by Dan H. Case, the official reporter of said Court, is on file herein in said Court.

In the estate of Kekipi, the Court has ordered that the accounts of the administrator approved and that all money remaining in his hands be paid into Court. In this estate, the petition of Manu and Hui claiming heirship was denied and judgment rendered in favor of Francisco de Costa, the husband. J. M. Monsarrat, attorney for the defendant was allowed $75 as fees.

MORE TRUST STOCK

New York, July 22.—The stockholders of the American Sugar Refining Company will receive in a day or two a communication from the board of directors in which it is proposed that the stockholders authorize the issue of $15,000,000 of new stock of the company. The communication will be sent to each of the 11,000 stockholders as soon as it comes from the printers.

The Sun this morning publishes a long document from the directors recommending the increase. In part it says: "The company has expended in the acquisition of property for its business, permanent improvements, etc., over $15,000,000. This has benefited both classes of stockholders, preferred stock in the added security which it has given, and common stock in the added value of the property of the company and in increased facilities for the transaction of business. The $15,000,000 which the proposed increase will bring to the treasury of the company will be used for its business purposes. Increase of business requires increase of capital. The strength of the business consists in its freedom from mortgage debt and its entire pecuniary independence. The entire amount realized from the new stock will come into the treasury of the company and will be available for its business uses."

MAKES LIVING HIGHER.

New York, July 22.—A cable to the Sun from Manila says: It is estimated that limitation of the commissary privileges to the Army and persons employed by the War Department will affect 700 persons in Manila, besides 1000 school teachers, five provincial officers in each province, customs employees and civil servants generally. Approximately 3000 persons are affected.

Owing to the local high prices, these persons will be unable to live within their salaries. The matter will receive the consideration of the Commissary Department, which will probably recommend a continuance of large commissary depots, with an equitable division of transportation and running expenses in the proportion of 45,000 troops to 3000 employees, who are paid from the civil funds. Otherwise it will be necessary to establish elaborate co-operative stores or to raise salaries. The cost of food to unprivileged civilians is double the commissary prices, hence the issue is a most important one.

JAPAN TO GET COREA.

New York, July 20.—A cable to the Sun from London says: Correspondence of a significant character has been passing between the British and Japanese Governments in regard to British interests in Korea, the possible outcome of which may be a convention on that subject. The necessity for such a convention is due to the fact that Russia, for the sake of procuring Japanese assistance, or at any rate inaction, in China is willing to make such important concessions in Korea as will result in giving Japan supreme political influence there.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1901.

The Advertiser has to refer to the Bulletin in order to get authentic news from Washington. Nuff said.

Having no Legislature to furnish him with excitement the Attorney General now proceeds to work the constitution overtime by way of diversion.

If all business leaders of the Islands will give the forestry question the practical attention evidenced by Mr. Isenberg, the rain making problems of the Islands will be speedily solved.

For what shall McKinley be appealed to next? Territorial citizens having apparently exhausted the supply, the Japanese residents are taking up the cudgel till something new can be discovered.

For once the Acting Governor was thoughtful, in being absent to allow the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the biased Attorney General to bask in the refugence of official pomposity.

Why shouldn't the teachers have their love affairs if they want to. The blessings of a happy home are among the first lessons taught in American life and teachers are in duty bound to set a good example.

According to the laws of supply and demand there ought to be a rush to the Hawaii plantation fields. But experience teaches the plantation managers that they can't get labor or run plantations on theory.

Had Acting Governor Cooper met with better success it would be timely to appeal to McKinley to do something to liven up the stock market. Change these days is as dull as the closing hours of the Legislature.

Viewing the differences between Registrar Thrum and ex-Deputy Registrar Nakulua from the standpoint of an outsider it appears as if circumstances arose whereby Thrum was able to play the last card. And he played it.

Kailua is to be congratulated on turning out a shark story that beats any yet recorded in Honolulu. No further argument is required to convince the public that times are dull on the coffee plantations, giving planters time to gather at the corner grocery and swap yarns.

Various trials of the yacht Constitution indicate that while that boat is not invincible against former creations of the Herreshoffs, she is well capable of defending the American claim to yachting supremacy. Compared with the Shamrock II trials the American boat is a wonder.

