$500,000 FIRE; PAHOA MILL BURNS

MIDNIGHT BLAZE IS TERRIFIC

Great Mills and Yards Full of Costly Koa Timber Go Up in Smoke—Origin of Fire Is Not Yet Known—Industry Dealt Another of Series of Hard Blows

[Special Star-Bulletin Wireless]
HILO, Jan. 29.—Fire of unknown origin, starting at midnight last night, completely destroyed the Pahoa lumber mill, burned about 4,000,000 feet of hardwood lumber and damaged the home of Manager Sam Johnson. The railway station, it is stated here, was undamaged, and no one was seriously injured. The total loss is estimated roughly at $500,000.
Starting near the pumps, the flames cut off all opportunity for effective fire-fighting before they were discovered. A number of other buildings are reported to have caught fire from the burning embers carried out by the wind and to have burned to the ground.

F. B. McStocker, secretary of the Hawaiian Development Company, which owned the mill, stated this morning that it carried absolutely no insurance and that whatever damage is done to the lumber or the mill or machinery will be a total loss. He estimates the value of the mill and its machinery alone at about $60,000 to $70,000.

It is understood that a large quantity of koa hardwood timber, cut off a distant tract belonging to the Bishop Estate, had just been moved down to the mill for cutting, and it is this which has been consumed; the loss will prove enormous.
James B. Castle, president and general manager of the owning company, and who is said to be by far the heaviest stockholder, left on the Mauna Kea at 10 o'clock this morning twenty minutes after the first word of the disaster came by wireless from the Big Island. Beyond the statement that the fire, starting at midnight, had destroyed the entire plant, this wireless carried no detailed information. It probably will be a matter of days or weeks before an estimate of the damage to the machinery can be reached.

Harold Castle, son of the company's president and who also is heavily interested in the mill left Honolulu less than an hour before the fearful fire less came. He departed at 9 o'clock this morning on the Mongolia for the coast as a member of the All-Hawaii polo team bound for the series of big games at Coronado and San Mateo.

May Not Rebuild.
Whether the firm will rebuild is a question that may not be determined for several weeks. Mr. McStocker, the secretary, stated this morning that the firm has a large acreage of hardwood timber in various sections throughout the western part of Hawaii, the tract at Pahoa containing approximately 10,000 acres of ohia, which has been the principal product turned out by the mill thus far.

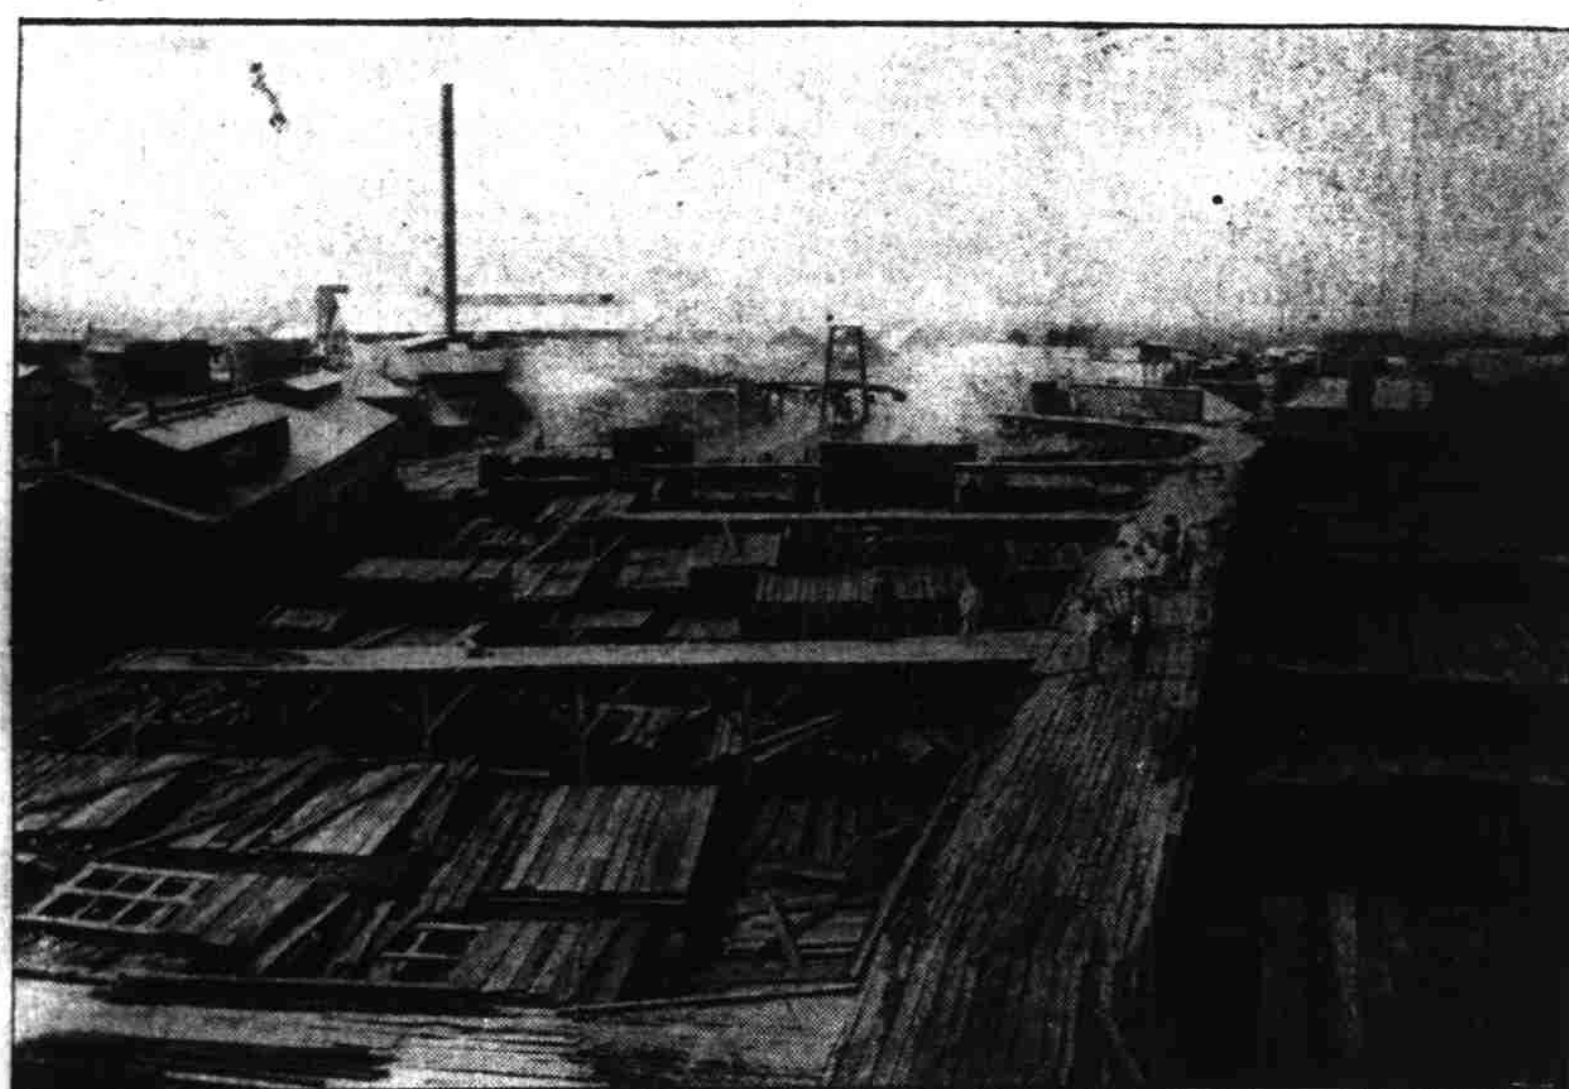

The plant is comparatively young having been erected and new machinery installed only about three years ago, and Mr. McStocker estimated that there was sufficient timber in that tract to keep the mill busy for two years more. It had been employed principally in turning out ohia railroad ties and flooring and koa house finishings.

As a budding enterprise, a pioneer in the lumbering industry of a territory it is said the Hawaiian Development Company has encountered many vicissitudes, but after a long and arduous uphill struggle was just reaching the point where success seemed in sight. Despite the handicaps, the enterprise held the faith of many in the territory, who believed it could eventually be made a big industry in the islands.

One of those who had most faith in the proposition was J. B. Castle, who his friends estimate, has expended fully $500,000 from his own pocket in assisting to make it a going concern. Not the least part of the plant is the timber cutting machinery, the donkey engines and equipment used in preparing the logs and transporting

SAYS CITY IS FULL OF PITFALLS

Fred B. Smith in Parting Warns Against Pleasures and Easy Life of Honolulu—Points Out Possibilities for Great Good in Territory—Thanks All for Treatment Here

"It is not easy to appraise impressions upon the last day of such a constant campaign as we have been through in Honolulu, and which we are closing today," said Fred B. Smith, leader of the Men and Religion Forward Movement this morning, when asked to give his impression of the week of Christian work which has just been completed in this city. Messrs. Smith and Robins with the members of the National Association Quartet will leave for the Orient to complete their tour around the world of which Honolulu was the first stopping point.

"We may have better conclusions after we have had a few days of rest and the quiet of the sea," he went on to say. "But some are very vivid as we leave. First, the cordiality of our reception and cooperation which we have received. This can not soon be forgotten. Everything has been done

DEMOCRATS ARE NOW WRANGLING IN THE RANKS

By C. S. ALBERT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—The Democrats continue wrangling among themselves as to the best method of playing politics. The Republicans are doing little in that line but fun and amusement and consolation in watching the Democrats. The more blunders made by the now dominant party the better it will be for the Republicans four years hence.

The storm center of the struggle is the senate. The battle is between the new and old senators. Those just coming in fresh from the farm desire to root out the veterans and run affairs to suit themselves. They also seek to grab all the patronage and everything else there is going. This ambition threatens to create such bitter strife and feeling in the senate as to virtually obstruct the party and render it useless. This condition would certainly exist if the Republicans were presenting a solid front and one of them would aid the Democrats in the hour of dire necessity.

Even President-elect Wilson is credited with taking a hand in the quarrel and having made the announcement to Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, that he wanted the senate reorganized along strictly progressive lines. Mr. Owen is the most radical man in the senate and it is doubtful whether he correctly understood Gov-

Moros of Jolo Wound Four Troopers In Fight

[Associated Press]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—The war department today received from Manila details of the battle fought with the insurgent Moros of Jolo by a detachment of cavalry. Four members of Troop M of the Eighth horse were seriously wounded by the Bolomen and may die. The fight followed an attack on the constabulary by the Moros, who cut up the local force badly, wounding several of them and, it is reported, killing one.

SUFFRAGETTE LEADERS SENTENCED TO JAIL

[Associated Press Cable]
LONDON, Jan. 29.—General Drummond and a number of other suffragette leaders who were arrested yesterday for resisting an officer and for destroying property were sentenced today. General Drummond was sentenced to a fortnight in the Brixton and refused to purchase his freedom by the payment of a fine. The other members of his party followed suit and will all spend the same period of time in jail.

APPROVES CLOSED SEASON FOR THE PRIBILOFF SEALS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The house committee on fisheries today approved the president's recommendation that the United States declare a close season of five years on the seals that inhabit the Pribiloff Islands. It is probable that the measure providing for this will become a law.

MARRYING 'CON' GETS 6 MOS. AS BIGAMIST

Confessing his guilt as a bigamist and throwing himself on the mercy of the court, Jesse C. Steele this morning was sentenced by U. S. District Judge Clements to a servitude of six months in jail and to pay a fine of $500. Among many who heard of the affair this morning surprise was expressed that the sentence was so light.

The hearing of Steele's case had been set for 2 o'clock this afternoon, but his early desire to withdraw his original plea of not guilty made the calling of the jury unnecessary. He was taken immediately into court and in the presence of the district attorney, his own counsel and a few spectators, announced his desire to alter the plea and submit to the court's decree. The evidence prepared against him appeared sufficient to convict. Mrs. Steele of San Francisco, and her sister, Miss Cleland, whom the court positively identified him as Mrs. Steele's husband and produced affidavits to show the legality of the marriage. He had never entered any denial of his marriage to the Portuguese girl in Honolulu last fall.

