It requires but a small thing to put the average man or woman on a "frying pan." The loss of a good clerk, a good customer, a good tenant, a pocket book, a servant—any one of these losses is enough; and then it is a case of "nerves," and irritation and fuss and fury until relief comes. The Bulletin want ad habit cures the frying pan habit.

The Coptic was delayed in arriving by fog that she encountered early this morning. Had it not been for this she would have been at the wharf several hours earlier. No particularly rough weather was experienced during the trip.

IMPORTERS WIN

News has been received from Attorney Tom Fitch that the local importers have won their appeal to the Board of General Appraisers in New York in the saki test case. The importers protested against paying 50 cents a gallon duty on saki as a wine, holding that the duty should be only 20 cents as saki was a beer. The decision of the Board holds that saki shall pay 20 cents duty as an article which has not been enumerated.

A patient observer on one of the main roads near London counted the vehicles passing to and from the metropolis between 9 o'clock in the morning and 9 at night. The results were: Bicycles, 4,577; motor cars, 557; electric street cars, 407; horse vehicles, 209; total, 5,750. According to these figures the horse is rapidly being out-numbered.

MONGOLIA GUARDED AFTER A STYLE IN QUARANTINE

The P. M. S. S. Mongolia was reported from the Orient at 11 o'clock this morning. She did not get alongside the Hackfeld wharf until 2 o'clock this afternoon. A blackboard over the wharf gateway bore chalk marks to the effect that no person except passengers would be allowed on the wharf, per order U. S. Quarantine. But, while members of the press, even, were excluded, the rule was broken in favor of expressmen, laundrymen and some others.

An immense mob surged outside the gate, asking questions, some had business on the wharf and many had not. Local health conditions cause the quarantine of the Mongolia. The idea is not to interfere with the prompt passing of the vessel at San Francisco.

LAZARUS AGAINST GOING TO CHURCH

Religious Proclivities Of Wife Cause His Anger

PUNISHED HER FOR ATTENDING SERVICES

BLACKED HER EYES AND KICKED HER AS SHE PREPARED TO GO TO KAWAIAHAO CHURCH.

Wahineukai Lazarus has filed a libel for divorce against Alexander K. Lazarus. As might be expected from the name the story is more or less of a religious one.

The parties concerned were married in Honolulu August 21, 1902. The complainant shows that for a long time prior to her marriage she had been an active member of the religious society of Kawaiahaeo Church and of the Sunday School connected therewith. She attended the meetings of various church societies, Sunday school, Sunday services in the church, Wednesday night prayer meetings, was a member of the choir and attended choir practice, etc., etc.

The libel. It is charged, developed a harsh and jealous disposition almost immediately after the marriage and sought by all means in his power to prevent his wife from continuing her church work and the greatest of differences between the couple were caused by his efforts to prevent the libellant from performing her religious duties. Lazarus is furthermore alleged to have committed violent assaults on his (Continued on Page 8.)

PIONEER MILL CO'S NOTICE IS DENIED

The Supreme Court has rendered a decision overruling the motion made by the defendant in the case of Mose Meheula vs. Pioneer Mill Co., Ltd., to make a final judgment or order affirming it. The syllabus of the decision is as follows:

The defendant's exceptions at the trial of an action of ejectment in the circuit court, having been overruled, the defendant's motion that this court make a final judgment or order affirming the judgment in the circuit court is denied, there being no statutory authority therefor. The defendant's desire to appeal to the United States Supreme Court from final judgments of this court does not authorize this court to assume the power.

Will Sue McCall For Campaign Fund

New York, September 16.—It is not improbable that the admissions made under oath by George W. Perkins on Friday, concerning contributions aggregating nearly $150,000 made to the national Republican campaign fund on joint authority of John A. McCall and himself, acting for the New York Life Insurance Company, will be made the basis of civil suits by the Attorney General of the State to force restitution to policy holders of the sums so contributed.

On unimpeachable authority it may be announced that further prosecution of the investigation by the legislative committee during the coming week will be conducted with a view to the probability of its forming a legal basis for such civil suits.

From a lawyer of high standing, who is in close touch with the work of the joint legislative committee and whose legal attainments would necessarily give his opinion much weight with the Attorney General, The Call today obtained this legal view of the case:

"There can be no question in my mind that the testimony given by George W. Perkins makes both himself and John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, amenable to a suit by the Attorney General.

"Their act in diverting sums aggregating nearly $150,000 to a political campaign fund out of the moneys belonging to the policy holders is precisely parallel, in my opinion, to those diversions of trust funds for which Attorney General Mayor has already begun or prepared suits against certain officers and directors of the Equitable Society.

"There can be no doubt that, in the eye of the law, an insurance company is simply the custodian of a trust fund and its officers are the trustees thereof."

JAP WOMAN BADLY CUT

Kikuyo Shimousu, wife of a Japanese, was assaulted by her husband last evening on Nuuanu street near the W. W. Hall residence, and her hands and face badly cut with a knife. It seems that the woman was endeavoring to get a divorce from her husband and who, for revenge, attacked her with a large knife. She was taken to the Queen's Hospital. Her wounds are not of a serious nature. Kikuyo is employed in the McChesney family, who live near where the assault occurred. The jealous husband attacked the woman almost without warning. After being cut she screamed, attracting the attention of a pedestrian, who pursued the fleeing man. Later Shimousu was arrested by Mounted Officers Wright and Lynch.

JACK GIVES DINNER

TO NEWSPAPERMEN

Secretary of the Territory A. L. C. Atkinson last night gave a dinner to representatives of the Honolulu daily newspapers, whose duties take them frequently to the government building. From about half an hour before midnight until nearly 3 o'clock this morning a most delightful time was enjoyed. Toasts were continuous. The general secretary was wished success on his trip to Washington and chairs were mounted and right feet planted on the table, a la Scotch, to emphasize the unanimous sentiment.

