SUPERVISORS MEET TWICE IN ONE DAY

Reports and Communications Are Presented and a Mass of Warrants Approved.

Oahu supervisors at the meeting held in the board rooms yesterday after-Clerk Kalauokalani read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved. The Committee on Public Expenditures had not been able to get hold of all the vouchers to examine them, so its report was deferred, as was that of the Committee on Ways and Means.

The subject of the relocation of the Kipapa and Waikakalaua road was brought up, it appearing that the road was unfinished and without a fence. Portions of a communication from Superintendent of Public Works Holloway were read.

Mr. Low of the Ewa and Walanae road board was present and, being yard to Beretania, 1000 ft.; School desire to enter into an agreement with tised brings them, and they will be the called on by the chair, stated that the was constructed at a cost of about $14,000, half of which came from the loan fund and half from the general roads and bridges fund. The road was started by the Public Works department of the territory and later turned over to the Ewa road board. The road, he said, was in a miserable condition and no four or five thousand dollars would put it into first-class shape. Many people still used the old route. The road board had not been notified that there had been an agree. ment made with the Ii estate to trade the old 100-foot roadway for the new 50-foot right of way.

Lucas stated that it would be necessary to have a fence put up necessary 16,000 feet of fence be put up at a cost not to exceed $800.

Settlers to Get 800 Acting Gov. Atkinson Is Acres Leased to Hutchinson.

"I have heard from the settlers," said Land Commissioner Pratt yesterday, "and I have written them today six months before this can be done. The surveyors are busy on lands around Honolulu, and will be on that work for some time. After that is to cut up the Kau lands.

"There are about 800 acres of this cane land of Hutchinson plantation that has come into the market through the plantation people went to Commissioner Pratt to renew their leases, they found that a Settlement Association, consisting of Senator Hewitt, Dr. Thompson, Mrs. Ben Taylor, Mr. Hayselden and others had made application for the land. Cooper, of the firm of Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, representing the Hutchinson people, was sent to Kau to confer with the settlers and, if possible, to arrive at an agreement with them. Mr. Cooper came back on the Mauna Loa yesterday."

"I had a meeting with a majority of the settlers on Saturday afternoon," Mr. Cooper said last night, "and while nothing was decided upon finally, a good start toward reaching an agreement was made. The settlers, in the absence of Dr. Thompson at Los Angeles, would not bind themselves down to the acceptance of any particular form of contract, but they stated in general terms that the same contracts as those the Japanese have would suit them and that would be satisfactory to the corporation. Thompson will be back in September, I think, and matters will then be concluded."

"I saw Mr. Cooper," said Land Commissioner Pratt, "and what is said there is in substance about what he said to me. As I have said, the settlers wrote me a letter concerning the matter, and I have written them today saying that I have ordered a survey made of the lands. This will be done as soon as the lands we are now working on near Honolulu are out of the way."

The lands near Honolulu that the Commissioner referred to are the Alewa tract, of 175 acres, and the lands in Makiki. The Alewa tract is on the Ewa side of Nuuanu valley, above Judd street. About eighty per cent of it is said to be fit for agricultural purposes. In the Makiki tract there are about 850 acres, some 60 or 70 per cent of which is good land. Both these tracts will be cut up into lots of from

Enlisted for the Campaign,

War has been declared upon the large and offensive billboard by Acting Governor Atkinson. And, as he will have the backing in this of all lovers of the beautiful, both in nature and art, it will be a war that will win.

"The beauty of these islands is the choicest possession that we have," said that the lands will be surveyed and Mr. Atkinson, speaking of the matter subdivided. But it will be at least yesterday. "Nature has been most bountiful to Hawaii, in this regard. And it devolves upon us to save this heritage, to enjoy it ourselves and to preserve it for posterity. I have been finished, they will go down and begin offended by these unsightly signs that have made their appearance in various parts of the town, breaking out like the ugly blotches of some villainous humor of the land's blood, and there quarry for the month of August, as the expiration of the leases. When have been others offended. In fact, to my knowledge a number of well-known ladies in town have given orders to their grocers that none of the products so offensively advertised shall be delivered to them."

> It is the right idea, too, because tacked. The particular billboard that "It was a plan that bade fair to be- has enabled the governor to reach this come the entering wedge of a new sys- evil is one that is being put up at the after mature deliberation it was said fronting Thomas square. This billboard is being built for Chas. Frazier. who owns all the billboards in town, Mr. Magoon claims title. The Kapio. lani street frontage of the block between Young and King streets is supposed to belong to Magoon, Lightfoot, Kellett and others. However there is also a government claim to the land, and it is because of this claim that the governor has been enabled to reach this particular billboard.

