LIHIWAI BEACH AVENUE.
KOLOA DISTRICT.Assistant Superintendent of Public Works Howland's tour of the island of Kauai for purposes of investigation results in much information of value to the department.Speaking this morning of his trip, Mr. Howland briefly referred to some of his observations, as follows:"Starting in at Waimea, in company with others interested, I made a thorough investigation of conditions along the banks of the Waimea river, which are being washed away in a great number of places. In times of heavy floods the adjoining flat lands are flooded. The taking of drinking water directly out of the plantation flumes should be immediately discontinued as it is not fit for use. Heavier crowns and a few inexpensive cement culverts would put the road in certain sections in good condition. This is one of the hardest roads to maintain and keep in good repair and provision should be made for macadamizing. Before long it will be necessary to replace with more permanent structures several of the short span bridges. Just before passing out of the Waimea district an examination of the Hanalei bridge was made and while the bridge proper is in excellent condition the two center piers, made up of piles without cap, were found to be in a very necer-tain condition. An attempt has been made to encase these piles in concrete but the casing was altogether too thin and the result was that the concrete has in a large measure cracked and left the badly rotted piles exposed.
This bridge is not safe when subjected to heavy loads, until concrete piers are built in and around.""In passing through the Koloa district one cannot help but feel that the chairman of that road board is deserving of a great deal of praise for keeping the roads and bridges in their present high state of perfection. The only bad section of road in the whole district is that running up from the Koloa village towards the junction and what is known as the short cut road; this is due to heavy bullock teams, which cut the road up very badly in swerving from side to side." The Lihue district keeps its roads in much the same perfect condition as found in Koloa."The new bridge at Kalihiwai is a handsome structure and is well put up.
A heavy coating of coal tar was recently put on over the paint, which was left very thin in many places, by the chairman of the Hanalei road board, who endeavors to take good care of his structures."

S.S. MANUKA ARRIVES

MET PART OF STORM
WHICH STRUCK SIERRASTEAMSHIP'S LAST ROUND TRIP BETWEEN CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN PORTS—MO-ANA WILL REPLACE.The Canadian-Australian steamship Manuka arrived off port from the Colonias this forenoon. She was docked at the Pacific Mail wharf at 12:10 p. m.
The Manuka struck the same storm which the Sierra reported but evidently not so strong. At Fiji she took on board 500 tons of sugar loading at Lancala Bay, a spot about fifteen miles from Suva.Purser Bendall gives the following report of the voyage: "Left Sydney on the 8th inst. at 1:10 p. m., cleared Sydney Heads at 1:40 p. m., met a strong S.W. gale on the Australian Coast and arrived at Brisbane on the 10th at 7:10 a. m. Sailed again on the 11th at 1 a. m., discharged pilot at 4
a. m. and arrived at Suva on the 16th at 2 a. m. Sailed again at 10
a. m., called at Lancala Bay and loaded 50 tons of sugar, and sailed at 5:45 a. m. on the 17th."The Manuka brings no passengers for this port but has a large list of passengers for Victoria and Vancouver.
Among these is Thos. Henderson, the Tasmania manager of the Union Steamship Co., the owners of the Ma-nuka. He goes on a vacation trip to Bau.Mrs. Burningham is the mother of the three Burnings, who are pursuing the Wilber Steamship Company's boats. She is on her way to England. Stewart Burningham, the purser of the steamer Likiep, will join the Manuka here and will accompany his mother on her voyage.A. B. Kitchener is said to be a brother of the famous English General Kitchener "of Khartoum."The Manuka is scheduled to sail for Vancouver and Victoria at 6 o'clock this evening.This is the Manuka's last round trip between Australian and Canadian ports. She will probably make her last appearance in this port on her return trip from Vancouver. Her place will be taken by the old steamship Moana which has been undergoing an overhauling in Australia. Captain Phillips, Purser Bendall and others of the ship's officers will be transferred back to the Moana.Hilo's Democratic Delegate ReturnsJ. D. Easton of Hilo arrived in the Ventura returning from the St. Louis Democratic Convention which he attended as delegate from the island of Hawaii. After the convention Mr.
Easton visited a few weeks at his old home in Missouri. He returns to Hilo where he is employed with the Hilo Mercantile Company.Mr. Easton is a Democrat of the old conservative school and was undoubtedly the original Parker man in Hawaii. While abiding the instructions of the local Territorial convention, he was a believer in Parker from the start and has great faith that he will be the next President.

to greet the visiting Shriners. The Ventura was docked at the Oceanic turning kamaainas.The Ventura left San Francisco August 18, at 4:48 p. m., making the voyage in five days, sixteen hours and twenty-five minutes. Although she left three hours later than the Gaelic she easily beat the Occidental and Oriental liner in the run. Fine weather and smooth seas were experienced throughout the voyage.The Ventura carries a large list of passengers for all ports. There are 48 cabin, 51 second cabin and 21 steerage. They are distributed as follows: For Honolulu, 81 cabin, 29

Cleveland, Ohio, with their wives ar-will remain in the islands until the return of the Alameda. There were seventeen in the company and according to Mr. P. H. Keese, who is spokesman for the crowd, they come to the islands in lieu of attending the Conclave at San Francisco, and on the trip down were so well treated by Honolulu people on board, that they were glad they came before they got here.The Shriners have already planned their itinerary while in the islands.

They will remain in Honolulu until Saturday, leaving that evening for Haleliwa hotel. While at Waiaina they will try to get a glimpse of the methods of making sugar. They will return to Honolulu in time to catch the Kinau for Hilo. They will make a quick trip to the Volcano and return by the Kinau to Honolulu, Saturday, September 3.Mr. Keese says that there is no use talking politics for Roosevelt has a

The party came direct from Clevelparty is composed of P. H. Keese, Mr.

THE ELECTION.Among the passengers who arrived in the Ventura this morning was Col.
George Macfarlane who returns from a short business trip to San Francisco. Col. Macfarlane states that the San Francisco market has resumed a healthier turn with regard to Hawa-ian stocks. There has been a general rise in island securities and the market can be said to be steadily stiffen-ing. The only doubt which now possesses the Coast business man with regard to Hawaiian sugar is that of the leaf hopper, concerning the ravages of which the Coast people seem to have an exaggerated idea.

Hanalei, Kauai, Aug. 20.—The voters of this District are commencing to talk politics now, and when you see two or more in a group, you can rest assured that they are talking politics. The people, in fact, the voters throughout the District like very much to have Joe Gardner of Hanalei nominated a candidate for Representative for the next Legislature. The people here know him to be a man of ability and he has a large influence over the voters here. It looks that if he will be nominated at the next meeting of the Kauai District Committee as one of the candidates for the lower House, he will surely make a good pull for the Republican candidates at the coming campaign. He was in the Legislature before during the Monarchy and was tax assessor for some years in Hanalei, where he resided some twenty years ago, and was also Deputy Sheriff for Hanalei some years ago.—Garden Island.