Jack expressed his appreciation of the scribes' good fellowship and the Secretary was in return given an enthusiastic ovation. Jack's guests were Messrs. Geo. Henshall and A. M. Burns of the Star, A. P. Taylor and Daniel Logan of the Advertiser and H. W. Kinney and W. F. Sabin of the Bulletin. Logan and Burns with Scottish songs and recitations were immense. Mr. Logan revealed particular agility and cleverness as a sword dancer, dressed in a kilt and spurs being used in lieu of more warlike weapons.

All these plantations will allot to each family two acres of land in fee simple, with the exception of one of the corporations which has only leased land available which will give homesteads for the balance of a thirty-year lease. Besides this all will give free wood, water, medical attendance and a house.

Sensational Charges Are Made In Suit By Peacock

A sensational equity suit was filed yesterday afternoon entitled Walter G. Peacock, T. F. Lansing, Andrew Brown and R. L. Auerbach, plaintiffs, vs. W. C. Peacock & Company, Limited, an Hawaiian corporation; John G. Rothwell, Allen W. T. Bottomley, Alexander Garvie, James L. Cockburn and Charles S. Weight, defendants. The complaint claims that Peacock, Brown and Weight are the only legally elected directors. The complainants are all stockholders, Walter G. Peacock holding 550 shares, T. F. Lansing 50 shares, Andrew Brown 125 shares and R. L. Auerbach 75 shares. The entire capital stock is $200,000, divided into 2000 shares of $100 each, and there are 550 shares in the treasury, representing the par value of $55,000, unissued and unentitled to vote.

The complaint claims that prior to its incorporation the firm earned $25,000 of profit a year. Rothwell was elected manager in 1896, while Peacock was absent for several years prior to 1901. During his absence he performed the duties of president, being in full charge. It is alleged that Rothwell departed from the policy heretofore pursued of estranging patrons and plunging the company into reckless and extravagant dealing. Rothwell is charged with having by his own vote and that of others assuming illegally to be directors maintained himself in a position from which the plaintiffs could not oust him.

It is further alleged that Rothwell's mismanagement caused the company to be heavily indebted to the bank of Bishop & Co., which demanded that certain persons be made directors. The following charge is then made:

"And that said Rothwell, in order to maintain, and as a means of maintaining his place as such manager of said company, illegally and fraudulently agreed and conspired with the owners of said bank that certain persons named and to be named by the owners of said bank, to wit, the above-named defendants James L. Cockburn and Allen W. T. Bottomley, and one D. W. Anderson, should, at successive dates, assume to be and act as directors of said company; and that in pursuance of such illegal and fraudulent agreement and conspiracy, he, the said Rothwell, did, at divers and successive dates, to wit, from the 28th day of May, 1903, or thereabouts, and including the 15th day of September, 1905, arrange and procure that they, the said Anderson, Cockburn and Bottomley should, and they, the said Anderson, Cockburn and Bottomley did in fact in succession assume to act and did act as directors of said company,—but your orators are advised and believe and upon such advice and belief they allege and charge that they, the said Anderson, Cockburn and Bottomley were not at any time, nor was nor were either of them at any time prior to said 15th day of September, 1905, legally elected or appointed as director or directors in said company."

It is further shown that Bishop & Co. holds 300 shares of stock of the company, owned by Rothwell, as security for his private indebtedness, and that Rothwell's action was caused by a desire to placate the owners of the bank. Complaint is made that Bottomley has done his work as auditor very carelessly, an error of $93,000 regarding the business of the year ending June 30, 1903, being one result of this negligence, while the action of Rothwell in collecting the same bills twice has also been sanctioned by the auditor. The complaint finally charges the defendants with having, through Nigel Jackson, ejected Peacock from the firm's store, which was done.

The prayer of the bill is in part as follows:

"That defendants may be summoned in due form to answer all the matters alleged.

"That Garvie, Cockburn and Bottomley may be restrained by writ of injunction from acting as president, vice-president and auditor respectively of the company, and from acting in conjunction with Rothwell and Weight, or any other person or persons, as the board of directors or as a director or directors.

That defendant corporation, its directors, officers and agents, and the individual defendants Garvie, Cockburn, Rothwell, Weight and Bottomley, be enjoined from issuing to Bishop & Company, or to any person or persons on behalf of that firm, any certificate or certificates of the capital stock of W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., which shall purport to declare or express the ownership of Bishop & Co., or of any person or persons in their behalf, of any portion or number of the shares of the capital stock, to wit, 550 shares thereof now in the treasury of the corporation, unless for and in consideration of the cash payment for such shares, or any portion thereof, which may be so issued and delivered.

That the individual defendants and their attorneys, servants and agents may be restrained from in anywise preventing, hindering, obstructing or interfering with access to and occupancy, custody, control and inspection of the store, premises, office, stock-in-trade, minutes, books, papers, accounts, effects and assets of said company by and on the part of Walter G. Peacock, as president, director and stockholder. The same thing is prayed for with respect to Lansing, Brown and Auerbach—that they may have such access, etc.

That it may be decreed that Garvie is not and has not been the president nor a director, that Cockburn is and has been neither vice-president nor a director, that Bottomley is and has been neither auditor nor a director, and that Garvie, Cockburn, Rothwell, Weight and Bottomley are not entitled to act as board of directors or to control the business of the corporation.

That it shall be decreed that Walter G. Peacock has been at all times since the incorporation of the company the legally elected and qualified president of the company, and as such entitled to act as a director of the company.

That Andrew Brown be decreed to have been a director ever since July 27, 1899.

That the plaintiffs and all stockholders of the company be decreed as entitled to have access to the store and business.