"That is a part of what is known as grant 37," said the Acting Governor yesterday. "I have just had a consultation with Land Commissioner Pratt about it. It is a part of the old Hudson Bay grant. The courts have decided that all grants not proved up shall lapse to the government, and in this particular instance the grant line runs ten feet back on Young street from Kapiolani, thence diagonally across the lots until it strikes King street when the point is about thirty-seven feet, I believe, back from the junction of King and Kapiolani streets.

"Now, it is not the policy of the government to disturb land titles, but so sure as that biliboard is not torn strip on the part of the territory. It will make a very pretty little park. And I shall so notify Mr. Frazier, and the men who think that they own that property. It will be a hardship to take their frontage from them, but it is a public hardship to have the street disfigured by unsightly billboards."

The Acting Governor did send for Mr. Frazier, too, and there was an ex. tended conference over the matter. At statement: "Mr. Frazier has shown a disposition to meet any reasonable proposition upon the matter. He tells me that he will have a consultation with Mr. Magoon, in order to see what can be done."

"I am the owner of all the billboards in this town," said Mr. Frazier, after he had had his talk with the governor. 'Nobodywould rejoice more to see them all taken away than I would. I am a member of the Bill Posters' Association, and I have done more to keep billboards out of this town than any other man in it. But, if I did not put up the billboards, somebody else would-and they would be more offensive than mine."

Which is an oblique form of justification capable of several widely diverse interpretations. However, the larations against big billboards and offensive signs after his conference with Mr. Frazier than he had been before. One, in particular, a particularly atrocious one, that disfigures an otherwise surpassingly beautiful landscape out Waikiki way, came in for unsparlikely that some steps will be taken in the near future to have this one re-

By the way, the Civic Federation talked of taking up this billboard evil some time ago, but nothing seems to have come of it so far. It is most gratifying, however, to know that the women are interesting themselves ac tively in the matter.

"The band will sail for Portland on the Mongolia on the 8th of this month, if the band boys are willing to go,' said Kapellmeister Berger last night. "It rests with them. They were willing to make the trip a little time ago, when the negotiations were pending, but that all fell through. I shall not coerce them now. The proposition will be submitted to them this morning, and if they are willing, the trip goes.

But I am not going upon that alone. Some time ago, after the plan as first proached, fell through, the Portland Exposition people cabled that they would be willing to pay the entire cost of transportation rather than not have the band. That is what I am going on, the word of the Portland people.

"The whole trouble has arisen be cause of the action of the Promotion Committee. The committee agreed, in the first place, to arrange for transportation to San Francisco and return, and the Exposition people were to take us from there. The Promotion Committee wanted to do their part as cheaply as possible, and so asked for transportation on a transport. That was granted, too, but there was no transport in August. The Portland people, being told of this, said they did not want us in September. They wanted us in August.

"Then the Promotion Committee threw up the whole thing. But the Portland the islands that pays. DREDGING HABBOR

"I don't know whether it would be of dredging the harbor of Honolulu," said United States District Attorney Breckons yesterday.

The matter has been brought up now, it is said, by a communication from the Trades and Labor Council to President Roosevelt concerning the employment of aliens on government work in Honolulu. A reply was received at once, asking for further information, and a report will go forward to Washington by the next mall showing not only the number of aliens now employed on public works, but also an estimate of how much money will be diverted to aliens should their employment on the harbor work be permitted. The new harbor work, it is estibor, for which the contractors will receive 24.87 cents per cubic yard.

There are more people on the mainland interested in Hawaii than the people here have an appreciation of, perhaps. Samples of island coffee, island tobacco and other products could be sent easily enough, and it might even be possible to send pineapples and samples of vanilla and even bananas, if favorable shipping arrangements could be made. At all events, the chance is worth trying-and the products that could be sent without any trouble at all would be well worth while. Honolulu, August 1, 1905. D. Kalauokalani, Jr., Esq., County Clerk, County of Oahu, Ex officio Clerk Bd. of Supervisors.

Dear Sir:-In pursuance of instructions passed by the board at its meeting of July hours a day while at the police depart-18, I have to inform you that garnishee summons has been served upon me in the following cases: M. Kealekai vs. S. O. Kawainui, bandsman, $9.43. James K. Merseburg vs. Francis

Barney Joy, police officer, $26.00. Respectfully yours, JAS. BICKNELL. Auditor, County of Oahu.

An invitation from the fire department for the supervisors to attend a tower exhibition drill Thursday, August 3, at 1 p. m., was accepted.

A communication from the superinterdent of public works calling attention to certain needs of the park board in the way of tools and repairs was referred to the parks committee.