In the formal charge his name is written "Jesse C. Steele, otherwise known as James C. Steele, otherwise

RUPTURE OF CONFERENCE IS POSTPONED INDEFINITELY

[Associated Press Cable]
LONDON, Jan. 29.—The delegates from the allied Balkan states today decided to postpone indefinitely the presentation of the note finally rupturing negotiations with the Ottoman. Private dispatches to authorities here report the serious discontent of the Turkish troops in the lines before Tchatalja. The men, it is said, are refusing to follow the leadership of the Young Turks, and are demanding that Enver Bey be made to pay the penalty of his murder of Nazim Pasha. In the meantime the Powers are rushing all available warships to Constantinople, ostensibly for the purpose of guarding property and lives of Europeans there.

SAM GOMPERS DENOUNCES COMPULSORY ARBITRATION

[Associated Press Cable]
NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Speaking before the National Civic Federation, Sam Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today denounced the plan for compulsory industrial arbitration which has been proposed by members of the association. His speech was extremely bitter. He said that the very essence of the idea was abhorrent to the ideas promulgated in the declaration of independence.

IMMIGRATION STATION MAY BE SCENE OF PLOT

Charges that a Japanese woman, a "picture bride" detained at the federal immigration station, had been a saulted by an employee of the station, thought to be a night watchman have been the subject of the most vigorous and thorough investigation for several days by Richard L. Halsey, inspector in charge, and his assistants. As a result of the investigation, statements have been made to a suspicion that the case is part of a sensational plot on the part of Japanese "white slavers" to get revenge for the recent campaign against them made by the federal authorities.

The woman is the case is Nodu, the wife of S. Kato, of Ewa, according to what details can be learned. She was admitted last Monday. The assault was said by her to have been committed a night or two previous, and the story first came out, it is said among the Japanese, when she told a friend at a Japanese hotel that during a night at the immigration station she had been insulted by a night watchman.

The complaint reached Inspector Halsey and the case was a once put under the probe. This morning evidence was being taken. However, neither Mr. Halsey nor any of his chief assistants will discuss the case. It has been learned that the assault

'MILITARY CANAL' IS SEEN BY CARTER

Ex-governor, Arrival today, Emphasizes Strategic Importance of Big Ditch

"Commerce is only an incident in the gigantic scheme for the joining of two oceans by means of the Panama canal," was one of several interesting statements coming from ex-governor George R. Carter, who is returning to Honolulu after an absence on the mainland, Jamaica and Panama canal zone, covering a period of four months. "In spending four hundred millions of dollars, the United States government has far more reaching plans in view than affording a waterway for merchant marine from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"The big problem soon to be solved with the opening of the canal within the coming year is the little connecting link between two oceans, thereby permitting the United States to carry out its plan of defense with a far smaller navy, the canal permitting a quick passage of its fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Looking the picture of health, and expressing himself as feeling fine and fit, ex-Governor Carter declared this morning that he enjoyed every minute of the trip.

"I spent ten days at the canal zone, but manager to cover a considerable

CAPTAIN NELSON LANDS PEARL HARBOR JOB

Captain Richard Nelson, formerly one of the Inter-Island company's skippers, has landed a choice government plum that has been the cause for much local speculation and anticipation. He has been appointed harbor master and pilot for Pearl Harbor, a position which carries a salary of $3,000, quarters, and the exclusive use of a power-boat.

Captain Nelson's appointment comes from the secretary of the navy, and is good until revoked by the appointing authority. He is the first man to hold the position at Pearl Harbor, the great naval base of the Pacific having now reached a stage of completion where it is necessary to make regulations for the shipping of the port, and also the services of a pilot thoroughly familiar with the intricacies of the entrance channel.

Comfortable quarters on the naval reservation go with the position, and altogether the billet is considered a most desirable one, and is to be preferred to even the command of one of the Inter-Island "liners." Captain Nelson will take up his new duties in

BARON KATO IS NEW FOREIGN MINISTER

Baron Takashi Kato
New minister of foreign affairs for Japan and man who will deal with the United States.

[Special Cable to the Nippon Jiji]
TOKIO, Japan, Jan. 29.—Baron Takashi Kato, Japanese ambassador at the Court of St. James, who was recalled following the formation of Prince Katsura's new ministry, arrived here yesterday from London via the Trans-Siberian railway.

Immediately on his arrival in Japan's capital Baron Kato was formally appointed minister of foreign affairs which he accepted. His installation ceremony at the Imperial palace today was a solemn and impressive affair.

Baron Kato was born at Nagoya in 1859. After graduation from the law college of the Imperial University he entered the Mitsubishi and became the favorite of the late Yataro Iwasaki, whose daughter he married. Kato next served in the foreign and finance offices, and when Prince Ito formed his cabinet in 1900, Kato was appointed foreign minister. On the formation of the Saionji cabinet in 1906 he again became foreign minister. Baron Kato was opposed to the nationalization of the railways and resigned his office. Subsequently he was appointed ambassador to Great Britain.

COPRA & PEARLS NOW SOUGHT AT FANNING

With a view of exploiting the south sea islands in the interest of copra, pearl, fisheries and kindred industries, the British corporation in which C. N. and F. P. Armstrong of London, Eng., are heavily interested, will inaugurate an aggressive policy in the conduct of affairs at Fanning and Washington islands, according to the brief plan as outlined by Mr. Richard M. Pitt, the newly appointed manager of the company, who reached Honolulu today as a passenger in the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria.

"I am delighted to learn that the steamer Kestrel reached port," declared Mr. Pitt, as he glanced over the rail of the Manchuria as the big vessel steamed to a place at Alaka wharf, and for the first time viewed the new possession then moored at the Richard street wharf.

"We hope to build up a profitable trade between the south seas and Honolulu," predicted Mr. Pitt. "Until I receive my cables and late mail I am unable to state definitely just when I shall depart for Fanning island."

The promotion committee were greatly surprised this morning at receiving a letter from Mr. George G. Guild, secretary of the Merchants' association.

STRIKE NOW THOUGHT SURE

Skippers Receive News of Corporation's Action Silently and Decline to Discuss Further Plans Until Meeting of Harbor Can Be Called—We Shall Know What to Do' Is Statement of Judge Humphreys, and Attorney Ashford, Counsel for the Masters and Pilots

Presenting its side without mincing words, the Inter-Island company, shortly after noon today, returned to the counsel for the local Harbor of the Masters and Pilots association the answer to the demands made in a resolution adopted at the last meeting of the Harbor. These demands were to the general effect that the company enter into an agreement whereby the Harbor would have a certain say in the dismissal of its members from the employ of the corporation. The reply of the company was a flat refusal to grant such a request on to enter into such an agreement, but the letter in which the refusal was conveyed to the Harbor wound up with the statement that if the captains care to do so, the company will meet and confer with any committee they may wish to appoint. In spite of this insiders believe that a strike is now certain.

Without committing themselves in any way the members of the special committee appointed by the Harbor intimated that they regarded a walk-out as practically assured. Speaking for the Harbor, Judge Humphreys, who with Attorney Ashford has been conducting the fight for the masters said:

"We have had our answer and we are now in a position to know what to do. You may use that phrase and the public may with confidence accept all that it implies under the circumstances."

"We have met the enemy and for the time being only, we are slain," said Mr. Ashford, with a grin of delight at the prospect of a fight.

"We are unable to make any statement as yet, what our plans will have to be," said Captain Tulett, chairman of the committee, which has charge of handling the situation for the harbor. "I can not even say that we shall take advantage of the company's offer to meet us in conference. If the committee meets with representatives of the directors it will be the existing committee, I should say."

"No," he added, "I can not venture any sort of a prediction as to what the outcome will be. The company turns us down with a lot of specious reasons. It is up to the harbor to act." Vice-President McLean, of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, seen just after the framing of the letter, said:

"There is really nothing to be said for the company that is not contained in the letter. We think our position unassailable."

The letter of the company follows:

"January 29, 1913.
Honolulu Harbor, No. 54, care Messrs. A. Tulett, M. Oness and O. W. Olsson, Com., and Messrs. A. S. Humphreys and C. W. Ashford, Counsel, Honolulu.

"Gentlemen:—The board of directors of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., at a meeting specially called for the purpose, has given most careful consideration to the communication of your committee, dated January 27, 1913, and addressed to us by authority of a resolution adopted by your Harbor on that date.

"In that letter and resolution you request us to enter into an agreement with your Harbor and with its present and future members during the life of such proposed agreement to the effect that no member of your Harbor shall against his will be dismissed from employment by this company unless (1) by order of the United States inspectors empowered to act in the premises; (2) the party sought to be dismissed shall admit the justice of his dismissal; or (3) such dismissal shall be approved by arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by the Harbor, one by this company, and the third in such manner as might be provided in such proposed agreement.

"The communication referred to practically constitutes a demand that the company be compelled to keep in its employment masters and mates,

CROWDS DEPART IN MONGOLIA

Alakea wharf seldom ever was crowded to the extent that it was this morning with the departure of the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia for the Coast and the arrival of the steamship Manchuria from San Francisco, the two big trans-Pacific steamers sailing and arriving at the dock within a couple of hours of each other.

One hundred and forty-eight cabin passengers sailed for the Coast in the Mongolia. In the second class, fifty Spanish and Portuguese immigrants were issued transportation to San Francisco. During the brief stay of the Mongolia at Honolulu eighteen hundred tons freight from the far east were discharged, while 150 tons of Hawaiian products were placed aboard. Some lively work was accomplished through the agency of H. Hackfeld & Co. in the dispatch of the Mongolia and the reception of the Manchuria today.

The San Francisco-bound liner departed right on schedule, the vessel pulling away from the wharf at 5 o'clock.

Millions in wealth was represented in the passengers who left the islands this morning, many prominent people taking their departure.

Will Cut Into Pacific Coast.

The Atlantic & Pacific Steamship Company will begin operations with in one month. On the first of the month the new 7500-ton steamer Santa Cruz, the first of the big four to operate between New York and Pacific coast ports via Magellan, will begin loading cargo at Philadelphia.

The formation of the Atlantic & Pacific Steamship Company was attended with little publicity. W. R. Grace & Company, agents for the company at San Francisco, were responsible for the new venture, and without difficulty managed to interest men of large capital. Bonds to the value of $750,000 were disposed of in San Francisco.

After the Santa Cruz, three other liners will go into commission at intervals of three months. They will be the Santa Clara, Santa Catalina and Santa Cecilia. The last three will be larger than the Santa Cruz. Each will be of 10,000 tons, but for the time it is not intended to fit them for passengers.

The Santa Cruz has been fitted for about 75 passengers. The accommodations are only for first-class travel and are intended for use chiefly after the Panama Canal opens. The fittings are luxurious and it is the intention of the operators to cater only to persons who desire the best when traveling.

All of the ships will steam up to fourteen knots. Until the canal is open for the shipment of the big four will steam through Magellan. The time from the Atlantic to San Francisco will be about fifty days. When the canal is used it is expected to have sailings from either terminal every two weeks. It is expected that the Santa Cruz will leave for San Francisco with a full cargo, and a few passengers may be booked.

Saw Bright Lights Far Out to Sea

Second Officer D. Sullivan of the American-Hawaiian steamer Columbian reports to the local Hydrographic Office that on the night of December 5, at 9:45 o'clock, while on watch on the bridge, about twenty miles eastward of Port Angeles, he experienced the brightest display of phosphorus that he has ever witnessed. The water all around the vessel assumed a bright glow, almost strong enough to read a newspaper by, and lasted fully fifteen minutes. Sullivan says that he had seen a bright condition of the sea on previous voyages in the same locality, but nothing so intense as on December 5.

Long Spars for Germany

Building three spars, each 125 feet long by six feet in circumference, one of which is completed, the Crisp Brothers Shipbuilding Company, of Aberdeen, expects to fill an order which they received from a Hamburg shipbuilding firm, probably for Kaiser William. The spars when finished will be shipped to Tacoma by rail and from Tacoma will be loaded on a steamship bound for the port of Hamburg.

Alaska Steamship is Doomed

The passenger steamship Dora, which is rocking in the surf at Seward, Alaska, is doomed, according to latest advice. The steamship Northwestern will make a last attempt to pull her off the shore, but without much hope of success.

NERO COMING FROM THE SOUND

One or more employees of the United States navy department were among the passengers in the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria this morning, coming to the islands, to await the appearance of the United States naval collier Nero, with the initial shipment of sand, to be used in the construction of improvements at Pearl Harbor naval station.

The Nero it at the Sound, there being specially fitted to enter a trade between the north Pacific coast and the islands.

The naval collier is expected will make at least a half dozen round trips between the Sound and Pearl Harbor, carrying large consignments of building sand.

