GENERAL DEBILITY and Indigestion

Made Her Life Miserable, but She is Cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Read the testimony of Mrs. E. G. Munro, Coburg, Victoria, whose portrait is also given:

"Some few years ago I suffered terribly with indigestion and general debility. I could not sleep, and my condition was such as to make my life miserable. None of the many remedies I tried did me any good, and I despaired of ever getting better. One of my friends told me of the blood-purifying and strength-giving properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I began taking it. Before I had finished the first bottle I felt better, and was thus encouraged to give the medicine a thorough trial. In all I used four bottles, and then was perfectly cured of the grievous trouble which had afflicted me. I now recommend, to anyone suffering as I did,

The Prince of Wales on the Crisis.

Explosion on H. M. S. Repulse.

Notable Deaths.

The Prince of Wales, speaking at York, replied to the New York World's articles, and expressed his belief that the crisis would be arranged in a manner satisfactory to both countries, and that the same warm friendship which had existed for so many years would continue.

The Times' New York correspondent wires that the Prince of Wales, by his speech, showed that he well understood the feeling of parties in the United States, and the opinion in the country is that they can accept his message as being equally gratifying to both, and as likely to be interpreted as expressing the Queen's sentiments.

Two Ashanti chiefs, supposed to be traitors, are proceeding to the coast to interview the Governor of the friendly natives, who possesses a large store of powder and munitions, in the vicinity of Coomassie.

Sir Augustus Hemming has been appointed Governor of British Guiana.

By an explosion in the coal bunker of H. M. S. Repulse, at Chatham, nine men were injured.

A wholesale exodus of Poles is taking place in Eastern Galicia, the destination of the emigrants being America. The country is thus being deprived of a majority of its laborers and small farmers. Two hundred families are camped on the snow waiting for their passports.

The death is announced of Sir Edward Harland, M. P. for Belfast North.

The death is announced of the Duke of Leeds.

At a very successful seance in Cincinnati the other night, a man burst into tears when the medium described very accurately a tall, blue-eyed spirit standing by him, with light side whiskers and his hair parted in the middle. "Do you know him?" inquired a man at his side in a sympathetic whisper. "Know him? I guess I do," replied the unhappy man, wiping his eyes. "He was engaged to my wife. If he hadn't died he would have been her husband instead of me. Oh, George, George!" he murmured, in a voice choked with emotion, "why did you peg out?"

The wonderful wizard, will give an entire change of program tonight, and, in order to accommodate ladies and children who do not find it convenient to attend evening performances, will give a grand matinee at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Everyone was so delighted by Tuesday's entertainment that packed houses are assured for the rest of the series.

A Paris correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette tells this singular story of the supervision of the French press: In the days of the Empire a fiery editor of the South was summoned before the correctional police, and was fined for an article written by a person whose name he refused to reveal till the court had pronounced its sentence. The verdict delivered, the editor betrayed the name of the guilty party. It was that of the Emperor.

SOME COLONIAL ITEMS.

BROUGHT BY THE MARIPONA THIS MORNING.

Inter-Colonial Cricket Match Brought in Norfolk Island—The Stranded Steamer Osprey Floated.

A drought has been severely felt in Norfolk Island for many months. The crops have failed, and large numbers of cattle have died of thirst.

The inter-colonial cricket match Melbourne between Victoria and New South Wales attracted a large attendance. In their first innings the visitors had two wickets down for 266, Mackenzie 40, Bradman 31, Donnan, not out 124, Richardson, not out 59, extras 6. Donnan displayed splendid cricket and with Richardson completely collared the bowling.

YESTERDAY'S MATCH RACE.

A GOOD CONTENT AT KAPIOLANI RACE TRACK.

Clarence Macfarlane's Salvador Defeats Gus Schuman's Judah—A Spirited Race and Some Betting.

Some three hundred people visited the race track at Kapiolani park yesterday afternoon to witness the match race between Clarence Macfarlane's Salvador and Gus Schuman's Judah, both horses being Hawaiian bred and half brother and sister. There were quite a number of ladies in the grand stand and in carriages. The track was never in better condition in the opinion of experts. J. J. Sullivan, W. M. Cunningham and Charles Belina acted as judges and starters and the race was for $250 a side. By private agreement no official time was announced by the judges.

Salvador won the toss for the pole and the horses were called up for the first heat about ten minutes past three. Previous to the start the drivers were warned that no unnecessary scoring would be permitted. At the third attempt the word was given. Salvador, who was about two lengths behind, broke with the word and did not get down to business until the first quarter. Approaching the half-mile post the Schuman mare broke badly and Salvador recovered the several lengths he was behind and took the lead. The mare, however, soon passed him, although breaking rearing into the home stretch.

