Record of a Visit to the Taro Flour Factory.

Description of the Process of Manu- facture.

It is with no small degree of pleasure we may turn from the depressing influences at work to-day throughout the islands to an industry that promises well as a source of remunerative employment to the laborer, of profit to the small land-owners, a boon to the consumer, and a good profit to the enterprising manufacturers. This is the manufacture, by the Hawaiian Fruit & Taro Co., Ltd. of Taro into "Paiai," "Poi," "Taro Malo" or maccaroni, "Taro Flour," and into biscuits or crackers. Under the personal supervision of Mr. E. H. Baillie, the manager, and an intelligent directorate, good profits may confidently be looked for. The writer, charmed by the varying beauty of the scenery and the soft and clear nature of the atmosphere, was pleased, when in Wailuku some days ago, to have the otherwise ordinary monotony of a visit there diversified by a run through the buildings set aside for the manufacture, and to have his interest in this most interesting product increased, through the courtesy shown by Mr. Baillie in explaining the various processes the taro passes through ere arriving at its numerous marketable stages. The company have, in their leases of taro lands and contracts for the supplying the vegetable to their factory at Wailuku, paved the way for securing to the islands a regular supply of these articles, and not to the islands only but to the States and Europe. They have secured, also, valuable patent rights in connection with the machinery employed, as also the sole right of manufacture, in the islands, of the various articles capable of being produced from taro. Agencies are being opened up over the States, already the flour is finding its way into the hospitals there, and the nourishing and soothing invalid food is soon to become the builder up of thousands whose delicate stomachs reject other food. In connection with its sedative and soothing stomachic influence may be mentioned its effect on sufferers from sea-sickness when drunk in the form of a thin iced gruel. Years seem to have no deteriorating effect on the flour. The writer has had it in his possession five years old—its condition at the end of that period being as fresh as when manufactured—no insect having attacked it, though exposed in its bag over all these years. In this lies a wonderful virtue; ships carrying it will have a fresh nourishing and fattening vegetable in a form capable of being made attractive and palatable in so many forms. This quality is really invaluable when considered in connection with its export. The latest article manufactured of taro is the Taro Maccaroni. Only the other day a pleasing incident came before the writer. It was that of a sickly lad to whom taro in the form of poi was distasteful, yet when his beef tea was placed before him strengthened by the light and nourishing vegetable maccaroni he hailed the addition with delight in being at length able to take agreeably the food he had so much belief in. As a food for delicate infants and children it is highly nutritious and fattening. Indeed the splendid physique of the Hawaiian is a living proof of this. The medical faculty have in it another strengthening food, and the writer cannot but think that over the islands considerable quantities will be used in soups, etc., from the fact that neither the weevil nor the ant attacks it, as is so quickly the case with the Italian Maccaroni or Vermicelli. Ere a few months are over biscuits or crackers varied and attractive will be on the market, and if one but thinks of the capabilities and extent into which these articles alone may enter into consumption he must conclude that the enterprise has added a boon to the world at large and that good profits are the sure deserts of the enterprising proprietors.

The importance of the industry to the country is my apology for anticipating the interest that every well wisher of our foam girt isles must sooner or later realize for explaining the details of its manufacture, but, before doing so permit me to point out a way by which at little expense much practical good can be wrought by many of us. How often is the query put by visitors to the islands enquiring what can we take with us from your little Kingdom that in all its associations is purely Hawaiian. Even to many of us on leaving for a flying trip the same question comes up in the past so difficult to answer. The Hawaiian Fruit and Taro Company provides we say such an article. The good results following the availing of the opportunity may prove incalculable in extent to the industry and of more than probable practical benefit to the recipients.