The first shipment will amount to about 2800 tons according to the report brought to this city today. The collier is to proceed direct to Pearl Harbor, and will berth at the new wharf. Arrangements for the expedited handling of this cargo are now about completed. It is possible that local stevedores will secure the contract for the handling of the sand. The sand in all cases is to be shipped here in bulk. It is said that there are thirty thousand tons awaiting transportation to the islands.

Little Hope for Salvage of Fruit Cargo

The Harrison Direct Line freighter Workman that sailed from Honolulu the latter part of November with a consignment of 10,000 cases of preserved pines destined for Great Britain and the continent, will bring but little salvage according to reports brought to this city with the arrival of the Honolulu. Latest advice concerning the vessel state that the salvage operations have ceased. The steamer was badly holed when she struck, and the holds and engine room are flooded. The lack of proper salvage facilities make the saving of the steamer and the cargo difficult.

The possibility of the Workman being located is made slim by reason of the fact that there is a scarcity of the necessary salvage apparatus, such as tugs, barges and other gear.

An attempt was made to lighten the vessel, but after some 10,000 cases of canned goods had been taken from the holds the operations were discontinued, say the advices. It was also reported that on account of rough weather the steamer filled up rapidly and was soon in bad condition.

The cause of the disaster, which will result in one of the heaviest losses ever involving a steamer out of this port, is not given. Captain Booth, who commanded the freighter, was familiar with the South American coast.

The loss of the steamer and her cargo is estimated at about $1,500,000. About $700,000 insurance was carried at San Francisco, the balance being placed in England by the owning company.

Many Away for the Volcano

It was a merry crowd that sailed at ten o'clock for Hawaii and the volcano in the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea. The coaster steamed through the channel and out to sea in the wake of the big Matson liner Wilhelmina.

A good sized list of travelers were listed among the passengers who are booked for the volcano trip. A shipment of hard wood lumber was discharged from the Mauna Kea yesterday.

Singing Canaries from Kauai Are Here

Canaries from Kauai to the number of eight are fracturing the quietude of the city of Honolulu since the arrival of the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea which, among other products from the big island, brought a delegation of donkeys. The freight list of this steamer included 2460 sacks sugar, 30 head cattle, 600 sacks coffee, 100 bales sisal, and a quantity of sundries. The vessel was favored with good weather on the return trip.

Hilo Shipping

Hilo deep sea shipping is represented this week by the Matson Navigation steamer Enterprise which is believed will be dispatched for San Francisco today. The American bark Nuanu is still being loaded with hard wood railway ties, and should get away for Southern California the first part of the coming month. An American-Japanese steamer is due to arrive at the Crescent City within a week.

Kauai Sugar Report.

Sugar awaiting shipment on the island of Kauai includes the following according to a report received in this city today with the arrival of the steamer Hall: MAK 9955, G&R 8249, M&B 13336, KSM 1600, KP 6800, LP 3700.

Sailing from Honolulu on January 30th, the schooner Caroline is reported to have reached Umpqua river ports yesterday. The Caroline left a shipment of lumber here.

WAILUA TAKES UPWARD JUMP

With one slight exception—the declining of Pioneer an eighth on the board—stocks increased strength with considerable activity both in and out of session of the exchange. In recess 29 shares of Pineapple sold up a quarter point to 44.50. Ewa held its own in sales of 50, 20 and 100 shares at 26.50. Pahang Rubber advanced a quarter point to 21.12 1/2 for 50 shares. Oahu Railway brought the last previous figure of 140 for 15 shares, 200 shares of Onomea sold unchanged at 32.50 and Wailua advanced 2.50 to 95 for 5 shares. On the board Wailua repeated this performance.

Other session sales were 21 of Oahu Sugar unchanged at 23 and 10 advanced an eighth, 15 shares of Pioneer unchanged at 27 and 50 at an eighth less, and 10 Brewery unchanged at 24.

unless their discharge be permitted by others than officers of the company. No refinement of the language of the resolution of your Harbor, or the letter of you, committee based thereon, can lead to any other conclusion.

"After due discussion and deliberation, the directors of the company feel that the demand made by you cannot be acceded to, and will briefly state their reasons therefor.

Company Gives Reasons.

"As a corporation the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company owes a duty to both its stockholders and the public. Exercising, as it does, powers of a quasi-public nature, the duties owed to the public should be and are paramount, and any rights to which the stockholders might otherwise be entitled should be set aside where such observance of them would conflict with the rights of the public. Where, however, a given course of action not only satisfies responsibility to both stockholders and the public, but is of such a nature that failure to follow it could rightfully be treated as a violation of duty to both, we feel forced to adopt that course.

"Waiving any rights of any nature whatsoever which stockholders may have, it seems to us that we could not carry out our obligations to the public by permitting your Harbor to insist upon its demands. The negligence of a master or of a mate, resulting in damage to person or property, is in law attributable to the company.

"The same negligence, resulting in poor public service, is by the public attributable to the company. For injury, either to a particular individual or to the public generally, the company, as the company alone, is held responsible. It must follow that when the company waives its right to select the agents by whom alone its duty to both individuals and the public can be carried out, the public would have righteous cause for complaint.

"Feeling thus, we cannot yield to the demand made, and therefore refuse to enter into any such agreement as is proposed.

"On the part of the company, this is not intended as a contest with the principles of organized labor, with which we are thoroughly acquainted, and for which we have great respect. It is a protest against a demand which seems to us to be highly unreasonable, as well and inconsistent with the spirit of fairness usually prevailing amongst men, organized or unorganized, possessing the intelligence required of licensed masters and mates.

"If, after learning the attitude of our company as set forth herein, you should desire a conference, our board will gladly appoint a committee to meet a committee of your Harbor.

"Respectfully,
"INTER-ISLAND STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY, LTD.,
"By NORMAN E. GEDGE,
"Secretary."

DE LUXE BANK PREMISES OPEN

Depositors in the savings department of the Bank of Hawaii who had business there this morning had the pleasure of encountering (have the pun) the de luxe accommodations of the new premises in the reconstructed interior of the bank's quarters occupying the entire ground floor of the Judd building. Although the temporary walls between the main bank and the savings bank is still in the way, shutting off access to the latter on the business angle of the counter, the premises were thrown open to business for the first time this morning, giving customers and others an opportunity of inspecting the elegant appointments. Nothing so rich has been seen before in any Honolulu business house interior. First of all is the tessellated floor of tiling in neutral gray tints. Facing an ample passageway in a gray marble corner turning at a right angle, which will have two wickets on each front, with a baseboard strip of dark marble. At the opening of each wicket, the grill an, wickets not yet being in place, is a slab of black glass, the full width of the counter, on which gold and silver coins will shine electric lights by contrast. This is the latest in bank counters and is said to make the counting of money easier for both the clerk and customer. The front of the counter is recessed between the wicket spaces, making the glass slab project, and the whole top overhangs upon supports of carved marble in curves of beauty. New furniture of quartered oak is provided for the clerks.

Accommodations for customers in preparing their business are in keeping with the rest. A glass-topped desk, slanted along the wall on the Fort street side, being supported by an installation of dark mahogany pigeonholes, the top edges of the panels covered with green baize. Through the glass the various blanks required are visible, each in its proper receptacle, making it easy to get the right one. Nothing, however, is placed under the middle of the desk, where the filing of blanks is done, so that the mosaic floor and the marble wall at back are in full view to the customer.

is now believed, by those investigating, to have been committed by a Japanese said to be closely connected with "white slavery" traffic as it is carried on by Japanese here. This man, it is thought, entered the station, waited until the watchman was patrolling another part of the building, and then got access to the women's dormitory.

Those who have been investigating are now declared to have unearthed enough to cause them to suspect the operation of a nasty plot against the federal immigration service. The case has come right on the heels of the active move by the federal officials in arresting eleven Japanese as alleged "white slaves." The man who entered the women's sleeping apartment, it is suspected, did so in order to accomplish his purpose and thus put the immigration service in an unbecoming light.

The case is still being investigated and Inspector Halsey this morning therefore declined to discuss it. In the Japanese community it has aroused intense interest, though the only story thought the night watchman had ascertained, but just whom she was unable to tell.

DEMOCRATS

ernor Wilson when conferring with him at Trenton. It is true the President-elect would like to see the senate progressive, but he does not desire to see it divided into two hostile camps within his own party and all the usefulness of the Democrats destroyed.

Rule of Seniority Knocked

It is now admitted that the rule of seniority in awarding important committee places in the senate will be knocked into a cocked hat when the Democrats take control of the upper branch of congress after March 4 next. To the plan of campaign which has been pretty well defined, it is claimed, twenty-eight Democratic senators will give their support. This is more than a majority of the forty-nine Democrats who are expected to have seats in the next senate, and will, therefore, enable the progressives to rule the Democratic caucus.

If the Progressives put through their plans in the Democratic caucus those opposed must either accept or in effect bolt the caucus. At the beginning of Democratic control of congress for the first time in almost a score of years, it is not believed that any number of Democratic senators will go so far as to refuse to vote in the senate to uphold a program adopted by the party caucus.

The program of the progressive democrats to take away from the veteran senators the power to which they would be entitled under the long-established rule of seniority has been well defined during recent conferences, and the progressives claim, the pledge of a majority of the Democrats in the next senate has been obtained for it.

Upon three propositions it is understood that the progressives are in accord. These are:

First—The Democratic caucus is to choose the committee on committees, which elects the membership of all committees, instead of having it appointed by the chairman of the caucus.

Second—Each Democratic senator is to have a place on one of the five big committees—appropriation, finance, foreign relation interstate commerce and judiciary—or shall have a chairmanship of one of the other important committees.

sociation," said Mr. Wood this afternoon, "notifying them that the association had appropriated $1000 for the Promotion committee. This amount has been handed in by Mr. Merle M. Johnson, treasurer of the association.

"It is very welcome at this time, when we were a little worried over the condition of our funds, and particularly so for certain special work in contemplation. This donation is a great boon to us.

The promotion committee takes this occasion to express the hope that the members of the association, as well as the members of the committee, would meet with their committee—and offer any suggestions that may occur to them.

HITCHCOCK'S PICTURES INTEREST SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 22.—A collection of pictures by D. Howard Hitchcock of Honolulu will be of interest to this week, as they contain many scenes and landscapes through the territory of Hawaii, which are familiar to the cursory traveler. The various islands are represented and present a vast diversity of color, topography and paintable qualities, all of which have been seized upon by Hitchcock. The island of Oahu, on which Honolulu is situated, is prominent in several of which are brought to view by this artist, who is exhibiting his work at the galleries of "Victory," Adams & Co. The "Garden Island" is made an object for a number of canvases, and the valley of Hanalei reveals the fact that Hawaii is possessed of many grand-cours. This portion, for ruggedness

HILO JAIL CONDITIONS NOT SO BAD, SAYS HEAD OF PRISON BOARD

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
HILO, Jan. 24.—That the agitation over the conditions in the Hilo jail has been exaggerated far beyond anything which is warranted by the conditions, is the statement made by J. S. Holmes, the chairman of the board of prison inspectors for this judicial circuit. Mr. Holmes, when asked about the matter at first declined to talk, saying that he was required under the law to report to Governor Frear on the subject and did not care to be quoted in the newspapers. Then he made the following short statement:

"While I do not care to go into details in the matters I can say that there has been a great deal of exaggeration in the statements made in regard to the conditions in the Hilo jail. While the place may not be as clean as your house or mine, that cannot be expected when one considers that the prisoners are crowded together as they are, as the result of the many prisoners and lack of appropriations for needed accommodation. The condition of the jail certainly does not warrant the use of the term 'filthy' and the tales of large numbers of beriberi cases are also absolutely untrue."

"Sheriff Pau has taken an active interest in seeing that conditions are brought up to the best possible condition and has Jailer Mabey to see that the jail is disinfected throughout and thoroughly cleaned. Besides this he has issued instructions that this cleanup shall not result in a temporary condition but shall be watched and says that if soap, water and elbow grease can do anything he will see that the jail is kept in good condition. He has asked Health Inspector Bowman to supervise the work of disinfecting and see that it is done in the best possible manner."

To Investigate Ferry Charges

The investigation of the charges made by Judge Ferry, the district magistrate of Puna, against Attorney Carl S. Carlsmith, of this city, will be commenced in this city at once. The Wilhelmina will bring Attorney Holmes and Lindsay, who, with C. W. Ashford, form the committee appointed by the Bar Association to look into the matter. Ashford arrived here by the Sunday Mauna Kea and has spent most of his time since then on the other side of the island.

