MAJOR LANGFITT'S WINK

IT WAS AN INNOCENT AFFAIR, SAYS ONE.

Mr. Spencer Says the Engineer Was Misunderstood—All Sorts of Opinions on the New Harbor Lines.

EDITOR STAR:—In your issue of yesterday, speaking of the extension of Nuuanu and Sorenson's wharves, you say that Major Langfitt gave the private wink, etc., as if he recommended one thing to the department and another to people here.

This is unfair to Major Langfitt. He stated to me the day he left Honolulu, referring to the action of the Chamber of Commerce in the wharf matter, that his recommendation to the War Department was purely advisory and might or might not be approved.

The statement regarding the extensions was that they would probably be allowed to stand until permanent changes were made to give increased wharf facilities. Yours, etc.

JAMES G. SPENCER.

The above explains itself. It will probably be admitted at all hands that Major Langfitt's "wink" had the effect of hurrying work of extending two wharves in Honolulu harbor. The major spoke to others about the matter.

Enough confidence was felt in the assurance to warrant the expenditure of considerable money on the improvements, at any rate. The situation that Major Langfitt probably contemplated seems now to exist. The harbor lines have been fixed by the War Department. This wharf extension extends outside those lines. But it can remain until the War Department by affirmative action orders its removal as an obstruction to navigation. This, Major Langfitt probably assumed, basing his assumption on his knowledge of similar matters elsewhere, would not be done unless parties that the extension is an obstruction to navigation and not even then unless it is shown that as an obstruction the objections to it outweigh its advantages to commerce.

The situation has been town talk since yesterday, and the topic in many a street group. Some merchants consider the matter serious. Those opposed originally to the extensions are of course jubilant or rather are disposed to crow. There are others who do not believe, even now, that the United States Government will remove the ends of the wharves until other accommodations are provided.

"I do not believe the government can do it until American laws apply here," said a member of the Chamber of Commerce. "The harbor must be turned over in the regular way with other government property. The only other way of the government to move in the matter now is to condemn it, as was done in the case of the Richards street slip."

Army officers here are very reticent as to what may be done. Any steps taken will be through Major Mills of the local garrison.

POLICE COURT.

In Judge Wilcox's chapel this morning George Smith was fined $6 for beating the face of a Chinaman named Ah Leong.

Akiona was fined $15 for having cash tickets in possession and Chong Ip Hing paid $50 on an opium charge.

BOY BURGLARS.

Jim Keola was this morning sent to the Reformatory school for one month. Sentence in the cases of two other boys was suspended for six months. These lads were arrested for stealing goods from the store of E. W. Jordan and were found guilty in the police court.

Owl lunch room is located opposite Criterion barber shop, Fort street.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

At the alteration sale ordered by L. B. Kerr, a good opportunity will be offered to buy dry goods at low figures. A mark down has been ordered on all goods in stock.

THINKS HE WILL STAY HERE

HE CAME WITH OPIUM, THAT'S THE REASON.

Michael McCann, Able Seaman on the Planter Arrested With "Dope" Secreted on His Person.

"That comes of sailing of a Friday" said Michael McCann, able seaman on the barkentine Planter when he found himself with two pounds and a half of opium on his person in the arms of a customs guard on Brewer's wharf this morning.

"Me first trip to the Islands," he continued in mock lugubrious strain, "and now I suppose I'll stay here and become one of your old and respected citizens 'kamarinos' or what is it you call 'em. Tell me friends to please write care of the reef. And all for a bloomin' two pounds and a half of the dope, too. I'd have shown the wise nut if I'd hit the pipe for the whole of it comin' down. The wise guy would have jet'ioned it and saved the rest of his cargo. But everything's gone now, spars, sheets, gear and the whole bloomin' vessel and no chance but floatin' ashore on the anchor."

"Say, how much does a man get for making this kind of a damn fool of himself? Two hundred and fifty? and me good ship gone where I can't clap a bottomy bond on her. I'm glad this ain't Friday or the 13th of the month or I'd be hung sure. You'll let me get me gear from the fo'c'sle, me coat anyway, for I don't want to show disrespect of the court, by appearing before the judge in me shirt sleeves."

