HONOLULU TERRITORY OF HAWAII, TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1907

Prior 5 CENTS

"Japan and the United States are on the best terms of friendship. Wherever Prince Fushimi has visited in the United States he has been royally received. As to the San Francisco troubles that is a matter for statesmen to settle. He is a gunjin (warrior) and statecraft is not his business."

Statement to the Bulletin by Imperial Master of Ceremonies on behalf of Prince Fushimi.

Prince Arrives And Speaks Pleasantly On National Questions

Prince Fushimi of Japan, who arrived here this morning on the British cruiser Monmouth, gave out the following interview to a Bulletin reporter through B. Nagasaki, the master of the royal household.

Prince Fushimi was royally entertained everywhere in England, Canada and in the United States during his travels.

"What does the Prince think and say of the San Francisco question?"
"Well, Prince Fushimi is a gunjin and has therefore nothing to do with the affairs of statesmen. The Prince is of the firm opinion that the Governments of the United States and Japan are on the best terms of friendship."

"The Japanese here are greatly stirred up over the San Francisco trouble and they think that the Prince while here will look into this matter and report to the Japanese Government."

"The Prince has nothing to say as to that."

Hawaiians Propose Several Candidates For Office To Frear

A movement is on foot among the prominent Hawaiians of the city to approach Governor Frear with a proposition to secure recognition by having a few Hawaiians appointed to some of the high Territorial offices. The matter is being conducted with great secrecy, and very little is given out by those interested, as they explain that they have not as yet reduced their proposition to a definite form, but they do not deny that it is their intention to try to have a few men of their race appointed as heads of territorial departments.

"You Look Mighty Well"

This is a characteristic compliment to a man dressed in Benjamin Clothes. It's made primarily for three reasons:

First, Benjamin Clothes are distinguished from the "masses" by an individuality, an originality of pattern and cut.

Second, the highest quality fabric is used and the finish is perfect.

Third, the easy fit gives "him" an air of ease and self confidence.

The wanderlust which has been evident with the local Japanese for some time past seems to have struck the Korean laborers on the plantations also, and a great number are now said to be anxious to leave the islands for the mainland.

"About three hundred Koreans have applied to the Kuremiki hut for passage in that boat for Canada," said Chas. Chillingworth this morning. "They have come from many different plantations. We have, however, refused."

WALLACH ESCAPES ON A TECHNICALITY

Judge Directs Jury To Return Verdict Of Not Guilty

"We, the jury, find J. Lor Wallach not guilty."

Such was the verdict by the jury in Judge Lindsay's court this afternoon after listening for two days to testimony in the case of the female rock barker who was charged with perjury.

But the jury did not return the verdict of its own will. What their judgment would have been in the end is problematical. The verdict is merely the opinion of Judge Lindsay, who instructed the jury to find Wallach not guilty of the crime with which he was charged.

Wallach goes free merely on a legal technicality.

When Court convened this afternoon, the motion made by Frank Thompson to strike out the affidavit and testimony of John D. Holt, who administered the oath to Wallach, was taken up. Thompson argued in support of his motion, while Deputy Attorney General Prosser opposed it. When they had concluded their arguments, Judge Lindsay said: "I am strongly of the opinion that a conviction for perjury in this case would not hold good. Under the circumstances I must grant the motion."

This means that the most material

part of the testimony for the prosecution was stricken out. Prosser then asked the Court to allow him to reopen his case so that he might put Holt on the stand again and prove by him that in administering the oath to Wallach, he did swear him with the words "so help me God." The judge denied the motion, and on motion of Thompson directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, which it did.

Howland Resigns Position

J. Hastings Howland has resigned as Superintendent of Water Works, his resignation being tendered to Superintendent Holloway on the last day of June. It was accepted but no one has been appointed in Howland's place as yet, and it is hardly probable that any appointment will be made until after Frear is inaugurated as Governor and has given some idea as to what policy he intends to pursue with regard to the Public Works Department.

The last Legislature abolished the position of Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, which was held by Howland, but appropriated the sum of $175 a month for a Superintendent of Water Works and Sewers. It was supposed that Howland would hold this position. But he can't see it that way. The salary is too small to be attractive, and therefore he resigned.

"I don't believe that they can get a good man to take the position at that salary," said Mr. Howland this morning. "For the present it reverts to Mr. Holloway, and I don't know what he intends to do about it."

Howland remains in the department as supervising engineer of the Territory. His work will be strictly along engineering lines and he has no further connection with the water works except where engineering work is to be done.

HAWAIIANS PROPOSE

a few names for as candidates for honors as departmental heads. They will also suggest the officers, while they would especially like to have them get. They will, however, merely make their proposals in the manner of suggestions for the executive to consider.

The offices which will probably be asked for are those of High Sheriff, Land Commissioner and Treasurer. The delegation figures that the office now held by Wm. Henry is a plum, which might as well be given to a Hawaiian. They think that the present incumbent of the Treasurer's office has not shown himself so valuable as to be indispensable, while Land Commissioner Pratt has not been very popular with the Hawaiians, and for his reason they would like to see his replaced.

