GALVESTON'S LIST OF DEAD IS APPALLING

More Than Six Thousand Known to be Dead.

THE SITUATION IS NOW IMPROVING SUPPLIES AND MONEY POURING IN FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY.

Exodus From the City Has Been Checked and People are Now Turning Their Attention to a New Galveston.

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 15.—"The situation continues to improve," is what one is told now when he applies at any of the various headquarters for information. This statement is being made with gratifying monotony all over the city. The work has been brought down to a business basis as far as possible and the system and order displayed in the various departments would surprise any one who might return to Galveston after an absence of one or four days.

One feature that has caused a better feeling and a more pronounced willingness to work is afforded by the fact that the "time" of all the laborers employed is being kept at headquarters. The men being assured of compensation for their labor, naturally go about their unpleasant tasks with much better grace than heretofore. A thorough investigation reveals the fact that every department is as well organized as possible under the circumstances and that all are working harmoniously.

Supplies and money are now pouring in from all over the country. It is stated that at least seven figures are needed to express the amount of cash thus far received. This is being used judiciously, and the effects of the presence of such a large relief are already apparent.

Enormous Death List.

The death list will reach the total of 4,437 with the additions sent out today. Only a comparatively small number of the negroes who perished have been reported. After considering all these facts one can hardly do anything else but conclude that the total to be finally reached will be above 6,000. Judge Mann stated today that in his opinion the list would go as high as 7,000. The exact number, of course, will never be known.

There are no developments which would lead to the belief that the estimate of a property loss of $22,500,000 is too high. While one occasionally finds a business man whose property has not suffered greatly, it must be stated that the class is hopelessly in the minority and that large losses are the rule.

The people are becoming more cheerful every day and it is more than remarkable to observe the composure exhibited by some of them under the terrible circumstances. The individual's woe has been lost in the community's grief, and on every hand may be seen people who have lost their all doing everything in their power to comfort a neighbor who perhaps has not been so unfortunate. Everybody seems to be doing all they can toward ultimate rehabilitation and the determination to build a city which will be bigger and broader in every way than the one which has been destroyed appears to be general.

The people are still leaving the city in considerable numbers, but the relief work locally has now been gotten down to such a fine point that it is likely that there will be a marked diminution of the exodus during the next two or three days. The fears of an epidemic have been allayed by the presence and the distribution of medicines and disinfectants and therefore a feature which would undoubtedly have had the effect of causing many to seek succor elsewhere has been eliminated from the situation.

BODIES BEING CREMATED AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A special to the Sun from Galveston says: This is the ninth day after the storm and still the work of recovering the dead from the mass of ruins that lines the south side of what remains of the city is going on. Yesterday 107 bodies were recovered and cremated. Among them was a mother with her babe tightly clasped to her breast. The body of Major W. T. Levy, United States immigrant inspector of this district, was among the number found. He made a gallant struggle to save his wife and three children, but all were lost. The bodies of the wife and children have not been recovered.

The number of bodies recovered and cremated today will exceed 100. The task of recovering bodies that are beneath or were jammed into the immense rick of debris extending from the eastern to the western limit of the city, a distance of more than two miles, is a herculean one, and the most from a sanitary point of view is the fire department and the water works would endanger the remaining part of the city. As it now stands this immense pile of debris is strewn with bodies. The presence of the carcasses of animals is another serious menace to health and their disposition is the most difficult problem the board of health has to deal with. The work of opening up streets and disinfecting them is being vigorously prosecuted. The debris and garbage are being removed in 250 vehicles of every description and carried out to a safe place and there burned. In a few days all the streets will be opened for the passage of vehicles.

The work of supplying relief for the sick and injured is well in hand and, under the direction of physicians and nurses, is improving daily. Eleven hundred tents were received today by the board of health. All except 300 retained for hospital purposes will be distributed by the chairman of the various ward sub-committee to shelter the homeless in the wards. The marine hospital service, which is working in conjunction with the board of health, has established a hospital on the beach at the foot of Tremont street, where sick and wounded men sheltered in unsanitary places throughout the city will be taken for treatment. The hospital physicians will be assisted by a corps of trained nurses. The hospital will consist of 300 comfortable tents and will be thoroughly equipped in every respect.

Governor Sayers expresses faith in the future of Galveston and says he city will be rebuilt. He wants the people of Galveston at once to turn their attention to the rehabilitation of their property and leave to the governor, General Scurry and the state authorities the work of sanitation. In other words, the state will relieve Galveston of the important work of sanitation and will leave the citizens free to restore their homes and their places of business.

Miss Clara Barton is giving her time and attention to assisting in the work of relief and ascertaining what supplies are necessary to meet the exigencies of the situation. The board of health says more trained nurses are needed.

Relief supplies are arriving more regularly and are being distributed to the destitute as rapidly as possible. The number of people who have left Galveston, it is now stated at headquarters, is over 8,000. Of these about 5,000 are in Houston being cared for. Others have gone on into the interior of the state or to other states.

CRAZY OR A MURDERER WHICH IS HUGHER?

Soon after the transport Thomas was docked last evening the police patrol was sent to the vessel to get a stowaway who was found on board a day or two after the vessel left San Francisco.

On the way down the man whose name is James Hughes, acted rather queerly and it was thought that he was a little crazy. He was unfit for work, and his actions becoming very erratic he was placed under a guard so that he would do no harm to himself or others aboard.

During his confinement the man raved a good deal and was apparently out of his head. He seemed to think that he was the murderer of someone who was killed a couple of weeks before the steamer left San Francisco and told the surgeon of the Thomas that he was the murderer. The crime referred to by the man was fresh in the mind of the surgeon, and thinking that there might be something in the raving of the man he notified the police and had the man locked up pending investigation when the ship got here.

He is at the police station now and will be examined today, and if the sheriff deems it wise he will hold the man until the authorities in San Francisco are communicated with.

A VICIOUS CHINESE ASSAULTS A LANDLORD

Because Lum Sing, manager of the Occidental restaurant, refused to serve a meal to an unknown Chinaman yesterday, Edward Wolter, the landlord, was assaulted by the celestial in search of a meal, and he has now taken steps to bring his assailant to justice. The Chinaman, it seems, appeared some time ago at the restaurant, and after having enjoyed a meal and sadly demolished all edibles brought before him, coldly walked out of the place without paying for the same. His visit yesterday caused a feeling of fear and apprehension in the heart of the restaurant manager, and he communicated his suspicions to Mr. Wolter, who went down to the dining room and ordered the Chinaman out of the place.

He finally complied, but with not the best grace possible, and on passing out made some remarks to the landlord that are not generally found in the columns of a family newspaper. In fact during the time he was leaving the building until he reached the carriage in which he came, he passed out several bunches of lurid profanity to Mr. Wolter, which finally aroused that gentleman's ire and he started for the belligerent Chinaman, who, assisted by his driver, a Chinaman, endeavored to get away as rapidly as possible. This was a difficult matter to accomplish, as Mr. Wolter had by this time a firm hold on the horse's bridle. He soon lost his balance, however, because of the struggles of the horse, and the Chinaman, seeing his opportunity, administered several painful lashes with a whip upon the person of the landlord, who was in no position to defend himself. Finding his way unobstructed the Chinaman started for the direction of Makiki, where although the outfit was followed as soon as possible, they were lost track of, and the landlord of the Occidental returned to town and soon after made complaint to the sheriff's office. Mr. Wolter now has a pretty good clue as to who the fellow is, and intends to make it exceedingly warm for his man when he has him landed.