Salvador was again in the lead and the mare settled down and won the heat by about two lengths. The time as taken by bystanders was 2:50. After the heat Macfarlane protested that the heat be either called off or declared a dead one, claiming that his horse broke before reaching the wire. The judges, however, decided that if his horse had a poor start it was more than made up for by the numerous breaks of the more speedy mare, and they declined to interfere.

In the second heat the horses got off on the fourth attempt, Salvador having a good length the best of the start. The mare broke badly at the turn and Salvador increased his lead, going like a machine. The quarter was made in 43 seconds and the half in 1:25. Judah broke repeatedly and at the three quarter post the horse was seven or eight lengths ahead. She recovered herself and came down the homestretch in gallant shape, but broke again and the horse took the heat by two lengths. Unofficial time for the heat, 2:47.

The betting had hitherto been in favor of the mare, but two to one was freely offered on the horse when time was called for the third heat. The horses got away on the third attempt with a splendid start, but the heat was only a repetition of the preceding one, the mare repeatedly breaking while the horse worked like a clock. Judah ran nearly all of the first quarter, and at the half was away behind. The mare repeatedly broke and at the three-quarter pole became unmanageable and failed to reach the distance pole before the flag dropped.

There was no question in the minds of those who saw the race that Schuman's mare was the more speedy of the two, and that had it not been for the frequent and disastrous breaks she would have won the race.

KNIGHTLY CEREMONIES.

MYSTIC LODGE HAS INSTALLATION AND BANQUET.

Officers and Members of Mystic Lodge Have a Splendid Time—Toasts and Responses.

The members of Mystic Lodge, Knights of Pythias, together with many visiting brothers, assembled in force at the Castle Hall last evening for the purpose of installing the officers elected for the present term.

The officers installed were E. Towse, C. C.; J. F. Eckhardt, P. C. as V. C.; G. Bruns, P. C. as Prelate; I. A. Burgett, P. C. as M. of W.; A. E. Murphy, P. C. as K. of R. and S.; S. J. Salter as M. of F.; George Angus as M. of E.; A. L. Morris, M. at A.; Fred L. Waldron as I. G. and John Walker as O. G.

This installation was conducted by H. Laws, Deputy Supreme Chancellor, assisted by Past Chancellors Geo. Hawkins, Fred Waldron, F. L. Stolz, C. J. McCarty, L. M. Vettlesen, George Dahl, Chancellor Commander of Oahu Lodge and others.

After the installation ceremonies Chancellor Commander E. Towse made a few appropriate remarks and presented the retiring Chancellor Commander George Bruns with a handsome past chancellor's jewel suitably engraved, as a gift from the lodge.

The lodge then adjourned to the banquet hall and partook of an elegant collation furnished by James Steiner. Joseph Marsden acted as toast master and the following toasts were responded to: "The Order Universal" by H. Laws, "The Order in H. I. O. O. F." by Geo. Bruns, "The Lodge," by J. F. Eckhardt, "The New Officers," by J. F. Eckhardt, "The Past Chancellors," by J. F. Eckhardt, "The United Rank," by C. J. McCarty, "The Endowment Rank," by A. V. Gear, P. C.; "Pacific Coast Brothers," by J. H. Walby; "Our Visitors," by Dr. Derby; "Our Sister Lodges," by F. Waldron, P. C. The above were interspersed with well-rendered recitations by A. E. Murphy, P. C. and A. L. Morris and a song by George Bruns, P. C. The meeting broke up at a late hour with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by those present.

Impromptu toasts were given during the evening and responded to by C. W. Ziegler, F. B. Oat, Henry Smith, J. A. Mehrrens, Geo. Hawkins, Geo. Denison, Geo. A. Davis, A. W. Keach, I. A. Burgett and other.

Between fifty and sixty knights were present.

The officers of the Christoforo Colombo are: Alexander Bertolini, captain commandant; E. Prespitero commander; Duc des Abruzzis, M. Cognin, N. Rimbo, L. Resio, E. Frigero and J. d. Fidyver, lieutenants; S. Aymerick, Z. Winegrear, E. Fenz and E. Arrivabene, sub-lieutenants; E. Sluggbeck and Yarrook, midshipmen; Dr. Belli, Assistant Surgeon; Ginra, Paymaster; Politi, Chief Engineer.

Rioeci.

