GOVERNOR VETOES HOSPITAL APPROPRIATION NEAR BLOCKADE BETWEEN GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATURE AT CLOSING

NO BILL AGAINST JOHN W. CATHCART

Alleged Assault of Goo Wan Hoy By
By County Attorney Investigated
By Grand Jury, Which Returns No Indictment

A "no true bill" was returned by the Grand Jury this morning in the case of John W. Cathcart, accused by Goo Wan Hoy of assaulting him. In its report, presented to Judge De Bolt just before noon, the inquisitorial body made no comment whatever on the case, merely stating that it had found no bill against the County Attorney.

The case was taken up by the Grand Jury at 10 o'clock, and the following witnesses were examined: Lee Tong, hackdriver, Bethel street stand; D. K. Kama, son of Representative Kama; Henry Kama, Goo Wan Hoy, Clement Goo On, Ah Chung.

Senate Cuts Out Land Provision

SENATE

60th Day—Morning Session
When the bill to amend the Organic Act, introduced in Congress by Delegate Kuhio, comes up for consideration, it will do so without any recommendation from the Territorial Legislature regarding the matter of land laws. House Concurrent Resolution No. 21, endorsing in substance the bill as introduced, came up for final reading in the Senate this morning. All of Section 5, relating to amendments to the land laws, was stricken out.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, introduced early in the session and deferred until today, and House Concurrent Resolution No. 21, were on the order of the day. By invitation, Governor Frear appeared before the Senate, sitting in Committee of the Whole, and explained the provisions of the bill.

The bill in question is much the same as the one discussed by the Chamber of Commerce some months ago, and by the Senate early in the session. The remarks of Governor Frear were, in substance, the same as he made on the former occasions when he addressed the Chamber of Commerce and when he appeared before the Senate.

In connection with the bill, the Governor said that it was practically as favored by Kuhio, and that, though he himself did not approve of all of the provisions, and believed that certain provisions not incorporated should have been inserted, he was inclined to think that it was as good as could be hoped for at this time, and that Congress had been asked to grant about all that could be expected.

He said that he should have liked to see inserted the provision granting to the Executive the right to remove Territorial officers without the consent of the Senate, but that he was aware of the fact that many did not agree with him, and he did not insist on that provision.

Before the entrance of the Governor, Coelho had made a determined effort to have the resolution tabled, and only desisted in his efforts when the Governor entered the room. Though no official notice had been taken of his resolution, he showed a determination to let the Governor

GOV.'S VETO

Governor Frear sent in his message vetoing items in the Appropriation Bill this afternoon, bringing the appropriations down by a reduction of some sixty thousand dollars.

It is believed that the Senate will override the veto. On the other hand it is stated that if the Governor is not upheld in this he will pocket-veto the bills turning over much to the Counties, and thus force an extra session.

The Governor's message with the items vetoed follows:

The following items are vetoed: Deputy High Sheriff and Clerk ($100), $2400. Treasury bookkeeper, deputy insurance commissioner ($175), $4200. Bureau of Taxes—Clerk and interpreter ($60), $1440. Public Works, etc.—Landings and Wharves: Landings and concrete walls, Mahukona, Hawaii, $13,300; new landing and warehouse, Hanalei, Kauai, $10,000. Board of Health—Hospitals: Queen's Hospital $24,000; Maluluani Hospital, Maui (for period ending Dec. 31, 1910), $2875; Hilo Hospital, Hawaii (for period ending Dec. 31, 1909), $2875. The Courts—Circuit Courts: First Circuit: 3 clerks ($100 each), $7200; Fourth Circuit: Assistant clerk, messenger and interpreter ($100), $2400.

While the Legislature has endeavored with a commendable business-like spirit to bring the appropriations within the revenues and by various enactments to place the Territory and the Counties, singly and in relation to each other, upon a sound financial basis, it has been found impossible to do all in this direction that either your honorable body or Chairman Atkinson of the Republican Territorial Committee communicated with the members by telephone this noon and as a result the executive committee made the following recommendations: E. A. Mott-Smith, member and President of the Board of Health; Albert Horner, Liquor Commissioner for the County of Hawaii; W. D. Alexander and Geo. R. Carter, reappointed Commissioners of Archives; Dr. George Herbert, member Board of Medical Examiners.

It was reported that the committee had acted on the Treasurer's bill, but Atkinson denies this. The name of W. L. Hopper is suggested for Treasurer, one person recommending him on account of his careful business ability and the thought that he

These appointments were sent in to the Senate this afternoon and were approved without any difficulty, except in the matter of Mott-Smith. Action was deferred on this until the Senate could learn the reason for Robinson's resignation. Although the appointment of Mott-Smith to a position so that he will get a combined salary of over $400, a month has long been rumored, some of the members feel that they have been tricked.

McCarthy Holds Fast

The House refused to concur to the Senate amendments to the resolution for the amendment of the Organic Act, and Douthitt, Castro, and Kalelopu were named to confer with the Senate. All the members of the conference voted to accept the House resolve as originally introduced except Senator McCarthy. He is obdurate and the resolution may be defeated, unless the House will give in.

HUSBAND'S LOVE IS STOLEN BY ANOTHER

When a woman who is absent from a supposedly loving and faithful husband receives a letter from him telling her he wants to get rid of her, it is a pretty hard blow. But such was the case of a letter received by Alice S. Kellogg from her husband, Leonard G. Kellogg, according to the allegations in her suit for divorce which has been filed in the Circuit Court.

The letter, she says, brought her hurrying home on March 18, only to

HOUSE PUTS LAST TOUCHES TO WORK

Woman's Suffrage And Medical Inspection
Are Dead

HOUSE

60th Day—Morning Session

The House this morning virtually wound up its work for the session, cleared the desks of all unfinished business, and got itself in readiness to adjourn. It has no more work before it unless something comes down from the Senate or the Governor sends down a veto or two. No more work; that is, with the exception of its consideration of the veto of the deer bill, which was once more deferred, this time until afternoon. The House is having lots of fun with the Senate over that veto, the upper body having voted to override—the veto.

The woman's suffrage resolution was diplomatically but effectually squelched, but nothing the House can do can take away from Keala-wa's glory of having made himself the champion of oppressed femininity. It is expected that he will be returned two years hence because of having introduced the resolution to ask Congress to let the womanhood of Hawaii express its views at the polls. Keala-wa's popularity is now immense. It's too bad he's married.

The bill providing for medical inspection of school-children is also dead, being put out of its misery this morning as it lay gasping for breath on the clerk's desk, where it had been forgotten.

The House took a recess until 2 o'clock, when it is expected the Appropriation Bill will come back from the Governor with whatever changes he has made in it.

A Startling Discovery.

"George Woodruff is a man who will, I believe, prove a distinct acquisition to the Territory. While, as a general thing, I am in favor of having local men appointed to office here, we must not lose sight of the fact that the office of Federal Judge is distinctly a Federal one, and that we already have one local man filling such an office here."—Governor Frear.

(Associated Press Special)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—The President sent in his appointments to the judicial positions in the Territory of Hawaii made vacant by the resignation of Associate Justice Ballou from the Supreme Bench, of Circuit Judge Lindsay, and for the new United States District Judge who will take office the 1st of July.

Antone Perry is named for Associate Justice, Wm. L. Whitney for the Circuit bench, and George W. Woodruff, Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department, for second United States Judge. Mr. Woodruff was a noted football player at Yale.