The most surprising thing about the whole proposition is that County Sheriff Iaukea is being considered as one of the candidates who may be proposed to Frear. Those who are running the proposition will not say whether he has consented to have his name used, but they say that he is available as a candidate as he can resign from his present position. John Wise is another of those who will be mentioned as a candidate. He was recently appointed assistant to the Archivist, but as this position carries only a very small salary with it, Wise would not hesitate about resigning from it, if he had something better in view.

Senator Lane was seen about the matter this forenoon. But he showed himself to be quite a diplomat, preferring to speak in airy generalities than to come down to the real facts. Lane said that the delegation would have to do some canvassing before anything could be given out in regard to the offices which were desired or the names of the proposed candidates. Not even the names of all the delegates could be given out at present. Lane said further that the whole affair was non-political, and that the principal object was merely to insure the new executive of the kindly feelings when the Hawaiians had towards him in order that his administration could begin auspiciously with assurances of a desire for harmony all around.

The island steamer Helene came in early this morning. She reports exceedingly bad weather on the Hamakua coast during June 27, 28 and 29. The trip down was very pleasant, however. The Helene brought 11,400 sacks of sugar and 75 head of cattle.

There will be a benefit concert at Kealahou o ka Halamalama on the 27th inst., at which Ellis Orchestra, Kani Orchestra and the Kawaihau Quintet Club will appear. Prof. Berger will direct the music.

DECISION AGAINST RAPID TRANSIT CO.

Pacific Height Co. Wins In Federal Supreme Court

The mandate of the United States Supreme Court in the case of C. G. Ballentyne and the Honolulu Rapid Transit Company, Ltd., appellants, and W. O. Smith, trustee, the Pacific Heights Electric Railway Company, Ltd., and C. S. Desky, has been received by the Supreme Court of the Territory. Ballentyne and the street car company lost, the decree of the Territorial court in the matter being affirmed. The case went to the Supreme Court of the United States October 20, 1905.

The case as decided by the Territorial court was the appeal of Ballentyne and the Rapid Transit Company from the order of Judge Robinson setting aside the sale of the property on the Pacific Heights Electric Railway Company's property, and ordering a new sale, on the ground that the price received was grossly inadequate. The value of the property was claimed to be $78,000. The company was bonded for $50,000. The property brought at the sale only $1100, exclusive of $100 for a steam roller which was sold privately.

In accordance with the mandate from the Federal Supreme Court the Territorial Supreme Court this morning remanded the matter to the Circuit Judge for further proceedings.

JAPANESE ARRESTED FOR PASSING BAD MONEY

The local Federal officials are hard after the counterfeiting gang that is operating in the Territory. Thus far they have not succeeded in locating the plant, nor catching any of the bad-money makers, but they have landed several of those whom they claim to be the shovels of the gang. Most of the arrests have come out of the testimony given at the hearing of the Japanese, Mori, who was arrested recently for passing a counterfeit $10 gold piece on one of Hackfeld's drivers. Two men were arrested on Hawaii last week, both Japanese, and yesterday Marshal Hendry arrested another Japanese here, a man named Morikawa, from Kuliakale, Hawaii.

PROBATE MATTERS

A large list of probate matters came up before Judge Robinson Monday for action. The annual accounts of Henry Smith, trustee of the estate of Richard Meek, were referred to M. T. Simonton as Master. The resale of the Monsarrat property was confirmed. In the matter of the estate of G. W. Kahanauapa, Mele Keawe was appointed administratrix, bond being fixed at $100.

The will of Benjamin Franklin Chapman was admitted to probate and R. W. Cathcart and S. G. Wilder were appointed executors. Harry Amittago, Clifford Kimball and John Bachelor were appointed appraisers. The value of the estate is approximately $60,000.

In the foreclosure matter of J. W. Leonhart vs. Amoy Silva, the former order of submission was set aside and further hearing on the matter will be had next Friday.

In the matter of Bathsheba Allen et al vs. Namokueono Ewaliko, a suit for foreclosure of mortgage, the mortgage was ordered foreclosed.

The second annual accounts of Richard Trent, executor of the estate of Thomas Christley, were approved.

There have been 112 indictments returned against Ale Ruet by the Grand Jury. To serve out the time in jail, at a maximum for each offense would keep Mr. Ruet in jail for 1523 years.

OFFICIALS HEAVE SIGH OF RELIEF

Glad Monmouth Leaves Before The Fourth Of July

The announcement that the British cruiser Monmouth, which brought Prince Fushimi to Honolulu this morning, will leave tomorrow evening caused a big sigh of relief to go up from certain official bosoms. Not that the owners of the official bosoms were displeased to have either the ship or the Prince in Honolulu, or were anxious to get rid of them. But there were complications in sight—awkward ones that it seemed beyond even diplomatic skill to get around.

Prince Fushimi is the guest of Acting British Consul Foster, and not of Japanese Consul Salto. And day after tomorrow is the Fourth of July—the holiday upon which it is customary to give the lion's tail a few vigorous twists, just for the sake of old times.

