RIFLE RANGE ORDER.

Headquarters First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii.

Honolulu, R. H., October 3.

General Orders No. 29.

The new rifle range is hereby declared open.

The officers and men of the First Regiment are to be congratulated on the possession of such a conveniently located, and excellently well equipped range, which will aid, materially, in increasing the present splendid record in rifle shooting, which the regiment now holds.

Attention is called to the posted regulations governing the use of the range.

All regimental shooting on the Makiki range will cease from this date.

By command of Col. McLean.

JNO. SCHAEFER,

Captain and Adjutant.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. H. C. Reid celebrated his birthday yesterday by giving a party at Saratoga. He entertained handsomely a large number of friends in the afternoon. For several hours there was music, dancing and fine supper.

SERENADED.

Hearing that John H. Stelling was going to leave the Royal Annex, the Kawaiahou Club called around Friday night and gave him a serenade. The beneficiary's favorite air, "Down by the Farm," was the first presented. Ben Jones gave "Anchored" and "I'll Go Down With the Ship," in basso. Several Hawaiian airs were also sung.

PUTTING IT STRONGLY.

"I am a little late this morning, brethren," explained the Rev. Mr. Goodman, as he rose to begin the service, "on account of having overslept myself. I was kept awake all of night before last by a toothache, and I slept so soundly last night that I could not have been awakened this morning by a call from a city church with a $10,000 salary attached. We will sing two stanzas of the hymn beginning:

"Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve And press with vigor on."

NEW DRESSMAKER.

The dressmaking parlors of N. S. Sachs, formerly occupied by Mrs. Mills, will be reopened next Monday by Mrs. Seave, a first class dressmaker from San Francisco.

Keep Your Weather Eye Open.

Lookout for Kerr's ads. A large portion of the 1400 tons of freight per S. S. Australia is consigned to him, and will be opened in a few days. A single yard or article at wholesale prices.

We Have the Goods.

People will cease to wonder why Kerr's store is continually thronged with anxious buyers (when other stores are at a standstill) if they will look in and compare prices. An enormous shipment per S. S. Australia will be opened as quickly as possible.

WHICH?

The business man is often perplexed in deciding on which make of typewriter to get. They all claim to be the "best." Which machine really is the best?

The Peerless is a modern typewriter. It is right "up-to-now." Strong, handsome, durable. Easy to operate and its work is excellent. It is the business man's best friend. There's no question about the Peerless being the best typewriter. Examination will prove it. Price $100.

A PIONEER JUDGE DEAD

SUDDEN DEMISE OF AN AGED AND ESTEEMED JURIST.

Judge S. L. Austin Passes Away "in Harness"—Was Traveling—His Life and Services.

Circuit Judge S. L. Austin of Hawaii died suddenly at the residence of Frank Spencer at Waimea, Hawaii, about 11 o'clock Friday morning, of a stroke of apoplexy.

He was traveling leisurely to the Kau term of the Circuit Court, of which he was the presiding judge, which opens next Wednesday morning. Four days had been spent at Waimea. Thursday night the jurist was feeling quite unwell and retired early. He succumbed to the fatal stroke next morning. His daughter, Miss Hattie Austin, who had accompanied him from Hilo, was the only member of the family present at the time.

The sad news was telephoned all over the island. Tax Assessor H. C. Austin, a son, immediately set out for Waimea and doubtless arrived there yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Hitchcock, commissioned Deputy Sheriff Yates of Kau by telephone to proceed at once to Honolulu with the information. The latter caught the Ke Au Hou and arrived this morning. He at once communicated the intelligence to the Chief Justice and the Attorney General. One of the Judges of the Circuit Court here will proceed next Tuesday to Kohala to sit at the term at that place. Judge Carter will probably go.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed when the Ke Au Hou left Hawaii. It was settled, however, that it should take place at Hilo this afternoon. The Kinau had been communicated with and was to call for the remains this morning.

Judge Austin was a native of Buffalo, New York. He was 71 years of age and had been in this country forty-four years. In 1852 he arrived in Hilo and lived there ever since. During his long residence he was a most useful figure in the upbuilding of his community, in business, political and social life.

Upon his arrival in Hilo he first associated himself with the business house of Benjamin Dittman, then the largest on Hawaii, in the capacity of clerk. While there he pursued his study of law. In the early sixties he was appointed district magistrate and a few years later became Circuit judge. This office he has held ever since. Several times of late it has been rumored that he would retire, on account of advanced age, but, being a man of wonderful energy and perseverance he held on to die in harness.

Judge Austin leaves a wife, six children and several grand-children to mourn his loss. Frank, Wallace, John and Ephraim are residing in California; Herbert C. is tax assessor of Hawaii and lives at Hilo; Miss Hattie, the only daughter, was with her father, as before stated, at the time of his demise. Mrs. Austin is at present visiting her sons in California. She was expected to arrive by the Australia, but did not. It is likely she will reach Honolulu by the steamer next Tuesday; if not she will receive the first sad news by the mail which goes forward today. Judge Austin was an uncle of Mrs. E. O. White, being a brother of Jonathan Austin, formerly of Honolulu.

ABOARD THE ADAMS.

The most successful reception of the year was held by officers of the U. S. S. Adams aboard ship from 3 to 6 Friday afternoon. For the occasion the vessel was handsomely decorated with flags and floral pieces. The guests began to arrive about 3:30 and by 4 the decks were crowded. Dancing began immediately and continued two hours. The Kawaiahou Club furnished music. Many enjoyed the privilege of looking over the war vessel.

A PICTURE OF HORROR

GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF A TURKISH MOB AT WORK.

One Pistol Shot Starts a Slaughter—Fierce Savagery—Men in the Mysterious Horde.

A Constantinople mob, says a writer in the New York Tribune, is a spectacle that once seen, is not easily forgotten. The memory holds forever after a picture of frenzied faces, strange garments and gleaming knives. The mob retains for a long time the mad shouts of the pursuit or the exultant cry that accompanied the finishing blow. It is not a pleasant memory. For the second time within a year Constantinople has been given up to pillage and murder. The demon of massacre that stalked through the city last September has returned more terrible than ever, and he has found his efficient ally in the Constantinople mob.

In no city on earth can one pistol shot call together a mob that compares in all savage qualities with the mob in Constantinople. Time and again before and since the destruction of Janissaries it has turned the capital upside down and made the streets of Stamboul run with blood. It does not change with time. Generation after generation it is the same in composition and in purpose. It has two objects in view: First, to kill Christians; second, to seize their property.