The vessel is a new steel cruiser, built in 1892, at a cost of nearly $4,000,000. Her dimensions are as follows: Length, 248.5 ft.; breadth, 37.1 ft.; depth, 16.8 ft.; displacement, 3400 tons. She is bark rigged and can steam about fourteen knots an hour. Her armament consists of six 4.7 in. breechloading guns, four six-pounder rapid firing guns and several other of smaller calibre. Her crew consists of nineteen officers and about 225 sailors and marines.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The patriotic women's societies of the country are now re-enforced by another, the National Daughters of the Confederacy, which has for its object a sisterhood of the various organizations of women in the south. It is nonpolitical and is designed solely to cultivate the ties of friendship among the southern women. This new association embraces several others, such as the Monumental association, organized for the purpose of erecting a tribute to the dead at Mount Olivet, and the Ladies' Auxiliary, the first association of women in the south formed to act with gentlemen. The Ladies' Auxiliary, in conjunction with the men, applied to the legislature for a portion of the old Hermitage tract. This was given, with a sum sufficient to put the place in order and erect the comfortable quarters which now shelter almost 100 old soldiers.

Last autumn the Nashville daughters invited the members from other states who had also united for the same purpose to form a national association, and this has recently been accomplished. Mrs. M. C. Goodlett of Nashville is the president, Mrs. L. H. Rains of Savannah first vice president, Mrs. Kate Cabell Currie of Dallas second vice president, Miss White May of Nashville third vice president, Mrs. John P. Hickman of Nashville recording secretary, Mrs. J. B. Linsley of Nashville corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. B. Maney of Nashville treasurer, Mrs. John Overton of Nashville president of the state association.—New York Mail and Express.

Lady Dudley.

Lady Dudley, whose husband has received one of the minor parliamentary offices in connection with the new Salisbury administration, is probably the only peeress of the realm who has risen from the rank of a bona fide shopgirl to her present social eminence. True, she bore prior to her marriage the name of Gurney, one of the most ancient in Norfolk, one of her ancestors having been that Thomas de Gurney who murdered King Edward II in such an appalling manner with hot iron bars. The young countess' father, however, met with business reverses and was compelled to resign his partnership in the Gurney bank, as well as to surrender all his possessions for the benefit of his creditors.

Mrs. Gurney thereupon opened a milliner shop in London, but met with scant success, her two daughters, who had acted as assistants, ultimately becoming saleswomen in the Regent street store of the modiste, Mme. Elise.

About a year previous to Lord Dudley's marriage the now widowed Duchess of Bedford and her sister, Lady Henry Somerset, interested themselves in behalf of the two young girls and removed them to more congenial surroundings. Rachel, the eldest, became a member of the household of the duchess, while the younger, now Lady Trowbridge, was adopted by Lady Henry Somerset. It was as the adopted daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Bedford that Rachel Gurney married young Lord Dudley.

A Belle of Barbarism.

Rev. J. S. Withrow of the Third Presbyterian church, Chicago, says: Denying woman any place or part in society or state just because she is a woman and granting the same to man just because he is a man is, in my judgment, a mean relic of barbarism. The fact that some women do not desire the franchise has nothing to do with the duty of the state to grant it. If they should fail to exercise their granted right, it would be no more than men are doing. When it is said that it would coarsen women to mingle with men in political competitions, I venture the inquiry, Why would not the saving virtues of womanhood rather conquer the coarseness of men? But with the consequences to her we are not called in the first instance to deal. Banish and bury the barbaric ideas and usages which debar her from what the male gender enjoy on the sole ground of their sex, and when all such inequality is removed allow her as much freedom as fathers, brothers and sons to say what she will choose to do and what not. As to the amplest opportunities and privileges, feeling the "attitude" of my own congregation in regard to the election of women as trustees, directors and to other offices in the church, it has not been a mooted matter. But it is my opinion that all feel sure there is nothing standing in the way of women's elevation in our church.

The Pay of Women Musicians.

Probably there is no field where more varying wages are paid to women than in the realm of music, writes Mrs. Garrett

The Omaha turnverein has for nine years provided instruction for women in physical culture, and in the last winter had 70 women in the class. The costume worn is a loose belted waist with bloomers.

Health, said Miss Arnold in Boston to the Chauncey hall kindergarten graduates, is the first requisite of success. The "new" woman has none of the old fashioned belief in nerves and notions.

RICH MAN ON THE FORCE.

Wealth Owned by a Little Patrolman of New York.

The most truly remarkable man on the New York police force was an insignificant-looking little patrolman who nightly patrolled post 33, as the beat on the east side of the Sixth avenue, from Fifty-fourth to Fifty-ninth street, is known. He is an Irishman, undersized, but stockily built, and from a distance looked like a very young man. But he is not a young man, is Patrolman Thomas O'Rourke, having lived through forty-four years. During his twenty-one years of service O'Rourke has been shifted from precinct to precinct with the same regularity that all patrolmen are changed about. But, unlike his companions, he took advantage of these shifts to look about for real estate bargains. He had a little money when he joined the force, and with his savings he was able to do a little profitable speculation in real estate before he had been three years in the department. Year by year he increased his capital, until now there are few of his superior officers who are anything like as well to do as he.