To celebrate a holiday of the importance of this one, and have all the Federal, Territorial and County officials present at the celebration and not to invite the Prince also to occupy a seat on the platform would be decidedly awkward, a thing not even to be thought of. And it will be equally awkward to invite the Prince and not invite his host, the British Consul.

But the present Acting Consul is not a man who would take great pleasure in standing by and seeing the tail of the British lion treated with any such indignity as being twisted. The screaming of the eagle would hardly be music in his ears.

The officials were puzzled. What course to pursue was more than they could figure out. And just while they were anxiously debating the matter the announcement was made that the Monmouth would leave at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Hence the sighs of relief.

SHE IS ABOVE THOSE THINGS

Yes! she is up 9000 feet. Above the sea; above the clouds; out of the heat and dust of the city. Up at the Volcano House, where she is spending her holidays, she writes that it is delightful up there; cool and bracing; feels better already. I'm glad she went; she needed the change, the dear girl! Not an expensive trip; only fifty dollars. Yes; that covers the whole business, transportation up and down, one day in Hilo and eight days at the Volcano House. 'No; you don't have to come back then; the ticket is good for several weeks; they will give you a very reasonable rate for board. Go into the office of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. They'll tell you all about it.

MAUI TAX APPEAL

Wailuku, Maui, June 28.—The Maui Tax Appeal Court, consisting of C. D. Lufkin, chairman; J. N. S. Williams and L. von Tempsky, will meet in Wailuku Monday, July 8, to hear the appeal of Wailuku Sugar Co. on the raise of the property assessment and also the appeal of the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company on the disallowance by the Assessor of Income exemption of $185,000, claimed for depreciation.

Jas. L. Coke represents the two corporations, while County Attorney D. H. Case will represent the Territory. It is likely that both J. N. S. Williams and L. von Tempsky, being somewhat indirectly connected with H. C. & S. Co.'s interests, may be disqualified from sitting on the income tax appeal of the said company.

TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1907.

The new Governor's worries have already begun. He can't think of taking a vacation without combining business with pleasure.

Hilo is to have the horse races.
That does not prevent Honoluluans proving their patriotism by attending the exercises held at home.

It is curious that some men think they can make their own sins less noticeable by opening a volley of vil-lection on those they don't like.

Flags of America, Great Britain and Japan displayed by a Japanese bank shows where business stands in the affairs of international relationship.

Congressmen of the Second Section are having a better time than the First Section, if you take their word for it that none could be more happily entertained.

It is not likely that the band will be out to meet the passengers of the Ku-marie when the steamer arrives at Vancouver. Some bricks and a few bats may be in evidence.

From unionism to socialism was not more than half a step for the Western Federation of Miners. Their opponents were about as Czarish and lawless as can be found anywhere.

If Honolulu is to become a great naval base, that furnishes another reason why our business men should rouse themselves to secure a guarantee of first-class local steamship service. More people will want to come this way. And we want them to have the service that will make the travel comfortable and convenient.

PRINCE FUSHIMI'S VISIT.

The visit of Prince Fushimi to Hawaii on his return from a special mission to the open ally of his country may be accepted as a special mark of friendship to our country which has been hardly less closely allied than Great Britain with the progress of Japan.

The visit is unexpected but especially pleasing to the people of this Territory, as it was Hawaii that first greeted Prince Fushimi on his trip to the United States, three years ago.

It is gratifying that this Territory
as the border-state between two nations has not failed in its duty of promoting friendship without sacrifice of self-respect or National pride. Not only are the official representatives treated with the consideration due their station, but it is possible here in Hawaii for the citizens of Japan and America to live on practical terms of social and commercial equality. The foodism element, which has done much to disgrace the good name of both nations, does not and will not prevail here.

Prince Fushimi well says that he has been treated with great respect wherever he has travelled among the American people. This may be said with truth by every Japanese official and citizen, with the single exception of a very few who have encountered an undesirable element in the city of San Francisco.

It is to be assumed that Prince Fu-shimi visits Hawaii to strengthen the bond of good feeling that always has and always should prevail between Japan and the United States.

PRINCE ARRIVES

Major Higaki, a military attache, said that while Prince Fushimi was a gunjiru (warrior) his mission to England was of a different nature, and he could therefore say nothing about the San Francisco question.

Major Takeuchi, a military attache at Washington, who was especially ordered to accompany the Prince from Quebec, spoke in part as follows:

"I am still a military attache at the Washington Embassy, but received an Imperial order to proceed to Quebec to meet the Prince. As far as I know, Prince Fushimi is of the opinion that the feeling between the United States and Japanese Governments is of the friendliest. Prince Fushimi has nothing to do with the San Francisco and immigration questions. His mission to England was of a special nature, and while there he was royally entertained by the King.
Of course, when Prince Fushimi arrived in Canada the British warship Monmouth, by order of King Edward,
was in readiness to convey him back to Japan. The Prince did not know that he was coming around this way until he boarded the ship. The Monmouth took this course to get coal.
The mere disposal of the warship Monmouth to Prince Fushimi indicates clearly that England and Japan are on the best terms of friendship."

Prince Fushimi has the highest regard for the treatment of his party
by the Monmouth's captain and officers during the voyage, which was very pleasant throughout.
"How about the San Francisco trouble?" asked the reporter of Major Takeuchi.

