ASTRONOMICAL STUDIES.

By Galileo II.

"Help Yourself"—the author of a communication in the BULLETIN—has discovered that celestial artisans in Honolulu derive considerable support from foreigners' patronage. Just exactly so; and "Help Yourself" might have added that some parties who complain of, and talk against, Chinese competition, are among the patrons.

"The making of the sidewalk belongs to the owner of the property, which it adjoins," says the Advertiser, and the proposition is an accepted fact. But why should the making of the sidewalk be the duty of the property owner any more than the making of the carriage way? The sidewalk does not belong to the adjoining property owner; it is a part of the public thoroughfare.

The election of Chief Engineer and Assistants of the Fire Department is the matter which most interests our firemen of the present time. The election will take place on Monday, December 2. Well, boys, you can't do better than nominate your best men, and cast your ballots for the best of those nominated. Clear judgment, decision, and ability to command at the time of a fire, are necessary qualifications especially of the Chief. Now, I would say that the candidate, whoever he may be, who possesses these qualities in the largest degree is the best man, and therefore the proper man to elect.

"Bystander" can't see that our system of Responsible Government, so called, as constituted by our famous Constitution which took so many great men, with just sufficient natural ability to create confusion in a pig pen, six or eight days to make, bears any close relation either to the American or the English system. That is just where he is right. During the last session of the Legislature there were volumes of talk in the house and columns of print in the newspapers about "responsible government" and how responsible government was exercised in Great Britain, most of which went to show the ignorance of the talkers and writers of the matter talked and written about.

If the King can do nothing, "unless otherwise expressed," without "the advice and consent" of his Ministers, then if the Ministers resign the King is powerless to accept their resignations if they decline to advise him to do so. Then if the Ministers tender their resignations, and the King, by their advice, accepts, he cannot appoint a new cabinet, because he has no Ministers to advise him to that course. And if the retiring Ministers are to be the King's advisers until their successors are commissioned, he can commission only the men they advise. What absurd possibilities are created by our jumbled Constitution!

Trial by jury is one of the much-vaunted institutions of which English-speaking people, everywhere, boast. The idea of being tried by twelve fellowmen for any misdoing with which you may be charged, looks and sounds very pretty. These men being of "like passions" with the accused, and being liable to be placed in the same position as he, are supposed to lean to the side of mercy, and that is why this method of trial is popular. And yet some people whom I hear talk seem to think that a jury has nothing to do but follow the judge's dictation, and if that dignity intimates a wish on one side their findings must be in accordance therewith. If so, where is the advantage of trial by jury? If the judge is to dictate the verdict, then dispend with the jury altogether, for in that case the jury is simply a cumbersome, expensive, and useless farce. But in reality it is the right and duty of the gentlemen of the jury to find a verdict according to their own convictions of the evidence, no matter which way the judge may exhibit a leaning. They are the judges of the evidence, while they receive the law from him.

I have always been told that in law a person accused of a crime is supposed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty. I don't quite understand how that can be; for if he is supposed to be innocent why charge him with crime in the first place? Anyhow, a person in the habit of visiting our high courts will never acquire the belief that a man accused of wrong-doing in this country is supposed to be innocent until proved guilty; for the officers of the law seem to assume that the poor fellow is certainly guilty, and they try their hardest to make them appear so, whether he is or not.

A statistical statement prepared by the Minister of Finance shows that there are 1,796 persons in the public service of this country, and that of this number 1,184 are Hawaiian born and 612 of foreign birth. Just look at that, say some people, there are nearly double as many natives as foreigners holding government billets. Just so, but there are many more than double as many natives as foreigners residing in the country, and the percentage of foreigners holding office is considerably greater than that of natives.

What has produced such a change in the Advertiser's faction? From a recent intimation about relegating the native Hawaiian to the relative position of the American Indian, it has now come to querying whether making a native Hawaiian a Minister of the Crown wouldn't be wise policy, "if, by so doing, harmony and the public interest can be conserved." The secret of the change is given away in the following quotation: "The suggestion is certainly one well worthy of consideration on the eve of an election which must have an important influence on the future of Hawaii Nei." "The eve of an election" works prodigies.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

To-morrow, November 16th, being the fifty-third anniversary of His Majesty King Kalakaua's birth, is a public holiday, which the BULLETIN will observe by suspending publication for the day, out of honor to the King, obedience to the Government's proclamation, and the avidity of both literary and mechanical staffs to take a respite from their exhausting toil. On the eve of the auspicious occasion we take the opportunity of tendering to His Majesty our continued and sincere regard, hoping that the remainder of his reign may be glorious, and the afternoon of his life ever joyful.

FAITH IN THE FUTURE.

