Time

Cleveland has violated the United States Constitution, is the cry of his enemies who claim they are a vast majority of the people of the Union. Why in thunder, then, don't they revolt and secure "stable government" under a P. G.?

With lotteries let loose in Louisville, lynch law broken out in the old State of Ohio, and a huge opium ring unearthed in San Francisco, John L. Stevens ought to advocate the importation of the Hawaiian P. G. to give the United States some needed Christian civilization. This country would gladly receive back its constitutional government and autonomy in exchange.

Papers opposed to the administration in the United States are playing the trick of calling the existing Hawaiian concern "a republican government." It is an oligarchy somewhat restricted by sundry secret societies whose members, strongly armed and equipped for war by itself, are evincing an increasing disposition to exercise control over both the legislative and executive functions of the government.

Mons. Emile Frey, who was mentioned previously as having succeeded to the presidency of Switzerland, worked on a farm in Ohio before the war, his main object being to acquire a knowledge of American agricultural methods. He enlisted in the Union army and fought at Gettysburg and many other places. For seventy-seven days he lay in Libby prison, to the damage of his health. At the close of the war, after several promotions, he was mustered out as captain and breveted major "for gallant and meritorious services." Returning home he went into journalism in the interest of social democracy, and has had an honorable career through the legislature, the diplomatic service and the Vice-President's chair to the highest office in the republic. He was appointed Minister to the United States in 1882, holding the position until 1887.

A COLONIAL EXAMPLE.

The colony of New South Wales has passed a new electoral act, the chief feature of which is to define the conditions under which foreigners can vote. The act provides that no person can obtain enrolment until he has resided in the colony for a year after the date of naturalization, and letters of naturalization can only be obtained after a five years' residence in the colony. According to the alien act, a boy under 16 years of age arriving with his parents is regarded as a subject of New South Wales, provided his father has taken out naturalization papers. If the boy is over 16 years of age, then the son must himself apply for a certificate. If a foreigner marries a native of New South Wales the woman becomes a subject of the country to which her husband belongs. A person holding naturalization papers from any other British territory, upon having them endorsed by the governor, is entitled to full citizenship in New South Wales.

This question of how the sturdy young colonies of Britain in the South Pacific—so largely permeated by democratic ideas—regulate the admission of aliens into the British family, is of much interest to us. It proves that in the new law, the New South Welshmen have followed the lead of their American cousins in conservatism, and departed widely from the imperial policy of admitting foreigners to full citizenship after a few months' residence.

In Hawaii in 1887 a clique largely composed of foreigners conspired and armed themselves partly for the purpose of controlling the ballot box by granting the voting franchise to their illiterate alien contract laborers, who knew as much about the merits of the economic questions of the country as they would about the declension of a Greek verb. The question of who shall be eligible for citizenship is a vital one, no less to Hawaii than to New South Wales, and this latest endorsement of United States law on the question is instructive.

TO REVISE THE REVOLUTION.

There has been a change of tactics on the part of the Star in its effort to have its editor elevated into the Provisional Government. Finding that the oligarchy will not admit him to its sacred circle so long as it holds the key to the situation, the Star advocates an increase of the Advisory Council from fourteen to twenty-four members. At first it wanted the ten now members elected by a mass meeting, but now under advice modifies this mad notion to the extent that the mass meeting shall only make the nominations. They are to be "ratified" by the Council. These demands upon the Provisional Government to enlarge its borders, so as to admit Walter G. Smith in a crowd into a position that he cannot attain to by himself, are made on behalf of what are called "the people." Without waiting yet to inquire who are the people referred to, it may be asked what remains to be desired on the part of the people—any section or whole people of the country. Have we not been told until our ears are tired that the original and only P. G. which possesses the power of the lizard to renew a broken-off tail or leg—is the best government the islands ever had? That there is growing contentment and prosperity, public and private, under its benign sway? What more can "the people" want? Government employees have been "fired" right and left because they refused to pledge themselves to shoot at the United States flag and uniform in the defense of this same Provisional Government. The American League was organized for the express purpose of supporting this identical P. G.—not as the League had a view to reconstruct it, but just as it was found fulfilling the functions of government when the League came into existence. It cannot be, therefore, that the League is sanctioning the Star's movement for a sub-revolution to destroy the power of the original P. G., with its claims of more than divine right to rule this country! The question deferred in the foregoing answers itself—Smith is "the people," and being a stranger, if not an orphan, should have a chance. Take him in out of the cold by all means, and mayhap he may turn out to be an angel. Anything to keep the other nine of Tim's "lambs" out of the Councils.