The present action is being taken as the result of a decided protest made by Attorney Carlsmith when he was in Honolulu. He went to the various members of the committee and demanded that the investigation should take place forthwith, stating that he believed that he was entitled to ask that the matter be heard without further delay. The same view was taken by the committee who at once proceeded to make their arrangements. It is understood that the witnesses who are brought before this committee will not be put under oath and that the investigation will be made on rather informal lines. It will probably take several days to complete the work to be done here.

Arrested for Theft

Wharfinger Hayden, of the Hilo Railroad company, has been suspended, as a result of a charge made against him by Officer Kaimi, of the Waialae police, but up to a late hour yesterday afternoon there had been no official developments. At the office of the superintendent of the Hilo railroad, Mr. Miller could not be found and it was stated that the details were unknown in the office.

According to the story which is told by the police officer he was near the wharf on Wednesday night at about 8 o'clock and saw a man, whom he recognized as Hayden, wheeling out a truck on which there were two bags, which turned out afterwards to be filled with rice, one belonging to the Hilo Mercantile Company and the other to Fong Hing, the owner of a Chinese restaurant at Waialae. When the man saw him he dropped the truck and ran back to the warehouse Kaimi then hurried up to the warehouse and met Hayden coming out.

Dago Red Cause of Death

The death of Frank W. Gertz, for many years a shoemaker in this city, took place yesterday morning in the Lin Hop restaurant on Front street. Alcoholism, working upon a badly undermined constitution was the direct cause of death. Gertz had been on the "waterwagon" for some days and yesterday morning before his breakfast drank three bottles of so-called "Dago red," which proved too much for his system and he died suddenly, probably from heart failure helped along by the raw wine he had consumed.

Democrats Get Ready to Pay Banana Losses

Representative-elect Julius Aseh, Jr., Chairman of the Democratic caucus.

Democratic members of the next senate and house from Oahu are getting busy on their plans to carry out the planks in the party platform. Last night a big caucus of Oahu Democrats was held at Democratic headquarters in the Waity building, with Julius Aseh, Jr., presiding and a large representation of interested solons.

Discussion on various planks in the party platform was taken up. The Democrats, it was made evident last night, will have as one of the features of their work in the legislature the passage of a bill reimbursing from government funds those people who can prove damages as the result of having their banana trees cut down and other property destroyed during the anti-mosquito campaign many months ago.

The Democrats made a winning fight last October and November on this mosquito campaign. Their stump speakers hammered home to every audience the statement that the board of health and other public authorities had wrongfully destroyed property during the clean-up campaign following the yellow-fever scare, and the further statement that the Democrats if elected to office would see that the people were paid for their losses. Now the party is preparing to make good on those statements if it can muster the necessary strength in the legislature to make the measure a Democratic one.

After considerable discussion last night, a committee of three, Senator-elect A. J. Wirtz and Representative-elect J. M. Poepoe and J. S. Kalakela, were named to secure information as to the extent of the losses and the people who want damages, and upon this information to base the legislative bill. Accordingly this morning Representative-elect Kalakela circulated over the city with a copy of the following notice:

"The Democratic Legislative Caucus contemplating measures to reimburse persons who have claims against the Government for the destruction of property during the so-called Anti-Mosquito Campaign, is desirous of obtaining all possible information as to the extent and nature of these claims, and would request all persons interested to file, either in person or by mail, with the undersigned Secretary, the committee a verified statement of their loss. This information is sought irrespective of party affiliation and with the sole object of preparing legislative measures for proper relief. All parties interested are furthermore requested to file their statements prior to February 15th, 1913."

J. S. Kalakela, Secretary.

People who have been following the political promises to reimburse those who suffered losses expect that the committee will be deluged with householders anxious to prove that their banana trees were cut down.

subscriptions back through the proceeds of the ball, were very long faces. President-elect Wilson's letter suggesting that the ball be omitted was read to the committee, and it is understood that there was some grumbling and fault finding behind the closed doors of the committee.

The president-elect suggested the possibility of a public reception being substituted for the ball. As this reception was to be held at the Capitol, the committee quickly turned the proposition over to the joint committee of congress which has charge of the inauguration.

THE CLARION

Who Will Be the Lucky 1000?

This month we will produce one thousand HUDSON cars. That is a small percentage of the number of people who will want them, for before a single HUDSON was offered, more than one thousand individuals had paid their deposit to assure getting cars.

The demand in excess of the number we can build has been in about that ratio ever since the first photographs were shown.

Electric Self-Cranking Hudson

Why This Great Demand?

People recognize now the importance of engineering brains in their relation to mechanical perfection. Without knowledge a smooth, simple, safe, satisfactory car is impossible.

These cars were designed by 48 skilled engineers gathered from Europe and America, representing 97 factories. They had a hand in building over 200,000 automobiles. These men represent about all that has been learned in motor car design. Some have made the greatest headway of all in designing six-cylinder cars. Some are specialists in other lines. So the combined skill and knowledge of all these men is focused upon the perfection of HUDSON cars.

All who are motor-wise recognize the importance of having a car built under such favorable conditions. That is why, with the maximum of 1,000 cars for delivery this month, only one out of three

The committee unanimously agreed that the ball could not be held under the circumstances, and the president-elect was so informed.

Governor Wilson's wish, in the event of there being a public reception on March 4th, is that Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Wilson should not be expected to attend. This information was conveyed today to the inaugural committee.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 20.—President-elect Wilson formally suggested today to William Corcoran Eustis, chairman of the inaugural committee, that a popular reception in the Capitol building at Washington be substituted for the inaugural ball.

"I suggested for their consideration," said Wilson, "a general reception in the rotunda of the Capitol."

Wilson said he expected the details to be worked out by the committee, but reiterated the wish that the entire ceremony of the inauguration be made "as simple as is consistent with dignity and order."

By persisting in a habit of self-denial, we shall, beyond what I can express, increase the inward powers of the mind, and shall produce that cheerfulness and greatness of spirit as will fit us for all good purposes; and shall not have lost pleasure, but changed it; the soul being then filled with its own fantastic pleasures. HIGHWAY PROBLEMS

Hawaii's road problems, accentuated during the past two years by the somewhat unwieldy system of loan-fund commissions for each island, undoubtedly will be taken up by the next legislature. Great strides in highway work are being made the country over, and this territory certainly should not be behindhand.

A bulletin from the department of agriculture tells of the splendid aid lent the various states through the federal office of public roads.

Many of the model highway laws in various states have been prepared under the advice of the road experts of the department of agriculture and all the data and statistics of the office of public roads are at the disposal of the legislatures.

In the last bulletin of the office of public roads it was stated that at the close of 1909, 8.66 per cent of the roads in the United States were improved. This represents a gain in the total road mileage improved for the five-year period, 1904-1909, of 1.52 per cent, or, in other words, the percentage of improved roads has increased during this period from 7.14 to 8.66 per cent.

In the three years that have elapsed since then it is roughly estimated that the percentage of improved roads has gone well beyond 9 per cent and possibly close to 10 per cent. It is estimated that if 20 per cent of the public highways were improved—each highway being selected and improved with a view to the proportionate traffic upon it—a high degree of efficiency in highway transportation would be reached. It is figured millions of dollars would be saved annually in the transportation of crops, the wear and tear on horses and vehicles, and in the minimizing of the waste in truck-farming. Where roads are bad, the farmers frequently find it impossible to get their products to the shipping points, and thus perishable products are wasted, perceptibly increasing the cost of living.

In the five years preceding March, 1912, the office of public roads of the department of agriculture has built 215 object-lesson roads; in all, about 300 miles of road fifteen feet wide, and by expert advice aided in the formulation of more than 650 model county road systems, resulting in most instances in beneficial reforms. It has also assisted twenty-six states in effecting equitable state-aid plans. The secretary looks forward to the coming year as promising better results than at any time in the history of the movement for improved highways.

FOR THE CITY

Mr. F. W. Dohrmann, the noted San Francisco merchant, gave some very good ideas to the businessmen who gathered at the Commercial club luncheon yesterday to hear his talk. He suggested a good slogan, "The Honor of Our City Is Ours." He urged unity in civic undertakings, aggressive action to advertise Hawaii's charms to the world and reap the benefits of tourist traffic, a cooperation among commercial interests to make and keep the city clean and beautiful and progressive.

His declaration of faith in that apt phrase, "The Honor of Our City Is Ours", is a declaration against the citizen who allows his city to fall into ways of dishonor. It is also a declaration against the citizen who allows his city to be slandered, to be wrongfully accused, to be injured by evil word or false report. The duty of every resident of Honolulu toward his city is two-fold: first, to bend his best efforts toward public improvement, political or otherwise; secondly, to guard against slander and malicious or envious lies that hurt the city's fair name.

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches" both in civic and private life. The city's good name depends not only on what is said outside its gates, but the thousand tongues of report inside its gates.

ROOSEVELT FOR THE WHIPPING POST

Public sentiment here is well divided on the subject of the whipping-post, with plenty of people who oppose it absolutely, and there is little likelihood that the next legislature will even seriously consider establishing this form of punishment. However, it is interesting to note that Theodore Roosevelt has come out plainly in favor of flogging for certain criminals, including wife-beaters and "white slavers."

Col. Roosevelt contributes an editorial to the latest Outlook commending most vigorously the work of Arthur Lee, of the British parliament, who succeeds in getting the whipping-post bill passed. Characterizing this as "an achievement for humanity", Col. Roosevelt says that Mr. Lee "has rendered a striking service to the cause of humanity and decency throughout the civilized world". He continues:

One of the best features of the bill, in my judgment, is that providing for the flogging of male offenders. The Outlook has very properly protested against the whipping-post as an ordinary instrument of justice. But there are certain kinds of cruel and brutal offenses which are committed by creatures so beastlike that they can be reached only by being themselves made actually and physically to suffer. Wife-beaters come under this class, and so do the loathsome beings who engage in the white slave traffic. The immediate effect of Mr. Lee's law on this portion of the under-world was quite dramatic. According to the reports both of the police and of the vigilance workers, its passage was the signal for the beginning of a general exodus of the professional white-slavers from England, so that both trains and boats for the continent of Europe were crowded with them for several days. It is generally admitted that the decisive feature in shifting them was the threat of the lash, the one thing they cannot stand. As the London Times phrased it, "By a happy provision of nature it appears that the skin becomes more tender as the moral sense becomes more atrophied."

Mr. Lee may live long and spend all his life in power and accomplish much, and yet never accomplish anything that will rightly give him greater satisfaction or that will represent a greater gain for humanity. He has made all good men and women his debtors, in whatever part of the world they dwell.

When it comes to the "pull altogether" for public improvements in Honolulu or the territory, the example of a chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in Berlin, New Hampshire, might be worth considering. A minute of the United States senate tells of a petition from that society "praying that an appropriation be made for the erection of a public building in that city." Here it has been only the commercial bodies that have interested themselves in such matters, with the addition latterly of improvement clubs in matters of municipal improvements.

That the Promotion committee is getting results—good results—is apparent to any but the blindest of businessmen. Today's paper carries an advertisement by the committee asking all those who have rooms to let to communicate with the committee at once. Honolulu is rapidly filling with tourists. They are a visible, a tangible asset, they pay cash as they go, they add a valuable element to population, even if temporary, they stimulate the entire city. The man who cannot see the general benefits to the territory from the tourist traffic ought not to be at large.

The dedication of the memorial to Gen. S. C. Armstrong at Oahu College tomorrow signifies a fitting mark of respect to one of Hawaii's most distinguished sons. It is an occasion of peculiar interest to old-timers. Hawaii does well to honor a man of such constructive intellect and methods.

The "moral effect" on the House Ways and Means committee, of which Judge Ballou speaks, would have been stronger if some of the leading Hawaiian sugar men had attended the committee's session on sugar-tariff revision, whether or not they were called on to speak.

President-elect Wilson is said to have abandoned the inaugural ball because he doesn't like the "bunny-hug" and the "turkey-trot." However, the tariff twirl and the money-trust mix will continue in evidence.

"The Honor of Our City" in plainer and more colloquial terms means a public opinion that will put the knocker and the pessimist out of business.

"The Honor of Our City Is Ours," is the kind of a slogan that has the "punch."

How did the movies miss Duke's battle with a man-eating eel?

When Turk eats Turk the Allies gallop off with the bacon.

Among the horrors of war are the pictures of Constantinople lately being published.

