MR. MULLER PREDICTS KEALAKEKUA A CITY

Steamers Will Make Connection With Railway in Historic Bay--Sugar Deposits Coffee--A Mystery Solved.

Woldemar Muller, well known both as an educator and a coffee planter, paid a visit to his old friends in the Bulletin office yesterday. In the course of conversation the proposition of Col. Norris to make Kailua the municipal capital of the island of Hawaii was put to him. Mr. Muller thought it came to municipal government at least one division line should be to separate the windward and the leeward sides of the island.

"The Kona and Kau should go together," said Mr. Muller, giving the discussion a serious turn, "but Kailua is not the place for the capital. I say this, mind you, although I am a Kailua man. Napopo, or some place on either side of Kealakekua Bay, is the proper place. Steamers can go into the bay when they cannot safely go into any other place, and there accommodate the people of both North and South Kona. That is where the whaling ships used to go, and where Captain Cook was killed.

"Yes, there is good anchorage for vessels in the bay. There will be a large town somewhere in the bay. The railroad is bound to come. But its promoters must get an agreement with the Kau plantations for their sugar. The steamers then would not need to touch at any of the dangerous landing along the coast, as passengers and freight would be carried to and from the railway wharf in the bay by rail.

"Although my home is at Kailua, I am back and forth between there and the bay settlements all the time, having an interest in W. R. Castle's plantation. Yes, I still have some coffee, but coffee is not in it with sugar nowadays. The advantage offered by sugar is as ten to one. The cultivation of sugar cane in Kona heretofore has been a failure owing to the great expense in taking off the crop and getting the cane to the mill. Now, however, the cable or aerial transportation has solved the problem. They are using it in North Kona, and we are going to profit by their experience.

"Altogether the different planters for the Castle plantation have 350 acres planted for seed cane. I cannot tell what the acreage to be planted for the first crop will be, but there will be seed for 3500 acres. Conditions of success are very favorable. The soil is deeper than in North Kona and the land, sloping to the southwest, is sheltered from the mountain winds. Planting can be done up to the 3000 feet level."

Mr. Muller said he had discovered the origin of the mysterious noises in Kona about which he had sometime ago contributed an article to a Honolulu paper. His account of the phenomenon had attracted almost worldwide curiosity. One letter of inquiry came from Italy and another from Chicago, and the article sold out the edition of the paper in which it appeared. Among the different theories to account for the noises was one that they were caused by volcanic action. There was a sound as of a distant steamer's whistle. Now Mr. Muller has satisfied himself that the uncanny voice is that of an insect—a big one like a bird. As yet no specimen of the whistler has been captured, but Mr. Muller's son every day feels that he is nearly to getting one than Knox is to capturing De Wet.

THAT GAME OF POKER

Mr. Allen, whose proficiency in the national game of poker has been exploited by a morning paper, has a sequel which he tells himself. This he prefaces with the statement that he does play poker when occasion offers for a friendly game. He sat in a game on the Sierra trip but he can call upon witnesses galore to prove that the two-bit limit was strictly adhered to in every game played. No man could win a fortune in that game by fair means or foul.

Mr. Allen's sequel is that the Southern gentlemen with whom he played were Mr. Bean and his colored side partner, Manson, who are recruiting negro laborers. No wine was opened at any time. The gaiety started in by matching dollars for the drinks. Then a quiet game was opened at a dollar limit. It did not continue to a late hour. Bean may have lost $20 or $30, not more, Allen says further that he had to pay the $14 back bill. Finally, Allen says, "Bean is trying to make the nigger think he lost a lot of money and consequently can't pay him his share of money drawn from Bishop & Co. You notice they didn't say anything till just before they left on the steamer."

Mr. Beckley states that he is a business man of Nevada City, proprietor of The Grotto; that he was used up on the trip down, hardly got out of his state-room and didn't touch a card. He is down here on a vacation.

CHILTON LOSES CASE

THE SUPREME COURT DISMISSES TAX APPEAL

Property Occupied by Hobron Drug Co. and Dwelling on Miller Street are Taxed as Assessor Shaw Deemed Right.