Today O'Rourke owns eleven houses and four lots, and in addition has two rows of houses in course of completion. He personally attends to all of his own business, besides doing his police duty, and the story of how he has worked himself up to his present condition in life from a penniless boy, as told by himself, is a most interesting one. A Sun reporter found O'Rourke on his beat and asked him to talk about himself. "Talk about myself?" said O'Rourke. "What can I say about Thomas O'Rourke that's interesting? I'm a plain man, and for twenty-one years the papers let me alone. That satisfied me. But now, because somebody made a complaint against me, and during the hearing of that complaint it came out that I was possessed of more money than patrolmen are in the habit of having, everybody wants to know just how much I have got. Of course, I'm a rich man. I ought to be, after twenty-one years of constant work. Any man who keeps a good paying place that long and has any business ability ought to be. Every penny I've got in the world was honestly earned, and, let me tell you, it represents years of untiring effort. A New York policeman has none too much time to himself, but what little time I have had away from my duties I have spent in building up my present fortune. It is not a large one, and some papers have grossly exaggerated it. I don't hesitate to say it's $100,000, or may be $150,000, because it's just about that much, but every dollar of it was honestly earned, and, let me tell you, few Irishmen who have adopted America have done more for their country than I have. Consequently I feel entitled to every cent I can make out of it.

"I got my first start by taking a wagon load of merchandise to Mexico in partnership with a man named John Banner. My share of the profits was $1800. It was on that capital and my savings from my pay that I speculated and accumulated the fortune I have today. It seems impossible that a man could do so much on so little, but if any one doubts that I did it, I will willingly show them records of my every transaction. As a policeman I had different beats all the time, and I kept on the constant lookout for bargains in real estate. I was left up town a great deal, and property up town was cheaper in those days than it is now. I imagined that things would go just as they have, and I bought as extensively as I could with my limited capital, selling again as soon as I could with reasonable profit.

"The first house that I bought was at 436 East Eighty-fifth street. I paid $6500 for it, and a few months later sold it to Thomas Acton, a brother of Police Commissioner Acton, for $9500. Then I purchased 303 East Seventy-third street for $11,800, selling it for $16,400. Next I bought the houses at 439 and 441 First avenue for $30,000 and later I sold them for $36,000. Then I bought a block on Prospect avenue, between Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth streets for $9000, all but two lots of which I sold for $18,000. I doubled my money in this transaction, and I still own two lots there. In addition to dealing with other people, I have built a number of houses myself, and even now have a couple of blocks in the course of construction. You can see yourself how I've worked for all this, and yet there are a whole lot of people who don't think that I ought to have so much money."—New York Sun.

GOOD HEALTH.

Concussion and Other Ear Troubles to Which Bathers Are Liable.

Concerning some of the aural mishaps which occur to those who indulge in sea bathing where there is concussion from the surf, Popular Science News quotes Dr. A. H. Cheadle. He says that the common accidents to the ear are acute inflammation of the middle ear, diffuse inflammation of the external ear, the lighting up of an acute condition in a chronic suppurating otitis media, simple deafness due to swelling of a ceruminous plug. Besides this there are occasionally troubles from diving, such as concussion of the labyrinth and rupture of the membrana tympani.

In order to avoid these accidents Dr. Cheadle says that persons suffering from middle ear discharge should never bathe at all, and that those who have had middle ear discharge and whose membranes have healed should never bathe without some efficient means for preventing the water from entering the ears, such as firm plugs of cotton wool with an oilskin cap fitting tightly over them. Water remaining in a healthy ear should be let out as soon as possible. Acute otitis seems to be occasionally caused by water which has entered the naso-pharynx; hence the nose should be protected. Some advice that every one who bathes should introduce a plug of cotton in the ear.

A Good Face Lotion.

A well known lotion that will not injure the most sensitive skin consists of a half pint of sour milk and half an ounce of grated horse radish. Let it stand from 6 to 12 hours and wash the face several times a day. This simple remedy is usually effective. Washing the face in a saturated solution of borax in rosewater is a very pleasant treatment and equally beneficial.

"Look this prisoner up in Bradstreet's," said the Judge. "May I ask why your honor gives such extraordinary instructions?" asked the prosecuting attorney. "Certainly," said the Judge, "I wish to ascertain whether he is a thief or a kleptomaniac."—Harper's Bazar.

BY AUTHORITY.

CIRCULAR.

In a circular formerly issued by this Board on the subject of religious teaching in schools, reference was made to the fact that in the statutes relating to the Bureau of Public Instruction it is provided that no person in holy orders or minister of religion shall be eligible to fill the office of President of the Board of Education or of Inspector General.

Again, article 97 of the existing Constitution declares that "no public money shall be appropriated nor public land conveyed or for the support or benefit of any sectarian, denominational or private school."