TO THE POINT.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir—Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable paper in reference to the article in the Honolulu

Star-Bulletin of the 27th inst. I was not awakened by any noise, nor did I hear any noise in the morning in question. My wife on hearing a knocking on the front door awoke me and asked me to see who it was. On opening the door I saw two women clad in nightgowns, who told me how Mr. Ayres and some other man gained entrance through a window, and how they had beat and kicked Mrs. Ayres. Also, that Mrs. Ayres needed medical aid, and asked me to kindly call the police, which I did. And I think any other man would do the same thing, especially in a case of that kind.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

BYRON O. CLARK—There is nothing but the meter system to prevent waste of water and to equalize the rates according to the quantity used. Having been a member of the board that installed meters in Pasadena, California, I know what I am talking about. Three years ago I had meters installed at my place in Manoa, with the result that my water rates have been cut in half. Every honest man who is willing to pay for everything he gets, should support the proposition of having all water rates in Honolulu governed by meter.

COLORED TROOPS WANT TO HELP 'LIBEL FUND'

The Twenty-Fifth Infantry has joined with its white fellow soldiers in the campaign to raise money to bring suit against Perley Horne, principal of the Kamehameha schools. This suit, it was announced yesterday would be brought as soon as the attorney in the case for the soldiers can prepare the papers, the action of the representatives of the colored troops in promising their financial aid, making the suit assured.

The reply of the negro soldiers to an invitation to attend a meeting of the other commands at Fort Shafter last Sunday night was to the effect that owing to the recent arrival of that regiment in the islands and the amount of work still to do in getting settled, no delegates could attend Sunday's meeting, but that in future a delegation would be sent to any meetings held. Furthermore the letter assured the gathering that the regiment could be counted upon for a handsome contribution to the so-called libel fund. Attorney Andrews, who is handling the case for the soldiers, has started work on the papers.

The soldiers held their meeting in Shafter Sunday night. Every army post on the island was represented and a committee was appointed to take charge of the work. Several heated addresses were made by speakers who declared that the attitude of Honolulu. He may decide to remain in the islands for an indefinite period.

RICHARD M. FITT, was booked as a passenger in the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu, but at the last moment before leaving the coast he cancelled his passage to take a later vessel. Mr. Fitt is the newly appointed general manager for the Fanning Island Company, Limited, and is expected to take passage in the British steamer Kestrel for the south seas.

LEE McCLUNG, who recently resigned as United States treasurer, is one of the passengers booked for the S. S. Cleveland on her return trip from San Francisco in February. Mr. McClung is well known to the Yale men of Hawaii as captain of the famous football eleven of 1892, when Frank Hinkley and Heffelfinger played in the line and Luatie Bliss and Vance McCormick in the back field. McClung was famous as a dodger and line bucker.

MRS. M. ALICE MILLER, the Most Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, arrived last Thursday in Hilo with a party of seven, two from Honolulu, and the rest from the mainland. The party was met on the wharf by a committee of members of the local lodge, and was escorted to the Hilo Hotel, where a committee of Hilo ladies called. In the afternoon tea was given to Mrs. Miller at the Masonic Hall, at which several speeches were made. On Friday evening Mrs. Miller gave a school of instruction, and Saturday evening the party attended the Burns' concert. Sunday and Monday were spent in automobiling.

the general public toward the uniform had altered considerably since the statement made by Mr. Horne at a public meeting that "soldiers and adventurers from the mainland consider young Hawaiian girls their legitimate prey."

The distinction against the uniform drawn by officials at the wharf when the North German Lloyd liner Cleveland was in port was pointed to as a case in point and the assertion was made that similar unreported cases had happened in town since the Horne incident.

Following the meeting Sergeant

Discher of the Second was granted a pass on which to visit other posts and start the campaign for the fund. The pass is signed by the regimental adjutant, and it is openly asserted that the officers are backing the men in their effort to secure vindication of the charge made against them by Mr. Horne. It is also asserted that the commissioned officers are working on a plan to bring the matter to the attention of the Federal government.

SOCIETY

Mr. Harry A. White Weds Fresno Girl.

A marriage of unusual interest to friends all over Hawaii is that of Mr. Harry A. White, of this city, and Miss Ruth M. Ford of Fresno and formerly of Wisconsin. The marriage was solemnized at high noon on Monday, January 28, at Fresno, Cal.

Although the bride is not personally known here, report speaks of her as an exceedingly attractive and accomplished young lady.

Mr. Harry White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. White of this city and has friends all over the islands. He was born in Honolulu and received his grammar and high school education here, graduating from the high school when it was on Emma street. He then went to Stanford University, graduating in 1910 and at once taking up a business career, where he has made rapid progress. Entering the employ of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, he rose step by step until last July he was advanced to the position of traffic superintendent of a large section of the southern part of California, with headquarters at Fresno, where he met Miss Ford.

Miss Ford is from Wisconsin, the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Ford, of Fargo. She has been living in Fresno for several years. After the marriage on January 28 the young couple left Fresno to spend part of their honeymoon in San Francisco, and word from them at the latter city was received yesterday.

The following account of the arrangements for the wedding published in a Fresno paper, will be of interest to the friends here:

"The marriage of Miss Ruth M. Ford and Harry A. White, which will be an event of Monday, is absorbing much interest from the friends of the popular young couple. The ceremony is to take place at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Pardee Kings, Rev. Thomas Boyd officiating. A pink and white color scheme is to be observed, roses being the blossom and a supplement of greenery lending a pretty effect to the attractive room."

"Miss Ford is to be gown'd in a lovely model of crepe, tulle, made ensembles with white chiffon overdrapes and ornamented with pearl pebbles. A bertha and sleeve ornamentation of Venetian lace will lend richness to the costume. She will carry lilacs of the valley."

"Miss Zoe Glasgow who is to be her only attendant will be attired in white crepe de chine with pinnacles of pink striped chiffon. With it she will wear a bed dress of pearls in bandeau effect, with a bird of paradise at the side. She will carry a shower of pink bride's maid roses."

"Little Margaret Corgrave and Kenneth Platt will serve as ribbon bearers. Among the out of town guests who will be in attendance are the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Ford, who arrived several days ago from Fargo, Wisconsin, and Ralph Sanborn, of San Francisco, who is to serve as best man."

"The wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony the color scheme being pink and white."

Double Engagement Announced
At Schofield; Will be Followed in a Short Time by Double Wedding.

A delightful surprise was given the military folk of Schofield Barracks yesterday afternoon when at the reception at the quarters of Captain and Mrs. John R. Thomas, Jr., the engagement of the belles of the garrison were announced to two of the most popular of the army officers stationed on Oahu. The engagement of Miss Isabel Ray McGunnele, daughter of Colonel George McGunnele, First Infantry and department commander, to Lieutenant Phil Sheridan, Fifth Cavalry, was announced, and also that of Miss McGunnele's guest, Miss Josephine Smith, to Lieutenant Joseph Andrews, First Field Artillery. The announcements created quite a stir in the post and the officers and ladies from the post as well as many of those from Honolulu called during the afternoon and showered congratulations upon the happy young brides-to-be.

Miss McGunnele arrived at Schofield in the early part of last summer and since that time has been one of the leaders among the younger folk at the garrison. Miss Smith who accompanied the Colonel's daughter is also one of the most popular young ladies at Schofield.

Lieutenant Sheridan is at present at Fort Huachuca, where the Fifth Cavalry arrived last week and the time of his return to Honolulu is not yet known but it is likely that the young officer will return in a very short time and that the home of Colonel McGunnele, which was formerly King Kalakaua's hunting lodge will be the scene of a double military wedding in the very near future.

Captain Thomas' quarters were beautifully decorated with fragrant American beauty roses for the affair yesterday afternoon and during the receiving hours the First Infantry Band rendered a well selected program. Mrs. Thomas and her mother, Mrs. White, received the callers and made the announcements while Mrs. Alfred Aloe and Mrs. Phillipson received with Miss McGunnele and Miss Smith.

Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson Entertained.
One of the prettiest teas of the week was that at which Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson entertained on Monday in complement to Mrs. Robert Hair, who is visiting at the Colonial. Mrs. Robertson chose the delicate pink hibiscus for her decorations and baskets of the tropical blossoms were arranged throughout the house. Mrs. Robertson was assisted during the afternoon by a number of her friends and by a bevy of attractive young girls.

An enjoyable musical program was arranged and several ladies, including the hostess sang and rendered selections on the piano.

Mrs. W. C. Hobdy Entertains.
On Friday Mrs. W. C. Hobdy entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon for her mother, Mrs. Evan T. Warner. Covers were laid for ten, including Mrs. Evan T. Warner, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. J. B. Atherton, Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Mrs. C. H. Dickey, Miss Mary Alexander, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, Mrs. E. I. Shepherd and Mrs. W. C. Hobdy.

Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wallace Christened.
On Sunday the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wallace of Wailua was christened. The tiny girl was given the name of her grandmother, Caroline Georgia. Mrs. John Kindred stood sponsor for the child. Mrs. Wallace was formerly Miss Lillian Robertson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Robertson.

Mrs. Ross Kingsbury to Entertain.
Mrs. Ross Kingsbury is entertaining informally tomorrow afternoon for Mrs. Fred Kingsbury and her sister, Miss Roma Love.

HUGHES COMPANY IS BIG HIT IN SHANGHAI

The China Press gives the Hughes Comedy Company a warm welcome to Shanghai. Friends of the company here will be interested in reading the following under date of January 1:

"There were two remarkable things about the opening performance of the Hughes Musical Comedy Company, last evening at the Victoria Hall, it was the most enthusiastic musical comedy entertainment that has been given in Shanghai for many a long year and it was witnessed by the most enthusiastic audience that ever packed a Shanghai theater to the doors."

"It was simply a scream, that's all, just as they said in the bills!"

"At the doors people were almost scrambling to get in. Inside they lined the aisles and almost overflowed onto the stage. Never before has the Victoria experienced such a sight."

"There were two reasons why the audience enthused. One was that it was New Year's Eve. But the other and the greater, was that the Hughes Musical Comedy Company took things by storm. Everybody went there expecting to have a good time—and everybody did, with a vengeance."

"Clever comedians, pretty girls; excellent singers, excellent songs; a snappy piece full of snappy lines, and action that not only revived, but swept this is a feeble epitome of the way it got over the footlights."

The song numbers are all new and the costumes will be all new and up to the Teal standard.

On Friday night the "Teal Duck Hugs" will have one of their famous contests which were so popular on their last visit.

There will be two shows nightly starting at 7:15 and 9 o'clock will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. Get the habit, come early and avoid the rush.

MRS. McLAIN DEAD

Succumbing to heart trouble from which she had been afflicted for nearly a year, Mrs. Daley McLain, wife of John McLain, who had resided in Honolulu thirty-five years, died shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday evening at her home, 1231 Matlock avenue. Mrs. McLain was born at Antrim, Ireland, and next Sunday was to have been her seventy-fourth birthday. She is survived by four children, all of whom were at the bedside when she passed on. They are Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mrs. William Milton and Miss Sadie McLain, of Honolulu, and Mrs. W. H. Heiserman of Hilo. The funeral will be held this afternoon and will be private.

THOUSAND MEN STAND UP FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS

An impressive appeal to more than a thousand men gathered in the Opera House last night, and a still more impressive response when the entire audience rose and thus declared for righteousness in daily living, signalized the last general meeting of the Men and Religion campaign in this city.

Fred B. Smith, whose forceful addresses to men have been a notable feature of the campaign, made the address at the Opera House, which was filled to the doors, even to the aisles. "America's Greatest Sin," was his subject, and the national leader of the Forward Movement dealt with it in a masterful and eloquent manner.

Besides Mr. Smith and the members of the National Association quartet, several prominent business and professional men and ministers occupied the stage including President A. F. Griffiths, W. A. Bowen, Paul Super, A. A. Kersole, Rev. R. Elmer Smith, Rev. A. Akana, Bishop Restarick, Rev. Henry Judd, D. C. Peters, Rev. R. B. Dodge of Maui, Dr. W. L. Brown of Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. W. D. Weatherford, student secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of the South. Paul Super presided at the meeting, and after several selections by the quartet, he announced the topic of Mr. Smith's address and then introduced the speaker.

The most impressive incident of the evening came after Mr. Smith had finished his address and had called upon the quartet for one more song. In an earnest appeal to those in the audience, which was composed of nearly a thousand men of every nationality and creed, he asked all those who believed that they were leading a straightforward Christian life to stand. Nearly one-half of the audience stood in response to this appeal. Then, after a short prayer, he called upon those to stand who felt it was their desire to live a Christian life in the future. There was hardly a man in the entire audience who did not respond to this appeal and stand with bowed head. It was a wonderfully inspiring moment.