That, pending an ultimate decision upon the merits of the case, an injunction may issue against Garvie, Cockburn, Rothwell, Weight and Bottomley, commanding them to desist from acting as hereinafter set forth:

Garvie, from acting as president or director.

Cockburn, from acting as vice-president or director.

Bottomley, from acting as auditor or director.

Garvie, Cockburn and Bottomley, from acting either by themselves or in conjunction with Rothwell and Weight as the board of directors.

The five defendants just named, from acting together, or in concert with others, in the name of the company or its board of directors.

The five defendants as before, from hindering Peacock's access to the store, etc., and from molesting him in his discharge of duties as president and director.

The same five defendants, from interfering with Brown as a director.

The individual defendants, from hindering Lansing and Auerbach from access to the store during business hours, for the purpose of acquainting themselves with the conditions of the business.

W. C. Peacock & Co. and the five individual defendants, from issuing any portion of the 550 shares of capital stock in the company's treasury, except for cash payment as above.

The Financial Secretary with a bona fide voice usually makes a loud report.

Bowen's Last Word In Loomis Trouble

New York, October 2.—Herbert W. Bowen, former United States Minister to Venezuela, who was dismissed by President Roosevelt as a result of the Minister's charges of corruption against Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, yesterday issued a statement at his home in Woodstock, Conn. In reply to the published correspondence of the President and Mr. Loomis, in which it was stated that the late Secretary Hay had felt a great friendship for Loomis and confidence in his ability and integrity, while he felt a corresponding dislike and distrust of Mr. Bowen.

Bowen's statement flatly contradicts the statements in both letters as to Mr. Hay's attitude and plainly intimates that the President was actuated solely by a desire to hush up this colossal scandal in high official life. Mr. Bowen says in this regard:

"After I had sent to Washington all of the documents which I found in the legation at Caracas relating to Mr. Loomis, I received a letter from Mr. Hay stating 'I have been greatly surprised and pained in reading the documents you sent me.'"

"The following month he wrote me a letter containing these friendly words: 'I have always taken your part, not only from personal liking, but from a conviction of your merits, your ability, your courage and your integrity.' From a high official of the Department of State I received a letter, dated July 8, 1905, stating: 'I had a few words with Mr. Hay the day before he left Washington for New Hampshire and he spoke of Mr. Bowen in the same kindly and affectionate manner he always did.'"

"I will simply quote my last remark to President Roosevelt and his to me in the presence of witnesses the day he dismissed me: 'Mr. President, you will remember that after I sent you all the information I had about Mr. Loomis, you offered me a promotion that was intended to lead to an ambassadorship.' 'Well,' he answered, 'I would have done a great deal to hush up the scandal.'"

The PERFECT Light

Electricity is convenient, economical. It is the light of the twentieth century. Everyone who thinks, and that means everyone who reads, should have Electric Light in their home. There is a mistaken notion among some that electricity is essentially a commercial light, a light for the office or store, but obviously it is equally well adapted for the home—for the hall, the bedroom, the library—for every room in the house down to the kitchen.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1905

Russia finds it has used the Big Stick till it is worn to a frazzle and useless.

Hawaii's local steamer will pay. And from every standpoint. The stockholders can't gain more than every person living in this city.

The only doubtful quantity in the souvenir coin business is how long it will be before the dealers begin to manufacture old coins of the realm.

Bryan has met the Emperor of Japan and Admiral Togo. He is now in a position to pass upon the question of who really wants the Philippines.

One thing can be said of the situation in Hawaii, without fear of successful contradiction: No man need go hungry for want of opportunity to work.

Secretary Atkinson is off on a mission that will prove historical if he makes good, and is worth the expenditure of more than average energy to make a complete success.

Again the Sugar Trust has given notice of how it loves Hawaii, by forcing the price of centrifugals below the parity of the world market figures. The saving ray of pleasure in the whole business is that Hawaii has marketed its crop.

Plantation managers who have made offers for over 300 European families, presumably do not join with those claiming Hawaii does not want 100,000 tourists or 100,000 immigrants. They are men ready to assist in proving that it can be done, and others will possibly make a virtue of necessity.

W. H. Babbitt will start out upon the work of the Educational Department with malice toward none, charity for all, and a tremendous opportunity to accomplish results for the permanent welfare of the Territory of Hawaii. Should he fail in any particular, it will upset every expectation based on his work up to date.

aiding the police

Sometimes a white alley is found in a barrel of ink, but the surprise at finding it should not warrant a refusal to accept it, though public distrust be no less than in the days when men asked if anything good could come out of Nazareth.

The suggestion has been made from a most unexpected source that the Civic Federation and Anti-Saloon League would be performing a great public service if they were jointly or severally to employ special detectives to assist in apprehending violators of the law, especially the laws on gambling and illicit sale of liquor.

This is an excellent idea, provided the detectives are honestly used for the purpose named. We have no doubt that the plan would meet with the full and enthusiastic approval of the department. Such assistance honestly rendered would be an aid to the officials and the taxpayers.

It would also be deserving the respect and confidence which is now entirely lacking in connection with the employment of individuals for the sole purpose of discrediting by foul means the head of the police department.

THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Renewal of civil strife in Russia is further proof of the terrible determination that has been behind the outbreaks of Russia's people against corrupt and bureaucratic rule. The workers may be like children in the dark, they may be fighting against tremendous odds of established power, but it is obvious that they will not be put aside by hollow promises and non-performance.

In the light of the recent mob rule among the people, owing allegiance to the Little White Father, the outbreaks of the war period were as the warning of a storm. It is safe to believe that Russia will see greater crimes committed in the name of liberty than have yet been recorded. This will be the inexorable fate unless Witte prove a master mind that can not only satisfy the people but at the same time lead the aristocracy to accept the change with good grace. The latter task will be more impossible than the first. None is more blind to demands or threats of an enraged and outraged people than the aristocratic top, be his alleged superiority based on the degeneracy of birth or wealth.

