FOUR YEARS OF WAITING

EDITOR DANA CALLS "TIME" ON THE ANNEXATION TREATY.

How It Was Deferred—Folly of Liliuokalani's Present Chief Adviser.

Below is Editor Dana's leader in the New York Sun of February 14:

Exactly four years ago, on the 14th of February, 1893, a treaty for the annexation of Hawaii to the United States was concluded between Commissioners who had reached Washington from Honolulu eleven days before, and the Department of State.

This treaty was the result of the overthrow of the monarchy in Hawaii and the establishment there of a Provisional Government which, by its terms, was to last only until Hawaii should be received into the American Union. The agreement was sent to the Senate the day after it was signed, but as the session was to end on the 4th of March, and an extra session was to be called final consideration was postponed.

On the 4th of March Mr. Cleveland became President, and one of his early acts was to withdraw his predecessor's treaty from the Senate's possession "for examination," as he said. We all know what that examination meant. The mission of Blount to Honolulu followed, with all its train of events, disgraceful to our record as a nation. For the first time our country was on view as striving to crush a republic and to restore a discarded throne in its place.

The attempt proved unsuccessful, but in its progress the question of annexation became secondary. Indeed, with the treaty withdrawn, and the Cleveland Administration refusing to negotiate another, it only remained for Hawaii to wait until that Administration should end.

Four years have passed, and with the republic which Mr. Cleveland sought to destroy firmly established and flourishing in Hawaii, we find ex-Queen Liliuokalani at Washington, staying out the last weeks of his Administration, in the vain hope of "restoration or a pension."

The folly of her venture is heightened by the talk of her secretary in denouncing both the republic in Hawaii and the annexation project, although this latter is the only means of securing a pension for the ex-Queen. But the whole spectacle furnishes an epitome of the results of four years, and serves to connect the Cleveland Administration's opening with its closing days.

Japanese Colony in Mexico.

New York, February 12.—A Sun special from the City of Mexico says: President Diaz has signed a contract with representatives of the Japanese Government for the establishment of a colony of 5000 Japanese, who will come to Mexico direct from Japan. The colony will be located on the rich agricultural lands in the coast section of the State of Chiapas. The colonists and their belongings are exempted from taxation for a long term of years and many other liberal concessions are given them. It is claimed that that district is adapted to tea culture.

The New Choral Society.

Minister Cooper and about forty others were present at the second meeting last night to form a choral society. He stated that he had caused a circular letter to be sent to all those who would be likely to join, and that he fully expected by next Tuesday the necessary fifty members would be present. A short rehearsal followed under the leadership of Professor Yandley and an adjournment was then had to next Tuesday.

JUDICIARY NOTINGS.

Sundry Hearings at Chambers and Matters Filed.

Judge Perry has approved the accounts and ordered the discharge of Rachel Jones, administratrix of the estate of Amos P. Jones, late of Makawao, Maui, deceased intestate.

Authority has been granted Jas. A. King, receiver of the estate of J. K. Sumner, by Judge Perry to sue M. F. Crandall, F. Dillingham and M. P. Robinson, for cancellation of lease to Dillingham and Robinson of the "Summer reef," on the ground that the lease was not the act of Sumner but of Crandall.

Henry Smith, commissioner's report of apportionment of moneys in Nahaolelua vs. Kaahu has been filed with the written approval of the attorneys for all the parties.

Judge Perry yesterday heard and took under advisement the mandamus case, to compel the filing of incorporation papers of the Oahu Sugar Co., of J. F. Hackfeld against J. A. King, Minister of the Interior, Kinney & Ballou for petitioner; H. E. Cooper for respondent.

Judge Carter yesterday heard the application for discharge made by Bruce Cartwright, as trustee for the minor children of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cartwright. A statement was made by A. J. Cartwright that the object was to have Mrs. Cartwright appointed, with the view of transferring the funds to California for investment, where a higher rate of interest was obtainable. The Court doubted whether the trust should be removed out of the jurisdiction of the Court. It recommended A. J. Cartwright to employ counsel, and said it might itself appoint counsel for the minors. In conclusion, the matter was assigned to Judge Perry for further consideration, as Judge Carter was about to leave for Kauai on judicial business.

COMMANDER PRITCHARD.

News of His Death Received by Yesterday's Mail.

The steamship Australia brought the news of the death of Lieutenant-Commander Chas. E. Pritchard of the British Navy, well known in this city, which occurred in action at Sapelo on the West Coast of Africa, during the recent British punitive expedition which resulted in the capture and destruction of the city of Benin the stronghold of the Benin tribes. H. M. S. Alceste, commanded by Captain Pritchard, was one of the vessels which furnished the men who took part in the expedition into the Benin country.

The late Commander Pritchard visited Honolulu last in the year 1890, at that time being attached to H. M. S. Espiegle as first lieutenant. He married a daughter of Dr. James Wright of Kohala. His widow is now with relatives in this city. The deceased officer was a brother-in-law of Tom May.

NO NEW STEAMER LINE.

No Truth in the Report that Honolulu Is to Have One.