BIG COAL STRIKE IS IN FULL BLAST

Over One Hundred Thousand Miners Quit Work.

THERE IS TALK OF ARBITRATION BUT OPERATORS DECLARE THEY WON'T TREAT WITH STRIKE LEADERS.

Hungarian Women Nearly Cause Trouble in the Hazelton District—But few Collieries Working in Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—If, as President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers claimed last night, 112,000 of the 141,000 mine workers in the Pennsylvania anthracite coal fields were idle yesterday, it is certain that this number has been considerably augmented today. Reports from the four big districts embracing the hard coal region are to the effect that fewer men are at work today than were working yesterday and that collieries that worked full handed or nearly so yesterday are either badly crippled or shut down today.

The weather has grown much colder here yesterday and this change is greeted with enthusiasm by the workers, who argue that the increase in demand for coal will hasten the adjustment of the difficulties between them and their employers. Talk of arbitration is so persistent that the hope grows that this method of settling the strike will finally be adopted, although the mine owners declare they will deal only with their employees as individuals and the strike leaders say they will assist upon formal recognition of the union. This difference would appear sufficient to keep employer and employee apart forever, if persisted in.

One little band of miners in the Wyoming valley, those of the West End Coal company at Moccasin, numbering a few hundred men, stand out prominently as the only men at work out of nearly 90,000 in the Lackawanna and Wyoming region. Efforts to induce them to join the strikers have failed. They say they have always been treated kindly; they have no grievance and will therefore remain loyal to their employers.

MINERS' LEADERS DOING PICKET DUTY

HAZELTON, Pa., Sept. 18.—The second day of the anthracite coal strike began very quietly in this district. According to reports received from all parts of the districts, there was no break in the ranks of the strikers and in many mines there were fewer men working than on yesterday. Some of the collieries are so short of men that it is doubtful if they can continue work during the entire day.

Every official connected with the United Mine Workers now in the district, with the exception of President Mitchell, started out before 6 o'clock this morning for picket duty at various collieries. All had returned to headquarters by 8 o'clock and reported that they had been successful in inducing men to stay away from various workings.

A number of leaders also reported that several of the mines are being guarded by watchmen to prevent union men from attempting to induce non-union strikers to quit work. The first march of strikers in this region took place early this morning, when about 100 men from McDade, Audenried and Yorktown, headed by a brass band, marched through the south side en route to the Colman colliery with a view to inducing the men there to quit work. The strikers did not use force, but were quite successful, as a number of non-union men returned to their homes. The marching miners went back to McDade and dispersed.

Women Nearly Cause a Riot.

A crowd of Hungarian women of McDade, some of them carrying clubs, surrounded the Crawford and Dugan mines this morning and requested the men working there to quit. Matters looked equally for a few minutes, but the women were told that the work being done there did not interfere with the strike and they returned to their homes satisfied. At Jeansville yesterday night a number of men were forced to promise not to go to the mines today. They kept their promise.

Workmen of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company at Audenried were engaged this morning in pulling the fires from under the boilers at those strippings. This indicates a suspension of work there.

Other reports from the south side today give instances of individual cases of violence yesterday against miners who did not quit work, but no one was seriously hurt.

It was estimated at noon today that the number of additional men in this district who joined the strikers this morning was about 500. On the north side all but three or four collieries are operating with reduced forces. Strikers say the workings are not mining any coal but are running the machinery to give outsiders the impression that the strike has not affected them. With one exception—that of the Eckley collieries—reports show that fewer men are working at all the mines on the north side of Hazelton today than on yesterday.

Frisky Runaway Mule.
A runaway mule, with frisky intentions, created all kinds of excitement for the space of a few minutes last evening, near the corner of King and Richards streets. His muleship had escaped the security of his halter and came down the street at a mad pace, capering and cooing in a most joyous fashion. His sportive festivities were soon brought to a sudden termination, when two horsemen armed with lassos, bore in sight, and with a few dexterous tosses of the ensnaring rope, soon had the untethered animal on its knees and under restraint, while the crowd looked on and attempted to dodge the business end of the mule's kicking apparatus.

Reading Matter for Soldiers.
The soldiers on the transport Thomas have an eighteen days' voyage ahead of them before they will reach their destination at Manila. The boys consequently would greatly appreciate reading matter of any kind, that would in a large measure relieve the monotony of so long a confinement at sea.

Secretary Coleman of the Y. M. C. A. has taken up the matter and kindly requests that anyone having papers, either illustrated or otherwise, magazines and books, will leave them at the association building today or early tomorrow and they will be sent aboard the transport for distribution.

WORK THAT WILL HASTEN ANNEXATION OF CUBA

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Sept. 18.—The elections for delegates to the constitutional convention have resulted in favor of the black party throughout this entire province and the whites now openly declare themselves to be annexationists. Ten thousand colored men who had worked themselves up almost to a frenzy, and wearing badges containing a skull and cross bones, signifying death to the republican party, paraded through the principal streets of the city last night, carrying tall, low candles and torches. A mock funeral of the republican party was held today and was attended by about 1,000 colored persons. The white people are cautious and are avoiding conflicts.

Are Sea-Faring Men To Be Disfranchised?

Ruling of the Board of Registration for the Island of Oahu Will Certainly Do That.

The seamen on board the local steamers and the board of registration have clashed. The men of the waves claim that they are residents, while the board thinks that a take-up-your-bed-and-walk-home will hardly come under the head of a residence.

E. B. McClanahan will take charge of the proceedings against the board for the sailors. When interviewed by a Republican reporter last evening, Mr. McClanahan said:

"The matter was brought to my attention this afternoon. Joseph Irving and a friend, both from the Iwalani, were refused registration by the board. I was called upon and immediately visited Lorrin Andrews, one of the registrars, and got him to explain himself. Now Mr. Andrews claims that the seamen have no permanent residence, that going and coming as they do they cannot be called regular citizens of the Fifth district. Necessarily the water front boys are rather hot over the decision.

"The question lies in what manner you construe residence. A man certainly does not have to be at home in his district for three months. Why, that would cut off all the old kamaikaias who have been living in the same houses for years but who are now off on their vacation. A seaman's home is his ship, and if the ship's home or docking place happens to be within a certain district, has not the man a perfect right to vote? The Fifth district contains parts of the water front and the harbor. Then the steamers are as surely residents of the district.

"The seamen are quite indignant over the matter. I am informed that all the old island captains voted under the republic and they were quite surprised that the point should come up now. It means a good deal for the democratic party, for all these men, forty or fifty in number, have voted the democratic ticket all their lives.

"The stand the board has taken in the matter is extremely impolitic. All of them are republicans, so I am informed, and it's a bad thing for their party. Capt. Bill Williams, the keeper of the lighthouse, lives on the harbor, but being a republican he was allowed to register."

Hackfeld Against Wilson.
The case of Hackfeld vs. Wilson, on appeal from the circuit court of Hawaii, was argued and submitted. The case grows out of the non-payment for supplies furnished by plaintiff to Japanese contractors who had sublet a boat contract from Wilson. Hackfeld & Co. supplied the Japanese with material at the request of Wilson, and as they failed to pay for them the suit was brought.

REPUBLICANS NAME LEGISLATIVE TICKET

Joint Convention Held at the Drill Shed Last Night.

NOMINATIONS WITHOUT A HITCH MCANDLESS WANTED TO BE A SENATOR BUT SAYS HE WAS SLAUGHTERED

Received the Nomination for Representative—The Ticket Complete and a Review of the Proceedings.