"I have nothing to say about it,"
said the Major.
"You were in Washington as a military attache when the trouble arose,
were you not?" continued the reporter.
"Yes," said the Major, "Ambassador Aoki left for San Francisco some time ago, and I think by this time he is at San Francisco looking into it. Count Aoki had had interviews with the President of the United States, but I am not in position to say anything about them."

Consul Saito, when interviewed, said that the Prince will take his lunch at the new Japanese Consulate, and in the afternoon, if agreeable, he will be taken to the Bishop Museum and probably to the Aquarium.

ARRIVAL OF MONMOUTH

The British cruiser Monmouth was sighted early this forenoon. Preparations were immediately perfected by the local Japanese to receive the distinguished guest on board.

The following wireless messages were exchanged this morning between the British cruiser Monmouth and the Naval station:

3:45 A. M.
From H. B. M. S. Monmouth to U. S.

Shall we be able to go inside the harbor, as we wish to coal as soon as possible?

The waterfront was lined from end to end with people eager to get a glimpse of the ship as she came into port.

At 9 a. m. the Island steamer J. A.
Cummins, which had been chartered for the occasion, pulled out from the Fort street dock gaily decked out with Japanese flags and with the English Jack flying at the forepeak. On board was the committee on general arrangements, also representatives from the Bulletin, Jayu Shimbuu, Hawaii Shimpo, Daily Chronicle and Nippu Jiji. The committee of prominent Japanese were T. Murakami, Y.
Motoshige, S. Sheba, Y. Soga, Y. Ki-nura, Dr. Asahina, Rev. T. Okumura, T. Misawa, S. Fujiyama, K. Sadaya-shi, G. Shimoda, I. Matsuda, S. Shimizu, T. Onodera.

The Cummins pulled up quite close to the war vessel on the port side and those on board saluted the Prince,
who was very generous in returning the greetings. Immediately after the vessel came to a standstill she fired thirteen guns in honor of the rank of Prince Fushimi.

The harbor boat Pioneer also went out to greet the Prince. She was closely packed with Japanese, who fired off hundreds of pieces of daylight fireworks, which made a grand display. The Pioneer had twelve decorated sampans in tow and it made a neat and pleasing picture on the quiet waters of the bay.

Everything Japanese in the line of boats was prettily decorated with Japanese colors. The launch Brothers at so attended the reception outside the harbor. She had a large barge loaded with Japanese in tow. As the ship approached the wharf cheer after cheer filled the air. Many hundreds had gathered about the wharves adjacent to the Naval dock. An immense concourse of people lined both sides of the street leading from the Naval dock up into the city, and as the Prince passed through he was most heartily cheered by all present.

The Prince, accompanied by S. Nagasaki, grand master of the household; S. Baba, chief chamberlain; Major Hi-gashi and Major Takeuchi, military attache; Dr. Iwai, physician; Tokioka, Kurozawa and Tsuda, Imperial attendants; Goto and Jemura, Imperial retainers, arrived at the Young Hotel at about half-past 10, under the guidance of Consul General Saito. The Prince was met at the main entrance by the reception committee, where he ac-knowledgeed the royal salute extended to him. Chief Detective Taylor and Harbor Police Officer Reeves accompanied the Prince.

Immediately upon the entrance of the Prince to the reception room, Consul Saito presented the reception committee, consisting of Rev. G. Moto-kawa, Dr. Katsumura, Dr. Haida, Dr.

Oyama, Y. Soga, T. Onodera, T. Odo,
T. Mizawa, S. Sheba, Kawahara, T.
Murakami, W. Motoshige, Dr. Asahina,
Y. Ishii, R. Akai, Iida and Ozaki.

The ceremony was simple and the Prince expressed the greatest pleasure
in meeting his countrymen in Hawaii.
It has been three years since Prince Fushimi was last here, but his appearance indicates that time has dealt gently with him. He went direct to the Young Hotel, where sumptuous apartments have been engaged for him and his suite.

The program for the day, as given out by the committee, consists of a dinner at the Japanese Consulate a little after the noon-hour. During the evening there will be a monster lantern parade of the Japanese residents of the city and the Prince will review
the parade from the Young Hotel.
Further arrangements of entertainment for the distinguished guest will be delayed until the Prince himself
can be consulted on the matter.

At noon Acting Governor Atkinson, accompanied by Adjutant General Jones and Colonel Sam Johnson, made an official call on Prince Fushimi.

The Monmouth, a cruiser of the first class, is a trim-looking ship of the three-stack variety, and from what could be seen of her she appeared to be in very neat trim.

Admiral Very has not yet been informed as to just how the Prince is traveling. He is under the impression that Prince Fushimi is incognito; such being the case there will be no official calls exchanged between Admiral Very and the Prince. Should the Prince be traveling under his rank, Admiral Very will pay the first official call.

The Family of the Prince
The house of Fushimi was founded by Prince Yoshitomo, son of Emperor Shuko, who died in the 23d year of Cal, 1423.