Equally interesting with the development of the struggle of the Russian people is the history of the French Revolution as told by Carlyle. It is a side light on this great present day drama. Degenerate ruling class, degenerate church, and a downtrodden people all combine to make Carlyle's intensely valuable analysis of the French revolt read like an advance statement of Russia's woes.

One paragraph of Carlyle's comment is especially appropriate to present-day conditions, as well as a statement of historical truth. In dealing with the cause of the French revolution he makes reference to the attempt at framing constitutions with this summing up:

"The Constitution, the set of laws, or prescribed habits of acting, that men will live under, is the one which images their convictions—their faith as to this wondrous Universe, and what rights duties, capabilities they have there; which stands sanctioned, therefore by necessity itself; if not by a seen Deity, then by an unseen one. Other laws, whereof there are always enough ready-made, are usurpations; which men do not obey, but rebel against, and abolish at their earliest convenience."

Upon Count de Witte has fallen the apparently impossible burden of satisfying the conviction of the Russian people and putting it into the form of a constitution. To promise constitutional government is a great concession for the Russian autocrats, and evidence of their wholesome fear of the people. Any constitution however will not do. It is not sufficient to build a paper and ink affair which possesses form without the facts of relief.

The only constitution that can save Russia from an era of greater bloodshed and worse disaster is one which images the Faith of the people. Should de Witte fail, for want of capacity or support and others follow in the same course, there is every reason to expect that history will be repeated in Russia as it has been since history was written. Autocracy will war with anarchy until each has spent itself, when sober sense will prevail and government expressing the spirit and responsive to the demand of the people will prevail.

In Russia, the people of today find the opportunity of observing a struggle, which, covering years and costing greater horrors than are ever encountered on the battlefield, is the same old battle for the right of the people to govern—and there can be but one result.

MOTHERHOOD

Actual Sterility in Women Is Very Rare—Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes.

Many women long for a child to bless their homes, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the entire female organism, curing all displacements, ulceration and inflammation.

A woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be a great decrease in miscarriages, in suffering, and in disappointments at birth.

The following letters to Mrs. Pinkham demonstrate the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice-President of Milwaukee Business Woman's Association, of 614 Grove Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I was married for several years and no children blessed our home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. For months I took his medicines, trying in vain for a cure, but at last my husband became disgusted and suggested that I run by Mr. Hartman and Dr. and Mrs. Humphris. This will be open from 3 to 5 o'clock and a most interesting program has been arranged. Among the performers will be a blind pianist, a "coon," a "lantern" and the "Marionettes dolls." Various other attractions have been arranged which include the home-made candy booth, lemonade, soda fountain, ice cream and cake, tea. A shooting gallery will be under the direction of Capt. Niblack.

The Hawaiian band will be in attendance during the whole afternoon.

Applicants for admission to the Hospital must furnish the Superintendent a surety for Hospital charges, or else pay two weeks in advance, which must be renewed every week thereafter. In Surgical cases a charge of from $5.00 to $15.00 is made for use of Operating Room and materials. Surgeons are invited to use the Operating Room of the Hospital under the above specified rates, and arrangements for hours can be made with the Superintendent.

Persons desiring admission to the Hospital should apply to the Superintendent, on the premises, Punchbowl and Miller Streets.

For further information or reference apply to the Superintendent or Resident Physician at the Hospital, GEO. W. SMITH, Esq., Secretary (Benson, Smith & Co.); or E. F. BISHOP, Treasurer (C. Brewer & Co.).

Marine Hospital Service Is To Be Investigated

Washington, September 22.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw is extremely dissatisfied with the conduct of affairs in the Marine Hospital Service and he has directed a thorough investigation. He is especially impressed with the charge that the service is grossly extravagant, and he is not pleased with the method of making disbursements. The looseness of the disbursement system was shown a few days ago, when it was learned that a clerk in a subordinate position had succeeded in embezzling $20,000. Superintending Surgeon General Wyman has been subjected to a good deal of questioning by Secretary Shaw, and the details of the investigation have been placed in the hands of a committee.

It has been found that although the Marine Hospital Service is caring for only a few more sick sailors than it was a few years ago, the expenses on this account alone have nearly doubled. The rates obtained for the care and burial of dead seamen in various parts of the country vary, burial in some towns being as low as $1, and in others not far away as high as $20. Shaw believes the service has had altogether too free a hand.

A clock in the tower of the new Naval College at Dartmouth, England, will mark the time as it is kept on board ship, striking 8, 6, 4 bells, etc.

Counterfeiters Held To Answer By Federal Grand Jury

The Federal Grand Jury this morning finally filed its long expected report on the cases of the counterfeiters on board the transport Sherman.

Foreman L. C. Ables reported that true bills had been found in six cases. The Grand Jury hoped, he said, to finish its work today, unless United States District Attorney Breckons found something more for it to do, and to be able to submit its final report next Wednesday.

Breckons asked the Court that bench warrants issue against the defendants mentioned in the indictments, which were all placed on the open file.

Out of the six indictments, four are against men who are charged with having been connected with the Sherman counterfeiting plot. Their names are John Shea, William Moore, G. Duffey and John Rooney. The indictments against all four men read exactly the same with the exception of the name of the defendant, being in part as follows:

"That on Oct. 10 the defendant did wilfully, unlawfully, intentionally, corruptly and feloniously attempt to pass, utter and publish, as genuine and true, to Charles H. Murphy, a certain false, forged and counterfeited note, then and there purporting to be issued by the First National Bank of Marianna, Florida, etc."