Carter On Counties For Modifications. Before Commission

Governor Carter, invited by the County Commission to attend its meeting last evening, addressed the following informal remarks to the framers of a new county act:

"The whole question of county government is one by which the people are seeking relief from a centralized form of government. It is pressed particularly by those residing on the other islands. They have felt that the officials in Honolulu who have the final say concerning governmental matters, are wholly apart and separate from them. They have little opportunity to be heard on improvements, or changes affecting their own interests. "No doubt the conditions on these islands or the outer districts would be much improved if the people there were in closer touch with whatever form of government there may be over them. This would result in their taking more interest in public matters and becoming better citizens. But the difficulties surrounding the attempt of the people of this Territory, to institute counties with legislative, judicial and executive departments, will bring about a unique condition of affairs."

Question of Veto.
"When you ask me to express what I would consider the Executive's idea in this matter in order that your work would conform with such ideas so as to prevent a clash between your results and the final veto power, I would only answer that it is impossible for me, with the responsibility of the Executive upon me, to give a comprehensive reply. There are so many questions that arise. I can only decide on the question of the use of the veto power when the final matter comes to me eventually after the act has passed through the stages necessary to bring it to that point."

"Taking up these questions asked, the appointive power first—it seems to me that it is somewhat doubtful as to whether the Organic Act intended the Governor should make such appointments, but if so I doubt if such an act would be satisfactory to the Legislature. Perhaps, Mr. Chairman, the suggestion you make is the possible solution," to appoint county officers, then have an election and, if election was void, proceed with the system under appointed officers. "But would that meet the wishes of the people?"

Modified System.
"We must remember that we have only about 160,000 people in the Territory. Many of the districts on the other islands have not a large population, and from this point of view I sometimes wonder whether or not their wishes cannot be met by some other course than actual, full-fledged county government such as is in operation on the mainland. I mean whether or not a modified form would not bring the people in touch with the machinery over them."

"I have been impressed with the situation in Porto Rico where conditions are somewhat similar to ours in that they had a full-fledged government and went through an entire change in going into the possession of the United States. I notice that there they have a measure of self-government, greater than we have here, in their municipal control of the cities and towns, where they have the election of their city officials and disbursements of the proportion of the tax which goes to the benefit of the municipality."

Municipal Beginnings.
"It came principally to my attention as to whether or not such a course would not be, perhaps, the best method of answering this demand on the part of the people, by beginning with municipal government for such towns and villages as might desire it, and from that working into counties."

"I understand since my return that this idea has been expressed by Justice Hatch. I was not aware of it at the time I read of the situation in Porto Rico."

No County Wharves.
"The question of the county control of schools, health matters, roads, bridges and wharves: On that score I strongly believe that certain roads (having in mind the proposition to make two counties on Hawaii), should be Territorial as some districts would be taxed too heavily to maintain them. Take such roads as are to be found around the circuit of Hawaii, the main avenues that lead from one district into another. The bulk of the traffic on these roads is through traffic. One district having a through road might maintain it as such, but another district might not have much use for it and neglect it."

"Wharves: I believe strongly they should be under Territorial control."

Health Matters.
"Health matters: Decidedly Territorial. A conflict between local authorities on matters of health and epidemics might create a very unfortunate situation; such as the quarantining of one portion of an island against another, and the differences of opinion as to the necessity of quarantining might create a situation that would be distressing. Health matters ought to be under the general supervision of the Territorial department, just as they are coming to the conclusion on the mainland that the national board of health is of vital necessity and the only means by which differences can be levelled between States."

School Supervision.
"On educational matters, the necessity for one standard of teaching, the advantage of having teachers of the same standard so that they can interchange from one island to another brings forward the necessity for Territorial control of the educational department."

"The question of the police and courts, and perhaps, of the roads, if each island is to be a county, might well be given to county control to begin with."

Transfer of Assets.

"There are other matters that arise which have not been touched upon by these questions you have propounded, which to my mind are important and are in line with questions involved in the distribution of the property of the Territory. I mean an asset of the Territory, paid for by Territorial taxes and refer to the right or the justice of dividing that and turning it over to the counties. To illustrate more forcibly, suppose a municipality were started in Honolulu. Is it just to the taxpayers of the other islands to turn the water works of Honolulu over to the municipality without any compensation or without anything given as security against the loss of that which is an asset to secure the Territorial debt?"

"Take for instance the question of our sewerage system, which was built prior to annexation by the issuance of Territorial bonds, the interest of which is being paid by the Territory. Would you turn that system over to Honolulu or the county of Honolulu without compensating the other islands for their loss of that asset?"

"These are questions which face us when we discuss how to take the Territorial government full-fledged and in operation with all the property it owns, and attempt to divide it up among the counties."

Financial Relations.
"I am free to say that it seems to me like an almost overwhelming task that we are undertaking. The question of property—who is to establish the value of the property is all important. If it is right that the Territory should be compensated for its surrender of all interest in any of our public works, then see the interminable work of finding out what that compensation should be."

"If county government is in force it is right for the Territorial Government to allow a portion of its bonds to be used in the construction of county property? I sometimes doubt whether the people of the other islands would care so much for county government if it be a fact that the proceedings of the sale of Territorial bonds could not be used for anything local to the counties."

"These thoughts as to the financial relations of the county government with the Territorial Government are an important factor in bringing to my mind the case with which we could take hold of the municipal idea and put that in operation."

Counties Must Pay.
"I certainly think that if we establish a county for Oahu that we shall have no right to turn over to it the assets or the property of the Territory without a return. It might be the county could issue bonds and give them to the Territory. It is argued that the transfer of property to the counties is for the benefit of the same people and therefore it makes no difference. Such arguments show that the people giving expression to them are not thoroughly acquainted with county government which is as separate in its operations from the Territory as the Federal is from the State."

"I am in hearty accord with the feeling of the people of the Territory in their desire to bring about such changes here as will give them an opportunity for advancing the interests of the outer districts. If you can arrange some form that would tend to that end we will do great good to the people."

"Whatever form of Act the commission passes upon I hope it will be as simple as possible and with as few officials as possible. All people vibrate between divided power and centralization. Many desire to decentralize and put final power in the hands of more than one."

Consolidate Offices.

"We cannot say until we have tried it which is going to be the most successful plan in these islands. If the result of your work is an act which is simple of operation, economical in its execution, it will undoubtedly be agreeable to the great majority of the people. My idea is to consolidate offices as much as possible. One feature of the Porto Rican situation is that with the executive council sits a man from each district to represent his district's needs. Such a system in Hawaii, with representatives from each district sent to Honolulu to look after their districts would prove a partial solution of the situation. It is impossible to prophesy what will be the result of your deliberations, but I would prefer to see an Act that would put a check on extremes of county government."

"As to the statement that we should keep away from Congress, I don't see why we should do so altogether, but I would not take our local acts into Congress to be passed upon."