The taro on arriving at the factory is washed, placed in the boiler where it is cooked by steam, passed from there into water troughs along which is a bench on which 8 or 10 laborers are seated scraping the skin from the taro, and passing it into wooden receivers. This is a part of the work which later on may be taken in hand by machinery. It is now passed up mechanically from this the ground floor to the upper story where it is received and placed in two hollow cylinders, over which is a crank shaft having at each end a connecting rod and plunger whose up and down strokes as they pass in and out of the cylinders, press the taro through perforated plates forming the bottom of the cylinders, dropping it on wire trays. These trays bearing the worm shaped dough are then passed to the drying flue resembling an immense square chimney which draws the dry heated air from the furnace plates; the numerous wire trays which are there elevated and lowered by an endless chain offer little if any obstruction to the drying process. These worm-like forms being now dry are in the case of taro malo or maccaroni complete and ready for placing in the packages in which it is put on the market, or if the now dried article is to enter the market as taro flour, it is taken from the trays in carriers to the milling machine (which with the rest of the machinery is driven by steam), where it is ground and afterwards put up in bags containing as a rule five pounds each. In each bag is a printed circular giving recipes of the many dishes the flour is capable of being made into. The manufacture of pai-ai is completed on the compound passing through the holes in the plates. It is then placed in the containers composed of ti-tree leaves, which possess the virtue of keeping the pai-ai fresh over a period long enough to carry it to the various islands where consumers pound it, applying sufficient water during the process until the much prized poi is produced. A similar process is pursued in the factory when filling orders for poi. At present over 100 barrels a week are required to fill the demand from the other islands and there is promise of this output being increased.

Something New in Ranges.

The PACIFIC HARDWARE CO., (Ld.), have just received an invoice of the M. & D. WROUGHT STEEL RANGES which are superior to anything of the kind yet invented. They have been adopted by the United States Navy and are in use on the Charleston, San Francisco and Boston and other new vessels. Also on several of the new vessels lately built for the trade between San Francisco and this port.

An examination of these Ranges will at once show their many advantages over all competitors.

Take Good Care of the Children.

If you have children you will be interested in the experience of Mr. John Cook, of Pilot, Vermillion Co., Ill. He says: "Two years ago two of my family, a young man and a girl, had very severe and dangerous attacks of bloody flux. The doctor here was unable, after a week's time, to check or relieve either case. I threw the doctor overboard and began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Improvement was seen very soon and my children arose in a few days from what I feared would be their deathbed. It is a grand, good medicine." For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.

Messrs. King Bros. are showing a fine line of Bamboo and other style Parlor Easels, Wall Brackets, and Window Cornices, at Prices to meet the times.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But Established for the Benefit of All.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1892.

The editor of the Liberal shows in his latest number that he does not relish being paid in his own coin. Perhaps hereafter he will learn to deal with articles in other papers on their merits and avoid personal insults to those he guesses were either the writers or not the writers.

The day of election is drawing near, and it behooves every man who desires to vote to see that his name is registered as a voter and that his personal taxes for this year are paid. Those who neglect this will assuredly find that their opponents in the election will challenge their right to vote and that successfully. Get registered and pay your taxes.

The publication by the BULLETIN of Mr. Hatch's able brief for the Ministry on the want of confidence question was done at this paper's own expense for the information of the public. It is reported that the briefs for "the other side" were paid for as advertisements in the Advertiser, which if so would indicate that our contemporary did not place much value on them as matter for the public's enlightenment.

The initiative taken by the Legislature toward signaling the opening of the harbor entrance to ships of deep draught will be endorsed by everybody who takes an interest in the progress of the country. It did credit to Mr. Thurston's head and heart to express his enthusiastic recognition of the great importance of the work accomplished by his successor in the administration of the Interior Department and whom for other reasons he doubtless conscientiously assisted in putting out of office. It would be well, on the part of our public men, there were more of that disposition evinced to recognize the good services rendered the country by their political opponents.

The contents of the Planters' Monthly for September are mainly eclectic, but none the less valuable, perhaps. Particularly is one article selected from the Queensland Sugar Journal of much importance. It is a paper by Mr. C. Bernard, read before the Mauritius Chamber of Agriculture, March 4, 1892, on "White Sugars by Direct Manufacture from Cane Juice." If our planters can be given a process for turning out sugars marketable for general consumption, without having to be passed through a refinery, it will solve the problem of profit on sugar-raising, doubtless, for all time. Our planters might perhaps combine to make of some available mill an experiment station for the common benefit.

THE THROUGH MAILS.