A communication from C. S. Holloway, territorial superintendent of public works, was read, stating that he was taking up the matter of the Rapid Transit Kahauiki extension with the attorney general, and would determine the responsibility of the company as to the repairing of the road necessi.

tated by the laying of the tracks. A communication was read from the Chinese consul, thanking the board for the services of the band in connection with the celebration of the birthday of the Emperor of China. Adams introduced a resolution amending the rules dividing the comthe premises, No. 913 Alder street, be- mittee on Roads, Bridges, Parks and Public Improvements into two committees styled (1) Committee on Roads,

Bridges and Parks and (2) Committee on Public Improvements and Electric Lights. The resolution was unanimously adopted. Lucas moved that a committee be appointed to investigate certain charges against an employee of the road department at Koolauloa. The chair appointed Lucas and Paele. The chair also appointed Moore and Cox as the Committee on Public Improvements and Electric Lights. A recess was then taken until 7:30 p. m.

A subcommittee reported vouchers for supplies and expenditures amounting to $840.84. Hawaiian band for July amounting to $1250 were approved. A bunch of vouchers turned in by various firms for materials purchased by the heads of the various departments for immediate use were brought up for approval, but on Adams' recommendation they were referred to committees to be looked over, as some of the vouchers were approved by the proper officials and some were not.

A bill for $59.98 for repairs and materials for the Fire Alarm System was approved. Sam Johnson stated that he would need an appropriation of $10,600 to carry on the work in his department for August. This was an increase of nearly $2000 over last month. > ent as they were not having any work This matter was discussed at some and furthermore the Territory was not standing any of the expense at pres-

length by the Supervisors. Lucas thought that if there was an increase anywhere the salaries of the Fire Department should be raised. He said that the firemen were getting $55 a month and working twenty-four ment men were getting $75 a month and working eight hours a day. He quoted Chief Thurston as saying that he could not keep men at that meage? salary. His force was constantly changing as men would merely work there until they could get something better, and consequently the efficiency what it would be if the men were paid a little more and kept satisfied. Chairman Smith thought the Fire Department should be one of the best paid departments, but he thought it would be well to wait until they had all their estimates from every department, and this view was concurred in by Adams. Lucas made a motion that $10,600 be appropriated for the Road Department. After more discussion he amended his motion to appropriate $8000, but the supervisors decided to let the matter lay over a while longer. On account of this Johnson will begin laying off men this morning until he knows definitely how much he will

An application was received from Kailimai for the position of keeper of Aala Park at a salary of $40 per month. Supervisor Paele proposed that one, Palau, be given the position, but his motion was lost for want of a second. W. H. Kailimai was accordingly appointed keeper at the aforestated sal-

No further business coming up, the supervisors adjourned until 2:30 p. m.

THE WEATHER REPORT

The meteorological summary for the month shows an average maximum temperature for July of 81.4 degrees, Fahrenheit, and an average minimum of 71.7 degrees. The mean average for the month was 76.6. The highest point reached by the mercury during the month was 84 degrees, and that on only four days in the month. THE CZAR AND RUSSIA.

WEDNESDAY

Those who have watched the revolutionary movement in Russia are perhaps most impressed by the plastic indifference of the Czar. For a short time he would be in the hands of the liberals, accepting in his languid way whatever measures they might propose; next in the hands of the priesthood, unwilling to bother himself about the effect or direction of churchly wiles | Most of the crews availed themselves and stratagems and anon under control of the great military party, agree- of their leave by sleeping. On observable, so long as his repose was not invaded, to the most drastic measures of repression. And in the midst of it all he was not unlikely to receive delegations of workingmen from the barricades, and, to get rid of them gracefully and avoid being bored, promise the most enlightened reforms. This characteristic of the feeble Czar-upon which former Ambassador Andrew D. White dwells in his autobiography-is responsible for the topsy-turvy course of the Russian government in dealing with the national revolt and probably accounts for the desire of the military party to pull down the present Emperor and put his baby son on the throne under the regency of one of the Grand Dukes. A really great and just Czar, a man like the Kaiser of Germany, could save the Russian throne, for there is still, deep-seated in the Russian heart, a love of the old ways of government and of an Emperor who will be a father to his people. But even the inborn loyalty of the mujik is not proof against the criminal indifference and vacillation at Tsarskoe-Selo, from which the poor man personally suffers and which has plunged the common country into one difficulty or embarrassment after another. Into the blurred brain of the mujik as into that of the French peasant before the days of the Terror, has crept some realization of the need of a just and intelligent ruler who will work to make the lot of his people better, who will check corruption and petty tyranny and who will persevere in the great reforms in church and state which even the dullest yearns for. It is hard to find a man like that in the breed of Romanoff-a weakling Czar and a group of thievish Grand Dukes squandering the money they have filehed at home in all the evil haunts of Europe-not a man of kingly heart in all the glittering company. But one of the true fiber might yet save the dynasty and the people; yet the only choice seems to be that between the dragoon and the visionary.