"Let us not ask Congress to do for us that which we can do for ourselves; at the same time we may want some change in the Organic Act."

Word from Public.
A lengthy and highly interesting communication from the Hilo Board of Trade, favoring one county for the Island of Hawaii, was read and placed on file. The following was received and read, from D. H. Case, of Walluku: August 13, 1904.

T. McCants Stewart, Esq., attorney-at-law, Honolulu, (Secretary County Commission).

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 14th of July, wherein I am extended the privilege of expressing to the County Commission my views as to what the proposed county act should contain, and, in a general way, how such an act should be drawn, to hand.

Allow me to thank those to whom I am obliged for the favor.

Taking up the questions in the order submitted:

1. "Under the Organic Act can a county board of supervisors be elected by the voters?"

Ans. I do believe that, under the Organic Act, Boards of County Supervisors can be elected by the voters.

2. "If the Organic Act prohibits election, shall a county act be drawn providing for the election of supervisors by the voters, and be submitted to Congress for ratification?"

Ans. I do not favor the passage of a county act providing for the election of Boards of County Supervisors by the voters, and thereafter submitting the matter to Congress for ratification.

By so doing we would in effect say to Congress: "Here is our work; it is wrong, we know it is wrong, and we realize that it is the second time we have committed the same wrong, but our object has been to demonstrate to

HOSPITALS ARE ABUSED

President of the Board of Health Pinkham was in conference with Governor Carter this forenoon in the matter of assisting the hospitals of the Territory.

Hereafter the strictest rules will be observed as to the admission of patients at the public expense.

"The question is whether or not it is altogether wise for the Government to make itself responsible for the care of the indigent sick," said the Governor. "In most other communities the people maintain their own hospitals, irrespective of what the Government may do in that line. The last Legislature found it necessary to cut down subsidies. The Government will take care of the poor sick up to a certain point, but beyond that limit the hospitals should, out of their own funds, become responsible. Subsidizing the hospitals means that the cost comes from the Territory's revenue, from the taxes paid by the people.

"The Orientals maintain their own hospitals, although they also pay taxes to the Territory; why cannot the rest of the people of this community conduct and support such institutions. I think that the maintenance of the hospitals by the Government works more harm than good; it tends to encourage and increase pauperism. If a man can get free treatment he is not going to bother about putting aside money, foregoing pleasures, out of his wages against the time that he may become sick. There are many examples to-day of such shiftlessness.

"Hereafter the hospitals will pay more attention to the investigation of each individual case, as to whether or not the applicant is deserving of treatment at the government's expense."

CARTER AND COUNTY LAW.

Governor Carter, speaking freely before the County Commission, is characterized by the morning paper as making "several knife-holes in the County Act balloon." If the Governor is approaching the county law with the well known knife policy of the morning paper he would prove himself more of a traitor than the recognized enemies of the law.

Proper interpretation, however, of the Governor's remarks carries no suggestion of knifing the county act or that the principle of local self government, which the act will seek to satisfy, is not safe in his hand.

Governor Carter in his talk with the Commission last night, went at the matter in hand more from the standpoint of one who recognized the difficulties and honestly sought a way out, than of a public leader who shaded his expressions with a view to their political effect. The county law does present some difficult tasks. None denies that, although enemies of the law earnestly seek to exaggerate difficulties into impossibilities. That's their game. The honest workers of the Territory, however, know that straightforward discussion is the only direct and competent method of reaching practical conclusions, and the Governor has been good enough to give his views, free from discounts for apparent political advantage. There is no occasion for evasions. The problem is in hand to work out. It is best met by intelligent recognition of the most knotty portions.

The plan of providing a law for the organization of towns and municipalities is gaining very much in favor, and naturally so, as the township is the proper basis of organized government. It is a question, however, whether, to some, this does not appear more attractive because it is something different. It would certainly be very proper to pass an enabling act for the organization of towns and municipalities to supplement the simple county law contemplated.

In canvassing the situation Governor Carter sees work ahead that he refers to as an almost insurmountable task. It is safe to say, however, that he is not nor is the commission overawed by what represents a business proposition in transfer of property, now Territorial, to the local governments. Reforms are not accomplished without hard work and the readiness to do exists among the public spirited citizens of the Territory.

KAUAI ROAD BOARD

"Some very bad grades are encountered beyond Kalihiwai, for which reason an appropriation for a new beach road from Kalihiwai to Hanalei was made. Investigation was made and the line traversed from Hanalei along the beach clear to Kalihiwai and an excellent road could be built with a very light grade, with possibly one exception and that at the very further end in climbing up from the beach over the summit into Hanalei.

"Another scheme is proposed: Going around the beach and then working up to the old lower road and relocating and reconstructing portions of this old road.

"Chas. H. Sweetser, road engineer, has been instructed to make preliminary surveys of both plans, after the completion of which the better of the two will be worked up.

"A survey has been ordered for the road from Hanalei to Hanalei, but it will be unnecessary to use the entire appropriation. The road could be constructed with fairly good grades at a much lower cost, inasmuch as a large portion of the road runs along the flats adjoining the beaches.

"As Mr. Willis, the chairman of the Hanalei road board, says, this could be made a splendid Sunday drive, but I fail to see where this is necessary, so I recommend simply making it passable for teams.

"The roads generally on the island of Kauai are in the pink of condition, but there are many requirements in the matter of small bridges which should be taken up in the near future."

To get herself held by the hauled; She met with success, for sure, I guess, because she exclaimed, "Ain't it grand!"

—Cleveland Leader.

The brook that struggles through the glade Doth form a fair retreat, And yet for comfort, rest and shade The bathtub has it best.

—Washington Star.

WHAT KAUAI WANTS.

[Garden Island.] Governor Carter and others are making public their intentions of asking the next Legislature to appropriate $500,000 for the construction of a new Court House in Honolulu. AND THEY WILL GET IT, TOO. Kauai can't even have blinds or curtains on her Court House windows; can't have even a jury room for her juries; can't have water on the Court House grounds for the score of horses which have to be kept there during court sessions! The citizens who serve as jurors even have to wait between one and two years to get their pay. If you don't get what you deserve brought to you on a silver platter it's really quite bold to ask for it.

When the Platform Committee of the Kauai Republican party reports at the next meeting of the District Committee it is to be hoped that a platform will be submitted which deals with our local needs and conditions, instead of the problems of other worlds. A plank demanding the re-grading of the government road from Anahola to Hanalei would be near home. A demand for a Government building at Lihue, to cost in construction and equipment at least $75,000 would not be far from home. Demand for a new bridge over Waialua river would be in point. A safe and adequate embankment for the Waimea river is greatly needed. A macadamized road from Lihue post office to Naliwell has been needed for many years. A plank declaring the Republican party for Republicans would not be wholly unneeded, for the enactment of a PRIMARY ELECTION LAW SHOULD BY ALL MEANS BE DEMANDED.