Chief Justice Frear writes a majority opinion of the Supreme Court, Justice Perry dissenting on one point, in the tax appeal case of W. R. Chilton against Tax Assessor Jonathan Shaw. The property whose assessment is in question consists of a building and lot occupied by the Hobron Drug Co., at Fort and King streets, and a house and lot on the southeasterly side of Miller street. The first mentioned was returned at $25,000, but the assessor was sustained by the Tax Appeal Court in assessing it at $35,000. Taxes were paid on a compromise valuation of $27,000 in 1899. The property on Miller street was returned at $3750, but put up to $6000 by the authorities already named.

The court regrets that there was no more evidence in the dwelling case, and remarks that the appellant was without counsel in the lower court, but on the evidence before it cannot see that the Tax Appeal Court erred. The findings of that court are affirmed and the appeal is dismissed. The law declared is as follows:

"A proper assessment of one lot cannot be reduced on appeal merely because certain other lots in the vicinity have been assessed too low in comparison, the assessor having acted in good faith and not having assessed other property in general at a lower rate.

"Property of the full cash value of at least $35,000 but leased at $185 a month under a ten year lease about to expire should not be assessed on the eight year rental rule, as that would be manifestly unfair or unjust." Civ. L. Sec. 820.

Justice Perry's dissent is relative to the Miller street property. The valuation of that, upon the evidence, he thinks should be placed at $5000.

T. McCants Stewart for appellant; W. O. Smith for the assessor.

It was after midnight last night that Henry Campbell, the keeper of the lodging house next to the Eagle House on Nuuanu avenue, went out into the street and called Patrolman Treest to do something to stop the noise of an obstreperous lodger, E. W. Clifford by name, who persisted in disturbing the quiet of the night by making loud noises. Treest went into the yard and heard the noises referred to. The language used shocked even the officer. Clifford was taken out and removed to the police station and the case came up this morning. The charge was disturbing the quiet of the night.

The latest style of straw hats will be exhibited in our store. Iwakami, Hotel street.

An election shall be held in each of the Wards of said City and County on the first Tuesday in May in each year at such places as the Board of Aldermen may appoint, and of which election ten days' previous public notice shall be given in written or printed notices in one public place in each ward.

At the annual election there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said City and County a Mayor and four Aldermen at Large, and the persons having the highest number of votes in the whole City and County for either of such offices shall be declared elected. At the same time the electors in their respective wards shall vote for two Aldermen, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes, cast in the ward for such officers respectively shall be declared elected.

No person shall be elected or appointed to any office in the said City and County who is not a citizen of the United States of America and who shall not have resided in the City and County of Honolulu one year next before the election or appointment and be duly qualified to vote at the civil elections.

The Mayor, with the approval of the Board of Aldermen in council convened at their first meeting in July in each year shall appoint a Commissioner of the Department of Public Works, a Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety, a Clerk, an Attorney, Engineers of the Fire Department, Chief of Police, Treasurer, three Assessors, Commissioners of Election, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time direct.

Every person nominated by the Mayor to fill any office, shall, in case the Board shall refuse to appoint such person so nominated, enter upon the duties of the office within ten days after Crawford as interpreter. The evidence was about the same as that adduced on the previous day.

The father of the girl showed his dissatisfaction at the result of the deliberations of the Coroner's jury and is trying very hard to have the hackman, Manuel Correa, arrested on the charge of manslaughter. He can hardly succeed. Mr. Correa has been exonerated from all blame by the evidence.

McDermott In For Malicious Injury

Wm. McDermott was arrested this morning on the charge of malicious injury. The story of the arrest, kindly given a Bulletin reporter by High Sheriff Brown, is as follows: "McDermott is an employee of John H. Wilson and he has been in the habit of late of taking sand away from the strip of beach property just Ewa of the Waikiki bridge that is shut off by a high board fence.

"The government is laying claim to all beach property between high and low water mark and McDermott, having taken sand from the place mentioned, laid himself open to arrest on the charge of malicious injury."

This case of McDermott will be in the nature of a test.

HE SMASHED LANTERNS

WHILE ON ROAD FROM KAPALAMA TO THE CITY

Harris, a Colored Man, Gets Himself Into Serious Trouble--Says He Was Drunk at the Time.