The mob is composed of two general classes, the Chapin—that is, the rascals of the city, belonging to the lowest class of the population, brutal and vicious, and the softas—that is, theological students. The former, as poor, ignorant, ferocious and fanatic as the hordes that Mahomet sent against the city 450 years ago, are animated by the love of plunder and of bloodshed. In their savage breasts there is no feeling of mercy, but a positive delight in the shedding of blood. They seek not only to kill, but to mangle in killing. Toward a Christian they have no sentiment of humanity. They are of every race of Mahomet. In their dark faces and uncouth garments we can trace the characteristics of Laz, Kurd, Circassian, Georgian, Zeybeck and Osinauli. In ordinary times they lead a precarious existence, living from hand to mouth, working when forced, as porters, scavengers and laborers; but ready at the first signal to turn their implements into weapons and join the fierce cry, "Down with the Ghouls."

The second class, and the more dreaded, is the softas. Softa, or soukhte, as the word was originally pronounced, meaning something consumed in the fire, and is the name given to the students of the theological schools, and are, supposedly, consumed in the fire of zeal for knowledge. In Constantinople there are, at a moderate estimate, 10,000 of these Mahomedan theological students. They are camped like a great army in the city of the Sultan, and at the faintest whisper of reform or concession to Crete, Armenia or Macedonia, or the first rumor of insubordination on the part of the Armenians of the city, one hears the ominous murmur, "The softas are rising." Many cheeks turn pale at the cry. It calls up too many scenes in the streets of Galata and Stamboul of helpless men and women struck down by the heavy curved clubs in the hands of these bigoted fanatics. In the riots of last September the softas were the principal figures. Fanatic almost to insanity, cruel as hyenas, animated by a sleepless hatred of Christians, they were the center and soul of every Moslem outbreak.

Their method of warfare is distinctive. They do not usually attack in large bands, nor do they attempt serious fighting. Armed with heavy clubs, often curved into a hook, they patrol the streets in bands of from a dozen to forty, or lie concealed in narrow lanes. There they watch for their prey, and thence, at the sight of a defenseless man or woman they dash forth and club the poor wretch to death and trample on the mangled form. Hundreds have fallen in just this way in the last few days in Constantinople. Occasionally the band varies the amusement by plundering the house of some poor, defenseless creature and killing the women and children.

AT THE KUSATSU SPRINGS

NOTES ON THE FAMOUS JAPANESE CURATIVE WATERS.

Great Heat—Constituents—May Be Duplicated Here for Treatment of Lepers—A Letter Replete in Details.

The Kusatsu water the Board of Health is having analyzed, with a view to having it manufactured here, was brought from the famous springs in Japan by Dr. Wood. It is proposed by local physicians to ascertain the chemical properties of the water and their proportions; and with the requisite heat it is believed the Kusatsu baths can be perfectly reproduced.

The waters of Kusatsu are specially efficacious in rheumatism, syphilis, all skin diseases and leprosy. Some believe that by long application the latter disease may be cured. The chief constituents of the water are mineral acids, sulphur, iron, alum and arsenic. A high temperature is reached in the baths, ranging from 113 to 128 degrees. In view of investigations made by Dr. Wood and Mr. Smith while in Japan, they have secured from an authority a statement of expense, etc., of visiting the Kusatsu Springs, for the benefit of the public of the Hawaiian islands. From the schedule the following cullings are made:

"In accordance with your request of date Aug. 4, I have the honor to forward the following notes, as complete as I am able to make them at present, with regard to the expenses of a foreign patient, while undergoing the treatment at the springs of Kusatsu. The cost will vary somewhat according to the season. July and August are the months during which the baths are most frequented, and one going there during this period would have to pay rather more for entertainment than earlier or later in the year. During the winter months a stay at Kusatsu would be difficult or impossible for the average patient.

"Of course much depends upon the requirements of a given case as to accommodations and food. The hotel, which caters especially to foreign patronage is comparatively expensive, and, as it supplies neither food nor proper attendance, it can scarcely be said that there is any great advantage in going to this house, except that the European guest is not there thrown in close contact with the many disagreeable and often offensive native patients. The price for rooms, at the house just mentioned, depends almost entirely on the special arrangement made, but may be put down at from 75 cents to $1.50 (meaning silver) per room, with absolutely necessary bedding. Rooms can be had at the purely native hotels at somewhat less, but, in this case, a foreigner would have to provide his own sheets, blankets, etc. I would, in fact, advise any one going to Kusatsu to take all needful bedding with them, for obvious reasons.

"At present, as it is neither pleasant nor healthful for a foreigner, especially when ailing, to attempt to live upon Japanese food exclusively, it is almost a necessity that, in Kusatsu, the European invalid should have his own servant, who should have some knowledge of cookery in foreign style. * * * * The wages of a suitable servant would range from $8 to $15 per month.

"The charges for the baths, and for advice from the local physicians, who, from long experience, have, perhaps, the best knowledge of the application of the waters, are included in the hotel charges for rooms, and are levied by the town authorities as an almost nominal charge per capita. On the whole I think that $75 (about $40 gold) is the lowest rate at which any foreigner can live with decency at Kusatsu, and a somewhat higher estimate is, perhaps, advisable in view of the rise in prices that will, inevitably, take place in direct proportion to the number of foreign guests seeking the benefits of the baths.

"The cost of travel from Yokohama to Kusatsu is from $10 to $15, according to the amount of baggage transported, and the best route for the invalid that by Karuzawa. After completing the usual course from six weeks to two months at Kusatsu, a stay of about a week at the neighboring baths of Shibu is advisable in order to cure the peculiar and, under other treatment, most painful and obstinate dermatitis caused by the Kusatsu waters. The rate of expenses at Shibu, which is seventeen miles from Kusatsu, is, at present, a little less than at the latter place."

Professor J. T. Crawley is making the analysis of the water. Dr. Wood's idea is that the beneficial effects of the water lie in the heat and the acid property, together with the frequency of the baths, which are taken by strong patients four or five times a day. If the water can be successfully reproduced experiments will be made with skin diseases and the baths may be introduced at Kalihi.

MR. OLE OLSON TONIGHT

A CLEVER COMEDY DRAMA IS TO BE PRESENTED.

Robert L. Scott in the Leading Role—

A Capable Home Company Support

—Commended.

This is the night for the presentation of "Ole Olson" by Bob Scott and his company of amateur thespians. Much has been said of the play and players. "Ole Olson" is new to Honolulu. It is a new style of drama, invading an unexplored field. By many critics it is pronounced novel, though it reflects most strongly human instincts, passions and sentiments. Here where the Norwegian character is so familiar, Ole himself cannot but please.

Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Morris and Mr. Ramsey are well known. All have leading parts. Mrs. Wilson will be a strong support and, as on previous occasions, will win many of the laurels of the performance. It will be worth about a dollar to hear Ramsey's well-known address, clad in a Prince Albert suit imported direct from London—not the address but Ramsey. Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. Bickerton and others will appear in the support.