Of the four defendants only one, William Moore, is at present in Honolulu. He is the only one of the six who were arrested here, who was indicted, the other five having been discharged already. John Rooney, John Shea and G. Duffey are all in San Francisco, where they were arrested, upon information cable to the Coast authorities by Breckons, immediately on the arrival of the Sherman at that port. Shea is a baker, Duffey a seaman, and Rooney a stowaway. They will all be sent to Honolulu for trial.

The Charles H. Murphy mentioned in the indictment is a bluejacket, who was taken from on board the Sherman and held as a witness. Murphy received the counterfeit bills from the men who have been indicted. He did not, however, says the District Attorney, attempt to pass them on anyone. On the contrary, he thought the appearance of the bills was suspicious and asked a man he met on one of the streets of Honolulu if the bill he had was genuine. He also took it to Spreckels bank to be examined.

The two other indictments were against Herbert E. Jones and Joseph Boyd, the first mate and second mate respectively of the American windjammer Manga Reva. Both men are charged with having while at sea on June 13 committed an assault and battery on a sailor named Harry Kl.

It is no wonder that the photographer occasionally has an attack of face ache.

COUNTY WANTS AUTOS

Now that the Supervisors are considering giving Road Supervisor Sam Johnson an automobile to cover the big territory he has every day to go over to look after road work, other departments of the County are coming forward with the suggestion that automobiles are more economical than horses.

Sheriff Brown favors an automobile police patrol, or "hurry-up" wagon. Such an engine would move around quicker and cost less than the present system, which necessitates the maintenance of six horses.

It is also suggested that the Chief of the Fire Department be supplied with a motor car.

Sam Johnson has been the recipient of much good-natured joshing since he took an automobile around on his daily tour, by way of experiment. Sam finds that while an auto saves time and expense in many ways, there are roads,—up Tantalus, for example,—where muscular power will be better. Some of his friends remark that since Sam has used an auto on trial he has realized more than ever before how much many of the roads stand in need of repair. The lower Waikeiki road and Beretania street are particularly lumpy, to say the least. Today the road department is working on the macadamizing of ten different roads.

Fire insurance is one of the best remedies for burns.

If clothes didn't make the man some people would never look like voters.

BJORNSTJERNE BJORNSON, NORWAY'S GRAND OLD MAN OF LITERATURE.

Bjornstjerne Bjornson, Norway's veteran poet, dramatist and novelist, is in sympathy with Norwegian independence, but at the same time he believes that the world will yet see the day when Norway, Sweden and Denmark are all united under the same flag. Bjornson is seventy-three years of age and is Norway's greatest distinctively Norwegian writer.

CHAMPIONSHIP BASEBALL

On Sunday the Diamond Heads and Alohas will meet for the championship of the second series in the Winter Baseball League. The Alohas carried off the honors in the first series and should the Diamond Heads win out Sunday the two teams will struggle in a final series for championship honors.

This game will be the real article and the rosters will be out in force. It means that the winners will get their name on the Woods & Sheldon cup. It has been claimed that Jim Gordon and Sam Mahuku would be seen in Diamond Head uniforms on this date, but this rumor has been denied by the Diamond Head boys.

Sullivan, the crack little pitcher, will pass up the benders for the red and white and Townsend will do the act for the Alohas.

Bert Bowers has been engaged to hold the indicator. With Bert on the field both teams will get a square deal. The Chinese Athletic Club will have a return match with the Infantry team of Camp McKinley. There is the greatest of rivalry existing between these two teams and this game should be well worth seeing. The Chinese boys are getting to be real cracks at the game and are able to beat many good organizations.

PORTUGUESE TEAMS

Louis Medeiros is doing all in his power to promote baseball amongst the new Portuguese Athletic Club. Louis says that there will be three teams composed of members of the club. These teams will play a series of games for a cup.

At a meeting held at the Orpheum theater last evening speeches were made by A. G. Correa, M. A. Silva and L. R. Medeiros.

The first game of ball in the series will be played at Kapiolani Park on November 5th.

The teams will be composed of the following players:

L. Soares, c.; E. Gomes, p.; A. Franco, 1b.; M. R. Freitas, 2b.; M. de Ponte, 3b.; M. Martin, ss.; M. Partido, cf.; W. Fernandes, rf.; Geo. Madeira, lf.; A. Carvalho, c.; A. Bushnell, p.; L. Pimental, 1b.; V. Fernandes, 2b.; H. Rodriguez, 3b.; J. Souza, ss.; L. Fernandes, rf.; M. Freitas, cf.; J. Nascento, lf.

M. Joseph, c.; Frank Freitas, p.; P. Pereira, 1b.; Joe Fernandes, 2b.; M. Soares, 3b.; Jno. Manuel, ss.; H. Freitas, rf.; Joe Travens, cf.; Jno. Carreira, lf.

PIG SKIN CHASERS

After weeks of preparation the husky young athletes representing the Oahu College and the Kamehameha School will meet on the gridiron Saturday afternoon on the Punahou field. This game should result in one of the best contested games that will be played here this season. Reports come from both institutions that their teams are in the best possible condition.

There will be the real old college spirit when these two teams begin to buck. Punahou will line up a slight favorite over their heavier antagonists.

OWLS WIN SECOND GAME

The second game of indoor baseball played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last evening resulted in a victory for the Owls over the High Schools.

The game proved to be very interesting and was only won by a single run. The Owls forged ahead in the last inning.

The line-up was as follows:

Owls—A. Tinker, J. Macaulay, J. Honan, D. Volter, F. Norton, A. Myre, C. Bushnell, L. Richards.

High Schools—D. Gilliland, R. Clark, P. Schmidt, D. Sherwood, Wm. Chillingworth, C. Oss, A. Perry, M. Ferreira.

The Owls and Punahou met in the next game on Saturday night.