The evident intention of these provisions that there shall be no religious teaching in the public schools supported by the Government, but that they shall remain strictly non-sectarian and secular.

The school buildings should therefore be used only for purposes pertaining to the public education of the children of the country. Accordingly, the permission formerly given to the School Agents "to arrange with the clergymen of any religious denomination to allow them the use of the Government school houses after 2 o'clock p. m., for a time not exceeding one hour, once a week for each denomination applying, for the religious instruction of such scholars as may choose to attend" is hereby revoked.

This Board does not, however, consider it inconsistent with the principle stated above, to continue the practice of opening the schools every morning by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

The School Law also declares that "The object of the common schools supported by Government is to instruct the children of the nation in good morals," which includes honesty, truthfulness, obedience to parents and teachers, respect for superiors in age and position, patriotism, kindness, benevolence, helpfulness to the weak and the unfortunate, humanity to animals, personal cleanliness, modesty, chastity, temperance and other virtues, which should be taught by precept, illustration and example at all times.

No profane or indecent language should be allowed in the school premises or on the way to or from school.

Special instructions should also be given on the evil effects of the use of alcoholic drinks and of narcotics.

By order of the Board of Education,

J. F. SCOTT,
Secretary.

OBSERVATIONS.

There has not been heard anything but condemnation of the appointment of G. de la Vergne as District Magistrate. Jurors who have tried cases in which he was acting as prosecuting attorney are not the least outspoken about "the baby judge." In this instance the Government has not the excuse of lack of material. Charles L. Hopkins, a Hawaiian of rare intelligence, who filled that office before with satisfaction, as well as the position of Marshal, should have been preferred far ahead of the juvenile appointee. Mr. Hopkins is an old servant of the state, has a large family, and long ago gave in his adhesion to the Republic. If the Government has any desire to conciliate the Hawaiian people, it should not neglect Hawaiians of such ability, fidelity and honorable record as Charles L. Hopkins.

Rev. Shirley W. Baker, D. D., lately received his diploma of LL. D. from the University of Chicago in appreciation of his work in Tonga. Dr. Baker by request of the late king drew up a constitution for the country, producing a document that was admired by the late Secretary Blaine. He also induced the king in 1862 to set his people free from serfdom, and the event is celebrated as "Liberty Day" every year on the fourth of June. The late Robert Louis Stevenson said that "Mr. Baker was the only man that had lastingly impressed his mind on any nation in the South Seas." Seven or eight years ago Dr. Baker was the storm center of a bitter political and religious feud in Tonga, which extended to the Wesleyan church courts of Australia. His son was shot by an assassin in ambush, fatally if our memory serves aright.

Tuisila, a Samoan chief, lately ordered the clubbing of the students who landed in his district. Two of them were mangled to pieces but the third escaped with a broken arm. It was all because one of the party was recognized as a connection of somebody who had killed the chief's grandfather or some other relative years ago. "How much longer are the authorities going to permit this brutal murder to remain at large?" asks the Samoa Times adding, "What about Laban's chances?" Mr. Laban is owner of land in Tuisila's jurisdiction who had a week or two previously been put in possession of the property by the German war ship Bussard. Samoa, outside of Apia, seems to be in a state very much like anarchy.

There are lawyers not yet gray-haired who have won a place for themselves in the profession, and there are gray-headed lawyers who apparently are good for many years of active service. It is the "elders" that people have from time immemorial been taught to look for sound judgment.

By destroying the Henrietta's opium the Government is doing what it should have done last year instead of selling it in British Columbia. Apart from the inconsistency of a Government selling an article in another country which on the ground of public health and morality it prohibits from sale in this country, the probability is that by the time this opium has been finally disposed of it will have cost the Government more than their deal in it brought and perhaps all that the schooner will bring at auction thrown in.

In speculating on the prospects of the new year, at the close of a retrospect of the old one, the Samoa Times calls upon the intelligent residents to persevere in efforts to get the Treaty Powers to amend the political condition of the islands. It holds that unless something is done by the Powers, there is no hope whatever of prosperity. Annexation by one of the Powers will probably be the fate of Samoa, and then it ought to enter on an era of development.

A letter from Tonga complains of slackness in money circulation, giving as the reasons that taxes and church collections are locked up for the time being and that the circus took away $2000. The only way a place can avoid losing money on a circus is to get one up for itself and keep the money at home.

Brevity is not wit, although the soul of it.

Company D's Election.

Second Lieutenant Rowell and Sergeant Bergstrom were the only candidates for the vacant first-lieutenancy of Company D at last night's election and the first ballot decided the contest, the result being 26 to 9 in favor of Bergstrom.

After the election Colonel McLean showed the men the mechanism of one of the new Driggs-Schroeder rapid firing guns and explained its superiority over others of a similar nature.