When Bob Scott was touring the West a few years ago with "Ole Olson" he received many complimentary notices from the newspapers. At that time the Utah Standard said:

"A large and fashionable audience greeted that great Swedish dialect actor, R. L. Scott, in the latest and greatest novelty in comedy, Ole Olson, at the Grand last night. Ripple after ripple of merriment and fun swept over the house as 'Ole' did something out of the ordinary or got off some quaint saying. And it is only a wonder that long before this some other company has not taken up a similar play. The field is large, and at present almost unoccupied, although it is understood that hearing of the remarkable success which has attended this play, all comedians are studying up the quaint Swedish dialect. And surely if they meet as great a success of it as has Mr. Scott, they may well feel proud. From rise to fall of curtain the audience was kept in a continual roar. R. L. Scott is certainly a genius, and kept the audience in a hearty laugh. His presentation of the green, but noble hearted Swede was perfect."

CARRYING LEPEERS.

In an evening paper, or so-called paper, the statement appears that "Among the Hall's passengers this morning from Hawaii was a crazy Chinaman consigned to the Insane Asylum, and five lepers for the Receiving Station at Kalihi." This statement is entirely incorrect. According to the laws of the Hawaiian Republic vessels over a certain tonnage are not allowed to carry lepers, and are subject to a heavy fine for an infringement of that law. The Hall and Mikahala are both above the tonnage named in the act, and the company has never at any time allowed lepers to be carried on those steamers.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The marriage engagement between Mr. William F. Lucas Stanley, son of the late Charles Stanley, Commissary General in H. R. M. Ordnance Department, Dublin, and Miss Juanita F. C. Danford, second daughter of Lady Herron, of this city, is announced.

Photograph Gallery.

T. P. Severin has taken the photograph gallery opposite Love's bakery on Nuuanu avenue, where he will enter immediately into the work of taking pictures. Mr. Severin has had years of experience at this branch and has always met with success in it.

A SPASM OF SENSE.

Now, let's have a short spasm of common sense. If people who have been chronically sick are so soon and so easily cured by Wampole's Preparation, why were they not cured by some of the medicines they took before? Because medicines are like novels and songs; once in a while a good one in tons of tons of poor ones. That's the reason and its reason enough. But what is this preparation made of that it should do what others cannot? The answer is simple and straight. It is made from fresh Cod Liver, the Hypophosphites, and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry Bark, combined in a new and scientific way. It isn't a lot of incongruous ingredients shaken together, but chemically united, so as to make one thing of unprecedented potency. It is no antiquated mixture—fit to upset the stomach of a Greenland, but Cod Liver Oil (so far as that goes) with the taste and odor completely taken out of it.

Is pleasant to the palate as spiced wine, and it cures Fevers, Scrofula, Bowel Complaints and Wasting Diseases, by expelling the deadly germs and filling the blood with rich and healthy elements, such as nature requires. Try it and see what a remedy, that is abreast of the age, can do for you. Gives results from the first dose. Sold by all druggists.

AUSTRALIA LEAVING FOR SAN FRANCISCO THIS DAY.

Passengers and Cargo—Troop to Be Loaded Next—Island Steamers—Makee in Service Again.

The expected lumber schooner Defender was spoken this forenoon.

The Iwawani will sail at 10 a. m. on Tuesday next for Lahaina, Kukuhihale and Honokaa.

The Oceanic S. S. Australia sails this afternoon for San Francisco. She took away a large number of passengers and a heavy freight.

The Kaala arrived early this morning from Makawili without cargo. She took in a load of coal and sailed for Kahuku this afternoon.

The Molokai packet Mokoli came into port at 11:30 p. m. yesterday. She brought down fifty head of sheep and her usual quota of island produce.

The steamers Kilaua Hou and Lehua both sailed for their usual Hawaiian ports this afternoon, taking large consignments of fertilizer and lumber.

The Ke Au Hou arrived from Punaluu this morning, bringing 4000 bags sugar for C. Brewer & Co. She also brought down 28 head of cattle for the Metropolitan Meat Co.

The ship Troop have up anchor and came alongside the Kinoo wharf this morning. She will take the Australia's berth on the departure of that vessel, at the Oceanic wharf.

The Oceanic wharf was the scene of great activity this morning. Produce of every kind was being rushed on board the big liner over numerous gangways and through various ports.

The Makee will be put on her regular route next week, and the Wai-aleale will go out of commission. Like the Makee, the latter vessel will have her bow-sprit removed, and will receive a thorough cleaning and overhauling.

Teaching the Boys to Swim.

I was riding along a mountain stream in eastern Kentucky when I saw a man throw three boys, one after the other, into the water from rather a steep bank. The little fellows swam to the other shore as though they were adapted to the water by nature.

"Pretty good swimmers," I remarked. "Yaas; I allus said a boy that couldn't swim wan't no 'count," answered the mountaineer. "I jess throw my boys in an make 'em swim soon's they git big enough."

"But what if they can't swim out?" I suggested. "The Lank is pretty high for you to get to them in time."

"Yaas, that's so. But I've hed nine, an they all l'arned all right, 'ceptin two."

"What became of them?"

"Oh, they never comed up arter I throwed 'em in."—Washington Star.

She Has Reformed.

He was deep in his paper and didn't want to be interrupted, but of course she didn't care anything about that.

"Did you read about that young couple that went through the marriage ceremony just for a joke?" she asked.

"No," he replied. "What of it?"

"Why, after it was all over they discovered that it wasn't a joke at all."

"Oh, every one who tackles the marriage question finds that out."

He wasn't interrupted again for a full hour.—Chicago Post.

Mr. J. K. Fowler, secretary and treasurer of the Corinne Mill, Canal and Stock Co., of Corinne, Utah, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says: "I consider it the best in the market. I have used many kinds but find Chamberlain's the most prompt and effectual in giving relief, and now keep no other in my home." When troubled with a cough or cold give this remedy a trial and we assure you that you will be more than pleased with the result. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

His Own Undertaker.

Wife—Poor Slackman was here this morning, and in talking of his troubles his emotions so overcame him that he buried his face in his hands.

Husband—From the general appearance of his hands, I should say he had facilities to do that very effectually.—Boston Courier.

A Safe Bet.

"Is your mamma in?"

"What's your name?"

"I'm Mr. Whitehead, the new minister."

"Then I guess mamma's expectin you, 'cause she said she'd bet $1 you'd be sure to come on wash day!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

They Had All Been Hanged.

"Were you ever bothered by horse thieves out here?" inquired the tourist.

"Well, yes," said the native of Oklahoma, "there used to be a good many hanging around, but I haven't seen one for a year."—Truth.

Wild Hops.

"Above all," said the throat specialist, "the lady must talk as little as possible."