Out of similar conditions elsewhere in Europe has emerged the tribune of the people or the man-on-horseback. Surely among 120,000,000 there may be many a latent Cromwell or Napoleon, and there must be many a man fit for Russia's emergencies. It is nearly time for him to appear; and when he comes some of the most far reaching political changes the world ever saw may follow him,

SIGNBOARD DEFACEMENT.

The signboard nuisance is steadily encroaching upon the beauty of the town and its suburbs and unless it shall be checked Honolulu will suffer in all in vain. They forcibly conveyed the estimation of travelers and in its own self-respect. Unfortunately law is on the side of this disfigurement of private property, but the government is able and willing to keep public property free from the sign outrage. It is a question, perhaps, whether the business of erecting street and vacant lot officer, and, failing to discover him. signs could not be subjected to high license, but just now, with the Legislature out of being, that recourse is beyond reach.

A private method remains which, we hear, is being tried by several families in town and which is bound to win if enough of the purchasing publie join in it. A wealthy housewife said the other day, "I have instructed my grocer not to send me any of the goods which are advertised on fences and one of the prisoners' quarters in this the sides of buildings." Any general boycott of this kind could not fail, unless it was openly organized in a way to conflict with the law, it being quite within the right of a household to buy any commodity or refrain from buying it, according to its pleasure.

A wholesome loyalty to Honolulu and its interests may well direct itself against anything which is likely to cheapen or degrade the appearance of this tropical paradise. Good scenery is part of the city's stock in trade; it is even a part of the education in things seemly of its youth; it helps to make life more tolerable for everyone. A man who would go into any city and smut the face of its monuments or obliterate the fine things in its architecture, would have hard work to escape the mea; and why should anyone feel that he has the right to deface the beauties which nature has bestowed upon a city and affront the eye that seeks solace in charming vistas with the staring yellows of a patent medicine ad., or of some new food "in seventy-five varieties."

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR NEEDED.

Under the remarkable system which obtains in our courts, Clerk Kellett was permitted, when given estates to administer, to file his own bond with himself. Naturally, when he forfeited the bond, he stole it and with it all the safeguards which the court had put around him. Nothing is easier under such conditions than to rob the estate of a dead man. It ought, under a wise administration of justice, to be one of the most difficult of crimes.

A result of the Kellett case should be the creation of the office of Public Administrator. One good man, under large bonds, should have sole charge, under the jurisdiction of the courts, of the estates of people who die intestate. Such duties here have long been turned over to court clerks, usually drawn from the most irresponsible class, as gratuities or "plums." Kellett's betrayal of such a trust is not the first of the kind by any means, but the next Legislature ought to see that the system which gave him a chance to plunder is not perpetuated.

THE DREDGING MONEY.

The Advertiser hopes that nothing will be left undone to legally prevent aliens from doing any part of the labor required in the dredging of Honolulu

The dredging outlay has, as a subsidiary object, the reimbursement of Hawaii for a part of its losses of revenue to the United States government. | cos, Percales, Ginghams, Batistes, Pi-It was one of the arguments for the appropriation that the Federal power, having taken away a lot of money which formerly came to us should put some of it back. The money is coming, but how much of it will stay here all of which have been marked at if most of the wage money goes to Japan and the contract profits to San prices that will close them out with a Francisco?

As to the law in the case that is a matter for the United States District Attorney to report upon. We indulge the hope that it will not stand in the way of citizens of Hawaii getting the full benefit of the wage disbursement.

Oahu should not be satisfied with a mere regimental post here. The LADIES' LINEN HANDKER ebject to work for at Washington is an acclimation camp for all arms of the service, say 5000 men. The United States is sending troops from cold climates directly to the Philippines and may have to despatch them, at any time, to Panama or countries further south. Efficiency would be promoted by sending men inured to the tropics. Oahu is healthy as well as warm, is well on the route to the Philippines and is nearer the west coast of Central and South America than are most of the military posts from which, under the 25c., reduced to 5c. each. present system, troops intended for service there would be sent. An acclimation camp of 5000 men on Oahu would be immensely useful to the United States in time of need and enormously profitable to Honolulu at all times.

Miss Tarbell's magazine article about John D. Rockefeller, his father ducer to 25c. each. and his son, branded the family as a Junius letter might have seared some unworthy magnate of the London bourse. The effect was to plunge the aged plutocrat into melancholy, arouse the fighting spirit of his family along the line of libel suits, create a new sympathy for the Rockefellers, induce a princely and propitiatory gift to education and place Miss Tarbell in the duced to 50c. each.