Ulysses S. Harris, a big colored man, was arrested at about 1 o'clock this morning by Lieut. Bolman and Patrolman Gumpfer of the Mounted Patrol as they were jogging along in the vicinity of Kapalama grocery on King street.

When first seen by the officers, he was walking along near the excavations for the Rapid Transit Co.'s tracks throwing stones at the lanterns put out as danger lights and breaking one at every throw.

As soon as he saw the officers he started to run to cover. The former were close at his heels when, suddenly, Harris fell. He had run against a piece of iron and hurt his leg. When the officers alighted and went up to him, the fellow "played possum" in fine shape. A little "coaxing" was used and Harris soon found he was able to get to the police station in good shape.

The officers went back to the place where they had first seen Harris and found that seven lanterns had been destroyed by the negro. In one of them was the stone that had been thrown at it. Going along a little farther, it was found that the lanterns for a whole block, with the exception of one, had disappeared in some mysterious way. Where they have gone will have to be ascertained later on.

When Harris was asked to tell his story in the Police Court this forenoon, he stated that the whole trouble had come about through drink. He and his friends had been out on a bender in a double seated surrey and had landed at a place near Kailua school in Kapalama. Several bottles of gin were drunk.

His friends suddenly took a dislike to him when they entered the carriage again and he was forced to walk to town. This he could not do very well for obvious reasons. He had absolutely no idea of what he did on the way in.

Harris then went on to say that he might have broken the lamps and that he would pay for them. His denial of any knowledge of the affair constituted a plea of not guilty and Harris was committed to the Circuit Court for trial.

SIGNAL SERVICE IS WIPED OUT

Business Man Complains Bitterly Regarding Omission.

SYSTEM WORKED WELL QUARTER OF CENTURY

The Start of Evening Bulletin--Black-board Posting of Diamond Head Signals Meet With Sudden Interruption.

"I think the newspapers ought to have more to say about the ship signaling from Diamond Head. After a satisfactory system for more than a quarter of a century, the merchants and shipping men suddenly find their interests completely ignored."

Thus spoke a prominent business man to a Bulletin reporter this morning and continued:

"Perhaps you do not remember before the telephone was introduced here, when H. M. Whitney used to post up all the shipping intelligence available. Then J. W. Robertson & Co. had the items put up in printed form."

"Yes, that was the germ from which the Evening Bulletin grew," the reporter interjected.

"I know it. I used to see Jimmy Robertson setting up the type. When Mort Oat bought out Robertson's bookstore, he continued the service by writing up the shipping notices on a black-board. This has latterly been continued by Col. Soper's firm and, up till a few days ago, with the Diamond Head lookout and the telephone, the business community has been almost instantly apprised of the approach of both steamers and sailing vessels.

"Now that is all wiped out. You hardly see an approaching ship announced in a week, although there are arrivals daily. There is evidently something wrong, and if the Government is to blame it should be made to hear something drop."

Scientific Facts of Modern Days

The forests of the Philippines are thought to contain about 500 species, more than 400 being now known. There are 87 species of palms, 22 of the oak family, including two oaks and 9 conifers, with only one true pine—the last named growing in a dense forest above a height of 4000 feet in the island of Luzon. At least 50 species are valuable. One of the most important is the yang-yang tree, yielding a much prized oil, but others furnish coconuts, gutta percha, varnish, many dye woods and some fine hard woods. A system of forestry has existed thirty-five years. Between 20,000,000 and 40,000,000 acres of government lands have been cared for by about sixty-five foresters and 100 subordinates, and the regulations have been on the most scientific European model. With usual Spanish laxity in administration, however, chief attention has been given to collecting licenses and other revenues.

Composite photographs, combining many pictures so as to get a type face, were brought out nearly twenty years ago by Francis Galton, F. R. S. He now advances the opposite idea of analytical portraiture, and aims to record what is individual in the expression by combining different photographs of the same face. Two portraits, for example, show a man with normal expression and when he is smiling. On placing a positive transparency of one picture on a negative of the other, details common to both are obliterated, and the result is that only the smile is left. The smile proves to be an act involving the whole face instead of a few muscles—a discovery that will doubtless be followed by others as this art of analyzing expression develops.