"Doc," eagerly asked Mrs. Greyhair's husband, "is there any hope of it becoming chronic?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Champion.

"I reckon," said the cyclone as it picked up the wayside inn and waited it over the undulating country, "that I can hold my own with any of 'em as a hotel bouncer."—Boston Courier.

Beats a Good Wife.

Maud—Ah, what is there that beats a good wife?

Sylvius—A bad husband generally.—New York Sunday World.

An Industrial Item.

"Why, Pat, there used to be two mills there."

"Yis, sorr, but they found there was only wind enough for one."—Sketch.

A CHILD ENJOYS

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

The truth in advertising may be told in a weak way, and is then almost as futile as if it were untruth.

COFFEE IN SOUTH KONA

REASONS WHY THE CROP IS TO BE A SHORT ONE.

A New Blight-Fertilizer to Be Used—The Association—New Growers—Post Office—Police Scandal.

Star Newspaper:—As I have before indicated the coffee crop in South Kona will be considerably below that of last year and, apart from the recurring biennial fluctuations the reason is to be found in the spread of blight, which not only affects the leaves, but, beginning from the tips of the branches, kills the half formed berries and in short order, the secondaries—a dead branch loaded with dead berries.

One of the oldest and hitherto most successful of Kona planters (whose beans have fetched the highest prices in Honolulu) in speaking to the writer said that the present pestilence was of a different form to that experienced in former years and he was quite despondent when pointing out ravages that seemed sporadic rather than infectious, for healthy trees and those jaundiced alternated in his plantation. His and other theories are that the soil becomes drained of nutriment and that the coffee tree needs fertilizing. He is testing the remedy he mentioned but it is too late to save this season's crop.

Professor Koehle was through Kona last week and said he could not speak definitely as to the remedy or antidote, but would give the matter the attention which its urgency required. As Mr. Marsden is said to have done, the bug-man is traveling on Shanks' pony.

Many of the wide awake coffeeists are hoping that the talked of Association may soon become a fact and wait only for a call from some one. Who will call a meeting of the Hawaiian Coffee Planters? The place of meeting needs careful consideration as, at present, these men are not at all wealthy and a distant place means expense, yet the capital is, perhaps, the most accessible to all—our waterways all lead to Honolulu.

Many people are planting coffee, and knowing nothing of the proper methods essential to success, would, by joining a business society, be brought in contact with older and experienced planters. A suggestion is that the embryo association employ an expert to advise, study and report on the coffee culture matters of its members, and as coffee is now a national question, the aid of Government might be looked for in fixing the salary of the prospective expert.

About fifty men, mostly Portuguese, are in the two gangs now engaged from Honolulu to the vicinity of lands of the Hawaiian Coffee and Tea Co., and are making creditable progress on the main road of North Kona.

It is said that G. Clark is the only bidder for the two sections of road soon to be constructed north of Kailua.

M. F. Scott has completed his embankment contract at Kailua Bay; finished last week.

Mr. Thruha is busy surveying lands cut up by the new roads of North and South Kona, and adjusting the compensation to owners.

E. McGeeney has charge of a large number of Hawaiian and Portuguese who are rapidly grading the new line of road from John Paris' house north to Dr. Lindley's. The wages are 75 cents per day and the few Japs get 60 cents.

The new road around and from Kealekua bay has been macadamized and the traffic of freight wagons renders it a fine highway. By the way, it may be cited as evidence of progress that wagons have, until the last year, been almost unknown, and the burro the local motive power. A wagon's wheel-mark is the mark of progress in more ways than one.

The S. S. Hall was late on her late up trip, the cause being hot bearings of main shaft. This mishap, discovered in the Molokai channel, made her lay to for two or three hours while alignments were being made.

The steamship people say that the amount of freight discharged at Napoosoo wharf is equal in volume to that landed at Kailua. It is owing to the rapid way in which land areas are being brought under cultivation in the large section tributary to it. There is no regular post office at Napoosoo just now, as the late incumbent is taking a "long rest" at the invitation of the P. M. General. Another man is trying to act as postmaster at Kealekua and Napoosoo as well, and as the places are five or six miles apart, the result is that people at the thriving port mentioned can buy stamps and have mail facilities but a short time before the mail leaves and the letters lay in no regular office. It is said P. M. Oat is to visit in four months, but the present jumble cannot continue very long. The place is important enough to have a regular money office and no delay need ensue.

J. C. Searl of Kau is clearing and planting from a fine nursery, twenty acres of coffee, and adjoining, at Kailua, O. Olson has built a house and began to put in five acres, and is taking out the guavas, root as well as branch, with a powerful stump puller of local manufacture.

Judge Wright and his brother have built charming villas on their mountain estate at Honanau and lately taken up quarters there.

The Government physician and Dr. Myers, of Honolulu, have examined some of the public schools of South Kona and in one case found the sanitary matters below par. At Napoosoo school eighty pupils were examined and the conditions pronounced excellent. Dr. Myers gave the principal warmest praise for matters schoolastic and sanitary and pronounced it a model school.

The earth did quake in Kona at about the same time as reported from other parts of Hawaii, viz: 4:40 a. m. the 13th. No damage was done.

Nahale, sheriff of North Kona, and two other officials are making an inquiry into alleged crookedness at Police headquarters. Hookena, a Chinaman—the chief of the wealthiest family in Kona—was arrested for having opium in possession and smoking, taken to the jail and charged. Having over $20 in his breeks he made a dickering with the local lictors and had his name erased from the charge book—for the aforesaid consideration. Another simon pure policeman immediately bagged the almond eyed one on the same or a similar charge and pake was fined $63. Paid by employer, Deputy Lyman came around a while ago and, having heard of the facts, communicated with Mr. Hitchcock, who instituted the inquiry. While the result is doubtful and stories cannot be proved yet all decent people say "things in South Kona police circles are rotten." And the echo says "they are."

Quite a number of Konaites are bragging that they will not fill in census schedules because they "think" some questions are given to see how the answers tally with tax returns and not knowing or caring to learn, that evil is to him only who imagines evil, say again that it is a dodge deeper laid than the Registration Act was. The actual wealth of a country can only be determined by a series of inquiries such as Superintendent Atkinson has asked for.

J. Marjis, an employee of Wichman was, on the evening of the 19th, married to Miss Camara, sister of the captain of Company C, the ceremony being performed by Rev. S. H. Davis at the Anglican church, Kealekua.

The hillsides are covered with blooming lantana and present a gorgeous picture; unfortunately the picture is a stern reality—to stockmen and cultivators.

MAIL SUMMARY.