McCann is a sailor on the barkentine Planter which arrived yesterday from San Francisco. He jumped off the vessel, forward, on to Brewer's wharf about 10 o'clock this morning and was immediately seized by Customs Guard Kanui who had been watching him. A search of his clothing disclosed five half pound tins of opium. He was taken to the station and charged with having opium in possession.

This is McCann's first trip to the Islands. Ten more tins were found secreted in the vessel and it is believed he had already landed some.

He is rather a prepossessing looking fellow.

NEARLY HALF A MILLION

THE VALUE OF OAHU COLLEGE IN CASH.

Statement of the Treasurer of the Institution Shows That the Funds are Well administered.

The annual report of the treasurer of Oahu College, which has just been printed, shows the financial standing of the college to be steadily improving. The total income of the institution for the year past has been $40,567.99. The expenditures have been $34,386.79, leaving a surplus over income of $5,181.20.

The income is derived from two sources; interest from investments both here and on the mainland, and income derived from tuition, board, books, etc. The total investments of the college, yielding income, amount to $287,500.12. Of this amount $23,252.10 is in charge of James F. Hunnewell of Boston. The total income from investments amounted to $19,029.28 of which $16,365.88 came from the Island investments and $2,663.40 from the U. S. investments. The income from tuition, board, etc. was $21,588.71.

In addition to the investments which return income, the college owns its buildings and grounds which are valued at $180,764 and a library valued at $3250. There are other minor assets which bring the total value of the college property to $468,951.68. As compared with institutions on the mainland this amount is small, but it is a solid value which will continue to grow. There is no better way of spending money, when wealth comes to the individual than of endowing the local places of learning. The time may be not so very far distant when Oahu College will develop into the University of the Pacific. Certainly the nucleus is contained in the figures of the treasurer's report.

KIPLING'S LATEST POEM.

Pays Tribute to the Cruiser, Daughter of the Frigate.

LONDON, August 13.—The Morning Post publishes a poem by Rudyard Kipling, entitled "Cruisers," describing them as daughters of the frigate, which "made a play for her bully, the ship of the line." The following three stanzas are typical:

And when we have wakened the lust
of the foe
To draw him by flight to our bulwarks
we go;
Yet never so hasty that he is outrun,
And never so halting that we are undone.

Then, lurching and lunging, he follows
eth far,
With half of long pieces our beauty to mar.

Thil' ware of fresh smoke stealing nearer he flies,
And our bulwarks close in to make him
good prize.

Anon we return, being gathered again,
Across the gray ridges all drabbed
in blue;
Across the keen ridges all grispy and curled;

To join the long dance round the curve of the world.

LAST OF THE COLUMBIA.

Her Boats Brought Here by the Mikahala.

The last sad remains of the City of Columbia arrived in Honolulu this morning. They consisted of the four boats in which the officers and crew made their way from the sinking vessel to Mana, Kauai. They were brought by natives from Mana to Waimea and from that port here on the Mikahala.

They were just as the survivors of the vessel left them with masts, sails, water tanks and baling buckets. They are on the Inter Island wharf and were the objects of much curiosity this morning.

HAWAIIAN REPORTS.

"BOYS" ABROAD.

Letters received from Walter Dillingham and Robert Atkinson report that they are enjoying their bicycle tour. They have been through Ireland, taking in the Lakes of Killarney, the Isle of Man and Scotland, which they did thoroughly from North to South. They were just starting for England when last heard from. Their bicycles, which are the same they purchased here, have done excellent service.

DOWN IN HARNESS.

A hack horse fell down at the corner of King and Nuuanu streets this afternoon and came near injuring several people. The corner was crowded at the time. While moving at a fair gallop, the horse tumbled over and just missed rolling upon pedestrians near the wide walk. After patching up his harness and putting his steed for a short time the driver moved on.

RADICAL IMPROVEMENTS.