SENATORS.
Third District.
* B. F. Dillingham, W. C. Achi, * Clarence L. Crabbe, Frank Pahia, * Cecil Brown, George R. * Carter.
REPRESENTATIVES.
Fourth District.
* A. G. M. Robertson, J. W. * Kiki, William H. Hoogs, A. F. * Gillilan, Jonah Kumale, William Aylett.
Fifth District.
* L. L. McCandless, J. L. Kaulukou, * Enoch Johnson, L. J. McCabe, * H. R. Hitchcock, W. J. * Coelho.

It was a beautiful love feast, the naming of the legislative ticket for the Fourth and Fifth districts and the Third senatorial district, at the Drill shed last evening. It was a missionary love feast, in the main, that element carrying off the senatorial ticket and the representatives in the Fifth district.

The meeting was called to order by Colonel Lauke, who expressed the hope that good feeling and harmony would prevail, visions of the program probably flitting before his vision.

On motion of the wily Achi, James H. Boyd was elected chairman of the joint convention and conducted into of the delegates for the honor they had conferred on him and also expressed the hope that the deliberations and proceedings would be harmonious. There ought to be no factional feeling, but all ought to act as republicans. Jimmy had probably made sure that the slides had been well greased so that the ticket might be safely and smoothly launched.

The secretaryship was finally thrust on C. F. Peterson. After the usual and inevitable speech-making a recess of fifteen minutes was ordered, but it lengthened out into half an hour or more. Lorrin Andrews wanted the six senators named in joint convention, but Lorrin was in the minority and his little scheme didn't win, and each district went into caucus, each to select three senators.

Proceedings Were Warm.

The proceedings of both caucuses, which were held in secret, were rather tropical. This was especially true in the Fifth district when Achi led L. L. McCandless to the slaughter and when Lorrin Andrews withdrew from the Fourth district caucus to get a breath of fresh air and apparently to recover his usual amiable temper.

When the slides had been decided upon the joint convention reassembled, only to waste a precious half hour over a question of proxies, which somehow evaporated into nothingness and cut no ice in the subsequent proceedings.

A demand for a roll call developed the awkward fact that there was no roll to call. A sagacious Fourth district delegate settled the babel of tongues by declaring that "We all know just what we're going to do and this crazy proxy business is only delaying us."

Nominations for Senator.

The nominations for senator were then taken up. The following were named:
B. F. Dillingham, by C. B. Wilson. Clarence L. Crabbe, by Capt. Chas. Wilcox. Cecil Brown, by A. F. Gillilan. W. C. Achi, by T. McCants Stewart. Frank Pahia, by J. L. Kaulukou. George R. Carter, by J. L. Kaulukou. Nominations were ordered closed and the secretary cast a ballot for the six nominees as expressive of the sense of the meeting. And the chair declared them the party's nominees for senators.

A long and as subsequent events proved, useless debate ensued as to which of the gentlemen named should serve for four years and which for two years. The following joint committee was appointed to decide the vexed question: J. P. Cook, W. R. Farrington, J. P. McVeigh, J. L. Kaulukou, Enoch Johnson and William Rathbone. Later this committee reported in favor of Cecil Brown, W. C. Achi and Frank Pahia for the four-year term and B. F. Dillingham, Clarence Crabbe and George R. Carter for the two-year term.

About this time it was discovered that the allotment of terms of service must be decided by the legislature and was no concern at all of the convention. Thereupon the matter was, on motion of A. V. Gear, laid on the table and the joint convention adjourned sine die.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT NEW REPRESENTATIVES

Immediately after the adjournment the Fourth district delegates were called to order by J. W. Jones and Frank Hoogs was elected secretary. In one-two order the following gentlemen were declared the nominees for representatives: A. G. M. Robertson, William H. Hoogs, Jonah Kumale, J. W. Kiki, A. F. Gillilan and William Aylett. The committee then adjourned.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT PERFECTS ITS WORK

While the Fourth district committee was sitting in the main room, the Fifth met in company G's room. There was a good deal of fun in this place, with some blood on the moon. L. L. McCandless did some tall talking when he was named for representative. "I was slaughtered for the senate," he said, "and I do not mean to be slaughtered again," a sore spot which he rubbed over and over again. He said no man had defeated him, and as he did so he looked straight at Achi. But the committee would not let McCandless off and instead nominated him. Later Achi crawled up to McCandless and cooed and patted him, and they shook hands and made up.

The following nominations were made: H. R. Hitchcock, Enoch Johnson, L. L. McCandless, Louis John McCabe, J. L. Kaulukou, S. M. Damon, F. B. T. Waterhouse and W. J. Coelho. Before the balloting to select six out of the eight McCandless took the floor and said there was one black sheep on the list. He said they all had a great deal of respect for S. M. Damon, but he is not a republican, never pledged himself before a primary or caucus, had been named by the democrats and his name should not be considered. It is not the policy of the republican party to elect democratic nominees and he hoped not one man in the convention would vote for Sam Damon.

Thurston Was Gloeful.

At these words the face of L. A. Thurston, which was peering in through the doorway, put on a most gleeful look.

The first ballot resulted as follows: L. L. McCandless, 30; J. L. Kaulukou, 28; Enoch Johnson, 24; H. R. Hitchcock, 22; L. J. McCabe, 22; F. B. T. Waterhouse, 17; W. J. Coelho, 17; S. M. Damon, 13.

In accordance with a previous agreement the first five named were declared nominated and a second ballot was taken to settle the tie between Waterhouse and Coelho, which resulted in 18 votes for the latter and 12 for the former. Mr. Coelho was declared the sixth nominee. Thereupon the committee adjourned, as General Political Manager Thurston quickly walked away with so unusual a joy in his heart that it found expression in a bitter smile.

And the members of the committee, under the leadership of McCandless and Achi proceeded to a nearby ice cream parlor to cool off.

The executive committee was very anxious to consult with the nominees for congress yesterday morning in regard to plans for the campaign, but the nominee was not to be found. In the congressional districts of the states the congressional nominee has a good deal to say about the conduct of the committee and who will be chairman, but Colonel Parker seems to have overlooked this important fact.

A Vicious Monkey Attacks a Little Girl

Daughter of Policeman Ferreira Assaulted by the Animal and Badly Injured by Bites.

A vicious monkey attacked a young girl yesterday and savagely bit her on the arms and was sent to the place where all had monkeys ought to be by the father of the girl.

The monkey belonged to F. J. Cross, manager of the Wireless Telegraph Company. He had usually been chained to a tree and would rush to the end of his tether when children came to play with him or tease him. He broke his chain yesterday and when the eldest daughter of Officer Ferreira of the police force came along he attacked her, inflicting severe injuries on the left arm. The girl was also bitten about the legs and on the other arm. Frightened by some unknown incident the animal ceased its attack and the child escaped. Dr. W. L. Moore dressed the wounds. He said there was very little danger of blood poisoning or other evil effects.

Mr. Cross, on hearing of the assault by the monkey, at once told Mr. Ferreira to shoot the animal which was done.

Chinese Troops are Active.

Hongkong, Sept. 18.—It is reported in the West River district that Chinese troops are visible in every town and they are actively drilling. A Chinese gunboat is again patrolling the river and it is expected that some action is contemplated. The Sandpiper which has been patrolling the delta has proceeded to Canton.

SALISBURY PLAYING A GAME OF POLITICS

Dissolution of Parliament Set for September 25.

IMPERIAL INTERESTS MAIN ISSUE

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK WILL OPEN PARLIAMENT IN AUSTRALIA.