Linen Lace, Hemstitched and Emdid through Everybody's and Miss Tarbell has done through McClure's, the punitive function of the daily press seems to have been sharply infringed upon. It is the magazine that does things now, Speaking of Supt. Holloway's purpose to buy flags for schoolhouses, it may be well to recall the press telegram of a few months ago that the War Department had been authorized to turn over to the Territories a certain number of standard flags for school purposes. Inquiry at Washington regarding the matter might save expense here.

EQUANIMITY OF OUR SAILORS. Between the departure of our fleet from a certain base and the commencement of the Naval Battle of the 27th May, there was an interval of a few hours,during which time the bluejackets were allowed to take a recess. ing this an officer, second-in command of a certain battleship, expressed his admiration at the equanimity displayed

GALLANTRY OF AN OFFICER.

A gun lieutenant in another battle. ship during the battle refrained from entering the gun turret because from that place he was unable to clearly observe the enemy. He, however, remained near a mast and from that position directed his gunners. The latter repeatedly asked him to seek safety within the turret, but this he refused to do. Similar gallantry is said to have been observed on board several other vessels on the Japanese side.

A RUSSIAN HIROSE.

Among the Russian officers and men who participated in the naval battle in the Sea of Japan, there are some who have earned fame worthy of warriors. In particular, Captain Rojonoff, Commander of the Admiral Nakhimoff, may be compared to the immortal Com. mander Hirose of our Navy. The Nakhimoff, as stated in our official report, was severely attacked by our main force and torpedo boats and de. stroyers during the day and night of the 27th and totally disabled. When she was about to sink in the vicinity of Tsushima at dawn on the 28th, the commander of the vessel ordered her crew to land at the eastern coast of Tsushima, and after disposing of all the secret papers, being assisted in this task by the chief navigating officer. he calmly changed his clothes; and was ready to share the fate of the vessel. Our commissioners appointed to capture the vessel tried to persuade him to come to the Japanese vessel, but him to the side of a boat, but by this time the vessel had heavily listed, and her end was drawing near. The captain looked for the chief navigating rushed into the vessel and sank with her. Our commissioners were deeply touched by the gallantry of this Russian officer. Fortunately he and the navigating officer were afterwards saved by a fishing boat and are now at

COMMANDER KAMAYA.

The Sado Maru, which was almost sunk by the Vladivostok squadron in its raid to the Tsushima Straits in June, last year, acted as special service ship during the recent battle. On the afternoon of the 28th, she saved the officer second in command of the Vladimir Monomach and other Rus. sians, who were drifting in the sea in the vicinity of Karasaki, Tsushima. The same afternoon she buried with due honors a Russian stoker who had succumbed to his wounds. She then endeavored to tow the Monomach, The latter, however, was hopelessly damaged. At 2:30 p. m. a tremendous explosion occurred in the vessel, and her bows began to sink. Commander Kamaya of the Sado Maru ordered the crew to assemble on deck and the band was instructed to play the Japanese song, "With the life in hand." Thus the sinking of the enemy's vessel was duly respected

IN HAWAII

California Paper Which Describes the Production of lt.

The Chronicle says: E. G. Edwards has imported the vanilla plant into Hawaii; the enterprise has proved successful beyond his fondest anticipations; the department of chemistry at the University of California has analyzed the product and pronounced it fully as valuable commercially as the best product of Mexico (where the highest priced vanilla is grown); the success of Mr. Edwards has stirred a great interest in the new industry, and in the fall of this year he will sail to Fiji to fetch 100,000 cuttings of the vanilla plant back to Hawaii for the use of himself and of others who are to begin its culture. That is to say, in a region of Uncle Sam's dominions where crops that can be grown profitably are much needed, Mr. Edwards has introduced one that seems certain to be grown successfully, which is peculiarly a "small farmer's" erop, and which pays a good profit on the capital invested, which need not be much. All this is told by the vanilla pioneer from Hawaii, and his own words are best to tell the tale.

It may be said right here, however, that the vanilla is a very valuable product of the soil. The best varieties fetch, when ready for the market, as much as $20 a pound. The value of the vanilla beans imported by the United States during the last year was $1,436,000. The most of this came from Mexico. Now the American planter seems likely to have a chance to supply-in the course of time-the American market; and the birth of an important industry seems to have been born when this pioneer landed in Hawaii two years ago and saw a vanilla plant raised under grass. The idea occurred to him: perhaps it would grow outside of glass, in the interior. So he took a walk, as it were, into the interior. He came to Kona, a valley on the island of Hawaii, and there he found what he sought, a climate and a soil suitable for the growing of vanilla.