OUR FUNNY MAN.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—Under the caption "Out of Time" in your paper of the 8th inst., you say: "It behooves the gatherer-in of literature to board up copies of the paper so that posterity may see what taste their forefathers had." Your funny man certainly and unconsciously struck a humorous vein when he penned the lines. If the Time had been the taste of the people of Honolulu it would not have been relegated to the journalistic graveyard. London Punch is waiting for your humorous writer—it yearns for him, as The Time yearned for a place among paying ventures.

ADMIRALTY DECISION.

Insurance Companies Not Liable for the Waimanalo.

A decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court which was prepared by Chief Justice Judd, upon the cases entitled:

"Z S Spalding vs The Alliance Marine and General Assurance Company, Limited;

"Z S Spalding vs The Sun Insurance Company;

"In the matter of the Hawaiian steamer Waimanalo;

"The Alliance Marine and General Assurance Company, Limited, and the Sun Insurance Company, vs. Z. S. Spalding, mortgagee, and C. V. Dudoit, owner."

The decision reverses the decree of the Circuit Court appealed from, which gave judgment to the libellant, Spalding, for the amount of insurance and costs, and declared that the insurance companies were entitled to the proceeds of the sale of the vessel. Judgment is ordered by the Supreme Court for the insurers, the amount of which is referred to the Clerk of the Court for computation and report. The libels of the insured against the insurance companies are dismissed.

The steamer Waimanalo was stranded on a reef off Keauanui, Island of Oahu, as the result of an accident to her machinery. She was abandoned by her master and owner to the insurers, who recovered and repaired her at a cost less than half her agreed value. The insurers tendered her to the owner and demand the payment of their expenses upon her. This was refused. The insurance was against total loss. The master did not take adequate means, the Courts find, to ascertain the probabilities of her becoming a total loss, nor did he make any energetic efforts to recover the vessel, as required by the terms of the policies.

Although the Court finds that the fact proved that the vessel was recovered is not the "best evidence," yet it is evidence that it was practicable to recover and repair her. Under the policies it was the master's duty to do his utmost to save the vessel, and failing to this the abandonment was not justified.

The cost of recovery and repair not exceeding half the agreed value of the vessel, the Sun Insurance Co. is not liable under its policy, while the Alliance Co. is not liable under its policy, the cost not exceeding the value of the vessel.

Besides the Chief Justice the decision is signed by Justice Frear and Circuit Judge Cooper, the last sitting in place of Justice Bickerton, then absent from his fatal illness.

Hatch for the insured; Thurston and Neumann for the insurers.

THE HORSE RACE.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:— I notice in this morning's P. C. A. an account of the race between Judah and Salvator yesterday afternoon, in which it is stated that there was no official time taken, as the owners of the horses do not want them to get any record. With all due respect to both owners and judges, I claim that both horses have what is known as a "bar" against them and cannot enter the three minute class in this country. This race was made for a purse of $500 and was to be governed by the rules of the Hawaiian Jockey Club. There is nothing in said rules which covers this particular point about time and records. The point is being discussed by local housemen and Honolulu sports in general. Consequently we look elsewhere for means to decide this point.

The National Trotting Association Rules, which are a standard authority, have a rule which in my opinion covers this particular point. Rule 43, section 2, reads: "Time, whether taken at fairs or on any track, whether short or not, shall be known as a 'bar' and shall constitute a 'bar' the same as if regularly made over a track that was full measurement."

Section 4. "Time heretofore made on non-association tracks shall be 'record' or 'bars' the same as if made on our association tracks."

It is evident to me that the point at issue is fully explained in the above rules. The time taken at yesterday's race, whether taken officially or not, will certainly prove a "bar" against either of the horses entering the three-minute class in any future contest. The point at issue is an important one, and I have quoted the above rules for the benefit of local horsemen and sports in general. All bets made yesterday on the time made by either horse should certainly be decided on the above authority.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Cabinet Officials From Queensland on a Pleasure Tour.

Among the arrivals by the Mariposa this morning were Hon. H. M. Nelson, Premier of the Colony of Queensland; Hon. J. J. Byrnes, Attorney-General, and Hon. R. Philp, Minister of Mines. These gentlemen have been visiting the principal points of interest in the city and were seen by the BULLETIN reporter at the Hawaiian Hotel at noon.

Speaking for the party Mr. Nelson said they were here simply on a pleasure trip and that their visit had no political significance whatever. They will leave for the Volcano by the Kinau tomorrow and are very much pleased to hear of its activity.

Questioned as to the cable prospects Mr. Nelson said that a cable would surely be laid before long, but did not commit himself as to which of the companies in the field was backed by the Queensland government.

The party will return to Queensland by the steamer Warrimoo in two weeks.