Renewed Interest in Roberts' Bulletin—Princes Authorized by the Emperor to Negotiate With the Powers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A dispatch from London says: Sir Matthew White Ridley was fairly run down by newspaper correspondents after the meeting of the privy council at Balmoral, and as they would not revise their forecasts, Tuesday, September 25, has been bulletined through the United Kingdom as the date for the dissolution of parliament.

The date designated allows the shortest possible margin for nominations and elections. No nomination can be made after the last day of September and the elections will be finished by October 15. Processes are as rapid here as they are slow in America.

The Liberals have not made up their list of candidates and as there will not be time for completing them, an unusually large number of boroughs and districts will be uncontested, the unionists going in without a struggle.

Another striking proof has been offered that with the sanction of the queen public attention will be centered during the elections upon the imperial interests. The colonial office has announced that the Duke and Duchess of York will visit the South Seas in the spring to open the first parliament of united Australia. This visit is explained as a mark of the royal recognition of the loyalty of the colonies in the battle for the preservation of the empire. Lord Salisbury receives credit for recommending this royal journey, but without doubt Mr. Chamberlain has inspired the policy, as he has also proposed a muster in London of representative colonial volunteers, headed by Canada, for a review by the queen.

It is possible that the new parliament when elected may have something more than formal work to do in the meeting in the autumn, but it is difficult to credit the current reports that the Chinese question will require legislative action in November. The foreign office, in announcing that Prince Ching and Earl Li are fully authorized by the emperor to negotiate with the powers virtually takes the whole subject out of current politics for many months. During this long interval public interest in the east, at least in England, will gradually subside.

The approach of the elections, however, has lured Lord Roberts' bulletins with much of their old fascination for the public. General MacDonald's success in driving bases of guerillas across the Vei is the principal incident recorded in the last twenty-four hours and it is hailed as a brilliant exploit.

British Fighting for Control of a Railroad

People of Lorenzo Marques Alarmed Over Reports of a Battle at Komatiport.

LORENZO MARQUES, Sept. 18.—Fighting in proceedings at Komatiport. All the available men have been sent to the frontier. It is expected that the Komatiport bridge will be destroyed. There is great uneasiness here.

Komatiport is a town on the frontier of the Transvaal and the railroad leading from Pretoria to Portuguese territory. It is situated about fifty miles from Lorenzo Marques. With the occupation of Komatiport the British would be able to run all supplies reaching the Boers by railroad from Portuguese territory.

Reports of Both's Surrender.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: A large part of the Rustenburg command has surrendered and there are reports that Commandant Botha has given himself up. The Mail's correspondent at Maritzburg says it is stated that Lord Roberts is expected to leave Pretoria for England about October 30. The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in Lorenzo Marques has been accorded an interview with Mr. Krueger. The ex-president, however, declined to answer interrogatories in person, and his spokesman was Mr. Berdell. In reply to questions, Mr. Berdell proceeded to talk of British cruelties in the field and made some more or less wild assertions of murders of women and children by Kaffirs led by the British. Time would prove, he added, that we are not nearly beaten.

Very light breeze and fair weather.

Now that the nominations have been made the republicans must buckle down to hard work. Organization and work are what win elections.

The real sufferers in every strike are the families of the idle strikers. Will labor ever learn to arbitrate before striking instead of trying to do so afterward?

In G. R. Hendry and J. H. Fisher the republican territorial committee has two most efficient party workers. It is a pity there are not more like them
at the head of party affairs.

With three tickets in the field Ha-way promises to have a political campaign in her first year of territorial life that will put to shame many of the so-called lively campaigns in the States.

The senatorial convention at the drill
shed last night was a regular love feast to all outward appearances.
Some men, however, who expected to be on the senatorial ticket fell outside the breastworks. The most important breastworks remain to be strengthened on November 6. Who will be on the line then?

The Republican is pleased to give space this morning to the publication of a communication from David Keola
upon the republican platform. Mr.
Keola takes a correct view of the use of the English language in legislative proceedings. There is but one law, one flag and one official language for all the people of the United States in America.

The ugly iron fence around the captain's grounds should come down at once.
When what is now the capitol grounds
were within their confines the official and private residence of the monarch
the fence was appropriate, but it is out of place now. No other capitol grounds in the entire United States are enclosed by a fence. Take away the old thing and throw the grounds open to the people to whom they belong.

The latest news from the states published in The Republican this morning shows that the strike in the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania is on in full blast, considerably over 100,000 men being out. Coming at the beginning of cold weather, the strike promises to become very serious before it is finally settled. As the operators declare their determination not to treat with the strike leaders, it is evident that the contest will be a long and serious one, especially for the families of the miners, who are always the worst sufferers. Whatever the outcome, the strike leaders, generally known as the walking delegates, will not suffer financially, but their dupes will.

One Law, One Language.

To the Editor of The Republican:

Sir—Having carefully read the platform of the republican party and being familiar with the sentiments actuating the independent voters in the present campaign, please let me assure you right through you the republican platform makers that the independents will, on taking hold of legislation, give due consideration to this platform, yielding it our support except in the matter of using the Hawaiian language in legislative debate.

We are only in the A. B. C. class of American politics, but we have learned by our treatment under the constitution that there is but one law and by inference there can be but one language to express it in.

Hoping that the next attempt at work of this kind will not be so full of earmarks of the man in the woodpile with whom we gained familiarity in the days of restricted franchise, I am,
yours for equality, DAVID KEOLA.

A YOUNG HERO FROM BESIEGED LEGATIONSA Yankee Boy Who Took an Important Part at Peking.

SON OF SECRETARY OF LEGATION

WAS ORDERLY TO SIR CLAUDE
M'DONALD, BRITISH MINISTER.

How He Got Food for the Besieged Legation—His Description of the Memorable and Prolonged Siege.

Among the passengers on the Coptic
which passed through here Monday from China were many who had been given up for dead by friends and relatives in the Orient and in the States.
They were some of the people who were besieged in the legations in Peking, and whom the papers said had all been massacred by the infuriated Chinese in the capital city of the Celestial Empire.

There were many women among them who were not missionaries, but who were caught in Peking when the trouble broke out and had to stay in the legations until rescued by the allied troops on the 14th of August, after being in great peril of death for about two months.

With the party on the steamer was a young boy who was looked upon by his fellow passengers as the biggest kind of a hero. In the defense of the legations he was one of the most active workers, and by his courage and grit
the imprisoned whites were enabled to hold out as long as they did and until help reached them.

W. G. F. Squires is the lad's name.
He is from New York, and is the son of the first secretary of the American legation at the court of the "Son of Heaven."

Fargo Squires is about seventeen years old and had been in China about a year when the trouble began. He was with his father at the legation. When the marines were sent to the legations to protect them it was not thought that the trouble would be nearly so serious as it afterwards turned out to be. Soon after they arrived the legations were surrounded by the imperial troops. This was said by the government to be for the better protection of the legations from mob violence, but really to keep the legations from escaping from the power of the Empress Dowager.

Before the actual hostilities began young Squires, who had volunteered for the service, was the chief of the communications. He it was who brought almost all the food that the people in the American legation had to eat into the city. With a donkey and cart he went outside the guard lines of the imperial troops and brought wagon load after wagon load of rice and grain into the enclosed place. There was rioting going on all this time, but the efforts of the fanatics did not up to this time seem to be directed especially at the legations.

When it was finally known that those in the legations would have to fight for their lives, young Squires was asked by Sir Claude McDonald, the British minister, to be his orderly, and the young man accepted the position.
This is where he saw the real action.
During the different attacks by the Chinese troops and mobs he was sent about with orders to the different parts of the district where the defenders were stationed. Men were shot all around him, but, strange to say, he escaped injury, although in the thick of the fighting nearly all the time it was going on.