C. A. Griscom Jr., vice president of the International Steamship Company of New York and London, is visiting this city. Mr. Griscom recently made a flying trip to Honolulu, returning on the steamer Alameda. Soon after his departure from the islands a Honolulu paper published a startling story to the effect that the gentleman visited the islands in the interest of a new line of steamers between San Diego and Honolulu. He was shown the article this morning, and declared that there is absolutely no truth whatever in the report and that he simply visited Hawaii a few days for his health.—S. F. Bulletin.

W. W. Goodale arrived on the steamer Kinau this morning.

REDPATH AGAIN.

The Embezzler Accused of Stealing From His Fellow Prisoners.

In the District Court this afternoon, Lionel V. Redpath, who is now serving out his sentence for embezzlement while in the employ of the Hawaiian Gazette Company, was arraigned on a charge of larceny. He was brought over from prison by Jailor Low, but at his request the trial was postponed until Monday.

When Redpath was first sent to the penitentiary he was given the soft job of storekeeper, being a good clerk and bookkeeper. He took advantage of his position to rob his fellow prisoners of underclothing and such little articles. He was detected, and Jailor Low at once sent him out on road work. He also reported the matter to the Board of Prison Commissioners, who have recommended that he be prosecuted for the offense. Marshal Brown is following out their instructions and the whilom dude and high roller will probably have to suffer an additional punishment for what is aptly described the meanness of all petty crimes.

When Redpath was first sent to jail he had a number of friends who supplied him with luxuries, cigarettes, etc., but these have all dropped him since his last larcenies have been known.

Among returning passengers on the Kinau today were Count de Kergorlay, Samuel Parker, Captain Ross, T. R. Keyworth, C. von Hamm and C. H. Fairer.

WHERE COURTS DIFFER.

Question of Rights of Wholesale Liquor Dealers.

Certain legal tactics have lately been happening on the island of Maui. It appears that Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., wholesale liquor dealers doing business not only in Honolulu, but also having branch stores all over the islands, have been sending consignments of saki to Japanese customers working on the Lahaina plantation. These Japanese laborers were customers procured by Mr. Hine, manager of Hackfeld's store at Lahaina, and their orders were forwarded to Honolulu and filled by the firm, each package being marked with the name of the Lahaina customer, while the freight receipts were forwarded to Mr. Hine for collection of dues, and he in turn would deliver them to the Japanese customers who would go to the wharf and demand their several packages of freight. Deputy Sheriff Sheldon being on the wharf too stopped them from taking the tubs of saki, he claiming that Hine had sold the liquor in Lahaina without license. Subsequently the deputy sheriff brought suit against Hine for violating the law, and Judge Kahaulelio of Lahaina discharged the defendant. Subsequently he brought another suit against Hine before District Magistrate Halstead of Wailuku, he finding the defendant guilty. These cases have required the personal attendance on the island of Maui of Messrs. Kinney & Ballou, wellknown attorneys. Mr. Kinney defended Hine in Lahaina and Ballou defended him in Wailuku with the result that he has taken an appeal to the Supreme Court, claiming that the liquor was not sold in Lahaina but sold in Honolulu, and that the liquor was merely finding its way to its destination. Whether the procurement of customers in Lahaina by Hine is against the law is for the Supreme Court to decide, but defendant claims that the sale was made in Honolulu and not in Lahaina.

THE DRAMATIC CIRCLE

PLAYED TO ROWS OF EMPTY CHAIRS LAST NIGHT.

One Lone Member of the Kiloheana Art League Was Present at Its Own Benefit.

At 10 minutes past eight last evening A. St. Martin Mackintosh counted noses to see how many people were present to witness the second performance of the two farces, "A Proposal Under Difficulties" and "The Bicycles," given by the dramatic circle of the Kiloheana Art League for the benefit of that institution. It did not take him very long, for there were only nineteen noses to count, including that of the BULLETIN's representative. While waiting for the audience which did not come the reporter amused himself by counting the empty chairs in the room. There were 179 of them, not including four or five marked reserved.

A few minutes more of anxious waiting passed, when Mr. Mackintosh, who was at the head of the stairs to prevent any accidents from the expected rush for seats, gave a loud shout of joy, crying, "There's two more coming." Sure enough, two young society gentlemen made their appearance and they were greeted with joy by the other nineteen. This made a total of twenty-one in the audience, a gain of two in five minutes, and led to hopes that a few of the ultra fashionables would drop in later. These hopes were doomed to disappointment, but they were raised again when W. W. Hall put in an appearance. Mr. Hall is given special prominence in this mention because he was the only member of the Kiloheana Art League in the audience. There are not more than 135 members in the Art League, but Mr. Hall can tell all the others about the good time he had.

In the meantime the Kawaihau Club enlivened matters with a little music, the quality of which was decidedly affected by the size of the audience. A consultation in the green room was held on the proposition of dispensing with the performance and turning the affair into a social dance, but there was a scarcity of young ladies in the audience, and it was not considered fair to Senator Schmidt and Dr. Rodgers, who don't dance as well as they used to twenty years ago. It was finally decided to go through with the performance. While this decision was being arrived at Mr. Mackintosh kept up the spirits of the performers and audience alike by his remarks, sotto voce and otherwise.

It would hardly be fair to criticize a performance given to an audience composed of 22 people and 179 chairs, but it is sufficient to say that those who were present enjoyed it almost as much as the performers did, which is saying a good deal, for at times the latter were so convulsed with laughter as to be utterly unable to say their lines.