"I had long experience in the growgardens or conservatories as any exotic fore the pod matures. plant might be, but that was all. I had and bought some eleven thousand cuttings. Unfortunately, the steamship and tlanker are opened and the pods acreage. people put the plants in the hold, in- taken out, wiped clear of moisture, and stead of transporting them on deck, as had been agreed, with the disastrous consequence that twenty-five per cent of the cuttings died before the vessel reached Hawaii.

"This was the first time, by the way, to my knowledge, that vanilla cuttings have been transported. I had boxes in which one hundred cuttings each were HAWAII & SOUTH SEAS put, and left the ends of the boxes open for ventilation.

> "I had taken up two hundred acres in Kona. Now, although the cost of labor in Hawaii is high compared with that prevailing in other vanilla-producing countries, I estimate that when the vines are bearing fully the vanilla can be put upon the market at a cost of about $1.50 a pound. An acre will give from 250 to 300 pounds. This will give, and does give, a very handsome profit, as vanilla of the quality raised in Kona will fetch an average price of $5 a pound. The price, of course, fluctuates with the state of the market. The best Mexican product fetches from $4 to $20 a pound. The Mexican vanilla is the best. The plant is also grown in Bourbon, on the east coast of Africa, in the Seychelles islands, and there is a large quantity sent from Tahiti into the United States. This last, however, is of very inferior quality, and does not bring more than fifty cents a pound."

The method of cultivation of this newest erop to enrich soil in Uncle Sam's land is thus briefly described by Mr. Edwards: "When we clear the land in Kona we allow it to remain a few months to 'sweeten,' to get the benefit of air and sunshine. Then it is Don't drug yourself with poisons for 'lined.' The lines are drawn eight feet apart, and in these lines the cuttings are planted five feet apart, which allows of about 1000 plants to the acre.

"The vines begin to bear about twelve months after being planted, but we find that it is not advisable to marry the plants in the first year, as to do so would impoverish the vines. |

er districts like that in the islands?"

As a matter of fact, while the figures in other school districts may not be so large, it is a fact that the proportion of children of foreigners in the schools of the Territory is startling. This must be true, almost of necessity, in a community of such mixed population as Hawaii. In the general school classification, given out by the school department, where the distinction is not made altogether according to nationality, the figures show that there are 3882 white children enrolled in the public schools against 2938 Japanese and 1353 Chinese. In the general enrollment there are 4148 Hawaiians and 2331 part Hawaiians. But in this enrollment, as also in that of Ewa, the Hawaiians and part Hawiians are Americans just as much as the one probably white child who is so classed. That is, their parents are American citizens as much as the parents of the one child. However, it might be difficult to make a mainland Senator entertain a proper appreciation of that

At all events, the Senator to whom the Ewa figures were shown studied some members of the party down to them most attentively. Then he said: "If you were to reverse these figures, went might be advised concerning making all the other children Amerwhat they would see, figures were ob- ican and the one American foreign, being school statistics. PROFESSOR J. E. DUERDEN ON HAWAIIAN ZOOLOGY

Last year Professor J. E. Duerden spent several months in Honolulu, studying and collecting the live corals of Hawaii, under the auspices of the Carnegie Institute. Professor Duerden was then connected with the University of Michigan. He is now located at the Rhodes University College at Grahamstown, Cape Colony. .

The June number of "Science," the organ of the American Association for the advancement of science, contains the following pleasant and appreciative notice of the Professor's sojourn in Honolulu:

MARINE ZOOLOGY IN THE HAWAHAN ISLANDS.

To the Editor of Science: At a time when zoologists are making their plans for summer vacation work it seems opportune to direct attention to the advantages offered even in such a distant territory as the Hawaiian Islands. During a visit to the islands last year, under the auspices of the Carnegie Institution, for the purpose of studying the living corals, I was afforded the privileges of the public aquarium recently established near Honolulu, and the directors of the institution desire it to be known that they will be prepared to accord a similar courtesy to other zoologists visiting the islands for purposes of research.

The aquarium is a modest structure, erected a little over a year ago, and is under the control of the Rapid Transit Company, though the funds were largely provided by the generosity of different gentlemen interested in the welfare of the islands. It is most advantageously situated at Waikiki Beach, a suburb of Honolulu, and the signcent coral flats constitute most favorable collecting ground. Though no special appliances beyond exhibition and experimental tanks are available, yet the advantages of these and a constant supply of sea-water appeal to any student desirous of carrying out investigations on living forms. Moreover, with a generosity which is very praiseworthy, the directors are prepared to make whatever reasonable adaptations may be required.