LONG RANGE FIGHTING

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17, 4 p. m.—Further interesting details of the sea battle of August 10th, received at the Admiralty from Captain Matouzevitch, of the Czarevitch, now at Tsing Tau, show distinctly that it was a long-range fight, and that the Russians, sailing in close formation, were placed at a great disadvantage, not only by the superiority of the Japanese in numbers, but owing to the fact that after encompassing Admiral Witthoff's semicircle they were enabled to pour in a remarkably deadly fire on the fleeing ships.

Captain Matouzevitch says the Japanese kept at a distance of never less than five miles. The efforts of the Russians to close with the Japanese and sink some of their vessels by ramming them or by gun fire, even at the cost of themselves going to the bottom, were consequently unsuccessful. The Japanese would not permit the Russians to approach, but the rain of projectiles never ceased. The 12-inch shell which glanced off the Czarevitch's forward turret and blew up the bridge on which the late Admiral Witthoff and his staff were standing was fired at a range of eight miles.

Czarevitch Forced To Haul Down Flag

Tsing Tau, Aug. 15.—The Russian battleship Czarevitch and three torpedo-boat destroyers are now in the hands of the local German Government for repairs, but it is improbable that these vessels will fight again in this war.

Captain Truppel, chief of the military and civil administration of the Protectorate of Kiau Chau, after having completed provisions for the neutrality of the crews of the Russian war ships during their stay here, went on board the Czarevitch. The crew of the battleship were alarmed at the advent of Captain Truppel's party and seized their weapons. They were quickly quieted, however, and the commander of the Czarevitch was informed that it was necessary that the Russian flag be hauled down and remain down pending the completion of the repairs. The Czarevitch's flag was then lowered amid impressive formalities, after which Captain Truppel visited each of the three destroyers, whose flags also were lowered.

It is thought here that if the Russians persist in repairing their ships they will eventually have to dismantle them, because of the vastly superior Japanese force which is waiting for them outside the harbor. According to the regulations which govern situations such as the one existing here, the destroyers will not be permitted to leave in a body, but must go out at intervals of six hours.

CARRY CONTRABAND

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—It was reported yesterday that the new liner Manchuria of the Pacific Mail fleet, sailing on August 23rd for Yokohama and Hongkong, would carry 9000 tons of contraband merchandise to Japan. Officials of the Pacific Mail Company deny this, but the rumor was persistent, and little doubt was left that the big steamer would be laden with stuff which under the international meaning would be construed as contraband. This is the more plausible in view of the fact that the Russian fleets in the Far East have been seriously crippled, if not almost annihilated, by the Japanese, and that no further interference from them may be feared by merchantmen bound hence for Japan.

It was originally intended that the Manchuria should carry only freight for Hongkong to the extent of about 6000 tons. But the latest war news concerning the destruction of the Russian vessels has put a new phase on the situation, and the Manchuria will, according to a well-founded rumor, carry a good-sized cargo of merchandise for Japanese ports. The Doria, said to sail today, is full of freight that is all consigned to China ports, though much of it may find its way back to Japan.

SOCIETY WRECKED HER LIFE.

A Pretty New York Woman's Recovery the Talk of Her Numerous Friends.

MRS. J. E. FINN.

Mrs. J. E. Finn, 81 East High street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: Gentlemen:—A few years ago I had to give up social life entirely, as my health was completely broken down. The doctor advised a complete rest for a year. As this was out of the question for a time, I began to look for some other means of restoring my health.

"I had often heard of Peruna as an excellent tonic, so I bought a bottle to see what it would do for me, and it certainly took hold of my system and rejuvenated me, and in less than two months I was in perfect health, and now when I feel worn out and tired a dose of two of Peruna is all that I need."—Mrs. J. E. Finn.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O., for free advice.

For special directions every one should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply, should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

Henson, Smith & Co. will supply the retail drug trade in Honolulu.

DEAR OLD AUNTIE

Tomorrow night all the town that can get seats will be enjoying a hearty laugh at the amateur performance of "Charley's Aunt" given at the Opera House as a benefit for the Hawaii Yacht Club. As reported from time to time, many rehearsals and experienced management has brought the promised performance up to a high pitch and everyone is confidently anticipating a delightful evening.

Seats are selling rapidly at Wall, Nichols Co. and the players will make their bow to a crowded house tomorrow evening. The play is to be repeated on Saturday.

The stage settings are to be unusually elaborate and the play itself is delightfully absurd while the plot remains within the bounds of the possible. A splendid cast has the parts in hand and the performance should be a marked one in Honolulu's amateur annals. A final dress rehearsal takes place this evening. Tomorrow the curtain will rise at 8:15 and fall at 10:30.

RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—Russia does not desire, and does not expect, the powers to take action in regard to the Ryehsteln incident. The Government has simply placed the facts before Japan and China, and is now awaiting their action. If Russia's representations are ignored and nothing further is done the correspondent can state that Russian will feel herself free to take such steps as she may be able to take in the way of retaliation. Russia has been officially informed of the lowering of the flags over the battleship Czarevitch and the two destroyers at Tsing Tau, and acquiesces with Germany's position that the ships must remain there until the end of the war. While ordinary ship repairs may be allowed by Germany within the harbor, no renewal or repair of their armament or guns will be permitted.

Nothing definite has been decided regarding the dismantling of the Ashoka at Shanghai on account of the questionable ability of China to protect her against a repetition of the Ryehsteln incident at Chefoo.

The torpedo-boat destroyer Bunk is the only Russian destroyer sunk off Wei-hai-wai.

Tien-Tsin, Aug. 16, 7 p. m.—The reported violation by Japan of the neutrality of China in the capture of the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Ryehsteln at Chefoo has resulted in alienating to a great extent the sympathy of Chinese officials for Japan. This applies even to officials connected with the pro-Japanese party.

NEW OCEAN WONDER

New York, Aug. 4.—Thomas B. Taylor of this city launched in the Hudson river today a working model of the vessel which he thinks will revolutionize ocean travel. He says that if ocean liners adopt his means of locomotion with the success he anticipates, they can cross the Atlantic in three days.

The working model launched today is thirty feet over all and five feet beam. It draws three feet of water and the hull is made of oak and cedar. It has a tube which is also made of oak, twenty-seven feet long and fifteen inches in diameter. In the tube are fitted four propellers. A shaft is connected with a fourteen horse-power gas engine in the middle of the tube. The gear for the propellers is in the middle of the tube, and it is arranged on a wheel that can be used as a fifth propeller.

Taylor says he expects to get 1000 revolutions a minute. His theory is that the propellers can produce greater speed driving through water that is confined within the walls of the tube than when they revolve in water not confined. In support of this theory he says that with a three-foot model run by electricity he made 50 per cent greater speed with propellers inside of the tube than under the ordinary method.

Taylor is 27 years old and was graduated from Cornell, where he took a course in naval architecture and engineering. After that he worked for two years in the Union Iron Works in San Francisco.