This morning some of those who took part in the performance, which has involved a month's rehearsing, besides loss of time, etc., are around looking for those members of the Kiloheana Art League who told them they would fill the hall for a week if they would give extra performances.

A PHOTOGRAPH CASE.

An Arrangement That Accommodates Both Camera and Pictures.

Since the advent of the kodak photographs have multiplied to such an extent that it has come to be a puzzle to know what to do with them. Albums are no longer to be considered as receptacles for any but old fashioned family photographs. Baskets are dust catchers, plush and linen cases are inadequate, so the photographs crowd the wall pockets, overflow the portfolios and are piled in the corners of the library and hall in stacks, which are always toppling over, to the disgust of the housemaid and the concern of the owner.

A cabinet illustrated in The Decorator and Furnisher has proved very satisfactory. It is 30 inches wide, 20 inches from top to bottom and 8 inches deep. It is found of ample size to contain the not insignificant collection of an amateur photographer, but might be made larger or in a set of several of one size to contain the possessions of an artist. The cabinet is made of a material which is free from loose knots and as well planned and neatly made as possible. The thin wood of an old tea chest will answer for the partitions and doors and has the advantage of being easy to work, while cigar boxes will do for drawers, if you find them of the right size.

CABINET FOR PHOTOGRAPHS.

The authority already quoted gives a few hints for the formation of this treasure house. For the foundation get a grocer's box of the size you want. Select one which is free from loose knots and as well planned and neatly made as possible. The thin wood of an old tea chest will answer for the partitions and doors and has the advantage of being easy to work, while cigar boxes will do for drawers, if you find them of the right size.

Remove the labels from the cigar boxes and sandpaper away all roughnesses, fill the wood with some good filler, then varnish. A second sandpapering and varnishing will add to the beauty of the finish.

The handles for the drawers, the hinges and bars for the doors and the little brass rod for the curtain are comparatively inexpensive. A dollar would cover the outfit.

How the World's Goldfields Have Developed.

Victoria and California were both phenomenally rapid, the former having, however, an undoubted claim to the first position in this respect. Gold was first discovered in California in Colonel Sutter's mill race, 1848. The production for 1849 was $5,000,000; it jumped up the following year to $50,000,000, and reached its maximum in 1853 at $60,000,000. By July, 1849, there were 15,000 Mexicans and Chileans on the spot, and before the end of the year 45,000 Americans and 5,000 foreigners were working at the diggings. Gold was discovered at Ballarat, Victoria, in August, 1851—that is, two years later than in California—and the rush to Australia resulted in a yield of gold which quite eclipsed that furnished by the western state. The second year's mining, 1852, yielded no less than $168,000,000—that is, a larger sum than had been made during any one of the four years in which the California mines had climbed to their greatest annual production. It is estimated that the latter have yielded $700,000,000 and that no less than $1,150,000,000 has been obtained from Victoria.

Anchored.

Anchored is what the man said when he dropped into the Anchor Saloon. Why? said his friend. Because you can always get a cool refreshing drink served by gentlemanly attendants, and if you happen to drop in during lunch hour you will be regaled with solids as well as liquids. In fact the lunch at the Anchor is said by many to be the best in town. The celebrated Seattle beer is on tap. It is sparkling and ice cold. The finest of wines and liquors in town are to be had at this popular resort.

The Washing of Blankets and Duvets of Mattresses.

Mattresses, Blankets, pillows and other articles of bedding require much care to be kept odorless and clean.

The main enemies to mattresses are dust, damp and moth, and frequent brushing must be given them, for in an incredibly short time they will harbor dust all along the edges and where the button is fixed. A loose cotton cover over the mattress, made to button neatly at one end, also goes a long way toward keeping it clean. This can be washed and changed as often as need be without much trouble or expense. It is very important to air all the bedding thoroughly. Every article should be daily taken off and laid separately over a chair, and a strong current of air should be allowed to circulate through the room before the clothes are replaced. The mattress should be turned daily and from end to end, as this insures it being worn more evenly and not sinking in the middle.

Blankets are a difficulty to many people, mostly because they cannot make up their minds as to how often they should be washed. In many houses they are only washed once a year; but somehow that does seem rather too rare a proceeding. On the other hand, it is really not necessary to have them washed more than twice a year; but they must have proper care in the interval in the shape of airing, shaking, etc. A washing machine is very good for the purpose, especially as they should never be rubbed by the hand. The water should be only lukewarm, and a little soap well lathered in the water is all that will be required. Wring the blankets very dry through a wringer, shake them out, and wash again in the same way, wringing each time, until they are quite clean. Do not rinse them, but pull them into shape and hang them out in the sun, which is a great help to preserving a good color.

How the Letter "i" Came to Be Dotted.

The letter "i" has not always been dotted, for Dissraeli, in detecting a literary forgery, says, "Besides that there were dots on the letter 'i,' a custom not practiced until the eleventh century." At this time, however, the dot over the letter "i" took the form of an accent and was only used when the "i" was doubled or in juxtaposition with "u." In the twelfth century the accent was occasionally added when "i" was combined with other letters, but it only became universal when the invention of printing made it convenient to retain both forms. In the fourteenth century the accent begins to change into a dot, the earliest occurrence of "i" being in a manuscript dated 1327.