In answer to the inquiry as to whether or not he had killed any of the Chinese attacking the whites he replied: "It is hard to tell if I did. I shot at a good many, but there was only one that I was sure I hit as I saw him fall. I don't know if he is dead or not."

"When we were relieved we had rations for about ten days left. We had eaten nearly all the horses and mules and had some very poor rice and grain left. The horse meat was tough and not nearly so good as the flesh of the mules, but we got so that anything was good enough to eat."

"If the Chinese soldiers had been really as brave as some of the papers say they are we would have all been killed long before help reached us. The commanders of the Chinese troops had a hard time getting their men started to attack us and as soon as a few of them would make a rush they would be shot down by our side and this would stop them. Then some of their companions would rush out to get their wounded and dead companions and they would in turn be shot and then the whole lot of dead and dying Chinese would be left there to be eaten
by the dogs."

"The Chinese troops were always saying among themselves that they could eat us up and would do so when they got started, but they would just get started and then our men would stop them and they would draw off and have another talk about what they would do. If we had only had the Boxers to deal with it would have been much easier, as they were not armed as were the imperial troops, and they had no generals. The troops we had against us were the pick of the Chinese army."

"The Russians had to be watched all the time. They broke faith constantly. The army that came to our relief was fourteen miles away on the day before the assault on the walls of Peking was made. At a consultation held by the commanders it was decided to march eight miles and then wait for morning to go the rest of the way. All the army but the Russian troops did this. They wanted to be the first in Peking so that when the others got there they could say, 'We are in possession and so you must not come in. We will give you the white people here from the legations, but that is all you can have.'"

"Well, the Russians went ahead and as a result they drew the entire Chinese fire on themselves. In the morning the other troops marched up to the walls of the city and really had as easy time getting in, as all the defenders of the city were engaged with the Russians. The Americans and English were the first to enter and the American flag was the first planted on the walls of the city. The Russians, by breaking faith, had got themselves into such a mess that instead of being the first to enter the city they were the last and they lost the most men.
As soon as the troops entered the city
the looting began. Everybody but General Chaffee wanted the city looted.
Many of the inhabitants were killed.
I did not do any looting because I had no chance, but after the way the Chinese had treated the white people you could not expect the troops to do anything but loot and kill them. Many Chinamen were caught trying to get away with their money and jewels and they were promptly killed and their treasure taken away from them. One soldier I know got $14,000 that he took from a Chinese merchant who had it in a sack he was carrying."

"When the troops searched the houses they found millions of rounds of ammunition and thousands of rifles of European manufacture besides many cannon and rapid-fire guns. The empress escaped the day that the troops entered the city. She took the emperor with her. The troops went into the imperial city and into the inner city, where no one but the royal family is allowed to enter. It was the general impression of all but the American commander that the whole city of Peking should be destroyed. It would teach the Chinese a lesson that they would not soon forget. The Japanese are the only ones of all the troops in China who know how to deal with the Chinese. As soon as they get hold of one they kill him."

"Now that I am out of it I am glad that I was there. The women were all brave. They didn't seem to be scared.
They tended to the wounded and helped as much as they could. During the time we were besieged there were sixty-seven men killed. Most of them were marines, but two of them were English students and another was a Japanese legation. One of the ladies was wounded, but not very badly."

DOINGS IN THE COURTS
AT YESTERDAY'S SESSIONSSUPREME COURT WAS BUSY ON SCHARF VS. THE KILAUEA
SUGAR COMPANY.

Demurrer in the Case of Avery
Against the Gazette Company
Overruled by Judge
Humphreys.

The case of Scharf vs. the Kilauea
Sugar Company occupied the attention of the supreme court the greater portion of yesterday afternoon. An objection was also agreed and submitted in the case of Heililiune vs. Vierra.
Judge Humphreys overruled the de-murrer in the case of Avery against the Gazette company and gave the defendants twenty-four hours in which to file a regular answer to the bill. Yesterday morning the matter came up for argument on a demurrer of the defendant corporation, in which it was held that the bill was ambiguous. The de-murrer was presented by Lorin Andrews, while Davis & Gear presented a contrary opinion on behalf of the plaintiff.

The accounts of Antone Richards, administrator of the estate of the late Manuel Barete, were given an approval
by Master C. C. Bitting.
Notice of a material man's lien was given by Lewers & Cooke upon the new Pantheon building at the corner of Fort and Hotel streets. The Widemann estate is named as respondent. Material furnished to the late I. N. Hayden for use in the construction of the building is the grounds upon which the lien was desired.

Defendants in the suit of H. E. Mc-Intyre against S. C. Allen for the possession of Lincoln block on King street have moved for a reopening of the case. When the case came for trial some time ago it will be remembered that Allen failed to appear and a default was declared.

In Judge Humphreys' court Monday
the time was taken up with the hearing of probate matters. In the matter of the estate of Robert Halstead, deceased, on petition of Sarah Halstead, widow, George R. Carter was appointed administrator under bonds in the sum of $185,000, with J. B. Atherton and E. D. Tenney sureties. The estate is of the appraised value of $213,839 and consists of real property in California to the value of $80,000 and personal property here amounting to $133,839.

C. C. Bitting, as master, has filed his report in the matter of the report of the administrator of the estate of Manuel Barete. He reports that the accounts of administrator are in the main correct, but that there are two vouchers that do not correspond with the credits asked in the account. One is for $67, whereas the voucher shows an expenditure of but $58.27 and the other for $109, where the voucher shows but $91 expended.

Antonia de Cruz Paine has petitioned for an absolute divorce from her husband, Joseph Paine, who she alleges had since their marriage treated her in a brutal and inhuman manner, and also on the grounds of the habitual intemperance of the defendant. She asks that the court, besides the divorce, give her the custody of the child by the marriage with the defendant and for such other relief as the court may deem fit and just.

In the partition suit of George E.
Beckley vs. Emma Nakuna, the defendant has filed her answer.

Charles Williams was admitted to practice law in Judge Estee's court on motion of C. C. Bitting.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock the Dunneegan case will come up for trial,
as this was the time set yesterday.

THE GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL IN EXECUTIVE SESSION

CAPTAIN PAUL SMITH, SERVING IN THE PHILIPPINES, IS COMPLEMENTED.

Hawaiian Band a Public Institution—Attorney General Dole Points Out the Need of Greater Economy.

The rifle range of the National Guard is to be rebuilt. Governor Dole submitted plans as presented by Colonel Jones for the rebuilding of the shooting range at Kakaako to replace the one recently burned down. The board of health reported that they had enough material on hand to rebuild the range. At a meeting of the territorial council Monday the plans were approved and Secretary Cooper was advised to advertise for bids for the work of constructing the same.

A letter to the governor from Major W. E. Craighill, now attached to the United States service in the Philippines, was read, in which the writer especially compliments Captain Paul Smith, formerly of Honolulu, for the ability and bravery displayed during his service in the Philippines. Captain Smith resigned his commission in the National Guard of Hawaii to accept a similar offer in the federal service. The letter will be referred to the National Guard at the recommendation of the council.

Recent correspondence concerning the Vredenberg land matter was read and submitted. Application has been made for ten acres of land located on the water front near Hilo. As it has heretofore been against the government policy to dispose of land fronting upon the water, it was recommended that another parcel of land, not under such restrictions, be offered.