The status of the through mail steamer service, between the Australasian Colonies and San Francisco, is unfortunately critical. On August 22 a cablegram was received by the New Zealand Government, stating that it was reported in London that the Post Office was averse to renewing the New Zealand mail contract, via San Francisco, on the ground that the route via Suez was cheaper to England. Enquiry by cable elicited the fact that the Imperial authorities were only willing to renew the payments at the rates laid down by the Postal Union. The British Post Office has hitherto been paying at the rate of 12s. per pound for letters, all books and newspapers being carried free. The Postal Union rates would be 3s. 8d. per pound for letters, and 3d. per pound for books and newspapers. The reduction of payment would amount to a loss of £2000 to the contractors.

The Auckland Herald makes a strong plea for the retention of the San Francisco service. It shows that the average time last year by this route from the New Zealand ports to London was: "Auckland to London, 35 days; Wellington to London, 37; Dunedin to London, 38. The outward trips were: London to Auckland, 35.69; to Wellington, 37.62; to Dunedin, 39. Auckland being the port of departure and arrival has of course an advantage. The time from Dunedin, the most southerly port, to London, was 38 days, while by the direct service it was 42.15 days, and by the P. and O. line 45.36 days." The Herald points out that while the competing services are now about as good as ever they can be made, even the San Francisco steamers now employed can improve their time, while, if sufficient encouragement be afforded, much faster steamers will be put on the route. It says there is no doubt the time could be reduced at once to 25½ days between London and New Zealand if the Government of the United States were to assist. The latest news is that the Colonial office in London is to reconsider the matter, and the New Zealand Government hopes that its Agent-General would be able to induce the Imperial authorities to continue the payment at the present rate.

Hawaii, with its severe financial straits, should at this juncture make a heroic resolve, to stand by the through service, so convenient and valuable to the Kingdom, to its utmost ability.

LATEST NEWS.

From the Colonies by the Steamer Alameda.

Cholera is spreading in Belgium. There were 317 deaths from cholera in Hamburg, Germany, Sept. 6. From August 20 to Sept. 4, 6500 persons were buried in Ohlsdorf cemetery.

Sixteen additional deaths on the steamer Normania, and seven on the Rugia, are reported from New York. The Parnellites have issued a manifesto urging the organization of the National League, since, as they claim, the Nationalists have surrendered their independence.

Information has reached Zanzibar that the native chief Moara controls 20,000 men armed with rifles in Katanga, and that a strong expedition will be required to suppress him. Katanga is the famous gold and copper field district in Mwa, South Central Africa, between Luapula and the Kamalagdo Rivers.

Wilna, an ancient town in Russia, and capital of the province of the same name, has been destroyed by fire. Four thousand people have been left homeless by the fire.

Rioting has taken place among the trade unionists who are opposing the employment of non-unionists in the Cheshire (England) salt mines.

The London and General Bank, of 20 Budge-row, Cannon-street, which has an authorized capital of £1,000,000 and a subscribed capital of £417,770, has suspended payment. The Liberators Building Society, of 20 Budge-row, Cannon-street, has also suspended payment.

Hassim Ali, the chief who has been promoting insurrection against the British Government among the native tribes in the Black Mountain country on the north-western frontier of India, has offered to surrender.

A London telegram to Sydney says that in the boxing match between J. L. Sullivan and J. Corbetta the American pugilists, the betting is 1000 to 800 on Sullivan.

The new Cunard liner Campania has been successfully launched at Govan, on the Clyde. She will have a displacement of 19,000 tons when loaded. The Campania will be nearly as large as the Great Eastern.

The New York Herald alleges that the annexation by England of the Gilbert and Cornwallis Islands, in the Pacific, is the result of an intrigue on the part of the British and Germans to expel American traders from the South Seas.

The German men-of-war in the Pacific have been ordered to prevent the natives employed by the New Guinea Company from serving as laborers in other parts of the world. It is estimated in London that the world's wheat supply this year will be decidedly in excess of requirements.

A despatch from Calcutta states that the Ameer of Afghanistan has notified in a note to the Marquis of Lansdowne, Viceroy of India, his willingness to resist the encroachments of Russian troops, and will abide by the decision of the British authorities as to the attitude he shall adopt towards Russia.