Wanted an Evangelist.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—A native New Zealand evangelist named Rangit, has started out from his tribal village for a tour of Australia. He is spoken of as a fluent speaker in English, and in Sydney lectured in the large Centennial hall with success to a full house. A favorite subject is the ancient manners and customs of his people, when the evangelist appears clad in the primitive full dress, mat and feathers, of the Maori. Rangit would doubtless confess to the mode in which his ancestors disposed of the well-conditioned Pakeha, who became too obtrusive to escape losing the number of his mess by involuntary absorption into the tribe. But the philosophic Maori will perceive that modern society is very successful in producing much the same results by other methods. The modern Australian squatter becomes a millionaire by consuming the marrow and sinew of the shepherd and cheap "sundowner" while alive, and the more humane savage of Taranaki first ended his misery with a club. That is about the difference.

This reminds me that the men leading the new church movement among the Hawaiians ought to take a lesson from their New Zealand cousins, and send an evangelist to San Francisco. He could show that in the old times the Hawaiians had no tramps, no charity feeding of able-bodied men, for although they had no Bible they had the motto, "He that won't work neither shall he eat," and then every man had a chance to work which men have not now.

MAKEE APPEND.

Central American War.

The New York World of Jan. 12 has the following from Tegucigalpa, Honduras: President Vasquez today ordered his troops to advance towards the position lately occupied by the Nicaraguan allies of the Honduras rebels, but from which they had fallen back. This movement was followed this evening by an attack on the left flank of the enemy, who were repulsed with twenty killed.

New arms have arrived from the United States and a battery of artillery has already been sent to the front. The Nicaraguans have an advantage in the matter of artillery, but the arrival of Hotchkiss and Gatling guns will soon change the aspect of affairs. Communication with Amapala has been cut off. It is rumored that the garrison there has gone over to Policarpo Bonilla. Prisoners taken from Bonilla do not confirm these reports.

How to Cure La Grippe.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept taking it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. Madison Mustard, Otway, Ohio. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The marriage of the Grand Duke of Hesse and Princess Victoria of Coburg will take place early in the spring, and the Queen of England will be present at the ceremony.

A WORTHLESS CHECK.

It is Passed By a Portuguese on a Fellow Countryman.

J. Fernandez, a Portuguese, was arrested this afternoon, on a charge of gross cheat, a warrant for the arrest having been issued by a fellow countryman. Fernandez was released later on a bond of $250, filed by J. L. Kaulukou, his counsel.

As far as can be gleaned the facts which led to the arrest are as follows: Fernandez, a few days ago, became short of funds, and having in his possession a note of the Amador Canal and Mining Co. of the United States with a V on it, palmed it off upon another Portuguese, valuing it at $5. It turned out, however, to be worthless.

In order to make the note valuable in the States it had to bear the names of the president and secretary of the company. This particular note bore the signature of the president, but not of the secretary. In addition there was no date or number.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. Simply what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit. One has been cured of indigestion or dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache or biliousness, while others report remarkable cures of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, salt rheum, etc.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, Jan. 20, 1894.

The arrival of the "Martha Davis" busted the corner in oil and added goods to our already large stock of plantation implements.

Last week we filled an order from a manager on Hawaii for eight miles of the locked fence and another from a manager on Kauai for three miles. In the first instance the manager guaranteed the owners an increase of thirty-three and one-third percent in fat cattle if they would adopt the locked fence for the pasture fields, not that a particular kind of fence would make the grass grow but that the locked fence was strong enough to keep predatory cattle out while the feed was growing. The three mile order from Kauai was simply a trial trip, and if it is satisfactory we expect to see most of the island girdled with locked wire fence. It is only a question of time when it will be universally used because it has so many points of superiority which commend it to people who use wire fences. Durability, Strength and Economy in price are the three points which make it the best fence in the world. You will understand that while we call it a fence, we do not sell it made up. We simply sell you the wire, stays and washers necessary to make it. If you do not wish to build a new fence but to repair an old one we will sell the stays and washers and you may make your fence as good as new. These stays cost you six dollars a hundred and the washers forty-two cents a hundred. In ordering by mail remember that you need a washer wherever your wire joins a stay; if yours is a five wire fence you will require five washers to each stay. It's an easy matter to calculate the saving; anyone who knows that two and two make four will understand that a wire stay which costs six cents is cheaper than a wooden post at sixteen cents. Ordinarily the original cost of an article is the greatest expense. Consider the saving there is in a locked fence, and the first cost is reduced to a minimum.