Admiral Dewey now has a task on his hands that will cause him more trouble than getting married or aspiring to the Presidency. There are few Americans who would not prefer breaking rocks on the road, to attempting an acceptable decision in the Sampson-Schley scrimmage.

The only instruction the Bulletin's Washington correspondent has ever received is to get facts. This is so far removed from the long established and dishonest policy of the Advertiser that the ponderous organ cannot realize that any paper can pursue an honest policy. Honesty and accuracy have ever characterized the Bulletin, never the Advertiser.

It is pretty hard lines for the small farmers when they find themselves forced to plow up their coffee trees which were hoped to be the salvation of the country in diversified industries. It is fortunate they are able to find profit in sugar but a greater benefit would be derived if a positive movement could be started throughout the Territory to secure protection for the coffee fields that represent a good amount of invested capital.

This transport load of well educated hardy men and women that Honolulu is now entertaining is proof positive that the pioneer spirit of the great American people is handed down to the present generation in full force. It is to the credit of the nation that whereas in former days the school teachers drifted with the tide of pioneer population they are now regarded as an established institution that begins operations before the warriors have fully completed their work.

It is an open question whether the President did not disapprove of the Cooper bond scheme in pure self defense. Had the request been granted the President might expect a request that he pay the salary of local officials from his private purse. Hawaii has made a record for placing the personality of the President above the Legislature, Congress and the courts. The idea seems to have been that McKinley rules the roost with absolute sway and by special dispensation of Providence is allowed forty-eight hour days where-by he has time to personally attend to all difficulties from a European war to a cross road postmaster'ship. For farce comedy this educational period of Hawaii runs a close second to the transition period.

INVESTIGATING TAXES.

What can the officials of this Territory expect to gain in the interests of public welfare by haggling over the payment of money appropriated for expenses of the Tax Commission created by act of the Legislature. This is not the first tax commission that ever existed in these Islands, nor is the tax system of the Territory so perfect that it is beyond the possibility of improvement. Gauging the contentions of the officials by the frequency with which they have found money to pay for trips to Washington out of public funds, it would appear that there is still much of the old spirit left. Discredit and interfere with the efforts of any and all citizens who fall to pay a cringing deference to the present executive power. The public has ceased to consider it remarkable that a lobbying trip of the land commissioner to Washington should be called a public necessity by the official organ and the investigations of tax commissioner or commissioners should be set down part and parcel of a junketing trip.

It is true that Mr. Emmelhut, chairman of the commission has what are generally considered as freak ideas on the subject of taxation. Henry George and his thousands of followers as well as the whole government of New Zealand are in the same category, however, and it is idle to maintain that Hawaii cannot profit by a careful consideration of these "freak notions" with an honest endeavor to adopt such methods or make such changes as may serve to establish a more satisfactory system of taxation. Whether the officials of the Territory discover money to be available for this commission or not it is safe to say that its work will not be stopped, and it is equally certain that any future Legislature will see to it the necessary funds are made available without a question of doubt.

TO TEST THE 1000
ACRE LAND CLAUSE

Judge Geo. D. Gear addressed the following letter to J. J. Dunne, the Acting United States Attorney, today:

Acting U. S. District Attorney:

Dear Sir:—In the case of Joseph B. Alherton vs. The Waiolua Sugar Company, Limited, an action to remove a cloud upon title, the defendant corporation, in its answer, alleges that plaintiff holds the land as trustee for the Waiolua Agricultural Company, an Hawaiian corporation, which allegedly holds lands in the Hawaiian Islands in excess of 1000 acres, and that this acquisition by the said Joseph B. Alherton as such trustee was and is in contravention of Section 55 of the Act to provide a Government for the Territory of Hawaii, to the effect that: "No corporation shall own and hold real estate in the Hawaiian Islands in excess of one thousand acres," and that, therefore, the plaintiff is not entitled to proceed in equity against the defendant. There was an exception taken to this portion of the answer on the ground that the same was immaterial, which exception this court sustained because of the law not allowing any one but the Government to make the objection that a corporation has acquired and holds more than a thousand acres of land, as limited by the Organic Act.