Now, what can you do with a set of laws That are bound in the choicest calf When the wicked prisoner pleads his case With a kiss and a cooling laugh? When torts in the matter of pencilled walls Injail to stern judgment, you Discover the strongest action falls When the culprit's only two.

The legislators at Springfield might Enact laws all through the day, And then amend 'em during the night, And clinch 'em in every way, And yet I would ask of you, what is the use Of old time dogma or new When the tightest law is so fatally loose If the culprit's only two?

My action in any court would lie, A jury would find for me, But when I am court and jury I Am helpless as man can be. No code has terrors, and so, in short, There's only one thing to do— I'll have to compromise out of court For the culprit's only two. —Chicago Record.

Citizens Attention.

These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.

COFFEE INSPECTION.

Good support is given the proposition for establishing an official brand of Hawaiian coffee by the Hawaii Herald of Hilo. It commends the matter for action to the meeting of the Coffee Planters' Association soon to be held in Hilo. The Herald says aptly:

The characterization of coffee by the name of the district it comes from means very little, and is detrimental to all concerned. When one buyer may be prejudiced in favor of one district and another buyer of another through having at sometime bought good coffee from the one and poor coffee from the other, he may as a matter of fact have no good basis for his prejudice, and the best grades of coffee from both districts may be of equal value.

Another good point is made by the Herald when it argues that the inferior brands produced by slipshod and unscientific methods of culture and curing should not be allowed to prejudice buyers and injure the market for the superior brands. It also repeats effectively the argument that official grading is necessary to prevent the possibility of having good Hawaiian coffee adulterated before it reaches the consumer.

Are there no public spirited citizens to act, before the departure of next week's mail, on the proposition of Mr. Porter, the scenic artist, for an outdoor cyclorama of the Hawaiian tourist route at the Nashville exhibition? It seems to the BULLETIN to be a splendid scheme, and a cheap enough one too, for attracting tourists. The idea is in no way to supplant literary bureau work, but to supplement such in a most striking manner. Mr. Porter suggested that an amateur performance might be given here in aid of the project. This can be done as easy as rolling off a log, if only a leader volunteer his or her services.

An old bridge was removed and a new one placed in position in nine hours lately, on the Great Eastern Railway line over the River Lea, England. It took nearly three weeks to put in a new turnout on the Hawaiian Tramways line, Honolulu, last month, and passengers had to change cars in mud and rain for about three days at the spot. English methods would be too swift for the tropics.

An exchange announces that "Prof. Silvanus P. Thompson of the Royal Society of England has invented a system of cable construction by which he expects not only to increase the capacity of the present lines, but to make practicable the covering of the thirty-six hundred miles which separate Hawaii from New Zealand." Bring on your cable and try the new invention.

The block of lava rock out of which a monument to General Armstrong is to be constructed has arrived safely at New York.

CENTRAL FIRE STATION.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:

It is surprising to me that there has been practically no editorial comment in any of the local newspapers on the letting of the contract for the new Central Fire Station, the circumstances connected with it, and the ultimate consequences, if the Government follow up the precedent they have thus established. The following is a summary of facts connected with the affair:

On Dec. 10, a call for tenders, which was dated Dec. 7, for erecting a new Central Fire Station appeared in the newspapers over the signature of the Minister of the Interior. The tenders were to be in by 12 noon of Dec. 28 and the plans and specifications were to be seen at the office of the Superintendent of Public Works. In the notice was the usual clause, "The Minister does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any bid." In the specifications appeared the following clause relative to the stone to be employed in erecting the building: "All rock used in this building to be fine grained, uniform color, lava rock, free from blow holes, discolorations, and all bidders on the mason work must present a sample of the rock they propose to use if the contract be awarded to them, and then all rock used on the building must be like the sample on deposit." * * * "the rock to be the same as the sample submitted to the Superintendent of Public Works."

Eight bids in all were sent in, and when the bids were opened the following was the result as given in the P. C. A. of Dec. 29:

E. B. Thomas	$25,366
John F. Bowler	25,811
Fred Harrison	25,856
F. H. Redward	27,000
Arthur Harrison	27,350
Lishman and Ouderkerk	27,997
H. Patzig	31,500
Lucas Bros.	32,138

No award was made at the time and bidders were informed that none would be made till the return of the Minister of the Interior and the Superintendent of Public Works from the other islands where they had urgent business to attend to. Before the middle of January it was reported that first one and then another of the bidders—not being anywhere near the lowest bidders—had deposited samples of stone at the office of the Superintendent of Public Works. Mr. Fred Harrison was urged by friends to do the same but declined, as he thought the lowest bidder should have the first chance of having his sample accepted, or rejected for cause. When the Minister returned, however, Mr. Harrison wrote the Superintendent of Public Works a letter of which the following is a copy:

January 14, 1897.
W. E. ROWELL,
Supt. Public Works.

DEAR SIR: According to the following clause in the specifications furnished by you for estimates for the erection of the Central Fire Station House as follows:—"And all bidders on the mason work must present a sample of the rock they propose to use, if the contract be awarded to them, and all rocks must be the same as sample, used in building."—I take the liberty of expressing to you that according to business rules, by placing a sample of rock intended to be used before my being requested to do so by you, would be acting in an unfair way to other bidders after figures had been disclosed, and probably would not meet with your approval. I am prepared to submit to you sample if so requested.