George W. Woodruff was born in Dimock, Pa., Feb. 22, 1864. He graduated from the Mansfield Normal School in 1883, received his degree of A.B. from Yale in 1889 and LL.B. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1895. He was married in Philadelphia Aug. 4, 1895, to Maud Donald Macbride. He was law officer of the United States Forestry Service 1903-6; Assistant Attorney General of the United States for the Interior Department since 1907. He was Acting Secretary of the Interior from June 15 to Oct. 1, 1907. He was recently succeeded in the Attorney General's office by the United States District Attorney with headquarters in Los Angeles. Mr. Woodruff is a Republican. He is a member of the American Forestry Association, the Society of American Foresters, Phi Beta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, Yale.

Antone Perry was at one time Associate Justice on the Supreme bench, having failed of reappointment on account of the trouble in which the Justices became involved through the arbitrary disbarment of Attorney Geo. A. Davis, who was reinstated practically at the demand of the Department of Justice. Perry was an associate of Mr. Frear on the bench and very much admired by him.

Wm. L. Whitney is Deputy Attorney General, having served in his first judicial capacity as the District Magistrate for Honolulu. Mr. Whitney has made a specialty of the wayward juveniles and the laws passed bearing on that subject have been largely framed by him.

Sultan Dethroned No One Mourns

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, April 27.—The decree deposing the Sultan was read in public by the Sheikh-ul-Islam. It recites that Abdul Hamid's acts have been contrary to the sacred law and that he has committed numerous crimes, the decree constituting a terrible indictment of the fallen sovereign.

THE SULTAN TOOK IT The Sultan, when informed of his deposition, simply said: "It is the will of Allah."

TO PROCLAIM NEW RULER A salute of 101 guns will announce the new Sultan, who will be proclaimed as Mehmed V.

PERPLEXITIES AHEAD It is believed that many serious problems still confront the Young Turks.

GREAT BRITAIN NOT SORRY LONDON, England, April 27.—The Sultan's dethronement is unregretted here.

NEW SULTAN PROMPTLY RECOGNIZED WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—Prompt recognition will be given to the new Turkish Government.

Abdul Hamid II. was born Sept. 22, 1842. He is the second son of Sultan Abdul Medjed, and succeeded to the throne on the deposition of his elder brother, Sultan Murad V., Aug. 31, 1876. Murad is still living, an imprisoned lunatic.

The lately deposed sovereign is the thirty-fourth in male descent of the house of Osman, the founder of the empire and the twenty-eighth Sultan since the conquest of Constantinople. By the law of succession obeyed in the reigning family, the crown is inherited by seniority by the male descendants of Osman in spring from the imperial harem. The Sultan is succeeded by his eldest son, unless, as in the present case, there are uncles or cousins of greater age.

Abdul Hamid has ten living children and eight living brothers and sisters. His successor is a brother who was born in 1844.

JEALOUS MAN ATTACKS WIFE

Terrible Deed Done By Japanese At Kapaia

Lihue, April 24.—A cold-blooded attempt at murder took place at Kapaia, just below the Catholic church, last Sunday forenoon. Jealousy was the motive, a Japanese rice-planter, Fullaga, suspecting that his wife, Toni, was not faithful to him, which worked him into such a state that he tried to kill her.

While the wife was asleep, about 11 o'clock in the morning, the husband stole into her room, armed with one of the big triangular-shaped knives with which the Japanese do their kitchen work—a sort of a cleaver, with which they cut up the meat and vegetables. With this he struck her and cut a deep gash in her neck. Being awakened in this fearful manner, she tried to save herself by grabbing the knife with her hands, which were, in turn, severely cut.

There happened to be a man in the room next door, who heard the screaming and the groaning of the woman, and immediately rushed in, breaking open the door, which had been locked by the man. The latter, finding that he was caught, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his own throat, which bled very profusely.

Dr. Putnam was immediately notified of the situation, and he hastened over, arriving there just in time to get the wounds of both the parties bound up before it was too late. He then had them taken to the hospital, where they were properly cared for, and the indications, now, are both will recover.

—Garden Island.

Chief Leal made a trip to Waipahu yesterday afternoon in response to a telephone message which reached him regarding some roof-iron which was supposed to have been stolen from the Army people at Lihue. It appears that yesterday morning there arrived sixty sheets of corrugated roof-iron from Lihue. Two troopers are alleged to have sold the iron to a Japanese for the sum of $46, and then to have taken rooms at the local Japanese hotel and proceeded to have a real good time.

The troopers told Leal that the iron had belonged to a man named Tripper, a barber at Lihue, who had bought the stuff to build a house for his wife, but that lady had departed for the coast, and so there was no further use for the iron. The accused men alleged that Tripper turned the iron over to them for sale, and they shipped it to Waipahu in Tripper's name. Chief Leal telephoned Lieutenant Quinn at Lihue cavalry post, and got a reply to the effect that the two men were to be returned to the camp or the evening train, and that an investigation would be held there as regards the charge. The general idea is that the iron belongs to the Army people.

Chief Leal made a trip to Waipahu yesterday afternoon in response to a telephone message which reached him regarding some roof-iron which was supposed to have been stolen from the Army people at Lihue. It appears that yesterday morning there arrived sixty sheets of corrugated roof-iron from Lihue. Two troopers are alleged to have sold the iron to a Japanese for the sum of $46, and then to have taken rooms at the local Japanese hotel and proceeded to have a real good time.

The troopers told Leal that the iron had belonged to a man named Tripper, a barber at Lihue, who had bought the stuff to build a house for his wife, but that lady had departed for the coast, and so there was no further use for the iron. The accused men alleged that Tripper turned the iron over to them for sale, and they shipped it to Waipahu in Tripper's name. the Legislature to consider and find ways and means of getting the present postoffice building turned over to the City and County if surrendered by the Federal authorities, said it had made the discovery that the building is in the center of the city; also that the building "would make an ideal site for a municipal building." So far as getting the building is concerned, the committee solved that problem by passing the buck to the Governor, recommending that he take the necessary steps.

Woman's Suffrage Squelched.

No woman's suffrage this session, said the Miscellaneous Committee in its report on the resolution introduced Saturday. "While fully realizing the high intelligence of the women of Hawaii your committee has failed to discover any marked demand for franchise on their part. Your committee also thinks that the consideration of such a radical departure as that recommended in this resolution demands more time than the period between the introduction of this resolution and the adjournment of the Legislature, and therefore recommend that it be tabled."

"I think this is the best report the Miscellaneous Committee has made," said Kawewehi. "I move it be adopted." It was.

Decently Buried.

There were two Senate bills remaining on the Clerk's desk which had not yet passed second reading. In order to give them decent burial instead of leaving them lying there to die a lingering death, Rice moved they be tabled. This course was taken. The bills were the school medical inspection bill and Senate Bill 146.

No More Hieroglyphics.

The experience the House has had since the resignation of Jimmie Lloyd in conducting its business without the aid of a stenographer, has convinced the members that there is no necessity for such an office. The Rules Committee, therefore, submitted a report in which it said: "After due and careful consideration of the present rules, your committee finds that with the experience had thus far since the resignation of the House stenographer, the duties of that officer have been and are being satisfactorily performed by the House Clerk, and we see no necessity in retaining a position for such officer in the rules."

The recommendation that that part of the rules relating to the stenographer be eliminated was adopted.

Two Bills Passed.

Senate Bill 152, making an additional appropriation of $2000 for the Second Circuit Court, Maui, for the current period, passed its third reading.

Senate Bill 153, relating to the dissolution of corporations, and providing that all claims against dissolving corporations not presented within 90 days of the time notice of dissolution is given, shall be forever barred, passed its final reading.

find that the husband whom she had supposed true and loyal to her had become infatuated with another woman named Adele Hackedorn, with whom he was living at Waiwala illegally, and with whom, he admitted to his wife, he had had improper relations. He even went so far as to tell his wife that he wanted to get rid of her so he could marry Adele. This, Mrs. Kellogg considers, constitutes extreme cruelty, and she is ready to let him go his own way.