Political—It was expected that the funeral of Joseph K. Nawahi, the Royalist leader who died at San Francisco, would be in the form of a demonstration by natives and others opposed to the present regime. It was not. It is doubtful if there was any thought to amount to anything of politics. The only feature of any contra significance whatever was the presence of a delegation from the Portuguese Union. This society has been a trifle "offish" for some time, but on all occasions declares loyalty to the Republic. The funeral procession included a platoon of police in full dress and the Government band. The flag at the garrison was at half-mast for the reason that deceased had at one time been the Minister of Foreign Affairs. Nearly 500 native women walked in the column, but not a third as many men. The hearse was drawn by members of one of the societies to which Mr. Nawahi had belonged. There was nothing said or done that would indicate any political feeling, except on the part of a few of the adherents of the Government. These critics had the bad taste to comment adversely on official recognition of and tribute to a man who had been so bitterly active against the new order. Their number was small.

Industrial—Veritable building booms, though the term boom is scarcely known or used here, continue in Honolulu and at Hilo. Many residences and business houses are in course of construction. There is a scarcity of carpenters and stone masons. The Government harbor and road work gives employment to a large number of men and further extensive public improvements are to be undertaken at once. The Honolulu Iron Works, the largest industrial establishment on the islands, has imported many men and is working overtime. Asiatic competition in the trades seems to have reached high water mark. The only labor now being brought to the country is Chinese. These coolies must continue on plantations or depart as their contract terms expire.

Sugar—The decline of raw sugar in the United States did not intervene till most of the Hawaiian crop for 1895-6 has been marketed. It is attributed solely to the political situation. For the campaign about to open the plantations throughout the islands more area of cane and im- is. The next crop will be at ever taken off. It is con- expected that next month will witness the launching of the Oahu plantation, near Honolulu. This is the project of B. F. Dillingham, who has enlisted German capital in the enterprise and who has local financial support as well. Oahu will have the heaviest acreage of any plantation in the country. All sugar stocks are firm, with advance, rather than weakening tendency.

Coffee—The first crop from the new Oloa district, on the island of Hawaii, will be harvested, or rather picked and marketed in the early weeks of next year. There is promise of an entirely satisfactory yield. New groves are being established constantly. There is nothing in the country appreciating as is coffee land.

Rice—Crops are fair, but there is still the complaint of competition from China, Japan and the United States. Improved machinery is not in use here in culture of rice and the ground rentals are excessive. Those interested, however, are determined to make the industry a success and are managing to protect themselves against loss.

Finances—Money locally is easy at lower rates of interest. The national treasury is in excellent condition. Salaries are paid promptly. Accounts against the Government run only sixty days and under the management of Minister Damon there are prospects for accumulating a surplus. The tax yield this year will be larger than ever before. There has been taken in Honolulu $350,000 of the million of five per cent bonds for public improvements. This is more than expected or required. The entire issue could be sold at home. So far Mr. P. C. Jones, who has gone abroad to place the 4 per cent refunding bonds, finds the approaching election in the United States a great obstacle to his work, though he confidently expects to succeed.

Fruit—Banana and pineapple growers continue to have good returns for their capital and labor. Pines canned here find ready sale in the United States. Heavy shipments are made direct to Chicago and the east. Editor Heintz, of the Rural Californian, has spent a week here and has urged islanders to undertake the culture of peaches and apples on the hillside. He also gave some very valuable suggestions for the fighting of blight, which now, however, has been put under control through scientific warfare under the direction of Professor Koehle and Commissioner Marsden. Educational—Under the new Bureau of Education, at the head of which is Minister Cooper, the public school system is being brought up to date rapidly. The agitation just now is to make the High School of Honolulu, where there is a small fee, an absolutely free school. The Kindergarten is receiving very earnest attention. There is a free system in Honolulu, besides a number of select institutions. It is now proposed to establish a free kindergarten at each plantation. This is a stupendous undertaking, but shows the determined intent to begin early with the youngsters of the land, regardless of nationality.

ARCTIC INVADERS.

Some curious details of life in the polar regions have been obtained from members of the Nansen expedition. They all dwell on the feelings of delight which they experienced in once more meeting other human beings. So tired did they become of seeing the same faces and hearing the same voices day after day in the course of the slow drift northward that in the end a feeling of irritation was produced. At times this irritability became well-nigh insupportable. Finding it almost impossible to endure the sight of one another they would set off on long walks over the ice, each man by himself. It was an astounding thing, one man said, to see his comrades striding away over the ice from the ship, each in a different direction, and carefully avoiding his fellows.

The campaign biographer in the United States has been exceptionally busy. A journal suggests that from the magnificent eulogies of all the candidates in the field the soothing inference may be drawn that the country will be reasonably safe no matter which is elected.

HE IS DOING WELL.

P. C. Jones, ex-Minister of Finance and one of Hawaii's representative business men and citizens is engaged abroad in a work for this country more difficult, delicate and important than any task yet imposed upon a commissioner sent from these shores. He has undertaken to float bonds refunding the entire public debt at four per cent interest, a very marked reduction. Mr. Jones has but very little leeway as to discount and commission. If he succeeds he will earn for the National Treasury several millions of dollars. Should he fail the country will be at no expense. He has had an offer in New York City—within three per cent of the limit placed. This is very nearly consummation. He believes he will accomplish the flotation and is not alone in that faith. When Mr. Jones essayed to carry out the conversion he knew that this was a presidential year with all the business uncertainty and unrest that the occasion brings. He could not foresee, however, that the issue was to be of the nature that it has developed into, directly touching finance. But he does not appear to be dismayed by failure of others in the same line or by the enforced and unprecedented timidity of capital. He is negotiating with determination and confidence and is receiving encouragement—abroad. Locally there is published such nonsense as the prediction that his "failure" will be a blow to Hawaii. Of course it will be nothing of the sort. Mr. Jones is fully equipped with data on the security and everywhere has been given the assurance that Hawaii's credit is better than ever. Should he "fail" the men who deal in money and who do business without personal or island political prejudice will know the reasons why. Their confidence in Hawaii will not be shaken and with the political turmoil in the United States reduced they will be the first to bid for the refunding bonds. The United States could not sell bonds at this time, though her low rate paper commanded a premium less than a year ago.

The man with wheels in his head often rides them to victory, for as has been before remarked, the crank of today is the oracle of tomorrow.

A wise saying: "They sell most who advertise most."

Timely Topics.

OCTOBER 1, 1896.

Most everyone dreads to think of the time when the rainy season will commence, as it always means additional housework. This is particularly the case when those whose homes are not in easy access of the Tram Car lines, which require a walk of a block or more in the mud.

It is more than probable that if the wishes of the majority of housewives were expressed they would declare war against wet weather; but it is one of the many needful things that we have to put up with, and, consequently, should make the best of a bad bargain and prepare accordingly.