Captain Parker caught two deserters from the Baltimore this morning and three other policemen one each, thereby securing the $10 standing reward offered by the United States for each man returned. One of those captured was a marine who had a good time with Hawkins' horse and buggy last night. He settled all damages to the satisfaction of Mr. Hawkins this morning.

Wirth's Circus in Hills.

The Hills Tribune says that Wirth's circus met with a most enthusiastic reception and that the canvas was packed at each performance. Editorially the Tribune remarks that it is the only show which, in their experience, has more than fulfilled all the promises of their program. Mr. Cameron says that the tent covered more people than it ever has before since it was made.

Special mention was made of the excellence of the numbers rendered by Nellie Lyndhurst, Ida Vernon, Katie Montgomery, Elsie St. Leon and Little Muriel Wirth; Wilfred Burns, St. Leon, Alberto and Hayes, and Kachail, the Javanese, are complimented highly, as are also Lahl Sing and Mr. Montgomery.

The troupe is now playing at Wailuku and Kahului and will return here on Sunday next, enroute for Kauni.

Entertains a Prince.

Consul F. A. Schaefer entertained the Duke de Abruzzi, Captain Bertolini and other officers of the Italian cruiser at dinner last evening. This morning the prince was escorted to the Pali and Punchbowl and on returning will lunch at Mr. Schaefer's where a number of prominent people have been invited to meet the visitors from sunny Italy.

AN OLD MAN AFFLICTED.

WEALTHY AND DECLARED A LUNATIC AT NINETY YEARS.

The Name Smith Was Not Good Enough for Him—Story of a Long Speech.

About a month ago, Amor de Cosmos, a politician of British Columbia who is more than ninety years old, was declared a lunatic by the Supreme Court, and his large estate placed accordingly in the hands of trustees. His real name was William Smith but, thinking that too common, he long ago had it changed by the courts in California to the more aristocratic one that he has since borne. Amor de Cosmos went to British Columbia from California in 1858, and soon became a power in politics. When the province joined the Dominion he was made local premier, but he was not content until he became a member of the Dominion Parliament. There, in spite of the egotism that was his main weakness, he commanded attention and fought hard and well for the interests of his province.

A Victoria dispatch to the San Francisco Chronicle, telling of the lunacy decree regarding de Cosmos, says: "He has been credited with having made the longest speech in the history of the Dominion House, but this was a mistake, although his vanity prevented him from denying the report." Substituting the "Provincial" for the "Dominion House" the story is an old one and the writer, who read about the wonderful effort nearly if not quite a score of years ago, has never known it to have been denied. It was at the close of a session of the British Columbia Legislature, and Amor de Cosmos began talking against time to defeat a bill. Beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning he rambled along, reading extracts from books and reports, all through the day and the livelong night. At 6 in the morning he fell back exhausted into his seat, blood coozing from his blistered lips. He had held the floor twenty hours.

Since the remarkable old man's mind has given way, his egotism has become more pronounced than ever. The dispatch already quoted from says: "He imagines that he was a prominent member of the old Scotch Parliament; that he sat in the Parliament at Westminster, and that his ability being at once recognized, he was promoted to the upper house. He also thinks he sat in the old house in College Green, when Ireland had her native parliament, and came to this continent to educate the people in parliamentary usages."

A Furniture Deal.

Ordway & Porter, the enterprising furniture dealers on Hotel street, have another surprise for the Honolulu public, having during the last few days received a large invoice of furniture of the latest designs direct from the factory.

This firm are certainly abreast of the times, as they import direct from the factory, thereby doing away with the jobber or middleman's profit. This little stroke of business ability enables them to sell at a very low figure, and people who are thinking of buying furniture will do well to inspect the stock before purchasing elsewhere.

The goods are ready for inspection and comprise bedroom sets, extension tables, sideboards, secretary bookcases, chiffoniers, ward robes, etc., etc., all from the very latest designs and at prices to suit the times.

Sound Basis.

The testimonials published by the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla are not purchased, nor are they written up in their office, nor are they from their employees, but they are facts from truthful and grateful people, who are reliable and as worthy of confidence as if they came from your most trusted neighbor.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

Hood's Saved Their Lives

Poisoned by Impure Water

Eva, Carroll and Lily Brown, Stowe, Vermont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Gentlemen:—Last winter, my two girls, boy and wife were taken ill. The doctors said they were poisoned by drinking water from an old well. The two girls failed to rally under the doctor's treatment. Eva, aged four years, fell away so she only weighed 18½ lbs.; coughed all the time and was helpless. Physicians said she had Consumption."

Lily, aged eight years, was nearly as bad as Eva but being older and stronger, held up a little better. We gave them both Hood's Sarsaparilla, which built up their strength and health finely so that they became fat and plump, lively and happy. My son Carroll was in a bad condition, having a bad cough and very weak. He was obliged to lie down most of the time. One bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla put him on his feet and restored perfect health. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children's lives."