The unhappy couple were married in Los Angeles in 1884, and they have a daughter, Ruth, who is 21 years old. Mrs. Kellogg has been travelling on the mainland part of the time recently and part of the time living at Los Angeles with her daughter, who was attending school there. All this time she was supported by her husband.

know what his sentiments were in the matter.

President Smith urged that the resolution pass, calling attention to the fact that the Legislature would have no opportunity to make any recommendations to Congress until 1911, and that before that time the bill would doubtless be acted upon. He stated that, without any recommendation from the Legislature at hand, Congress could not be blamed for making all sorts of amendments to the Organic Act and that, when all is said and done, the United States lawmakers have authority to do with the law about as they see fit.

Fairchild called attention to the fact that the bill had the approval of the Governor, the Delegate to Congress, and the House of Representatives of the Territorial Legislature, and that the Senate could not go wrong in adding its support thereto. He said that he, for one, was willing to pay some attention to the decision of those who had made a careful study of the subjects embodied in the bill.

McCarthy expressed the belief that the bill in general was an excellent one, but he did not quite approve of the section relating to amendment of the land laws. He expressed a belief that, between the land-law provisions of the bill as it stood, and the resolution introduced a few days ago by himself it would be possible to arrive at a compromise that would be satisfactory to most people and to the best interests of the Territory.

Coebo said he had no proof that the bill in question did meet with the approval of Kuhio. He said that one man had told him such was the case, but that man had lied to him on one occasion, he would not believe him in this instance.

He then talked a whole lot about being loyal to Kuhio, and insisted that nothing should be done which could be construed as expressing a lack of confidence in the Delegate to Congress.

Fairchild said he was as loyal to the Delegate as was the Senator from Maui, but that he did not have to make so much noise in protesting his loyalty.

Moore asked that the Governor point out the provisions in the bill which did not meet with his approval.

Governor Frear said that they were only in minor cases, instancing among others the fact that no provision had been made for the removal of Territorial officers without the consent of the Senate.

McCarthy had moved that the resolution pass, after Section 5, relating to the amendment of the land law had been stricken out. Coebo offered to withdraw his motion and to support that of McCarthy.

The Committee of the Whole then arose and reported in favor of the resolution, with McCarthy's amendment.

When it came to adopting the report of the Committee of the Whole, the whole fight was started going again. Makekau, who occupied the chair, announced that there were two motions before the House, one to adopt the resolution in toto, and the other to strike out all reference to land laws.

In vain President Smith pointed out that the latter motion would leave Congress without any recommendation from the Legislature in regard to land law amendments. By a vote of 9 to 5 the report, as recommended by Senator McCarthy, was adopted. The vote was as follows:

Ayes—Brown, Coebo, Harvey, Makekau, McCarthy, Moore, Quinn, Robinson, and Woods. Nays—Baker, Chillingworth, Fairchild, Kalama, Knudsen, and the President.

House Joint Resolution No. 16, authorizing the changing of the name of a public park at Hilo to Kauikaeouli Park, in honor of Kamehameha III, was adopted without any opposition.

House Bill No. 235, providing for the payment of taxes on land taken by the Government for private purposes, passed third reading, only Baker and Hgvery voting "no."

Governor's Message No. 2, relative to appointments, was then taken up. Senator Fairchild stated that the positions of Commissioner of Public Lands and Surveyor General had been eliminated, so the appointments to those offices were not considered. The appointment of Mrs. Wilcox as Commissioner of Public Education was confirmed. Judge Perry's appointment to the same office was not acted upon, word having been received that the appointee had been named as Associate Justice of the Supreme bench.

Word was received to the effect that the Governor had signed the following bills:

House Bill No. 122, Act 128, entitled "An Act to Amend Section 29 of Act 118 of the Session Laws of 1907."

House Bill No. 225, Act 129, entitled "An Act to Amend Section 1266 of the Revised Laws as Amended Relating to Tax Liens."

Senate Bill No. 85, Act 130, entitled "An Act to Amend Section 78 of Act 118 of the Session Laws of 1907, entitled 'An Act Incorporating the City and County of Honolulu.'"

Senate Bill No. 147, Act 131, entitled "An Act to Amend Sections 1155 and 1157 of the Revised Laws Relating to Records of Births, Deaths, and Marriages."

House Bill No. 232, Act 132, entitled "An Act to Amend Section 1136 of the Revised Laws Relating to the Carrying of Persons Suffering from Contagious or Infectious Diseases or Leprosy in Steam Coasting Vessels."

Senate Bill No. 86, Act 133, entitled "An Act to Amend Section 1969 of Chapter 89 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii Relating to Medicine and Surgery."

Gustave Pabst, the famous brewer, recently offered a prize for the best letter on the subject of Temperance or Prohibition, specifying that the letter was to be in answer to the articles published in the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE written by himself and the Rev. Alexander Alison; and that the prize would be awarded for the best brief, logical statement, whether it sustained the side of Mr. Pabst or the Rev. Dr. Alison.

The prize-winning letter, selected from among thousands by a committee consisting of Messrs. Nathan Straus and Arthur Brisbane, was written by the mother of five boys and sustained Mr. Pabst's arguments in favor of temperance and against prohibition.

That the youth of the land should be trained to rely upon their strength of character and not be put into a straight-jacket to make up for their lack of character was the substance of her argument.

What Honolulu needs in improved steamship service is more first-class local passenger steamers. These will not come and cannot be obtained if the people of the town keep up a knocking campaign against American shipping. Far better is it to "boost" for Hawaii and secure the investment of more local capital for the upbuilding of passenger accommodations on lines that are carrying Hawaii's freight.

The Grand Jury did what might be expected in the Cathcart case.

If Governor Frear has any appreciation of men who have served the Administration loyally, he will name J. W. Pratt as Treasurer.

After a prolonged nocturnal search through a six-bit atlas, the fat-jowled polyglot has discovered the interpretation of Sheikh-ul-Islam. He could learn much of civic decency from the same source.

Great Britain will learn one thing from the Australian newspapermen if it has not been already impressed. The newspapers stand united for a "white Australia," though they may disagree on how the white men should run the country.

When the expenses of the Territory under the present appropriation bill are within the income, there is no reason why the Governor should find fault. It will be the first experience of a Territorial executive with an appropriation law that does not require legislative functions on his part.

The man who bought a through ticket but could not get a through berth can't find any great improvement for Honolulu passengers through the suspension of the coastwise shipping law. His complaint is with the through-line policies and the suspension of all the coastwise laws in the country would not change them. What will correct the Honolulu service and give the people proper accommodation is more local steamers carrying passengers. Then the man who comes to Honolulu can plan his round trip with absolute confidence that he will get on the steamer for which he is booked. Anyway it is better to boost for an American Honolulu and American shipping line than to be forever nagging with half truths and destructive criticism.

THE NEW JUDGES.

President Taft's appointment of Judge Woodruff for second United States District Judge in this Territory does not come as a surprise to those having a knowledge of what was going on in Washington and in the Capitol building.

It has been known for many weeks that Mr. Woodruff was slated for the Federal judgeship. This is the man whose name was on the tongue of Mr. Carter when he was asked by the Bulletin if he knew who was likely to be named as judge. Carter refused to say.

The most extraordinary feature of the preliminaries, however, was the straight denial made by Governor Frear to the question of the Bulletin reporter. The Governor said he did not know the man the President had in mind. All of which has a bearing on the reliability of information given for publication in what should be reliable sources.

This, however, is merely a side-light. The main proposition is whether the people of Hawaii should be satisfied with the appointment.