An interesting bit of our planet's story is read in Moissan's electric furnace. The metallic carbides produced are like those of the sun and stars, and it is thought that such compounds—largely decomposable by water—once held the world's carbon. When cooling formed water, the carbides were re-composed, forming hydrocarbons. Oxidation gave carbonic acid, then vegetable, followed by animal, life became possible.

The perfumes of flowers are best obtained by distillation, but where high temperature changes the substance the usual process is enfleurage or absorption with fats. Separation by solvents has required costly apparatus. But a new factory at Frejus, France, claims to use carbon disulphide, acetone or petroleum ether in very simple apparatus, consisting of a tank for the solvent, one for the flowers and a third for the solution, with steam worm, condensing worm and pump. The steam heat gently distills off the solvent, leaving an extract 100 times as strong as enfleurage pomade.

Flexible lithographic plates are made by Theodor Koehler by coating thin sheets of wood, celluloid, pasteboard or other material with a paste-like mixture of kaolin, zinc white and water-glass. The dried surface is found suitable for receiving the lithographic design.

Curious and striking is the new electrical vacuum phenomenon of E. Ruhmer. The air is pumped from a glass tube about three feet long and 1 1/2 inches in diameter just forms a spark of six inches through the air in preference to the tube. On passing a stream current of 110 volts, broken by a Wehnelt interrupter, a thick red stripe extends throughout the length of the

CAPTAIN JAKE'S STORY OF GOD'S SUGAR CANE

While driving along the upper road in South Kona, Hawaii, with a couple of my children, Capt. Jake, an old resident and former sea captain, made us a present of some sugar cane. Among the sticks was one of a kind I had never seen, and I asked the captain its name.

As the history of that cane is probably but little known even among Kamaeas, I will here reproduce as nearly as I can remember Capt. Jake's account of it given to me there and then.

"Years ago there lived on the beautiful island of Kauai a man named Koolau who enjoyed the respect and good will of both foreigners and natives. This poor man became a leper and fled to the mountains fearing he should be taken away from the bosom of his family to the leper station on Molokai.

"At that time the government of the Islands had been usurped by the P. G.'s, a strange sort of people who believed in the rule of the few over the many.

"This P. G. government declared war against Koolau, and an army was dispatched to either make him prisoner or destroy him, the army consisted only of infantry and artillery as the enemy's fortress was inaccessible to cavalry.

"After considerable bloodshed the defeated P. G. army retreated to the safe quarters of the capital and left the enemy in possession of the field. But during the protracted siege the poor outlaw suffered terribly from hunger and thirst, and one night he longed for a stick of sugar cane, a luxury he used to enjoy when he was a man like other men.

"What was his surprise when he left his cave in the morning to see a large bunch of sugar cane growing at the entrance. The canes were long and thin, and sweet, oh, so sweet, and he had no trouble to hold his stalk in his poor maimed hands when he could not have managed a larger stick.

"I was," (so speaks Capt. Jake), "on Kauai at the time, and hearing the story I went and got a short piece of which I brought to South Kona where I planted it in my garden and took good care of it so that I now have a number of bunches growing, and I call this cane God's cane."

tube. When the current is reduced by suitable resistances, the stripe breaks up into glowing patches and if the tube is held upright, with the anode uppermost, the patches group themselves into a spiral, which slowly turns around its axis, making a revolution in about seven seconds. The wave line of rotation appears to descend. The screw is usually about an inch in diameter and left-handed, but is sometimes smaller and is then right-handed, the pitch varying with current and rate of interruption.

The murmur of a distant waterfall, the patter of raindrops on the roof, and other rhythmic vibrations, produce a soothing effect upon the nervous centers that may deepen into actual anaesthesia. Among striking examples recorded by Dr. B. F. Ward is that of a tired workman who, sitting down to rest a moment on a railway cross-tie, was lulled into unconsciousness by the vibrations of an approaching train, and only awakened many hours afterward when he found that his left arm had fallen over the rail and been crushed. The man had not been drinking. It is concluded that the vibrations must be uniform, rhythmic and steadily increasing in force, and that a suitable metallic operating table with vibrating wheels should give harmless anaesthesia as profound as that from chloroform.