Shocks of earthquake, in some cases severe, were experienced at various places in New Zealand on the 24th of August.

CHANNEL OPENING.

The Legislature Makes a Move for Receiving the Steamship China in Style.

Hon. Jas. Marsden this afternoon introduced the following resolution in the Legislature:

WHEREAS, The entrance to the harbor of Honolulu has been deepened to a depth of 30 feet at low tide, and it is important that this fact be made known to the world as soon as possible;

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Government be requested to remit all charges for pilotage, wharfage, etc., and give the assistance of the Government tug to the Pacific Mail steamer China on her next trip, provided she enters the harbor.

Hon. L. A. Thurston, in the course of a brief debate, said that the deepening of the channel was, next to the Reciprocity Treaty, the greatest thing ever accomplished for this port. The event should be marked in a manner befitting its importance. There should be a deputation of the Legislature, and one of the Chamber of Commerce, to meet the steamship China off port in the Government tug Eleu with the band aboard, and welcome the magnificent deep water vessel into our port.

The resolution was referred to a select committee.

Sullivan Downed at Last.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8, via San Diego and Hilo.

Telegram to the San Francisco Chronicle, dated New Orleans, September 7:

Jem Corbett knocked John L. Sullivan out after eight terrible rounds, in which desperate infighting took place. Corbett adopted his hugging tactics, giving Sullivan his weight to bear much of the time, eventually wearing him out, and, finally, giving him a terrific right-hander on the point of the chin, knocked him out. Corbett at the finish was quite fresh and active and met with a great ovation from his many friends. The Sullivan men were thunderstruck at this unexpected termination of the fight.

Anti-Cholera Precautions.

The Board of Health is seriously considering matters in connection with the quarantine of foreign steamers on account of the cholera in Europe and, reported, in America.

President Dayton of the Board was much impressed with the information given him by a BULLETIN reporter that the mails by the Mariposa on her latest down trip were fumigated at Auckland. Much will depend here on the news each steamer from foreign parts may bring as to the progress of the scourge. It is expected that the Monowai, due tomorrow from San Francisco, will be delayed owing to quarantine operations on mail steamers at New York.

Baseball Game.

There will be an exciting game of baseball between the How Do You Like It and the No. 1 Volunteer teams next Saturday, at 3:30 p. m. Following are the positions of the players:

"German Syrup"

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.: "My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Boschee's German Syrup. I can recommend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these long-standing cases that Boschee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this.

Rector. J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn., writes: I always use German Syrup for a Cough on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it—far less a superior.

"Another Compromise by the Lottery!"

UPON OUR SUGGESTION THE Lottery people having dropped the policy clause have met our further views and have decided to offer Firewood instead of Coin as prizes, and upon inquiring around and getting prices quoted by several dealers they settled on two as the only ones whose rates were sufficiently cheap for business, calling upon the one of those whose prices were quoted lowest, they had about concluded arrangements when they discovered that his wood was worthless as it was worm-eaten and had dry-rot, so dropping their negotiation they called upon the other, HUSTACE & CO., and after apologizing for not coming there first, they inspected their Wood and found it in first-class condition—sound and good—and more than doubly worth the difference asked; without further argument they closed the bargain and thus the objection to the Lottery is now removed and every one will be supplied with Sound Firewood dirt cheap.

Agents for Tickets will be advertised shortly.

TABLES TURNED.

McGuire Becomes the Prosecutor of Schwabach for False Arrest and Search.

James W. L. McGuire has filed a suit claiming $5000 damages from Ernst Schwabach for false arrest, and another $5000 for false search of his house. The complaint alleges that Schwabach, a foreigner and resident of Austro-Hungary, falsely, maliciously, etc., caused McGuire's arrest and imprisonment until he found bail of $250, on a charge of stealing a green purse containing $150 from Schwabach. It alleges in a second count that Schwabach caused an unlawful search of complainant's premises for the alleged stolen money, saying that police officers, "in the company and under the direction of defendant, did search and ransack the house and premises of this plaintiff, and did thereby greatly terrorize and humiliate this plaintiff and the members of his family there present, by reason whereof this plaintiff suffered greatly in his right of domicile, feelings and reputation."