The present representative is Prince Sadamaru. He is the fourteenth son of Prince Fushimi Kunieye and is cousin of the Board of Decorations and was promoted to Lieutenant General on October 1st, 1901.

The Prince is decorated with the grand insignia of the chrysanthemum.
He joined the expedition to Wei-hai-Wei and then that to Formosa and was transferred to the command of the first brigade in the Tokio army division. He was born April 28 of the 5th year of Ansei (1858) and was married October 6, 1876, to Princess Toshiki, the fourth daughter of the Prince Arisugawa Takahito. The Prince is also the hero of the battle of Nanshan Hill in the Russo-Japanese war.

The Monmouth is of the first-class cruiser type, built in 1902. She develops 22,000 horsepower and has a speed of 23 knots. She carries 14 guns. She presents a neat appearance.

Like his partner, Bradley had forgotten the dynamite. Mechanically he put the oars in the rowlocks and sat motionless. The captain had stopped shouting. It was very still. He heard the bell ringing in the distance and the gurgle of the tide among the piles under the wharf. A whiff of smoke from the Diving Belle blew across his face, and he turned and looked at the schooner.

He remembered reading in the Boston Herald a month or so before of a wrecking vessel that had caught on fire off Long Island somewhere. She too, had dynamite on board, and her skipper and the mate had saved her by throwing the explosive overboard. But they were on deck when the fire started. He looked at his own vessel, the schooner that he and the captain had longed for and worked for and petted like a baby. Then he set his teeth and began rowing.

The crackle of burning timber was plain as he scrambled over the Diving Belle's rail. The flames were pouring from under the covering of the main hatch, and the smoke was rolling thick from the cabin companion.

He would have given anything for an ax, but the only one on board was by the wood box in the galley below. He caught up the boat hook that was in its rack by the bulwark and ran to the hatch.

He put the point of the hook under the heavy cover and began prying the latter loose. It gave a little, slipped back and then pulled over the cleats. With the hook he got a firm grip upon its edge and turned it over with a clatter. The smoke belched up in a cloud, but as it cleared he fell upon his knees and peered below.

The fire was almost amidsips, among some loose planks and an empty tar barrel. These were burning fiercely, and the beams of the deck were blazing above them. But the dynamite chest was farther forward, beyond the bulkhead, which was only beginning to burn, and he could see there was just a chance of reaching it if he was quick. With the dynamite once out of the way help from the shore might save the schooner. He drew a long breath and put his hands on the edges of the hatch.

Then he heard a faint voice calling for help.

He thought for a moment that he must be going crazy, but the voice called again. "Help!" it wailed. "Somebody help!"

Bradley jumped to his feet and ran aft. The door at the head of the cabin stairs had been left open when the partners went home the previous night, but Bradley had pulled the sliding hatch shut. Now the hatch was pushed back as far as it would go, and the door was shut tight.

"Who is it?" shouted Bradley, stooping to the opening between the top of the door and the hatch. The dense smoke in his face made him cough.

"Help!" the voice came up through the smoke. "It's me—Hammond!"

The junior partner started back. "Hammond?" he repeated. "Hammond?" And then in a changed voice, "What are you doing aboard here?"

"I came after my things. I forgot about the spring lock. Quick! Oh, quick!"

"Come after your things! You lie! You came to set this fire!"

Barefooted, bareheaded, dressed only in his trousers and shirt, but struggling into his jacket as he ran, he sprang down the stairs. The sisters caught at his arm and cried something or other, but he did not heed them. Clara called after him that Captain Titcomb had gone to the schooner. He stopped for an instant to ask her to rouse some of the neighbors and send them to the wharf. As he came out into the yard he noticed vaguely that there was a light in one of the rooms of the Baker cottage.

He took the same route that his partner had taken, but made better time. It was evident that the fire had been seen by others, for as he crossed the bridge the schoolhouse bell began to ring. It came to him like a flash, but too late, that he might have saved half the distance by taking one of the skiffs in the inlet and rowing straight out past the point.

There was a shouting crowd on the hill above the bridge, but he could see no boats about the Diving Belle and wondered why. Part of the crowd on the hill came running to meet him.

"Who's that?" shouted some one—Ira Sparrow, he thought.

Bradley did not answer. "Who is it?" cried Ira again. "Stop!"

The junior partner did not stop. "Squeler" Wilson got in his way and caught at his jacket. Bradley tripped him up, jumped the rail fence by the roadside and ran across the fields. He heard "Squeler" shouting his name.

The wharf was empty. Not a man was there. He reached the stringpiece, caught at the painter of one of the dories alongside, and pulling the boat toward him, jumped in. Luckily the oars were lying on the wharves. He picked them up and, with his knife, cut the painter.

And then he heard the captain's voice calling to him from the hill: "Brad, Brad! Don't go high her for your life! The dynamite's aboard!"