Our indestructible Coiled Steel wire Mats (4x7) are just the thing for muddy boots as they take off every vestige of dirt and do not fill up or cake, as is the case with rope or grass mats.

Everyone is interested in the rainfall of a twelve or a twenty-four-hour shower, and our Rain Gauges can be relied upon as being accurate.

We have a large assortment of Hendrix Brass Bird Cages that are meeting with a ready sale and the prices for the three sizes range from $2.50 to $4.50. We have a nice line of Painted Cages that we are offering at from $1.25 to $2.

If you have not seen the Improved American Meat and Vegetable Chopper, it will pay you to do so. This little piece of mechanism will chop meats or vegetables any desired size. Its is automatic in its operation and cannot get out of order. It is one of the necessary utensils that go to make up a complete kitchen.

Sole Agents for the Hawaiian Islands

The building papers are 1, 2, 3, and 4 ply. They come in rolls, each roll containing 1000 square feet. They are water proof, acid and alkali proof and vermin proof. A house lined with building paper is far cooler than one that is not. There is also a cheaper grade of paper adapted for use under matting keeping out insects.

HONOLULU, July 29th, 1895.

Messrs. W. G. IRWIN & Co., LTD.

GENTLEMEN:—In reply to your inquiry as to how the Ideal Roof Paint you sold me lasted; I would say that I painted the roof of my house 13 months ago with your Red Ideal Roof Paint, and I find it is as fresh and bright in appearance today as when first applied; looking as well as others lately painted with other paints. I am more than satisfied.

J. G. ROTHWELL.

Have you a leaky gutter? If you have, make it perfectly clean and dry, apply a good coat of No. 3 P. and B. Paint over the leaky spots; then take a piece of stout Manila paper, or a piece of common cotton cloth, paint it well on both sides; lay it over the first coat, giving the whole a final coat, and there will be no more leak there. Or if the whole gutter is bad, make it clean and dry, and apply a paste of P. & B. Paint and Portland Cement

Ripans Tabules

Mr. L. A. Rocher is a farmer residing about three miles out of Colon, N. C. His home is somewhat in the back woods. In an interview with Mr. S. T. Godfrey, a correspondent of the Telegram and Sunday Times, Mr. Rocher on the 17th of June, 1895, said: "I am 61 years of age, and until I was nigh onto fifty years old, I was always well and hearty, then for a long while and until last February, I suffered with indigestion and could not eat anything hardly at all. My daughter, who lives in the city, sent me some of Ripans Tabules, told me how to take them, and they have completely cured me. My wife is now troubled with the same complaint, and has written daughter to send some more of Mr. Ripan's medicine. I want you to tell everybody how I got cured, for it is a blessing to humanity. (Signed) L. A. ROCHER.

Ripans Tabules are sold by druggists, or by mail if the price (50 cents a box) is sent to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce st, New York. Sample vial 10 cents.

Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest, safest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Hawaiian Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.

Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

ALL ABOUT CLUB ROWING

DISCUSSION AT A MEETING OF THE HEALANIS.

To Establish a Junior Branch—Down to a Scientific Basis—Equality of Boats a Live Question.

George R. Carter, the new captain of the Healanis Yacht and Boat club, called an informal meeting of the several crews to discuss various matters for the benefit of the club and the promotion of rowing. The meeting was held at the club house Friday evening.

A large part of the discussion was in relation to a junior branch. A short time ago the Myrtles started this scheme by admitting thirteen boys into the club free, or at least for a nominal consideration. Mr. Carter felt that the Healanis might well follow suit, except as to the fee. He did not believe any persons, whether experienced rowers or juniors, should be admitted without a fee. The principle of taking in boys who would soon furnish good material to pick from was sound and might be safely followed up, but only in a regular business way.

Another point to which the discussion drifted was the necessity for coachees. Mr. Carter reminded the oarsmen that rowing in this country was rapidly being reduced to a scientific basis, and the time when four picked-up men could win a race had passed. All the crews should be coached. The work should begin with the juniors when they first get into a boat and continued right on up to the best crew the club may be able to put out. The matter of admitting boys into the club was referred to the directors, to be brought up at the annual meeting next month.

A third point discussed was the constant complaint about the superiority of boats. Both the rowing clubs, several speakers thought, should order boats together and have them precisely alike in every particular. If this was not done the only other way to make the thing fair and square was to take out the sliding seats and outriggers, and exchange boats at each alternate race. It was mentioned that the Myrtles had ordered a shell of Alf Rodgers, a type of the last one built for the Olympic club. As this would doubtless be a superior boat to any now in possession of the clubs, the same trouble and discontent would be revived. A member thought it would be just as fair for the Healanis to order a paper shell from the east to meet the cedar boat from San Francisco.

The discussion on all these subjects will be continued and tangible plans will be prepared in time for presentation before the annual meeting of the directors.

NAPOLEON'S VALUE OF VICTORY.

It Finds a Striking Counterpart in Recent World Triumphs.

Napoleon knew well the value of a victory. After Austerlitz the world seemed his. Fame invited, fortune favored, everything stimulated his aspiring ambition. With growing power he gathered the fruits of victory. And so has it ever been. Success succeeds. A notable illustration of this truth is furnished by the great victories won at the World's Fair in '93 and the California Midwinter Fair in '94 by Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Ever increasing sales and popularity have been the result. The people have promptly ratified the official verdicts that declared Dr. Price's, for leavening power, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the "foremost baking powder in all the world." Quite as quickly as the great Emperor do they know the value of a victory that means world-wide supremacy.

Smith, who held his head very much to one side and had a bandage about his neck, deposited a coin in the hand of the celebrated clairvoyant and spiritual medium.

"I wish," he said, "you would call up Job and ask him what he would do if he had a big boil coming on the back of his neck."

Mr. Billings took up his cup of what the landlady called coffee, tasted it, sniffed at it and set it down.

"Have you anything to say against the coffee, Mr. Billings?" asked the landlady.

"No, ma'am," answered Billings, "I never speak ill of the absent."

Merit Talks

"Merit talks" the intrinsic value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses actual and unequalled curative power and therefore it has true merit. When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, and take it according to directions, to purify your blood, or cure any of the many blood diseases, you are morally certain to receive benefit. The power to cure is there. You are not trying an experiment. It will make your blood pure, rich and nourishing, and thus drive out the germs of disease, strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia

"I suffered from dyspepsia 20 years. I had a feeling as though there was a lump in my stomach. I did not dare to eat meat or warm bread, very few vegetables, for fear of the great distress food caused me. I experienced relief right after commencing to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. My appetite increased, I gained in general health and strength. I can eat almost anything now without discomfort. Although I had been an invalid for twenty years, I can truthfully say that I am better than for a long time. I never weighed so much in my life." Mrs. EMILY F. # WITH THE FIRST REGIMENT

NEW KAKAOKO RANGE NOW OPEN TO MARKSMEN.