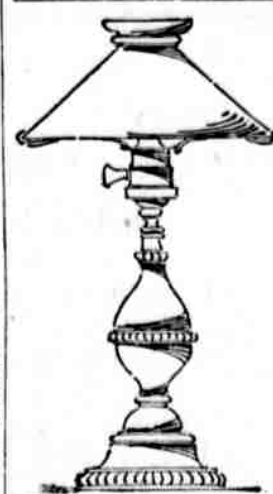

In the unique observation of Chaplain J. T. Baird of the British army, the zodiacal light and the moon were seen together, the moon, within 40 hours of new, being lighted only by earthshine. This indicates great transparency of the South African atmosphere, and that the zodiacal light is beyond the moon.

The regular meeting of the Bricklayers' Union will be held this evening. Every member is requested to be present as important business is to be transacted.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1901.

The business community shows a distinctly unanimous disapproval of Supt. McCandless' action in removing "Diamond Head Charlie" from the lookout station. The failure to notify business houses of approaching steamers is an inconvenience forced upon them that is by no means visionary.

The construction of the pali road, many of the new wharves, the bridges, the sewer system, and all the public buildings of the Territory was accomplished by increasing the burden of public debt. Is there any citizen who has paid taxes to pay the interest on this debt and now regrets the work done or the money thus expended?

The Republican charter framers wipe out the common council idea from its scheme of city legislation. While the centralized plan is the popular fad of the hour among charter reformers, it is safe to say that the people of Honolulu would be better satisfied with more general representation to be obtained in a Board of Aldermen and Common Council.

THE BURDEN OF DEBT.

The burden of debt is now taken up by opponents of a municipality as the great particular bugbear that stands in the way of progressive Hawaii. This source of objection is the silliest yet, especially in view of the limitations placed upon the public debt of the Territory or city by the organic law enacted by Congress.

A public debt incurred for the construction of roads, public buildings, wharves or any public improvement is the best investment that any nation, State, Territory, county, city or town can possibly make. This is so far accepted throughout all civilized governments that the advertiser creates itself a laughing stock by attempting to demonstrate the reverse as true.

There have indeed been states, counties, cities and towns that have run the gamut of indebtedness until they have been swallowed up and been stalled in the sloughs of bankruptcy. That such a result need be anticipated in Hawaii is not threatened by the examples set in the past nor the limitation of the organic act. This limitation is thus expressed:

"Nor shall any debt be authorized to be contracted by or on behalf of the Territory, or any political or municipal corporation thereof, except to pay the interest upon the existing indebtedness, to suppress insurrection, or to provide for the common defense, except that in addition to any indebtedness created for such purposes the legislature may authorize loans by the Territory or any such division thereof, for the erection of penal, charitable, and educational institutions and for public buildings, wharves, roads and harbor and other public improvements, but the total of such indebtedness incurred in any one year by the Territory or any subdivision shall not exceed one percentum upon the assessed value of taxable property of the Territory or subdivision thereof, as the case may be, as shown by the last general assessment for taxation, and the total indebtedness for the Territory shall not at any time be extended beyond seven percentum of such assessed value and the total indebtedness of any subdivision shall not at any time be extended beyond three percentum of such assessed value. * * * nor shall any such bond or indebtedness be incurred until approved by the President of the United States."

Not only does the law limit the public indebtedness that may be incurred by the Territory or municipality, but the action of the Legislature or city council must receive the approval of the United States. With these limitations the taxpayer of Hawaii has little to fear from the overwhelming burden of public debt.

Judging the future by the past, Hawaii has shown itself to be conservative in the increase of its indebtedness and the money obtained through the loan funds has been well expended. This was true in the days of the Advertiser's bad governments as well as the really good ones. Possibly the Morning Organ is pleased with the present condition of our public highways. Logical conclusions drawn from its statements do indeed indicate belief that bonded indebtedness is a needless expense. Such conclusions are on a par with the "wisdom" usually shown by the organ.

The band played a delightful farewell concert to the China on the Pacific Mail wharf yesterday afternoon. Among those who enjoyed the music most was Louis T. Kenake, the treasurer at the post office who waved farewells to his friends from the upper deck. He was literally covered from head to foot with leis so that it was deely difficult for him to move.