The Bulletin believes they should be very much pleased with the selection the President has made. This paper does not now and hopes it may never be moved to sympathize with the little coterie of selfish manipulators and local office-seekers who raise the cry of "carpetbagger" against any American citizen of the mainland appointed to office in the Territory.

This cry was started locally by the organ of prejudice and un-Americanisms, and it is known that the voice was stifled in this case only when some weeks ago the gang discovered that President Taft intended to name Mr. Woodruff anyway. Hence any further criticism of the so-called "carpetbagger" would merely antagonize the President.

We have no doubt that the whole "carpetbagger" sentiment as it finds expression in this Territory is distasteful to the President.

Mr. Woodruff is a man whose previous official associations should particularly equip him for the unofficial responsibilities that may devolve upon him as the representative of the Administration in this Territory. He has a splendid official record behind him and he comes to his new duties absolutely free from any of the local alliances that so often make for government of, by, and for favorites in this Territory.

He is not a pensioner and so far as known he has no cousins and relatives who are likely to call on him and discuss the policies of his decisions before they are rendered.

Mr. Woodruff can exert a great influence for good in this Territory and this paper will be keenly disappointed if he falls short of sterling American expectations.

The return of Antonio Perry to the Supreme bench is undoubtedly highly pleasing to Governor Frear and Chief Justice Hartwell. With Mr. Perry as the second member of the majority of two there will be none of the "terences of opinion" that were feared by those who objected to De Bolt because he has shown a spirit of independence, as well as a knowledge of the law. There may be some further travesties on justice come from the Supreme Court, but Judge Perry, having had the experience with going too far, will probably profit by it. Mr. Perry is naturally of the monarchical turn of mind in dealing with advanced American ideals, but he has the commendable quality of speaking his mind openly.

Mr. Whitney's appointment to the Circuit bench is accepted as a foregone conclusion. So far as we know he was the only candidate, and his special interest in the treatment of the juveniles in the courts of justice will open up a new field for which Mr. Whitney is very well equipped.

Unless we are very much mistaken, the moral influence of the new Federal Judge will be as potent in its bearing on the future history of this Territory as his decisions from the bench.

Father Sherman With California in Anti-Japanese Agitation—Son of Famous American General

SANTA CLARA, Cal., March 26. "I am with California heart and soul in her anti-Japanese agitation," declared Father Thomas Ewing Sherman, S. J., son of the famous General W. T. Sherman, when interviewed today at Santa Clara College, where he was visiting. "I am with California, for the right of family and the State in such matters is far above that of the Nation, and I sincerely hope and trust that the Asiatics will be kept from our shores."

Father Sherman is a Jesuit missionary. He is 50 years of age and did not see a great deal of the Civil War, although he was with his father at Vicksburg and Memphis. President Taft was a schoolmate of Father Sherman.

"Taft is the right man in the right place," he said; "he is a man, every inch of him. John Hays Hammond introduced me to him when Taft entered college, saying, 'He's a bully good chap.' I found that he was. President Taft is a judicious man, and has had plenty of experience."

PROPOSES AN INCOME TAX

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15. In the Senate today Senator Bailey introduced an income tax amendment to the tariff bill. It provides for a straight tax of 3 per cent. on all incomes above $5000 a year. It exempts all incomes from Federal, State, county, and municipal securities, salaries of all State officers, and incomes of corporations below $5000. The former law on this subject provided for a tax of 2 per cent. on incomes of $400 and upward.

Senator Bailey does not attempt to avoid the Constitutional questions, and in effect challenges them. He estimates that if this amendment becomes a law it will raise about $100,000,000 annually. Bailey said he had introduced the amendment so far in advance of its consideration because he wished every Senator to have a full opportunity to consider it and to suggest any additional amendment deemed proper.

"I have," said Bailey, "responded to the unanimous decision of the Supreme Court of the United States that Congress has no power to levy an income tax on State, county, and municipal securities, and I have specifically exempted incomes derived from that source."

In other respects, he said, the amendment still challenges that decision of the Supreme Court. He was satisfied his amendment was not in contravention of the Constitution. He believed a majority of the court erred in that decision.

TWO KAUAI SUICIDES

Lihue, April 24.—There were two suicides this week at Kekaha. The first was a Japanese named Shimotori Tekujio, a ditch man employed on the Kekaha ditch. Deputy-Sheriff Crowell assembled a coroner's jury, who verdict was that the man's death was "from hemorrhage and shock, the result of a wound caused by the exposure of some giant powder placed near the body, the wound being self-inflicted." The reasons for the man's action seemed to be financial trouble. He left no family.

The other man was also an employee of the Kekaha Sugar Company, who killed himself with a shotgun, evidently in a fit of despondency caused by his losses at the gambling table. He leaves a widow and children.—Garden Island.

VISITING NEWS MEN ENJOYED HONOLULU

Learned of London Program First Time From Bulletin

"None of us knew of the program of entertainment mapped out for us in London until we read it in the Evening Bulletin of this city," said one of the newspapermen of the Colonies who passed through yesterday on their way to the conference of the newspaper editors and proprietors of the Empire.

As a matter of fact, there was very little talk among the travelers as to what they are going for. They are awaiting developments, satisfied, of course, that the primary purpose of the assembly is to strengthen the bonds of fraternity between the Mother Country and her colonies, and gaining a better understanding of the policies of the home government.

The visiting newspaper people were a thoroughly representative party, coming from all parts of Australia and New Zealand. They were very enthusiastic in their praise of the city of Honolulu, and quite a number of them will return this way.

As soon as the party had finished lunch on board the Marama they were taken in charge by Mr. Bowen and Mr. Cooper of the Promotion Committee and the local newspapermen they had called to assist them in the entertainment. Autos were provided and after brief stops at the bank and the postoffice the trip to the Pail was made, and fortunately the weather cleared up just in time to give a splendid view. From here one auto went to Moanalua and thence on to the cane fields of Honolulu plantation while the others, whose passengers wished to get a glimpse of the Legislature, went to the Capitol. Both Houses had adjourned, but the visitors went through the historic building, and secured a few moments with the Governor.

Governor Frear was taken quite unawares and met the guests in his shirt sleeves, as he had been getting down to hard business on the bills to be acted on before the Legislature adjourns. "It was most extraordinary to meet the Executive in his shirt sleeves, but I rather liked it, you know," commented one of the Australians. Hawaii's Governor impressed them favorably.

From the Capitol they went to the Aquarium, which came in for its usual measure of praise. Then to the Moana Hotel, where after a surf-ride the party were entertained at dinner by Mr. Cooper.

Two of the visitors, Mr. Brett of the Auckland Star and Mr. Cohen of the Dunedin Star, had passed through Honolulu some twenty years ago and they naturally remarked on the growth of the city and the great improvements to be noted. All praised the streets and enthused over the generally attractive appearance of the business and residential sections of the city.

In the comment on the situation in Australia and New Zealand it was interesting to note the absolute unanimity on the subject of "White Australia." There was no qualification in the opposition to any policy of the mother country that might attempt to reverse the attitude of the Southern Colonies toward Japan and the Orient generally.

Does Your Back Ache?

If you are a woman and you have this symptom get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound without delay. Backache seems an invention of the evil one to try woman's souls. Only those who suffer this way can understand the wearing, ceaseless misery.

We ask all such women to read the two following letters for proof that Mrs. Pinkham's medicine cures backache caused by female diseases.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I have been a great sufferer with a constant pain in my back. I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it, and the pain has disappeared. I feel like a new woman since that awful pain has gone, and may God bless the discoverer of that great and wonderful remedy."—Mrs. Peter Gaffney, 548 Marcey Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world about it."

"I suffered from female troubles and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I am ready to tell every one what this medicine has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Imse, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made thousands of cures of such cases. You notice we say has cured thousands of cases. That means that we are telling you what it has done, not what we think it will do. We are stating facts, not guesses.