The plaintiff represents that defendant is about to leave the kingdom by the steamer Alameda, and to remain away from this kingdom permanently. Wherefore he prays that a writ of ne exeat regno, or other restraint writ, may issue against the said defendant forbidding and preventing him from quitting the kingdom until the further order of the honorable Court or until he shall have entered into security with sufficient sureties to abide the result of this suit, and to pay such judgment as shall be rendered against him.

Chief Justice Judd, on the sworn complaint, issued a summons to Schwabach, commanding him to appear before the Supreme Court at the January term. A warrant of arrest was also sworn out by McGuire, but it was not served. It was said at the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court that F. M. Hatch, attorney for defendant, had arranged with C. W. Ashford, for the plaintiff, about security, so that Schwabach could depart on the Alameda. He did not leave by that steamer, however.

Interest in the Fight.

The O. S. S. Co.'s wharf was crowded last night on the arrival of the S. S. Alameda with the sporting fraternity of Honolulu, eager to hear the result of the Sullivan-Corbett fight. As the Alameda was coming alongside the dock, Captain Morse sang out, "Who won the fight?" One of the bloods on shore answered, "Corbett, 14 rounds." Captain Morse then said, "One thousand dollars that he didn't." And the crowd roared with laughter. It was then known that the Alameda did not bring the news. Some of the passengers were interrogated by a BULLETIN reporter, when the information was elicited that pugilistic news was not allowed through the telegraph at Auckland, and that it was a missionary country. The Alameda left Auckland at 2:40 p. m. on Sept. 10, three days after the fight.

Further fighting has occurred between the troops of the Ameer of Afghanistan and the Hazara natives. The conflict took place at Kamsin, and the rebels were completely routed, their losses numbering about 460 killed and wounded.

THE LEGISLATURE.

NINETY-FOURTH DAY.

THURSDAY, Sept. 22, 1892.

Morning Session.

Assembly convened at 10 o'clock. Prayer by Chaplain Waiamau. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

No reports of standing or select committees and the Order of the Day was, at 10:12, proceeded with.

The special Order of the Day was Bill 187, to authorize railroad corporations to mortgage their property and franchise to secure their bonds. Report of special committee was read and on motion the bill was considered section by section.

Rep. Kamaooha desired to know if the Oahu Railway & Land Co. was not allowed, under its present franchise of fifty years, to mortgage its property.

Minister Neumann said that the company could only mortgage to local people. Their charter does not prohibit the company to borrow money, but the law does not allow said company to alienate its property.

Rep. Kamaooha moved an amendment that the first section be made to apply to the Oahu Railway Co. and not to any railroad corporation.

Minister Neumann was satisfied with the proposed amendment. Mr. Hatch, the attorney for the corporation, had handed him the bill and he judged that it was all right.

Rep. White was very much opposed to the bill being rushed through in the manner desired. A suspicious circumstance was that it was presented to the Cabinet by Mr. Hatch.

He favored reference to a new committee and if such was not had he would talk as long as he could against it. Two members of the Cabinet had been asked regarding the matter and one had said that he knew nothing about it. He had hoped to be able to support it as a Government measure, but the manner in which it was being pushed suggested foul play. Everything had been done rapidly and very probably the report of the committee had been prepared at the same time as the bill.

Minister Neumann stated that he had made out the report himself after meeting with the committee. Relative to the haste he would say that he only desired action taken which would allow news thereof to go forward by this steamer.

Rep. White still favored reference to another committee. It had been noticed, presented, printed, read and referred to a committee, and the report of the committee had been read all in one day, and probably now the engrossed copy was in the pocket of Mr. Testa or some one else already to present.

Rep. Ashford favored the amendment made by Rep. Kamaooha. He had been canvassed relative to his support by the attorney of the corporation, but did not suppose the bill would be presented in the shape it is. The first section was too general. If this was for the Oahu Railway Co., let them have it in their own name. Section 2 asking that the Government ratify all mortgages made heretofore was demanding more than he could agree to. The list of mortgages should be examined by a committee. He agreed with Rep. White that the matter looked as if it was being rushed through.