How Sheehan And Murphy Get Together

New York, Aug. 4.—William F. Sheehan, on the first day of his service as chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, boldly addressed himself to one of the most difficult tasks which will fall to his lot during the campaign. This seemed to be an effort to get Charles F. Murphy, the leader of Tammany Hall, actually into line for Judge Parker by terminating the differences which exist between the Tammany chief and Senator McCarren and threaten to affect the Democratic vote in this city. Murphy was indisposed to go to Sheehan's office. He, however, consented to go to the Mutual Life building and await developments in a room on the floor above that on which Sheehan is located.

Thomas F. Ryan acted as intermediary and bore numerous messages between Sheehan and Murphy.

It is understood Murphy flatly demanded that Senator McCarren be dropped from his position of chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee; that he asked that Tammany Hall be given immunity from any interference from the State organization in his own territory, and that it be accorded such treatment as might have been expected had no differences arisen between Tammany and the Democrats who favored Parker's nomination.

It is said, also, that the nature of Murphy's demands were such that it was impossible for Sheehan to adjust them, and that Judge Parker probably will have to be called in to settle them himself.

THE OHIO IS ALL RIGHT.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Although nearly one-fifth of a knot below the eighteen knots' speed required by the Government, the battleship Ohio will be accepted by the Navy Department. The department today received the official figures of the Ohio's trial off the coast of California, in which the speed is given as 17.817 knots.

According to the contract the Government had with the builders, the Union Iron Works, the latter must rebate $18,300 from the regular contract price, which was $2,899,000. The contract stated that $25,000 was to be rebated for each quarter of a knot the ship's speed fell below eighteen knots. It is not believed that another trial will be made, as the Ohio came up to requirements in all other directions.

It was formerly the policy of the Government to offer a bonus for speed attained by ships contracted for over and above the contract rate. Under this custom the navy acquired a number of vessels like the New Yorks and others which exceeded their contract speed. The Ohio is a sister ship to the Maine and Missouri. The latter came up to the contract speed, but the Maine was below and was only brought up by allowances which were made because some of the stakeboats were said to have been out of line. It is believed that the Government's experience with these vessels may be sufficient to cause them to re-establish the custom of giving a bonus.

"I would kiss you," said the youth "but alas! I've been eating onions." "Don't mind that," laughed the maiden. "We had limburger for supper."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Struggled To Sink Battleship Retvizan

Chefoo, Aug. 16.—A striking incident of the naval engagement of August 10th was the surrounding of the battleship Retvizan by Japanese torpedo boats, the other Russian vessels having gone to the assistance of the Czarevitch, which was then "hard pressed." The Retvizan desperately attempted to break through the line, and tried to ram a cruiser which approached, but she was fairly blown out of her course by a hail of shells from the cruisers, which began now participating in the fight.

Every officer of the Czarevitch was either killed or wounded. While the Czarevitch was making for Tsing Tau funeral services were held in many cases over heads, arms and legs.

One sailor, whose hand was severed by a fragment of shell, became crazed by pain and the horror of blood about him. He approached the captain, held out the severed member in his remaining hand and requested that prayer be said over it.

A LAUGHING WONDER

While it is primarily the mission of the magician to bewilder, the modern conjurer, far in advance of his earlier brother necromancers, has today to possess a comedian's faculty of amusing and introduce such laughable features into his program as will turn his stage into a fest hall as well as a wonder shop.

In this Zambach, about to appear in Honolulu for the second time, is pre-eminent. Hermann possessed personal magnetism in a marked degree but Zambach is said to out-do Hermann at his best. While his entertainment possesses all the highest novelties in mind reading, levitation and legerdemain, as a palmist he is unequalled, the audience will find as much to laugh at as to wonder at. It stands to reason that a magician who has indulged in continuous practice and performance for thirty-five years brings out only vast experience and wide repertoire to bear upon his audience but an ease and skill only acquired in this manner.

Zambach, on his first visit here, proved a great attraction, especially to the Hawaiian element and there is every indication of his success being repeated. The seat sale opens tomorrow morning at the Bergstrom Music Company's new store, tickets being available from 9 to 5:30.

ISLAND REALTY CO. FORECLOSURE

DECREE CONDEMNED

Judge Gear today signs an amended decree, pursuant to the recent decision of the Supreme Court, in Henry E. Cooper vs. Island Realty Co. and J. A. Gilman. Gear heard the case on July 12th, a decree of foreclosure and sale being rendered for plaintiff on July 30th and an appeal being taken, the Supreme Court, in its decision of August 16th, ordering certain amendments. Says the amended decree, therefore:

"It appearing in the light of the opinion of the Supreme Court that the amount now payable upon the promissory note and mortgage to the plaintiff is $68,951.55 and that the amount due on the note and mortgage of J. A. Gilman is $21,722.03, it is ordered that Wm. R. Sims be appointed commissioner to sell the property described in that indenture of mortgage made by the Island Realty Co. to H. E. Cooper to raise $88,673.58 due plaintiff."

"It is further ordered that the defendant Gilman, in case the proceeds are insufficient to satisfy plaintiff's claim and also his own claim, $21,722.03, recover of the Island Realty Co. the amount of the deficiency due him. It is further ordered that the plaintiff and defendant Gilman be allowed to purchase the property at the sale. And it is further expressly ordered that in case the Island Realty Co. shall pay plaintiff $2,900, interest due on May 11, 1904, under note and mortgage, and the costs of this suit and shall pay to the commissioner such fee as may be allowed, then the foreclosure and sale shall not take place."

Standard Oil Man
Held The Steamer

Liverpool, Aug. 4.—Several passengers on the Oceanic, which arrived today, are threatening a suit against the company owing to a delay in the arrival of the vessel, which they declare was due to the influence of the American millionaire, H. H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate.

It appears, according to the statements made, that the Oceanic was due to sail from New York at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on her last sailing day. At the last moment Rogers decided he would take passage on the Oceanic, and in order to let him get safely on board the ship was held up at her pier for two and one-half hours. This, of course, is a very rare occurrence, and the passengers declare, it was nothing but class distinction.

KAUAI PUBLIC WORK

WHAT IS BEING DONE
AND MORE IS NEEDED

THE WORK SWEETSER HAS IN CHARGE — HOWLAND'S RECENT TOUR OF INSPECTION.

Lihue, Kauai, Aug. 22.—C. H. Sweetser, road engineer, has just returned from Waimae, having completed the field work on the Waimae embankment.

The Waimae river, during freshets, resembles in some respects the Mississippi river. During the last fifty years the river has changed its bed along parts of its course toward the Waimae side of the valley over fifty feet, eating away the bank on one side and filling in on the other, until now only a small bank separates the river from the low rice and taro lands that lead to Waimae village. At times the freshets rise over this bank and the water comes through the center of Waimae two feet deep. A wall will be constructed at the worst place this year—the appropriation being too small to complete all the works necessary.