Our knowledge of the marine fauna of the Hawaiian Islands is becoming rapidly extended, mainly through the reports on the collections made by the U. S. Fishery Bureau, under the direction of President D. S. Jordan, during two successive seasons, 1901 and 1902. The large addition to the number of species of fishes alone shows how very desirable was such faunistic work, and other groups are yielding a corresponding number of new torms. The physical conditions of the coral reefs have been studied in part by Professor A. Agassiz. Though the luxuriance of the life on the reefs does not equal that in the more distant Tahiti, Samoa, or the Philippine Islands, yet there is sufficient, particularly in such places as Kaneohe Bay, to satisfy the most ardent investigator.

For the student of terrestrial forms the islands are particularly interesting on account of the influence of introduced animals and plants upon an indigenous fauna and flora. Representatives from the east and from the west, from temperate and from tropical regions, here flourish, and against the pests a strong corps of entomologists is engaged in further introduction of possible remedial forms. The fact that the land shells of the islands served to supply the Rev. J. T. Guliek with material for the theory of isolation adds an interest to the evolutionary biologist. The ethnology and various departments of natural history are well cared for by Professor T. H. Brigham, of the Bishop Museum, and his staff of assistants.

As a last word of attraction regarding the situation of the aquarium one may quote from the "Report on Collections of Fishes made in the Hawaiian Islands' by Professor O. P. Jenkins:

"Of all situations about the island of Oahu, the submerged reef which extends from the entrance of the harbor of Honolulu to some distance past Waikiki furnishes the most prolific supply of fishes, both as to number of species and amount of the catch. This reef at low water is from a few inches to a few feet under water and extends from one mile to two or three miles from the shore, where the water abruptly reaches great depths. Over the surface and along the bluff of this reef may be found representatives of most of the shore fauna of the Hawaiian Islands. This reef, so favorably Also situated, so accessible, and so rich in material, can not fail to be of increasing interest to naturalists who may have the good fortune to devote themselves to the study of its wonderful life."

WALL, NICHOLS CO., Ltd.

Accused Circuit Court Clerk is Now Out On Bail.

P. Danson Kellett, late deputy clerk of the Circuit Court, charged with the misappropriation of trust funds and liable to be charged with several other things in addition to that, is out on $2500 bail with his father, P. D. Kellett, Sr., and C. B. Dwight as his sureties, and his preliminary ex. amination was yesterday put over by Judge Robinson, sitting as a committing magistrate, until next Monday ney Douthitt is prosecuting Kellett, and the accused man is represented by J. A. Magoon.

In the meantime, the investigation into the affairs of Kellett is being continued by the authorities. It seems now that Kellett began to run short in his accounts with the estates which represented as long ago as April, 1903. Among the estates in which he had failed to pay out money as administrator was that of Keauolani. This estate has long been closed up, so far as the courts are concerned, and yet the sum of $10.25 is still due on an advertising account for the estate. This sum was included in the final account of Kellett's charges against the estate, and yet there is no voucher to show that the account was paid. And, in fact, it is said to be still unpaid, although Kellett collected for it from the estate.

There are a great many other cases of the same kind, it is thought, that will be shown when all the bills come in. Yesterday Judge De Bolt express. ed the greatest surprise at the downfall of Kellett. "It would be impossible to get a successor in whom I could have had more confidence," the judge is reported to have said. "Mr. Kellett was apparently as faithful and reliable a clerk as could be secured. He was very attentive to his duties, and always ready with court work. No clerk could possibly have kept Meets every SATURDAY evening at things in better shape than he did, and 200 p. m., in Harmony Hall, King I thought his financial affairs were in good shape, too.'

In fact, there was considerable surprise at the fall of Kellett, not only in court circles, but all over town. And, among other comment upon it, was a very general condemnation of the common court practice of making clerks administrators and trustees of

"Those men are paid for their time by the territory," said Acting Governor Atkinson, "and should give their time for their pay.'

It is felt, indeed, that giving the clerks these outside matters to handle not only detracts from their value to the court, but places before them temptations to which it is not right that they should be exposed. The ad. ministration could be handled much better by responsible outsiders, by an elected official, and judges would be sonth, at 7:30 o'clock, in Masonic more apt to be strict with men with whom they were not thrown into daily association. There is no such practice,

DONE BY TRYING.