Respectfully yours,
FRED. HARRISON.
Contractor.

No answer was returned to this maoly letter, but he was verbally notified by Mr. Rowell to send in a sample, and the various newspapers had locals to the effect that all bidders had been requested to do so. It may be said that statements were being made round the town that the first bidder to send in a sample had stated that the contract would be awarded to him—and as it turned out it was. Mr. Fred Harrison took in his sample personally and accompanied it by the following letter: "I submit to you a sample of stone I propose to use in the erection of Central Fire Station. Any work that may be required by the specifications will be done accordingly. I wish to state I could furnish you several samples of stone if necessary, as I can procure any stone required; this sample I consider as called for."

After a week's delay it was announced in the newspapers that the bid of A. Harrison, which was $1984 higher than the lowest and $494 above Mr. Fred Harrison's, had been accepted. As will be seen above he was the fourth highest and fifth lowest among the eight. During the time the contract was in abeyance the newspapers announced the building would have to be furnished in four months. On the 21 of February Mr. A. Harrison and the Minister of the Interior signed the contract for Mr. A. Harrison's original bid of $27,350 and Mr. A. Harrison gave bonds to the amount of $7000 that he would erect the building in ten months, having been given in the contract to finish it on or before the 15th of December, 1897.

Such is a summary of the facts concerning the awarding of the contract. Now arises the question why was this done by the Minister? What was the influence used? Was it of his own motion or were the whole Cabinet concerned in it, as it was understood at the time that politics were to cut no figure in the affair? Such a discrepancy in the amounts to our already overburdened treasury is too great to think it could have been done without some powerful motive. On making inquiries Mr. Fred Harrison was told by Mr. Rowell that the quality of the sample stone was what decided the award. This is perfectly absurd, as Mr. Bowler's was undoubtedly the best sample submitted, though Mr. Fred Harrison, Mr. Thomas and others had equally as good samples practically, though those sent in were, strictly speaking, as samples not so good as Mr. Bowler's.

To the best of my knowledge none of the samples sent in were submitted to crushing or fire tests, or in fact to any test by any expert, to show which was the best stone. So far as my personal opinion and experience go I consider the stone selected is not only not fireproof but is positively dangerous, in case of fire being liable to explode. How much heat will it stand before exploding? I am sure the Government do not know and yet it is their duty to know. Any ordinary Hawaiian will tell them it cannot stand fire. This has been proved time and again in preparing an imu or oven for cooking underground. Hawaiians when preparing an imu carefully reject all specimens of such stone and if by any chance one of them gets in they are speedily made aware of it by the explosion which follows. The same experience is met with all through the Islands of the Pacific. It may be good enough for foundations while it is underground, but not for superstructure where it has a liability to be exposed to the action of fire. And our past experience of fires in this town has shown us that heat is frequently engendered sufficient to warp iron shutters and door frames. If the government had thoroughly comprehended their duty in the premises they would have tested its fire-resisting qualities and its action under heat long ago, before permitting as much of it to be put up as being a fireproof material. The porous stone is much better in this respect, though not so ornamental as the close grained lava.

Some of the samples sent in have been and are on public exhibition for anyone to compare with the successful bidder's, and I challenge any test to be made that will show any superiority in his. The value of the stone work is less than one-half the whole contract, and the difference to any contractor to be required to substitute stone equal to a given sample for another would be exceedingly small, as the whole island is but one gigantic quarry of almost uniform quality.

If then not on account of the stone—intrinsically dangerous though it is—still less can the contract have been awarded for any other department of the work, so I am still more puzzled to assign any legitimate reason for awarding the contract to such a comparatively high bid—the fifth lowest out of eight. No doubt exists in my mind that the Government could have got the building erected of superior and safer imported stone to that selected for the difference of over $1900, and if they specially desired Hawaiian stone why, if they intended to be fair, didn't they themselves select the best sample that could be procured and insist on the successful contractor matching it. Wouldn't it have been better to do that for the extra money when there certainly is better stone on the island than that chosen? I leave the public to judge of this and whether they approve of such one-sided conduct on the part of the Minister and the Executive. It appears to me that the future consequences will be that contractors will be discouraged from competing on government contracts in any department and will leave the field open for two or three of the favored ones to combine and put up all sorts of jobbery at the expense of the taxpayers. If the government adopt this line of conduct in future, it will be the death knell of open contracting. An other consideration that seems to me of even greater weight in our present circumstances is this: All residents have been urged to forget and forgive former political differences and to bury the hatchet, and become reconciled to present circumstances, and live as good citizens, and unitedly work for the benefit of the country. Now it appears to me that in this contract award, no matter how much the Executive may disclaim it, every unprejudiced resident here will say that it seems in place of trying to win over past opponents you are doing all you can to antagonize them further as well as to create discontent among their own supporters and to carry out Dr. C. B. Wood's policy of "rub it in." Further it should be understood by the public that it is no child's play to estimate on buildings up in the thousands. It takes both time and experience as well as money. Sufficient legitimate reasons ought to exist and be made known therefore whenever bids are rejected. When a public building has to be erected or other public work to be undertaken some one's bid must be accepted at some time or other, as the law compels all work over $500 in value to be let by open competition. To prevent contractors combining to defraud the taxpayer the official in charge should always make an official estimate of the probable cost and when bona fide bids fall below this the lowest should be accepted if the bidder can furnish bondsmen to insure the government's not being cheated by scamped or insufficient work, especially as the following clauses according to custom are found in the specifications: "No part of the work is to be sublet without the written consent of the Superintendent, otherwise sub contracts will not be allowed on the works. None but the most competent workmen are to be employed thereon. Whoever in the opinion of the Superintendent proves to be careless or incompetent shall be removed from the works by the contractor when so notified by the Superintendent." When Mr. Thurston was Minister of the Interior, in two cases, although the bids were ridiculously below the official estimate, he considered it his public duty to forbid him taking a higher bid when substantial bondsmen could be found to guarantee carrying out the work according to plan. In both cases the contractors lost heavily, in fact became bankrupt, and the Legislature finally thought fit to recoup the bondsmen their actual money loss. But no question of that nature arises in regard to this contract. Under the same Minister or the late C. N. Spencer, I forget which, bidders were required to deposit a percentage on their bids to ensure their bona fides. The right to reject any or all bids, though it undoubtedly exists, must in public business never be used capriciously and for the benefit of one person or section. It is only to be used for the protection of the public interests—not against them. It may be said the Executive have been ill-advised to consent to this contract award, as I believe instead of tending to union and the promotion of the public interests it is only driving the partially closed rift wider open. And I trust, as I am sure every well wisher of the government does, that the pressure of public opinion will be such as to prevent any repetition of the precedent and that all future contracts will be let strictly on their merits and reasons given publicly for any departure from the established rule that all things being equal the lowest bidder takes the contract.