Sewing machines of the present are very different from those of the past. Radical improvements have been made, and women quickly realize the difference between a cheaply made imitation and the light running, easily adjusted Singer sewing machine. Singer machines are so simple that a child can understand them; they are so strong that a bungler can hardly get them out of order. Every point is made with such scrupulous care and exactness.

OLAA LAND SALE PUT OFF

WILL NOT TAKE PLACE UNTIL NOVEMBER.

Squatters Claims and Rights Under Newland's Resolution to be Investigated—A Nudge Received.

The sale of land in the new Olaa tract, upon which the squatters some time ago squatted and their rights were denied by this government has been postponed from September 2 to November 4.

It is understood that the cause of postponement is the anomalous position of public lands at this time and a "nudge" the Hawaiian government has received that the proceedings at Olaa may not be just exactly legal in every aspect. This has been a much mooted matter at Hilo for some months.

The postponement will give an opportunity for a definite settlement of the matter one way or the other. The opinion of the Hawaiian government on the matter will go to Washington. Of course the conclusion of the United States authorities will settle the controversy, if such it may be called, one way or the other. This course will save the cases going to the courts.

President Dole and the Cabinet feel confident that the Newland's resolution covers the point fully and that the Hawaiian government is sound in proceeding with the disposition of any public lands. Of course this ruling is against the opinion of many people, and, from the best reports, has been changed or injured into by the central government.

An official notice in today's Star postpones the sale mentioned. This course was determined upon yesterday and the instructions to postpone were sent by President Dole personally to the land office this morning.

"HANS, THE BOATMAN."

Original songs will be introduced, and the dog lion will take a part.

FIGHTING AROUND MANILA.

General MacArthur and Colonel Smith Both Have It Hot.

MANILA, August 17.—The Twelfth Infantry left Calicut at sunrise and advanced up the railway. A detachment of from 1500 to 2500 insurgents were encountered and defeated. One officer received a slight wound in the face and a reporter of the Manila Times, accompanying Colonel Smith, was shot in the head.

Yesterday Colonel Smith attacked another large party of insurgents at Angeles and drove them before him. The Americans lost 2 killed and 12 wounded; insurgents killed numbered 200.

MANILA, August 16.—Adjutant General Washington, MacArthur's troops occupy the country from Candalla to a point near Angeles, thence toward Pacar, taking within his line Santa Anita, Guagua and Bacolor. Colonel Smith with ten companies of the Twelfth Infantry and two companies of the First artillery attacked today the enemy entrenched on the outskirts of Angeles, estimated at 2500, driving them to the north and inflicting upon them a reported loss of 200 killed and 12 wounded. The 11th Inst. General Young's troops, consisting of a detachment of the Fourth cavalry, Twenty-first, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth infantry, drove the insurgents northeast of Manila through Maraguina, San Mateo, into the mountains. Returning the following day a column of insurgents 500 strong, descending the road west of Baguio for the purpose of taking the railway, were driven out by Baguio and Quingo troops and routed yesterday. This force is in full retreat northward, carrying a number of their officers. Angeles will be permanently occupied at once.

"FOR THE SAKE OF FUN, MISCHIEF IS DONE."

A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. The mischief appears in eruptions, dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness, kidney diseases, and other ailments. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures all diseases originating in or promoted by impure blood.

HOOD'S PILLS cure all liver ills. Non-irritating.

A GOOD THING.

There's one good thing when they feel that business men cannot pass by. For far and wide it's fame you hear. They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer. On draught or in bottle at Criterion.