MR. MURPHY'S MEETINGS.

The audiences continue large at Mr. Francis Murphy's meetings at Central Union church. Every evening many people sign the pledge. For three days now the apostle of abstinence has addressed the Honolulu Iron Works men at noon. Franklin H. Austin has volunteered to assist him as Hawaiian interpreter and orator on his own account. This evening Mr. Murphy rests. Sunday afternoon he will address men only at Central Union church, where in the evening the same meetings will be resumed. Today he observes his usual custom of calling on the saloon keepers to have an honest and friendly talk with them.

Captain John Bermingham, Supervising Inspector of Hulls and Boilers at San Francisco affirmed the judgment on Jan. 6th, of the local inspectors in the case of the May Flint, which came into collision with the battleship Iowa on the night of September 8th and was sunk. The local inspectors held that Captain Woodside was unskillful and negligent and suspended him for one year. The decision of the adm. inst. was made on appeal.

MADE STOO PIGEON OF.

Ah Wong, a small Chinese lad and a Chinaman old enough to be his grandfather, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of unlawful possession of opium. The former pleaded guilty but the latter looked absolutely blank when he pleaded not guilty. Judge Wilcox looked at the two for a minute and then Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth explained that the two had been caught in the same room together but that the boy, actually had the opium in his hands when the arrests were made.

Judge Wilcox said he was tempted to fine the boy $100 and costs in order to make the Chinaman at the back of the room who was making a stool pigeon of the little fellow, dig up the money. However, he was afraid that a man who was mean enough to shove off his dirty work on a small boy might make that same small boy go to jail and work out anything over and above the regular fine of $50 and costs.

The Chinaman referred to was seated on one of the benches and when the judge mentioned a hundred dollars the fellow pulled a long face and gave himself away by feeling in his pockets.

FOR SATURDAY SADNESS
BY DIOGENES.
Meriment is not always silly. nor silliness always merry.
Where there's a will there's a way. Is another old saw that sometimes fails to cut. Will Kiekabus lives at Kalihii, but finds no way to get out there safely since the Rapid Transit people have torn up the roads.

Colonel Norris said the day he came to town that he wanted to get a Chinaman to steal a dog for him, because a Chinaman could get out of it so gracefully if caught. A white man stealing a dog would only need to be accused to betray guilt at once. Whereas a Chinaman would have a story ready to tell, with impressive face, of getting the dog from a man out of Manoa to take to a man at Palama.

When a man libels a ship he stands to get damages, but when an editor libels a person the editor is the one to pay damages. What an unfair thing is law!

An English bishop has forbidden the use of pins in the collars of ladies at confirmation because they lacerate him in the laying on of hands. Just like a man! If the bishop had consulted his wife he would at least have given the fair candidate the option of safety pins.

Richly improved homesteads of the wealthy in a small city are like jewels in a pig's snout.

"Ninety-nine in a hundred of Hawaiians, Chinese and Japanese," said a gentleman who got on a Beretania street car with the word "transfer" to the driver, "do not know that they are entitled to transfers, and pay two fares when they should pay only one. That is why the company does not issue transfer tickets." For this and other abuses of the company's privileges, together with neglect of rules of good order on the cars, successive government officials are to blame, who have been and are empowered under the company's franchise to regulate the concern in the interest of the public but who seemingly have never cared for the public in the matter.

If the people cannot tax themselves to suit themselves, they are ready for government on the Oriental plan, in which the taxes are farmed out to a set of scoundrels to levy and collect pretty much as they please.

Contemporaries are again warning us not to put all our eggs in one basket. That's right. At the current price of eggs, anyone having a dozen saved up ought to pack them in six baskets and distribute them around in the government and bank vaults.

The Filipinos have the Americanism of the Philippine Commission to thank for the fact that Municipal Government has beaten the Constitution in the race following the flag to their country.

There is more need of an official lookout at Fort and King streets than at Diamond Head. If life and limb are held in higher regard than maritime intelligence by a majority of the people of Honolulu.

Diagnostic rather than descriptive talent is what the Board of Health likes to see in visitors to Molokai.