WILL SWIM RELAY MATCH

The Myrtle Boat Club boys will meet the Honolulu Iron Works in a 400 yard relay race on Saturday afternoon. The boys from the Iron Works succeeded in defeating the Boat Club twice last year. This season the Boat Club lads will try hard to reverse the result. The two teams will be made up as follows:

Honolulu Iron Works—C. R. Ho (captain), E. Kopke, F. Sharp, F. Hoot, F. Lubeck, J. Kennedy, J. O'Brien, Myrtice, T. Hustace (captain), G. Berkert, T. Honan, W. Lyle, G. Cooper, G. Cooper, J. Lishman.

MISS VAN VLIET LEADS

One of the fastest games of tennis ever played by ladies in Hawaii was seen on the Beretania courts yesterday afternoon when the Misses Van Vliet and Horner met in the finals in the ladies' singles contest for the E. O. Hall & Son cup. There has only been one game ever played in the islands that came near equaling it from a spectators' standpoint. The match referred to was played some years ago when Miss Alice Hoffman journeyed from California to Hawaii to wrest the laurels from Miss May Hart. The former was beaten in an interesting match.

Yesterday's game brought out one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a local competition amongst the racket wielders. The courts were fairly surrounded by men and women who displayed the keenest interest in the play.

From the time that the first ball was driven it could be seen that Miss Horner would have the game of her life and from the very first, long rallies were frequent, once 25 passes were made before a single point was made.

Miss Horner used her back hand stroke to good advantage to return the well placed balls which Miss Van Vliet persisted in playing. By varying her style Miss Van Vliet kept her clever opponent guessing and occasionally she would place a ball down the side lines very cleverly. This change of style seemed to worry Miss Horner but she stuck gamely to her task and fought an uphill fight. By keeping the ball in Miss Horner's left court in long rallies and suddenly driving it to the right to the back of the court, won Miss Van Vliet many a point.

The first two sets went in favor of Miss Van Vliet, 6-1 and 6-4. When the game was called on account of darkness in the third set the play stood 3-2 in favor of Miss Van Vliet. The last set was the most stubbornly contested, Miss Horner showing to good advantage.

The play will continue this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The third set will be played with the present standing score and should Miss Van Vliet win she will be declared the winner of the handsome trophy.

The Pacific Tennis Club's invitation tournament for men's doubles will start on Wednesday on the Pacific courts. Entries close at 5 o'clock Tuesday at Woods & Sheldon's.

Up to date the following have entered: Major R. C. Van Vliet and C. G. Bockus, B. T. C.; Wm. Warren and H. S. Grey, B. T. C.; D. H. Hitchcock and W. H. Babbitt, P. T. C.; F. E. Greenfield and A. C. McKeever, E. T. C.

A meeting was held at the Thistle Club at which there were representatives of the Mailes, Punahou, Y. M. C. A., Iolani and Diamond Heads.

It was decided to play two games on every Saturday, starting on January 6th and closing the season on March 10th. This will make a series of 20 games in all, each playing 8 games.

All games will be played at the Baseball Park and a reasonable admittance will be charged.

All the teams are now making preliminary preparations to start the season and the proper enthusiasm prevails. It looks as though the game will enjoy a very prosperous season. An exhibition game will probably be played on November 25th between the P. A. C.'s and a picked team.

Following is the schedule arranged. Jan. 6—Iolani vs. Diamond Head. Jan. 6—P. A. C. vs. Maile Hima. Jan. 13—Y. M. C. A. vs. Iolani. Jan. 13—Diamond Head vs. Maile Hima.

DICTATES OF FASHION

Checks, which have been so popular this summer, will figure prominently in the materials for the school girl. They will be preferably in two shades of one color. Some of the most attractive are the blue and green plaids, and some pretty checks in two tones of brown.

The thinnest of cotton hosiery in what is known as grenadine weave is now used entirely to replace lace and openwork patterns. Sometimes these are woven in self-plaids, but the most popular stocking which comes at 75 cents is plainly woven and has almost the sheerness of gauze.

Pointed or rounded flounces so set on the skirt as to suggest an apron or tunic overskirt are features of recent models that indicate the increasing vogue of the overskirt idea, but the tunic or overskirt so far accepted detracts but slightly from the long sweeping lines of the skirt and maintains the same bell-like outlines as the plain skirt, instead of being given over to bunchiness.

Frills and ruffles about the shoulders are becoming to almost every woman. The draped waist is promised. This waist had some vogue last spring and it is seen in many of the latest some gowns of midsummer. The drape is in directoire lines, while the surplice and the flutu are also prominent. Many of the new separate waists are thus draped. The fashion is usually becoming.

Shirts are to be very tight fitting, and all semblances of crinolines are obsolete. The tall, slim woman is the correct figure for autumn and winter. The new coats being designed in Paris and Vienna for that period are, from all accounts, most fascinating, but also most costly. Boots and shoes are worn to match quiet-toned costumes, but the brighter colors are dropping out again, as they do not look very good style.

At last the wheel has turned to the fashion of fancy buttons. Now is the hour to get out ancient treasures. Jeweled buttons will be much worn this fall and winter, amethysts, rubies, topazes and emeralds being generally employed. Many of these buttons are surrounded with rhine stones and with this framed effect they look very much like brooches. Among the new styles are miniature buttons decorated with portraits of famous court beauties of 100 years ago, and Dresden buttons on which appear the Napoleonic wreath.

In tailor made there seems to be a tendency toward plainer styles. Elaboration has reigned for a long while and the reaction seems to be setting in—very slowly, to be sure, but pretty surely, unless signs fail. Beautiful evening materials, for example, are no longer "inflated" beyond a recognition of their own charms, but are cut and treated with a view to bringing out their own rich effects. The tailor-mades are certainly less elaborate as to detail. Of the mannish effects that were "done to death" a few seasons ago there is no sign, but severe tailors flaunt on jackets of very feminine cuts are quite the thing.