YESTERDAY.Reports of Work From All the Islands.
Second Meeting Next Tuesday—Committee on Course of Study.An interesting meeting of the Teachers' Association was held at the High School building yesterday afternoon.
This was the first meeting of the year.
It will be followed by a second on Tuesday afternoon next, at which time officers and committees for the ensuing term will be appointed.Prof. M. M. Scott presided and made a few opening remarks. Inspector-General Townsend being called upon reviewed the history and objects of the organization. Following this there were reports of the work on various islands
by the following:Hawaii, Miss Angela Crook.
Maui, C. W. Baldwin.
Oahu, C. N. Taggard.
Kauai, J. M. Davis.Complete reports were received from Maui. In the schools industrial work was being fostered more than ever before and the teachers of the island were following as closely as possible the lines marked out by Colonel Parker last Summer. Local associations on Hawaii were doing much good, reported Miss Crook. About the same reports came from Oahu and Kauai.H. S. Townsend, Miss Crook, C. W.
Baldwin, J. M. Davis and T. H. Gibson were appointed a committee to prepare the course of study for next year and to report at next meeting.At evening the teachers attended the lecture of Dr. Dawsey at the same place on "Child Life." This was a most interesting discourse and was greatly enjoyed by all present.NEGRO RAVISHERS.Five White Women Assaulted in Little Rock, Arkansas.LITTLE ROCK, August 16.—Five brutal assaults on white women, in every case by a negro, have occurred in Little Rock in the past 24 hours. The victims of the assault are all highly respected and all were attacked in the suburbs of the city. In each case the negro was frightened away after his victim had been brutally beaten and bruised.These outrages were brought to the attention of Governor Jones and he at once offered a reward of $1500 each for the arrest and conviction of the assailants.Four negroes have been arrested as suspects and lodged in jail. They all answer the description given by some of the victims. Ed Wright has been positively identified by Mrs. Kennedy of Fourteenth and Jones streets as the man who assaulted her.As soon as darkness fell men began flocking toward the vicinity of the jail, and by 10 o'clock fully 2000 were on the streets. About 11:30 o'clock an attempt was made to storm the jail. The leader of the mob was arrested by Sheriff Kavanaugh on a charge of inciting a riot, and lodged in jail. There are still many men in the streets near the jail, and the sheriff, anticipating another attack, has placed a heavy guard at the jail.MATINEE CONCERTS.The band will play as usual at Emma

"Our" Paul—Paul Neumann—is a true humorist and has got off some of the funniest, withest, brightest sayings that have ever sentitulated along this beach, but he never got off anything funnier, wittier or brighter than when he said in an interview "about" the tramway company, "Understand, we want to do that which will work for the most good of Honolulu. We desire to see the city grow and advance." The humorist must then have cast a contemplative eye upon one of Pāin's shaky arks, and winked at the squinted mules, and the mules winked back.

An addition to the yachting fleet should be hailed with pleasure by yachtsmen and other lovers of sport. There is far too little yachting done here. Mr. Hobron, after looking into yachting on the Coast considers the waters of the Islands ideal for the sport. As the wealth increases there will be doubtless many more yachts brought here, and we shall have some good racing. There is no reason why in time there should not be races between the yachts of the Coast and the yachts of the Islands. We might get up a sort of America cup of our own.

There seems likely to be some trouble about wharves. If the United States Government has finally decided upon the harbor line as set out on the map shown in Colonel Ruhlén's office, some of the work recently done by the Government will have to be undone. It is evident that the commission appointed to look into the harbor matter has set its face against encroaching upon the surface of the harbor. This view of the question was urged in these columns when the harbor was under discussion, but met with scant attention from those who had set their minds upon encroaching upon the surface waters. It will be a great pity if time has been wasted and public money spent in vain. Major Langfitt allowed it to be guessed that if the work were put up, the Federal authorities would not make a change, they would not disturb existing wharves, but Major Langfitt may have been wrong, at least it looks so if the official map is considered.

THREE SUICIDES.

There certainly has been an avalanche of suicides and accidents this week. In a small population such as there is on this Island, the proportion has run up to inordinate figures. When suicides occur one naturally looks for causes. But there are no remarkable predisposing causes at work, that is, there has been no wide calamity which would bring about a desire on the part of persons to rush from the life they know to others that they know not of.

Two of the suicides which have occurred during the week are explainable. The case of Joe Silva was one of depression brought about through old age and lack of success in business. The case of the Japanese woman was natural depression caused by her way of life.