Yours respectfully,
EX CHIEF HONOLULU F. D.

The arrival of the Australia has relieved the potato famine but prices for that edible are still very high.

The Pioneer Building and Loan Association granted loans to the amount of $8000 at the meeting last Monday evening.

The opening of the new Chinese hospital takes place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Judge A. W. Carter and lawyers Robertson, Ross, Dickey, Magoon and Davis have gone to Lihue to attend a term of the Circuit Court.

These will be special services of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's cathedral at 12:10 and 5:10 p. m. today, being Ash Wednesday.

Under the new management of Mrs. Harry Klemme, the Eagle House offers the finest table board, including many palatable German dishes.

The band will give the usual concert at the Executive building this afternoon, and the ladies will play tennis on the Pacific Club grounds across the street.

E. O. Hall & Son in another column give the testimonial of a Hawaiian college boy in the United States on his experience with the Rambler wheel. Read it.

H. F. Wichmann calls attention to his facilities for doing copper plate engraving and printing. Don't send to the Coast for work you can get down here equally as well and cheap.

Captain Hingley and J. V. Fageros of Company 7 of the Citizens' Guard both made 44 in practice on Sunday, which entitles them to gold medal bars in the Citizens' Guard contest.

The Chinese who paid $60 for the old building on Fort street, formerly occupied by Bolster's photograph gallery and Gertz's shoe store, will have every vestige of it removed by tonight.

ITEMS FROM HAWAII.

Progress in Hilo and Prosperity All Over.

Hilo is to have a whist club.

Arc lights are being placed on the Hilo streets.

The Tribune, from which these items are gathered, has columns of encouraging news from the coffee regions.

Goudie Bros. have built a wooden tramway to carry things across their coffee plantation in Puna.

The body of Fugishima, a laborer for the Hakalau Plantation Company, was found Sunday last at the bottom of the Opea gulch at Honohina. The man must have been working in the sugar cane field near the pali and fallen down the precipice.

V. M. Fulcher is about to commence the erection of a business building at Mountain View, Olua, and stock the same with general merchandise. That he will make a success of the venture goes without saying.

Manager Lowrie of Ewa plantation, Oahu, it is said has bought out the Reed & Co. interest in certain coffee lands of Puna and will soon begin coffee planting.

Most of the Hawaiians living near the coast of Puna who are not dependent on fish alone for a living, are moving mauka and settling near the new road now built or about being finished. Most of the Hawaiians have fair sized tracts of lands and are all coffee struck.

Mr. Vannatta has returned to Hilo, and he left Honolulu busily engaged getting out building supplies to furnish him for the next six months to come. He has a schooner load on the high seas now steering for Hilo and another is loading. The hotel will be started immediately and Hackfeld's building in a week or ten days. Any able carpenter that wants employment has only to apply, as men have got to be imported to carry on the work.

A new village, which has been named Waiakahiula by Father Bonaventura, has sprung up at where the terminus of the new building Puna road will be. The Catholic Mission has reserved five acres at this place where a church and mission will soon be established. The site is a beautiful one. The land about the new village is well adapted to coffee planting and several parties have already started operations in building and planting.

STEINS FOR DECORATION.

The Picturesque Aspect of the German Beer Mug.