Carbolinum Avenarius is an article much used by builders for coating wood placed in contact with the ground and where moisture quickly affects it; the object of the preparation is to preserve the wood from decay consequent upon the ravages of ants and underground bugs. We understand that one Honolulu merchant is selling it at $1.25 per gallon. We sell you the same article exactly, for 80 cents a gallon or $30 per barrel. Not much difference, perhaps, but enough for everyone to consider.

This difference in price is about on a par with other articles we sell. We secure the best quality, always, and arrange the price to meet the purses of the people. The result is that our business rapidly outgrew our quarters; first one warehouse was added and then another until now we have three warehouses full of goods besides those in our Fort street store.

The "Wertheim" has jumped from a plebeian to a king among sewing machines. The fact of people getting an article that practically combines three in one is what makes it valuable to every lady in the land. We know of no other machine that will give a lock, chain or embroidery stitch by the simple turning of a thumb screw, and yet that is what the Wertheim does. In addition to its being the best sewing machine it has the finest table we have ever seen.

The porcelain lined bath tubs seem to have caught the people's favor and we've had to send forward orders for duplicates. The one in the store is roomy enough to satisfy anyone whose tastes run to roomy bath tubs. The enamel sinks are infinitely better for the kitchen than the conventional cast iron affair that is impossible to keep clean.

WHY LUCOL

IS THE BEST

PAINT OIL.

Dries perfectly solid inside of twenty hours.

Forms a durable and elastic, not a brittle coating.

Retains its gloss longer than any other oil.

Resists the action of acids and alkalis better than any other oil.

Flows freely from the brush without running and spreads well.

With the addition of Litharge, yields a hard surface, suitable for floors, steps, etc.

Mixes readily with pigments ground in oil in paste form.

Brings out the real shades of the colors and keeps them unaltered.

Is a solvent for the most delicate of the new coal tar colors.

Added to varnish greatly improves the working of the varnish.

Does not darken white lead or any delicate colors.

Has greater body than any other oil.

Requires one-third less pigment than any other oil.

Can be added to linseed oil and it will greatly improve the linseed.

Can be thinned with turpentine.

By actual tests, has outlasted the best linseed oil.

Therefore, is the best paint oil ever manufactured.

Direction for Use.

Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed.

In using metallic, Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more Lucol and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss.

NEVER USE JAPANS.

Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge only, never use Japans.

LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES

and assists their working and improves their appearance BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED SAME DAY THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the gum of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled.

The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of Lucol to varnishes does not reduce their lustre nor retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.

The parties were married at 8 o'clock this morning at the Roman Catholic Cathedral. The scene at the wharf prior to the steamer's departure was one of animation and jollity. As the couple were going up the gangway they were showered with rice, felicitations of a happy and prosperous wedded career. When the steamer moved oranges were at a discount, being flung in all directions, to the amusement of a large number of on-lookers.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Lazarus Separation—Elele Newspaper Case—Ice vs. Electricity.

Thos. Nott has filed a discontinuance of his suit against A. McDowell and others.

John F. Bowler, by his attorney, P. Neumann, has excepted to the decision rendered against him in the Circuit Court at the suit of A. Medeiros, horse doctor.

The widow of C. Manalo petitions for probate of his will and that J. A. Magoon be appointed administrator. There is real estate valued at $1000, and personally at $50.

The Supreme Court, by Justice Bickerton, has rendered a unanimous decision, overruling the exceptions of Joseph Lazarus to the decree of separation adjudged against him at the suit of his wife, Kaimakaoe Lazarus. The exceptions were on the ground that the disposal of the husband's suit for divorce, which had failed, settled the whole matter, especially as in the wife's answer she asked for a decree of separation in her favor. As now decided, the law is, "The statutes concerning divorce and separation do not authorize the granting of a separation to the libellant on an answer and cross-bill to libellant's libel for divorce." In this case the separation decree is affirmed on a separate suit, and not on the answer to the suit of the husband. W. A. Kinney for petitioner; C. W. Ashford for respondent.