Nobody can tell what he can do till he tries. When a thing ought to be done the modern spirit moves us to keep working away at it until it is done. In the face of this idea the "impossible" vanishes. Where there's a will, there's a way. "If we could but rob cod liver oil of its sickening taste and smell and then combine it with two or three other ingredients we should possess the best remedy in the world for certain diseases that are now practically incurable." So said a famous English physician twenty-five years ago. "But it will never be done," he added. "You can no more turn cod liver oil into a palatable medicine, than you can turn the Codfish itself into a Bird of Paradise." Yet he lived to admit that in WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the "impossible" had been ac-complished. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This remedy is freed from the bad peculiarities Dr. Frothingham so detested, and it is precisely the splendid medicine he wished for. Use it freely and confidently for Hysteria, Wasting Complaints, Anemia, Blood Impurities, Asthma, and Throat and Lung Troubles. Dr. W. H. B. Aikins, Physician to Toronto General Hospital, says: "I am much pleased to state that the results from using Wampole's Preparation of Cod Liver Oil have been uniformly satisfactory; it appealed to me as being prepared according to correct scientific principles." It increases the appetite and influences the digestion of food; it is aclicious to take, will not disappoint you, and is effective from the first dose. One bot-

The next term of the Circuit Court will be the first term under the county. The calendar is now being prepared by Judge Lindsay, who will have harge of criminal matters, and who will have the grand jury. The term will be begun on the first Monday in September, and will be carried on under the old jury law. County Attorney Douthitt will prosecute all criminal cases. The civil calendar will be divided between De Bolt and Robinson. both of whom will have trial juries. It is expected that at this term, which will be a long one, lasting until the end of the year, the validity of the jury law may be tested.

TAX APPEAL CASES.

The tax appeal of the Honolulu Iron Works, one of the largest filed this year, has been withdrawn and settled. The Iron Works appealed from an assessment of $982,672, claiming that the property was only worth $700,000. The settlement is on a basis of $850,000 valuation. Two other cases have also been settled, namely that of the Waianae Company, which appealed from an assessment of $72,000 on property which is claimed was not assessable at all. morning at 10 o'clock. County Attor- It has withdrawn the appeal, having plaintiff yesterday that on that day been advised that the assessment was the child and his mother were riding proper. Similar action was taken by J. COURT NOTES.

In the United States District Court yesterday Thomas Milner Harrison, a native of Canada, was made a citizen of the United States.

John Baker and his belt buckle were on the stand in the Parker ranch case yesterday, the cross-examination of Baker being concluded at noon. Baker left for Hawaii on the Kinau, wearing the belt buckle. The Partier case itself has been adjourned by J Jge Lindsay for three weeks, as the judge and the attorneys and the litigants and wit. nesses all thought themselves entitled to a short vacation.

Judge De Bolt yesterday overruled the demurrer to the plea in abatement in the case of the application of James Love for an allowance of $600 out of Judge Lindsay will leave for Kauai on Thursday evening. He expects to be away about three weeks.

Jap Wants $15,000 for the Death of His Son.

Suit has been commenced against the Rapid Transit & Land Company by Omoto Bunhichi for fifteen thousand dollars damages because of the death of Omoto Kyofu, a minor nine years of age, the son of the plaintiff, alleged to have been due to the carelessness of the agents of defendant.

The boy met his death on the first day of June of the present year. It is alleged in the complaint filed by on a Rapid Transit car, on the way to Waialae, and that they arrived safely at the junction of King and Alexander streets, where they were compelled by the rules of the company to change cars. It is alleged further that the boy did change to the Watalae car, but that because of the car 000 starting suddenly he fell from the Waialae car to the ground, and was run over and killed by a car of the King street line.

There are the allegations of careessness usual in the papers of this kind, and at the end the plaintiff, asks for $15,000 damages, and costs of .000 court.

The steamer Mauna Loa returned from her regular run yesterday morning. On the outward trip she encountered the roughest weather experienced by inter-island boats in many years. Purser Conkling's report follows:

"On outward trip we experienced the roughest weather known in years. Along Kona the weather was fine with frequent showers. On arrival in Kau the sea and wind abated greatly. This lasted during our stay there. On the way home had fine weather. Pahala started grinding Monday and will give us a couple of thousand bags of sugar next trip. We will have no sugar from Honuapo. Grinding will begin there about August 15. The Volcano is

"Cargo: 1545 bags sugar, 32 head of cattle, 800 cases of pineapples, 68 pigs. 65 bunches bananas, 27 bales hides and still very active. Returning tourists

give glowing descriptions of the lake of lava and spouting cones.

HANALEI NOT SOLD.

The Inter-Island steamer Hanalel which has been laid up at San Francisco for the past year awaiting a purchaser, has been withdrawn from the market according to recent re-

The Hanalei is one of the largest cargo boats owned by the local company, and with the amount of sugar produced here, constantly increasing, good use may be found for the steamer in the future. Anyway for the present the Hanalei has been withrawn from the market.