The case of the Chinese at the other side of the Island is not so easily explainable. It does not seem clear that the mere fear of being arrested for having opium in possession would drive him to suicide. But it is quite on the cards that he knew so much about the opium on the other side of the Island that it suited some people to put him out of the way, rather than he should be caught. It was upon this theory that the coroner's jury apparently worked, but they obtained no result. It might be just as well for the police authorities to keep the case in mind and watch for further indications.

FOREIGNERS IN JAPAN.

Some interesting figures relative to the number of foreigners in Japan have been prepared by Consul General Govey. He gives a table showing twenty-one nationalities, and compares the numbers resident in that country in 1891 with those resident in March of 1899.

The total number of foreigners in Japan in 1891 was 9549 while this year the number is 10,015, the increase in the eight years has not been very large. The Chinese stand at the head of the list with 5344 in 1891 as against 5297 in 1899, a slight falling off. The British come next with 1725 in the former year against 1763 now, a slight increase. The Americans on the other hand have increased from 967 to 1140, an advance of 17 per cent. The Germans show a decrease from 523 to 451. The remaining nationalities are each small in number. It is of interest to us here that the number of Hawaiians is practically stationary, being 14 in 1891 and 13 in 1899. These ought now to be reckoned with the Americans.

The noticeable fact is the increase among Americans. It shows how American interests are advancing in the Empire of the Chrysanthemum. Of course this means a reaching out in trade, and from its vitality, points the direction into which trade is coming. The commercial interests of the United States are following close upon those of Great Britain.

When the figures of those resident in Tokyo are taken into consideration separately, however, the Americans stand at the head of the list at present, for in the capital of the Empire are 235 Americans, 177 British, 167 Chinese and 39 Germans. No Hawaiians live in the city of Tokyo. The total number of foreigners in the city is 921.

What much larger interests the various nations have had in Hawaii is made plain by a glance at the last census. There were then 3986 Americans, 2250 British and 1432 German. In Honolulu the capital, there were 536 Americans, 399 British and 195 Germans, and these numbers have had considerable increase during the last three years. To these might be added the part Hawaiians, whose fathers were of the nationalities. Part Hawaiians whose fathers were American numbered 1312, part Hawaiians whose fathers were British counted up 1121, while the Germans claimed 327.

These figures do not have the strong bearing now that we are annexed, but it is interesting to make the comparison between the Hawaiian Islands and Japan, and to note how the American and European element stands with regard to the same nationalities having business interests in Japan.

SUNSHINE.

Among the crowd of pessimistic views that are constantly being put forth by the moralists, it is refreshing to find some one who takes a cheery view of human nature. The New England Magazine for July expresses itself, editorially as follows:

"We are of those who believe that this nation is essentially a nation of good people. Like every other nation, it is very full of sinners, and many of the sinners are in high places, where they can blow loud blasts and pull strong ropes and often exercise the determining influence; but nothing shall shake us from the conviction that the great majority of men in this republic desire to know the truth and to do the right thing, and that if they do not do the right thing it is because they do not know the truth or see clearly what is the most important question."

The writer might have gone a step further, and have said that the majority of people in the world are good people. In spite of many mistakes and much wrong doing, the greater part of mankind wants to do the right thing, and is both kindly and honestly disposed. Robert Louis Stevenson said in one of his letters "I see... a solemn, a terrible but a very noble universe," and then adds "I think any honest man may make out a life which shall be happy for himself, and, by so being, beneficent for those about him." And there are many such men and women in the world.

It is much better to have a kindly view of one's fellows than it is to have an atrocious one. It is both wiser and better to seek for good motives in the mountain of good actions, than to grope for evil motives in the garbage heap of ill deeds. It says something for the world when one can think of the former as a mountain, while the latter is after all but a heap.

People are very apt however to consider the evil rather than the good. The good is so constantly with us, that when the evil comes it is striking, and by contemplating it one is apt to get into the way of thinking, "The world is very evil" as some misanthropic hymn writer commences his stanza with. If one will only contemplate the good, the charitableness, the kindness, the self-abnegation and the cheerfulness, of the average amount of mankind, neither individuals nor nations will look so very black. There are plenty of bright colors and plenty of sunshine in the picture.