The request of A. F. Judd, chairman of Oahu college, for services of the band at the reception to be tendered to President Arthur Maxom Smith next Friday evening was refused. Governor Dole stated that in view of the fact that the band was a public institution it should not be used for private celebrations. The council was of the same mind in regard to the matter.

The petition for pardon for Koloa of Molokai did not particularly state the cause of imprisonment and it was referred to the attorney general, who will inquire into the matter.

Attorney General Dole reported that he had written a letter to the sheriffs of the various districts regarding the cutting down of the expenses of their departments as much as possible, especially in the matter of coroners' requests. The letter reads as follows: Honolulu, H. I., Sept. 24, 1900.

Dear Sir—The changes incident to annexation have deprived the local government of a considerable portion of its income, the revenues from the customs house alone amounting to about $1,200,000 a year. The cost of suppressing the plague was enormous and the increased work which changing conditions are putting upon us tend to a considerable increase of legitimate expenditures.

I know and appreciate the good and honest work which officers of the department are doing throughout the territory, and yet, as I go through the monthly bills, the question occurs to me whether it is not possible to substantially reduce miscellaneous expenses without parsimony and without doing any one wrong.

If public improvements are to keep pace with public needs there will have to be in the near future either increased taxation or a very careful consideration of dollars before spending them, perhaps both.

I do not know of any way in which we can serve the public better than along the line of this suggestion, which I am making, directly or through their immediate superiors, to all officials of our department who have to any considerable extent the contraction and approval of bills. Very truly yours, E. P. DOLE, Attorney General.

Papers regarding the change of name and the reduction of capital of the First American Bank of Hawaii were received and approved.

The Pearl Harbor Agriculture Company made application for a charter. The incorporators are of California. The application was read, but no action was taken.

TERPRISES FOR THE GOOD
OF YOUTHS.Three New Clubs to be Organized at Once—Mr. Waldron, the New Instructor, to Arrive Today.

The Boys' Brigade, a most worthy organization, with a commendable purpose, and which in years past has carried on a profitable labor among the boys of this city, met Monday evening in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building, and during a short space of time a great amount of business was disposed of, and at the same time a rousing and enthusiastic meeting was held. The object of the brigade is five-fold. Religious, military, gymnastic, entertainment and industrial work are taken up in a most thorough manner and by methods that are sure to hold the attention and interest of the youthful members. As a result of the gathering Monday evening three branches, or more properly speaking, clubs, will soon be launched in Honolulu, and the work of the organization will be greatly facilitated and the power for usefulness largely increased.

A building on King street, near the Oahu railroad, has lately been secured and this has been fitted up in model style for the conducting of industrial work among brigade members. A goodly amount has been expended on tools and appliances. Industrial work in all its various branches will be conducted in this establishment under a competent instructor. The brigade members were called together on Monday evening. Prayer was offered by Theo. Richards. At the conclusion of a few remarks by Secretary Coleman, the election of officers for the ensuing year was in order. This matter was soon satisfactorily settled by the boys, by re-electing the old board of officials. President Richards briefly stated the objects of the gathering and outlined a plan of work for the season. He also announced that Mr. Waldron is expected to arrive on the Australia to take charge of the general brigade work.

The selection of leaders for the projected clubs resulted in choosing F. C. Atterton for Kakaako, J. P. Erdman for Palama and J. M. Moore for Punch-bowl. Mr. Moore expressed the desire to be released from his duties, but the boys could not see it that way, and the matter was deferred and is to be left to the decision of the president.

The announcement was made that the officers of the Koahu church had tendered the use of a portion of the building to club members. A committee of three was selected to look into the matter and decide upon availing themselves of the offer.

It was also voted to take steps towards the organization of Company C at Palama and Company F at Punch-bowl without delay. The date of organization was set for Thursday evening. The time for meetings throughout the city was changed to 7:15, and it is hoped that members will take special note of the change. Mr. Waldron, the instructor soon to arrive, will give a portion of his time to the Y. M. C. A. juniors.

Theo. Richards, who has recently returned from the conference held at Northfield, Mass., delivered an interesting and profitable address before a large gathering at the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday afternoon. Mr. Richards is an entertaining speaker and possesses a forceful and convincing manner in addressing his auditors. His remarks were along the line of his experiences at Northfield, in which he vividly depicted the various phases of religious work carried on at that place during the summer vacation. Mr. Richards referred to the various courses of study which those who attended had the privilege of availing themselves of during the sessions of the conference, which closed the latter part of last July.

The Triangle Literary Society held an interesting session at the Y. M. C. A. building Monday evening, which drew out a fair attendance. An enjoyable as well as profitable program was launched and participated in by a number present. China afforded the basis of discussion, and in the papers that were read the condition of that country, past and present, were carefully portrayed, and many interesting points were brought out and much information was derived from the discussions that followed. Geography, old religions, ancient history and superstitions were touched upon. The more modern history of the Chinese empire, together with the events which led up to the recent disturbances in that country, will come up for consideration at the meeting next Monday evening.

The swish of the bat and the swat of the ball will make merry music at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Saturday evening, when picked teams will cross bats in an indoor base ball game, which is expected to develop into a hotly contested affair. A nine chosen from the business men's gymnasium class have challenged the regular athletic team, and they propose to introduce a brand of ball that will bring great joy to the hearts of the base ball fans, as well as reviving pleasant memories.

The gymnasium floor affords ample room for carrying on the game. The boundaries and bases have been marked off in colored paint, and will afford no mistaking the prescribed limits. Both teams are doing a good deal of practicing, and the successful team will earn the victory by plenty of science and hard work.

J. Oswald Lutted, proprietor of the New England bakery, is erecting a substantial store building on Hotel street, near his place of business. The structure is built of brick and the front is made up largely of French plate windows, which insure plenty of light. The work of completion is being rapidly pushed, and when finished it will afford a creditable addition to the business blocks along that thoroughfare.

HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR.

Weather Bureau Officials' Estimate of Velocity of Wind.

GALVESTON, Sept. 12.—The official records of the United States weather bureau give some valuable information about the storm. Unfortunately, the recording instruments were destroyed or crippled beyond operation about 5:10 o'clock Saturday evening. The wind gauge recorded a two-minute blow at the rate of 100 miles an hour, and was then demolished by the hurricane, which continued to increase in violence. While the exact velocity of the wind was not recorded after the destruction of the instruments, the weather bureau reports estimate the maximum velocity at between 110 and 120 miles an hour. It did not maintain this terrific rate for any length of time—perhaps for half a minute—but it was sufficient to wreck anything that met the full force of the storm. A journal of the local office of the weather bureau contains a report of an apparent tidal wave of four feet, which swept in from the gulf between the hours of 7 and 8 p. m. At that time the wind veered to the southeast. At that time there was a tide of five feet and a terrible swell in the gulf during the storm and before the tidal wave of four feet rose. This wall of water increased the force and speed of the sea that washed over the city.

construction must be proportioned by exact measurement, and for this purpose contractors will be required to provide themselves with rectangular boxes for measuring materials and tight boxes for mixing. No mixing of materials on pavement will be permitted. No retamping will be permitted and concrete which has already begun to set before being put in place will be rejected. Concrete shall be laid in blocks of not to exceed three feet in width by the width of walk and shall be marked off into squares by the use of proper marking and jointing tools. Screeds of sufficient stiffness must be used to preserve a true and straight edge the width of the walk. Concrete blocks shall be put in alternating, and each block finished with top coat immediately so that a good and sufficient bond may be had between them. Intermediate blocks shall not be put in for at least twelve hours after finishing the first blocks.

By Authority.