As this matter was attempted to be set up by the defendant as a defense in this suit, and therefore may be easily susceptible of proof, I deem it my duty to call your attention to this as a representative of the United States Government, for such action by yourself as you may deem proper under the circumstances.

The trial of the case is set for Saturday morning, August 3, at 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. Dunne has not yet made up his mind what action he will take in the matter.

A singular and improbable discovery is the latest credited M. Henri Becquerel. He is alleged to have found that the rays from radium burn the skin through cardboard and cloth, that the marks of the burning do not appear for a fortnight, and that such burns are much more difficult to cure than ordinary ones.

THOMAS METCALF, July 30, 1901. 1904-31

EX-DEPUTY NAKUNA OFFERS HIS DEFENSE

Bureau of Conveyances, Honolulu, H. I., July 30, 1901.

M. K. Nakuna, Deputy Registrar of Conveyances.
Sir:—In view of your retaliatory course since my objections some three months ago to your habit of newspaper reading in office hours, while others with myself were busy forwarding the morning's work, thereby naturally creating a breach and want of harmony between us that is not conducive to efficiency in the public service I have a right to expect of my chief assistant, your commission as Deputy Registrar of Conveyances is this day hereby revoked.

I very much wish that your statement on my promoting you to the position of honor to share with me the duties and responsibilities of this Bureau "that you would do all in your power to show your appreciation by faithful service" had verification therefore, from the two standpoints of self and public interest, our official relations must cease.

Respectfully yours,

THOS. G. THURM,

Registrar of Conveyances

Approved: WM. H. WRIGHT, Treasurer.

Answer to Mr. Thurm's letter of dismissal.

Thos. G. Thurm, Registrar of Conveyances.

Sir: In view of the charge you made against me as to my habit of reading newspapers in office hours, allow me to explain.

I am not in the habit of reading papers in office hours if my duties as deputy were not performed.—The instance you referred to was one morning when you reproved me for reading papers about two months ago. The evening before I was at the office till 6 o'clock (while others with yourself were home), working overtime and finishing my card abstracting work of the day, thus leaving me free to wait in the morning till some work was brought in.

Seeing now that you are very jealous of the few minutes of government time that I had used in reading while waiting for work—perhaps you will be able to make public answers to the following questions, viz:—

Is it not a fact that at times when-ever the whistle blows announcing the arrival of a steamer from the Coast, that within a reasonable allowance of time for the mail to be at your store, that you leave your official work and go to attend to your private business during office hours?

Is it not a fact that you have brought your latest files to the office and read them there during office hours?

Is it not a fact that at times when there is an outgoing steamer, that you leave your official duties and go to your store to attend to your private business correspondence during office hours?

Is it not a fact that you have employed me, a government official, during office hours to translate the following articles for your annual, viz:—

Story of the Menhene, Surf-riding, Canoe-making, Kuia-fish-god (First Part). All of which is now published, also the translation of the second part of the Kuia story which is now in your possession, and not paying for the same as private work?

Is it not a fact that at times you have left your official duties and gone to the Custom House to gather figures for your tables of Imports and Exports for your annual, during office hours?

Is it not a fact that at times you have spent part of your time in the office in compiling and comparing materials for your annual, during office hours?

Is it not a fact that at times you have made the government copyist compare with you proofs of articles for your annual during office hours, and not paying for the same as private work?

If you think it is not conducive to efficiency in the public service for the deputy to read newspapers when he has no official duty to do, why did you go to your store and sort papers during office hours? Why did you bring your late files into the office and read them during office hours? Why did you leave your official duties and go to your store to attend to your private business correspondence during office hours? Why did you employ government employees under you to do your private work during office hours?

You have set the example, yet it seems it is all right when you do it, but a cause for discharge from office when your deputy did only one of the above counts.

As to "faithful service" let the public who has business to do with the office judge between you and me; also if you are the gentleman that you ought to be you will admit that I have performed the duties required of me as deputy faithfully before, during and after office hours, and even went to the expense out of my own pocket to employ a helper to answer calls for books and attend to errands and other duties imposed on me by you.