The thought expressed in the New England Magazine is a bright and wholesome one. It is in line with another remark of Stevenson. He would think brightly and happily of the world, even though he, himself, was a sufferer and had "to strip himself of all the pleasures he had chosen." In his view "one dank, dispirited word is harmful..... a piece of acquired evil; every gay, every bright word or picture, like every pleasant air of music, is a piece of pleasure set afloat; the reader catches it, and if he be healthy, goes on his way rejoicing." So the New England Magazine editor, has sent vibrating across the continent and oceans, a ray of sunshine which is undimmed even on our sunlit Isles.

NEW CHINESE RAILWAYS

LARGE CONCESSIONS MADE BY FLOWERY KINGDOM.

Over 3000 Miles of Track to be Added to the 350 Miles Now in Operation. An Economic Revolution in Sight.

At present the only railroad system in China consists of the 350 miles of road reports the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, which connects Tien-Tsin, the port of Peking, with the capital, and extends southwesterly to Poo-Ting, the capital of the province of that name, whence it is the intention to build lines into the coal and iron regions of the interior, which are within easy reach. This, however, is only one important link in the projected network of Chinese railroads. A military and political rather than an immediately commercial value, so far as the rest of the world is at present concerned, attaches to the railroad which the Russian Government is constructing through Manchuria, and which will give the Trans-Siberian Railroad of the latter power ice-free termini at Port Arthur and Tientsin. It is to counteract, in part, the Russian influence that a concession has been obtained by British interests for the construction of a line from Shan-hai-kwan, on the Tien-Tsin Peking road, to Newchwang, a treaty port, where British and American commerce already have a footing, although it remains to be seen whether the recent Anglo-Russian agreement will not result in interference with the progress of this enterprise.

The other important concessions for Chinese railroads include a line under British and German auspices from Tien-Tsin to Shanghai, 700 miles in length, which, passing through the German sphere of influence in middle China, will connect with roads from Germany's port at Kiao-chow running eastward into the coal and iron regions of the province of Shantung. A Belgian concession has been granted for a road 650 miles long from Peking to Hankow, the great interior port at the head of deep water navigation on the Yang-tse or Yellow river. Another British concession is for a line extending southward from Shanghai to Ningpo and Hangchow, and finally to the British territory recently acquired on the mainland opposite Hongkong, where it will connect with a short British line, now under construction, leading to Canton, the southern commercial center of China. British capital is also engaged in the construction of a short line westward from Shanghai to Soochow and Nankin. The direct American interest in Chinese railroad concessions centers in a concession granted last year to New York capitalists for the construction of 600 miles of road, connecting Canton with Hankow, for which active surveys are now being prosecuted. In the south of China the French propose several lines which will bring their possessions into connection with the provinces of Yunnan, and ultimately with Canton. Another road under British auspices is to lead from Canton and Hongkong to Chingto, the capital of the province of Szechuen, probably the most populous and productive portion of China, and opens up an important region upon the upper section of the West river of China, which has been recently thrown open to European commerce.

Altogether the Chinese lines provided for by these concessions involve the addition of some 3000 miles of railroads to the world's existing mileage.

The Great Medicine that Gives Nerve Strength

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes the Blood Rich and Pure, Creates an Appetite and Restores Health, Vigor and Vitality.

"I feel that I ought to write a few words in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has done great things for me. I was in a delicate condition and was sick at my stomach and constipated. I tried remedies highly recommended for female weaknesses, but the medicines brought on other troubles. I was so weak I could not attend to my household duties, and I then determined to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After I had taken this medicine a short time I began to gain strength. I

Crowd Stronger Each Day until I was able to work all day without any inconvenience. I have taken Hood's Pills for constipation, and I am better today than I have been for five years. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills I feel rested in the morning. I am less nervous and am sure I have richer and purer blood. I have always been bothered with scrofula, but now I am rid of it. Before my last child was born I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and my girl baby was fat and strong, while my other child was not well and lived to be only two years old." Mrs. E. P. I had medical attendance and had medicine taken and a lot of food and application, but they did not do me the slightest good. In fact I tried all sorts of medicine and nothing seemed to relieve me. It is now about eight months since I was cured, so I am sure I can say the cure is a permanent one."