Although the topic of Mr. Smith's address was with regard to America's greatest sin, the speaker did not at once take this point and, in fact, did not mention it until he was nearly through. After a few preliminary remarks he read the eighth chapter of Deuteronomy and from this chose as his text, "Beware Lest We Forget God" and it was upon this text that he based the greater part of his talk. Following the reading of this chapter, he again called for prayer, and then, commenced his address which took up an hour and a half.

Mr. Smith spoke of the chapter of Deuteronomy as being made up of three great addresses which were delivered by Moses. He told of the statement of Professor Moulton, of Chicago University, who, when asked to tell what he believed was the greatest oration ever given by man said:

"Of all orations which have ever been delivered by the human tongue, the greatest of all are those delivered by Moses and contained in the book of Deuteronomy."

Mr. Smith then gave a resume of the history of the life of Moses, and told how he started out in his teachings as a stammering, thick-tongued man, who had to have a public speaker go along with him, and ended up by delivering three of the greatest orations to man. It was at this point that the speaker brought out the fact that he thought that in some parts of the world religion was dying out.

"The world is breeding a nation of young men who cannot today sit down and read a book and think deeply, and you cannot mould a nation on that," he said.

Going back once more to the subject of religion, Mr. Smith said: "There are very few men who can prosper in business and at the same time keep religion out during my stay in Honolulu I have found that there are many men here who have accomplished the seemingly impossible and who have accomplished it well. Religion has been preached to every man in this audience from the time he was able to talk. First it was by the parents and later by the clergy. Honolulu is a pleasure-loving city, and let me tell you, young men, that there is not one among you in this great city who, if you forget your religion, will stand for anything fifteen minutes after you are dead. Who is the young man who is going to succeed in Honolulu? Not the well-fed, well-dressed young fellow who looks after cheap amusement every evening, but the fellow who is going to succeed is the young fellow away out on some plantation or down in the country who walks at night under the open sky, who thinks deeply, and says to himself, 'If I could only be in the city this evening.' That is the young fellow who is some day going to come in and own this city. It is going to be the fellow who has had to work hard."

He gave vivid examples of young men who had started out in life possessed with a strong Christian faith and eager to help his fellow men. Youths who were poor and who struggled through college were told of by the speaker, who then told how many of them had suddenly become possessed of great wealth and who had fallen in the way of temptation and who had given up religion. These men, he said, were the failures, while those who struggled along and at the same time kept their religion were, nine times out of ten, successful in life. He told of the strong religious faith which prevails throughout India today, and related the story of how he had asked a Hindu, who had been in prayer for over fifteen years, why it was that he had prayed so long, and the Hindu answered him in one word: "God."

Mr. Smith closed his address by explaining what he believed to be the greatest of all sins, and said: "When I speak of the greatest sin, you would naturally believe that I mean either gambling or drunkenness, but I have neither one of these in my mind. It is true that gambling and drunkenness are great sins, but there is one other and that is the sin of ingratitude. The ingrate is the worst of all criminals. Give me two young fellows of the same age and strength, and I will give them both the same amount of whiskey. After such a time as this liquor has taken its effect

YOUR HAIR IS FLUFFY, BEAUTIFUL AND LUSTROUS IN A FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25-cent Bottle of "Danderine" and Try This.
Also Stops Falling Hair; Destroys Dandruff

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of "Danderine" from any drug-gist or toilet counter, and just try it advertisement.

ROBINS SPEAKS AT KAMEHAMEHA

"Christ in the human heart is the secret of individual power; Christ is the social order is the secret of a nation's strength," said Raymond Robins, the social service expert, in an address given this morning before the entire student body of the Kamehameha Schools. Drawing upon the experiences of his own life, Mr. Robins pointed out the main things which make the lives of young men and women successful.

Following a song service by the school, Principal Perley L. Horne introduced the speaker, who began his address with a brief history of his own life including many of his experiences in Alaska during the time of the gold rush thirteen years ago. He told of the mad rush to the gold fields and how the prospectors were forced to travel over the hills for forty miles in the teeth of many a freezing gale before they finally reached their destination. Out of the 2000 people who started in that mad push, he said, only 1500 crossed the summit of that winter and he explained this by saying that it was the things that were on the inside of a man that were greater than the things which were on the outside. This, he said, was learned on the trail; that it was the nerve and courage on the inside of a man that was greater than all his muscle and strength on the outside.

"This applies to the life of today; to the lives of you young men and women who will go out into the world after you finish your school here," he said. "There are some among you who are slow, and then there are others who are bright and quick to learn. But you will find out that it will be the slow ones who will push ahead of the smart ones in years to come. Some people think that they can do all their work alone. On the trail in the north the man who worked alone without the help of his fellow men, was soon lost. It took two men to drive a dog team, and two men to work a mine, and when we traveled on the trail we went in a line of five or six. We stood together for protection, and there was always one man in the line who was a little slower than the rest, and the line could not move faster than this one man could. This applies to you for it is your duty to get interested in the slow student and help him along."

"As on the football or the baseball field, you must learn the law of team play and co-operation. It is going to be one of the biggest factors in your lives. I think of you as the old guard of the ranks of the boys and girls in this great school are to come the men and women who will be a credit to the Hawaiian race. You are the hope of your people, and I have never talked to a group of young men and young women who seemed to me to have a larger work to accomplish. All the other races in Hawaii are but sojourners in a strange land, but you are in your native land and you are going to carry the traditions of your people in all that is best and strong through the coming years. You will make the name of your people one of honor, one that says that from the race of Hawaii there will come forth strong sons and daughters who will carry on the world's work and make a greater Hawaii. I believe this; you live in a great age, and never before have you had more power or greater opportunities than you have now."

"How are you going to be the masters of your destiny? By having a strong physique and good, red blood. Yes; but that is not the test of your lives. I cover for you a good mind, one that will take a grasp on life so that you may take hold of the problems of life and think them out for yourselves. Still, this will not be the best thing in your lives. What is going to be the final test? It is going to be the hidden purpose in your lives; the character of your moral purpose of spiritual vision that will determine your success in life. Have a personal fellowship with Jesus Christ so that you may be able to walk and talk with him in the time of danger or struggle. If it were in my power to give you the greatest gift that man has or will ever have, I would give you the gift of personal fellowship with Jesus Christ."

NATION FACING A LAND CRISIS THINKS CORPORTION COMMISSIONER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The concentration into the hands of a few powerful interests of an enormous percentage of the timberlands of the United States has created a problem so grave for the nation in the judgment of Luther Conant, Jr., Commissioner of Corporations, that today he recommended to President Taft that the existing national forests not only be retained by the federal government, but increased as far as practicable. This note of warning was sounded by the commissioner in forwarding to the President the full text of part I of the bureau of corporation's investigation of the lumber industry made by direction of Congress. A summary of this report, showing the extent of concentrated control of timberlands was sent to the President and published nearly two years ago.

To increase government ownership of forest lands the commissioner urges that the forests of Alaska be included in reserve, as well as all timbered lands recovered in forfeiture suits. He advises a further searching inquiry into land grants of the past with the view of instituting additional forfeiture suits if the facts justify the procedure.

Issues a Warning. Mr. Conant warns that attempts are still being made to "secure the transfer of public timberlands to private owners under the same plea of settlement which in the past often proved wholly specious and insincere."

"Much of the timberland still remaining in public ownership," continues the commissioner, "is adapted only for timber purposes. All that could be properly asked by a bonafide settler is the surface of arable land after the timber has been removed, but too frequently back of the argument made in the name of the 'settler' is the desire to acquire the timber or other natural resources rather than the soil itself. It seems desirable, therefore, to direct public attention to the fundamental difference between disposing of agricultural lands to actual settlers, whose industry contributes directly to the material and social upbuilding of the community, and the alienation of virgin timberlands, which do not require, and, indeed, hardly permit of improvement by private owners, and the value of which is rapidly rising because of reduction in the supply and the increase in population. The public service involved in the mere speculative holding of this timber for an advance in price, under present conditions of settlement of the country, is practically negligible. When, more-over, such lands become concentrated ers; companies in which the A. B. Hammond Company of New Jersey, is the principal interest; and the timber interests of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway Company (subsidiary to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company).

After enormous sales, the commissioner points out that the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific and the Atchafalaya, Tule and Santa Fe own together 33,500,000 acres of timbered and non-timbered lands, an area as large as England.

The Amalgamated Copper Co., Mr. Conant adds, owns over 1,000,000 acres of timberland and more than 100,000 acres of non-timbered land, all in Montana, and Thomas B. Walker personally owns 700,000 acres in California.

Foresees Higher Prices. Despite the great increase in stumpage values in recent years, Commissioner Conant foresees a growing rise in prices because of the diminished lumber supply and increasing population. Mr. Conant takes sharp issue with suggestions, amounting he says to almost a propaganda at the present time, that the price of stumpage should equal the cost of growing trees. The idea, he adds, seems incredible when it is considered that standing timber is the free gift of nature, requiring from scores to hundreds of years for its growth.

The proposal, brought forth in the name of conservation and seized upon by some lumbermen, he continues, "is a proposal deliberately to hasten the evil which conservation ought to moderate—the evil of excessive prices." Taken in connection with the increasing concentration of timber control, he says, the proposition is a matter of grave concern to the consumer of lumber.

In advocating an extension of government ownership of forest lands, the commissioner points to the fact that there is a distinguishing characteristic of standing timber, as contrasted with such mineral resources as iron ore, coal and petroleum, in that no labor is required to discover it.

Discussing means of increasing the government's ownership of timberlands, Mr. Conant suggests, if pending forfeiture suits are successful, a searching investigation to determine whether there has been such non-fulfillment of the various conditions attached to the Northern Pacific and other grants as would give congress just and legal cause to seek further forfeitures.

MAUI TO PUT SILVER SWORD PLANT IN FLORAL PARADE

MANY WILL SEE ARMSTRONG MEMORIAL

There will be a notable assemblage tomorrow afternoon at Oahu College when the memorial to General Samuel Chapman Armstrong is unveiled in front of Pauahi Hall. When Mary and Ida Weaver, grand-nieces of General Armstrong, unveil the bas-relief, it will be in front of an audience containing some of the men most prominent in Hawaii today.

The life and work of General Armstrong will be told by men familiar with the achievements of this distinguished son of Hawaii. The exercises begin at 3:30 o'clock promptly. The program will be a distinctive Armstrong program. It will consist of three brief addresses, one by Mr. W. R. Castle on "Armstrong in Hawaii," one by Dr. X. B. Emerson on "Armstrong in College and in the Civil War," and one by Mr. C. A. Corbitt on "Armstrong and Hampton Institute." Mrs. B. F. Dillingham will read a poem written especially for the occasion, "The Tribute." Dr. N. B. Emerson has written an oil, commemorating Armstrong's life and achievements, which will be given by J. T. Kapahuanui. The music, which will be furnished by the Oahu College Glee club, will consist of special hymns used at Hampton in similar exercises.

The proposal for an Armstrong Memorial came originally from the Civic Federation. A special Armstrong Memorial Committee was appointed which had general charge of the plan. This committee consisted of Judge S. B. Dele, Geo. R. Carter, W. P. Erar, P. C. Jones, Rev. H. B. Restarick, W. O. Smith, Ed Towse, H. P. Baldwin, G. N. Wilcox, F. A. Schaefer, W. D. Alexander, Jas. B. Castle, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, A. F. Griffiths, Theo. Richards, Rev. Doremus Scudder, L. A. Thurston, Mrs. Ellen A. Weaver, S. L. Lyman, Perley L. Horne.

The executive committee, which has done most of the work, consists of Judge S. B. Dele, Mrs. Ellen Weaver, Ed Towse and A. F. Griffiths. The memorial consists of a portrait has relief in bronze. It is the work of an English artist, A. Bortram Pagram. It has been pronounced a most life-like and artistic representation of General Armstrong by those who have seen the bas relief. The Memorial will be dedicated by a number of Punahou Preparatory girl students, this part of the program being in charge of Miss Florence Carter.

Maui is going to put Haleakala's famous Silver Sword plant in the Floral parade, according to reports received from the Valley island. The remarkable plant will form a principal feature of one of the autos which residents of the island will enter. Though a recent exhibition of a plant of the same sort, from the slopes of Mauna Kea, exploded the idea that Haleakala is the only place where it grows, it is rare enough to make an unique decoration.