A local paper talks of diversified industries as a new topic. Bless its innocent heart, the Honolulu press never let up on that subject for twenty years, when it had to stop the agitation because half the population was brought face to face with financial ruin from going into enterprises other than sugar production. At the same time diversified products are gradually forging their way to success. It is the same old story as that of sugar—the mistakes of

COUNTRESS SHUTS UP SHOP
New York, Jan. 7.—A cable to the Journal from London says: The Countess of Warwick has sold the Bond street shop which caused so much comment in society when she started it several years ago. The shop proved a losing investment, despite the novelty of the thing. Society folks would not buy their lingerie and laces there.

The new purchaser is a rich commoner named Forester, whose wife wants to try shopkeeping for the fun of the thing. The Countess is now giving her whole time to advancing the education and welfare of country working girls. Some old millionaire, whose name is a secret, recently gave her $500,000 to help along her philanthropic schemes.

SAN JOSE SENSATION.
San Jose, Jan. 4.—The destruction of Conrad Ruff's home by fire two weeks ago and the burning to death of his four young children had a sensational sequel today, when Mrs. Sallie Ruff, who is Ruff's second wife and the stepmother of the children, was arrested on a charge of arson and murder. The warrants were sworn to by Carl Ruff, brother of Conrad Ruff, and charge Mrs. Ruff with the burning of her own home and the willful murder of her husband's four children—Carl, Kate, Barbara and Conrad Jr. A good deal of circumstantial evidence is put forward in support of the allegations that the children were drugged and the house set on fire.

to examine the accounts of the estate of the late James Hoare.

In the amicable distribution suit of Macfarlane vs. Macfarlane, relative to the estate of the late Hon. H. A. Wide-mann, the prayer of the bill is granted except in so far as it prays for a construction of the will, that prayer having been abandoned. The trustees—F.
W. Macfarlane, H. Macfarlane and J.
M. Dowsett—are authorized to distribute the sum of $12,792.62 to the now heirs of Hermann A. Widemann according to the terms of the will. A fee of $100 to Mr. Silliman is to be deducted from that sum. The court finds that Widemann is dead.

An order is made in the petition suit of Genevieve Dowsett by her guardian, J. M. Monsarrat, vs. Elizabeth J. Pakker and others, that the commissioner heretofore appointed proceed to sell the parcels of land described in his report at public auction after advertising the sale as the order prescribes. The commissioner is not to be discharged until the court by decree disposes of the property by partition in kind or by sale as the case may be.

The court orders a partition of lands in the case of Genevieve Dowsett, an infant, by her guardian, J. M. Monsarrat vs. Marion C. Dowsett et al. The commissioner is to sell the improvements on the Dowsett homestead as described in his report for removal within ten days, his fees to be settled when he brings in his final report. C. P.
Grimwood, the commissioner, says in his report that a division of the land into three undivided parts of equal value is impracticable, owing to the small frontage on King street being of far greater value than the remainder of the land, and recommends dividing the property into six parts with a twenty foot lane running parallel to King street. Two of the lots so formed are apportioned, each, to Genevieve Dowsett.
Marion C. Dowsett and Mrs. R. Turner,
the parties to the suit.

An amended bill has been filed in the case of G. W. Macfarlane vs. Robert Catton.

J. T. De Bolt for defendant has filed a general denial in Apana vs. D. Ku'i.

Hatch & Silliman for plaintiff have entered a discontinuance of Bishop &
Co. vs. Samuel and Kanoe Kaunomana.

J. S. Walker, executor of the estate of Joseph Lazarus, deceased, has filed a contra accounts against Naomi Lazarus for $208.52, Alex. Lazarus for $241-08 and Mrs. K. Lazarus for $21.80.

SEATTLE BEER.

The ever popular Rainier beer is becoming a household word and "will you have a glass of Seattle." is more often heard than anything else. The Criterion Saloon has the beer on tap or in bottles.

WEAK MEN!

It seems that the Creator has ordained that the vital seminal fluid need to the blood itself is the most precious substance in the body of man, and any unnatural loss thereof will always lead to disastrous results.

Many men have died of common diseases such as disease of the heart, liver, kidneys, lungs, etc., after having allowed their vitality to be wasted, thus exposing themselves to become the easy victims of these diseases, when a few boxes of our remedial t-ken in time would have prevented those debilitating losses and preserved the proper vitality to resist the attacks of these dangerous infections.