The stein, or German earthenware beer mug, is enjoying a full measure of popular favor just at present as an article both for decoration and for use.
The gathering up of as many unique and interesting varieties of these mugs as they can find has become a fad with many people, and it is followed up with the same devoted zeal which always marks the collecting mania, whatever it may chance to take. In students' rooms, clubs and bachelor apartments it is to be presumed that the steins are intended for at least occasional use, although it must be confessed that ornamentation is the chief idea.
But there are many purchasers of the German beer mugs who would never dream of filling them with that fluid or any other. They are meant solely to be looked at—to be handled, if at all, with the utmost respect—and a high place amid the more old fashioned and consequently less interesting bric-a-brac of the room is awarded them. Women form a large portion of the class which regards the stein as a decorative object pure and simple. Some importers in the city have rooms reserved especially for their women customers, who drop in frequently to inquire whether there are any novelties in the designs or in the ware itself.

All the steins in this country are imported from Germany, and nearly all of them from the Rhine provinces. The oldest and best known manufacturers, some of which have been in existence for 1 1/2 centuries, are in Rhenish Prussia, the duchy of Luxemburg and in Lorraine. Certain kinds of ware charac-terize the different places, but the processes to which the clay and stone are subjected in the making are kept carefully guarded by the possessors of the secret. Lime is one of the chief ingredients of the softer earthenware mugs, and ground quartz and feldspar form the basis of the harder. The glazing is an art which has taken the greatest amount of study and experiment to develop successfully.

It is the task of an artist to decorate the steins. All the figures and inscriptions must be painted on, and the mug then fired, as in china decoration in this country. The work upon the most costly specimens is of a high order of merit.
Some of the raised scroll ornamentation can be made by putting the soft clay into a mold, but the figures of men and animals which stand out in relief are formed by an artist modeler, who must be a good deal of a sculptor in his way.
Familiar scenes from history and from fiction are favorite subjects for illustration on the steins.

How to Clean Hairbrushes.

Ammonia and water have long been regarded the staple cleansing fluids for hairbrushes. But this treatment, though satisfactory enough as far as cleaning is concerned, is ruinous to the bristles, softening and eventually destroying them. A better method is to rub them in dry Indian meal until the oil and dust are completely removed from the brush.

How to Dust Clothes.

A bit of old crape is the very best thing for dusting one's gowns. The ordinary brush used for the purpose is death and destruction to silk passementerie or any of the soft materials in use nowadays. Slick every particle of dust off with the crape, whose corrugated surface will make the job an easy one,
and then, if there is a good deal of beading used in the trimming, lay between sheets of tissue paper, where nothing will rub against it, for passementerie with some of the beads mis-ing or with the gloss gone is the most distressing spectacle imaginable. If a brush must be used, get a soft camel's hair one and use it with a light, quick motion, as sparingly as possible.

READY FOR WAR.

The sentiment in favor of the Cuban insurgents seems to be growing every day. In Washington the cause of the insurgents is warmly espoused. Yesterday the Cameron resolution, which the morning dispatches reported would probably be introduced into the Senate Monday, was the cause of much comment. According to Secretary of State Olney, this resolution practically means war with Spain.
There is no danger or probability that war with Spain will in the least affect the quality of Rainier Beer. No matter what happens Rainier Beer will always be the best. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

MASONIC.

Should The Secret Ballot Be Abolished? South, West and East.

There is a quiet movement working to do away with the secret ballot, and the sooner the better. A contemporary calls attention to the fact that in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, Masons do not ballot in secret. Each brother holds up his ballot in view of the entire lodge before depositing it in the box. This appears to equal the rule in some jurisdictions, where the roll of the members present is called, and each, as his name is called, arises and answers. And why not, say we? The man who is afraid to tell how he votes in a Masonic lodge is not fit to go to congress or even to a caucus.—Illinois Freemason.

The Voice of Masonry says that more than 60 per cent of the nonaffiliates are retained, and that at least 90 per cent ought to be.

Masonry requires the practice of all the duties man owes to God, his neighbor, his family and himself. It makes the holy Bible the rule and guide of faith and conduct, and thus requires every Mason to be just and upright before God and man.

The Eastern Star is pure and exalted in its sentiments, elevating in its instructions, founded upon and deduced from the noblest and purest characters which adorn the pages of sacred history.—D. Ludlow.

Sir John C. Rhinella is now grand commander of West Virginia Knights Templars and Sir R. C. Dannington grand recorder.

The Order of the Eastern Star is in a prosperous and healthy condition, with a total membership of nearly 180,000.

The elections in the grand lodge of England are for the offices of grand master and grand treasurer. The other officers are appointed by the grand master, and these appointments are made for services rendered to the craft, zeal in lodge work and other meritorious actions, and are always received by the brethren with satisfaction.

Sir R. L. Douglass is now grand commander of Knights Templars in Alabama and Sir H. Clay Armstrong grand recorder.

Bro. Theodore Masters of St. Louis was given the alternative of giving up his membership in the Masonic fraternity or in the United Presbyterian church, and he chose Masonry.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Work of the Various Members of the Lodge—Workshop Gossip.

The old member tells of what he has done for his lodge; the new member tells of what he is doing—bringing in new members. The drone tells of what he is going to do, and the kicker objects to doing anything.—A. O. U. W. Messenger.

Keep your certificates in force by paying your assessments, under any and all circumstances.

There is a strong feeling that the order should do something about the suicide question. Many think the order should refuse to pay anything more than the sum total of assessments paid.

The order pays to widows and orphans of its deceased members nearly $1,000 every hour.