The Waimae bridge, one of the handiest structures on the islands was finished a few weeks since and is now open for traffic.

The plans and specifications for concrete steel bridges at Waihiwa and Lawai are about ready, and tenders for the construction of these bridges will be advertised for in the near future.

The contract for two concrete steel culverts at Kapaa is already let, and the work will be started in about two weeks.

At Hanalei there are to be two roads, one from Kaliahiwa to Hanalei wholly or partly along the beach according to which is found to be the better route after the surveys are made. Another carriage road will be built to Hana by improving the location and grades of the present trail. This includes a bridge at Lunalihi river which is now crossed by a scow.

All of the above improvements are from appropriations made in the loan bill. The Department of Public Works is working to get the work under the loan bill appropriations both for Kauai and the other islands out of the way—to make room for the new work to be taken up by the next Legislature.

There are many other improvements needed on Kauai, for which no money is now available. At present Mr. Sweetser is working on the loan appropriations only.

If the plan of Governor Carter is carried out and a road engineer is appointed on each island under a specific salary, Mr. Sweetser will be able to work with the different road boards as to recommendations for new works—and have intelligent estimates made to present to future Legislatures for needed works on Kauai. Heretofore the road boards while they knew perhaps what was needed in their respective districts did not know, nor were they supposed to know, the proper estimate to make for the engineering constructions. In some instances road boards have put in estimates that would pay for the work two or three times over, and in other instances the estimates were entirely too small for the work.

Mr. Howland, the Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, made a tour of the island and found out some of our needs. He assures us that if the people will work together to obtain the necessary appropriations, the Department of Public Works will see that the work is executed as soon as the funds are available.

He found the Hanalei and Waihiwa bridges in bad condition and he will try to see if something can be done in regard to these bridges, at once; and not wait for special appropriations for work that needs immediate attention—Garden Island.

 In days of peril firm and brave,

 Diamonds shall wear, lest bitter tears For vain repentance flow; this stone, Emblem of innocence, is known."

 The month of snow and ice and mirth, Place on your hand a turquoise blue, Success will bless whatever you do."

—From O. C. Farrington's "Gems."

Kirk Monroe's wife was Mary Barr, daughter of Mrs. Amelia E. Barr, the novelist.

It is said that a Canadian wrote the words of "John Brown's Body". In a literary sense it isn't much to brag of,
 but it was a good marching song.

Kipling's new verse, "The Five Nations," are out. No doubt the Five Nations won't give rise to as many factions one as extreme as the other.

One gets out of patience when the best magazines publish such stories as "Little Dog," which appeared in a recent number of The Century. There were hundreds of better stories refused to make room for this one, no doubt.
 The same lack of discrimination (or was it reverence for a past record?) prompted Harper's to advertise "The Double-Barreled Detective Story" as a notable piece of literature.

"The Art of Medicine." By Isadore Dyer, M. D. Annual address as President Louisiana State Medical Society, New Orleans Medical Journal, New Orleans, La.

Dr. Dyer's very interesting discusses the various charms, evil tokens and superstitions (in a medical sense) which yet exist among certain peoples.

"St. John's night has ever been fraught with terror and design for the negro in the South, for then are brewed the voodoo charms, whose potency is in proportionate ratio to the ingredients of the pot mixture; dead men's fingers, chicken's caw, the hair of animals, etc. . . . With the negro, the superstitions are a part of his religion, and the potency of lower animals in these matters cannot be exaggerated.
 . . . Faith cure, or Christian science, so called, of today is only the same inherent longing for a fetichal treatment of disease by creating the supernatural sense of a supernatural power at work."

"All through the southern and southeastern parts of Pennsylvania, and spreading even into Maryland and Virginia, for a great many years, there has existed a fetichal treatment of diseases. Certain individuals are endowed with the power of curing by

"Pow-wow" or repeated formulae. . . .
 "Tangible tokens are employed, as stones, beads, charms, fantastic fel-iches, bugs, parts of animals, and the like. . . . No people have been more full of the supernatural than the Celt, and the original impression must have been very strong to have carried among the Scotch and Irish with force up even to the present day."

The Irish muttered charms for various diseases, as well as the Irish "curse on ye," suggesting physical evil, are familiar.

Of the evil eye:
 "God bless your eye;
 A drop of white about your heart;
 The mouse is in the bush And the bush is on fire."

Chinese and Japanese phaeic charms, serpent stones, gripe stones, are mentioned.

"Leprosy is related as cured at a waterfall in Skye. This fall, called "Easan Sue Con," forms a natural basin in the rock, and there a daughter of Lochlin, afflicted with malady finally came, under direction of a prophecy telling her she would be cured in a northern island. Emptying the basin, she lay in it until it filled and covered her, after which performance she was cured."

Rabbit's feet, lead rings, money pieces are no less superstitious, and are employed by the same calibre of men.

"The Diagnosis of Cutaneous Syph-ills." By same. Reprint from Journal American Medical Association, Chicago.

"The Origin of Leprosy in Louisiana: A Preliminary Note." By same.
 Pamphlet Medical Library and Historical Journal, New Orleans, La.

A valuable note to our available data on the origin of leprosy, by one who is in contact with the disease.

Dr. Dyer states that the leprosy of Louisiana has generally been referred to the Acadian settlers as the source of origin. Dr. Wm. Osler questions this, so Dr. Dyer proposes to study the genealogy of Louisiana leprosy.

"At the first point we are struck with the fact that the immigration of the Acadians occurred between the years 1756 and 1760, and that they settled for the most part in the Lafourche and Teche districts, where they have segregated to the present time. . . .

"The first leprosy authorities actively recorded in Louisiana were indigent public cases and were taken from the streets of New Orleans and located in the hospital, which existed for a period of 22 years. There is no record to show that these were Acadians and there is record establishing the fact that leprosy was introduced from the West Indies into the Southern States as early as 1776, while the said hospital was established in 1755. . . .

"In New Brunswick the first record of leprosy seems to be quite clear as established in the year 1820. The account generally given by the people is that before leaving Caraquez two sisters washed the clothes for some French sailors who were lepers and so acquired the disease."

"The knowledge that leprosy prevailed in continental Europe, and, to some extent, in France as late as the 16th century, makes it more than likely that the colonies were peopled with leprosy subjects, and it is more than probable that Louisiana gathered its disease from various quarters, especially as New Orleans was then one of the seaports of the New World."

Canada Begins Its Fight On Trusts

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 4.—A bill aimed at American trusts, and particularly American tobacco concerns, will be introduced in Parliament by Minister of Revenue Brodeur.

Brodeur today presented a resolution favoring the cancellation of excise licenses held by manufacturers who sell goods subject to the condition that the purchaser shall not sell or deal in goods of a like kind produced by any other manufacturer or dealer. The resolution was adopted.