A Match This Afternoon—D and the Police—Military Opera House—Election in A—Encampment.

Minister Cooper inspected the new range at Kakaako this morning and approved it. The match this afternoon will be shot over it, and the targets will be opened to all the companies. Though the cost has been more than was anticipated at the outset the regiment now has one of the most complete shooting ranges to be found west of the Mississippi. Each company has its own room, commodious and well equipped. Eight men may shoot at once from each shed. There are sixteen targets and a like number of reliable markers have been engaged. The latter feature is one all the men will at once appreciate. All shooting will be upon regulations and perfect order will be maintained. Sergt. Elvin will have complete charge of everything, and must be respected and obeyed as officer of the range. Every effort will be used to make the range attractive and to get the best results out of target practice.

Seats for "Ole Olson" were moved into the armory and arranged this morning. Janitor Lang did a great deal of the latter. The play will be put on at 8 o'clock this evening under the auspices of Company B. It will be for the benefit of Bob Scott.

Corporal Schmeden, a veteran and a popular young man, is a candidate for the second lieutenant of Company A, against Corp. Klemme.

Zerbe cannot shoot in the D team against the police this afternoon on account of important work at the custom house. John Conkley or "Chip" Charlock will be substituted.

Major McLeod's objection to the battalion encampment idea is that it is too near the rainy season. Col. Soper says he can readily see advantages of the scheme, but would have to consider the disadvantages or objections before committing himself to it.

Ed Stone, the private of F Company who was court martialed yesterday for breaking liberty, left the barracks a few weeks ago and was gone three days. The matter was passed over. He is now charged with being out twenty-four hours a later day. Stone is an Hawaiian.

"While down in the southwestern part of the state some time ago," says Mr. W. Chalmers, editor of the Chico (Cal.) Enterprise, "I had an attack of dysentery. Having heard of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I bought a bottle. A couple of doses of it completely cured me. Now I am a champion of that remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson Smith & Co., agents for H. I.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC WOMAN

TELLS HOW PINK PILLS BENEFITED HER AT A CRITICAL TIME.

She Believes Them to be a Boon to All Women, and Unfailing as a Tonic to Build Up the System.

From the Standard, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Mrs. Mary Emma Dewey, the wife of Mr. James Dewey, of 163 State street, Brooklyn, N. Y., is another who has become enthusiastic about the curative powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The lady now looks the picture of health, and she attributes her splendid condition to regular doses of Pink Pills, taken at a critical time. In speaking with a reporter about her case, Mrs. Dewey said:

"A traveling salesman, who met my husband accidentally, was responsible for the introduction of the pills into our home. I was pregnant at the time and was suffering from loss of appetite, loss of sleep, and general wretchedness. I started in taking the pills according to the directions, three times a day. In less than a week I found that I could eat and sleep like a perfectly healthy woman. But, of course, I continued to take the pills regularly until the birth of my child, which occurred early in October.

"The baby (girl) was born a perfectly healthy child, and from what I have heard, I had a much easier time than most women who become mothers for the first time. After my confinement I continued to take the pills, because I felt that they were the best tonic I could find to build up my constitution, which at no time had been very robust. I reduced the doses from three to two, and the renewed strength from this source enabled me to nurse my baby.

"As the pills have proven such a comfort to me, I am glad to recommend them to everybody, and to women especially. One sister and two cousins took them in the beginning of the Autumn, instead of any other fall medicine. They, too, found that no tonic ever did so much to give them an appetite and the strength which seems to leave one as the seasons change. All three of these young women are now as enthusiastic as I am, and all three declare they will always stand by the pills in the spring and fall of each year.

"If these Pink Pills benefit women in a delicate condition, what a boon they ought to be to our sex. I cannot understand why they are not found in every household in the land, and in other lands, too, for that matter. Women have been looking for a universal remedy for their peculiar ills, and I, for one, believe they can find it in Pink Pills.

"Understand, I never took any other medicine, and the rapid benefits which I derived from the Pink Pills, I attribute to a total abstinence of the deadly sort of drugs which abound in these days. The women who have dosed themselves for years with this and that, and the other, may not find instant relief after trying the Pink Pills, but a few boxes will surely bring about a change in any constitution."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially valuable to women. They build up the blood, restore the nerves, and eradicate those troubles which makes the lives of so many women, old and young, a burden. Dizziness, palpitation of the heart, nervous headache, and nervous prostration speedily yield to this wonderful medicine.

Pink Pills are put in glass vials, both outside wrapper and vial bearing the full name and trade mark: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." These pills are sold by the Hollister Drug Co., and the Hobson Drug Co., wholesale agents for Hawaii, and all dealers in medicine.

Knowing Ones

Knowing ones invariably call for Pabst Milwaukee instead of merely asking for Milwaukee beer. Anyone desirous of ascertaining what Pabst Milwaukee Draught Beer is, can do so by calling at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, where it will be served to them cold and sparkling and at the same price as other beers.

Dog Collars and Padlocks ever offered here. In one lot we had over SIXTY DOZEN, of all sizes and kinds. We can fit the largest watch dog or the smallest Japanese pug.

Those friends who have asked so many times for Razor Strops will be glad to know that we have just received a new supply of the celebrated Reppenhagen Razor Strops. We have several other kinds, all good. Our assortment of Razors is full, having just received a new lot.

We receive fresh Ammunition every month, and can supply all kinds needed. Rifles, Shot Guns and Revolvers always on hand.

That new lot of Score Books has just arrived. Also a fresh lot of Cottage Paints, Enamel Paints, Varnishes, Oils and Brushes of all kinds.

We have sold thousands of feet of Rubber Garden Hose lately and expect soon another large lot running from 1/2 inch to 12 inches. Also steam hose. The demand for Galvanized Water Pipe is constant and we keep on hand all sizes from 1/2 inch to 2 inches and sell it cheap.

THE CAMPAIGN CLUB.

E. PLURIBUS CLAY OF VIRGINNY FIRES THE FIRST GUN.

His Blood Runs Cold as He Gazes Over the Barbed Wire Fence That Separates the Present From the Future—The Issues of the Campaign Outlined.

"My friends," said Brother Gardner, when the Campaign Club had been called to order and a couple of herring boxes chucked into the stove to bring the temperature of the hall up to the boiling point, "we have congregated ourselves here this evening to listen to a political address by de Hon. E. Pluribus Clay of Virginia. Mistah Clay is a good man, a scholar, an orator, and has distinguished himself by being the only candidate to a national convention who was offered $10,000 in cash for his vote. He didn't take it, of course. De 200 acres of land he bought on his return home from that convention was paid for with money he found on the street in Chicago. De committee will now escort him into de hall, an doorin his performance I want de silentest sort of silence from all members."