We challenge the world to name another remedy for female ills which has been so successful or received so many testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

HOUSE

59th Day—Afternoon Session

It's all over but the shouting. The captains and the hosts depart tonight, for at 12 o'clock midnight the Legislature of 1909 will adjourn sine die, leaving behind it a record better than that of its predecessors, even though there is still much room for improvement.

The loose ends were gathered up yesterday afternoon in the House and the work of the session concluded, with the exception of a few possible disagreements with the Senate over certain measures, which will have to be patched today, and the consideration of possible vetoes yet to come from the Governor. There was only one thing yesterday that everybody was anxiously waiting for—the Governor's action on the Appropriation Bill. It was known downstairs that His Excellency was working in his private office over the Appropriation Bill; that he had his coat off and his sleeves up, and the general suspicion was that he was not doing a thing to the bill but using the blue pencil on it. All sorts of conferences were going on between the Governor and the financiers of the Territory and of the Legislature, and it will not be surprising if, when the bill comes back to the Legislature, it looks like the proof of a gallery of type set up by the "devil" in a country newspaper office after the proofreader gets through with it.

The expected and inevitable "manuwa" resolutions were brought in yesterday afternoon. There seems to be the notion at every session of the Legislature that the overpaid and underworked officers of the House ought to be given a nice little lump of spending money at the end of the session to pay them for their strenuous labors.

Nawahine it was who sprung the resolutions yesterday, introducing two carrying an aggregate of $150 for manuwa. The sergeant-at-arms, whose principal duties have consisted in filling the Speaker's rose-jar with flowers about once a week, distributing bills once or twice a day, carrying an occasional message, fetching the Speaker's cough medicine and cigarettes—all for the miserable pittance of $10 a day. Surely he ought to get the extra $50 that Nawahine proposes to give him.

And the janitor—why, he gets only $200 for the session, and he has to sweep out the legislative hall once a day. Of course, the House might have got a Japanese to do the job for $20 a month, but a Japanese has no vote, so such a thing would be unthinkable. The fact that the janitor's chief labors have consisted in warming a chair most of the day is surely no reason why he shouldn't receive the $20 extra pay it is proposed to give him.

The messenger, too, comes in for $20 manuwa. In Nawahine's resolution goes through. In view of the fact that it took such hard work to persuade Mr. Apao to accept the responsible position, and that he finally sacrificed himself on the altar of patriotism and consented to serve his country, the House should have no hesitation in making him a farewell present of twenty simoleons.

The interpreter comes in for $60, according to the terms of the resolution. He is the one who is probably most entitled to it, for he really has done extra work, and, besides, his labors have been the most arduous of anybody's. The House talks all the time, and everything the honorable and eloquent members say he has to translate, so none of their words of wisdom will be lost.

The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Public Expenditures and Accounts.

Somnolent Session

The session was a sleepy one. Two honorable members slept serenely, and several times the Speaker was obliged to send the sergeant-at-arms to arouse Hihio, who was sleeping audibly.

On recommendation of the Health and Police Committee, Senate Bill 141, providing for the assessment of property benefited by the Honolulu sewer system, was tabled. No explanation was made.

A resolution was introduced by Makioka, and adopted by the House, that the Printing Committee be authorized to order the printing and binding of 300 pamphlets containing the proceedings in connection with the address last Monday of Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, the address to be translated into Hawaiian.

The Health and Police Committee rendered its final report on the several public health institutions which it has visited. The report in part says:

Your Health and Police Committee has made its accustomed inspection of the several institutions of this Territory where the public health is concerned and which come under its sphere of investigation. It has visited the following places:

The Kailhi Receiving Station. — This place needs attention in the matter of improvements but they have already been provided for in Act 81 that has been passed by this Legislature.

Your committee, in order to satisfy itself as to the respective merits of the several courses of treatment now under way, and in which the general public is deeply interested, visited the station on two separate occasions, once on the 6th of last month and again on the 23d of this month.

It has made inquiries of the patients themselves and from its observations on the second visit is satisfied that the patients undergoing the Chinoga treatment by Dr. Brinckerhoff and also the patient under Dr. Wayson's treatment, show some improvement. With regard to the others under Dr. Atcherley we could not notice any change in the condition. It must, however, be admitted that the time between the two visits is too short for your committee to come to a positive decision.

The Insane Asylum.—There are two matters that need the attention of the Board of Health: One is to provide white nurses for white women, and the other is to remove the watchman's bell, which tolls out the hours of the night, to some place where it will not disturb the sleep of the patients.

Some comment has gone abroad with regard to the custom of allowing the men employed by the Board to use the Government fumigating apparatus for disinfecting purposes which do not come under the duties of the Board of Health, and making their own charges for the work independent of the Board. Your committee finds that these men worked in their own time, after-hours, and on Sundays, fumigating places where glanders had appeared, and ridding other places of fleas and bedbugs, and that they used their own material for the purpose. Although we do not see anything actually wrong in the matter, yet have suggested to the President of the Board a discontinuance of the custom so far as the men working under it are concerned.

KUHIO AND HIS PLANS

Delegate Kuhio is not on board the Alameda, which arrives here Friday. He is at the Hotel Stewart in San Francisco.

John Colburn is the authority for this, but Colburn does not know anything about Kuhio's candidacy for the Governorship.

Despite all the denials and the suppositions the story will not down that Delegate Kuhio is to be named as the Governor of the Territory when Judge Dole retires from the Federal bench and Governor Frear goes over to the Judiciary building again. It is asserted that Judge Dole would much prefer being off the bench than on it, and his extended vacation is accepted by those claiming to be informed as the signal that he will retire on his laurels if Frear can be named in his place, although Hartwell would like very much to be the Federal Judge.

GOVERNOR'S VETO

the administration desires. Financial safety and stability seem to require that the amount appropriated in the bill in question should be reduced to an appreciable extent—at least in order to justify turning over to the Counties considerable additional revenue. It is difficult to determine which items may best be dispensed with and I have concluded to veto those mentioned only after most careful consideration and in some cases with great regret that financial conditions oblige me to take this step.

The item for the salary of the Deputy High Sheriff and clerk may well be omitted on its own merits as being unnecessary now that the duties of the High Sheriff have been greatly reduced by the transfer of jails and misdemeanant prisoners to the care of the Counties and in view of the proposed policy of relieving him for the most part of the duty of serving process for the courts by leaving that duty to the County Sheriffs, where it more properly belongs.

In the Treasury Department, the item for the salary of the bookkeeper

CHRONIC CATARRH RELIEVED BY PE-RU-NA.

MRS. F. CARR.

MRS. F. CARR, Vineland, Ont., Can., writes:

"For several years I was afflicted with catarrh, which made life a burden. The coughing and hacking which accompanied the disease was terrible.

"The complaint finally extended to the stomach and I was in a wretched condition.

"I tried different remedies and the best professional treatment all in vain.

"Finally, as a last resort, I tried Pe-ru-na upon the recommendation of my sister in Hamilton.

"I could see steady improvement and after using four bottles of that precious medicine I was feeling well again, my old trouble being completely a thing of the past.

"To-day I would not take one thousand dollars for what this grand medicine has done for me."

Pe-ru-na is a universally recognized catarrh remedy. It will relieve catarrh in its most obstinate form.

er and deputy insurance commissioner is the only one that can safely be dispensed with under the wording of the appropriation bill.

Under the Bureau of Taxes, Third Taxation Division, there is no occasion for the separate item for the salary of the clerk and interpreter. That division may well be placed on the same status in this respect as the other divisions.