POLITICAL ASSESSMENT HEARST THIRD PARTY

FEDERAL JUDGE MAY LOSE HIS POSITION

FOR INTIMATING TO EMPLOYEES THAT THEY SHOULD PAY PART OF SALARY TO THE CAMPAIGNERS.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The charge of soliciting and accepting campaign contributions in the campaign of 1902, made against United States Circuit Judge Baker of Indiana, by the Civil Service Commission, has been referred to the Department of Justice by the commission. In connection with the reference the commission gave out an official statement of the case, in which it was said the "statute of limitation is the only defense which can be opposed to the charge." The commission's statement in part said:

"The Civil Service Commission, through Commissioner Greene, conducted an examination on the 22d and 23d of September, 1905, into a charge of a violation of the civil service act by the collection of illegal assessments at Goshen, Ind. In the course of this investigation Guy C. Boulton, a clerk in the postoffice at Goshen, testified that he was told in the fall of 1902 by the assistant postmaster, Alderman, to visit Francis E. Baker, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit; that he was sent during office hours to see Judge Baker; that upon visiting him he was told by Judge Baker that it was his interest to keep in power the servant of the party to which witness (Boulton) owed his appointment; and that even if witness was in the civil service his superior would give him trouble in case of a change of administration. He was also told that Judge Baker paid liberally himself for political purposes and that clerks in the service usually gave 5 per cent of their salary, with other statements along the same line. In pursuance of these suggestions from Judge Baker Boulton afterward paid 5 per cent of his salary, being $20, to D. W. Nelding, chairman of the Republican County Committee.

"Lamar Croop, also a clerk in the Goshen postoffice, testified that Judge Baker was in the postoffice in the fall of 1902; that in the same fall the assistant postmaster told witness to go and see Judge Baker, just as Boulton had been told to go and see him during office hours. The Judge urged witness to pay money for campaign purposes and the witness told Judge Baker that he could not afford to. Whereupon Judge Baker said to him:

"You can afford to do without a suit of clothes and make your payment."

"He was urged to pay 5 per cent. Thereafter the witness spoke to Postmaster Sherwin about paying his assessment and said that he did not have the money to pay, and Sherwin advanced him $50 for his assessment, which was paid by Mr. Croop.

"Martin L. Schuur, a clerk in the postoffice, testified that he also was sent in the fall of 1902 to Judge Baker and was in the manner urged by him to pay money to the Republican campaign fund, and did pay $25, 5 per cent of his salary. He was unable to make the payment and the postmaster loaned him the amount.

This testimony was presented to Judge Baker, and without going into details of conversation the facts stated by the above witnesses were admitted by him to be true. The Civil Service Commission has felt some hesitation in taking any action in the premises, but it is felt by the commission that, inasmuch as violations by others of the civil service act occurring in the Goshen postoffice are to be proceeded against and punished, it is not right that distinction should be made in favor of a violator of the law, however exalted his position may be. The charges against Judge Baker have therefore been referred to the Department of Justice.

WHY HE ACCEPTS THE CALL AS A CANDIDATE

NOMINATING FORCES ARE NOT ANSWERABLE TO BOSSES. POINTS IN HEARST LETTER.

New York, Oct. 10.—William Randolph Hearst tonight made public a letter addressed to Judge Samuel Seabury of the Municipal Ownership League, accepting the league's recent tender of a nomination for Mayor of New York. The municipal convention of the organization will be held on Thursday but Mr. Hearst was offered the nomination at a meeting some days ago. His acceptance assures three majority tickets in the field this fall—the Democratic, Republican and Municipal Ownership League. In his letter of acceptance Mr. Hearst said in part:

"I have felt absolutely unable and unwilling to accept the nomination you have offered me, but I have at length decided to defer to your wishes and not to shrink a task that presents itself to me as a public duty.

"The situation in this city is so grave and the condition of the public in the face of organized bossism is apparently so helpless that no man has a right to consider anything else, least of all his private affairs or personal inclination.

"The one thing to be considered is the necessity of giving the people an opportunity to vote for some man of whom it may at least be said that he would, if elected, represent those that voted for him and not any boss or corporation or selfish private interest.

"If your convention believes that I am such a man I shall accept the nomination. It is intolerable in view of the recent exposures of the gas trust and the insurance frauds, that the interests of the citizens should be allowed to go by default."

The letter of Mr. Hearst was read at a meeting of the committee of seven tonight. Former Senator John Ford was agreed upon for Comptroller and James G. Phelps Stokes for president of the Board of Aldermen. The committee announced that Mr. Ford had agreed to accept and that Mr. Stokes had tentatively accepted.

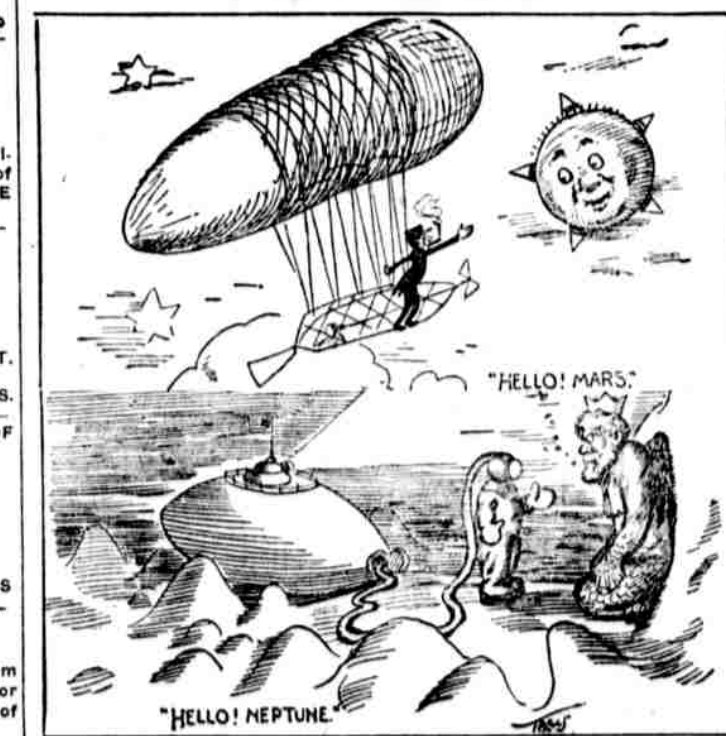

The committee considered the matter of platform, one plank of which will declare for municipal ownership, pending which "we favor short term leases, with power of resumption by the city upon adequate compensation for the capital invested."