STANDARD SPECIFICATIONS FOR
SIDEWALK CURB AND PAVEMENT FOR THE CITY OF HONOLULU.

On and after this date all sidewalks and curbs constructed within the limits specified below, shall conform to the following specifications. In accordance with Section 371, Civil Laws, 1897.

CURB.—The sidewalk curb shall be of good quality lava rock in blocks not less than 30 inches long, six inches thick at the top edge and sufficiently wide to be held firmly in place by the street paving; to be hammer dressed on the outside for a width of not less than ten inches and on top edge which must show a uniform width of six inches. Blocks to be well bedded, laid true to line and grade and the joints between the blocks filled with cement grout. At street corners curb to be carried around on a curve the radius of which is not less than width of sidewalk.

PAVEMENT.—To be artificial stone flagging composed of cement concrete, constructed in alternate slabs in place. It shall consist of two parts; first a base course 3½ inches thick, second, a finishing or wearing course ½ inch thick.

BASE COURSE.—The base course shall be composed of three parts crushed blue lava rock known as No. 2, no piece of which shall be larger than will go through a two-inch ring; two parts of crushed blue rock known as No. 3, leaving out all which will pass through a screen of mesh to the inch; two parts of clean screened beach or other good sand; one part of cement. Sand and cement to be thoroughly mixed before being wet and then with only enough water to make a stiff mortar. Wet broken stone before putting on mortar. Mortar to be spread evenly over stone and the mass turned in the box till thoroughly mixed. The concrete shall be properly deposited in place without being scattered or rammed until the mortar flushes to the surface, using care to compact the outer edges.

FINISHING COURSE.—The finishing course of cement mortar shall be in no place less than ¾ inch thick and shall be composed of one part cement and one part of the fine screenings from the No. 3 rock and two pounds rump must be spread on the base course, and black to each barrel of cement. It must be spread on the base course and floated, while the latter is still soft, and adhesive, after which the surface will be smoothed and compacted by thoroughly and skillfully troweling before the cement is too hard for such finishing. The work must be kept moist and protected from the direct rays of the sun for at least three days by covering with two inches of sand.

PREPARING SUB GRADE.—The space to be occupied by the walk shall be properly graded to a depth of 4½ inches below top of finished walk. Any soft, loose or unsuitable material found in the sub-grade shall be removed and the space filled with fine broken stone or cinders, after which the whole surface shall be thoroughly compacted by ramming or rolling and finished to required grade and cross section.

GRADE.—Unless otherwise especially provided for, the finished surface shall be a true plane rising from the curb grade at the curb line at the rate of one-fourth inch (¼ inch) to one foot (1 foot) to the property line.

PORTLAND CEMENT.—Cement must be of a well known or standard brand, in good condition and must stand the test required for cement in government contracts.

CONCRETE.—The material used in construction must be proportioned by exact measurement, and for this purpose contractors will be required to provide themselves with rectangular boxes for measuring materials and tight boxes for mixing. No mixing of materials on pavement will be permitted. No retamping will be permitted and concrete which has already begun to set before being put in place will be rejected. Concrete shall be laid in blocks of not to exceed three feet in width by the width of walk and shall be marked off into squares by the use of proper marking and jointing tools. Screeds of sufficient stiffness must be used to preserve a true and straight edge the width of the walk. Concrete blocks shall be put in alternating, and each block finished with top coat immediately so that a good and sufficient bond may be had between them. Intermediate blocks shall not be put in for at least twelve hours after finishing the first blocks.

DRIVEWAY.—Whenever driveway occurs, the artificial stone flagging shall not be less than eight (8) inches in thickness, and the surface shall be finished with sufficient longitudinal grooves or corrugations to provide a safe foothold for animals. Ston paving of approved construction may be submitted for concrete in driveways.

BITUMINOUS PAVEMENT.—Outside of the limits mentioned for cement paving, the property owners shall have the option of constructing sidewalk pavement of either cement concrete as specified or of approved bituminous material.

LIMITS.—The specifications for cement pavement shall apply to all sidewalks constructed in the City of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, within the limits, bounded by the waterfront, commencing from the Marine Railway to River street, thence along River to Vineyard street, thence east along Vineyard street to Nuanu street, thence up Nuanu street to School street, thence East along School street to Luskana street, thence along Kinau street to Victoria street, thence down along Victoria street to King street, thence west along King street to South street, thence down South street to Queen street, thence West along Queen street to Punchbowl street, thence in a direct line to place of commencement, including both sides of the streets named and also King street as far as the Palama Pumping Station, Nuanu avenue, as far as Judd street, and Beretania avenue from River to King streets.

The specifications for curb and for option of bituminous pavement shall apply to that portion of Honolulu bounded on the South East by a line running N. E. true from the sea passing through the Diamond Head trig. station; on the Northwest by the Kaihi stream, on the makai side by the sea and on the mauka side by a line parallel to, and one and one-half miles from the water front.

NOTIFICATION.—Property owners will be notified when they are required to construct sidewalks.

J. A. McCANDLESS,
Superintendent of Public Works.

By Authority.

Of Interest to the Ladies...

Few women care for the hair as they should. When the hair begins to come out they are alarmed. It would be much better if they give it more attention when it is in a healthy condition. The first requisite in the care of the hair is a GOOD TONIC. Just the kind we keep. Our Hair Tonic will kill dandruff. Stop itching of the scalp. Make the hair soft and glossy. It keeps the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. Try a bottle and give it a trial.

THEY WILL NOT INDOSE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES

INDEPENDENTS SPURN THE IDEA OF A FUSION WITH THE BOURBONS.

Republican Territorial Committee
Perfects its Organization and Starts in Vigorous Work—
Kauai Nominations.

"How about the report that the independents will probably pull down Wilcox and Indorse Prince David?" asked a Republican reporter of George Markham at the independent headquarters yesterday.

"Indorse Prince David?" exclaimed Markham. "Well, I should say we will not. There has been no idea of pulling down Wilcox as our candidate for congress. The fact is the democrats are very anxious for fusion with our party. That is seen by their nominating some of our men on their legislative ticket. Pua is not a democrat and never was and some others they nominated are not democrats. Sam Damon is not. He has never allied himself with any political party, which makes him an independent, if anything."

"But we don't want to fuse with the democrats. Why should we? What have they got? They have no organization; they don't know anything about how the voters stand. They have not done a bit of systematic work and are not doing any now. Just a lot of noise and hurrah by some of their leaders. Our party has been working; we have organization and we know where we stand."

"We hid our nominations for the island of Kauai with Secretary Cooper yesterday—two senators and four representatives."

Robert Wilcox and D. Kalanikalanui left last night for Hawaii for a tour of the island in behalf of the independents. S. K. Pua left for Kohala and the Hamakua coast.

Prince David and John H. Wise left on the Kinau last night for the western part of Hawaii, where they hope to make a tour that will break into Sam Parker's fences.

A resident of this city who returned from Lihue, Kauai, Sunday tells an amusing story about the canvass of these prophets of democracy. J. E. Bush and W. R. Sims, on the Garden isle. Both of the democratic leaders attended the republican convention at Lihue last Wednesday and following the convention asked if they might be allowed to address the people present on the virtues and follies of democracy. Permission was readily granted as all were anxious to hear what the speakers would have to say about the disfranchisement of people with dark skins in the states of the south by the democratic party and the cry against imperialism made by that party. They also hoped that one or the other of the speakers might know something more about the 16 to 1 than John H. Wise, the delegate to St. Louis, whose vote made the 16 to 1 plank possible, and who afterward said he did not know anything about 16 to 1 and did not believe Bryan did either.