The exercises are open to the general public and visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Very few people have seen it. "Many years ago I saw it growing on Mauna Kea," said Robert Horner, "hence it was no surprise to me to see a sample of it in the windows of the Promotion Committee rooms." "One of the wonderful things about the plant is the slowness of its growth. There seems to be hardly any perceptible increase in a year. On Haleakala, years ago, I used to see the little plants and visiting the place again, years after, I could hardly see that they had grown at all." "The big plants, such as the one from Maui and the one from Mauna Kea, in the Promotion Committee rooms, must be of great age."

I read it in the Star-Bulletin. It must be so.

 Parties having rooms to let in private homes, either with or without board, will please communicate with the Hawaii Promotion Committee. — advertisement. *****

CASTLE TO MEET BARNES IN FINALS

Present Holder of Cup Wins His Way to Finals and Will Get Permanent Possession of the Trophy if He Defeats Barnes This Afternoon

J. H. Barnes and A. L. Castle meet this afternoon in the finals of the Wall cup tournament at the Beretania Tennis Club. Castle has two legs on the trophy, and should win this afternoon he will become its permanent possessor. The Wall cup has been played for nine times, including the present tournament. This afternoon's match is scheduled for 4 o'clock, and will be three in five sets.

The best of the two semi-final matches was between Barnes and W. B. Izard, both Class B men. Izard, who has just come to Oahu as navy paymaster, is well known on Eastern courts, where he has played in many big tournaments. He also won the championship of the Philippines a few years ago. Yesterday, he slumped badly after taking the first set, but the wreckage of his fall-down, played for nine times, including the present tournament. This afternoon's match is scheduled for 4 o'clock, and will be three in five sets.

The Castle-Guard match was easy for the former, who owed 3-6 and 3-6, but nevertheless won in straight sets. The third set went to deuce, and was hard fought, after Castle was leading 6-1 at one time.

In the finals this afternoon Castle owes 3-6, 15. The match should be a good one.

Barnes beat Izard, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

HONOLULU HIGHLY LAUDED IN RAILROAD MAGAZINE

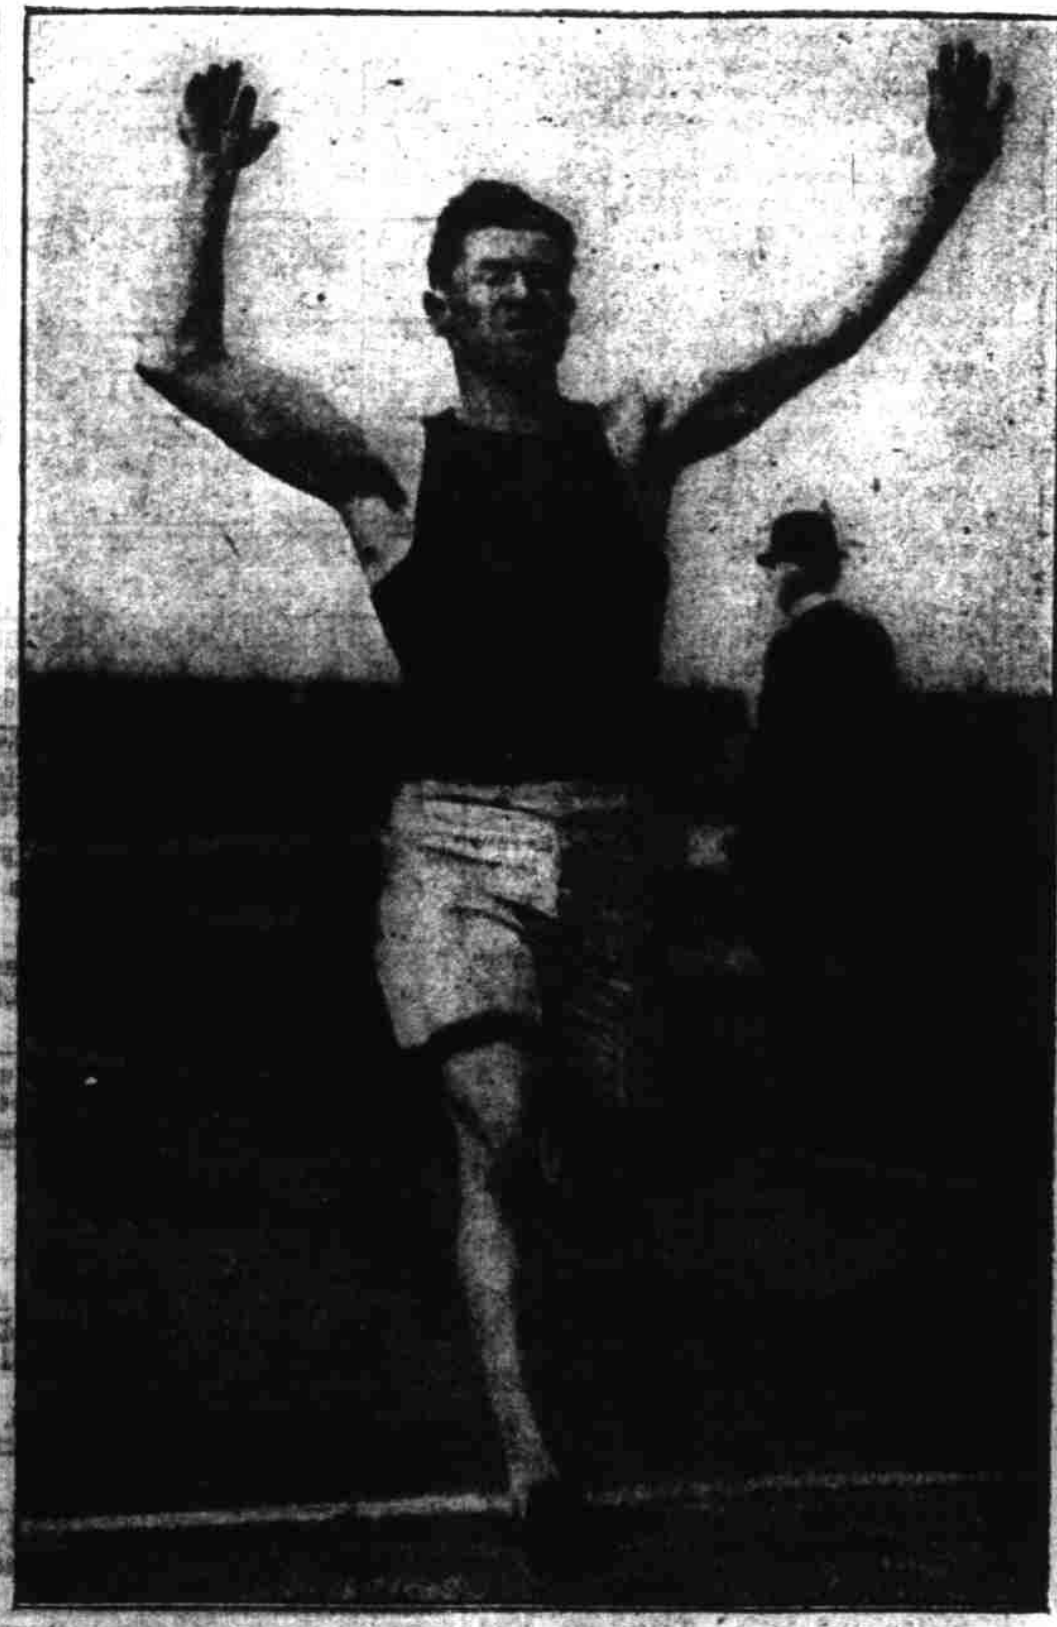

The Erie Railroad Employee Magazine, which has a wide circulation among railroad and traveling men, contains the following striking praise of Hawaii in a letter from a correspondent, Louis Jackson, on a trip to the Orient:

"From Shanghai I took the Japanese steamer Tenyo Maru, via Nagasaki, Kobe and Yokohama, to San Francisco, stopping en route for one day at Honolulu, the chief port of our Hawaiian Islands. I had visited Honolulu before. It is one of the loveliest spots of the world, and is so recognized in all guide books. Monte Carlo on the Mediterranean is probably the most beautiful place in the world, but Honolulu, with its tropical trees and flowers, the surrounding mountains, the extraordinary streaks of peacock blue of its seas, its great hotels, and splendid bathing beaches, is a place well worth visiting. Honolulu has boulevards lined with the most beautiful tropical trees, many of them with large clusters of flowers. Bananas grow along the roads, and at a little distance away from the roads, for practical reasons, are many tall coconut trees. The pineapple grows in abundance in Honolulu, and the largest pineapple canyons in the world is there. A splendid system of open, roomy trolley cars runs to all the leading sights in and around Honolulu, and I think it has as many automobiles in proportion to the population (40,000) as there are in the city of New York. The several islands comprising Hawaii have about two hundred miles of railroad. One line, about one hundred miles long, is on Oahu, on which island Honolulu is situated. This railroad is three feet gauge. On the island of Hilo there is another railroad about 75 miles long, which is 4 ft. 8 1/2 in. gauge."

"When the steamers arrive, the Honolulu Band, a splendid local organization full of fire, is on the pier to greet them, and it is there when the steamers depart. This is a very pleasing feature."

"On leaving Honolulu the native women come down to the steamer wharf to sell wreaths of flowers, which are bought by the passengers and thrown back to friends as the steamer leaves. Coins are thrown into

Thorp's Disbarment From The Amateur Ranks Causes A Stir

JAMES THORP.

THE DISBARMENT from amateur athletics of James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian who was the sensation of the last Olympic games, has caused a big stir the country over. Thorpe's standing was taken away from him because he played professional baseball prior to the Stockholm games, and the American committee is now faced with the unpleasant duty of returning the prizes which Thorpe won, technically under false colors, although there could have been no collusion on the part of those at the head of the American team. Foreign knockers are sure to get their hammers out, however, and we may expect to read soon that America went out with a dragnet, gathered in a number of well known professionals in every branch of sport, and is now "concocting" to save future complications, after interest in the games has died down.

Thorpe was recently examined by a board of physicians, and pronounced to be the perfect man. Last summer, at the Olympic games, he received the Oscar of Swegen's trophy for winning the decathlon, and that of the King of Sweden for conquering in the pentathlon. Returning to America, Thorpe played through a gruelling football season, and was acclaimed by everyone as the greatest all-round player the game has ever seen.

The marvel is that Thorpe's admitted professionalism wasn't discovered long ago. When he was handed a big league contract a few weeks ago, comment was made on his former professional record, the sporting writers speculating as to why he had been signed as a pitcher when he had played the outfield in professional company before.

Carlisle is outside of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association and questions of football and baseball eligibility do not come up there. That is probably the reason why Thorpe's well known professional baseball career a couple of years ago was not more generally taken note of.

SOCIETY LAD A WHITE HOPE

NEW YORK—Joe Choyinski, who has been acting as boxing instructor at a Pittsburgh club for the last few years, thinks he has discovered a new hope who will be able to crowd aside McCarty and Willard as soon as Choyinski turns him loose.

The veteran says his discovery frequently has knocked him down in training bouts, which contain the one time conqueror of Jack Johnson that he is not wasting his time on a dead one. However, Choyinski refuses to reveal the name of the new wonder, who, he says, is the son of a wealthy man who will not give his consent to the youngster's beginning a career in the ring unless he is sure to become the champion.

Another month or two will be sufficient to put on the finishing touches, says Choyinski, and then challenge McCarty and Willard will be in order. The water, which the native boys, who are excellent swimmers, dive to.

BAT NELSON AT IT AGAIN

CHICAGO—Battling Nelson, who is training for his fight in Racine, Wis., on February 5 with Ray Sorenson, is boasting for a fight bill in Illinois. He has been making speeches at Columbus, Youngstown and other cities in the interest of a fight bill recently introduced in the Ohio legislature.

But says his hands are all right again as a result of treatment at the hands of Bonesetter Reese.

Rudy Unholtz is back from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he defeated Paul Sikora in a six round fight, and has a match in Windsor, Canada, with Joe Phillips. The fight will take place January 22. Rudy, enthusiastic over his showing in his last little, exulted newspaper clippings in support of his claim that he won all the way. He says the promoters gave him $25 more than they had promised to pay him because he drew such a large house. Unholtz is hot on the trail of Bat Nelson. Packey McFarland and Al Volzard.

Packey McFarland is contemplating a trip abroad. He says he is a hoodoo to fight clubs in this country, in several instances when he was scheduled to battle the bout was called off and in other cases the club closed after he had made an appearance.

If a man has any sense at all it shows up before he gets engaged or after he is married.

Every time her husband consults a railway time table a suspicious wife wonders if there is another woman in the case.