Congressmen Pleased With Maui

(Special to The Bulletin)

Waikuku, Maui, June 28.—The second Congressional party, consisting of Representatives J. M. Reynolds, W. W. Cocks, E. M. Higgins and James McKinney and Mrs. McKinney, and the Misses Reynolds, arrived at Lahaina last Tuesday evening from Honolulu by the steamer Kinu. With the party were Hon. F. M. Hatch and son, and Chief Clerk Conkling of the governor's office. They were entertained quite royally by the citizens of Lahaina. On Wednesday forenoon they were driven up to the old historic Lahaina Seminary, and from there they were conveyed by train through the canefields of the Pioneer Sugar Company, where they saw the Japanese laborers at work in the cane fields. They also saw the pumps in operation and the mill at work. The sight was a novel one to them and educating at the same time. The party reached Waikuku late Wednesday afternoon, where it was met by the Waikuku committee and taken to the homes of C. B. Wells, W. A. McKay, C. D. Lufkin and D. H. Case respectively.

While en route from Lahaina, the party carried at McGregor's Landing. One of the party suggested that if the pier were lengthened by about one hundred feet more, the inter-island steamers would be able to dock alongside the wharf and land freight and take passengers with comparative ease and safety. The force of the waves during heavy southerly kona storms, which dash violently on the adjacent cliffs, would be broken and somewhat reduced in severity. While this suggestion is timely, still there is no appropriation to carry it out, but future legislatures may be expected to take this gratuitous suggestion into careful consideration.

On Tuesday afternoon the Waikuku committee, consisting of Messrs. C. D. Lufkin, W. A. McKay and J. N. S. Williams held a meeting with Waikuku citizens at the Waikuku court house for the purpose of obtaining helpful suggestions as to the best way of receiving and entertaining the Congressional party while in Waikuku. Messrs. C. E. Copeland, F. A. Mayfield and D. H. Case were appointed on the finance committee. On motion, Chairman C. D. Lufkin appointed the following committee: C. B. Wells, J. N. S. Williams, C. D. Lufkin, W. A. McKay, Judge A. N. Kepoiki, Senator W. J. Foster, Samuel Kellinoh and J. N. K. Keola.

Manager C. B. Wells offered to the committee the use of his beautiful spacious lawn for the reception of the party, which offer was gladly accepted and a unanimous vote of thanks passed.

On Wednesday evening the lawn in front of the manager's mansion was brilliantly lit up with hundreds of Japanese lanterns, while streamers of tunting loaned by Superintendent J. N. S. Williams of the Kahului Railroad Company were suspended in great profusion from tree-tops. Three large American flags and a Hawaiian flag also formed part of the decorations.

The reception took place on the lawn from 8:30 p. m. until after 9 o'clock, and many of the citizens of Waikuku and Kahului took advantage of the occasion to shake hands with the Congressmen and the members of their families. A very pleasant evening was spent. Music boys discoursed sweet Hawaiian airs in honor of the guests. Nearly two hundred were present, a large number being Hawaiians, who turned out to show their appreciation of the untold good Congress had done for Hawaii in the shape of appropriations.

Representative McKinney of Illinois, who is also a personal friend of "Uncle Joe," assured them that he would exert his utmost to take up the Refunding Bill at the next session, and he likewise explained to them why it was not taken up at the short session, and that the Speaker was not opposed at all to the measure. His remarks on this subject of vital interest to Hawaii sent a thrill of joy and exultation into the hearts of his hearers. Cake and ice cream were then served, after which all returned to their respective homes with a feeling of satisfaction at the kindly assurances of the members of Congress.

On Thursday morning, the party was driven in hacks to Iao Valley as far as the Needle, and from there the trip to the Tableland, the "Wonderland of Maui," was made on horseback. Every one of the party took the trip and all enjoyed it thoroughly. The day was fine, somewhat cloudy, but no rain fell. Among those who accompanied the visitors from Waikuku to the Tableland were Messrs. W. A. McKay, H. M. Coke, C. E. Copeland, Miss Hodgdon, Miss Edith D. Keola, Jas. L. Coke and A. Enos. Messrs. Hatch and Conkling did not accompany the party to Kaalalo (Tableland), but remained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Field, together with Miss Laura Wells, Mesdames C. E. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Case and J. N. K. Keola, reveling in the history of Kanehameha the Great, the Napoleon of the Pacific, as they stood on the very ground where over one hundred years ago Kanehameha defeated the soldiers of Kalanikupule of Maui at the famous battle of the Paliwai-o-lao (The Drowning of the Waters of Iao with the bodies of the slain).

The Congressional Alpine climbers returned to the Field home at about 1 o'clock. Representative Reynolds took a snapshot of the group, after which all repaired to the dining hall to refresh the inner man. The return trip was made at 2 p. m. and half an hour later they were escorted by Messrs. J. N. S. Williams and D. C. Lindsay on the regular train from Waikuku to Paia, where they were turned over to the Makawao committee and driven in autos to Olinda, the mountain retreat of the Hon. H. F. Baldwin. The party left Olinda at about 1 o'clock this morning for the top of Haleakala, where they saw early this morning the beautiful sunrise, one of the grandest sights that ever fell to the lot of human eyes to gaze upon, the party returned from the crater this forenoon, and this evening a special train conveyed it from Paunee to Camp 7, where it was driven in hacks to McGregor's landing on the way to Hilo and the Volcano via Napoona, Santa Kena. The visitors had nothing to say but words of praise for the people of Maui.