Mr. Bush made a long rambling talk consisting of many, many words, but no argument or logic, and then Mr. Sims essayed his role. The speaker faced his audience smoking a cigar and after saying a few words stopped to puff at the weed. Then a few more sentences closing with the remark, "See?" and then more puffs at the cigar. This was repeated to the utter disgust of the people present until Mr. Sims had talked himself out. Much indignation was expressed by those present at Sims' lack of courtesy, or rather at his example of coarseness, the people feeling that their good nature in granting him permission to speak had been grossly imposed upon. The Republican's informant says that the republican committee ought to employ Bush and Sims to go around to all the islands, for if they would continue such work as they rendered at Lihue there would be no question about the republicans carrying every district in the territory.

Organization of the republican territorial committee was effected yesterday morning at the party headquarters in the Elite building.

J. A. Kennedy was elected temporary chairman, and E. R. Hendry temporary secretary, and after roll call had these offices made permanent for them respectively.

J. H. Fisher was elected treasurer, and R. F. Daly sergeant-at-arms. Roll call showed the following named present: J. A. Kennedy, B. H. Wright, J. H. Fisher, J. P. Cooke, Chas. Wilcox, J. W. Jones, Jas. Gibb, W. G. Walker, H. P. Baldwin, P. M. Kahokuwana, A. N. Kepoikai, Matt McCann, W. J. Coelho, T. McCants Stewart, Geo. F. Renton and H. L. Holstein.

A set of rules and regulations was adopted. The following committees were appointed: Executive Committee—J. A. Kennedy, J. P. Cooke, B. H. Wright, W. J. Coelho, T. McCants Stewart, J. Gibb, H. L. Holstein, A. N. Kepoikai and B. F. Sandow, with E. R. Hendry, secretary.

Finance Committee—J. W. Jones, Chas. Wilcox, Geo. H. Huddy, Geo. F. Renton, H. P. Baldwin, J. Maguire and Jas. Gibb.

Enrollment Committee—J. H. Fisher, Chas. Wilcox, Andrew Cox, L. J. McCabe, Jas. Gibb, G. P. Kamaoaha, D. H. Kahalelelo and W. G. Smith.

The committee agreed to enter upon a very vigorous campaign at once and to this end will send speakers into every legislative district. The committee is anxious to have those who will volunteer their services as speakers send their names to headquarters at once. Beginning with this evening the executive committee will meet every evening at 7:30.

PRESENTED TO MR. OFFLEY

On the Eve of Departure Remembered by Amateur Orchestra.

When E. H. Offley went to the Y. M. C. A. building last evening to attend the rehearsal of the amateur orchestra, he little knew of the pleasant surprise in store for him before the evening should be over. Mr. Offley is soon to leave the islands for Seattle, where he will join Major Rublin, who left this city recently for the coast. During his stay in Honolulu Mr. Offley has taken an active part in matters musical, and associated himself with the amateur orchestra, which has maintained a high reputation in local musical circles. In his work in the orchestra Mr. Offley has at times taken parts of pianist, double bass and drummer.

During the intermission at the rehearsal last evening Director Wray Taylor arose and in a few fitting remarks presented the departing member with a beautiful silver match box, suitably engraved, and surrounded by the Hawaiian coat-of-arms done in pretty coloring of enamel. The present is one that the recipient will recall with pleasure. The presentation came to Mr. Offley when he was totally unprepared, but he succeeded in making a happy reply to his fellow musicians, in which he warmly thanked them for the pleasing remembrance.

Surrounded With Red Tape.

Captain Buford of the transport Thomas, or whoever is in charge, has a load of red tape with him that is in sufficient quantity to sink an ordinary vessel. It is to be hoped that the next transport calling here will have left San Francisco without such a plentiful supply. A small consignment of red tape is always expected, but in certain quarters on the Thomas it is present in such quantities that it hampers business and takes the place of courtesy entirely.

He Owe His Life to the Forethought of a Companion.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stump of Norman town, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says: "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents Territory of Hawaii.

Glasgow Not Free of Plague.

Glasgow, Sept. 18.—One of the four members of one family reported yesterday to have been stricken with the plague has since died.

A HORSE ON BILL.

Tale of a Horse That Used to Draw an Express Wagon

About three weeks ago one of Bill Larsen's horses was taken sick and so he called in a horse doctor to see the animal. The veterinarian immediately diagnosed the trouble as the glanders and told Bill that he must take the horse out and shoot him. The animal was one of the oldest that Bill had and he had not the heart to kill it after all its faithful service, and so as he was walking along like the robber in the "Babes in the Wood," thinking first that he would and then that he wouldn't take a life, he spied a Chinaman and, telling him the story of the sick horse, asked him to take the animal and when he was out of sight, kill it. This the pake promised to do and Bill went away with a great load lifted from his bosom. He didn't think anything more about the horse, but started around to get another to take its place. Several horses were offered him, but he did not like them. Yesterday a horse was brought to him to look at and it looked so much like the old one that Bill thought he would buy it. It was a good-looking horse and perfectly sound. He paid the man the price asked for it and sent the animal to his stables. When he went to the barn a little later the stable man said, "That sick horse he come back." Bill wouldn't believe it, as he had told the Chinaman to kill the sick horse. He asked to see the animal and was shown the one he had bought a little while before. Sure enough, a close inspection showed him on the horse he had told the Chinaman to kill the sick horse. He asked what language was most fitted to the occasion and now he is looking for the doctor who said that the horse had glanders. He would also like to meet the Chinaman that didn't shoot the horse.

The Pantheon a Phoenix.

The famous old Pantheon Saloon, after being dark for more than half a year, has been re-opened at a point a few doors Ewa of the old stand, on Hotel street. J. A. Simpson, one of the best known and most experienced men in this business here, is the manager. The new establishment has the beautiful koi bar, saved from the fire; the volcano picture, lurid and interesting as ever, and a fine, speaking likeness of the late James Dole, who was known all over the world as the proprietor of the place. It will be the effort of the owners and the manager to so conduct the Pantheon that all former customers will come back and new ones will be attracted. A superior line of goods has been placed in stock and it is expected that the new Pantheon, rising from the disastrous fire, will soon become popular as the old establishment.

ARMY CONCERT TONIGHT.

Manager Allen Will Give Army Officers a Treat.

Manager Allen of the Hawaiian hotel will hold open house this evening in honor of the officers of the U. S. A. T. Thomas, which is now in port en route to Manila. The bands of the Fifth and Eighth regiments, which are now aboard the transport, will give a concert during the evening. The officers and their wives will be present in force. The general public is also cordially invited.

Waldersee at Hongkong.

Hongkong, Sept. 18.—The German steamer Sachsen, having on board Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, commander-in-chief of the international forces in China and his staff, has arrived here.

More Locomotives Captured.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Lord Roberts reports from Machadodorp, under date of September 17, that a few minor skirmishes have taken place between the British troops and the Boers. He adds that General French has captured fifty locomotives, in addition to the forty-three locomotives and other rolling stock which he took when he occupied Barberton, September 13, and that General Stephenson was ordered to occupy Heipruijt during the afternoon of September 17.

The Boers have lost heart and have ceased to display any of their characteristic qualities and the British battalions and squadrons are mainly hunting down train wreckers and capturing cattle and abandoned stores.

The transport Thomas brought no mail or paper files, as the postal authorities in San Francisco thought the Australia would beat her to this port. The mail that should have been in the transport will be here this morning in the Australia.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John E. Hallway of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and had suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents Territory of Hawaii.