In reference to charge of incompetence, that you gave to the Star reporter allow me to remind you that before you took your vacation to New York I applied to you for a vacation of two weeks which you had promised me. You then admitted to me that if I went you would have to postpone your trip till I returned, which goes to prove that though a mere copyist at the time you had perfect confidence in me to be able and competent to attend to your duties as Registrar during your absence.

I have faithfully performed my duties of Deputy Registrar up to the time that you handed me my discharge at 4 p. m., July 30, 1901.

Respectfully yours,

MOSES K. NAKUNA

NICHOLS PLACES ORDER FOR HAWAII CARDS

The Cincinnati Enquirer of July 19 says: Frank E. Nichols, a New Yorker, who has been in the book and stationery business in Honolulu, is at the St. Nicholas to place a large order with the United States Playing Card Company for souvenir decks backed with beautiful illustrations of Hawaiian scenery, which, he says, will be sent all over the world as presents and serve as a great advertisement for the islands.

"We want a cable to Honolulu now more than anything," said Mr. Nichols, "and when we get it our tourists will increase tenfold, for men these days like to keep in touch with their business, however far away. The policy of the Hawaiian Government heretofore has been to sell the public lands in large areas, but it now proposes to sell what is left in small tracts, by allotment and we trust that this will attract many American farmers to our shores. The native party carried a majority of both branches of the Legislature at the last election over the government party, with whom they are at loggerheads. The finances of the islands are in a bad way. A loan is needed, and I am afraid there is serious trouble ahead unless some amicable arrangement is reached soon.

"Business is good, however, and the population is steadily increasing. Honolulu has a population of 46,000.

"The National Government purposes spending $1,000,000 a year for ten years on Pearl Harbor, a few miles below the city."

FUNSTON TELLS HIS STORY OF AGUINALDO

Washington, July 12.—The War Department today made public Brigadier General Funston's report of the capture of Aguinaldo on May 2d last. It shows that Funston's entire plan of the expedition was submitted to the Commanding General of the Department of Northern Luzon and then was sent to General MacArthur, by whom it was approved. General Funston goes into details concerning the captured correspondence of Aguinaldo and the use he made of Emilio Cegundo, who had presented himself to Lieutenant J. D. Taylor of the Twenty-fourth Infantry with letters from Aguinaldo which he was to deliver to various insurgent chiefs.

Of the actual capture General Funston says: "The Macabebes started up into the town, and we heard a few shots, followed by scattering firing. We hastily crossed the river and, running up, found that the Macabebes were somewhat demoralized and firing wildly in every direction.

"They were controlled with some difficulty. Aguinaldo's guard of about fifty armed men, neatly uniformed, had been drawn up to receive the reinforcements and, being fired into, broke and ran, a few of them returning the fire as they retreated. Aguinaldo, with his officers, was waiting in his quarters. Placido and Segovia entered the house to report their arrival, and after a short conversation Segovia stepped outside the house and ordered the Macabebes, who had just come up from the river bank, to open fire on the insurgents, who were standing in line at a distance of about fifty yards. The Macabebes were so excited and nervous that their fire was very ineffective. But two of the insurgents were killed, the remainder taking flight, throwing down eighteen rifles and 1,000 rounds of ammunition.

"As soon as Segovia had given the order he ran back into the house and opened fire on the officers surrounding Aguinaldo, wounding Villa and Hambr. The latter jumped out of the house into the river and was not seen again. Villa, on being wounded, surrendered, as did also Santiago Barcelona, Aguinaldo's treasurer. The five remaining officers escaped from the house and swam the river. Placido seized Aguinaldo, and told him that he was a prisoner of the Americans. At this juncture the Americans arrived on the scene, and gave their attention to getting the Macabebes under control, and protecting the prisoners from them. One Macabebe was slightly wounded by a gunshot in the forehead."

In conclusion General Funston deals out praise generously to all who shared in the expedition, mentioning Captains Hazzard and Newton, Lieutenants Hazzard and Mitchell and especially praising Lieutenant Taylor for the discretion he showed after having obtained the Aguinaldo letters. He also speaks in high praise of Commander Barry of the Vicksburg and the assistance which the navy rendered him.