We have faith in the country—in its resources, in its future. It is prosperous to a degree which most of our own people do not realize. The value of our exports is probably greater, per capita, than those of any other country. The year's crop of our principal product, sugar, has been marketed at unusually profitable prices. We are continuing to make advancement in enlarging and adding to our enterprises. A new and a great venture in the line of sugar production, with brilliant prospects, is starting in earnest on the Island of Kauai. The first section of the Oahu railroad is about to be opened, which is going to be the means of starting new enterprises and inducing the cultivation of rich but hitherto neglected lands. Our material prospects are quite encouraging, and our political sky is not of that gloomy hue which some nervous people fancy. Within two years and five months we have passed through two revolutions, or, if you wish, one revolution and an insurrection. The former was bloodless, and resulted in tangible benefits, along with some surmountable unpleasant concomitants. The latter cost a few precious lives, but has probably taught a few lessons also, that it is hoped will be productive of good. The predominating feeling among all good citizens, native Hawaiian and foreign born, now seems to be that we have had enough the turmoil of force and the menace of arms, and that the revolutions of the future must be effected by the legitimate use of the ballot and the constitutional power of the Legislature. Every true friend of the people and well-wisher of the country will do his duty by fostering this sentiment. Whatever evils or wrongs are believed to exist, let them be wiped out in a peaceable and constitutional way. The elections are at hand, and the people have it in their power to send to the national assembly in their interests true and honest men. If the people fail to use this power wisely, and allow foolish prejudices or any other cause to induce the choice of incompetent, inexperienced, or otherwise unfit men, they will have nobody but themselves to blame for the unsatisfactory consequences, and should have the manliness to endure them with patience.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

The residence of the Hon. Alex. Young, Beretania street, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering yesterday evening. A farewell dinner was given in honor of his daughter, Miss Susie Young, who leaves next week for the Australia for Oakland, California. The grounds were most brilliantly illuminated with colored lanterns, the effect as seen from the street in approaching the house being very striking. The parlors were tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The veranda leading from the house to the dining hall was draped with flags, and the Hawaiian string band under direction of Mr. Berger occupied a position here and played during the evening for dancing in the most acceptable manner. The invited guests were very cordially received by Mr. and Miss Young, and a most delightful evening was spent by all present. Refreshments were served at an interval in the dances. Miss Young is esteemed by a large circle of friends who will wish her a pleasant voyage and quick return to Hawaii Nei.

NEW ISLAND STEAMER.

The Wilder's Steamship Company have purchased the steamer Del Norte of 227 tons net. She has built eighteen months ago, has fine cabin accommodation, and can steam nine knots an hour. She was chartered to bring to Honolulu considerable freight that the Australia left behind, and was to leave San Francisco, via Kahului, on the 13th. She will come in charge of Capt. J. A. King, with Everett chief engineer and Wallace purser. The Del Norte will land a deckload of cargo at Kahului and then come direct to Honolulu.

IF YOU WANT A SITUATION, advertise in the "Daily Bulletin."

FIRST BUSINESS ON THE OAHU RAILWAY.

The BULLETIN has secured the honor of the first paid passenger ticket issued by the Oahu Railway and Land Company. It is first-class for the round trip, Honolulu to Hahaione, Pearl River Division, dated November 18, 1889, and was bought by Mr. Wray Taylor on behalf of the Daily Bulletin.

The first way bill for freight has been issued to Mr. W. D. McWayne, being for forty bunches of bananas.

HAWAIIAN REPORTS.

Volume 6 of the above reports has just been published by order of the Justices of the Supreme Court, copies of which are now for sale at the Clerk's office, at $5 per book. This volume contains decisions of the Justices at chambers not appealed from, from 1886 to date arranged chronologically. Although many of the decisions reported in this volume have hitherto been printed in the local newspapers, revised contemporaneously by the judges who wrote them, still more than one-third of them have never appeared in print, and these have been found by searching the records in the Clerk's office, and are given verbatim.

The task of searching the records and compilation of the decisions was left to Police Justice Foster, and the whole arrangement of the work is a credit to that gentleman. The head-notes and indexing was also by the compiler.

It is the intention of the Justices of the Supreme Court to report all current decisions, and we learn that volume 7 is in course of publication for that purpose. The volume 7 will not only contain decisions of the full Court, but will also include (by way of an appendix) opinions relative to questions propounded to the Supreme Court Justices by the King, the Legislature and the Cabinet Ministers.

We are also informed that Volumes 1 and 2 are now being reprinted in order to complete the whole series from first to last, copies of these not being available except those that are kept in the Law Library.

APPROPRIATION FOR PEARL RIVER HARBOR.

A Washington despatch of the 7th says: "A subject that will receive the consideration of the Secretaries of State and Navy, and will probably be presented in their annual reports, is that of establishing a coaling station on the Pearl river on Oahu island, of the Hawaiian group, about seventy (7) miles from Honolulu.

"The privilege of establishing a station there, which is considered to be a great desideratum, was secured to the United States by a treaty concluded with Hawaii by Secretary Bayard, but no appropriation was made by the last Congress to make it effective. The site must be purchased and the bar across the mouth of the harbor blasted out to make an entrance for the ships-of-war. An appropriation to secure these ends will probably be urged upon Congress."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

ON THE

New Free Tontine Policy

OF THE

Equitable Life Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the NEW YORK TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without conditions on the back.

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR.]

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods and has been the means to liberalize life insurance in a greater degree perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the KENTUCKY REGISTER, Richmond, Ky., June 28, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life insurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life insurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the BOSTON POST.]

This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life insurance.

[From the PACIFIC UNDERWRITER, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life insurance.