In the suit of John F. Bowler against E. C. Macfarlane and others, to declare a partnership between all of them and himself as owners of the Elele newspaper stock, and to make defendants pay him back their equal shares of a joint note paid by him, John J. Sullivan has made an answer. He denies that there was a partnership and petitions the court to declare that there was none. He says that Bowler, Macfarlane and Peterson assured him his only liability on the note was $250, also that they personally guaranteed him against any loss. They agreed besides, he says, to pay all the running expenses of the paper in consideration of their having control of its politics. Certain wealthy men were to put up money for the expenses, so that Sullivan and the other signers, beyond the three controllers, would have no risk in signing the note. This defendant demands an account of all money received to assist the paper, and asks that the Elele plant be sold, alleging that it is worth more than the amount of the note.

The People's Ice and Refrigerating Co. has entered an action against the Hawaiian Electric Co. for $10,000, for breach of agreement to lease certain premises.

A Fine Instrument.
Judge Cooper received by the Mariposa a fine reed organ, which he had loaned to a church at San Diego. Our musical readers will be interested in the following description of the instrument.
It was made by the Loring & Blake Organ Company, Worcester, Mass. It has two manuals and pedal base. The case is of black walnut, and the organ weighs 1100 pounds. It contains the following sets of reeds: Great organ tibia major 16ft., contragamba 16ft., ophicleide 16ft., trumpet 8ft., horn diapason 8ft., dulciana 8ft., wall flute 8ft., flautino 2ft., swell organ diapason 8ft., melodia 8ft., flute 8ft., principal 8ft., violella 8ft., flute harmonique 8ft., box celeste 8ft., pedal organ dolciana 16 ft., diapason 16ft., violoncello 8ft.

The organ has the following mechanical stops: Octave coupler, manual coupler, vox humana, trumpet, dolce, diapason, dolce open diapason, dolce full organ stop, great organ, swell, knee swell with swell organ.

This handsome instrument has remarkably agreeable tones. It is none too loud for a parlor. It is to be hoped that Judge Cooper will have a recital on it before long for the delectation of lovers of music.

Put Under $200 Bond.
G. Muir, a sailor on the bark Margaret, was bound over to keep the peace against Captain Pedersen, this morning for using threatening language against the skipper. He was ordered to file a bond of $200 conditioned to refrain from doing violence to the person of Captain Pedersen during the vessel's stay in port, not to exceed two months. Anderson, also a sailor on the Margaret, was previously ordered to file a similar bond for a similar offense. The threats were made on Jan. 17. As both sailors are unable to file the necessary bonds they have been confined in Oahu Jail, until the departure of the vessel.

Malicious Injury.
A native named Naiwi has got himself into a nice muddle if he be believed. The latter states under oath that Naiwi is guilty of malicious injury in Honolulu, since Jan. 1st, 1894, to a date she is unable to fix, by tearing down and destroying a certain house built upon, and a certain fence surrounding a lot belonging to her on Smith street, thereby causing loss and damage to the amount of $75.

Naiwi has made a general denial of the charges, and the case is being heard this afternoon.

A Favorite Remedy for La Grippe.
"During the epidemic of la Grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than other cough medicine." H. M. Bangs, druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. This Remedy is prompt and effective and will prevent any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

AN ELOPEMENT CASE.

The Bride and Groom Residents of Kahului.

The quiet little town of Kahului, Maui, was the scene of an elopement on Thursday, Jan. 18th. The gallant lover, T. B. Lyons, had enjoyed the acquaintance of the young lady, Miss Enos, some years, and recently their acquaintance ripened into mutual affection. A few days ago Lyons heard that the father of the young lady had mated her with another, and the wedding was to take place some time this week. Lyons decided to frustrate the plans of the "old man." He met the young lady secretly and, after several attempts, persuaded her to elope with him. Their plans were laid and between 5 and 6 o'clock Thursday morning, "by the light of moon they stole away," and were quietly married by Rev. Kapu. The bride returned to her father and begged for his blessing, but was spurned. Notwithstanding the repulse the couple are as happy as doves. T. B. Lyons is well-known in town.

"I have for many years been a great sufferer from SCROFULA breaking out on my arms and legs; they were covered with eruption and sores, discharging all the time. I tried very many medicines and consulted physicians far and near, but constantly grew worse. I have taken but three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for rheumatism, and has derived so much benefit from it that I declare there is no other medicine on earth. We would not be without it in the house if it cost $20 a bottle." T. F. JOHNSON, San Jose, Cal.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders.

The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 30 %), also the extraction of juice (5 to 12 %).