Under the Public Works Department, the items for landings at Mahukona and Hanalei are somewhat exceptional in this appropriation bill and might better, in view of the financial situation, have been put in a loan bill. They are less needed than landings at some other points. There seems to be no urgent reason for selecting these two places in particular. Other equally or more important items remain unprovided for through the failure of the loan bill.

Under the Board of Health, the policy has been adopted by the legislature of turning over hospitals to the counties and there appears to be no sufficient reason why the hospitals at Waiuku and Hilo should not be so turned over at the beginning of the period as well as six months later. There will be ample time to make the necessary arrangements.

Much can be said against dispensing with the item for the Queen's Hospital, and it is with great reluctance that I veto this; but if the Territorial expenditures are to be kept within the revenues, it is necessary to omit some items and this is one of those which may most appropriately be omitted,—not indeed with the idea that that hospital should cease receiving government aid, but with the idea that the City and County of Honolulu should furnish such aid. The additional revenue which that city and county will receive during the next biennial period in excess of what it has received during the current period will far exceed the amount of its increased expenditures, including this item, occasioned by laws passed at the present session, and that city and county is in a far better financial situation to extend this aid than is the Territory.

Under the Judiciary Department, the item which may best be dispensed with is that for the salaries of three clerks to assist in the court room and clerks' office in the first circuit court. There is indeed no necessity for this item. Although there is less business in that court now than there was for some years recently, this legislature has in the bill now in question given that court one additional clerk for the clerk's office and has increased the salaries of three of its interpreters. This additional clerk and the five interpreters, who have much spare time, may easily render the services intended to be performed by these three assistant clerks, whose duties are intended to be mainly those of bailiffs, but if not, additional assistance may be furnished by the City and County of Honolulu, one of the duties of whose sheriff is, by express provision in the City and County Act, to attend the circuit court.

The item for the salary of the Assistant Clerk of the Fourth Circuit Court may also be dispensed with without crippling the work of that court. The question is not what is desired, but what is necessary in view of the financial conditions.

Treasurer Is Not Yet Settled On

Governor Frear this morning made the positive statement that he had not arrived at any decision with regard to the appointment of a successor to Treasurer Campbell, who failed for confirmation at the hands of the Senate. "Will you send down the name of a Treasurer this afternoon?" was the direct question put to the Governor. "I shall do so if I am able to arrive at a decision in the matter."

"Then you have not decided upon a successor to Treasurer Campbell?"

"I have not."

The Governor did not volunteer any further information on the subject.

Governor Frear will send down the Appropriation bill the first thing this afternoon. Just what change he has made in it, will of course not be known until the accompanying message is read, but it is understood that several items have been vetoed. The rumor that His Excellency would "pocket veto" the entire bill was set at rest this morning by the statement of the Governor that he would not do so, and that he was preparing to send the bill, with his message, down to the Legislature.

Bowling
RowingFlight Game Is Looking Up
Lately

As soon as the theatrical shows are paid there will be a revival of the good old game of "stoush," which is in queer street just now owing to there being no available hall for the men to cross hands in. Just as likely as not a big boxing tournament will be brought off in the near future. A well-known sport is looking into the possibilities of the "game," and as there is plenty of local talent simply longing to have a go at one another, no doubt we will be treated to some fine bouts before long.

When the fans think of the class of boxing put up during the past few months, they must wish to once more have the pleasure of watching "Ironman" McCullough, and others of that ilk step into the ring, and proceed to reach for the other fellow's point. And Nelson, the Marine, is another lad who would be delighted to have a turn at anybody about his own weight; the tall young fellow is never so happy as when he is toe to toe with another scrapper who will stand up and deal out rights and lefts in good style.

If a location can be secured some real good scraps will be pulled off sure, and the local fans will attend in a body, to say nothing of the visitors from the Orient who are at present in town. Some of the recent arrivals from China and Japan are always inquiring as to the prospect of seeing a real good fight, and it seems a pity they were not here a few weeks ago when the game was in full swing.

However, things will be booming before long in the good old game, and the usual bunch of leading members of society will be seen wending their way to the scene of operations.

Big Baseball
Score On Kauai

A game of baseball was played on the Kalahao grounds between the Kapalas and the Hanapepes last Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The game was very interesting up to the sixth inning, the score being three even, but when the seventh and eighth innings came, it was a balloon ascension. Ah Toi went up in the air, allowing everyone to make hits. In the last of the eighth, when the Kapalas had to their credit 23 runs, it was the skidoo sign for the Hanapepes, who gave up all hope of catching up, and the game was ended then.

Marines Play
Shafter At Aala Park

The Military Baseball League series will be continued this afternoon at Aala Park, when the Marines and Fort Shafter will try conclusions on the diamond. Both games promise to be close and exciting ones, and it is hard to say which team will win. The Fort Shafter boys were beaten on Sunday last by the Lellehus bunch, and the Marines went down in defeat to the N. G. H.; now the two defeated teams meet, and it sure is going to be a tough struggle.

For the Marines, Anderson and Hines will form the battery, and the pair are very strong players, too. Anderson, who got hurt in the game against the Guards on Sunday, is all right again, and his services will make a great difference to the strength of the team. Hines, who did well in the last game, is also feeling good, and if he repeats his act of sending the first three men up to bat to the benches without a hit he will make the Shafter lads wonder what they are up against.

Moran and Bateman will do the attacking for the Shafter team, and in a case of need Ramsey probably will lend a hand at twirling. McCall is sure to play a good game, as he is always on the job and a trier from 'way-back. This game will give a line on the strength of the various teams, and it will be interesting to make comparisons as to how the N. G. H. and the "Fighting Fifth" will stack up against one another on Sunday next at Schofield barracks.

The greatest interest is being taken in the Military League play, and large crowds are sure to attend every game in the series. Judging from the big bunch of spectators who attended the first game on the League grounds, it possibly would be a paying proposition to play more of the games there. Of course, traveling expenses must be taken into consideration, but that matter should easily be arranged by the powers that be.

The line-up of both teams will be the same as on Sunday last, and as the men have had a taste of the real thing in playing before a big crowd, there will be no stage-fright about the bunch. The line-up of the teams is as follows:

Fort Shafter — Moran, p; McCall, ss; Lemon, 2b; Bateman, c; Kistler, cf; Durant, 3b; Gongol, rf; Ellis, 1b; Glenn, lf.

U. S. M. C. — Thompson, rf; Hayes, cf; Williams, 1b; Gaw, ss; Call, 3b; R. Davis, 2b; Gibson, lf; Anderson, c; Hines, p.

The game will start at 2:15 and if the rain hangs off a fine afternoon's sport will eventuate.

At Makiki
To-day

There will be a game of cricket on the Makiki grounds this afternoon between the Honolulu club and a team from the Pollard company. The match, which will begin at 2 o'clock, should be a very interesting one, as the Australians will make the local players do their best to win. Only one inning will be played, but that should be quite sufficient to decide which team is the better. Alfred Goulding is reported to be a fine bat and a fair bowler, and although he never played for Australia against All-England, he has at least put in a day on the Sydney cricket ground watching Noble and the other stars perform.

The Pollards will be represented by Ernest Chester, Willie Pollard, Jack Pollard, Fred. Bindloss, Teddie McNamara, Frank Cherry, Alfred Goulding, Harold Frazer, Geo. Chester, and Leslie Donaghey. The locals will put the following men in the field to oppose the theatricals: R. J. Buchly, H. Bailey, S. Beardmore, D. L. Withington, F. Withington, J. H. Fiddes, C. F. Maxwell, J. Podmore, C. J. Egan, Dr. Pottie, and Messrs. Walker and McGill. All these players are requested to turn out on time, and a start will be made as soon as possible. If it rains, the match will be put off till some future date.