Mrs. Kruger's Death May Effect War

New York, July 21.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: The death of Mrs. Kruger may have some influence in shortening the war. Kruger himself has been reported to be exceedingly despondent over the military operations, and the correspondence between Reitz and Stein has justified his despondency. His domestic bereavement may cause him to lose heart for continuing the hopeless struggle. His Dutch physicians have been warning him for months against the consequences of excitement, since his heart action is abnormally weak.

A story is brought by influential South Africans that Commandant General Botha was strongly disposed to surrender but did not consider himself at liberty to do so against the judgment of Kruger. General Botha has a family to provide for and is poor and without resources. South Africans assert he is dependent upon allowances which Kruger has agreed to make for him if he continues the struggle so long as possible.

There is no practical method of verifying these explanations, but this account comes from South Africans who ought to know what they are talking about.

Transportation Co.'s Steamers and Sailors

San Francisco, July 24.—The steamers Meteor, Eureka and Tampico, all en route to San Francisco from the Eastern coast with cargoes of coal, are intended for a new line to be established between Seattle and Honolulu by the Globe Navigation Company. The Meteor is to be especially fitted up for the transportation of fruit on return trips from the islands, and for this purpose will have a cold-storage plant installed upon her arrival here. Work has begun at Ballard, Wash., on a fleet of ten wooden vessels for the Globe Transportation Company. The first to be launched will be a four-masted schooner, to be named the William Nottingham, with a capacity for carrying 1,400,000 feet of lumber. The vessel, which will cost $75,000, is named after a New York capitalist, who is a heavy stockholder in the company, and will be ready for launching in sixty days. The second vessel, already under construction, will be the schooner Lyman C. Smith, named after the typewriter manufacturer.

FILIPINO BANDIT CHIEF

New York, July 24.—A cable to the Sun from Manila says: The central division of the Federal party held a meeting yesterday at which resolutions were adopted denouncing General Caballes. This bandit has ordered the assassination of General Cailles, the former rebel commander, and Pardo Tavera, member elect of the Philippine Commission. Caballes has also ordered the assassination of other Filipino leaders who have surrendered. Recently he forced the presidents of Cavinti and San Pedro Tugasan, provinces of Laguna, to get down on their knees and shout for Caballes and a Philippine republic. Afterward he threw the presidents over a precipice.

KOCH ON TUBERCULOSIS

London, July 23.—A feature of today's session of the British Congress of Tuberculosis was Prof. Koch's paper which was listened to with the deepest interest by the big gathering in St. James Hall.

Lord Lister introduced the noted German professor to the assembly with a few complimentary words. During his address Dr. Koch said his experiments had satisfied him that human tuberculosis and bovine tuberculosis were radically different diseases and that he had amply demonstrated that cattle could not be infected with human tuberculosis. The counter proposition was hard to prove, the doctor said, owing to the difficulty of experimenting upon human subjects, but personally he was satisfied such was the case and he recited at length past mortem evidence supporting this belief. Dr. Koch said if this point were conceded it remained to determine the chief source of contagion.

Continuing, he said that human immunity to bovine infection disposed of the belief of infection through dairy products, and he considered this source of danger so slight as to be unworthy of precautionary measures. Heretofore was also an unimportant factor in the transmission of tuberculosis, though the contrary had long been believed. Dr. Koch said the chief danger of contagion lay in the sputum of consumptive patients, and that a remedy was to be found in a law preventing the consumption from strewing contagion about him.

Several methods to this end were available, said the doctor, the surest of which is isolation in sanitariums. This, unfortunately, was impracticable, but he strongly urged the establishment of special consumptive hospitals and the obligatory notification of the authorities of the existence of the disease, the disinfection of their quarters whenever consumptives changed their residence, and the dissemination of information to the people concerning the true nature of consumption, to aid in avoiding and combating it.

Dr. Koch highly complimented Dr. Herman M. Biggs, pathologist and director of the bacteriological laboratories of the New York Health Department, upon the repressive measures concerning tuberculosis taken in New York, where, he said, the mortality from tuberculosis had been reduced 35 per cent since 1886, and recommended the system organized by Dr. Biggs in New York to the study and imitation of all municipalities.

Dr. Koch closed his remarks by expressing his belief that the ultimate stamping out of tuberculosis was possible.