It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from cars, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER; and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juices without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regrounding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which is sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls, with which SHREDDER is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face the delivery side of the mill), upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill roll shaft, and distance center this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Hawi Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.
Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their
"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28, 1903.
Messrs. MacFarlane & Co., Ltd.,
Honolulu, H. I.
Dear Sir:—We have mailed you a copy of the Trade-Deed announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSO-CIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Special Dispatch to Trade-Deed.) WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 28.— No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one today by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association.
By methods of unrivaled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which has to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

to be entirely honest, we can hardly conceive of a more grievous aberration of judgment.

We have before us a letter from a clergyman in which the writer gravely asserts that Secretary Gresham, in his first report to the President upon this subject, had "espoused the cause of barbarism against civilization." The reverend gentleman evidently forgets that whatever we may think as to the means by which civilization may be promoted in Hawaii, the civilization in which we as Americans are interested in the first line is American civilization. It is our chief duty to see to it that this American republic, which we are fond of calling the greatest and freest nation in the world, and the leader of human progress, should cultivate in itself and exhibit to the rest of mankind those evidences of justice, fair dealing, truthfulness, and general morality which are the essential attributes of genuine civilization.

The Queen of Hawaii may, for aught we know, be a very objectionable person, and her habits of life and methods of government may have left ever so much to desire.
Yet she was the head of a state which, however small and feeble, was generally recognized as an independent member of the family of nations, with whom this republic maintained the same regular diplomatic intercourse through accredi-tated ministers, and the same relations of friendly commerce, which we maintain with other nations. There are other sovereigns of whose personal characters we have a poor opinion, and whose methods of government fall far below our standards.
But no truly civilized man will pretend that this gives us a right to permit our legations to become the headquarters of conspiracies against them, and our armed forces to be used in time of peace for aiding in the overthrow of their governments, that their territory may be turned over to us. True civilization holds a tramp to be as much entitled to common justice and good faith as a bishop. When our reverend friend sensibly thinks of it, and summons the teachings of Christianity to enlighten his conscience, it will dawn upon him that, whatever relics of barbarism may still exist in little Hawaii, no more vicious blow could be struck at the cause of human civilization than by turning this American republic, the great champion of freedom and progress, into a nation of freebooters, and by sanctioning the receiving of stolen goods as a legitimate means of national aggrandizement. He may also begin to feel that it is an especially shameful thing, and one very dangerous to the authority of the church, when ministers of religion go out of their way to justify, and advocate as righteous, acts done by the agents of the government which, if done in private life, would lead the perpetrators straight to the penitentiary and to imperishable disgrace. No church can well afford to allow such teaching to be addressed by its ministers to the youth of the country.

THE NEW DOOR OF TRADE.

Results are Pleading to the Projector of the C. A. S. Line.

The following extract from a letter to the London Times by Mr.
Huddart will interest our people:
Since the first boat started last May there has been a steady increase both in the number of passengers and in the amount of merchandise carried, so that on her last voyage from Canada the Miowera was practically a "full" ship. Of the various developments already brought about the most striking, perhaps, is that which concerns trade with Honolulu. Previously to May last the trade between the Sandwich Islands and the American Continent was a monopoly for an American firm; and, inasmuch as the islands import goods to the extent of from seven to eight million dollars a year, this trade was not an insignificant one.
But the effect of the arrangements then existing was that San Francisco received the bananas and other tropical fruits sent from the islands, where they are so plentiful, and forwarded to Canada and to Washington Territory merely the "culls," or the inferior portions of the consignments; while on the other hand, America despatched her manufactured goods to Honolulu in exchange. But by the first vessel that left Vancouver for Sydney agents were sent by both British Columbia and Washington State to Honolulu in order to establish a direct fruit business between that place and Canada, and in this way, also, with the north-west of the Republic.
There is a great demand in Canada for fruits of all kinds, and, although the distance from Honolulu to Vancouver is 350 miles greater than from Honolulu to San Francisco, the consignments arrive in the same time—namely, one week—owing to the greater speed of the steamers on the new route; while the additional week that was formerly required for the despatch of the consignments from San Francisco, where they were reshipped along the coast, is saved. What this means in regard to tropical fruits may be easily imagined, and it is not surprising to hear that this trade has already assumed considerable dimensions.
Canada now gets her fruit direct, eats a good deal more of it than she did before, and pays for it with her salmon or her manufactured goods, thus gaining a double advantage.
All this, of course, is merely a further confirmation of the fact that trade follows the route of the steam ships.