Many men have been slowly but surely drifting into a hopeless insanity because of these losses, without knowing the real cause of their sufferings.

Are These Your Symptoms?

Inclination to onanism, emissions either during the day or at night, losses on being in the presence of a person of the opposite sex or on entertaining lascivious thoughts, pimples, contractions of the muscles (the precursors of epilepsy), voluptuous thoughts and dreams, feelings of suffocation (tendency to drowse or sleep), feeling of heaviness, loss of will-power, want of energy, impossibility to concentrate the thoughts, pains in the legs and muscles, feeling of sadness and depression, disquietude, failure of memory, indecision, melancholy, weariness after the least effort, specks floating before the eyes, weakness after copulation or and-onanism, fear of approaching death or misfortune, partial or total impotence, premature or late discharge, loss or diminution of desire, decline of the sensibility, developed at work as in "Nervositas," etc.

All of these symptoms, if Nature is warning to a man that he must repair his wasted vitality or become the easy prey to some fatal disease.

We ask all men who suffer from any of the symptoms enumerated above TO HEED THE WARNING, and communicate at once with our company of specialist physicians who have had twenty years' experience in treating diseases of the nervous and sexual system, and who alone can guarantee a radical and permanent cure.

Send us a complete statement of your case, giving us your full name and address, age, occupation, married or single, which of the above symptoms have already appeared in your case, and whether you have ever been treated for gonorrhea, stricture, syphilis or any other venereal disease. Our medic. staff will at once carefully diagnose your case (gratis) and inform you of the cost of a complete treatment which will effect a radical cure and restore you to health and full manly vigor.

If you desire treatment at once, and will send us as a guarantee of good faith the equivalent of five Centred States' dollars in draft on London or New York or in postal order or current money of your country, we will send you, by registered mail, the proper remedies immediately after our staff of physicians have decided the requirements of your case. Write us in English if possible.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The transport Thyra got away yesterday afternoon for Manila. It was officially reported yesterday morning that she could not possibly leave before today.

The four-masted schooner James H. Bruce in command of Captain C. G. F. Peterson left Newcastle for Honolulu on December 21. The captain is accompanied by his wife and two children.

The steamer Ventura, third of the Oceanic Company's new vessels built by the Cramps at Philadelphia, sailed from that port on December 30th and will be due in San Francisco about February 6th.

Reports by the steamer Iwalani of the I. I. Co. arriving yesterday from the islands, are to the effect that the Honokaa Sugar Co. has 12,000 bags of sugar on hand and the Pacific Sugar mill has 4500. Rough weather is reported in the Hawaii channel while the Honokaa buoy has been sunk. In crossing both channels the sea was very rough with strong winds.

The English ship Falls of Garry reached port yesterday 46 days from Newcastle with 3700 tons of coal for the U. S. Quartermaster's department. She is a four-master and is owned by the company that formerly owned the ship Falls of Clyde. She is in command of Captain Broadfoot, and with the exception of a death among the sailors she had an uneventful voyage. The Falls of Garry is one of the largest ships that has entered the harbor of Honolulu for many a day.

Sunday's Temperance Meetings.

Francis Murphy, the temperance lecturer, will be at his best Sunday afternoon when he will talk to a large audience of men only. This will be the last Sunday meeting in the series and a good opportunity for men to bring their friends who certainly should hear the great temperance leader. The meeting takes place at 3 o'clock at the usual place. It is expected that there will be a very large attendance at the evening meeting.

Indoor Baseball.

There will be a game of indoor baseball between the Evening Class and Business Men on Saturday, January 26 at 8 o'clock. The following members of the former team are requested to be on hand for practice at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening, January 21, in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium:

Brown, J. Clark, Gorman, B. Clark, Cheatham, Kert, Price, Falvey, Ele-rath, Crooks, Johnson and Curtis.

Research Club.

There were not enough members of the Young Men's Research Club present at last night's meeting to constitute a quorum so there was a postponement of the program until Friday evening, January 25. The meeting will take place in the Y. M. C. A. hall. On that evening the public is cordially invited to attend to hear the debate upon "The Readjustment of Taxes."