WADSWORTH-GIBB TEAM TO MEET EWA CRACKS

O'Dowda and Renton Favorites for Final Honors in Punahou Doubles Events but Yesterday's Winners Also Have Strong Support

Yesterday's completion of the semi-finals of the Punahou tennis doubles, when David Wadsworth and Gordon Gibb defeated Wrenn Timberlake and Dwight Baldwin, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4. The game was a splendid one as have been all so far played in the tournament. The first set was an exceptionally good exhibition of tennis, both pairs playing well. Wadsworth and Gibb only won it after a hard fight. In the second set it seemed as though the initial effort had been too much for Wadsworth and Gibb, for they were easily beaten. In the third set, however, they came back strong, and beat Timberlake and Baldwin nearly as badly as they had been beaten themselves. In the last set Wadsworth and Gibb kept up their good work and won the game.

All that is left to be played now is the finals as Allan Renton and Johnny O'Dowda won their set in the semi-finals last week when they defeated Robert Horne and Platt Cooke, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. Though they played with a handicap they did not find the game as easy as was at first expected. Horne and Cooke played a good game and gave Renton and O'Dowda a run all the way. Wadsworth and Gibb are better players than Horne and Cooke and the finals look classy.

The Punahou students have already picked their pairs and there is much excitement as to which one will win. Renton and O'Dowda seem to be the favorites, but Wadsworth and Gibb do not lack supporters.

E. O. Hall & Son, who gave a cup to the winner of the singles, are offering racquets to the winners of the doubles.

All-Hawaii Poloists Off For Campaign Against Coast Cracks

THE ALL-HAWAII POLO TEAM

FOUR MEMBERS of the polo delegation that will represent Hawaii in the big California tournaments during February and March, sailed on the Monokella this morning for San Francisco. Frank Baldwin, back; Harold Castle, No. 2; Arthur Rice, No. 1, and Sam Baldwin, reserve, are the men who have just left Honolulu. Walter Dillingham, team captain and No. 3, having been on the coast for several weeks.

The team is the strongest that can be brought together in the islands, and great things are expected from it in the California competitions. The players are in perfect training, and are prepared to play their best, and let it go at that. If they are beaten it will be because a better brand of polo is played on the coast than here.

On arrival in San Francisco the players will proceed at once to Coronado, where Dillingham has already gone. The first scheduled action for the Hawaii team is one of the less important tournaments, which commences February 9.

Mrs. Frank Baldwin and Mrs. Sam Baldwin accompanied their husbands. Mrs. Walter Dillingham is already on it in the California competitions. The

A correspondent who signs himself "J. L. Walton, once a Punahou student," writes suggesting that as league baseball is pau here for the time being it would be a good scheme to pick an All-Oahu team. Apparently he has collected a symposium of the opinions of the various local authorities and former stars, which he shoots along with his letter. Here are the selections:

Catcher
By an old St. Louis catcher—"Kanky," the Chinese player, is without question one of the greatest catchers the game has ever known in Hawaii. He has had a very brilliant year, and I think is playing about the most consistent ball at his position of any man on the circuit. It is pretty hard to over-estimate the value of such a man as "Kanky."

By an old big league umpire—"Kan Yen is playing a wonderful game this year, the best game of his career. He always was a great player but this year he has outdone himself. There are a number of good catchers in the Oahu League, but I say without hesitation that Kan Yen outranks them all."

Pitcher
By a Chinese player—Barney Joy is the best pitcher in the business here. Our own men, Luck, Yee and Apau Kan are coming strong, and will be watching next season. Foster Robinson is also a comer.

First Baseman
By a J. A. C. player—There is no better first baseman in the game today than Albert Akana. Filzer of the P. A. C.'s is also good, and it is hard to choose between them.

By a former Punahou pitcher—I am a pitcher, and naturally not so much interested in first basemen as some other players might be. I have noticed the work of Albert Akana particularly, though, and I must say that when I have seen him he has always been a star.

Second Baseman
By a Chinese player—La Mere is the greatest second baseman in the Oahu League. Many people pick Kuali, of the J. A. C.'s in preference, but I don't think so. I have never seen anyone in Hawaii who can field the second sack as La Mere does, and they don't make any better batters than he is. I suppose no one in Hawaii will equal La Mere for clean come-run hits.

Third Baseman
By a P. A. C. player—It is pretty hard to say who is the best third baseman. Last year I think that without doubt Denry Markham was. This year Lai Tin has played some good ball, and he is the most dangerous man on bases. Both are good.

By D. K. Davis—Lai Tin and D. Markham are undoubtedly the best third basemen in the Oahu League. For base running and fielding Lai Tin is a trifle superior.

Shortstop
By a member of the Hawaii team—Henry Bushnell is a great shortstop and a mighty nice fellow. I suppose root hard for Bushnell, but I suppose he would be given a hard run for first honors by Ayau of the Chinese student," writes suggesting that as league baseball is pau here for the time being it would be a good scheme to pick an All-Oahu team. Apparently he has collected a symposium of the opinions of the various local authorities and former stars, which he shoots along with his letter. Here are the selections:

By an old big league umpire—Evers, the old St. Louis shortstop, who is now dead, was once the king of local shortstops. Ayau and Chillingworth have taken his place.

A Full Team
By J. K., a Hilo fan—The palm for the greatest first baseman goes to Albert Akana. For second, Kuali, of the J. A. C.'s. At third, I suppose Lai Tin and D. Markham are about equal. Shortstop position, in my opinion lies between V. Ayau and "Chilly." Both are great shortstops in every sense of the word, and both are fine fellows as well. Personally, I do not think there is much to choose between them, but there might be a shade in favor of the Chinese player, L. Akana. En Sue and Ornelas are the best outfielders in the islands.

Outfield
By T. K. L., of the Asahis—En Sue at center, L. Akana at left, and David Desha at right are about the fastest fielders in the Hawaiian Islands. En Sue is no doubt the best of the three, with Alana a close second.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Jack Souter, the veteran professional of the Racquet club of this city, and Charles Williams are arranging a match for the title of world's racquet champion at $2500 a side. Articles are on the way to Williams, according to which the first match will be played here in March, and the second in London in May.

NOME, Alaska, Jan. 18.—The Solomon derby, the first of the winter dog races and second in interest only to the great Alaska sweepstake, was postponed from today until January 25 because of the heavy snowstorms of the last few days. The distance is 65 miles from Nome to Solomon and return.

BOSTON—A change in the date of the national open golf championship from June 4 to some time in September, in order that several British and French players may participate, will be agreeable to the officials of the Brookline Country club, where the event will be held. Such a postponement would bring to this country Ward Ray, present British champion; Harry Vardon, George Duncan, and possibly several French professionals to play in the British championship late in June.

Taxpayers—Hand in your tax returns to the Assessor before Jan. 31. advertisement.

STUDENT-CHINESE GAME CALLED OFF

Markham's Aggregation to Forego Second Chance at the Fast Orientals—Students Have Little Chance and Chinese Want to Save Men for Next Sunday's Game

By mutual agreement between captains and managers, the second basketball game between the All-Students and the All-Chinese has been called off. In the minds of many fans, there is no question that the Chinese team is far better than the team composed of schoolboys, and nobody will regret the canceling of this game.

For this week, there will be one big game. The All-Oahu and the All-Chinese teams, which battled Sunday last in one of the most exciting contests held in the islands, will meet each other on the diamond on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is hard to pick the winners, and the Chinese will have to fight as they did last Sunday, if they expect to make it eleven straight.

Last Sunday's game was a disastrous one for both teams, for three men are now on the hospital list. Shortstop Chillingworth of the Oahu is still nursing a broken finger, while En Sue and Sing Hung of the Chinese team are in a crippled condition. En Sue was hit twice by two days, and the dark-blue marks on his thigh still show out prominently. Sing broke his knee while trying to score.

The Hawaiian band has been obtained to furnish the music at Athletic park on Sunday. The advance sale has already commenced at E. O. Hall & Son.

PUN TRACK MEN IN FIRST WORK

The first track turn-out of the season was held yesterday afternoon at Punahou and from the looks of things there will be much promising material at that school this year. Many of last year's men turned out, and there were some new faces also. Not much was done in the line of actual work but things were given a good start, which is a good deal when it is realized that it was the first call of the year for track men.

"Bill" Iaman, Punahou's crack weight man, will be unable to practice for several weeks, owing to a strained back caused by a fall last week. This forced rest will not greatly affect Iaman, for he will still have about a month of practice before the inter-scholastic meet.

The cross-country team has been practicing for several weeks, and the men are in fine trim for the run, which comes off in February. The rest of the track men will probably be out regularly from now on, and Punahou looks to have the usual point-winning aggregation.

A Family Medicine Without Alcohol
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic and alterative, free from alcohol. What is a "tonic"? A medicine that imparts strength or tone; a medicine that builds up, gives vigor, and power. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Ayer's Sarsaparilla does all this without stimulation. Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

LEGAL NOTICE.

No. 239—TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

COURT OF LAND REGISTRATION.

TERRITORY OF HAWAII TO E. H. F. WOLTERS; HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC CO., LTD. TERRITORY OF HAWAII, by W. W. Thayer, Attorney General and H. K. BISHOP, Superintendent of Public Works; CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU, by JOSEPH J. Fern, Mayor and President of the Board of Supervisors; and to ALL whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said court by Charles M. Cooke, Limited, to register and confirm its title in the following-described land:

Beginning at the West corner of this piece and the South corner of Land Court Petition No. 86, on the Northeast side of Merchant Street, said point being located by the following traverse from a Government Survey Street Monument near the West corner of Alakea and Merchant Streets:

a. 274' 15" 61.45 feet to the initial point of L. C. Pet. No. 86.

b. 307' 11" 34.40 feet, to the initial point of this lot, and thence running by true azimuths:

1. 227' 50" 20.5 feet, along L. C. Petition No. 86;

2. 232' 07" 42 feet, along L. C. Petition No. 86;

3. 314' 11" 1.0 feet, along fence;

4. 230' 25" 79.13 feet along fence;

7. 42' 20" 51.45 feet, along the Hawaiian Electric Light building;

8. 127' 11" 58.90 feet along the Northeast side of Merchant Street to the point of beginning.

Area 7320 square feet.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Court of Land Registration, to be held at the City and County of Honolulu on the 6th day of February A. D. 1913, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to show cause if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness the Honorable William L. Whitney, Judge of said Court, this 5th day of January in the year nineteen hundred and thirteen.

Attest with Seal of said Court: (Signed) JOHN MARCALLINO, Registrar.

OLD TURKS FIGHT YOUNG TURKS

(Associated Press Cable)

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 28.—Special dispatches received in this city early today from Constantinople give the details of bloody conflicts between the factions of the old and Young Turk parties near the city. Regiments under Enver Bey have revolted.

Yesterday a number of these regiments marched upon Constantinople to support the party now headed by Kamil Pasha and avenge themselves on the assassins of their old commander. Enver Bey ordered them to their posts and upon their refusal sent against them several regiments of the Asiatic troops recently brought to the capital. They met in battle late yesterday and a number of desperate conflicts have been fought, the regulars holding their own and driving back the raw troops toward the city.

JONES WOULD GIVE PHILIPPINES INDEPENDENCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Scenes of more than usual excitement prevailed in the house today when Representative Jones arraigned the administration of the Philippines in a bitter attack upon the policy of the government under Republican auspices.

Jones, in an impassioned address, during which he called attention to alleged injustice by the Americans in the islands, demanded immediate independence for the Philippines.

Representative Murray replied emphatically, defending the Philippine administration, but, while speaking for the independence of the Philippines, declared that the United States should not withdraw until it has made treaties with other countries which would prevent Japan from ever being able to seize the islands.

STRIKER IS KILLED AND MANY ARE WOUNDED

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 28.—One man was killed and twelve others were wounded, several of them seriously, during a clash between deputy sheriffs and striking steel workers near here yesterday.

The strikers attempted to attack a number of non-union men of the Rankin plant of the American Sheet and Wire Works Company, and were opposed by the deputies. In the fight which followed one of the strikers was shot. Several of the deputies were injured.

PRESIDENT HOLDS FINAL RECEPTION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—What was asserted to be the final official reception at the White House to members of congress by President Taft was given here today and was very generally attended. Senators and representatives of all parties flocked to the reception.

SYMPATHIZER IS ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Miss Maud Younger, a young lady of social prominence, has been arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct growing out of the strike of the garment workers here. Rioting in spots prevailed at a number of shops on the East Side yesterday and it was during one of the affrays in which the police were forced to use their clubs that Miss Younger was arrested.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Gives Instant Relief and the Relief Lasts

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.—advertisement.