Tennis Events
Are Fixed For August

At the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Tennis Association, which was held yesterday afternoon at the club-rooms, the old officers were re-elected, viz.: President, C. G. Beckus and Secretary-Treasurer, R. A. Cooke. It was decided to start the annual championship tournament on the third Wednesday in August, and a fine program has been arranged by the committee. There will be men's singles and doubles, ladies' singles and doubles, and mixed doubles played off.

Ewa club was represented by Messrs. McKeever, Greenfield, and MacCall; Pacific Club by R. A. Cooke and F. E. Steere, and the Beretania club by A. C. Wall, R. B. Booth and C. G. Beckus. Puunene and the clubs were represented by proxies.

The prospects of the tournament look very bright, and no doubt some players from the other islands will enter for and play in the open events. Puunene has a strong bunch of players and if their best men can get down for the tournament there will be something doing before the championships are decided.

School Series
Of Baseball
Continued

Oahu College and High School will meet on the Alexander Field this afternoon to play off their postponed game from last Saturday, when the rain caused the game to be called off. The inter-scholastic series is in full swing now, and some fine ball is being played by the boys. The game put up by High School till the time play had to be abandoned was a rattling good one, and it is hard to say how the match would have panned out if played to a finish.

This afternoon's game will start at 3 o'clock, and no doubt will be attended by a large number of the students and their friends. The other postponed game between the Kama and St. Louis will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Kam diamond. The postponed games are being played on off-days so as not to interfere with the regular series of games.

BOSTON BOYS OBSTREPEROUS. Columbus, O., April 10. — The Boston American League players, who left here today, were not the most strict observers of discipline. Jack Thielman refused yesterday to put on a uniform and the team left for the grounds without him. The party has several other obstreperous members.

REMARKABLE

"My wife is having a hard time of it during Lent," says the man with the rambling whiskers. "She is trying to go without candy, and it is really a great trial to her." "Well," says the man with the wilted eyebrows, "my daughter is certainly making a record. She isn't eating a bit of meat—not even fish and eggs." "You don't say?" "Fact; and she doesn't eat any candy, nor does she go to the theater." "Well, well!" "And, more than that, she hasn't played a single hand of bridge." "You don't tell me? How about dancing?" "She hasn't danced a step during Lent." "She certainly is a remarkably earnest girl. You seldom see one who is so firm in her resolutions. How old is she?" "Three months and ten days old." — Chicago Post.

A low, discordant sound of laughter arrested his words, and, turning, he beheld Necla standing revealed in the dimness.

"What an amusing person you are!" she said. "I've had hard work holding in all this time while you were torturing your mind and twisting the honest English language out of shape and meaning. I knew I should have to laugh sooner or later. That's your Dixie civility, I suppose. Well, I've played with you long enough, Lieutenant Burrell. I'm tired of the game, and you interest me no longer."

"You—yes—you've been playing with me!" stammered the man. The bottom of things seemed suddenly to slide from under him. He was like one sinking in some hideous quagmire. He felt as if he were choking.

"Why, of course," she cried scornfully. "Just as you took me up for amusement. You were such a fine, well-dressed, immaculate mound of conceit that I couldn't resist the temptation, and you hid your condescension so poorly that I thought you ought to be taken down a peg. I knew I was a squaw, but I wanted to see if I were not like other women, after all, and if you were not like other men." She was talking rapidly now, almost shrilly, for she had never attempted to act before, while he stood dazed and speechless, fumbling at his throat while she rattled at him. "You needn't waste time debating whether I'm good enough for you, because I'm not—decidedly I'm not your kind, and you are a joke to me."

He uttered an inarticulate cry, but she ran on unheeding, her eyes wide and glowing like coals, her lips chafing white. "You see, it's time I stopped such foolishness anyhow, for I'm to be married on Sunday."

"You are going to be married?" he stammered laboriously.

"Yes, to Poleon. Why, that's been understood for years."

He whirled upon the Canadian in a fury, and his words came hot and tumbling.

"Don't blame him!" cried the girl hysterically. "It is all my doing. He had no part in it."

"Yes," said Doret in a restrained voice, "his ain't no work of mine."

"You're a liar!" breathed the Kentuckian, now fairly wild with anger, but the other looked him squarely between the eyes and made no move.

"Mileu," he cried, "I'm livin' forty year an' never took no nam' lak dat before, but dere's reason here w'y I can't mak' no answer."

"Why, you aren't really angry, Lieutenant," mocked Necla. "It's only the joke of an ignorant half-breed girl whose sense of humor is all out of gear. You mustn't quarrel over a squaw!"

She taunted him like a baited badger, for this thing was getting beyond her control, and the savage instincts of the wilderness were uppermost.

"You are quite right," he replied. "I am very foolish, and the laugh is with you." His lips tried to frame a smile, but failed. He bowed low and, turning, walked out.

The moment he was gone she cried breathlessly:

"You must marry me, Poleon. You've got to do it now!"

"Do you mean dat for sure?" he said.

"Can't you see there's nothing else for it after this? I'll show him that he can't make me a toy to suit his convenience. I've told him I would marry you on Sunday, and I'll do it or die. Of course you don't love me, for you don't know what love is, I suppose. How could you?" She broke down and began to catch her breath amid coughing sobs that shook her slender body, though they left her eyes dry and feverish. "I—I'm very unhappy, but I'll be a good—wife to you. Oh, Poleon, if you only knew!"

He drew a long breath. When he spoke his voice had the timbre of some softly played instrument, and a tremor ran through his words.

"No! I don't know w'at kin' of love is dis, for sure. De kin' of love I know is de kin' I sing 'bout in my songs. I s'pose it's different breed to yours, an' I'm begin to see it don't live nowhere but on dem songs of mine. Dere's long tam' I waste here now—five year—but tomorrow I go again lookin' for my own country."

"Poleon," she cried, looking up with startled eyes, "not tomorrow, but Sunday! We will go together."

He shook his head. "Tomorrow, Necla! An' I go alone."

"Then you won't marry me?" she asked in a husky and frightened voice.

"No! Dere's wan t'ing I can't do even for you, Necla; dere's wan t'ing I can't geeve, dat's all—jus' wan on all de worl'. I can't kill de lit' god wit' de bow an' arrow. He's all dat mak' de sun shine, de birds sing an' de leaves w'aper to me; he's de wan lit' feller w'at mak' my life wort' livin' an' keep music in my soul. If I keel 'im dere ain't no more lef' lak it, an' I'm never gwin' 'fin' my lan' of content nor sing nor laugh no more. I'm t'inkin' I would rader sing songs to 'im all alone undereat' de stars beside my campfire an' talk wit' 'im in my dark canoe dan go livin' wit' you in fine house an' let 'im get col' an' die."

"But I told him I'd marry you—that I had always intended to. He'll believe I was lying," she moaned in distress.

"Dat's too bad, but dis t'ing ain't no doin's wit' me. Dere's wan t'ing in dis worl' mus' live forever, an' dat's love. If we kill 'im den it's purty poor place for stoppin' in. I'm cut off my lan' for help you, Necla, but I can't be husban' to no woman in fun."

Poleon waited patiently until her paroxysm of sobbing had passed, then gently raised her and led her out through the back door into the summer day, which an hour ago had been so gray and dismal. He followed her with his eyes until she disappeared inside the log house.

"An' dat's de end of it all," he mused. "Five year I've wait—an' jus' for dis."

Meade Burrell never knew how he gained his quarters, but when he had done so he locked his door behind him, then loosed his hold on things material.

He raged about the room like a wild animal and vented his spite on every inanimate thing that lay within reach. As yet his mind grasped but dimly the fact that she was to marry another, but gradually this thought in turn took possession of him. She would be some one else's wife in two days. The thought drove the lover frantic, and he felt that madness lay that way if he dwelt on such fancies for long.