Hatch and Conkling did not accompany the party to Kaalalo (Tableland), but remained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Field, together with Miss Laura Wells, Mesdames C. E. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Case and J. N. K. Keola, reveling in the history of Kanehameha the Great, the Napoleon of the Pacific, as they stood on the very ground where over one hundred years ago Kanehameha defeated the soldiers of Kalanikupule of Maui at the famous battle of the Paliwai-o-lao (The Drowning of the Waters of Iao with the bodies of the slain).

The Congressional Alpine climbers returned to the Field home at about 1 o'clock. Representative Reynolds took a snapshot of the group, after which all repaired to the dining hall to refresh the inner man. The return trip was made at 2 p. m. and half an hour later they were escorted by Messrs. J. N. S. Williams and D. C. Lindsay on the regular train from Waikuku to Paia, where they were turned over to the Makawao committee and driven in autos to Olinda, the mountain retreat of the Hon. H. F. Baldwin. The party left Olinda at about 1 o'clock this morning for the top of Haleakala, where they saw early this morning the beautiful sunrise, one of the grandest sights that ever fell to the lot of human eyes to gaze upon, the party returned from the crater this forenoon, and this evening a special train conveyed it from Paunee to Camp 7, where it was driven in hacks to McGregor's landing on the way to Hilo and the Volcano via Napoona, Santa Kena. The visitors had nothing to say but words of praise for the people of Maui.

PARKER GIVES LUAW FOR CONGRESSMEN

The following wireless from D. L. Conkling in reference to the movements of the Congressmen was received yesterday by Acting Governor Atkinson:

Hilo, July 1, 1907.—To Acting Governor Atkinson: Arrived Volcano Sunday night. Fine trip through Kona. Party entertained by Mrs. Greenwell, Macfarlane and Bruner. At Pahala, Manager Ogg furnished fine breakfast. Uncle Bill Cox stayed over to explore the plantation. He will join us tomorrow. Sam Parker has a luau for the party on Wednesday night. We go to Hilo Wednesday forenoon. Send mail for party by Admiral Beckley.

WHEEL AND AUTO COLLIDE

The Chief Officer of the Board of Health met with an accident yesterday afternoon that might easily have turned out different from what it did. He was bound out King street on his motorcycle and when near Piliok street came into violent collision with an automobile, No. 96. Both wheels of the motorcycle were demolished. Fortunately no one was badly hurt and no damage done to the auto.

POT-BELLIED SMITHS

This is from the Hilo Tribune: My choice for Governor is J. U. Smith. He would do well for Hilo, that's one sure thing, and he would in all probability choose his name-sake, Walter G. Smith for secretary. Walter G. knows just exactly how to run everything excepting a newspaper and the country would get all the benefit of his magnificent experience.

YACHT MATTERS MOST ENCOURAGING

Captains Of Inter-Island Volunteer Subscription To Fund

The purchase of a new yacht for the trans-Pacific Yacht Race next year, either by building or purchase, seems to be an assured fact. Enthusiasm over the scheme is growing with each day. The special feature of the occasion, the issuing of blanks calling for subscriptions, will soon be put into force, and it is expected that no trouble whatever will be experienced in raising the desired amount to either build or buy a suitable boat that will hold her own against all comers. That is the way the promoters feel over it, and the disease is "catching."

Last week a delegation of captains from the Inter-Island steamers called on Alec Lyle, who is on the committee of arrangements regarding the obtaining of wherewithal for the purchase of the new yacht, and offered voluntary subscriptions toward the fund. They gave emphatic commands that they were not to be forgotten when the certificates for stock in the new boat were issued. This expression of feeling by the local captains regarding the scheme has added new life to the enterprise, and Mr. Lyle, who was seen this morning by a Bulletin reporter, is in the highest of spirits, and it is to be hoped that all of his expectations will be realized.

INTEREST AT A WHITE HEAT

Tomorrow night will see the boat clubs usher in the 4th of July at the Hotel Baths. They will give the first entertainment for Independence Day and the usual fine works will accompany the event. The band will also help to make people remember the great National Day. The boat clubs are saying "No boat races at the Hotel Baths." The colors are: Myrtle, red and white; Healanis, blue and white. That sounds like the 4th of July—Red, White and Blue.

The committees representing the two clubs met at the Baths last evening and handed in the entries, chose the officials and arranged other details that will perfect the meet. Here are the entries for the different events:

25 Yard Dash—Myrtles: W. Cooper, G. Rothwell, F. Dodge; Healanis: Kimoko, Huestace.

50 Yard Dash—Healanis: Winter, Cunha, Kimoko; Myrtle: Paddigan, Cooper, Dodge.

75 Yard Dash—Myrtles: J. Kennedy, Paddigan; Healanis: Oss, Ewaliko.

100 Yard Dash—Healanis: O'Sullivan, Winter; Myrtle: Center, Dee.

220 Yard—Myrtle: O'Brien, Beckert.

Relay Race—Myrtles: W. Cooper, F. Dodge, J. Kennedy, G. Beckert, S. Davis, Paddigan; Healanis: Winter, O'Sullivan, Ewaliko, Oss, Cunha, Huestace.