J. EAGAN TALKS AT PONTIAC

HOW HE HAS PROSPERED DURING FIFTEEN YEARS.

Came to the Island as a Joke—Hawaiian Education Commended—The Great Egg Question.

John Egan has been interviewed for a Detroit paper and the results appear as follows:

PONTIAC, Mich., August 5.—From away across the Pacific seas John Egan, formerly of Oakland, Cal., now en route to New York, tells an interesting story about his life, his business and the fortune he has made in the Hawaiian Islands.

"About 15 years ago, while doing dry goods business for a firm in San Francisco," says he, "I accepted an offer, which I had left. Since that time I have prospered in sugar and dry goods away beyond my most sanguine expectations. The natives, as a rule, are well educated, but a shiftless lot. It would be a difficult matter to get into the interior far enough to find a native who could not read or write. Including and what an American would call a good common school education, the system being the same as at present in vogue in America, and a great many of the natives attain the higher branches of education. They rarely ever engage in business, but a majority of them are land owners and engage in the raising of taro, from which taro flour is made."

Mr. Egan represents a wealthy syndicate that has secured a franchise from the Government of Honolulu for the exclusive manufacture and maintenance of 40,000 barrels of sugar, including sugar cane and an ice machine. All brewed goods are imported from the United States, and cost, where they are sold in saloons 15 cents a glass, two for a quarter, for beer. In the city of Honolulu there are only six saloons, which pay a Government license of $1000 a year. Cigars are all imported from Manila and Havana, and sell for 10 cents each for a good article.

"The highest commodity we have to contend with," he said, "is eggs, which sell from 60 cents to a dollar a dozen. Here don't prosper on the islands, although the maximum temperature only ranges from 60 to 86 degrees during the entire year. The accepted belief is that mosquitoes bite the hens and kill them."

H. C. Peck was the artist the commission and is the donor of the picture.

THE BEST TREATMENT FOR CHOLERA INFANTUM.
Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. LAW, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

The State of Connecticut recently ordered an investigation of a number of food products, through its Agricultural Experiment Station, including a great many popular brands of beer. The necessary samples were all bought in the open market at New Haven, and were submitted to a thorough chemical test, resulting in eleven being thrown out as unwholesome. Among those found to be Absolutely Pure was the product of the Pabst Brewing Company. This is only another of the many evidences of the superiority of Pabst Beer.

SENSE AND NONSENSE.

"I got my start in life through picking up a pin on the street. I had been refused employment by a banker, and on my way out I saw a pin and—" "Oh, thunder! What a cheat! I've heard of that boy so often. The banker was impressed with your confidence, and called you back and made you head of the firm."

"No; I saw the pin and picked it up, and sold it for $500. It was a diamond."

A leading teacher of cycling in Chicago, has used a lady's and a gentleman's Sterling during the entire season of 1919. During this time he gave 700 lessons on the gentleman's and 2662 on the lady's wheel, and the total cost of repairs for both machines was less than $2.50.

An advertisement was inserted in a weekly newspaper for an organist and music teacher. Among the replies was the following: "Sir, I notice your advertisement for an organist and music teacher, lady or gentleman. Having been both for several years, I offer you my services."

If you are going to choose a wheel you must know something about the details that go up to make a good bicycle. Call upon the P. C. & M. Company, on Fort street, and get honest information.

"Can you paint me a sign at once?" "Yes; what kind of a sign do you want?" "A sign of rain." A cloud lowered on the painter's brow, and, fearing an immediate storm, the humorist left.

The Pacific Cycle & Manufacturing Company will sell you a high-grade Sterling bicycle for $50 on small weekly or monthly installments.