As he grew calmer his reason began to dissect the scene that had taken place in the store, and he wondered whether she had been lying to him, after all. No doubt she had been engaged to the Frenchman and had always planned to wed Poleon, for that was not out of reason. She might even have set out maliciously to

He was struck speechless, for the vision that met his eyes was that which he had seen one blithe spring morning three months before, but tonight there was no shawl to conceal her sweetly rounded neck and shoulders, whose whiteness was startling against the black of the hall-room gown. The slim gold chain hung around her neck, and her hair was piled high, as before. He noted every smallest detail as she stood there waiting for him to speak, forgetful of everything else.

She had put on the gown again to see if perchance there might be some mark of her blood or sweat that had escaped her previous scrutiny, and, as there was no one to observe her, she had attired herself slowly, absorbed in her whimsy. Her wistful beauty dazzled the young man and robbed him of the words he had rehearsed, but as she made to flee from him, with a pitiful gesture, toward her room the fear of losing her aroused him and spurred his wit.

"Don't go away! I have something I must tell you. I've thought it over, and you've got to listen, Necla."

"I am listening," she answered very quietly.

"Understand me, I'm not whining, and I'm willing to take my medicine. I couldn't talk or think very straight this afternoon, but you were wrong."

"Yes, I know now I was wrong. It was most unkindly, wasn't it? But, you see, I am only a little savage."

"I don't mean that, I mean you were wrong when you said I had played with you. In the sight of God, I swear you were mistaken. You have made me love you, Necla. Can't you see?"

She made no sign.

"If you can't, I owe it to you and to myself to set you right. I am not ashamed to acknowledge my love, and even when you are married to Poleon I want you to know that I shall love you always."

Even yet she made no sign. Was he not merely repeating the same empty words with which he had so often beguiled her? There was no word of marriage. He still considered her unworthy, beneath him.

"You do love me, Necla—you do! I see it in your eyes," and he started toward her with open arms, but she shrank away from him.

"No, no! Don't touch me!" she almost screamed.

"My dear one," he breathed, "you must listen to me. You have nothing to fear, for I love you—love you—love you! You were made for me! You'll be my wife. Yes; you'll be married on Sunday, but to me, not to Poleon or any other man!"

Did she hear aright? Was he, her soldier lover, asking her, the Indian girl?

"You do love me, don't you?" he pleaded. But still she could not speak, and he tried to read the answer in her swimming eyes.

"You mean—you want to—marry me?" she murmured at last, hesitating shyly at the word that had come to play so momentous a part in her little world.

"Indeed I do," he declared, with emphasis, "in spite of everything, anything! Nothing else matters. I'll quit the army. I'll give up the service and my people too. I'll put everything back of me, and we'll start out anew—just you and I."

"Wait a moment," she said, retreating a little from his eager, outstretched arms. "Why do you need to do all that?"

"Never mind why. It's as good as done. You wouldn't understand."

"But I think I do understand now. Do I really mean all that to you?"

"Yes, and more!"

"Listen to me," said the girl quietly. "I want you to talk slowly so I may not misunderstand. If you—marry me must you forego all those great things you speak of—your profession, your family, your future?"

"Nonsense!" exclaimed the soldier. "If they don't bother me, Necla, why should you worry?"

"Would you really have to give up your family—your sister? Would those people you are so proud of and who are so proud of you—would they cut you off?"

PRESIDENT TAFT JOINS HIS BROTHER'S LODGE

CINCINNATI, O., April 15.—President Taft is now a member of Kilwinning Lodge of Masons. He was unanimously elected a member at a stated meeting held in the Masonic Temple here last night.

When President Taft was made a "Mason at sight," Feb. 18th, he did not become a member of any lodge and was until last night in the position of a Mason at large. He at that time expressed a desire to affiliate with Kilwinning, of which his father, the late Judge Alphonso Taft, was one of the early members, and of which his brother, Charles P. Taft, is a member. The application came up in the regular order last night.

FRANKLIN "D" TOURING CAR, THE GREATEST OF 5-PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES.

The Value of the Franklin

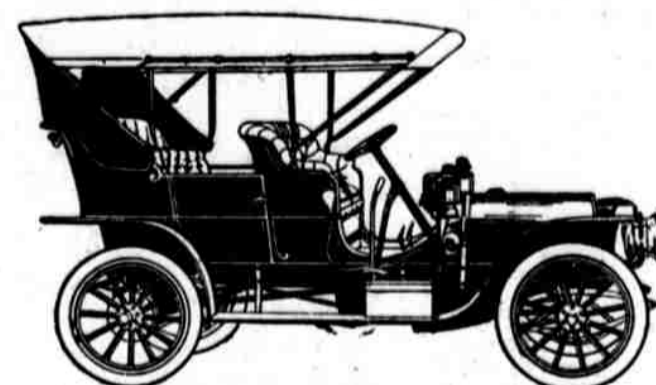

A New York dealer recently offered for sale 1,600 second-hand machines ranging from 20 to 50 horsepower. The automobile listed at the highest price was a 20 horsepower 1906 Franklin—a Type D. And he sold it.

Why do second-hand Franklins bring so much money?

Mainly because Franklins don't wear themselves out. They don't pound the roads like a heavy, half-spring machine. They don't shake themselves to pieces. They are not over-powered.

They have no water-cooling system. That saves weight and trouble. And the air-cooled engine gets more work out of the fuel. And there is the saving of tires.

The operating and depreciation cost of the average heavy 5-passenger, water-cooled machine is usually 50 per cent. more than that of the Franklin Type D—in some cases more.

POLITICS AGAIN THREATEN TROUBLE

Dove of Peace May Yet
Once More Take Flight

The Supervisors held a lively meeting last night, characterized by more or less wrangling. It was apparent that politics still were simmering in the minds of a number of Supervisors.

Supervisor McClellan took a stand defending Paele, while Quinn, chairman of the Road Committee, charged him with recklessly disbursing the appropriation.

County Engineer Gere, who is superintending the construction and repair of the Waihole bridge, denied that the work had already cost the County about $1500. Mayor Fern, who received an itemized statement of the expenditures from Paele, endeavored to present it to the Board, but on motion by Logan it was deferred until a later date.

Logan introduced a resolution providing that a special committee, consisting of the chairmen of all committees, with one other member of the Board to be named by the Mayor, be appointed to consider the question of the advisability of amending the present automobile speed ordinance. The matter was referred to the City and County Attorney.

The Finance Committee, through Logan, its chairman, submitted the following resolution, which was placed on file: "Resolved, That the monthly pro rata allowance for roads and bridges for May and June be reduced in the following amounts for the districts named: $200 for Waihua, $200 for Koolauloa, $200 for Honolulu, $200 for Ewa, $200 for Koolauoko; making $1000 in all."

Mayor Fern stated that under the new law, passed by the present Legislature, he would appoint a plumb-ing inspector under pay, while the Superintendent of Public Works will appoint the same man, to serve without pay. Fern will also appoint a man to look after the use of flare-lights in the harbor at night.

Supervisor Kane introduced a resolution providing that the Supervisors, particularly the country district members, be allowed travelling expenses for the meetings of the Board.

Copy is the substance that gives life to advertising space. The value of the space depends in a large measure on the quality of the copy. Good copy has that intangible something about it that lifts a great picture above the level of a mere painting. The canvas of each may be alike, the colors from the same tubes, laid on by the same brushes, yet the result may have a market value of $100,000 a square foot as a Meissonier, or $5 a square foot as hack work.

We have given the same study to Advertising as the man does who studies Art, or the man who studies Law. We write copy for effect—to effect sales. During the eight years we have been engaged solely in the advertising business we have secured excellent results for many of our clients to whom we will be pleased to refer you.