California grand lodge at its late session authorized the payment of $3 for each new member, and in addition appropriated $6,000 for propagation fund.

Grand Master Workman Bickel of Pennsylvania is putting forth most energetic efforts to develop the order in the state.

The oft repeated objection to life insurance that a man has to die to win does not apply to the A. O. U. W.

Royal Arcanum.

The Royal Arcanum has 180,000 members in the United States, 43,000 in New York state and 12,000 in New York city.

The total number of applications presented at the supreme secretary's office for April was 2,925, against 2,103 for the same month of 1895.

A. G. Blacklock is now grand regent of Georgia and C. S. Connerat grand secretary.

There are about 6,000 members of the Royal Arcanum in Boston and 12,000 within 25 miles of Boston.

During the month of March $508,194.45 was paid to beneficiaries of 173 members.

Connecticut has a membership of about 4,000 in 88 councils.

The R. A. is on a big boom in Nashville this year, and by its close 2,000 are promised for the city alone. Some of the best officers not now in the ranks are making application to become members without solicitation.

DIED.

PRITCHARD—At Sapelo, Benin, West Africa, on February 17, while in action, Lieutenant-Commander Chas E Pritchard, R N, commanding U S S Albatross.

MORTUARY STATEMENT.

Marked Falling Off in the Mortality for February.

According to Agent Reynolds' mortuary report the death rate in this city for last month is the lowest in five years and less than half of that of the corresponding month of last year. The total deaths in this city last month were 38, of whom 2 were non-residents. There were 7 deaths from heart disease; convulsions caused 5; consumption and fever 3 each; bronchitis, exhaustion, old age and suicide 2 each. There is a marked falling off of deaths from infantile cholera and dysentery. There was one death from drowning and one from injuries sustained by accident.

Of the 38 who died 12, or nearly 33 per cent, died without any medical attention whatever, a fact which would seem to call for the intervention of the Coroner or the Board of Health.

Anchored.

Anchored is what the man said when he dropped into the Anchor Saloon. Why? said his friend. Because you can always get a cool refreshing drink served by gentlemanly attendants, and if you happen to drop in during lunch hour you will be regaled with solids as well as liquids. In fact the lunch at the Anchor is said by many to be the best in town. The celebrated Seattle beer is on tap. It is sparkling and ice cold. The finest of wines and liquors in town are to be had at this popular resort.

When "The Fever,"

the Bicycling fever, catches you (or you catch it) we would like a chance to prescribe for you, not that we expect to effect a cure, only to sell you a wonder in wheels.

This is what one of the Hawaiian College boys writes to his father regarding the best wheel to buy for his sister: "I hold the Rambler second to none in the country (the U. S.), and if anyone can show a wheel which has traveled as many miles as mine has with as little expense as mine I would very much like to see it. Besides changing the gear from 64 to 70 and the saddle to one of later pattern my entire expense for the wheel has been fifty cents. That I think is a pretty good record, don't you? I am very much afraid that my tires, the same ones I got on the machine, will not last me through the next season. They are almost worn through all over. It will cost me from $12 to $15 to get new tires put on, but it is legitimate wear. I never knew a pair of tires to wear as long and as well as these have, considering the amount of travel. When you consider that they have traveled as far as from Cleveland, O., to Honolulu, over all sorts of roads and paths, you will see that they must needs wear some."

The above opinion you will find to be the opinion of about every rider of a Rambler in this city, and there are a lot of Rambler riders here. Our trouble has been to get enough wheels, the makers not realizing that we want '97 stock before the snow has melted in their country. By the Australia this week we received 7 ladies' wheels, and six of them we have sold. By the Miowera mail we ordered 20 Ramblers and, by this week's mail we are ordering 5 more, and we have orders in for 2 Racers, so by return Australia we will have 27 Ramblers, and in future we do not propose to lose the sale of any wheels by not having them on hand. Remember that the Rambler is fitted with the only tire that has proved entirely satisfactory in this country, the great "G. & J." There are imitations to this tire to be found here, but if you don't find it out when you buy them, you will after you have used them a while, to your sorrow. The genuine "G. & J." tire is to be had only at the Rambler Agency, and there you can get the right article, fully guaranteed.

W.W. DIMOND'S

A feature of aluminum ware is the ease with which it is cleaned. No matter how dark it may get over the fire, a pinch of soda in the water in which the utensil is washed will clean it as bright as polished silver. The impression has gone forth that aluminum will not stand hard knocks. This is a mistake, because when it sustains such injuries as usually happen tin pans, etc., just push it back in place and it is as good as new.

Manufacturers have so added to the list of articles that there are few things used in the kitchen that are not made of it. We have a large stock of this ware, and a large assortment, a partial list of which is here given:

Saucepans, Fry Pans, Preserving Kettles, Tea Kettles, Coffee Pots, Tea Pots, Tea Steepers; Gallon, Quart and Pint Measures; Collapsible Cups, Cocktail and Lemonade Shakers, Funnels, Dippers, Cake Pans, Perfection Cake Pans, Lemonade Servers, Muffin Tins, Corn Cake Pans, Bread Tins, Rice Boilers, Drip Pans, Cake Plates, Dish Pans, Perfection Cake Plates, Bread Mixers, Chafing Dishes, Lemon Squeezers and Lipped Saucepans.