The stranger's appearance on the platform was greeted with applause. He was a tall, dignified man, with feet having a good hold of the earth, and it was easy to see that he was perfectly at home before the public. He shook hands with Brother Gardner and Sir Isaac Walpole, helped himself to a glass of water and then removed his cuffs and pushed up his sleeves.

"Citizens of de United States," quietly began the speaker as he stepped to the front, "why dis turmoil? Why dis excitement? Why dis gathering of men on de street corners to talk wid bated breath an call each other bigots an liars? De answer am at hand—de wheel of time has rolled around another presidential campaign, an de sap of pollyticks am beginnin to rise in men's breasts. Dar was a time, an not so very long ago, when yo' had nuffin to say an nuffin to do wid de issues of a campaign, but it may be in yo'r hands dis fall to decide de fate of dis great nashun. [Cheers.] Am yo' ready for de comin struggle? [Yes, yes!] It am gwine to be such a struggle as once shook de walls of Rome an made de Tiber run red wid de blood of 10,000 men! [Refrain for de Tiber!]"

De struggle will call for patriotism an sacrifice, an it will end up only when vanchev, truth an innocence stand triumphant on de battlements of integrity. "Patriots of a glorious republic," continued E. Pluribus after moistening his throat, "de general situation which we must confront is one to appall de stoutest heart. As I stand here befo' yo' an gaze ober de barbed wire fence dat separates de present from de fucher my blood runs cold. [Shivers all over the hall.] It am a picture to make me groan in despair. [Groans and sighs.] On dis side of de fence am innocence, clothed in her white robe an peacefully plantin her cucumber patch. On de oder am vice, draped in de deepest black an grindin his sword to a razor edge. [Cheers for virtue and vice.] Will innocence drop dem cucumber seeds befo' it am too late an arm herself wid a razor, or will she be taken unprepared an swept away as chaff befo' de terrible cyclone dat leaves only death an destruction behind? [Cheers for chaff, innocence and cyclones.] Once let dat vice get a swipe at dat innocence wid his long, keen sword, an what will be de result? De bulwarks of American liberty will come tumblin down wid a crash, which will echo from nashun to nashun till it has been heard around de hull world. [Cheers for crashes and bulwarks.] Anarchy will reign, midnight darkness will settle down upon dis fair land, an such a cry of horror will go up dat de stars will pale an fade away an de moon no longer show her face."

"I speak to Brutus, Cassar an Cassius," said the orator, after he had got some more breath to work on. "I appeal to patriotism, honesty an love of kentry. [Several cheers for Brutus and one whoop for Cassar.] It depends on you to save dis kentry from wreck, ruin an despair. Will you do it? [Cries of "You bet!"] It rejoices my heart to hear yo' say so. Now I feel dat innocence will be saved an vice laid low. De campaign has not opened yet, but yo' kin hear de tread of de mighty armies as dey gather fur battle. Gird up yo'r loins. [More or less girding.] Git ready. Fatch out dem swords dat was red-dened at Lexington, hunt up dat musket dat defended Bunker Hill, put on dat cocked hat which carried dismay to our enemies at Yorktown. [Cheers for cocked hats.] Yo' kin save America if yo' will, an in savin her yo'r names shall thunder down de lanes an byroads of time till time shall git tired of its job an go out of business. [Cheers for time.]

"Let me warn yo'," said the orator after a rest, "to be watchful an vigilant. From de time de sun rises on his campaign till it goes down on a howlin victory, don't go to bed a single night. If yo' sleep de enemy may be upon yo'."

"Believe nuffin but about yo'r own candytate—believe de wad about all others. 'Post yo'selves on de issues at stake, so dat yo' kin tell an inquirin man whether dis am a struggle to preserve de life of a glorious republic or only an attempt to bring de price of taters down to a dollar a bar'l."

"Our candidate will be a man who has done nuffin all his life but tell de truth, help de pore, make happiness for de widder an find stiddy work fur de orphans. All other candidates kin be set down as boss thieves an highway robbers. "Be wakeful. Be watchful. Be ready at all times. De campaign will open wid bombshells an close wid grapeshot. Each an every patriot must be right dar on de front line. Sacrifice! Fight! Dash for'd an wrest victory from de foe seekin de downfall an destruction of all yo' hold dear, includin possums an watermillions, an yo'r cognomens shall blaze on de tablets of memory when Hannibal an Nero hev bin forgotten fur a thousand y'ars. [Cheers for Hannibal, Nero, watermillions and the speaker, all mixed up in confusion, during which E. Pluribus Clay made his bow and retired.] M. QUAD.

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment and bound on over the seat of pain, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by all druggists and dealers. ### CAMPBELL'S NEW BUILDING.

James Campbell has given the matter of his new business block, to extend from Wichman's on Fort street to the King street corner, over to the architects. Instructions were received yesterday by the latter and work on the plans has already begun. It is not unlikely that the building will be started about the first of the year.

ALUMINUM FOR ARMY UTENSILS.

After an exhaustive series of tests, the Minister of War in France has decided that aluminum is the best material for army utensils. All the camp equipments in the French army will be replaced by those made of aluminum. The cost will be enormous, and the change would use up all the aluminum in sight if it were made at once. For this reason the new material will be used in the equipments of only two army corps at first. Gradually one corps after another will be supplied until the whole army shall be equipped. Aluminum equipments were used in the Madagascar campaign and stood the test splendidly. Besides being very light, they showed no signs of wear, and are easily cleaned.

SHERIFF OF KAUI.

Ex-Sheriff S. W. Wilcox of Kauai arrived in the city this morning, having turned his office over to his successor, L. M. Baldwin. Mr. Wilcox served as sheriff of Kauai twenty-four years, and as deputy sheriff two years, twenty-six years in all. He has always been considered one of the bravest and most efficient executive officers of the Government.

SUPPOSED TO BE FUNNY.

(Mavericked.)

Ethel—Will brought the engagement ring last night.

Emma—Why, where is it?

"Oh, it was too large. He's having it made smaller."

"I didn't know your fingers were so much smaller than mine."

"I thought you were never going to speak to Harold again as long as you lived," said one girl.

"I know I said so," replied the other. "It wasn't my fault that I broke the resolution."

"How did it happen?"

"He called me up over the telephone."

LOUVRE SALOON.

Although but a short period has elapsed since Mr. Klemme embarked in the saloon business at the Louvre, it is by no means his first experience in this line of business. It is, therefore, no wonder that he has been able to establish such a large patronage. This has steadily increased and now the popularity of his house is an assured fact. Mr. Klemme has a natural ability to make and hold friends and his co-workers are about as well known as it is possible to become. The stock of beers, liquors and wines sold in this house is the very best.