POINTERS ABOUT VENEZUELA.

The republic claims an area of 632,807 square miles.
Liberty of worship is guaranteed by law.
The standing army consists of a little over 3000 men.
The national militia consists of all males between the ages of 18 and 45.
The constitution is modeled on that of the United States.
It was not until 1845 that the independence of the republic was recognized by Spain in the treaty of Madrid.
The emancipation of slaves took place on March 24, 1854.
Don Guzman Blanco was Dictator from 1870 until February 20, 1873, when he was elected constitutional President.

The coast of Venezuela was the first part of the American mainland sighted by Columbus.
From 1540 until early in this century the country was under Spanish domination.

In 1810 Venezuela rose against the Spanish yoke, and in the following year the independence of the territory was proclaimed.

The pure white population is less than 3 per cent. The vast majority of the people are negroes, Indians, mulattoes and zam-bos.

Elementary education is well provided for under the law. There are two universities, nineteen Federal colleges and various other public and private institutions for higher education.

The money system of Venezuela is that of the Latin convention, the franc being represented by the bolivar.—New York World.

MARIPOSA ARRIVES.

SHIP REAPER AND SCHOONER
TRANSIT IN PORT.

Markentine Castle Departs For the "Frisco" Refinery--Steamer Kea-hou's Fast Trip to Lahaina.

Tomorrow, Friday--high tide large at 0:48 a.m.; high tide small at 11:47 p.m.; low tide large at 6:40 p.m.; low tide small at 8:22 a.m.

The barkentine S. N. Castle sailed for San Francisco this morning with 837 tons of sugar consigned by the Spreckels Company.

The American ship Reaper after a long passage from the Columbia river arrived in port this afternoon. She will load sugar for New York.

The American schooner Transit, Forgeson master, 16 days from "Frisco" with general merchandise for Davies & Company arrived this morning and docked at Irmgard wharf.

The steamer Mikahala came in this morning with a load of Koloa and Lihue sugar and returned to Kailua this afternoon. She will be back on schedule time Sunday morning.

Mathematical calculations show that an iron ship weighs 27 per cent less than a wooden one, and will carry 115 tons of cargo for every 100 tons carried by a wooden ship of the same dimensions, and both loaded to the same draught of water.

Experiments on the coast of England lately showed that sky-flashing signals were often visible during fog when nothing could be seen toward the horizon and vessels were invisible within sound of their machinery.

The Philadelphia correspondent of the Marine Journal, in its last issue, says: The British ship Liverpool sailed from Point Breeze for Japan a few days ago with 137,000 cases of refined petroleum. In her hold, the largest cargo of oil ever loaded by the Standard Oil or any other company.

The liner Mariposa, commander Hayward, docked at Ocean wharf at seven o'clock this morning, eight days from Apia, Samoa, enroute to San Francisco. She had on a small cargo and six passengers for this port. Fine weather is reported the entire voyage. The Mariposa left at noon for the coast.

The steamer Keahou came in with a load of Pioneer Mill sugar from Lahaina for the Hackerfeld Company early this morning. The Keahou had the Claudine's time to Lahaina being 6 hours and 55 minutes on the way.
The Keahou took over 100 feet of lumber and three boat loads of merchandise and loaded 1000 sacks of sugar and was back at Fort street wharf in 20 hours and 10 minutes from the time she left yesterday.

TO ALL WHO USE PAINT:

The undersigned, L. C. Ables and H. P. Walton, purchased from Charles J. Wagner, the inventor of Peerless Preserving Paint, the exclusive right to manufacture, use and sell the PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT in the Hawaiian Islands.

Patent for Peerless Preserving Paint.

On the 26th day of September, 1895, the Republic of Hawaii granted to L. C. Ables and H. P. Walton, a patent No. 110, granting them the exclusive right to make, use and vend PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT throughout the Hawaiian Islands.

Trade Mark for Peerless Preserving Paint.

The Republic of Hawaii has also granted to L. C. Ables and H. P. Walton the exclusive use of the words PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT as a trade mark throughout the Republic of Hawaii for the term of 20 years.

Imitation.

Certain parties in San Francisco have recently been sending to Honolulu under the name of PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT a spurious article not only inferior to the genuine paint, but one which is positively injurious to any metal to which it may be applied.

Beware of Fraud.

We hereby warn all persons against being defrauded into using any but the genuine PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT, which can be obtained only of Ables and Walton.

Warning Against Infringement.

We also hereby warn all persons against buying, selling or using any article under the name of PEERLESS PRESERVING PAINT, except that sold by us, as such buying, selling or using will be a direct infringement of our patent and trade mark, and a violation of our rights, subjecting the persons buying, selling or using such paint to a claim for damages by us in accordance with the Hawaiian Law.