Among the organizations represented at the meeting were the Greater New York Municipal Ownership League, which will hold its convention on Thursday night; the Municipal Ownership League of Brooklyn, which will formally endorse Mr. Hearst and the other candidates probably on Friday night; the German American Municipal League, the Workmen's Municipal Ownership League and the Citizens' Union, August H. Stebbins secretary of the committee, being a Citizens' Union man.

wife, slapping and beating her, pulling her hair and blackening her eyes and applied filthy and abusive epithets to her. He also accused her of making her attendance at religious meetings a pretext for holding illicit meetings with other men. On Sunday in September the libellant thus, when the libellant was preparing to go to church, objected to her going, accused her of intending to meet another man, knocked her down, kicked her and lashed and scourged her with a leather strap, inflicting her to such an extent that she was unable to attend church on that date.
The libellant states that she has borne this harsh and cruel treatment in the hope that the libellee might reform, but she now finds living with him intolerable. His attitude is so threatening that she fears that he will injure her when he learns that this suit has been instituted unless he is restrained by court.

Lazarus is shown to own real estate on Maui and property on Kinau street worth $20,000, from which a monthly income of $125 is derived by him.

The libellant asks for a decree of divorce, alimony, counsel fees and that an order may issue restraining the libellee from interfering with or molesting her. The latter order was issued by Judge De Bolt.

The censorship is a very real thing in China. There, anyone who writes an objectionable book is punished with 100 blows of a heavy bamboo and banished for life. Anyone who reads is also punished.

GAMBLING CASE ON IN POLICE COURT

conducted by the defense in a house near the government stables in Kakaako. H. M. Ayres, of the Advertiser, and Eugene Devauchelle are the principal witnesses for the prosecution.

Ayres was the first on the stand this morning. He testified to the effect that on the night of the 21st of October, himself and Devauchelle, accompanied by John Hamsan visited the alleged gaming place. They went to the house from an up-town saloon in a buggy.

When Ayres entered the house he was asked if he had a search warrant and he answered that he had not. "All right Ayres," Nicholas said, "come in, you're one of the boys, but we've got it in for Devauchelle. You are a little late and we've had a good game. We are something like $100 to the good."

Shortly after Devauchelle went into the house, he met James Crane with whom he had words. According to Ayres, Crane remarked that he had been suspected of spying and giving information to the Advertiser about games of chance that were in operation. "Hearing you fellows were coming around tonight," Crane said, "I thought I would get here first, and try to prove my innocence."

Later, after leaving the interior of the house and while standing on the lanai, Ayres and Devauchelle saw Nicholas and Philip Rivers sitting on a bed in a poorly lighted room counting and dividing piles of money, thought to have been silver. Ayres was of the opinion that altogether there was perhaps $70 or $100.

Devauchelle was giving testimony when the court adjourned at noon. His evidence with a few exceptions, was practically the same as that of Ayres regarding the trip to the house and what was said and done there. Devauchelle was questioned by Attorney Cathcart for the defense concerning his vocation. The witness' answer was that he had none at present, though he derived an income from the rent of a house, a saloon and as a fisherman. Devauchelle was asked if he was being paid any consideration by the Advertiser for information about gambling games. His reply was in the negative.

Up until noon no testimony by either of the witnesses had been brought out showing that gambling had actually been in operation at the house visited. County Attorney Douthitt is conducting the prosecution and Attorney J. W. Cathcart is for the defense. The case will be continued at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Helene sails for Mahukona, the Hamakua coast and Hilo at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

HARVARD'S NEW SYSTEM

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 23.—Bill Reid, the most successful football coach Harvard has ever had, has pulled his football eleven through two weeks of practice without injury to a single player. This is unprecedented in Crimston history, and shows what brains can do when applied to football. It is also the demonstration of a theory. For a long time Reid has contended that to be a good football player, a man must train systematically. He believes that before a man can stand the knocks and bruises of the gridiron he must first build himself up physically. So he started out at the beginning of the season, not to bang his men by hard work at the very outset, but to replace fat and flabby flesh with muscle and hard beef.

His linemen he set doing a pile-driving, blacksmith stunt with an iron mallet. He also had them squatting up and down like monkeys developing their legs and reducing their stomachs. And he also had them walking all over the field in a sitting position to develop other muscles.

Meanwhile his backs and ends were running. They weren't falling on the ball, breaking their arms, hurting their shoulders and upsetting other parts. Instead they were developing strong limbs, good lungs and lots of speed. For the most part he had them chasing and catching punts. One man fell on the ball, and then two other men fell on him. The first man's arm was slightly wrenched. Reid told him it was all his fault, and the others that he did not wish his men to "rough house."

Later on he promises them they will get all the harsh treatment they wish. In fact, he isn't in football as a milk-and-water sport. Yale will find that out when she meets Harvard on November 25.

Reid also has a number of other theories. They are all good ones, and they are going to help Harvard more than her material, her money or anything else.