All independent tobacco companies and dealers in Canada petitioned for legislation along this line to prevent the powerful American companies making contracts with the retailers, with the object of crushing out independent companies.

The Minister said Canada would not allow her industries to be crushed by American trusts. There was little opposition to the resolution.

CHAPTER XXXI.

It is usually not difficult for an individual to define the conditions of happiness, if I only had so and so, or if I only were so-and-so, and the thing is done. Each successive state, however, suggests one more happy, and each gratified wish leads to another desire more imperative. Miss Katharine Wilton, however, did not confine her conditions to units. There were in her case three requisites for happiness—perfect happiness—and could they have been satisfied in all probability she would have come as near to the wished for state as poor humanity on this earth ever does come to that beatitude condition. She certainly thought so and with characteristic boldness had not refrained from communicating her thoughts to her father.

The astonishing feature of the situation was that he was inclined to agree with her. There was nothing astonishing in itself in his agreement with her, for he usually did agree with her, but in that her conditions were really his own. For it is rare, blessedly so, that two people feel that they require the same thing to complete the joy of life, and when they parallel on three points
 "tis most remarkable. Even two lovers require each other—very different things, I am sure. Stop! I am not so sure about the third proviso with the colonel. I say the third because Miss Wilton put it number three, though perhaps it was like a woman's postscript, which somehow suggests the paraphrase of a familiar bit of Scripture—the last, not will be, but should be, first.

Here are the requisites: First—The flag floating gracefully from the peak of the spunkier gaff above them in the light air of the sunny afternoon should be the stars and stripes instead of the red cross of St. George! Second—The prow of the ship should be turned to the wooded shores of Virginia, and the Old Dominion should be her destination instead of the chalk cliffs of England! Third—That a certain handsome, fair, blue-eyed, gallant sailor, who answered to the name of John Seymour, should be by her side instead of another, even though that other were one who had once saved her life and to whose care and kindness and forethought she was much indebted. Her present attendant was certainly a gentleman, and to an unprejudiced eye, which hers certainly was not, quite as handsome and distinguished and gallant as was his favored rival, and boasting an advantage over the other in that he bore a titled name, not such a desideratum among American girls at that time, however, as it was afterward destined to become, and in a girl of the stamp of Miss Katharine Wilton possibly no advantage at all.

But, could the heart of that fair damsel be known, all talk of advantage or disadvantage or this or that compensating factor was absolutely idle. She was not a girl who did things by halves, and the feeling which had prompted her to give herself to the young sailor, though of sudden origin, had grown and grown during the days of absence and confinement till, in depth and intensity, it matched his own. She was not now so sure that, among the other objects of her adoration, he would have to take the second place; that, in case of division, her heart would lead her to think first of her country. Insepar-ably had his image supplanted every other, and with all the passionate devotion of her generous southern nature she loved him.

Lord Desborough had ample opportunity for ascertaining this fact. He had seen her risk her life for Seymour's own. He could never forget the glorious picture she made standing across the prostrate form of that young man, pistol in hand, keeping the mob at bay, never wavering, never faltering, clear eyed, supreme. He would be almost willing to die to have her do the like for him. He could still hear the echo of that bitter cry "Seymour, Seymour!" which rang through the house when they had dragged her away. These things were not pleasant reminiscences; but, like most other unpleasant memories, they would not down.

In spite of all this, however, he had allowed himself—nay, his permission, he vowed, had not been asked—to fall violently in love with this little colonial maiden, and a country maiden at that. Not being psychologically inclined, he had never attempted to analyze her charm or to explain his sensations. Realizing the fact, and being young and therefore hopeful, he had not allowed himself to despair. Really he had some claims upon her. Had he not interfered she would have been murdered that night in the dining room. He had earned the gratitude then and there of her father and of herself as well, and he had shot dead a certain brutal, marauding blackguard of the name of Johnson at the first convenient opportunity, having received incidentally in return for his message of death a bullet in his own breast to remind him that there are always two persons and two chances in a duel.

A part of the debt of the Wiltons had been paid by the assiduous and solicitous care with which they—Katharine chiefly, of course—had nursed him through the long and dangerous illness consequent upon his wound. It was his interest which had prevented further ill treatment of them by the brutal and tyrannous Dunmore, and had Katharine so elected, would have secured her freedom. She had, however, to Desborough's great delight, chosen to accompany her father to England, where he was to be sent as a prisoner of high political consequence.

After waiting many weary days at the camp of the fugitive and deposed governor at Gwynn's Island, they had been separated from Desborough and unceremoniously hustled on board the frigate Radnor, which was under orders for England. They had stopped long enough at Norfolk to witness Dunmore's savage and vindictive action in bombarding and burning that helpless town, and from that point Katharine had been enabled to send her letter to Seymour, through a friendly American spy, just before taking departure for their long voyage across the seas. The orders of the Radnor had been changed at the last moment, however, and she had been directed to go in pursuit of Jones and the Ranger.

Took Poles and Wire To Fence His Farm

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 4.—An unsophisticated Mexican was the cause of no little trouble by interfering with the telegraphic communication in the southwestern portion of the State during the latter part of last week and his guileless explanations savor of frontier days when the locomotive was first introduced and telegraph wires were in their infancy.

Last Friday the poles and telegraph wires were cut for a considerable distance in two places between Laredo and San Antonio. Late yesterday afternoon a Mexican who has a small ranch at Devine was arrested in connection with the matter. When charged with the crime the Mexican readily admitted that he did the cutting of the wires and had removed the poles.

In extenuation he pleaded that for many months he had watched the wires and had never seen anything go over them and therefore concluded that they were of service to no one and had probably been abandoned. As he needed wire and poles for fencing he had cut down the latter and used his hatchet on the former. The officers found considerable of the wire neatly strung around the ranch. The Mexican was jailed and will have his explanation to make to the court.

Chinese Students Resent Treatment

Portland, Or., July 16.—Unless Chinese young men who are sent to the United States to study are accorded better treatment by the customs officials than is customary in the Northwest, the boys that might come to America will be sent to England for their college courses. This is the statement made this evening by Chen Chin Tiao, inspector of education for Canton and Kwong Si, two of the richest provinces in the Flowery Kingdom, who spent yesterday in Portland accompanied by fifteen students who are on their way East to enter various American universities. Chen Chin Tiao stated that since he arrived in the country the members of his party have been subjected to all sorts of humiliating treatment from the hands of American Government officers, scarcely better than would be accorded mere brutes, and if this did not cease he would recommend to his viceroy that the students in the future be sent to Great Britain. The students are sons of the rich men of the two provinces.
 The fathers of several of them are high Government officials, while those of others are numbered among the richest men in China. In the party was Shem Tim Cheng, whose uncle is the present Governor of Peking. He is to take post-graduate courses at Yale under Government orders and has numerous high titles. He is a graduate of the Imperial Naval Academy. All the students are "moderns," wearing no queue and dressing in European garb.
 The party claims that from the time it landed at Sumas and even in Seattle its members were compelled to answer useless and impertinent questions, were ridiculed openly and treated without courtesy. One of the party, who is a graduate of Yale, was asked to do little sums in algebra and answer questions in primer chemistry until he turned on the inspector and asked a few ques-

SAILED OVER MINES

San Francisco, Aug. 6.—Had the four-masted schooner Mindoro been a Russian torpedo boat instead of an offensive American trading vessel the Japanese stronghold of Hakodate might now be in possession of the Car's fleet, for the windjammer accomplished a feat which the little brown men considered an impossibility. Without a pilot, and at night, she sailed into Hakodate harbor, passing through the thickly-mined entrance without mishap, and anchored inside before she was seen by the Japanese guard ship.