Plunge for Distance—Myrtle: G. Beckert, T. Cooper, F. Beckert, Chadwick; Healanis: Oss, Winter.

The officials of the meet will be as follows: Master of Ceremonies, J. S. Woods; starter, W. Habbitt; judges, W. Rawlins, D. Cooke and A. Waterhouse; timekeepers, G. Cooke, E. A. Mott-Smith and Dr. Hand.

The officials chosen are good men and they will see that the meet is properly pulled off.

Kimoko has been entered in a couple of the races and his presence will add much interest to the events. This lad is the native champion and will be depended upon to uphold his race.

The 50-yard dash will add special interest as it will bring together those old rivals, Cunha and Cooper. It will be a merry race between these two and Kimoko.

It will be seen by the entries in the relay race that this event will be closely contested. The team that wins the silver cup offered for this event will realize that they have been in a race. The Myrtles have not as strong a team in this race as they had in the last. Myrtle-Healanis meet and the Healanis have an excellent chance to win.

Geo. Cooke and "Fish" Alexander will oppose each other in the water polo match and a fierce contest is looked for.

The advance sale of seats has been brisk at the Baths and the indications are that a good big crowd will be on hand to see the fun.

Admission 25c, reserved seats, 50c.

EVERS RETURNS TO FOLD

Evers has returned to the fold of the St. Louis team and hereafter will be a good boy. Last Saturday Evers refused to play ball and it was thought that he was looking for coin. The management of the team very properly refused to pay Evers and let him sit on the bench and watch his team play. On Monday the management of the team received a letter from Evers stating that he would be glad to again come back and that he would be good. Everything is now looking lovely between Evers and the St. Louis team.

It looks new as though the Punahou team will be the most weakened by players leaving on the 4th of July. The Williams brothers, Lowrey and Lyman will all be gone. The Saints will probably lose the services of Jim Williams. The Kams and Diamond Heads will have their full line up.

The games will be played as follows:

Kams vs. Diamond Heads.
St. Louis vs. Punahou.

SPORTS ON FOURTH

The Japanese have refused to enter the bicycle races as was formerly planned for the Fourth of July. The other lads will ride and some very fast men will be seen in the different events.

John Soper of the Hawaiian News Co., is receiving the entries for the running and bicycle races.

The two professional races, half and one mile, have been dropped.

The Chinese Alohas and a team from the 20th Infantry will play the ball game scheduled at Kaplani Park.

FREETH SAILS ON ALAMEDA

George Freeth will sail on the Alameda for the Coast, where he will give exhibitions of surf riding and swimming.

Freeth first intends visiting Venice in Southern California and will there finish the summer. From Venice George plans to go to Palm Beach, Florida, where he will put in the winter riding his board. Freeth is a crack on the surf board and he is sure to attract much attention and will also be a great "ad" to Hawaii.

George is a swimmer of much ability and should easily make good on the Coast. The local sports and public all wish him success.

BOWLING RESULTS

The prizes for the month of June have been awarded for the big scores made during the month. W. M. Bray rolled the highest score of 10 pins with 266. P. Schmidt won the duck-pin prize with 117. W. Castle took the nine-pin event with 10. O. Swain got the five-back score with 75 pins.

The contest for the H. S. & M. suit of clothes is growing more interesting daily. Both Schmidt and Wilder are now pressing Bray.

Word has been received from Kauai that there are bright prospects of arranging a match with local players.

Prizes have been offered for the month of July for ten-pins, duck-pins, nine-pins and five-back.

SECOND ROUND OF GOLF

The second round of golf at Moanala in the Honolulu golf tourney resulted as follows: E. Munroe defeated Capt. Combe, nine up and seven to play; H. Walker defeated T. Gill, three up and one to play; C. E. Edmunds defeated D. W. Anderson, six up and five to play; F. H. Lander defeated J. Cullen, three up and one to play; H. A. Wilder defeated M. R. Jamieson, by default.

LADY TENNIS CHAMPION

Not only did Mrs. Sterry win the championship of England at tennis this year, but she played against Miss May Sutton, the American young woman who has gone to England this year to try again for the championship of Great Britain, in one of the upper country tournaments, and succeeded in beating her. More than that she is the only player, since Miss Sutton has undertaken the game, who has succeeded in winning a love set from her. The score of the second set was 6-0 in favor of Mrs. Sterry. Miss Sutton jokingly said that the defeat did not grieve her so much as the fact that for the first time in her life she had lost with a nothing score.

SPORTING NOTES

If the New York Motor Club wants to win the Glidden trophy this year it will have to work for a large team. The Cleveland club expects to enter twenty-five cars. The Indianapolis club will probably have ten entries. Chicago will have ten or a dozen. Buffalo will have fully twenty. Even sleepy old Tarrytown on the Hudson will enter a large number. Of course the Tarrytown club is backed up by the Maxwell-Briscoe factory there, and most if not all of the cars entered from the "Sleepy Hollow" country will be Maxwells. The suggestion is made that the Tarrytown club call its cars the "Rip Van Winkle Flyers."