Rep. Nawahi favored reference to a new special committee for the reason that the company had now under its control valuable Government property, all of which they had obtained from a former Minister of the Crown for $1 per year. He believed that a resolution had been introduced last session to cancel that lease, but so far nothing had been done to do so; it had been considered an illegal transaction. If this was mortgaged by the railroad company, then the property would pass into the hands of foreign capitalists. The Cabinet should be very careful how they attempted to navigate the ship of state or they may strike a reef, and then would come a change of commanders.

Rep. Kaubi did not think anything could be accomplished by reference to a new committee.

Rep. Kaunamano said that the Hawaiian members were not opposed to the principle of the bill but the style of it. It was dangerous; if the Oahu Railway Co. could not pay their debt, then the Hawaiian Government would have to pay. It looked like a first step in the attempt to bankrupt the Government. If a foreign company got a foothold they would be arbitrary and exacting and cause much trouble.

At 11:55 recess was had until 1:30 p. m.

Mr. Lander's Recommendation.

Mr. J. A. Lander, a prominent citizen of Clarksburg, Mo., and widely known in that State, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy: "I have seen its good results and can recommend it." For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.

WATER RIGHTS AGAIN.

A Chinaman Assaulted, Not With a Pistol or a Stone, but With Dukes.

There was some trouble over water rights on Friday morning, this time at Kalihi, in which a Chinaman was assaulted by a native. The trouble arose over the diversion of water. Mrs. Nakuina controls two-thirds of the water and a native owned the other third. On the morning mentioned the native claimed that the Chinaman, a servant of Mrs. Nakuina's, had diverted the water and he went and remonstrated with him. He admitted he pushed him. The Chinaman denied trespassing on the water rights of the other, and said he was assaulted by the native, showing a face and clothes covered with carmine. Mrs. Nakuina had the native arrested for assault on the Chinaman and he was tried in the Police Court this morning. After the evidence was taken, W. C. Achi, counsel for defendant, rose and in the course of his argument stated that it was customary with Chinese to scratch themselves and rub blood all over their face as if they were badly hurt. J. L. Kaulukou, for the prosecution, was very sorry that the counsel should run down his own race, a thing he would never be guilty of. He asked for a conviction. Judge Foster, in sentencing defendant, said it was a small case, but that he was guilty nevertheless, and he would fine him $12 and $3.50 costs. W. C. Achi noted an appeal.

Administration Case.

Chief Justice Judd gave a hearing to the accounts of H. A. Widemann, administrator of the estate of the late D. McBryde, at Chambers yesterday. The accounts were contested by L. A. Thurston on behalf of the widow. By order of the Court Mr. Widemann rendered an amended account, which Mr. Thurston still disputed. The case was heard and taken under consideration.

Honolulu, Sept. 16, 1892. 524-10f

INSPECTORS' NOTICE.

5th District of Honolulu, 2d Precinct.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the Inspectors of said Precinct shall hold Public Meetings from 5 to 8 o'clock, at the Reformatory School, on the following days, as follows:

FRIDAY, Sept. 23, 1892;
SATURDAY, Sept. 24, 1892;

For the purpose of correcting the Electoral Roll or Voting List of the Precinct by adding new names thereto, or striking off the names of such voters as have died, removed from the Precinct, or otherwise become disqualified from voting in the said Precinct.

By order of the Board of Inspectors.
W. L. WILCOX, Chairman.
Honolulu, Sept. 17, 1892. 527-9f

Our stock commends itself to people with refined tastes, being selected with a view to pleasing a class of buyers who recognise good values.

"Annual Clearance Sales," "Marked Down Sales" and "Bargain Days" are omitted from our list of catch-penny thoughts. Every day is a bargain day with us, and a display of good articles the only bait we set for the buyer.

The supply of HOSE REELS was exhausted a week after we mentioned them to you; another lot will arrive in three weeks. To those of our customers who left orders for Reels and failed to get them we mention this fact and ask their indulgence until the goods arrive.