It is a tale that the men of the Mindoro are thankful they are alive to tell. They related it yesterday when the Mindoro came into this port, en route from Hakodate. The Mindoro, Captain E. C. Larsen, sailed in ballast from the port of Shanghai for Hakodate to load sulphur for this port. Captain Larsen was unaware that Hakodate was a closed port, and when he arrived off that place on the evening of June 14th he sailed fearlessly in, unconscious of the great danger he ran in passing through the entrance, in which were planted many submarine mines.

The schooner was heaving to when a Japanese guardship ran alongside. The astounded Japanese officers rebuked Larsen for the act. The vessel was held for two days by the Japanese officials, and before she was released her master was compelled to write an apology for his action to the commander of the port. Captain Larsen said yesterday: "The American Consul at Shanghai is entirely to blame for the awful risk to which I subjected my vessel and my men. He failed to notify me that Hakodate was a closed port. Hakodate is strongly fortified, and at the time of my departure there were three torpedo boats and one cruiser in the harbor. The Russian Vladivostok squadron was reported several times off the port, and great excitement prevailed in the town."

The Mindoro also brings the story of how the American barkentine James Johnson, owned by Charles Nelson of this city, was stopped and searched by the Vladivostok fleet. It was while she was on her way from Shanghai to Hakodate in ballast that a Russian cruiser fired a shot across her bow. A Russian officer boarded the vessel, searched her, examined her papers, and, after compelling the captain to sign a paper stating that his treatment had been courteous and civil, they allowed him to proceed on his voyage.

CARTER ON COUNTIES

Congress what blunders she has made. As a voter and citizen I oppose such a course.

"3. 'Shall a county act be drawn carrying the Governor's right to appoint, and Congress be requested to amend the Organic Act so that the voters may thereafter elect county boards?'"

Ans. Yes, I strongly believe that a large majority of the voters favor county government, and want it. However, that want should be satisfied by the Territorial Legislature by the passage of an act every section of which would be strictly within the provisions of the Organic Act.

I therefore favor the passage of a county act, carrying the Governor's right to appoint all boards. Then, if we want more than we are now entitled to, we can with good grace go to Congress and say, "Here, we have endeavored, and are still endeavoring, to do the best we can with the power granted unto us, but that power does not meet our wants as you can see." Then state what we need, and respectfully ask for it.

"4. 'Shall we base our county system permanently on the right of the Governor to appoint all county boards?'"

Ans. No, not permanently.

"5. 'Shall the County Act provide for county control of education, health, roads, bridges and wharves?'"

Ans. Yes, always keeping strictly within the provisions of the Organic Act; and I should have a county act so framed that under its provisions, as far as possible, no rascal, dishonest or incompetent man, if elected, could qualify and take office; have the act provide that every office holder elected (whose position required it) should provide surety in a surety company authorized to do business in this Territory, with the further provisions that, failing to secure such surety bond, the office should become vacant, and the position filled by appointment.

These latter suggestions are of course based on the theory of Congress broadening our powers.

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. CASE.

Long Time Democrat Goes To Republicans

Boonville, Ind., July 24.—Thomas W. Lindsey, a prominent attorney of this place, has bolted the Democratic party and has joined what he terms "the party of progress"—the Republican party. He says the Democratic party has repudiated the principles of former campaigns and further states it has been Republicanized. Mr. Lindsey says the Democratic party is ruled by Wall street and that a few men control the party. He denounces Judge Parker for sending the telegram to the St. Louis convention and declares it is the cowardice of David B. Hill and his managers in not attempting to force the gold plank in the platform. He feels that his party has departed from the old faith and that a better administration is to be had under Roosevelt's rule than under Parker.

Mr. Lindsey has served two terms as prosecuting attorney and has been Democratic county chairman for two campaigns. He was practically Democratic leader of the first Indiana Congressional district. Mr. Lindsey is an attorney of recognized ability and figured prominently in several important criminal cases tried in the Indiana courts.

JEWELRY IN ASHPAN.

London, Aug. 4.—When a chambermaid employed in the Savoy Hotel was cleaning the grate in the bedroom of a suite recently occupied by an American, his wife and daughter, she discovered in an ashpail a silk handkerchief containing five diamond rings, a turquoise ring, a diamond and pearl necklace, a diamond tiara, a gold pencil case, a gold watch and a purse containing £50 in Bank of England notes and $120 in American notes. The total value of the find is some thousands of pounds.

Up to yesterday the treasure was unclaimed. Last night a wireless telegram came from the mid-Atlantic, claiming ownership of the property.

COL. MACFARLANE BACK

"Just the night before I left I saw B. F. Dillingham at the Oceanic Steamship Company's office," said Colonel Macfarlane. "Although he is not quite as fleshy as he formerly was, Mr. Dillingham appeared to be in excellent health and spoke about his business with his old time vigor. He spoke in a very sanguine manner about the arrangements he is endeavoring to make with his creditors for a three years' extension and seemed to quite sure that he would be able to carry his scheme through. He showed me a number of signatures he had obtained relating to this scheme. I also saw the people of the Anglo California Bank. They are very much inclined to assist Mr. Dillingham. They have great faith in his business ability and expect that in case he carries through his three years' extension plan he will be able to meet the demands of his creditors in a satisfactory manner."

Speaking of the general business conditions on the mainland Col. Macfarlane stated that at present business is very dull especially in the East. Even in San Francisco there seems to be but little doing. He believed that business will not begin to look up before the coming presidential election. After that business will probably come back to its former swing as the business community has faith in both President Roosevelt and in Judge Parker and all confident that whichever of them is elected will be a safe man.

When asked what the prospects of the outcome of the election seemed to be Col. Macfarlane said that it was very hard to tell. "If you speak of a Republican," he said, "he will tell you that it is going to be a walkover for Roosevelt. On the other hand the Democrats, while they do not talk with quite as much confidence as the Republicans, are still betting that the unexpected is going to happen and that Judge Parker will be elected."

While in San Francisco Col. Macfarlane received the news of the death of his mother. He was apprised of the sad news by cablegram just a couple of days prior to his departure. Col. Macfarlane states that the news had the effect of hastening his return to the islands.
